¶ Note that the supputation of the yeere of our Lord, in the Church of England, beginneth the xxv.day of March, the same day supposed to be the first day vpon which the world was created, and the day when Christ was conceiued in the wombe of the virgine Marie.

The order hovve the reſt of holy Scripture (beſide the Pſalter) is appoynted to be read.

THE olde Teſtament is appoynted for the firſt Leſſons at Morning and Euening prayer, and ſhall be read through euery yere once, except certayne bookes and chapters, which be leaſt edifying, and might beſt be ſpared, and therefore are left vnread.

The newe Teſtament is appointed for the ſecond Leſſons at Morning and Euenyng praier, and ſhall be read ouer orderly euery yeere thriſe beſide the Epiſtles & Goſpels: except the Apocalypſe, out of the which there be only certaine Leſſons appointed vpon diuers proper feaſtes.

And to knowe what leſſons ſhalbe read euerie day, finde the day of the Moneth in the Kalender folowing, and there ye ſhall perceiue the bookes & Chapters that ſhalbe read for the Leſſons both at Morning and Euening praier.

And here is to be noted, that whenſoeuer there be any proper Pſalmes or leſſons appointed for the ſundaies, or for any feaſt, moueable or vnmoueable: then the Pſalmes and leſſons appoynted in the Kalender, ſhalbe omitted for that time.

Ye muſt note alſo, that the Collect, Epiſtle and Goſpel, appointed for the Sunday, ſhall ſerue all the weeke after, except there fall ſome feaſt that hath his proper.

When the yeeres of our Lorde may be deuided into foure euen partes, which is euerie fourth yeere: then the Sunday letter leapeth, and that yere the Pſalmes & Leſſons which ſerue for the xxiii. day of Februarie, ſhalbe read againe the day following, except it be ſunday, which hath proper leſſons of the olde Teſtament, appointed in the table ſeruing to that purpoſe.

Alſo, whereſoeuer the beginning of any leſſon, Epiſtle, or Goſpel is not expreſſed, there ye muſt beginne at the beginning of the Chapter.

And whereſoeuer is not expreſſed how farre ſhall be read, there ſhall you reede to the ende of the Chapter.

Item, ſo oft as the firſt Chapter of Saint Mathewe is read either for Leſſon or Goſpel, ye ſhall begin the ſame at (The birthe of Jeſus Chriſt was on this wiſe. &c.) And the third Chapter of S. Lukes Goſpel, ſhalbe read vnto (So that he was ſuppoſed to be the ſonne of Joſeph. &c.)

Proper Lessons to be read for the first Lessons both at Morning and Euening prayer, on the Sundayes throughout the yeere, and for some also the second Lessons.

Morning and Euening praier with the Collectes.

The order where Morning and Euening prayer ſhall be vſed and ſayde.

¶ The Morning and Euening prayer ſhall be vſed in the accuſtomed place of the Church, Chappel, or Chancell, except it ſhalbe otherwiſe determined by the Ordinarie of the place, and the Chancels ſhall remaine as they haue done in times paſt.

¶ And here is to be noted, that the Miniſter at the time of the Communion, and at all other times in his miniſtration, ſhal vſe ſuch ornamentes in the Church, as were in vſe by authoritie of Parliament in the ſeconde yeere of the raigne of King Edward the ſixth, according to the Act of Parliament ſet in the beginning of the Booke of Common prayer.

An order for Morning prayer dayly throughout the yeere.

¶ At the beginning both of Morning prayer, and likewiſe of Euening prayer, the Miniſter ſhall reade with a loude voyce ſome one of theſe ſentences of the Scriptures that follow: And then he ſhall ſay that which is written after the ſayde ſentences.

Ezech. xviii. AT * what time ſoeuer a ſinner doeth repent him of his ſinne from the bottome of his heart, I will put all his wickednelle out of my remembrãce, ſaith the Lord.

Pſalme li. * I doe knowe mine owne wickednes: and my ſinne is alway againſt me.

Pſalme li. * Turne thy face away from our ſinnes (O Lord) and blot out all our offences.

Pſalme li. * A ſorowfull ſpirite is a ſacrifice to God, deſpiſe not (O Lord) humble & contrite hearts.

Ioel ii. * Rent your hearts, & not your garmẽts, and turne to the Lorde your God: becauſe he is gentle and mercifull, hee is patient, and of much mercy, and ſuch a one that is ſorry for your afflictions.

Daniel ix. * To thee (O Lord God) belongeth mercy & forgiuenelle, for wee haue gone away from thee, and haue not hearkened to thy voyce, whereby we might walke in thy lawes which thou haſt appoynted for vs.

Ieremie x. * Correct vs, O Lorde, and yet in thy iudgement: not in thy furie, leaſt we ſhoulde be conſumed, and brought to nothing.

Matthaue iii. * Amende your liues, for the kingdome of God is at hand.

Luke xv. * I will goe to my father, and ſay to him, Father, I haue ſinned againſt heauen, and againſt thee, I am no more worthy to bee called thy ſonne.

Pſalme cxliii. * Enter not into iudgement with thy ſeruantes, O Lord: for no fleſh is righteous in thy ſight.

1. Iohn i. * If we ſay that we haue no ſinne, we deceiue our ſelues, and there is no trueth in vs.

DEarely beloued brethren, the Scripture moueth vs in ſundry places, to acknowledge and confeſſe our manifolde ſinnes and wickednelle, and that wee ſhoulde not diſſemble nor cloke them before the face of Almightie God our heauenly Father, but confeſſe them with an humble, lowly, penitent, and obedient heart, to the end that we may obtaine forgiuenelle of the ſame, by his infinite goodneſſe and mercy. And although wee ought at all times humbly to acknowledge our sinnes before God, yet ought wee most chiefly so to doe, when we assemble and meete together, to render thankes for the great benefites that we haue receiued at his handes, to set forth his most worthie prayse, to heare his most holy worde, and to aske those things which bee requisite and necessary, as well for the body as the soule. Wherefore I pray and beseech you, as many as be here present, to accompanie me with a pure heart and humble voyce, vnto the throne of the heauenly grace, saying after me.

ALmightie and most mercifull Father, we haue erred and strayed from thy wayes like lost sheepe. Wee haue followed too much the deuises and desires of our owne hearts, we haue offended against thy holy lawes. Wee haue left vndone those things which wee ought to haue done, and wee haue done those things which wee ought not to haue done, and there is no health in vs, but thou, O Lorde, haue mercie vpon vs miserable offendours. Spare thou them, O God, which confesse their faultes. Restore thou them that bee penitent, according to thy promises declared vnto mankinde in Christ Jesu our Lord: and graunt, O most mercifull Father, for his sake, that we may hereafter liue a godly, righteous, and sober life, to the glory of thy holy name. Amen.

¶ The absolution to be pronounced by the Minister alone.

ALmightie God, the Father of our Lorde Jesus Christ, which desireth not the death of a sinner, but rather that he may turne from his wickednesse and liue, and hath giuen power and commandement to his ministers, to declare and pronounce to his people, being penitent, the absolution and remission of their sinnes, hee pardoneth and absolueth all them which truely repent, and vnfeinedly beleeue his holy Gospel. Wherefore wee beseech him to graunt vs true repentance and his holy Spirite, that those things may please him which wee doe at this present, and that the rest of our life hereafter may bee pure and holy, so that at the last wee may come to his eternall ioy, through Jesus Christ our Lord.

The people shall answere.

Amen.

¶ Then shall the Minister begin the Lords prayer with a loude voyce.

OUr Father which art in heaue, halowed be thy name. Thy kingdome come. Thy will be done in earth, as it is in heauen. Giue vs this day our dayly bread. And forgiue vs our trespasses, as wee forgiue them that trespasse against vs. And leade vs not into temptation. But deliuer vs from euill. Amen.

¶ Then likewise he shall say.

O Lord open thou our lippes.

Answere.

And our mouth shall shewe forth thy prayse.

Priest.

O God make speede to saue vs.

Answere.

O Lorde make haste to helpe vs.

Priest.

Glory be to the Father, and to the &c.

As it was in the beginning &c.

Prayse ye the Lord.

¶ Then shall bee sayde or sung this Psalme following.

OCome, let vs sing vnto the Lorde: let vs heartily reioyce in the strength of our saluation. Venite, exultemus. Psalm. 95.

Let vs come before his presence with thankesgiuing: and shew our selues glad in him with Psalmes.

For the Lorde is a great God: and a great King aboue all gods.

In his hand are all the corners of the earth: and the strength of the hilles is his also.

The sea is his, and he made it: and his handes prepared the drye land.

O come, let vs worship and fall downe: and kneele before the Lord our maker.

For hee is the Lorde our God: and wee are the people of his pasture, and the sheepe of his handes.

To daye if yee will heare his voyce, harden not your heartes: as in the prouocation, and as in the day of temptation in the wildernesse.

When your fathers tempted me: proued me, and sawe my workes.

Fourtie yeres long was I grieued with this generation, and sayde: It is a people that doe erre in their hearts, for they haue not knowen my wayes.

Unto whome I sware in my wrath: that they should not enter into my rest.

Glory be to the father, and to the &c.

As it was in the beginning &c.

¶ Then shall followe certayne Psalmes in order, as they be appoynted in a Table made for that purpose: except there bee proper Psalmes appoynted for that day. And at the ende of euery Psalme throughout the yeere, and likewise in the ende of Benedictus, Benedicite, Magnificat, and Nunc dimittis, shalbe repeated:

Glorie bee to the Father, and to the Sonne: and to the holy Ghost.

As it was in the beginning, is now, and euer shalbe: world without ende. Amen.

¶ Then shall bee read two Lessons distinctly with a loude voyce, that the people may heare. The first of the olde Testament, the second of the Newe, like as they be appoynted by the Kalender, except there bee proper Lessons assigned for that day: the Minister that readeth the Lesson, standing and turning him so, as hee may best bee heard of all such as be present. And before euery Lesson, the Minister shall say thus, The first, second, third, or fourth Chapter of Genesis, or Exodus, Matthewe, Marke, or other like, as is appoynted in the Kalender. And in the ende of euery Chapter, he shall say.

Here endeth such a Chapter, of such a Booke.

¶ And (to the ende the people may the better heare) in such places where they doe sing, there shall the Lessons bee sung in a playne tune, after the maner of distinct reading: and likewise the Epistle and Gospel.

¶ After the first Lesson, shall followe Te deum laudamus, in English, daily through ỹ whole yeere.

Thou sittest on the right hande of God: in the glory of the Father.

BLeſſed be the Lord God of Iſrael: for hee hath viſited and redeemed his people.

And hath rayſed vp a mightie ſaluation for vs: in the houſe of his ſeruant Dauid.

As hee ſpake by the mouth of his holie Prophets: which haue bene ſince the worlde beganne.

That we ſhoulde be ſaued from our enemies: and from the hands of all that hate vs.

To performe the othe which hee ſware to our forefather Abraham: that hee woulde giue vs.

That wee being deliuered out of the handes of our enemies: might ſerue him without feare.

In holineſſe and righteouſneſſe before him: al the dayes of our life.

And thou childe ſhalt bee called the Prophet of the higheſt: for thou ſhalt go before the face of the Lord, to prepare his wayes.

Be ye ſure that the Lorde he is God: it is hee that hath made vs, and not wee our ſelues, we are his people, and the ſheepe of his paſture.

I beleeue in the holy Ghoſt, the holy Catholique Church, the Communion of Saintes, the forgiueneſſe of ſinnes, the reſurrection of the body, and the life euelaſting. Amen.

MY ſoule doeth magnifie the Lorde: and my ſpirit hath reioyced in God my Sauiour. M. Li

For hee hath regarded: the lowlineſſe of his handmayden.

For beholde from henceforth: all generations ſhall call me bleſſed.

For hee that is mightie hath magnified mee: and holy is his name.

And his mercie is on them that feare him: throughout all generations.

He hath ſhewed ſtrength with his arme: hee hath ſcattered the proude in the imagination of their hearts.

Hee hath put downe the mightie from their ſeate: and hath exalted the humble and meeke.

He hath filled the hungry with good things: and the rich he hath ſent emptie away.

Hee remembring his mercie, hath holpen his ſeruãt Iſrael: as he promiſed to our forefathers, Abraham and his ſeede for euer.

He hath remembred his mercie and truth toward the houſe of Iſrael: all the ende of the worlde haue ſeene the ſaluation of our God.

Shewe your selues ioyfull vnto the Lord, all ye lands: sing, reioyce, and giue thankes.

Prayse the Lord vpon the Harpe: sing to the Harpe with a Psalme of thankes giuing.

Let the sea make a noyse, and all that therein is: the rounde worlde, and they that dwell therein.

¶ Then shall followe the Creede, with other prayers, as is before appoynted at Morning prayer after Benedictus, and with three Collectes. First, of the day. Seconde, of peace. Third, for ayde against all perils, as hereafter followeth, which two last Collectes shall be daily sayd at Euening prayer, without alteration.

OGod, from whome all holy desires, all good counselles, and all iust woorkes doe proceede, giue vnto thy seruantes that peace which the worlde can not giue: that both our hearts may be set to obey thy commandementes, and also that by thee, wee being defended from the feare of our enemies, may passe our time in rest and quietnesse, through the merits of Iesus Christ our Sauiour. Amen.

¶ The third Collect for ayde against all perils.

LIghten our darkenesse we beseech thee, O Lorde, and by thy great mercie defende vs from all perils and dangers of this night, for the loue of thy only sonne our Sauiour Iesus Christ. Amen.

¶ In the feastes of Christmas, the Epiphanie, Saint Matthias, Easter, the Ascention, Pentecost, Saint Iohn Baptist, Saint Iames, Saint Bartholomewe, Saint Matthewe, Saint Simon and Iude, Saint Andrewe, and Trinitie Sunday, shall be sung or sayde immediatly after Benedictus, this confession of our Christian faith.

Quicunque vult

WHosoeuer will bee saued: before all things it is necessarie that hee holde the Catholique faith.

Which faith except euery one doe keepe holy and vndefiled: without doubt he shall perish euerlastingly.

And the Catholique faith is this: that wee worship one God in Trinitie, and Trinitie in vnitie.

Neither confounding the persons: nor diuiding the substance.

For there is one person of the father, another of the sonne: and another of the holy Ghost.

But the Godhead of the Father, of ỹ Sonne, and of the holy Ghost is all one: the glory equal, the maiestie coeternall.

Such as the Father is, such is the Sonne: and such is the holy Ghost.

The Father vncreate, the Sonne vncreate: and the holy Ghost vncreate.

The Father incomprehensible, the Sonne incomprehensible: and the holy Ghost incomprehensible.

The Father eternall, the Sonne eternal: and the holy Ghost eternall.

And yet they are not three eternals: but one eternall.

As also there be not three incomprehensibles, nor three vncreated: but one vncreated, and one incomprehensible.

So likewise the Father is Almightie, the Sonne Almightie: and the holy Ghost Almightie.

And

And yet are they not three Almighties: but one Almightie.

So the Father is God, the Sonne is God: and the holy Ghost is God.

And yet they are not three Gods: but one God.

So likewise the Father is Lord, the Sonne Lord: and the holy Ghost Lorde.

And yet not three Lords: but one Lord.

For like as we be compelled by the Christian veritie: to acknowledge euery person by him selfe to be God and Lord.

So are we forbidden by the Catholique religion: to say there be three Gods, or three Lords.

The Father is made of none: neyther created, nor begotten.

The Sonne is of the Father alone: not made, nor created, but begotten.

The holy Ghost is of the Father, and of the Sonne: neither made, nor created, nor begotten, but proceeding.

So there is one Father, not three Fathers, one Sonne, not three Sonnes: one holy Ghost, not three holy Ghostes.

And in this Trinitie none is afore or after other: none is greater or lesse then another.

But the whole three persons, be coeternall together: and coequall.

So that in all things, as is aforesayde: the Unitie in Trinitie, and the Trinitie in Unitie is to be worshipped.

He therefore that will be saued: must thus thinke of the Trinitie.

Furthermore, it is necessarie to euerlasting saluation: that he also beleeue rightly in the incarnation of our Lord Jesus Christ.

For the right faith is, that we beleeue and confesse: that our Lord Jesus Christ, the Sonne of God, is God and man.

God, of the substance of the Father, begotten before the worldes: and man of the substance of his mother, borne in the worlde.

Perfite God and perfite man: of a reasonable soule, and humane flesh subsisting.

Equall to the Father as touching his Godhead: and inferiour to the Father touching his manhood.

Who although he be God and man: yet he is not two, but one Christ.

One, not by conuersion of the Godhead into flesh: but by taking of the manhood into God.

One altogether, not by confusion of substãce: but by vnitie of person.

For as the reasonable soule and flesh is one man: so God and man is one Christ.

Who suffered for our saluation, descended into hell: rose againe the third day from the dead.

He ascended into heauen, he sitteth on the right hand of the Father, God Almightie: from whence he shall come to iudge the quicke and the dead.

At whose comming all men shall rise againe with their bodies: and shal giue account for their owne workes.

And they that haue done good, shall goe into life euerlasting: and they that haue done euill, into euerlasting fire.

This is the Catholique faith: which except a man beleeue faithfully, he can not be saued.

Glory be to the Father, and to the, &c.

As it was in the beginning, &c.

Thus endeth the order of Morning and Euening prayer, through the whole yeere.

Here foloweth the Letanie, to be vsed vpon Sundayes, Wednesdayes, and Frydayes, and at other times, when it shalbe commanded by the Ordinarie.

O God the father of heauen: haue mercy vpon vs miserable sinners.

O God the father of heauen: haue mercie vpon vs miserarable sinners.

O God the Sonne redeemer of the worlde: haue mercie vpon vs miserable sinners.

O God the Sonne redeemer, &c.

O God the holy Ghost proceeding from the Father and the Sonne: haue mercie vpon vs miserable sinners.

O God the holy Ghost, proceeding from the Father and the Sonne: haue mercie vpon vs miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, three persons and one God: haue mercie vpon vs miserable sinners.

O holy, blessed, and glorious Trinitie, &c.

Remember not Lorde our offences, nor the offences of our forefathers, neyther take thou vengeance of our sinnes: spare vs good Lorde, spare thy people whom thou hast redeemed with thy most precious blood, and be not angry with vs for euer.

Spare vs good Lord.

From all euil and mischiefe, from sinne, from the craftes and assaultes of the deuill, from thy wrath, and from euerlasting damnation.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

From all blindenesse of heart, from pride, vaine glory, and hypocrisie, from enuie, hatred, &

Good Lord deliuer vs.

From lightning and tempest, from plague, pestilence, and famine, from battel, and murther, and from sudden death.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

From al sedition and priuie conspiracie, from all false doctrine and heresie, from hardnesse of heart, and contempt of thy worde and commandement.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

By the mysterie of thy holy incarnation, by thy holy natiuitie and circumcision, by thy baptisme, fasting, and temptation.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

By thine agonie and bloody sweate, by thy crosse and passion, by thy precious death and burial, by thy glorious resurrection and ascension, and by the comming of the holy Ghost.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

In all time of our tribulation, in all time of our wealth, in the houre of death, and in the day of iudgement.

Good Lord deliuer vs.

We sinners doe beseech thee to heare vs (O Lorde God) and that it may please thee to rule and gouerne thy holy Church vniuersally in the right way.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to keepe and strengthen in the true worshipping of thee, in righteousnesse and holinesse of life, thy seruant Elizabeth, our most gracious Queene & gouernour.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to rule her heart in thy faith, feare, and loue, and that shee may euermore haue affiance in thee, and euer seeke thy honour and glory.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to be her defender and keeper, giuing her the victorie ouer all her enemies.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to illuminate all Bishops, Pastours, and Ministers of the Church, with true knowledge and vnderstanding of thy worde, and that both by their preaching and liuing, they may set it forth, and shewe it accordingly.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to endue the lordes of the counsel, and all the Nobilitie, with grace, wisedome, and vnderstanding.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keepe the magistrates, giuing them grace to execute iustice, and to maintaine truth.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to bless and keepe all thy people.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

That it may please thee to giue to al nations vnitie, peace, and concord.

We beseech thee to heare vs good Lord.

¶ For fayre weather.

O Lorde God, which for the sinne of man diddest once drowne all the world, except eight persons, & afterwarde of thy great mercy diddest promise neuer to destroy it so againe: We humbly beseeche thee, that although we for our iniquities haue worthily deserued this plague of raine and waters, yet vpon our true repentance, thou wilt send vs such weather, whereby we may receyue the fruites of the earth in due season, and learne both by thy punishment to amende our liues, & for thy clemencie to giue thee prayse and glory, through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

¶ In the time of dearth or famine.

O God heauenly father, whose gift it is that the rayne doeth fall, the earth is fruitfull, beastes increase, and fishes doe multiplie: beholde, we beseech thee, the afflictions of thy people, and grant that the scarsitie and dearth (which we doe nowe most iustly suffer for our iniquitie) may through thy goodnesse be mercifully turned into cheapenesse and plentie, for the loue of Jesu Christ our Lorde, to whome with thee and the holy Ghost, be prayse for euer. Amen.

¶ In the time of warre.

O Almightie God, king of all kings, and gouernour of all things, whose power no creature is able to resist, to whome it belongeth iustly to punish sinners, and to be mercifull vnto them that truely repent: Saue and deliuer vs (we humbly beseeche thee) from the hands of our enemies, abate their pride, asswage their malice, and confounde their deuices, that we being armed with thy defence, may be preserued euermore from all perils, to glorifie thee which art the onely giuer of all victorie, through the merites of thy onely sonne Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Almightie God, which in thy wrath, in the time of king Dauid, diddest slay with the plague of pestilence three score and tenne thousand, and yet remembring thy mercy, diddest saue the rest: haue pitie vpon vs miserable sinners, that nowe are visited with great sickenesse and mortalitie, that like as thou diddest thē command thine Angel to cease from punishing: so it may nowe please thee to withdrawe from vs this plague and grieuous sickenesse, through Jesus Christ our Lorde. Amen.

O God, whose nature and propertie is euer to haue mercie & to forgiue, receiue our humble petitions: and though wee be tyed and bounde with the chayne of our sinnes, yet let the pitifulnesse of thy great mercie loose vs, for the honour of Jesus Christes sake, our mediatour and aduocate. Amen.

The ende of the Collectes.

The whole Scripture of the Bible is diuided into two Testamentes, the olde Testament and the Newe, which booke is of diuers natures, some Legall, some Historicall, some Sapientiall, and some Propheticall. The olde teacheth by figures and ceremonies, that the lawe was giuen terribly in lightning and thundering, to induce the people to the obseruance thereof by feare. The newe Testament came in more gloriously with the gentle name of the Gospel, and good tidings, to induce men to obserue it by loue.

God of my Fathers, and Lorde of mercies (thou that haſt made all things with thy woorde, and diddeſt ordeine man through thy wiſedome, that he ſhoulde haue dominion ouer thy creatures which thou haſt made, and that he ſhould order the world according to holineſſe and righteouſneſſe, and that hee ſhoulde execute iudgement with a true heart) giue me wiſedome, which is euer about thy ſeate, and put mee not out from among thy children: For I thy ſeruaunt, and ſonne of thy handmaiden am a feeble perſon, of a ſhort time, and too weake to the vnderſtanding of thy iudgements and Lawes. And though a man be neuer ſo perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wiſedome bee not with him, hee ſhalbe of no value. O ſende her out therefore from thy holy Heauens, and from the throne of thy Maieſtie, that ſhe may be with me, and labour with me, that I may know what is acceptable in thy ſight: for ſhe knoweth and vnderſtandeth all things, and ſhee ſhall leade mee ſoberly in my woorkes, and preſerue me in her power: So ſhall my woorkes bee acceptable by Chriſt our Lorde, to whom with the Father and the holy Ghoſt, be all honour and glorie, worlde without end. Amen.

The first booke of Moses, called in Hebrewe [a] Bereschith, and in Greeke [b] Genesis.

a That is, in the beginning.

b That is, generation, or creation.

The first Chapter.

1 How heauen and earth, 3 the light, 6 the firmament, 16 the sunne, the moone, the starres, 21 and fishes in the sea, 24 and all beasts, and foules, were made by the worde of God, 26 and how man also was created.

Acts.14.15.

1 IN * the beginning God created heauen and earth.

2 And the earth was [a] wout forme, and was voide: and darknes [was] vpon the face of the deepe, & the [b] spirit of God moued vpon the face of the waters.

a Although the workes of God, both in the creation, & in his spirituall operation in mã, seeme rude and imperfect at the first: yet God by the working of his holy spirite, bringeth all things to a perfection at the ende.

b The confused heape of heauen & earth was imperfect and darke, and yet not vtterly dead, but was endued with the power and strength of Gods spirite, and so made liuely, to continue vnto the worldes ende. Heb.11.3. Psalme 32.6.

3 And God said, *Let there be light: & there was light.

The second day.

4 And God sawe the light that it was good: & God deuided the light from the darkenes.

5 And God called the light, Day, & the darknesse, Night: and the euening and the morning were the first day.

6 *And God sayd, Let there be a ‡ firmament betweene the waters, and let it make a diuision betweene waters and waters.

7 And God made the firmament, and set a diuision betweene the waters which [were] vnder the [c] firmament, and the waters that were aboue the firmament: and it was so.

c As the sea & riuers, from those waters that are in the cloudes, which are vpholden by Gods power, least they should ouerwhelme the worlde.

8 And God called the firmament, Heauen: and the euening and the morning were the second day.

The third day. Psal.32.7.

9 And God sayd, *Let the waters vnder the heauen be gathered together into one place, and let the drie lande appeare: and it was so.

10 And God called the drie land the earth, and the gathering together of waters called he the Seas: and God sawe that it was good.

11 And God said, Let the earth bring forth bud and greene herbe apt to seede, and fruitefull trees, yeelding fruite after his kinde, which hath seede in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

12 And the earth brought foorth greene herbe apt to seede after his kinde, and tree yeelding fruite, which had seede in it selfe after his kinde.

13 And God sawe that it was good. And the euening & the morning were the thirde day.

The fourth day. Psalme 36.7.

14 And God sayde, Let there bee *lightes in the firmament of heauen, that they may deuide the day and the night, and let them be *for [d] signes, and seasons, and for dayes, and yeeres.

Deut.4.19.

d These lights were not made to serue Astronomers phantasies, but for signes in naturall things, and tokens of Gods mercy or wrath.

15 And let them bee for lightes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may giue light vpon the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lightes: a great light to rule the day, and a lesse light to rule the night, and [he made] starres also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, to shine vpon the earth, 18 And to rule the day and night, and to make difference betweene the light and the darkenesse: and God sawe that it was good.

19 And the euening & the morning were the fourth day.

The fifth day. Gen.1.47.

20 And God said, *Let the waters bring forth [c] moouing creature that hath life, and foule that may flie vpon the earth in the open firmament of heauen.

c As fish and wormes, which glide, swimme, or creepe.

21 And God created great Whales, & euery liuing and mouing creature, which the waters brought forth after their kinde, and euery feathered foule after their kinde: and God sawe that it was good.

22 And God [f] blessed them, saying, Be fruitefull, and multiplie, and fill the waters of the sea, and let foule multiplie in the earth.

f Blessing in Scripture signifieth abundance: that is, he gaue them fruitefulnesse by his worde.

23 And the euening & the morning were the fifth day.

The sixth day.

24 And God said, Let the earth bring forth liuing creature after his kinde, cattell, worme, and beastes of the earth after his kinde: and it was so.

25 God made the beast of the earth after his kinde, and cattell after his kinde, and euery thing that creepeth vpon the earth after his kinde: and God sawe that it was good.

26 God said, *Let vs g make mã in our image, after our likenesse, and let them haue rule of the fish of the sea, and of the foule of the ayre, and of cattell, and of all the earth, and of euery creeping thing that creepeth vpon the earth.

27 So God created man in his h owne image, in the image of God created he him, male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed them, and God said vnto them, Be fruitefull, and multiply, and replenish the earth, and subdue it, and haue dominion of the fish of the Sea, and foule of the ayre, and of euery liuing thing that moueth vpon the earth.

29 And God said, Beholde, I haue giuen you euery herbe bearing seede, which is in the vpper face of all the earth, and euery tree, in the which is the fruit of a tree, bearing seede, [that] they may be meate vnto you:

30 To euery beast of the earth also, and to euery birde of the ayre, and to euery such thing that creepeth vpon the earth, which ‡ doeth liue, I haue giuen euery greene herbe for meate: and it was so.

31 And God sawe euery thing that he had made: and beholde, it was exceeding good. And the euening and the morning were the sixth day.

Col. 3. 10.
g Moses speaketh in the plurall nũber, signifying no persons to be in God, & that the father in the creation of man, consulted with his wisedome & spirite.
h This image and likenesse of God in man is expounded, where it is written that mã was created after God, in righteousnesse and true holinesse, meaning by these two wordes, al perfection, as immortalitie, wisdom, truth, innocencie, power, &c.
‡ Heb. hath a liuing soule.

The ij. Chapter.

3 The halowing of the Sabboth day. 17 The tree of knowledge is forbidden. 19 Adam nameth all creatures. 22 Heua is created, 23 And marriage is ordeined.

1 THus the heauens and the earth were finished, and all the a hoste of them.

2 And in the seuenth day, God b ended his worke which he had made. And the seuenth day he *rested from all his worke which he had made.

3 And God blessed the seuenth day, and sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his worke, which God ordeined to make.

4 These are the generations of the heauens, and of the earth, when they were created, in the day when the Lorde God made the earth and the heauens,

5 And euery plant of the fielde, before it was in the earth, and euery herbe of the fielde before it grew: For the Lord God had not [yet] caused it to raine vpõ the earth, neither [was there] a man to till the ground.

6 But there went vp a mist from the earth, and watered the whole face of the grounde.

7 The Lord God also did shape man c of the dust of the grounde, and breathed into his nosethrilles the breath of life, *and man was a liuing soule.

8 And the Lorde God planted a ‖ garden Eastward in Eden, and there he put the man whome he had shapen.

9 Moreouer, out of the ground made the Lord God to growe euery tree that was fayre to sight, and pleasant to eate: The tree of d life in the middest of the garden, and the tree of e knowledge of good and euill.

10 And out of Eden there went foorth a flood to water the garden, and from thence it was deuided, and became into foure heads.

11 The name of the first is *Pison, the same is it that compasseth the whole land of f Hauilah, where there is golde:

12 And ỹ gold of the land is very good. There is also Bdellium, and the Onix stone.

13 The name of the second riuer is Gyhon: the same is it that compasseth the whole land of g Ethiopia.

14 The name of the third riuer is ‖ Hidekel, and it goeth toward the East side of Assyria: and the fourth riuer is Euphrates.

15 And the Lorde God tooke the man, and put him into the garden of Eden, that he might worke it, and keepe it.

16 And the Lord God h cõmaunded the man, saying, Eating, thou shalt eate of euery tree of the garden:

17 But as touching the tree of ỹ knowledge of good and euill, thou shalt not eate of it: For in what day soeuer thou eatest thereof, thou shalt dye i the death.

18 And the Lorde God sayde, It is not good that the man shoulde be alone, I will make him an helpe ‡ like vnto him.

19 And so out of the ground the Lord God had shapen euery beast of the fielde, & euery foule of the ayre, & brought them vnto man, that he might see how he would call them: For likewise as man named euery liuing thing, so was the name thereof.

20 And the man gaue names to all cattell, & foule of the ayre, & to euery beast of the field: but for man founde he not an helpe like vnto him.

21 The Lord God caused a deepe sleepe to fall vpon Adam, and he slept, and he tooke one of his ribbes, and closed vp the place with flesh in steade thereof.

22 And the ribbe which the Lorde God had taken from man, ‡ made he a woman, and k brought her vnto the man.

23 And man sayd, * This is nowe bone of my bones, and flesh of my flesh, shee shalbe called k woman, because she was taken out of man.

24 *For this cause shal man leaue his father & his mother, and shalbe ioyned with his wife: and they shall become one flesh.

25 And they were both naked, the man & his wife, and were l not ashamed.

‖ Or, Paradise of pleasure.
d So called, for that it was appointed by God to preserue man frõ sickenesse and death.
e The name agreeth with the successe that followed: that is, the miserable experience which came by disobeying God. Eccle. 24. 35.
f The Iimaelites dwelt in this land.
g Chus conteyneth also the regions of ỹ Madianites and Arabians.
‖ Or, Tigris.
h Thus man for all his great gifts, should learne obedience to God.
i By death, is signified mortalitie & all the miseries wherin Adam wrapped him selfe by his fall from God.

The iij. Chapter.

1 The Serpent deceiueth the woman. 4 The Serpent, woman, and man are cursed and driuen out of Paradise. 15 Christ the blessed seede of the woman is promised.

1 AND the Serpent was [a] subtiler thē euery beast of the fielde which the Lord God had made, & he sayd vnto the [b] woman, Yea, hath God sayd, Ye shal not eate of euery tree of the garden?

2 And the woman sayde vnto the Serpent, We eate of the fruit of the trees of ỳ garden:

3 But as for the fruite of the tree which is in the middes of the garden, God hath sayd, Ye shall not eate of it, neyther shall ye touche it, least peraduenture ye die.

4 And the serpent sayd vnto the woman, *Ye shall not die the death.

5 For God doth know, that the same day that ye eate thereof, your eyes shalbe opened, & ye shalbe as gods, knowing good and euil.

6 And so the woman, seeing that the same tree was good to eate of, and pleasant to the eyes, & a tree to be desired to make one wise, tooke of the fruite thereof, and *did eate, and gaue also vnto her husband, being with her, and he did eate.

7 Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they [c] knew that they were naked, & they sewed figge leaues together, & made themselues aprones.

8 And they heard the voyce of the Lord God, walking in the garden in the coole of the day: and Adam & his wife [d] hid themselues from the presence of the Lord God, amongst the trees of the garden.

9 And the Lord God called Adam, and sayde vnto him, Where art thou?

10 Which saide, I heard thy voyce in the garden, and was afrayd [e] because I was naked, and hid my selfe.

11 And he said, Who tolde thee, that thou wast naked? Hast thou not eaten of the same tree, concerning the which I commaunded thee that thou shouldest not eate of it?

12 And Adam said, The woman whome thou gauest [to be] with me, shee gaue me of the tree, and I did eate.

13 And the Lord God sayde vnto the woman, Why hast thou done this? And the woman said, The serpent [f] beguiled me, & I did eate.

14 And the Lord God sayde vnto the serpent, Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed aboue all cattell, and aboue euery beast of the fielde: vpon thy belly shalt thou goe, and dust shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy life.

15 I will also put ennmitie betweene thee and the woman, betwene thy seede and her seede: and † it shal treade downe thy head, and thou shalt tread vpon his [h] heele.

16 But vnto the woman he sayd, In multiplying, I will multiply thy sorow and thy conceptions. In sorowe [i] thou shalt bring forth children: thy desire [shalbe] to thy husband, and he shall haue the rule of thee.

17 Unto Adam he sayde, Because thou hast hearkened vnto the voyce of thy wife, and hast eaten of the tree concerning the which I commanded thee, saying, Thou shalt not eate of it: cursed is ỳ ground for thy sake, in sorow shalt thou eate of it all the dayes of thy life.

18 Thorne also & thistle shall it bring forth to thee, & thou shalt eate the herbe of the fielde.

19 In the sweate of thy face shalt thou eate bread, til thou be turned againe into ỳ ground, for out of it wast thou taken: For dust thou art, and into dust shalt thou be turned againe.

20 And Adam called his wiues name Heua, because she was the mother of all liuing.

21 Unto Adam also, and to his wife, did the Lord God make garments of skinnes, and he put them on.

22 And the Lord God sayd, Behold, this man is become as one of vs, [k] in knowing good & euil: And nowe least peraduenture he put forth his hand, & take also of the tree of life, and eate, and liue for euer:

23 Therefore the Lorde God sent him forth from the garden of Eden, to dresse ỳ ground whence he was taken.

24 And so he droue out man, and at the East side of the garden of Eden, he set Cherubims, and a fierie two edged sworde, to keepe the way of the tree of life.

The iiij. Chapter.

8 Cain killeth his righteous brother Habel. 11 Cain is cursed, & despaireth. 17 The generation of Enoch, Mathusael, Tubal, Lamech, Seth, and Enos.

1 AND Adam knew Heua his wife, who conceyuing, bare Cain, saying, I haue [a] gotten a man of the Lord.

2 And she proceeding, brought forth his brother Habel, and Habel was a keeper of sheepe, but Cain was a tyller of the ground.

3 And in processe of dayes it came to passe, that Cain brought of the fruite of ỳ ground, an [b] oblation vnto the Lord.

4 Habel also brought of the firstlings of his sheepe, and of the fatte thereof: and the Lord *had respect vnto Habel, & to his oblation.

5 But vnto Cain and to his offering he had no respect: for the which cause Cain was exceeding wroth, & his countenance abated.

6 And the Lord sayde vnto Cain, Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenance abated?

7 If thou doe well, ‖ shalt thou not receiue? & if thou doest not well, lieth not thy sinne at ỳ [c] doores? Unto thee also pertayneth the lust thereof, and thou shalt haue dominion ouer it.

8 And Cain talked with Habel his brother: and it came to passe when they were in the field, Cain rose vp against Habel his brother, and slew him.

9 And the Lord sayde vnto Cain, Where is Habel thy brother? Which sayde, I wote not: Am I my brothers keeper?

10 And hee sayde, What hast thou done? the [c] voyce of thy brothers blood cryeth vnto me out of the ground.

11 And nowe art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receiue thy brothers blood from thy hand.

12 If thou till the ground, it shall not yeelde vnto thee her strength. A fugitiue and a vagabond shalt thou be in the earth.

13 And Cain sayd vnto the Lord, ‖ My iniquitie is more then that it may be forgiuen.

14 Behold, thou hast cast me out this day from the vpper face of the earth, and from thy face shall I bee hid, fugitiue also and a vagabond shall I be in the earth: & it shal come to passe, that euery one that findeth me, shall slay me.

15 And the Lord sayd vnto him, Verily who so euer slayeth Cain, he shall be punished [f] seuen folde. And the Lord set a [g] marke vpon Cain, lest any man finding him, should kill him.

16 And Cain went from the presence of ỳ Lord, and dwelt in the land of Nod, Eastward from Eden.

17 Cain also knew his wife, which conceiued, and bare Henoch, and building a citie, he called the name of the same citie, after the name of his sonne, Henoch.

18 Vnto the same Henoch was borne Irad: Irad begate Mehuiael, Mehuiael begate Methusael, Methusael begate Lamech.

19 And Lamech tooke vnto him [h] two wiues, the name of the one was Ada, and the name of the other was Zella.

20 And Ada bare Jabel, which was the father of such as dwell in the tentes, and of such as haue cattell.

21 His brothers name was Jubal, which was the father of such as handle Harpe & Organ.

22 And Zella also bare Thubalcain, which wrought cunningly euery craft of hande & of yron: the sister of Thubalcain was Noema.

23 And Lamech sayd vnto his wiues, Ada and Zella, Heare my voyce ye wiues of Lamech, hearken vnto my speach: for I haue slayne a man to the wounding of my selfe, and a yong man to mine owne punishment.

24 If Cain shall be auenged seuen folde, truely Lamech [i] seuentie tymes and seuen tymes.

25 Adam knew his wife agayne, and she bare a sonne, and called his name Seth: For God [sayde he] hath appointed me another seede, in steade of Habel whom Cain slew.

26 And vnto the same Seth also there was borne a sonne, and he called his name Enos: then began men to make inuocation in the name of the Lord.

The v. Chapter.

The genealogie of Adam and other fathers, & the yeeres of their liues, vnto Noah and his children.

1 This is the booke of the generations of Adam. In ỳ day that God created man, in the likenesse of God made he him.

2 *Male and female created he them, & blessed them, and called their name [a] Adam, in the day of their creation. *Sapi. 2. 23. [a] The husband and the wife as one man.

3 And Adam liued an hundred & thirtie yeres, and begate a sonne in his owne likenesse, after his image, and called his name Seth.

4 All the dayes of Adam, after he had begotten Seth, were eight hundred yeeres, and hee begate sonnes and daughters.

5 [b] And all the dayes that Adam liued, were nine hundred and thirtie yeeres, and hee died. [b] Adam liued vnto Noahs fathers dayes.

6 Seth liued an hundred and fiue yeeres, and begate Enos.

7 And Seth liued after he begate Enos [c] eight hundred and seuen yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters. [c] The chiefe cause of long life in the first age, was the multiplication of mankind, that according to Gods commandement at the beginning, ỳ world might be encreased with people, which might vniuersally praise his name.

8 And al the daies of Seth, were nine hundred and twelue yeeres, and he died.

9 Enos liued ninetie yeeres, & begate Kenan.

10 And Enos liued after he begate Kenã eight hundred and fifteene yeeres, [d] & begate sonnes and daughters.

11 And all the dayes of Enos were nine hundred and fiue yeeres, and he died.

12 Kenan liued seuentie yeeres, & begate Mahalaleel.

13 And Kenan liued after hee begate Mahalaleel eight hundred and fourtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

14 And all the dayes of Kenan were nine hundred and ten yeeres, and he died.

15 Mahalaleel liued sixtie and fiue yeeres, and begate Jered.

16 And againe Mahalaleel liued after he begate Jered eight hundred & thirtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

17 And all the dayes of Mahalaleel, were eight hundred ninetie and fiue yeeres, and he died.

18 Jered liued an hundred sixtie & two yeeres, and he begate Henoch.

19 And Jered liued after hee begate Henoch, eight hundred yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

20 And all the dayes of Jered were nine hundred sixtie and two yeeres, and he died.

21 *Henoch liued sixtie and fiue yeeres, and begate Methuselah. *Eccl. 44. 16. hebr. 11. 5.

22 [e] And Henoch walked with God after he begate Methuselah three hundred yeeres, & begate sonnes and daughters. [e] He directed his life not after the maners of the world then, but according to Gods worde.

23 And all the dayes of Henoch were three hundred sixtie and fiue yeeres, [d] They be only rehearsed by name, who were as lights in the church.

24 And

[c] God reuengeth the wrõg of his saintes, though none complaine: for the iniquitie it selfe crieth for vengeance.

‖ Or, my punishment is greater then that I may beare.

[f] God did not this for the loue that he bare to Cain, but to terrifie others from murder.

[g] A visible signe of Gods iudgement, that other should feare.

[h] The lawfull institution of marriage, which is, that two should be one flesh, was first corrupt in the house of Cain by Lamech.

[i] He mocked at Gods sufferance in Cain, calling an vnthrift God would suffer long to punish him, and yet suffer him to murder others

24 And Henoch walked with God: & hee was no more seene, for God tooke him away.
25 Methuselah also liued an hundred, eightie and seuen yeeres, and begate Lamech.
26 And againe Methuselah liued after hee begate Lamech, seuen hundred eightie and two yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
f He liued fiue yeeres before the flood as S. Augustine reckoneth.
27 And all the dayes of Methuselah f were nine hundred sixtie and nine yeeres, and he died.
28 Lamech liued an hundred eightie and two yeeres, and begate a sonne:
29 And called his name Noah, saying, This same shall comfort vs, as concerning our worke and sorowe of our handes about the earth, which God cursed.
30 And Lamech liued after he begate Noah, fiue hundred ninetie and fiue yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
31 And all the dayes of Lamech, were seuen hundred seuentie and seuen yeeres, & he died.
32 Noah was fiue hundred yeeres olde, and Noah begate Sem, Ham, and Japheth.

The vi. Chapter.

5 The cause of the flood is the sinne of man. 18 Noah the iust is preserued in the arke, with all kindes of beastes.

1 AND it came to passe, that when men beganne to bee multiplied in the vpper face of ỹ earth, there were daughters borne vnto them:
a The sonnes of the godly ioyned themselues with the daughters of the wicked, without all feare of God.
2 And the a sonnes of God also saw ỹ daughters of men that they were faire, and they tooke them wiues, such as they liked, from among them all.
b God is therfore sayd to strine in spirit, because he trauailed earnestly to bring his people to repentance: but when he saw their stubbernesse and disobedience to be such, he would no longer strine, but purposed vtterly to destroy them.
3 And the Lorde said, b My spirit shal not alwayes strine with man, because he is flesh: yet his dayes shall bee an hundred and twentie yeeres.
‖ Or, tyrants.
4 But there were ‖ Giants in those dayes in the earth: yea and after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of men, and had begotten children of them, the same became mightie men of the world, and men of c renowme.
c Which vsurped authoritie ouer others, & did degenerate from the simplicitie wherein their fathers liued.
5 But God sawe that the malice of man was great in the earth, and all the imagination of the thoughtes of his heart [was] onely euill euery day.
6 And it repented the Lorde that he had made man vpon the earth, and hee was touched with sorowe in his heart.
7 And the Lorde saide, I will from the vpper face of the earth, destroy man whome I haue created: from man vnto cattell, vnto worme, and vnto foules of the ayre: For it repenteth me that I haue made them.
8 But Noah founde grace in the eyes of the Lord.
Eccl. 44. 17.
9 * These are the generations of Noah. Noah [was] a iust man, and perfect in his generations, and walked with God.
10 Noah begate three sonnes, Sem, Ham, and Japheth.
11 The earth also was corrupt before God, & the same earth was filled with crueltie.
12 And God looked vpon the earth, and behold, it was corrupt: for all flesh had corrupt his way vpon earth.
13 And God saide vnto Noah, The ende of all flesh is come before me, for the earth is filled with crueltie through them, and beholde, I will destroy them with the earth.
d Gopher, a very light kind of wood.
14 Make thee an Arke of d Pine trees: Habitations shalt thou make in the Arke, and shalt pitche it within and without with pitch.
15 And of this fashion shalt thou make it: The length of the Arke [shall be] three hundred cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, & the height of it thirtie cubites.
16 A windowe shalt thou make in the Arke, and in a cubite shalt thou finish it aboue: but the doore of the Arke shalt thou set in the side thereof. With three loftes one aboue another shalt thou make it.
e God doeth repeate I, for the certainetie of the flood, which the world thought vnpossible.
17 And beholde, e I, euen I do bring a flood of waters vpon the earth, to destroy all flesh wherein is the breath of life vnder heauen, & euery thing that is in the earth shall perish.
18 With thee also will I make my couenant: and thou shalt come into the Arke, thou and thy sonnes, thy wife, & thy sonnes wiues with thee.
19 And of euery liuing thing of all flesh, a payre of euery one shalt thou bring into the Arke, to keepe them aliue with thee, they shalbe male and female.
20 Of feathered foules also after their kinde, and of all cattell after their kinde: of euery worme of the earth after his kinde, two of euery sorte shall come vnto thee, to keepe [them] aliue.
21 And take thou with thee of all meate that is eaten, and thou shalt lay it vp with thee, that it may be meate for thee and them.
22 Noah therefore did according vnto all that God commanded him, [euen] so did he.

The vii. Chapter.

1 Noah with them that were with him, entreth into the Arke. 20 The flood destroyeth all the rest vpon the earth.

1 AND the * Lord said vnto Noah, Come thou and a all thy house into the Arke: for thee haue I seene righteous before me in this generation.
2. Pet. 2. 5.
a Temporall benefites God bestoweth vpon the children, for the fathers godlines sake.
2 Of euery cleane beast thou shalt take with thee seuen b and seuen, the male and his female: but of vncleane cattell, two, the male and his female.
b Not seuen payre, but aduise, and euen by diuersities.
3 Of foules also of the ayre seuen and seuen, the male and the female, to keepe seede aliue vpon the face of all the whole earth.
c Yet a moneth to come, but he speaketh after the maner of men.
4 For after c seuen dayes, I will raine vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes: and all substance that I haue made, will I destroy from the vpper face of the earth.

5 Noah therefore did according vnto all that God commaunded him.

d Age did not make Noah the slower to obey Gods will.

6 And Noah was [d] sixe hundred yeeres olde, when the floods of water came vpon ẏ earth.

7 And Noah came, and his sonnes, and his wife, and his sonnes wiues with him, to the Arke, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of cleane beastes, and of vncleane beastes, and of foules, and of euery such as creepeth vpon the earth, e As to Adam, so nowe to Noah, God caused all cattell to come.

9 There [e] came two and two vnto Noah into the Arke, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And so it came to passe after seuen dayes, ẏ the waters of the flood were vpon the earth.

11 In the sixe hundred yeere of Noahs life, in the [f] second moneth, the seuenteenth day of the moneth, in the same day were all ẏ s fountaines of the great deepe broken vp, and the windowes of heauen were opened.

f In the latter ende of April, when all things were most pleasant, then this destruction came.

12 And the raine was vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes.

13 In the selfe same day entred Noah, and Sem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sonnes of Noah, and Noahs wife, and the three wiues of his sonnes with them into the Arke, g Both the waters in the earth rising vp, did ouerflowe, and also the cloudes being open, powred down.

14 They, [h] and euery beast after his kind, and all the cattell after their kinde, yea, and euery worme that creepeth vpon the grounde after his kinde, and euery birde after his kind, and euery flying and feathered foule.

h This is oft times repeated, for that it seemeth incredible to the wit of man.

15 And they came vnto Noah into the Arke, two and two, of al flesh wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they entring in, came, male & female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and God shut him in round about.

17 And the flood came fourtie dayes vpon the earth, and the waters were increased, and bare vp the Arke, which was lift vp aboue the earth.

18 The waters also waxed strong, and were encreased exceedingly vpō the earth: & so the arke went vpō the vpper face of the waters.

19 And the waters preuailed exceedingly vpon the earth, and all the high hilles that are vnder the whole heauen were couered.

20 Fifteene cubites vpward did ẏ waters preuaile, so that the mountaines were couered.

Sepi. 10.

21 *And all flesh perished that mooued vpon the earth, in foule, in cattell, in beast, and in euery worme that creepeth vpon the earth, yea, and euery man also.

i That is, all that liued.

22 So that [i] all that had the breath of life in his nosethrilles, throughout all that was on the [k] drie lande, dyed.

k Of fish there is no mention made by Moses.

23 And euery substance was destroyed that remained, & that was in the vpper parte of the grounde, both man and cattell, and worme, and the foule of ẏ heauen, they were destroied from off the earth, and [l] Noah onely remained aliue, and they that were with him in the Arke.

l Thus was he rewarded, that rather followed God, then the multitude of the wicked.

24 But the water preuailed vpon the earth, an hundred and fiftie dayes.

The viij. Chapter.

3 The waters of the flood being diminished, Noah sendeth forth the Rauen and the Doue. 16 Noah goeth out of the Arke, and offereth sacrifice vnto God.

1 AND God [a] remembred Noah, and euery beast, and all the cattell that was with him in the Arke: and God made [b] a winde to passe vpon the earth, & the waters ceased.

a Not that God forgetteth his at any time, but when he sendeth succour, then he is said to remember them.

b As God by a vehement winde in Moses time dryed vp the red sea: so here God raised vp a winde to deliuer the lande from waters.

2 The fountaines also of the deepe, and the windowes of heauen were stopped, and the raine from heauen was restrained.

3 And ẏ waters frō the earth returned, going & comming againe: and after the ende of the hundred & fiftie dayes, ẏ waters were abated.

4 And in the [c] seuenth moneth, in the seuenteenth day of the moneth, the Arke rested vpon the mountaines of Armenia.

c The waters encreased fortie dayes, and were at one stay 110. dayes, and so continued frō the latter ende of April, vntill the beginning of October.

5 And the waters were going & decreasing vntill the tenth moneth: In the tenth moneth, and in the first day of the same moneth, were the toppes of the mountaines seene.

6 And after the ende of the fourtie dayes, it came to passe [that] Noah opened the windowe of the Arke which he had made.

7 And hee sent foorth a Rauen, which went out, going foorth, and returning, vntill the waters were dryed vp vpon the earth.

8 And againe hee sent foorth a Doue from him, that he might see if the waters were abated from the vpper face of the ground.

9 And the Doue found no rest for the sole of her foote, and she returned vnto him into the Arke: for the waters [were] in the vpper face of the whole earth. Then hee put foorth his [d] hand, and tooke her, and pulled her to him into the Arke.

d It seemeth that the Rauē being a wilde & an vncleane foule, fed of the dead carkases, & therefore refused to turne againe into the Arke. But the Doue being of nature a tamer foule, and vsed to cleaner foode, and finding no place to rest on, suffered her selfe to be receiued in againe.

10 And he abode yet other seuen dayes, and againe he sent foorth the Doue out of the arke:

11 And the Doue came to him in ẏ euentide, & loe, in her mouth was an Oliue leafe that she had pluckt, whereby Noah did know that the waters were abated vpon the earth.

12 And hee abode yet other seuen dayes, and sent foorth the Doue, which returned not vnto him any more.

13 And it came to passe in the sixe hundred and one yeere, in the first moneth, the first [day] of the moneth, the waters were dryed vp from the earth, and Noah remoued the couering of the Arke, and looked, and beholde, the vpper face of the grounde was dryed vp.

14 And in the second moneth, in the seuen and twentieth day of ẏ moneth, was ẏ earth dried.

15 And

15 And God ſpake vnto Noah, ſaying, e Noah was in the arke one yeere and ten dayes.
16 e Go foorth of the Arke, thou, and thy wife, thy ſonnes, and thy ſonnes wiues with thee:
17 And bring foorth with thee euery beaſt that is with thee, of all fleſh, both foule and cattell, & euery worme that creepeth vpon the earth, that they may breede in the earth, and bring foorth fruite, and multiplie vpon earth.
f It is called a whole burnt offring, becauſe the whole ſacrifice was conſumed with fire, by the which is ſignified, that the perſon which did offer the ſame, ſhould haue his heart & minde wholly bpō God, as it is written, Loue thy God with all thy heart and with all thy ſoule, &c.
18 And ſo Noah came foorth, and his ſonnes, his wife, and his ſonnes wiues with him:
19 Euery beaſt alſo, and euery worme, euery foule, & whatſoeuer creepeth vpon the earth, after their kindes, went out of the Arke.
20 And Noah builded an altar vnto the Lord, and tooke of euery cleane beaſt, and of euery cleane foule, f and offered a whole burnt offering on the altar.
g The order of nature deſtroyed by the flood, is reſtored by Gods promiſe.
21 And the Lorde ſmelled a ſweete [or quiet] ſauour, and the Lord ſaid in his heart, I will not henceforth curſe the ground any more for mans ſake, for the imaginatiō of mans heart is euill from his youth: neither will I ſmite any more euery thing liuing, as I haue done.
22 Yet therefore ſhal not g ſowing time & harueſt, colde and heate, ſommer and winter, day and night, ceaſe all the dayes of the earth.

The ix. Chapter.

1 God bleſſeth Noah and his ſonnes. 3 God giueth libertie of meates, and forbiddeth the eating of blood. 9 He promiſeth no more to deſtroy the worlde with water, 13 and giueth the rainebow for a token thereof.

1 AND God bleſſed Noah, & his ſonnes, and ſaid vnto them, Be fruitefull, and multiplie, and replenith the earth.
a By the vertue of this cōmandement, beaſts rage not ſo much againſt man, as otherwiſe they would, but are appointed to ſerue to his neceſſarie vſes.
2 The a feare of you, and the dread of you, ſhalbe vpon euery beaſt of ẏ earth, & vpō euery foule of the ayre, vpon all that moueth vpon the earth, and vpon all the fiſhes of the ſea: into your hand are they deliuered.
b By this graūt of God, man may with a good conſcience vſe all the creatures of God for his foode. Leuit. 17.14.
3 Euery thing that moueth it ſelfe, and that liueth, ſhall be b meate for you, euen as the greene herbe haue I giuen you all thinges.
c That is, liuing creatures, and the fleſh of beaſtes which are ſtrāgled, wherby all crueltie is forbidden.
*But c fleſh in the life therof [which is] the blood thereof, ſhall ye not eate.
d Punishment for murder.
4 And ſurely your blood of your liues wil d I require: at the hande of euery beaſt will I require it, & at the hand of man, at the hand of mans ‖ brother wil I require the life of man.
‖ Or, neighbour.
5 Who ſo ſheddeth mans blood, by man ſhall his blood be ſhed, for in the image of God made he man.
6 But be fruitefull, and multiplie you, breede in the earth, and increaſe therein.
7 God ſpake vnto Noah, and to his ſonnes with him, ſaying, 8 Beholde I, euen I eſtabliſhe my couenant with you, and with e your ſeede after you:
e The children which are not yet borne, are cōprehended in Gods couenāt made with their fathers.
9 And with euery liuing creature that is with you, in foule, in cattell, in euery beaſt of the earth, which is with you, of all ẏ go out of the arke, whatſoeuer liuing thing of ẏ earth it be.

23 And Sem and Japheth taking a garment, laide it vpon their ſhoulders, and comming backeward, couered the nakednes of their father, namely their faces being turned away, leaſt they ſhould ſee their fathers nakednes.

The x. Chapter.

1 The encreaſe of mankinde by Noah and his ſonnes. 10 The beginning of cities, countreyes, and nations, after the flood.

1 THeſe are ẏ generations of the ſonnes of Noah, Sem, Ham, and Japheth: and vnto them were children borne after the flood.

1.Chro.11.5. a These children are rehearsed of Moses, which afterward became princes of nations.

2 *The children of Japheth: a Gomer, and Magog, and Madai, & Iauan, and Thubal, Meschech, and Thiras.
3 The children of Gomer: Askenas, and Riphath, and Thogarma.
4 The children of Iauan: Elisa, and Tharsis, Kitthim, and Dodanim.

b All landes beyond the sea they call Ilands, as Grecia & Italia.

5 Of these were the b Iles of the Gentiles diuided in their lands, euery one after his tongue, and after his kinred, in their nations.
6 The children of Ham: Chus, and Mizraim, and Phut, and Chanaan.
7 And the children of Chus: Seba, & Hauilah, & Sabthah, & Raamah, and Sabtheca.
8 The children of Raamah: Seba, and Dedan: Chus also begate Nimrod.

c Cruel princes are called in scripture, hunters. d God made the first author of tyrannie odious to the world by a common prouerbe.

9 The same began to be mightie in the earth, for he was a mightie c hunter before the Lord: Wherefore it is sayd, Euen as d Nimrod the mightie hunter before the Lord.
10 The beginning of his kingdome was Babel, and Erech, and Acad, and Calneh, in the land of Sinar.
11 Out of that land came Assur, & builded Niniue, and the citie || Rehoboth, and Calah,

|| Or, the streetes of the citie.

12 Resen also betweene Niniue & Calah, and it is a great citie.

e Names of the prouinces & people that came of Mizraim.

13 e Mizraim begate Ludim, & Anamim, and Lehabim, and Nephthuim, 14 Pathrusim also, & Casluhim (out of whom came Philistiim) and Caphthorim.

f The seuen nations that came of these, were destroied afterward by the people of God.

15 Chanaan begate Sidon his first borne sonne, and f Heth, 16 And Jebusi, and Emori, and Girgasi,
17 And Hiui also, and Arki, and Sini,
18 And Aruadi, and Semari, and Hamathi: & afterward were the kinreds of the Chanaanites spred abroad.
19 The border of the Chanaanites, was from Sidon, as thou comest to Gerar, vnto Azah, and as thou goest vnto Sodoma & Gomorra, and Adama, and Seboim, euen vnto Lesa.
20 These are the children of Ham in their kinreds, in their tongues, countreis, and in their nations.

g In his stocke the Church was preserued, therefore Moses leaueth off speaking of Japheth and Ham, and entreateth of Sem more at large.

21 Unto Sem also the g father of all the children of Heber, and elder brother of Japheth, there were children borne.
22 The children of Sem: Elam, & Assur, Arphaxad, and Lud, and Aram.
23 The children of Aram: Us, & Hul, Gether, and Mas.
24 Arphaxad begate Selah, and Selah begate Heber.
25 Unto Heber also were borne two sonnes: the name of one was Peleg, for in his dayes was the earth diuided, & his brothers name was Jactan.
26 Jactan begate Almodad, and Saleph, Hazarmaueth, and Jerah, 27 And Hadoram, and Usal, and Dicla,
28 Obal also, and Abimael, and Seba,
29 And Ophir, and Hauilah, and Jobab: all these were the children of Jactan.
30 And their dwelling was from Mesa, as thou goest vnto Sephar, a mount of the East.
31 These are the children of Sem, after their kinreds & tongues, in their lands & nations.
32 And so these are the kinreds of the children of Noah after their generations, in their peoples: and of these were the nations diuided in the earth after the flood.

The xj. Chapter.

3 The building of the towre of Babel. 7 The confusion of tongues. 10 The generation of Sem the sonne of Noah vnto Abram, which goeth with Lot to Haran.

1 AND all the whole earth a was of one language, and like || speach.

a This vnitie continued a hundred yeeres.

2 And when b they went forth from the East, they found a plaine in the land of Sinar, and there they abode.

b Nimrod and his posteritie, inuadeth other mens possessions.

3 And ‡ one said to another, Come, let vs prepare bricke, and burne them in the fire. And they had bricke for stones, and slime had they in stead of morter.

‡ Hebr. Man said to his neighbor.

4 And they sayd, Go to, let vs build vs a citie & a towre, whose top may reach vnto heauen, and let vs make vs a name, lest peraduenture we be scattered abroad vpon the whole earth.
5 But the Lord c came downe to see the citie & towre, which the children of men builded.

c Whereby he declareth by the effect, that he knew their wicked enterprises, by punishing the same.

6 And the Lord sayd, Behold, d the people is one, and they haue all one language: & this they begin to doe, neither is there any let to them from all those things which they haue imagined to doe.

d God speaketh this in derision, because of their foolish perswasion and enterprise.

7 Come on, let vs goe downe, and there confound their language, that euery one perceiue not his neighbours speach.
8 And so the Lord scattered them from that place vpon all the earth: and they left off to build that citie.
9 And therefore is the name of it called Babel, because the Lord did there confound the language of all the earth: and from thence did the Lord scatter them abroad vpon the face of all the earth.
10 *These are the generations of Sem. Sem was an hundred yeeres olde, and begate Arphaxad two yeeres after the flood. 1.Chro.1.17.
11 And Sem liued after he begate Arphaxad, fiue hundred yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
12 Arphaxad liued fiue and thirtie yeeres, & begate Selah.
13 And Arphaxad liued after he begate Selah, foure hundred and three yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.
14 Selah liued thirtie yeeres, & begate Heber.
15 And Selah liued after hee begate Heber, foure hundred and three yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

1.Chron.1.25.

16 *And Heber liued foure and thirtie yeeres, and begate Peleg.

c This Heber kept in his familie the ancient tongue of the Iewes.

17 And c Heber liued after he begate Peleg, foure hundred and thirtie yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

18 And Peleg liued thirtie yeeres, and begate Reu.

19 And Peleg liued after he begate Reu, two hundred and nine yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

20 And Reu liued two and thirtie yeeres, and begate Serug.

21 And Reu liued after he begate Serug, two hundred and seuen yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

22 And Serug liued thirtie yeeres, and begate Nachor.

23 And Serug liued after he begate Nachor two hundred yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

24 And Nachor liued nine and twentie yeeres, and begate Tarah.

25 And Nachor liued after he begate Tarah, an hundred and nineteene yeeres, and begate sonnes and daughters.

1.Chron.1.26. Iosu.24.2. g Abraham was not the first borne, though he be first placed. h Abraham was borne when his father was 130. yeeres old.

26 *Tarah liued seuentie yeeres, and begate g Abram, Nachor, and Haran.

27 These are the generations of Tarah: Tarah begate h Abram, Nachor, and Haran: Haran begate Lot.

28 And Haran dyed in the presence of his father Tarah in the land of his nativitie, in Ur of the Chaldees.

29 Abram and Nachor tooke them wiues: the name of Abrams wife [was] Sarai, and the name of Nachors wife [was] Milcha, the daughter of Haran, the father of Milcha, and the father of Iiscba.

i It was a temptation to Abram to see the wicked blessed with children, & his wife barren.

30 But Sarai was i barren, and had no childe.

31 And Tarah tooke Abram his sonne, and Lot the sonne of Haran his sonnes sonne, and Sarai his daughter in lawe his sonne Abrams wife, and they departed together from Ur of the Chaldees, that they might goe into the lande of Chanaan: and they came vnto

‖ Or, Charan.

‖ Haran, and dwelt there.

32 And the dayes of Tarah, were two hundred and fiue yeeres: and Tarah dyed in Haran.

The xij. Chapter.

1 Abram is blessed of God, and goeth with Lot to the lande of Chanaan, which God promised to giue to him and to his seede. 10 Abram goeth into Egypt. 13 His wife calleth her selfe his sister, for whom Pharao is plagued.

Actes.7.2. a From the flood to this time, were 363. yeres passed through the lande.

1 AND the *Lorde sayde vnto Abram, Get thee a out of thy countrey, and out of thy nation, and from thy fathers house, vnto a lande that I will shewe thee.

2 And I will make of thee a great people, and will blesse thee, and make thy name great, that thou shalt be a blessing.

3 I will also blesse them that blesse thee, and curse them that curse thee: and in thee shall al kinreds of the earth be b blessed.

b Christ, the seede of Abraham, blessed all the cursed kinreds of the world.

4 And so Abram departed, as the Lorde had spoken vnto him, and Lot went with him: and Abram was seuentie and fiue yeeres olde when he departed out of Haran.

5 And Abram c tooke Sarai his wife, and Lot his brothers sonne, and all their substance that they had in possession, and the soules that they had begotten in Haran, & they departed, that they might come into the lande of Chanaan: & into the land of Chanaan they came.

c After his father was dead, and he chefe of the familie.

6 Abram d passed through the lande, vnto the place of Sichem, vnto the plaine of Moreh. And the Chanaanite [was] then in the land.

d He wandred to and fro in the land, before he could find a setling place. Thus God exerciseth the faith of his children.

7 And the Lord appearing vnto Abram, sayd, Vnto thy seede will I giue this lande: and there e builded he an altar vnto ỹ Lord which appeared vnto him.

e It was not inough for Abraha to worshyp God in his heart, but it was expedient to declare by outwarde deedes his fayth before men.

8 And remooving thence vnto a mountaine that was Eastwarde from Bethel, he pitched his tent, hauing Bethel on the West side, and Hai on the East: and there he, building an altar vnto the Lorde, did call vpon the name of the Lord.

9 And Abram tooke his iourney, going and iourneying toward the South.

10 And then there was a famine in that lande, and therefore went Abram downe into Egypt, that he might soiourne there: for there was a grieuous famine in the land.

11 And when he was come neere to enter into Egypt, he sayde vnto Sarai his wife, Beholde, I knowe that thou art a fayre woman to looke vpon:

12 Therefore shall it come to passe, that when the Egyptians see thee, they shal say, She is his wife, and they will kill me, but they will saue thee aliue:

13 Say, I pray thee, that thou art my f sister, that I may fare well for thy sake, and that my soule may liue through thy occasion.

f The weakenesse of Abrahã fayth appeareth in this, that he vsed vnlawfull meanes for to saue his owne life.

14 And so when Abram was come into Egypt, the Egyptians behelde the woman, for she was very fayre.

15 The princes also of Pharao sawe her, and commended her before Pharao: and the woman was taken into Pharaos house.

16 And he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheepe, and Oxen, and bee Asses, men seruantes, and mayde seruantes, shee Asses, and Camels.

17 But the Lorde plagued Pharao and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wife.

18 And Pharao calling Abram, sayde, Why hast thou done this vnto me?

19 Why diddest thou not tell me that she was thy wife? Why saydest thou, She is my sister, ster, and so I s might haue taken her to be my wife: Nowe therefore beholde, there is thy wife, take her, and goe thy way.

g Though Pharao were innocent touching Abram: yet this fact of Pharao declareth that his court was full of corruption.

20 And Pharao gaue his men commandement concerning him: and they conueyed him forth, and his wife, and all that he had.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 Abram and Lot depart out of Egypt. 8 Abram deuideth the lande and cattell with Lot his brothers sonne. 14 The promise made to Abram, is renued.

1 AND so Abram gate him vp out of Egypt, he and his wife, and all that he had, & Lot with him, toward the south.

‡ Heb. heauie, or, laden.

2 And Abram was ‡very riche in cattell, in siluer, and in golde.

3 And he went forth on his iourney from the South, towarde Bethel, vnto the place where his tent had bene at the beginning, betweene Bethel and Hai:

a When are delighted with those places where they haue tasted of Gods graces.

4 Unto the a place of the altar, which he had made there at the first, and there Abram called on the name of the Lorde.

5 Lot also, which went with Abram, had sheepe, cattell, and tents.

6 And the lande was not able to beare them, that they might dwel together: for their substance was great, so that they could not dwell together.

b Though they dwelt among their enemies, yet the strife was not abated.

c An example howe to pacify them that are fallen out.

d To yeld part of mans right, is all a remedie against strife.

7 And there fell a strife betweene the heardmen of Abrams cattell, and the heardmen of Lots cattell: Moreouer, the Chanaanites, and Pherizites dwelled at that time in the lande.

8 Then saide b Abram vnto Lot, Let there be no strife, I pray thee, betweene thee and me, and betweene my heardmen and thine: for we c be brethren.

9 Is not the whole land before thee? Separate thy selfe, I pray thee, from me: if thou wilt take the left hande, d I will goe to the right: or if thou depart to the right hande, I will goe to the left.

Or, plaine.

10 And so Lot lifting vp his eyes, behelde all the ‖ countrey of Iordane, which was well watered euery where, before the Lord destroyed Sodome and Gomorrhe, [it was] as the Garden of the Lord, like the land of Egypt, as thou commest vnto Soar.

e This was done by Gods prouidence, that onely Abram and his seede might dwell in the lande of Chanaan.

11 Then Lot chose all the plaine of Iordane, and tooke his iourney from the East, and so e departed the one [brother] from the other.

f Lots choise was not very luckie, who had nowe such neighbours.

12 Abram dwelled in the land of Chanaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the plaine, and pitched his tent toward Sodome.

13 But the f men of Sodome [were] wicked, and exceeding sinners against the Lorde.

g God comforteth Abram in his griefe, for the departure of Lot.

14 And the Lord said vnto g Abram, after that Lot was departed from him, Lift vp thine eyes nowe, and looke from the place where thou art, Northwarde, Southwarde, Eastwarde, and Westwarde, 15 For all the lande which thou seest, will I giue vnto thee, and to thy seede for euer.

16 And I wil make thy seede as the dust of the earth: so that if a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seede also be numbred.

h Though Abram had no quietnesse in this lande, yet he satisfied him selfe with Gods worde.

17 Arise, & h walke about in the land, after the length of it, and after the breadth of it: for I will giue it vnto thee.

‡ Heb. set with trees.

18 Then Abram taking downe his tent, came and dwelled in the plaine ‡ of Mamre, which is in Hebron, and builded there an altar vnto the Lord.

The xiiii. Chapter.

11 Lot after the spoyle of Sodome is taken prisoner. 16 Abram deliuereth him. 18 Melchisedec offereth giftes to Abram.

1 AND it came to passe in the dayes of Amraphel king of ‖ Sinar, Arioch king of Elasar, Chodorlaomer king of ‖ Elam, & Thidal king of ỹ a nations, a His armie was of souldiers which were runnagates out of diuers nations.

2 [These] made warre with Bera king of Sodome, and with Birsa king of Gomorrhe, and with Sinab king of Adma, & with Semeber king of Seboiim, and with the king of Bela, the same is Soar.

3 All these were ioyned together in the vale of Siddim, where [nowe] the salt sea is.

4 For twelue yeeres were they subiect to king Chodorlaomer, and in the thirteenth yeere rebelled.

5 And in the fourteenth yeere came Chodorlaomer, and the kings that were with him, & smote the ‡ Giants in Astaroth carnaim, and the Susimes in Ham, and the Emims in the plaine of Cariathaim, ‡ Heb. Rephaims.

6 And the Horites in their mount Seir, vnto the plaine of Paran, which bordereth vpon the wildernesse.

7 And they returning, came to Enmishpat, which is Cades, and smote all the countrey of the Amalekites, and also the Amorites that dwelt in Hazezon-thamar.

8 And there went out the king of Sodome, and the king of Gomorrhe, and the king of Adma, and the king of Seboiim, & the King of Bela, which is Soar.

b They might haue sought meanes of reconciliation, by the ouerthrowe of their neighbours.

9 And b they ioyned battell with them in the vale of Siddim, that is to say, with Chodorlaomer the king of Elam, and with Thidal king of nations, and with Amraphel king of Sinar, and with Arioch king of Elasar, foure kings against c fiue.

c The Sodomites might knowe that for their punishmẽt, God gaue victorie to the smaller number, and in a strange countrey.

10 And the vale of Siddim was full of slime pits: and d the kings of Sodome and Gomorrhe fled, and fell there: and they that remained, fled to the mountaine.

d The terrible destruction of rebelles.

11 And they, taking al ỹ goods of Sodome & Gomorrhe, & al their vitails, went their way.

12 And they caried away c Lot also, Abrams brothers sonne, and his goods (for he dwelled in Sodome) and departed.

c The godly are partakers of the harmes which come to the wicked among whome they dwell.

13 And

13 And there came one that had escaped, and tolde Abram the Hebrue, which dwelled in the plaine of Mamre the Amorite, brother of Eschol, & brother of Aner, which were confederate [f] with Abram.

f God moued them to ioyne with Abram, & yet preserued him from their idolatrie and superstition.

14 When Abram heard þ his brother was taken, he armed his exercised [seruants] which were borne in his owne house, three hundred & eighteene, & followed on them vnto Dan.

15 And he and his seruants were parted [in companies] against them by night, & smote them, and pursued them vnto Hoba, which lyeth on the left hande of Damascus:

16 And recouered all the goods, and also brought again his brother Lot, & his goods, the women also, and the people.

17 After that he returned againe from the slaughter of Chodorlaomer, & of the kings that were with him, came the king of Sodome forth to meete him in the valley Saueh, which is the kings dale.

g For to refreth Abram & his souldiers, & not to make any oblation. Which doeth signifie that Christ doeth feede the world with his Gospel.

18 And Melchisedec king of Salē [g] brought forth bread and wine: and he [was] the priest of the most highest God,

19 And blessed him, saying, Blessed be Abrā vnto the high God, possessour of heauen & earth, 20 And blessed [be] the high God, which hath deliuered thine enemies vnto thy hande: and Abram [h] gaue him tythes of all.

h Wherein Melchisedec was a figure of Christ, the Epistle to the Hebrewes sheweth.

21 And the king of Sodome said vnto Abram, Giue me the soules, and take the goods to thy selfe.

22 And Abram answered the king of Sodome, I haue [i] lift vp my hande vnto the Lord the high God, the possessour of heauen and earth, i An olde maner of swearing.

23 That I will not take of all that is thine, so much as a threede or shoe latchet, least thou shouldest say, I haue made Abram riche:

a The victorie which he obteined, caused him to haue much enuie, wherfore God comforted him.

b This outward victorie was not the onely reward he shoulde looke for.

2 And Abram sayde, Lorde, what wilt thou giue me when I go childelesse? the ‖child of the stewardshippe of my house is this Eleazar of Damasco.

‖Or, steward.

3 And Abram saide, See, to me thou hast giuen no seede: loe, [one borne] in my house is mine heire.

4 And beholde, the worde of the Lord came vnto him, saying, He shall not be thine heire: but one that shall come out of thine owne bowels shall be thine heire.

5 And he brought him out, & saide, Looke vp to heauen, and tell the starres, if thou be able to number them. And he saide vnto him, Euen so shall thy seede be.

6 And [Abram] beleeued the Lorde, and that counted he to him for righteousnesse.

7 And againe he sayde vnto him, I am the Lorde that brought thee out of Ur of the Chaldees, to giue thee this lande, and that thou mightest inherite it.

8 And he saide, Lorde God, [c] whereby shall I knowe that I shall inherite it?

c This asking of signes is a special motion of Gods spirit, not permitted to all men, but to certaine, as to Gedeon, Ezechias, and to the virgin Marie, &c.

9 He answered vnto him, Take an Heyfer of three yeeres olde, and a shee goate of three yeeres olde, and a three yeeres old Ramme, a turtle Doue also, and a yong Pigeon.

10 He tooke therefore all these vnto him, and [d] deuided them in the middes, and layd euery piece one ouer against another: but the birds deuided he not.

12 And when the sunne was downe, there fell a deepe sleepe vpon Abram: and loe, an horrour of great darkenesse fell vpon him.

13 And he saide vnto Abram, Know this of a suretie, þ thy seede shal be a stranger in a land that is not theirs, & shall serue them, & they shal entreate thē euill [e] foure hundred yeeres.

e These foure hundred yeres are to be counted from the birth of Isaac, vnto the departure of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

14 But the nation whome they shall serue, will I iudge: and afterwarde shall they come out with great substance.

15 And thou shalt go to thy fathers in peace, and shalt be buried in a good olde age.

16 But in the fourth generation they shall come hither againe: for [f] the wickednesse of the Amorites is not yet full.

f Though God suffered þ wicked for a time, yet his vengeance falleth vpon them when the measure of their wickednes is full.

17 And so it was, that when the sunne went downe, and it was twylight, beholde, a smoking furnace and a fyrebrande going betweene the said pieces.

now the Lord hath restrayned me, that I can not beare: I pray thee goe in to my mayde, it may be that I may ‖ be buylded by her: and Abram obeyed the voyce of Sarai.

3 And Sarai Abrams wife, tooke Hagar her mayde the Egyptian, after Abram had dwelled ten yeres in the land of Chanaan, & gaue her to her husband Abram, to be his wife.

4 And he went in vnto Hagar, and she conceiued. And when she sawe that she had conceyued, [b] her mistresse was despised in her eyes.

b This punishment declareth the anger of God against those that attempt any thing against his word.

5 And Sarai said vnto Abram, There is wrong done vnto me by thee: I haue giuen my mayd into thy bosome, which, seeing that she hath conceyued, I am despised in her eyes: the Lord be iudge betweene thee and me.

c Abram declareth with the anger of his wife.

6 But Abram sayd vnto Sarai, Beholde, thy [c] mayde is in thy hand, do with her as it pleaseth thee. And when Sarai dealt hardly with her, she fled from the face of her.

7 And the Angel of the Lord found her beside a fountaine in the wildernesse, by the well that is in the way to Sur:

8 And he said, Hagar Sarais mayd, Whence camest thou: and whither wilt thou go? She sayde, I flee from the face of my mistresse Sarai.

9 And the Angel of the Lord sayde vnto her, [d] Returne to thy mistresse againe, and submit thy selfe vnder her handes.

d The lewdnesse of the minister should not make the seruice neglect his duetie.

10 And againe [e] the Angell of the Lord sayde vnto her, In multiplying, I will multiply thy seede, in such sort, that it shall not bee nombred for multitude.

e The ministers that God sendeth, vse to speake in Gods person.

11 And the Lords Angel sayd vnto her, See, thou art with childe, and shalt beare a sonne, and shalt call his name ‖ Ismael: because the Lord hath heard thy tribulation.

‖ That is, the Lord shal heare.

12 He also will be a ‖ wilde man, and his hand will be against euery man, and [f] euery mans hande against him: and he shall dwell in the presence of all his brethren.

‖ That is, a fierce or a cruell man. f God by this woorde signifieth his iust iudgement, that such as delight to be at continuall enmitie with other men, shal likewise haue other men continuall enimies vnto them.

13 And she called the name of the Lorde that spake vnto her, Thou God lookest on me: for she sayde, Haue I not also here looked after him that seeth me?

14 Wherefore the well was called, The well of him that liueth and seeth mee: and it is betweene Cades and Bared.

15 And Hagar bare Abram a sonne: and Abram called his sonnes name, which Hagar bare vnto him, Ismael.

16 And Abram was fourescore and sixe yeeres olde, when Hagar bare Ismael to him.

The xvii. Chapter.

5 Abram is called Abraham. 8 The land of Chanaan is promised vnto Abraham the fift time. 12 Circumcision is ordeyned. 15 Sarai is named Sara. 16 Isahac is promised againe vnto Abraham. 23 Abraham circumciseth him selfe, Ismael, and his houshold seruantes.

1 When Abram was ninetie yeeres olde and nine, the Lord appeared to him, and sayde vnto him, I am the almightie God, walke before me, and be thou perfect.

2 And I will make my couenant betweene me & thee, & will multiply thee exceedingly.

3 Abram fell on his face, and God talked with him, saying,

4 It is I, behold, my couenãt [is] with thee, and thou shalt be a father of many [a] nations.

a Not of them only that were of his childe: but also of the beleeuing Gentiles.

5 Neither shall thy name any more be called Abram, but thy name shalbe called [b] Abrahã: *for a father of many nations haue I made thee.

b The changing of his name, is a seale of Gods promise. Rom. 4. 17.

6 [c] I wil make thee exceeding fruitefull, and will make nations of thee, yea and kinges shall spring out of thee.

c It was a hard thing for an old man to bee perswaded herein, therefore God repeateth his saying.

7 Moreouer, ‡ I will make my couenant betweene me and thee, and thy seede after thee, in their generations, by an euerlasting couenant, that I may bee God vnto thee, and to thy seede after thee.

‡ Heb. I will make to rise.

8 And I wil giue vnto thee, & to thy seede after thee, the land wherein thou art a stranger, [euen] all the lande of Chanaan, for an euerlasting possession, and wil be [d] their God.

d The promises made to Abram, were not of benefits only of this life.

9 And God said againe vnto Abraham, Thou shalt keepe my couenant therfore, both thou, and thy seede after thee, in their generations.

10 This is my couenant, which ye shall keepe betweene me & you, and thy seede after thee: euery *mã child amõg you shalbe [e] circũcised.

Acts. 7. 8.

11 Ye shall circumcise [f] the flesh of your foreskinne, and it shalbe a token of the couenant betwixt me and you.

e Circũcision is called the couenant, because it hath included in it the promise of Gods grace.

12 And euery manchilde of eight dayes olde, shalbe circumcised amongst you in your generations: both he that is borne in thy house, as hee that is bought with money of any stranger, which is not of thy seede.

f That principle part is circumcised, to shewe that all that is begotte of mã is corrupt, and must be mortified, Rom. 4.

13 He that is borne in thine house, and he also that is bought with money, must needes bee circumcised: and my couenant shalbe in your flesh for an euerlasting couenant.

14 And the vncircumcised manchild, in whose flesh the foreskinne is not circumcised, [g] that soule shall be cut off from his people, because he hath broken my couenant.

g The contemners of Gods sacraments, shal not be partakers of Gods promises and benefites.

15 And God sayde vnto Abraham, Sarai thy wife shalt thou not call Sarai, but Sara [shall] her name be.

16 And I will blesse her, & giue thee a sonne of her: yea, I will blesse her, and she shalbe [a mother] of nations, yea and kings of people shall spring of her.

17 But Abraham fell vpon his face, [h] and laughed, and said in his heart, Shal [a child] be borne vnto him that is an hundred yeeres olde? and shall Sara that is ninetie yeeres olde beare?

h This came not of iolynesse, but that he maruelled at the strangenes thereof.

18 And

18 And Abraham said vnto God, O that Ismael might liue in thy sight.

19 Vnto whom God sayd, Sara thy wife shall beare thee a sonne in deede, and thou shalt call his name Isahac: and I will establish my couenant with him for an [i] euerlasting couenãt, [and] with his seede after him.

20 And as cõcerning Ismael also I haue heard thee: for I haue blessed him, and wil make him fruitefull, and wil multiply him exceedingly: Twelue Princes shall he beget, and I will make a great nation of him.

21 But my couenant wil I make with Isahac, which Sara shall beare vnto thee, [euen] this time twelue moneth.

22 And he left off talking with him, and God departed vp from Abraham.

23 Abraham tooke Ismael his sonne, and such as were borne in his house, and all that was bought with money, as many as were men children, which were amongst the men of Abrahams house, and [k] circumcised the flesh of their foreskinne in the selfe same day, as God had sayd vnto him.

24 Abraham also himselfe was ninetie yeeres olde and nine, when the flesh of his foreskinne was circumcised.

25 Ismael his sonne was thirteene yeres olde, when he was circumcised in the flesh of his foreskinne.

26 The selfe same day was Abraham circumcised, and Ismael his sonne.

27 And all the men of his house, borne in his house, or bought with mony of strãgers, were circumcised with him.

i The euerlasting conenant is made with the children of the spirit: and with the children of ꝑ flesh is made the temporal promise, as in this place to Ismael.

k They were wel instructed, which obeyed to be circumcised without resistance: which thing declareth, that masters in their houses ought to bee preachers to their families, that from the highest to the lowest, they may obey the will of God.

The xviii. Chapter.

Christ is promised to all nations. 21 The destruction of Sodome is declared to Abraham. 23 Abraham prayeth for them.

Heb. 13. 2.

1 AND the Lorde * appeared vnto him in the plaine of Mamre: and he sate in his tent doore in the heate of the day.

2 And he lift vp his eyes and looked, & loe, [a] three men stoode by him: and when he saw them, he ranne to meete them from ꝑ tent doore, & bowed himselfe toward the ground,

3 And sayde, [b] Lord, if I haue nowe found fauour in thy sight, passe not away, I pray thee, from thy seruant:

4 Let a little water, I pray you, be fet, and wash your feete, and refresh your selues vnder the tree,

5 And I will fet a morsell of bread to comfort your hearts withal, and then shal you go your wayes: for therefore are you come to your seruant. And they sayd, Do as thou hast sayd.

6 And Abraham went apace into the tent, vnto Sara, & sayde, Make ready at once three measures of fine meale, knead [it,] and make cakes vpon the hearth.

7 And Abraham running vnto his beastes, fet a Calfe, tender and good, and gaue it vnto a yong man: and he hasted to make it readie at once.

8 And he tooke butter, and mylke, and the Calfe which he had prepared, and set it before them, and stoode himselfe by them vnder the tree: [c] and they did eate.

9 And they sayde vnto him, Where is Sara thy wife? He answered, Behold, in the tent.

10 And he sayde, I will certaynely returne vnto thee [d] if I liue: and loe, Sara thy wife shall haue a sonne. That heard Sara in the tent dooze, which was behinde him.

11 Abraham and Sara were both olde, & well stricken in age: and it ceased to be with Sara, after the maner as it is with women.

12 Therefore Sara laughed within her selfe, saying, Nowe I am waxed olde, shall I giue my selfe to lust, and my lord olde also?

13 And God sayd vnto Abraham, Wherefore did Sara laugh, saying, Shall I of a suretie beare a childe, which am olde?

14 Is any thing ‡ vnpossible to God? According to the time appoynted wil I returne vnto thee, if I liue: and Sara [shall] haue a sonne.

15 Then Sara denyed it, saying, I laughed not: for she was afrayde. And he sayde, It is not so, but thou diddest laugh.

16 And the men, rising vp from thence, looked towarde Sodome: and Abraham went with them to bring them on the way.

17 And the Lord sayd, Shall I hide from Abraham that thing which I doe, 18 Seeing that Abraham shall surely bee a great & a mightie nation, and all the nations of the earth shalbe blessed in him?

19 I know this also, that he will commaunde his children and his houshold after him, that they keepe the way of the Lord, & to doo iustice and iudgement, that the Lord may bring vpõ Abraham that he hath spoken vnto him.

20 And the Lorde sayde, [e] Because the cry of Sodome and Gomorrhe is great, and because their sinne is exceeding grieuous:

21 I will goe downe nowe, and see whether they haue [f] done altogether according to that cry which is come vnto me: and if not, I will knowe.

22 And the men departed thence, and went toward Sodome: but Abraham stoode yet before the Lord.

23 And Abraham drew neere, and sayd, Wilt thou also destroy ꝑ righteous with ꝑ wicked?

24 ‖ If there be [g] fiftie righteous within the citie, wilt thou destroy, & not spare the place for the fiftie righteous that are therein?

25 That be farre from thee, that thou shouldest doe after this maner, and slay the righteous with the wicked, & that the righteous should be as the wicked, that be farre from thee:

Shall

a Though they were Angels, yet in outward shew they were but men.

b He sawe three, but directed his speach to one, wherby the mysterie of the Trinitie is declared.

c For as God gaue them bodies for a time, so gaue he thẽ the vse thereof, that is, to walke, to eate and drinke, & such like.

d As the Angel before did walk, eate, and drinke like a mã, so he speaketh here as a man.

‡ Heb. hidden.

e God had before by war & destruction of their enemies, called them to repentance: but they contemned Gods calling.

f God forbeareth punishment, vntil the measure of mans sinnes compell him to vengeance.

‖ Or, peraduenture.

g Abraham wisheth not the wicked to be vnpunished: but the godly to be deliuered out of this present destruction.

Shall not the Iudge of all the world doe according to right?

26 And the Lord sayd, If I finde in Sodome fiftie righteous within the citie, I wil [h] spare all the place for their sakes.

h God bindeth not him selfe here alwaies to spare the wicked for ꝑ godly mens sake: As Ezechiel. 18.

27 And Abraham answering, sayd, Behold, I haue taken vpon me to speake vnto the Lord, which am but dust and ashes:

28 If there shall lacke fiue of fiftie righteous, wilt thou destroye all the citie for [lacke] of fiue? And he said, If I finde there fourtie and fiue, I will not destroy them.

29 And hee proceeded to speake vnto him againe, and sayd, What if there shall be fourtie found there? He answered, I will not doe it for fourties sake.

30 He sayde vnto him againe, O let not my Lord be angrie that I speake: What if there shal thirtie be found there? And he sayd, I wil do nothing if I finde thirtie there.

31 He sayde againe, O see, I haue taken vpon me to speake now also vnto my Lord: What if there shall be twentie founde there? He answered, I wil not destroy [them] for twenties sake.

32 And he sayde, O let not my Lord be angry, and I will speake yet but this once: What if tenne shall be founde there? He answered, I will not destroy [them] for tennes sake.

33 And the Lorde went his way assoone as he had left communing with Abraham: and Abraham [also] returned vnto his place.

The xix. Chapter.

Lot receiueth two Angels into his house. 4 The filthie lustes of the Sodomites. 24 Sodome is destroyed.

1 AND there came two Angels to Sodome at euen, & Lot sate at the gate of Sodome: and Lot seeing [them,] rose vp to meete them, and he bowed himselfe with his face toward the ground.

2 And he sayde, Oh my Lordes, turne in, I pray you, into your seruants house, & tarry al night, and wash your feete, and ye shal rise vp early to go in your wayes. Which said, Nay: but we will byde in the streete all night.

3 And he pressed vpon them exceedingly: and they returning in vnto him, entred into his house: and he made them a feast, and did bake vnleauened bread, and they did eate.

4 And before they went to rest, the men of the citie, [euen] the men of Sodome compassed the house round about, [a] both olde and yong, all people from [all] quarters.

a Nothing is more dangerous then to dwell where filthie ruigneth, the poyson whereof infecteth all sorts, & this one fact declareth the inuincible loue wherewith the citie.

5 And they calling vnto Lot, said vnto him, [b] Where are the men which came in to thee this night? bring them out vnto vs, that we may know them.

6 And Lot went out at the doore vnto them, and shut the doore after him,

7 And sayde, Nay, I pray you brethren, doe not [so] wickedly.

8 Beholde, I haue two daughters, which haue knowen no man, them will I bring out nowe vnto you, and [c] do with them as it [seemeth] good in your eyes: only vnto these mē do nothing: for therefore came they vnder the shadow of my roofe.

c As the defence of the strangers was godly: so this meanes to saue them, was not good.

9 [d] And they sayde, Stand backe: And they sayde againe, He came in as one to soiourne, and will he be nowe a iudge? we will surely deale worse with thee then with them. And they preassed sore vpon the man, [euen] Lot, and came to breake vp the doore.

d The wicked can not abide to be tolde of their faults.

10 But the men put forth their hande, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the doore.

11 And the men that were at the doore of the house, they smote with blindnesse both smal and great: so that they were wearied in ‡seeking the doore.

‡Heb. finding.

12 And the men sayde vnto Lot, Hast thou here any besides? [e] sonne in law, & thy sonnes, and thy daughters, and whatsoeuer thou hast in the citie, bring them out of this place:

e God dealeth mercifully with all that pertaine to the godly, if they contemne not his goodnesse.

13 For we will destroy this place, because the cry of them is great before the face of God: for the Lord hath sent [f] vs to destroy it.

f Angels may be ministers both of Gods grace & wrath.

14 And Lot went out, and spake vnto his sonnes in lawe, which marryed his daughters, saying, Stande vp, get ye out of this place, for the Lord will ouerthowe this citie. But he seemed as though he had mocked vnto his sonnes in lawe.

15 And when the morning arose, the Angels caused Lot to speede him, saying, Stand vp, take thy wife, and thy two daughters which be at hand: least thou perish in the ‖ sinne of the citie.

g Many thoughts and cares made him slacke: wherein the angels instructed him.

16 And as he prolonged the time, the men caught both him, his wife, & his two daughters by the hands, the Lorde being mercifull vnto him: and they brought him forth, and set him without the citie.

17 And when they had brought them out, [the Angel] [h] said, ‖ Saue thy selfe, and looke not behinde thee, neyther tarry thou in all this playne [countrey:] ‖ Saue thy selfe in the mountaine, least thou perish.

h God doeth not onely begin, but also finisheth the saluatiō of his seruants.

‖ Or, flee for thy selfe.

‖ Or, escape into the hill.

18 And Lot said vnto thē, Oh not so, my lords.

19 Behold, thy seruant hath found grace in thy sight, & thou hast magnified thy mercy which thou hast shewed vnto me in sauing my life: [i] Behold, I can not be saued in ꝑ mountaine, least some harme fall vpon me, and I die.

i The infirmitie of Lots faith, not contenting himselfe with the meanes that God had appointed.

20 Behold, here is a citie by, to flee vnto, euen yonder litle one: Oh let me escape thither: Is it not a litle one, and my soule shall liue?

21 And he said vnto him, See, I haue receyued thy ‡request, as concerning this thing, that I will not ouerthowe this citie for the which thou hast spoken.

22 Haste

‖ Or, escape thither safe.

22 Haste thee, and ‖ be saued there: for I can doe nothing till thou be come thither. And therefore the name of the citie is Soar.

23 And the Sunne was nowe risen vpon the earth, and Lot was entred into Soar.

24 Then the Lorde rayned vpon Sodome and Gomorrhe brimstone and fire, from the Lord out of heauen:

25 And ouerthrewe those cities, and all that playne region, and all that dwelled in the cities, and that that grew vpon the earth.

k As touching the body only, and this was a notable monument of Gods vengeance for her disobedience.

26 But Lots wife following him, looked behinde her, and k was turned into a pillar of salte.

27 Abraham rising vp earely, got him to the place where he stoode before the presence of God, 28 And looked towarde Sodome and Gomorrhe, & toward all the land of that plaine countrey, and beheld, & loe, the smoke of the countrey arose, as the smoke of a furnace.

l God declared how much he loued Abraham, in deliuering inst Lot, whome he did also much regard.

29 And it came to passe, that whē God destroyed the cities of that region, l he thought vpon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the midest of the ouerthrow, when he ouerthrewe the cities, in one of the which Lot dwelled.

30 And Lot departed out of Soar, and dwelled in the mountaine, with his two daughters: for he feared to tary in Soar, but dwelled in a caue, he and his two daughters.

‖ Or, first borne.

31 And the ‖ elder sayd vnto the yonger, m Our father is olde, and there is not a man in the earth to come in vnto vs after the maner of al the worlde.

m Though this counsaile were not for lust sake, but for propagatiō of children: yet the meanes here vsed, is detestable.

32 Come, let vs giue our father wine to drinke, and lye with him, that we may ‡ saue seede of our father.

‡ Heb. To keepe alive, or quicken.

33 And so they gaue their father wine to drinke that nyght: and the elder daughter went and laye with her father: and he perceyued it not, neither when she lay downe, neither whē she rose vp.

34 And on the morowe the elder sayde vnto the yonger, Beholde, yesternight lay I with my father: let vs make him drinke wine this night also, and goe thou and lye with him, that wee maye rayse vp seede of our father. And they made their father drinke wine that nyght also.

35 And the yonger arose, and lay with him: and he perceiued it not, neyther when she lay downe, neither when she rose vp.

n Thus God permitted him to fal most horribly in these solitary mountaines, whom the wickednes of Sodome could not ouercome.

36 Thus were n both the daughters of Lot with childe by their father.

37 And the elder bare a sonne, and called his name Moab: the same is the father of the Moabites vnto this day.

38 And the yonger bare a sonne also, and called his name Benammi: the same is the father of the children of Ammon vnto this day.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Abraham dwelleth as a stranger in the lande of Gerar.

1 AND Abraham a departed thence toward the South countrey, and dwelled betweene Cades and Sur, and sojourned in Gerar.

a God did thus teach him that he was but a stranger here.

2 And Abraham saide of Sara his wife, b She is my sister: And Abimelech king of Gerar sent, and fet Sara away.

b Abraham once againe giueth more to his owne denise, then to the prouidence of God.

3 But God came to Abimelech by night in a dreame, and sayd to him, See, c thou art but a dead man for the womans sake which thou hast taken away: for she is a mans wife.

c We may learne howe greatly adulterie displeaseth God.

4 But Abimelech had not yet touched her: and he sayde, Lord, wilt thou slaye righteous people?

5 Sayde not he vnto mee, She is my sister? yea, and she her selfe sayde, He is my brother: with a d single heart, and innocent handes haue I done this.

d He did neyther purposely nor tyrannically take an other mans wife.

6 And God sayde vnto him in a dreame, I wote wel that thou diddest it in the singlenes of thy heart: I kept thee also that thou shouldest not sinne against me, and therefore suffered I not thee to touch her.

7 Now therefore, deliuer the man his wife againe: for he is a Prophete, and he shall pray for thee that thou mayest liue: But & if thou deliuer her not againe, be sure that thou shalt die the death, [both thou] & all that thou hast.

8 Therefore Abimelech, rising vp betimes in the morning, called all his seruants, and tolde all these sayings in their eares: and the men were sore afrayde.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, & sayde vnto him, What hast thou done vnto vs? and what haue I offended thee, that thou hast brought on mee and on my e kingdome [so] great a sinne? thou hast done deedes vnto me, that ought not to be done.

e The wickednesse of the king bringeth Gods wrath vpon ꝑ whole realme.

10 And Abimelech said vnto Abraham, What sawest thou, that thou hast done this thing?

11 Abraham answered, For I ‖ thought [thus,] Surely, the feare of God is not in this place: and they shal slay me for my wiues sake.

12 Yet in very deede she is my sister: for shee is the daughter of my father, though she be not the daughter of my mother, and shee became my wife.

13 And after God caused me to wander out of my fathers house, I sayde vnto her, This kindnesse shalt thou shew vnto me in all places where we come, that thou say of mee, He is my brother.

14 Then tooke Abimelech sheepe and oxen, men seruants, & women seruantes, and gaue [them] vnto Abraham, & deliuered him Sara his wife againe.

15 And Abimelech said, Behold, my land lieth before thee, dwell where it pleaseth thee best.

16 But

16 But vnto Sara he sayd, See, I haue giuen thy brother a thousande pieces of siluer: beholde, it is a couering of thine eyes vnto all that are with thee, and to all [other:] and thus she was [f] reproued.

f God caused this heathen king to reprone her, because she dissembled, calling her husbād Abraham her brother.

17 And so Abraham prayed vnto God: & God healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maydens, and they bare children.

18 For the Lord had closed vp al the wombes of the house of Abimelech, because of Abrahams wife.

g God had taken awap frō them the gift of conceiuing.

The xxi. Chapter.

3 Isahac is borne. 14 Hagar is cast out, with her yong sonne Ismael. 17 The Angel comforteth her.

1 THe Lord visited Sara, as he had promised, and did vnto her according as he had spoken.

2 For Sara conceiued, and bare Abraham a sonne in his old age, the same season which the Lord had appoynted.

h All things are done here according to Gods word & promise, to teach þ Gods worde should be our rule.

3 And Abraham [a] called his sonnes name that was borne vnto him, which Sara bare him, ‡ Isahac.

‡ Heb. Iitschac.

4 And Abraham circumcised his sonne Isahac, when he was ‡ eight dayes olde, as God commanded him.

‡ Heb. The sonne of eight dayes.

5 And Abraham was an hundred yeeres olde, when his sonne Isahac was borne vnto him.

‡ Heb. To me a laughter.

6 But Sara said, God hath made ‡ me to reioyce, so that all that heare, will ioy with me.

7 She sayd also, Who would haue sayd vnto Abraham, that Sara should [b] haue giuen children sucke: for I haue borne [him] a sonne in his olde age.

b It is the duetie of the mother, if she may, to nurse her childe, as appeareth, 1. Tim. 5.

8 The childe grewe, and was weaned: and Abraham made a great feast the same day that Isahac was weaned.

9 Sara sawe also the sonne of Hagar the Egyptian, which she had borne vnto Abraham, [to be] a [c] mocker.

c Ismael mocked Gods promise made to Isahac, which the Apostle calleth persecution, Gala. 4. 29.

10 Wherefore she sayde vnto Abraham, Cast out this bondwoman, and her sonne: for the sonne of this bonde woman, shall not be heire with my sonne Isahac.

11 And this saying was very grieuous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne.

12 And God sayde vnto Abraham, Let it not be grieuous in thy sight, because of the lad, & of thy bonde woman: In all that Sara hath said vnto thee, heare her voyce: for in Isahac shall thy seede be called.

13 Moreouer, of the sonne of the bondwoman will I make a nation: because he is thy seede.

d Abraham truely denieth himselfe, in submitting his naturall affection to the will of God.

14 And so [d] Abraham rose vp early in the morning, and tooke bread, and a bottell of water, and gaue it vnto Hagar, putting it on her shoulder, and the lad also, and sent her away: who departing, wandered vp and downe in the wildernesse of ‡ Beer-seba.

‡ Sheba.

15 And the water was spent in the bottell, & she cast the lad vnder some one of the trees:

16 And went and sate on the other side a great way, as it were a bowe shoote off: for she sayd, I will not see the death of the childe. And she sitting downe on the other side, lift vp her voyce, and wept.

17 And God [e] heard the voyce of the lad, and the Angel of God called to Hagar out of heauen, and said vnto her, What ayleth thee, Hagar? feare not: for God hath heard the voyce of the lad where he lyeth.

e Because of his promise sake: for it appeareth not that Ismael prayed to God, or repented him.

18 Arise, and lift vp the ladde, and take him in thine hand: for I will make of him a great people.

19 And God [f] opened her eyes, and she sawe a well of water, and she went and filled the bottell with water, and gaue the lad drinke.

f When God withdraweth his help, we see not þ meanes which be hard at hand.

20 And [g] God was with the lad: and he grew, and dwelt in the wildernesse, and became a principall archer.

g In worldly affayres God caused Ismael to prosper.

21 And he dwelt in the wildernesse of Paran: and his mother got him a wife, out of the land of Egypt.

22 And at the same season, Abimelech and Phicol his chiefe captaine spake vnto Abraham, saying, God [is] with thee in all that thou doest:

23 And nowe therefore, sweare vnto me here by God, that thou wilt not ‡ hurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: but that thou shalt deale with me, & the countrey where thou hast bene a straunger, according vnto the kindnesse that I haue shewed thee.

‡ Lye vnto me.

24 And Abraham sayd, I will [h] sweare.

h So that it is a lawfull thing to take an othe in matters of importāce for to iustifie the trueth, and to assure others of our vpright dealing.

25 And Abraham rebuked Abimelech for a well of water, which Abimelechs seruāts had violently taken away.

26 And Abimelech said, I wote not who hath done this thing: also thou toldest me not, neither heard I [of it] but this day.

27 And Abraham tooke sheepe and oxen, and gaue them vnto Abimelech: and they made both of them a league together.

28 And Abraham set seuē ewe lambes by themselues.

29 And Abimelech said vnto Abraham, What meane these seuen ewe lambes, which thou hast set by themselues?

i Or well of the othe, or the well of couenant, or the well of seuen lambes.

30 He answered, For these seuen ewe lambes shalt thou take of my hand, that they may be a witnesse vnto me, þ I haue digged this well.

k Thus we see that the godly, as touching outward thinges, may make peace with the wicked that knowe not the true God.

31 Wherefore the place is called [i] Beer seba: because that there they sware both of them.

32 Thus made they a [k] league together at Beer seba: and Abimelech and Phicol his chiefe captaine rose vp, and turned againe into the lande of the Philistines.

l Abraham did not alter his true worshipping of God, though he made a league with the king.

33 And Abraham planted a wood in Beer seba, and [l] called there on the name of the Lord the euerlasting God.

34 And Abraham sojourned in the Philistines lande a long season.

The xxij. Chapter.

1. 2 The faith of Abraham is tried in offering his sonne Isahac. 8 Isahac is a figure of Christ.

AFter these ‖ sayings, God did [a] tempt Abrayham, and saide vnto him, Abrayhã. Which answered, Here I am.

a God tempted not Abrayham to sinne, but onely to trye his fayth.

2 And he said, [b] Take thy sonne, thine only sonne Isahac whom thou louest, and get thee vnto the lande of [c] Moriiah: and [d] offer him there for a whole burnt offring, vpon one of the mountaines which I will shewe thee.

b God wil trie our fayth in those things we set moste store by.

c Signifying the feare of God, vpon the which hill, Adam, Noah, & Sem worshipped God, where Solomõ after builded ẏ̃ temple.

d Herein standeth the chiefest point of his temptatiõ, seeing he was cõmaunded to offer vp him, in whom God had promised to blesse all the nations of the worlde.

3 Then Abrayham rose vp early in the morning, and sadled his Asse, and tooke two of his young men with him, and Isahac his sonne, and cloue wood for the whole burnt offering, and rose vp, and got him to the place which God had appointed him.

4 The third day Abrayham lift vp his eies, and sawe the place a farre off:

5 And saide vnto his young men, Bide here with the Asse, I and the lad will goe ponder and worshyp, and come againe to you.

6 And Abrayham tooke the wood of the whole burnt offering, and laide it vpon Isahac his sonne: but he him selfe tooke fire in his hand, ‖ and a knife: and they went both of them together.

‖ Or, sword.

7 Then spake Isahac vnto Abrayham his father, and sayd, My father. And he answered, Here am I my sonne. He sayde, See, here is fyre and wood: but where is the ‡ beast for a whole burnt sacrifice?

‡ Heb. lambe.

8 Abrayham answered, My sonne, God will prouide a beast for a whole burnt sacrifice: and so they went both together.

9 And when they came to the place which God had shewed him, Abrayham built an altar there, and dressed the wood, and bound Isahac his sonne, and layde him on the altar aboue vpon the wood.

10 And Abrayham stretching forth his hande, tooke the knife to haue killed his sonne.

11 And the Angel of the Lorde called vnto him from heauen, saying, Abrayham, Abrayham. And he saide, Here [am] I.

12 And he sayd, Laye not thy hande vpon the childe, neither doe any thing vnto him: for now I [e] know that thou feareste God, and hast for my sake not spared thine onely sonne.

e That which God had tried by experience, he is sayde to knowe.

13 And Abrayham lifting vp his eyes, looked, & beholde, behind [him] there was a Ramme caught by the hornes in a thicket: And Abrayham went, and tooke the Ramme, and offered him vp for a whole burnt offering in the steade of his sonne.

f Abrayham changeth the name, to shew that God doth both see and prouide secretly for his, and also euidently is seene & felt in time conuenient.

14 And Abrayham called the name of the place, [f] The Lord will see. And it is sayd this day, In the mount will the Lord be seene.

15 And the Angel of the Lorde cried vnto Abrayham from heauen, the second time,

16 And sayd, By my selfe haue I sworne, saith the Lord, Because thou hast done this thing, and hast not spared thine onely sonne, g God giueth his free benefites the name of reward, to prouoke men to godlinesse: not for the merite of the worke

17 That in blessing, I will blesse thee, and in multiplying, I wil multiplie thy seede as the starres of heauen, and as the sande which is vpon the sea side, and thy seede shall possesse the gates of his enemies.

18 And in thy seede shall all the nations of the earth be blessed, because thou hast heard my voyce.

19 So turned Abrayham againe vnto his yong men: and they rose vp, and went together to Beer-seba, and Abrayham dwelt at Beer-seba.

20 And after these things, one tolde Abrayham, saying, Beholde Milcha, she hath also borne children vnto thy brother Nachor.

21 Hus his eldest sonne, and Buz his brother, and Camuel the father of the ‡ Syrians, ‡ Heb. Aram.

22 And Chesed, and Hazo, and Pildash, and Iedlaph, and Bethuel.

23 And Bethuel begate ‡ Rebecca. These eight did Milcha beare to Nachor Abrayhams brother.

‡ Heb. Ribka.

h She was the seconde wife, which had not part of all the goodes as the first wife had, nor rule ouer the house.

24 And [h] his concubine called Reumah, shee bare also Tebah, and Gaham, Thahas, and Maacha.

The xxiii. Chapter.

1 Abraham bewayleth Saraes death. 6 He buyeth the fielde for her buriall of Ephron the Hethite. 19 Sara is layde in graue.

SAra was an ‡ hundred and seuen and twentie yeeres olde (so long liued she.)

‡ Heb. An hundred yeere, and twentie yeere, and seuen yeere.

2 And Sara dyed in Kiriath-arba, the same is Hebron, in the lande of Chanaan: and Abrayham came [a] to mourne for Sara, and to weepe for her.

a The godly may mourne, so that they mourne not out of measure: for the naturall affection is not to be disalowed.

3 And Abrayham stoode vp from the sight of his coarse, and talked with the sonnes of Heth, saying,

4 I am a stranger and a soiourner amongest you: giue me a possession to burie in with you, ẏ̃ I may bury my coarse out of my sight.

5 And the children of Heth answered Abrayham, saying vnto him,

6 Heare vs my Lord, Thou art a [b] Prince of God amongest vs, in the chiefest of our sepulchres burie thy dead: none of vs shall forbid thee his sepulchre, but thou mayest burie thy dead [therein.]

b That is, godly, or excellent, for so the Hebrues vse to speake of all things that are notable.

7 Abrayham stoode vp, and bowed himselfe before the people of the land, [that is,] the children of Heth.

8 And he communed with them, saying, If it be your ‡ minde that I shall burie my dead out of my sight, heare me, and speake for me to Ephron the sonne of Soar, ‡ Heb. in your soules.

9 That he may giue me the caue of ‖ Machpelah, which he hath in the ende of his fielde: but for as much money as it is worth, shall he giue it me for a possession to burie in amongst you.

‖ Or, double.

‖ Or, sate.

10 (For Ephron ‖ dwelled amongst ỳ children of Heth.) And Ephron the Hethite answered Abraham in the audience of the children of Heth, and of all that c went in at the gates of his citie, saying, c Meaning, all the citizens & inhabitants.

11 Not so my Lord, heare me: The field giue I thee, and the caue that therein is giue I thee also, in the presence of the sonnes of my people giue I it thee: burie thy dead.

12 And Abraham bowed him selfe before the people of the lande, 13 And spake vnto Ephron in the audience of the people of the countrey, saying, If thou wilt [giue it,] then I pray thee heare me, I will giue siluer for the fielde, take it of me, and I will burie my dead therein.

14 Ephron answered Abraham, saying vnto him,

15 My Lorde, hearken vnto me: The lande is worth foure hundred d sicles of siluer, what is that betwixt thee and me? burie therefore thy dead.

d The comon sicle is about 20. d. so then 400. sicles amount to 33. li. 6. s 8. d. after 5. s. the ounce.

16 And Abraham hearkened vnto Ephron, and weighed him the siluer which he had sayde in the audience of the sonnes of Heth, euen foure hundred siluer sicles of currant money amõg Marchants.

17 And the fielde of Ephron in Machpelah, which was before Mamre, euen the field, and the caue that was therein, and all the trees that were in the fielde, and that were in al the borders round about, was made sure

18 Unto Abraham for a possession in the sight of the children of Heth, before all that went in at the gates of his citie.

19 After this did Abraham burie Sara his wife in the double caue of the fielde that lieth before Mamre, the same is Hebron in the lande of Chanaan.

20 And so both the fielde and the caue that is therein, was made vnto Abraham a sure possession to burie in by the sonnes of Heth.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

a An old maner of taking an oth, whereby ỳ inferior did testifie his subiection. And here also may be gathered the mysterie of Christ, which came of the loynes of Abraham.

b Abraham would not that his son should marrie out of ỳ godly famine, for the inconueniences that come by marying with the vngodly, which are set foorth in sundry places of the Scripture.

2 Abraham causeth his seruant to sweare to take a wife for Isahac of his owne kinred.

1 AND Abraham was olde and striken in dayes: and the Lord had blessed Abraham in all things.

2 And Abraham sayde vnto his eldest seruaunt of his house, which had the rule ouer all that he had, Put a thy hande vnder my thigh:

3 And I will make thee sweare by the Lorde God of heauen, and God of the earth, that thou shalt not take a wife vnto my sonne, of the daughters of the Chananites, amongst which I dwell:

4 But thou shalt goe vnto my countrey, and to b my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sonne Isahac.

5 But the seruant sayde vnto him, Peraduenture the woman will not agree to come with me vnto this lande, shal I bring thy sonne againe vnto the land which thou camest out of?

6 To whome Abraham answered, Beware that thou bring not my sonne thither againe.

7 The Lord God of heauen, which tooke me from my fathers house, and from the lande of my kinred, and which spake vnto me, and that sware vnto me, saying, Unto thy seede will I giue this lande, he shall sende his Angell before thee, and thou shalt take a wife vnto my sonne from thence.

8 Neuertheless, if the woman will not folow thee, then shalt thou be cleare from this my othe: only bring not my sonne thither again.

9 And the seruant put his hand vnder ỳ thigh of Abraham his master, and sware to him as concerning that matter.

10 And the seruant tooke tenne Camels, of the Camels of his master, and departed, (and had of al maner of goods of his master with him) and so he arose and went to ‡ Mesopotamia, vnto the citie of Nachor, ‡ Heb. Aram, Naharaim: that is, Syria of the two floods.

11 And made his Camels to lye downe without the citie, by a welles side of water, at Euen, about the time that women come to drawe water.

12 And he sayde, Lorde c God of my master Abraham, I pray ‡ thee sende me good speede this day, and shewe mercie vnto my master Abraham.

c He grounds both his praier vpon Gods promise made to his master.

‡ Make to meete before me to day.

13 Loe, I stande here by the well of water, and the daughters of the men of this citie come out to drawe water:

14 d Nowe let the damsell to whome I saye, Bowe downe thy pitcher [I pray thee] that I may drinke: If she say also, Drinke, and I will giue thy Camels drinke also: let the same be she that thou hast ordeined for thy seruant Isahac, and thereby shall I knowe that thou hast shewed mercie on my master.

d The seruant moued by Gods spirite, desired to be assured by a signe, whether he shoulde speede of his message, or not.

15 And it came to passe yer he had left speaking, beholde, Rebecca came out, the daughter of Bethuel sonne of Milcha, the wife of Nachor Abrahams brother, and her pitcher vpon her shoulder.

16 The damsel was very fayre to looke vpon, and yet a mayde, and vnknowen of man: and she went downe to the well, and filled her pitcher, and came vp.

17 And the seruaunt running to meete her, sayd, Let me, I pray thee, drinke a litle water of thy pitcher.

18 And she sayde, Drinke my Lorde. And she hasted, and let downe her pitcher vpon her arme, and gaue him drinke.

19 And when she had giuen him drinke, she said, I will draw water for thy Camels also, vntill they ‖ haue drunke ynough.

‖ Or, ceasse to drinke.

20 And shee powred out her pitcher into the trough hastily, and ranne againe vnto ỳ well to drawe [water,] & drew for al his Camels.

21 And the man wondered at her, but held his peace: to wit whether the Lorde had made his iourney prosperous, or not.
22 And as the Camels had left drinking, the man tooke a golden earering of halfe a sicle weight, and two bracelets for her handes, of ten sicles weight of golde, 23 And sayde, Whose daughter art thou? tell me, I pray thee: is there roome in thy fathers house for vs to lodge in?
24 She answered him, I am the daughter of Bethuel the sonne of Milcha, which she bare vnto Nachor:
25 And sayde moreouer vnto him, We haue litter and prouender ynough, and also roome to lodge in,
26 And the man bowed him selfe, and worshipped the Lorde,
27 And sayd, Blessed be the Lorde God of my master Abraham, which hath not left destitute my master of his mercie and trueth: for when I was [e] on my iourney, the Lord brought me to my masters brothers house.
28 And the damsell ranne, and tolde them of her mothers house these things.
29 And Rebecca had a brother called Laban: and he ranne out vnto the man to the well.
30 For assoone as he had seene the earerings, and the bracelets in his sisters hande, & heard the wordes of Rebecca his sister, saying, Thus sayde the man vnto me: he went out vnto the man, and loe, he stoode with the Camels by the welles side:
31 And he sayde, Come in, thou blessed of the Lorde, wherefore standest thou without? I haue dressed the house, and roome for thy Camels.
32 And then the man came into the house: and he vnharnessed the Camels, and brought litter and prouender for the Camels, and water to washe his feete, and the mens feete that were with him.
33 And there was set meate before him to eate: [f] but he said, I will not eate, vntil I haue said mine errande. And he sayd, Say on.
34 And he sayde, I am Abrahams seruant,
35 And [g] God hath blessed my master marueilously, that he is become great: and hath giuen him sheepe & oxen, siluer & gold, men seruants, and maidseruants, Camels and Asses.
36 And Sara my masters wife bare a sonne to my master when she was olde: and vnto him hath he giuen all that he hath.
37 And my master made me sweare, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife to my sonne amongst the daughters of the Chanaanites in whose lande I dwell:
38 But thou shalt goe vnto my fathers house, and to my kinred, and take a wife vnto my sonne.
39 And I sayd vnto my master, Peraduenture the woman will not folowe me.
40 And he answered me, The Lorde, before whom I walke, will sende his angell with thee, and prosper thy iourney: and thou shalt take a wife for my sonne of my kinred, and of my fathers house.
41 Then shalt thou bee free from this othe [made] to me, when thou commest to my kinred: and if they giue not thee [one,] thou shalt be free from this othe [made] to me.
42 And so I came this day vnto the well, and said, [h] O Lorde, the God of my master Abraham, if it be so nowe that thou makest my iourney which I goe prosperous, 43 Behold, I stand by the well of water: and when a virgin commeth forth to drawe water, and I say to her, Giue me [I pray thee] a litle water of thy pitcher to drinke:
44 And she say to me, Drinke thou, and I will also drawe for thy Camels: let the same be the woman whom the Lorde hath prepared for my masters sonne.
45 And before I had made an ende of speaking in mine heart, behold, Rebecca came forth, and her pitcher on her shoulder: and she went downe vnto the well, and drew water: and I said vnto her, Giue me drinke, I pray thee.
46 And she made haste, and tooke downe her pitcher frō her [shoulder] and sayd, Drinke, and I will giue thy Camels drinke also. So I dranke, and she gaue the Camelles drinke also.
47 And I asked her, saying, Whose daughter art thou? She answered, The daughter of Bethuel, Nachors sonne, whom Milcha bare vnto him: and I put the earering ‡ vpon her face, and the bracelets vpon her hands.
48 And [i] I bowed my selfe, and worshipped the Lorde, and blessed the Lorde God of my master Abraham, which had brought mee the right waye, to take my masters brothers daughter vnto his sonne.
49 Now also if ye will consent to deale mercifully & truely with my master, tell me: [k] and if not, tell me also, that I may turne me to the [l] right hand, or to the left.
50 Then answered Laban & Bethuel, saying, This saying proceedeth of the Lord: we can not therefore say vnto thee either good or bad.
51 Behold, Rebecca [is] before thee, take her, & go, that she may be thy masters sonnes wife, euen as God hath sayd.
52 And when Abrahams seruaunt heard their wordes, he worshipped the Lord, bowing himselfe towarde the earth.
53 And the seruant tooke forth ‡ iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde, and rayment, & gaue them to Rebecca, and to her brother, and to her mother he gaue ‡ costly giftes.
54 And they did eate and drinke, both he and the men that were with him, and taryed all night: and when they rose vp in the morning, he sayd, Let me depart vnto my master.

55 Her brother and her mother answered, Let the damsell abide with vs, and it be but ten dayes, and then shall she goe.

56 He said vnto them, Hinder me not: beholde, the Lord hath prospered my iourney: send me away therefore, that I may go to my master.

m The fathers authoritie ought not to take away the consent of the childe in mariage. ‖ Or, her consent, 57 And they said, [m] We will call the damsell, and enquire ‖ at her mouth.

58 And they called foorth Rebecca, and sayde vnto her, Wilt thou goe with this man? And she answered, I will goe.

59 So they let Rebecca their sister go, and her nurse, and Abrahams seruant, and his men, 60 And they blessed Rebecca, and sayde vnto her, Thou art our sister, growe into thousand thousands: and thy seede [n] possesse the gate of his enemies.

n To possesse the gate, signifieth to beare rule and ouercome.

61 And Rebecca arose, and her damsels, & gate them vp vpon the Camels, and followed the man: and the seruant tooke Rebecca, & went his way.

62 And Isahac was comming from the way of the well of the liuing and seeing me: for he dwelt in the South countrey.

o This was the exercise of the godly fathers, to call to remembrance Gods promises, & to pray for the accomplishment of the same.

63 And Isahac was [o] gone out to pray in the fielde at the euentide: and he lift vp his eyes, and sawe the Camels comming.

64 And Rebecca lift vp her eyes, and when she sawe Isahac, she lighted off the Camel.

65 (For she sayd vnto the seruant, What man is this that commeth walking against vs in the fielde? And the seruant sayde, It is my master:) therefore she tooke her [p] vayle, and couered her.

p The custome was, that the spouse was brought to her husbande, her head being couered, in token of shamefastnes and virginitie.

66 And the seruant told Isahac all things that he had done.

67 And Isahac brought her into his mother Saras tent, and tooke Rebecca, and she became his wife, and he loued her: and so Isahac receiued comfort after his mother.

The xxvj. Chapter.

9 Abimelech rebuketh Isahac for calling his wife his sister. 28 The atonement betweene Abimelech & Isahac.

1 AND there fell a famine in the lande, besides the first that was in the dayes of Abraham: and Isahac went vnto a Abimelech king of the Philistines, vnto Gerar.

a All the kings of Gerar were called Abimelech, as the kings of Egypt Pharaos.

2 And the Lord appeared vnto him, and sayd, Goe not downe into Egypt, but abide in the land which I shall shewe vnto thee.

3 Soiourne in this lande, and I will be with thee, and will blesse thee: for vnto thee, and vnto thy seede, I will giue all these countreys, and I will perfourme the othe which I sware vnto Abraham thy father:

b God commendeth Abrahãs obedience, that Isahac should be more ready to do the like: for as God made his promise to Abraham of his free mercy, so the confirmation therof to Isahac, proceedeth of ỹ same fountaine.

4 And will make thy seede to multiplie as the starres of heauen, and wil giue vnto thy seede all these countreys: and in thy seede shall all the nations of the earth be blessed:

5 Because that b Abraham hearkened vnto my voyce and kept my ordinance, my commaundements, my statutes, and my lawes.

6 And Isahac dwelled in Gerar.

c Whereby we see that feare and distrust are founde in the most faithfull.

7 And the men of the place asked [him] of his wife. And he sayd, c She is my sister: for he feared to say, She is my wife: lest the men of the place should haue killed him because of Rebecca, which was beautifull to the eye.

8 And after he had bene there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines looked out at a windowe, and saw Isahac d sporting with Rebecca his wife.

d Or shewing some familiar signe of loue, whereby it might be knowen she was his wife.

9 And Abimelech called Isahac, and sayd, Beholde, she is of a suretie thy wife: and why saydest thou, She is my sister? To whom Isahac answered, Because I thought that I might peraduenture haue dyed for her sake.

10 Abimelech e sayd, Why hast thou done thus vnto vs? one of the people might lightly haue lyen by thy wife, and so shouldest thou haue brought sinne vpon vs.

e A heathenish king reproueth Isahac of his foolish dissimulation.

11 And so Abimelech charged all his people, saying, He that toucheth this mã or his wife, shall dye the death.

12 Then Isahac sowed in that lande, and receiued in the same yeere ‡ an hundred folde: and the Lorde ‖ blessed him.

‡ Found an hundred measures. ‖ Or, enriched.

13 And the man waxed mighty, & went forth, and grewe, till he was exceeding great.

14 For he had possession of sheepe, of oxen, and a mightie housholde: and therefore the Philistines had enuie at him.

15 For the Philistines f stopped and filled vp with earth all the welles which his seruantes had digged in his father Abrahams time.

f The enuious hurt other, and pleasure not them selues.

16 And Abimelech sayd vnto Isahac, Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier thẽ we, a great deale.

17 Therefore Isahac departed thence, and ‖ abode in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

‖ Or, pitched his tentes.

18 And Isahac returning, digged againe the welles of water which they digged in ỹ daies of Abraham his father, which the Philistines had stopped after the death of Abraham, and named them after the same names, by ỹ which his father had named them.

19 Isahacs seruants digged in the valley, and found a well of ‡ springing water.

‡ Liuing.

20 And the heardmen of Gerar did striue with Isahacs heardmen, saying, The water is ours. Then called he the well ‡ contention, because they strone with him.

‡ Esec.

21 And they digged another well, and strone for that also: and he called the name of it ‡ ennitie.

‡ Sitnah.

22 And then he departed thence, and digged another well, for the which they strone not: therefore called he it ‡ roomth, saying, The Lord hath made vs nowe roome, that we may encrease vpon the earth.

‡ Rehoboth.

23 And he went vp thence to Beersheba.

24 And the Lorde appeared vnto him the same night, and sayd, I am the g God of Abraham thy father, feare not, for I am with thee, and wil blesse thee, and multiply thy seede, for my seruant Abrahams sake.

g God affirmeth Isahac against all feare, by the bearing the promise made to Abraham.

25 And he builded an h altar there, and called vpon the name of the Lorde, and pitched his tent, and there Isahacs seruantes digged a well.

h It signifieth that he would serue no other God, but the God of his father Abraham.

i Isahacs patience made his enemies his friends.

26 Then i came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Ahazah his friende, and Phicol the captaine of his armie.

27 And Isahac sayde vnto them, Wherefore come ye to me, seeing ye hate me, and haue put me away from you?

‡ In seeing, we sawe.

28 Which answered, ‡ We sawe most certainly that the Lorde was with thee, and we said, Let there be nowe an othe betwixt vs, euen betwixt vs and thee, and let vs make a league with thee:

29 That thou shouldest doe vs no hurt, as we haue not touched thee, and as we haue done vnto thee nothing but good, and sent thee away in peace: for thou art nowe the blessed of the Lord.

30 And he made them a feast, and they did eate and drinke.

31 And they rose vp betimes in the morning, and sware one to another: and Isahac sent thē away, & they departed from him in peace.

32 And the same day Isahacs seruants came, and told him of a wel which they had digged, and sayd vnto him, We haue found water.

‖ Or, othe.

The xxvii. Chapter.

Iacob stealeth his fathers blessing from Esau by his mothers counsell. 41 Esau hateth Iacob. 43 Rebecca sendeth Iacob away into Haran to his vncle Laban.

1 AND it came to passe, that when Isahac waxed olde, and his eyes were dimme, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest sonne, and said vnto him, My sonne? And he sayde vnto him, Here am I.

2 And he sayd, Beholde, I am nowe olde, and knowe not the day of my death.

3 Nowe therefore take, I pray thee, thy weapons, thy quiuer, & thy bowe, and get thee to the field, & thou maiest take me some venison.

4 And make me well tasting meate, such as I loue, & bring it to me, that I may eate, a that my soule may blesse thee before that I die.

a The carnall affectiō which Isahac did beare to his elder sonne, made him forget what God spake to his wife concerning the younger. Gene. 25. verse 23.

5 But Rebecca heard when Isahac spake to Esau his sonne: And Esau went into the fielde to hunt venison, and to bring it.

6 And Rebecca spake vnto Jacob her sonne, saying, Beholde, I haue heard thy father talking with Esau thy brother, and saying, b Gen. 27. verse 6. She tried her selfe vpon Gods promise, and not weyed the dangers that might ensue.

7 Bring me venison, and make me daintie meate, that I may eate, and blesse thee before the Lord, afore my death.

8 Now therefore my sonne, b heare my voyce, in that which I command thee, 9 Get thee to the flocke, and bring me thence two good kiddes from the goates, and I will make of them pleasant meates for thy father, such as he loueth.

10 And thou shalt bring it to thy father, that he may eate, and that he may blesse thee before his death.

11 Then sayde Jacob to Rebecca his mother, Beholde, Esau my brother is a hearie man, and I am smoothe:

12 My father shall peraduenture feele me, and I shall seeme vnto him as though I went about to beguile him, & so shall I bring a curse vpon me, and not a blessing.

13 And his mother sayd vnto him, c Upon me be the curse, my sonne: only heare my voice, and goe and fetche me them.

c The assurance of Gods decree made her bolde.

14 And [Jacob] went, and fet them, and brought them to his mother, and his mother made pleasant meate, such as she knewe his father loued.

‖ Or, costly.

15 And Rebecca fet ‖ goodly rayment, of her eldest sonne Esau, which were in the house with her, and put them vpon Jacob her ponger sonne:

16 And she put the skinnes of the kids vpon his hands, & vpon the smoothe of his necke.

17 And she put that pleasant meate and bread, which she had prepared, in the hande of her sonne Jacob.

18 When he came to his father, he said, My father? And he answered, Here am I: who art thou, my sonne?

d This subtill dealing of Rebecca and Jacob with Isahac considered by it selfe, is altogether blameworthy: but if it be referred to the wil of God & setting foorth of his decree, it is commendable.

19 And Jacob saide vnto his father, d I am Esau thy eldest sonne, I haue done according as thou badest me: arise, I pray thee, sit, and eate of my venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

20 And Isahac sayde vnto his sonne, Howe commeth it that thou hast founde it so quickly, my sonne? He answered, The Lorde thy God brought it to my hands.

21 Then said Isahac vnto Jacob, Come neere, and I will feele thee, my sonne, whether thou be my very sonne Esau, or not.

22 Then went Jacob to Isahac his father, and he felt him, and sayde, The voyce is Jacobs voyce, but the hands are the hands of Esau.

e His ignorance hindered not Gods decree.

23 And e he knewe him not, because his hands were hearie, as his brother Esaus hands: and so he blessed him.

24 And he asked him, Art thou my sonne Esau? And he said, That I am.

25 Then said he, Bring me, and let me eate of my sonnes venison, that my soule may blesse thee. And he brought him, and he ate: and he brought him wine also, and he dranke.

f We must not so much behold the outward doings here, as the prouidence of God, who would by such weakenesse haue his election declared.

26 And his father Isahac saide vnto him, f Come neere, and kisse me, my sonne.

27 And he went vnto him, and kissed him: and he smelled the sauour of his rayment, and blessed blessed him, and sayde, See, the smell of my sonne, is as the smel of a field which the Lord hath blessed.

g Vnder these worldly blessings, the godly fathers embraced the heauenly promises.

28 God giue thee g of the dewe of heauen, and of the fatnesse of the earth, & plentie of corne and wine.

29 People be thy seruantes, and nations bowe to thee: be Lorde ouer thy brethren, and thy mothers children stoupe with reuerence vnto thee: cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 As soone as Isahac had made an ende of blessing Iacob, and Iacob was scarce gone out from the presence of Isahac his father, then came Esau his brother from hunting.

31 And he also had made a pleasant meate, and brought it vnto his father, and sayde vnto his father, Let my father arise, and eate of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blesse me:

32 Then his father Isahac sayde vnto him, Who art thou? He answered, I am thy sonne, thy first borne Esau.

33 And Isahac was greatly astonied out of measure, and said, Which [is he,] and where is he then, that hath hunted venison and brought it me, and I haue eaten of all before thou camest? and haue blessed him, yea h and he shall be blessed.

h What Gods ministers promise by his word, it shall be sure.

34 When Esau heard the wordes of his father, he cryed aloude and bitterly aboue measure, and sayde vnto his father, Blesse me, I also [am thy sonne,] O my father.

35 Who answered, Thy brother came with subtiltie, and hath taken away thy blessing.

36 And he sayde againe, Is not he rightly named ‖ Iacob? for he hath vndermined mee nowe two times: [First] he tooke away my birthright, and see, nowe hath he taken away my blessing also. And he saide, Hast thou kept neuer a blessing for me?

37 Isahac answered, and sayde vnto Esau, Beholde, I haue made him thy lorde, and all his brethren haue I made his seruantes: Moreouer, with corne and wine haue I stablished him: what shal I doe vnto thee now, my sonne?

38 And Esau sayde vnto his father, Hast thou but that one blessing, my father? blesse me, I am also [thy sonne,] O my father. So lifted vp Esau his voyce, i and wept.

i The wicked lament their losses, yet they amende not their wickednesse.

39 Then Isahac his father answered, and sayd vnto him, Beholde, k thy dwelling place shal be the fatnesse of the earth, and of the dewe of heauen from aboue.

k The spirituall blessing only remained in Iacob: this was but a temporal blessing.

40 And through thy sword shalt thou liue, and shalt be thy brothers seruant: and it shall come to passe, that thou shalt get the masterie, and thou shalt loose his yoke from of thy necke.

41 And Esau hated Iacob, because of the blessing that his father blessed him withall: And Esau said in his heart, The dayes of sorow-ing for my father are at hande, then will I l slay my brother Iacob.

l The wicked thinke by their power to ouerthrowe Gods iudgements.

42 And these wordes of Esau her elder sonne were tolde to Rebecca: And shee sent, and called Iacob her younger sonne, and sayde vnto him, Beholde, thy brother Esau, as touching thee, doth comfort him selfe, [full purposing] to kill thee.

43 Nowe therefore my sonne, heare my voyce: make thee ready, and flee to Laban my brother at Haran:

44 And tary with him awhile, vntill thy brothers fiercenesse be swaged, 45 And vntill thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, and he forget the thinges which thou hast done to him: then will I sende, and fetche thee away from thence: m why should I be desolate of you both in one day?

m For the wicked sonne will kill the godly, and the plagne of God wil afterward light vpon the wicked sonne.

46 And Rebecca saide to Isahac, I am wearie of my life n for the daughters of Heth: If Iacob take a wife of the daughters of Heth, such as these [which are] of the daughters of this land, what good shall my life doe me?

n Which were Esaus wiues, whose euill maners she vseth as an argument to send Iacob away.

The xxviii. Chapter.

1 Isahac forbiddeth Iacob to take a wife of the Chanaanites. 18 Iacob setteth vp a pillar, and maketh a vowe.

1 AND so Isahac called Iacob, and a blessed him, and charged him, and sayd vnto him, See thou take not a wife of the daughters of Chanaan:

a This second blessing was to confirme Iacobs fayth, lest he shoulde thinke that his father had blessed him before, without Gods motion.

2 Arise, and get thee to ‡ Mesopotamia, to the house of Bethuel thy mothers father, and there take a wife of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

3 And God almightie blesse thee, and make thee to encrease, and multiplie thee, that thou mayest be a number of people:

4 And giue ẏ blessing of Abraham vnto thee, and to thy seede with thee, that thou mayest receiue to inherite the land wherin thou art a stranger, which God gaue vnto Abraham.

5 Thus Isahac sent foorth Iacob, & he went toward Mesopotamia, vnto Laban, sonne of Bethuel the Syrian, and brother to Rebecca, Iacob and Esaus mother.

6 When Esau sawe that Isahac had blessed Iacob, and sent him to Mesopotamia to fetch him a wife frō thence, and that as he blessed him, he gaue him a charge, saying, Thou shalt not take a wife of ẏ daughters of Chanaan,

7 And that Iacob had obeyed his father and mother, and was gone to Mesopotamia:

8 And Esau seeing also that the daughters of Chanaan pleased not Isahac his father:

10 Iacob departed from Beer seba, and went toward Haran.

11 And he came vnto a certaine place, and taried there all night, because the Sunne was downe: and tooke of the stones of the place, and put vnder his head, and laide him downe in the same place to sleepe.

12 And he dreamed, and beholde, there stoode [c] a ladder vpon the earth, and the top of it reached vp to heauen: and see, the Angels of God went vp and downe vpon it:

13 Yea, and God from aboue leaned vpon it, and saide, I am the Lorde God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isahac, [d] the lande which thou sleepest vpon, will I giue thee and thy seede,

14 And thy seede shall be as the dust of the earth, & thou shalt spread abroad to the West, to the East, to the North, and to the South: and in thee, and in [c] thy seede, shall all the kinreds of the earth be blessed.

15 And see, I am with thee, and will be thy keeper, & in all [places] whither thou goest, and will bring thee againe into this lande: for I wil not [f] leaue thee, vntill I haue made good that which I haue promised thee.

16 When Iacob was awaked out of his sleepe, he sayde, Surely, the Lorde is in this place, and I knewe it not.

17 And he was afraide, and saide, Howe dreadfull is this place: It is none other, but the [g] house of God, and it is the gate of heauen.

18 And Iacob rose vp early in the morning, and tooke the stone that he had layd vnder his head, and pitched it vp on an ende, and powred oyle in the top of it.

19 And he called the name of the place Bethel: but the name of the citie was called Luza, beforetime.

20 And Iacob vowed a vowe, saying, If God will be with me, and will keepe me in this iourney in which I goe, and will giue mee bread to eate, and clothes to put on,

21 So that I come againe vnto my fathers house in safetie, then shal ỹ Lord be my God:

22 And this stone which I haue set vp on an ende, shalbe Gods house: and of all that thou shalt giue me, I will surely giue the tenth vnto thee.

c It may signifie Christ, by whose mediation all graces come down to vs, & all helpe, and by whom we ascend into heauen.

The xxix. Chapter.

Iacob commeth to his vncle Laban, and serueth him seuen yeeres for his daughter Rachel. 23 Lea was brought to his bed in steade of Rachel.

1 THen Iacob ‡ went on his iourney, and came into the lande of the ‡ people of the East.

2 And [as] he looked about, beholde, there was a well in the fielde, and loe, three flockes of sheepe lay thereby: for at that well were the flockes watered: and there was a great stone vpon the welles mouth.

3 And thither were all the flockes brought, & they rolled the stone frō the welles mouth, and watered the sheepe, and put the stone againe vpon the welles mouth vnto his place.

4 And Iacob sayde vnto them, My brethren, whēce be ye? And they said, Of Harā are we.

5 And he said vnto them, Know ye Laban the sonne of Nachor? They said, We know him.

6 And he sayde vnto them, Is ‡ he in good health? And they sayd, He is in good health: and beholde, his daughter Rachel commeth with the sheepe.

7 And he said, Loe, [it is] yet a great ‡ while to night, neither is it time ỹ the cattell should be gathered together: water yee the sheepe, and goe and feede [them.]

8 And they sayde, We may not, vntill all the flockes be brought together, and till they rolle the stone from the welles mouth, and so we water our sheepe.

9 While he yet talked with them, Rachel came with her fathers sheepe: for she kept thē.

13 And when Laban heard certainely tell of Iacob his sisters sonne, he ran to meete him, and imbraced him, and kissed him, & brought him to his house: And he tolde Laban [b] all these things.

15 And Laban sayde vnto Iacob, Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therefore serue me for nought? Tell me, what shal thy wages be?

16 Laban had two daughters: the elder called Lea, and the younger, Rachel.

30 For that little which thou haddeſt before ‡I came, is now increaſed vnto a multitude, and the Lord hath bleſſed thee through ‡my trauaile: but now when ſhall I make prouiſion for mine owne houſe alſo?
31 And he ſaid, What ſhall I then giue thee? And Iacob anſwered, Thou ſhalt giue mee nothing at all: if thou wilt do this thing for me, then wil I turne againe, feed thy ſheepe, and keepe them.
32 I will goe about all thy flockes this day, and ſeparate from them all the cattell that are ſpotted, and of diuers colours: and al the blacke among the ſheepe, and the partie and ſpotted among the kiddes, [the ſame] ſhalbe my reward.
33 So ſhall my righteouſneſſe anſwere for me ‡in tyme to come: for it ſhall come for my reward before thy face. And euery one that is not ſpecked and partie amongſt ỹ Goates, and blacke amongſt the ſheepe, let it be counted theft in me.
34 And Laban ſayde, Goe to, would God it might be according to thy ſaying.
35 Therefore hee tooke out the ſame day the hee Goates that were ringſtraked, and of diuers colours, & all the ſhee Goates that were ſpotted and coloured, and all that had white in them, and all the blacke amongſt ỹ ſheepe, and put them in the keeping of his ſonnes, 36 And ſet three dayes iourney betwixt himſelfe and Iacob: and ſo Iacob kept the reſt of Labans ſheepe.
37 hIacob tooke rods of greene populer, haſel, and cheſſenut trees, and pilled white ſtrakes in them, and made the white appeare in the roddes, 38 And put the roddes, which he had pilled, before the ſheepe, in the gutters and watering troughes when the ſheepe came to drinke, that they ſhould conceiue when they came to drinke.
39 And the ſheepe conceiued before the rods, and brought foorth lambes ringſtraked, ſpotted, and partie.
40 And Iacob did ſeparate theſe lambes, and iturned the faces of the ſheepe, which were in the flocke of Laban, toward theſe ringſtraked, and all maner of blacke: and ſo put his owne flockes by themſelues, and put them not with Labans cattell.
41 And in euery conceiuing tyme of the ſtronger cattell, Iacob layd the rods before ỹ eyes of the cattell in the gutters, [namely] that they might conceiue before the rods.
42 But when the cattell were feeble, hee put them not in: and ſo the feebler were Labãs, and the ſtronger Iacobs.
43 And the man kincreased exceedingly, and had much cattel, and maide ſeruantes, & men ſeruants, and Camels, and Aſſes.

f He had done his ſeruice with a good conſcience.
g This hypocrite ſpeaketh of God, and yet he worſhippeth falſe gods, and continueth in his wickednes.
‡ My face.
‡ My foote.
‡ To morowe.
h It is not lawfull by fraud to ſeeke recompence of iniurie: therefore Moſes ſheweth afterward that God thus inſtructed Iacob.
i He did dyne his owne lambes before Labans ſheep, ſo that they ſhould ſee before them, ſuch as were of diuers colours.
k By Gods ſingular prouiſion, and according to his promiſe.

The xxxj. Chapter.

1 Labans children doe grudge againſt Iacobs wealth. 19 Rachel ſtealeth her fathers gods. 23 Laban purſueth Iacob.

1 AND hee heard the wordes of aLabans ſonnes, ſaying, Iacob hath taken away all that was our fathers, & of our fathers [goods] hath hee gotten all his glorie.
2 And Iacob beheld the countenance of Laban, and beholde, it was not towards him ‡as it was woont to be.
3 And bthe Lord ſaid vnto Iacob, Turne againe into the land of thy fathers, and to thy kinred, and I will be with thee.
4 Therefore Iacob ſent, & called Rachel and Lea to the field, vnto his flocke:
5 And ſaid vnto them, I ſee your fathers countenaunce, that it is not toward me as it was woont to be: but the God of my father hath bene with me.
6 And ye knowe how I haue ſerued your father to the beſt of my power.
7 But your father hath deceiued me, & changed my wages cten tymes: but God ſuffred him not to hurt me.
8 dWhen he ſaid, The ſpotted ſhalbe thy wages: then all the ſheepe bare ſpotted. And when he ſaid, The ringſtraked ſhalbe thy reward: then bare all the ſheepe ringſtraked.
9 Thus hath God taken away the encreaſe of your fathers flocke, and giuen it to me.
10 But in ramming tyme I lifted vp myne eyes, and ſawe in a dreame, and beholde, the ‡rammes leaped vpon the ſheepe that were ringſtraked, ſpotted, and partie.
11 And the Angell of God ſpake vnto me in a dreame, ſaying, Iacob? And I anſwered, Here am I.
12 And he ſaid, Lift vp now thine eyes, and ſee all the rammes leaping vpon the ſheepe that are ringſtraked, ſpotted, & partie: for I haue cſeene all that Laban doeth vnto thee.
13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou anointedſt the ſtone [ſet vp on an ende,] and where thou vowedſt a vowe vnto me: now therefore ariſe, and get thee out of this countrey, & returne vnto the land where thou waſt borne.
14 Then anſwered Rachel, and Lea, and ſayd vnto a The enuious children of couetous Laban, thinke the wealth of another, their vtter vndoing.

‡ As yeſterday, and yer yeſterday.
b Though he was in great feare & doubt, yet he durſt not returne without Gods commandement.
c A certaine number is ſet for an vncertaine oftentimes.
d He would ſhew what iuſt cauſes he had to depart from their father: and how their brethren wrõgfully accuſed him.
‡ It ſignifieth the hee Goate alſo: as vnder ſheepe are conteined the Goates.
e Gods eye obſerueth what the wicked doeth vnto the godly.

vnto him, Haue we had as yet any portion or inheritance in our fathers house?
15 Doeth not he count vs euen as strangers? for he hath sold vs, and hath quite deuoured also our money.
16 Therfore all the riches which God hath taken from our father, that is ours & our childrens: now then whatsoeuer God hath sayd vnto thee, that doe.
17 Then Jacob rose vp, and set his sonnes and wiues vp vpon Camels:
18 And caried away all his flockes, and all his substance which he had procured, the increase of his cattell which hee had gotten in ‡Mesopotamia, for to goe to Isahac his father, vnto the land of Chanaan.

‡ Padan Aram.

19 But Laban was gone to sheare his sheepe: & Rachel had stollen her fathers [f] images.

f Images made in the likenesse of men, which he had in reuerence as his houshold gods.

20 And Jacob [g] stale away the heart of Laban the Syrian, in that he tolde him not that he fledde.

g That is, to do any thing without the parties knowledge or consent.

21 So fled he, and all that he had, & made him selfe redy, and passed ouer the riuer, & set his face straight toward the mount Gilead.
22 Upon the third day after, was it told Laban that Jacob fled.

h They would reuenge the iniurie done to their false religion: for their gods were stolen.

23 Then he tooke his [h] brethren with him, and followed after him seuen dayes iourney, and ouertooke him at the mount Gilead.

i Thus God restraineth the cruel purposes of tyrants against his Church.

24 And [i] God came to Laban the Syrian in a dreame by night, and sayde vnto him, Take heede that thou speake not to Jacob ought ‡ saue good.

‡ From good to bad.

25 And Laban ouertooke Jacob: and Jacob had pitched his tent in the mount, and Laban with his brethren pitched also vpō the mount Gilead.
26 And Laban said to Jacob, What hast thou done? For thou hast stollen away my heart, & caried away my daughters, as though they had bene taken captiue with the sword.

‡ And hast stollen me.

27 Wherfore wentest thou away secretly ‡ vnknowen to me, [k] and didst not tell me, that I might haue let thee goe thy way with mirth and songs, with tymbrell and harpe, k A dissembling hypocrite, when hee can doe no harme, yet he will burden the godly in words.

28 And hast not suffered me to kisse my sonnes and my daughters? Thou wast a foole now in so doing.

l The wicked bragge of their power, as Pilate did.

29 For it is in [l] my ‡ hand through God to doe you hurt: but the God of your father spake vnto me yesternight, saying, Take heed that thou speake not to Jacob ought saue good.

‡ By mankind.

30 And now though thou wouldest needes bee gone away, because thou sore longest after thy fathers house, yet wherfore hast thou stollen my gods?
31 Jacob answered and sayde to Laban, Because I was afraid, and thought [that] peraduēture thou wouldst take away thy daughters from me.
32 But with whomesoeuer thou findest thy gods, let him die. Here before our brethren, seeke that thine is by me, and take it to thee: But Jacob wist not that Rachel [m] had stollen them.

m It was not godlinesse, but superstition that mooued Rachel to this theft.

33 Then went Laban into Jacobs tent, and into Leas tent, and into the two mayde seruantes tentes: but found them not. Then went he out of Leas tent, and entred into Rachels tent.
34 And Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the Camels strawe, and sate downe vpon them, and Laban tolled vp all the tent, but found them not.
35 Then sayd she to her father, My lord, be not angry that I can not rise vp before thee: for the custome of women is come vpon me. So searched he, but [n] found not those images.

n So this superstition remained in Jacobs house till after the destruction of Sichem.

36 And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban, Jacob also answered, and sayde to him, What haue I trespalled? or what haue I offended thee, that thou doest so re pursue after me?
37 Thou hast tolled vp all my stuffe, and what hast thou found of all thy houshold stuffe? put it here before thy brethren and my brethren, that they may iudge betwixt vs both.
38 Beholde, this twentie yeeres haue I bene with thee, thy Sheepe & thy Goates [o] haue not bene barren, & the Rammes of thy flocke haue I not eaten.

o This was Gods benefite, yet bestowed vpon Laban for Jacobs sake: so Jacob counteth it his.

39 Whatsoeuer was torne [of beastes,] I brought it not vnto thee, but made it good my selfe: of my hand diddest thou require it that was stollen by day or night.
40 I was in such case, that by day the heat consumed me, and the frost by night, & my sleepe departed from mine eyes.
41 Thus haue I bene twentie yeeres in thy house, and serued thee fourteene yeeres for thy two daughters, and sixe yeeres for thy Sheepe, and thou hast changed my reward ten tymes.
42 And except the God of my father, [p] the God of Abraham, and the feare of Isahac had bene with me, surely thou hadst sent me away now all emptie: but God beheld my tribulation, and the labour of my handes, and rebuked [thee] yesternight.

p God would not haue the seruant defrauded of his iust reward.

43 And Laban answered, and said vnto Jacob, These daughters are my daughters, & these children are my children, and these Sheepe are my Sheepe, & all that thou seest is mine: and what can I doe this day vnto these my daughters, or vnto their children which they haue borne?
44 Now therefore come on, and let vs make a league, I and thou, which may be a witnesse betweene me and thee.
45 Then tooke Jacob a stone, and set it vp for an ende.
46 And Jacob sayd vnto his brethren, Gather stones, stones. And they tooke stones, and made an heape, & they did eate there vpon the heape.

47 And Laban called it ᵍ Jegar Sahadutha: but Jacob called it ‡ Galeed.

48 Then sayd Laban, This heape is witnesse betweene thee and me this day. Therefore it is called ‡ Galeed, 49 And ‡ Mispah: for he said, The Lord looke betweene thee and me, when we are departed one from another, 50 If thou shalt vexe my daughters, or shalt take ʰ other wiues beside my daughters: here is no man with vs, behold, God [is] witnesse betwixt thee and me.

51 And Laban sayde moreouer to Jacob, Behold this heape, and this stone set vp on ende, which I haue layd betwixt me and thee, 52 This heape be witnesse, and also this stone set vp on ende, that I will not come ouer this heape to thee, & thou shalt not come ouer this heape, and this stone set vp on ende, vnto me, to do any harme.

53 The God of Abraham, and the ⁱ God of Nachor, and the God of their father, bee iudge betwixt vs. And Jacob ᵏ sware by the feare of his father Isaac.

54 Then Jacob did sacrifice vpon the mount, and called his brethren to eate bread: & they did eate bread, and taried all night in the hill.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose vp, and kissed his sonnes and his daughters, and ˡ blessed them: and Laban departing, went into his place agayne.

ᵍ Thus he both gaue witnesse, and ioyned the heape of witnesse, which thing also this word Galeed meaneth.
‡ Galed.
‡ Mitspah, that is, a looking glasse.

ʰ He now condemneth the crime of Polygamie, wherof he was afore the author.

ⁱ This was a wicked fact, to ioyne his false gods with the true God, and to iudge the false to be the elder god.
ᵏ Jacob would not sweare to maintaine an Idolatrous deuise.

ˡ The fathers vsed to keepe the outward maners of the godly.

The xxxij. Chapter.

1 God comforteth Iacob by a vision of Angels. 24 Iacob wrestleth with the Angell, who named him Israel.

1 BUt Jacob went forth on his iourney, & ᵃ the Angels of God came & met him.

2 And when Jacob sawe them, he sayde, This is Gods hoste, and called ʸ name of the same place ᵇ Mahanaim.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, vnto the land of Seir the ‖ field of Edom:

4 And he commaunded them, saying, Thus shall yee speake to my lorde Esau, Thy seruant Jacob saith thus, I haue bene a stranger with Laban, and haue stayed there vnto this tyme,

5 And haue oxen, asses, and sheepe, men seruantes, and women seruants: and haue sent to shew [it] my lord, that I may finde grace in thy sight.

6 And the messengers came agayne to Jacob, saying, Wee came to thy brother Esau, and he commeth to meete thee, & hath foure hundred men with him.

7 But Jacob was greatly afraid, and wist not which way to turne himselfe, & diuided the people that was with him, and the sheepe, & oxen, and camels, into two companies:

ᵃ God would certainly perswade him of his protection, in the feare hee was in of Esau.
ᵇ That is, two armies or campes.
‖ Or, region.

8 And said, If Esau come to the one part, and smite it, the other shall saue it selfe.

9 And Jacob said agayne, ᶜ O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isaac, Lord which saidest vnto mee, Returne vnto thy countrey, and to thy kinred, and I wil do well with thee:

10 I am ‡ not worthie of the least of all ʸ ᵈ mercies and trueth which thou hast shewed vnto thy seruant: for with my staffe came I ouer this Iordane, and nowe haue I gotten two companies.

11 Deliuer me from the hand of my brother Esau: for I feare him, lest he will come and smite me, [yea] the mother with the children.

12 Thou saidst, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seede as the sand of the sea, which can not be numbred for multitude.

13 And he taried there that same night, & tooke of that which came to hand, ᵉ a present for Esau his brother,

14 Two hundred shee goates, and twentie bee goates, two hundred sheepe, and twentie rammes,

15 Thirtie milche camels with their coltes, fourtie kine, & ten bulles, twentie shee asses, and ten foales:

16 And deliuered them into the handes of his seruants, euery droue by themselues, and said vnto his seruants, Goe forth before me, and put a space betwixt droue and droue.

17 And he commanded the foremost, saying, If Esau my brother meete thee, and aske thee, saying, Whose art thou? and whither goest thou? and whose are these [that goe] before thee?

18 Thou shalt say, They bee thy seruant Jacobs, and it is a present sent vnto my lord Esau: & behold, he himselfe commeth after vs.

19 And so commaunded he the second, and the third, and all that followed the droues, saying, On this maner see that you speake vnto Esau when ye meete him.

20 And say moreouer, Behold, thy seruant Jacob also commeth after vs: for he sayd, I wil appease ‡ his wrath with the present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see him my selfe, peraduenture he will receiue ‡ mee to grace.

21 So went the present before him: and he taried all that night in the companie.

22 And he rose vp the same night, and tooke his wiues, and his two maid seruants, and his eleuen sonnes, and went ouer the foord Jaboc.

23 And he tooke them, and set them ouer the riuer, and sent ouer that he had.

24 And Jacob was left himselfe ᶠ alone, & there wrestled a man with him, vnto the breaking of the day.

25 And when he saw that he could not preuaile ᶜ Thus his faith ouercame his feare: thus prayer is the godly mans refuge in trouble.

against him, g he smote him vpon the huckle bone of his thigh, and the huckle bone of Iacobs thigh loosed out of ioynt as he wrestled with him.

26 And he sayde, Let me goe, for the day breaketh. Which answered, I will not let thee goe, except h thou blesse me.

27 And he sayd vnto him, What is thy name? He answered, Iacob.

28 He sayd, Thy name shall be called no more Iacob, but ‡ Israel: For as a prince hast thou wrestled with God, and with men, and hast preuailed.

29 And Iacob asked him, saying, Tell i me thy name. And he sayde, Wherefore doest thou aske after my name? And hee blessed him there.

30 And Iacob called ỹ name of the place ‡ Peniel: for I haue k seene God face to face, and my life is preserued.

31 And as he went ouer Peniel, the Sunne rose vpon him, & he halted vpon his thigh.

32 And therefore it is that the children of Israel eate not of the synewe that shanke in that place of the thigh, vnto this day: because that he touched the huckle bone of Iacobs thigh, about the synewe that shanke.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

1 Esau meeteth his brother Iacob, 4 and is agreed with him. 19 Iacob byeth a possession, and buildeth an altar vnto God.

1 IAcob lifting vp his eyes, looked, & behold, Esau came, hauing with him foure hundred men: and he diuided the children vnto Lea, and vnto Rachel, and vnto the two handmaidens.

2 And he put the handmaidens and their children foremost, & Lea and her children after, and Rachel and a Ioseph hindermost.

3 And he went before them, and bowed himselfe to the ground seuen times, vntil he came to his brother.

4 Esau ran to meete him, and imbraced him, & fel on his necke, & kissed him, and they wept.

5 And he lift vp his eyes, and saw the women and the children, and said, Whence hast thou these? And he answered, They are ỹ children which God hath giuen thy seruant.

6 Then came the handmaidens foorth, & their children, and bowed themselues.

7 Lea also with her children, came & did their obeisance: and last of all, came Ioseph & Rachel, and did b their obeisance.

8 And he said, What is all the droue which I met? He answered, That I may finde grace in the sight of my lord.

9 And Esau said, I haue enough, my brother, keepe that thou hast vnto thy selfe.

10 And Iacob answered, Nay, I pray thee: but if I haue founde grace in thy sight, receiue, I pray thee, my present of my hand: for I haue seene thy face, as though I had c seene the face of God, and so thou hast receiued me to grace.

11 Oh take my blessing that is brought thee: for God hath had mercie on me, and I haue enough. And so hee compelled him, and he tooke it.

12 And he sayd, Let vs take our iourney, & goe, I will goe before thee.

13 Iacob answered him, My lord, thou knowest that the children are tender, and the small and great cattell with yong vnder my hands, which if men should ouerdriue but euen one day, all the flocke will die.

14 Oh let my lord goe before his seruant, and I will driue faire and softly, according as the cattell that goeth before me, and the children bee able to endure, d vntill I come vnto my lorde vnto Seir.

15 And Esau sayde, I will leaue some of my folke with thee. And he answered, What needeth it? I shall finde grace in the sight of my lorde.

16 So Esau went his way agayne that same day vnto Seir.

17 And Iacob tooke his iourney toward Suchoth, & built him an house, & made boothes for his cattell: and therefore is it that ỹ name of the place is called e Suchoth.

18 And Iacob came to Sale, a citie of f Sichem, which is in the land of Chanaan, after that he was come from Mesopotamia, & pitched before the citie, 19 And bought a parcell of ground, where hee pitched his tent, of the children of Hemor Sichems father, for an hundred pieces of monie.

20 And he made there an altar, g and called it, The mightie God of Israel.

a As yet Iacob was not certified of the prerogatiue of Iuda.

b A figure of the Church appeareth in Iacobs household, which was in no dignitie in respect of Esau.

c Because his brother mbraced him so louingly, contrary to his expectation, he accepted it as a plaine signe of Gods presence.

d He promised that which his mind was not to performe, as appeareth afterward.

e There is a place in Egypt, which is also in nature of tents. Num. 33.

f It is called Sichar, Ioh. 4.

g He calleth the signe the thing which it signifieth, as some time God had mightie deliuerers giuen.

The xxxiiii. Chapter.

1 The rauishing of Dina Iacobs daughter by Sichem the sonne of Hemor. 8 Who requireth her in marriage for his sonne. 13 The sonnes of Iacob doe guilefully require the Sichemites to be circumcised. 25 The whoredome is reuenged by Simeon and Leui Iacobs sonnes. 30 Iacob reproueth his sonnes.

1 DIna the daughter of Lea, which shee bare vnto Iacob, went out to see the daughters of the land.

2 Whom when Sichem the sonne of Hemor the Heuite lord of the countrey saw, he tooke her, and lay with her, and ‡ defiled her.

3 And his heart lay vnto Dina the daughter of Iacob, and he loued that damsell, & spake ‡ kindly vnto her.

4 And Sichem spake vnto his father Hemor, saying, Get me this maiden vnto my wife.

5 And Iacob heard that hee had defiled Dina his daughter (his sonnes beyng with their cattell in the field) and Iacob a held his peace vntill they were come.

‡ He abused her.

‡ To her heart.

6 [b] And Hemor the father of Sichem, went out vnto Jacob to commune with him.

b If godly father would heal haue some his sonne corrected.

7 And when the sonnes of Jacob (comming out of the field) heard it, it grieued them, and they were not a little wroth, because hee had wrought folly in Israel, in that he had lyen with Jacobs daughter, which thing ought not to be done.

8 And Hemor communed with them, saying, The soule of my sonne Sichem longeth for your daughter: I pray you [c] giue her him to wife, c This proueth that the consent of parents is requisite in marriage, seyng the very infidels did obserue it vniuersally.

9 And make mariages with vs, & giue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you.

10 And yee shall dwell with vs, and the land shalbe before you: dwel, and do your businesse therein, and haue possessions therein.

11 And Sichem sayd vnto her father and vnto her brethē, Let me finde grace in your eies, & what so euer ye appoint me, that will I giue.

d The Hebrew word signifieth that which was giuen to a mayd in recompence of her virginitie.

12 Aske freely of me both [d] dowrie and giftes, and I wil giue according as ye say vnto me, so that ye giue me the damsell to wife.

13 But the sonnes of Jacob answered to Sichem and Hemor his father, talking amongst themselues deceitfully: because hee had defiled Dina their sister.

14 And they sayd vnto them, We can not doe this thing, that we should giue our sister to one that is [e] vncircumcised: for that were an abomination vnto vs.

e Religion is made a pretence for them to satisfie their auarice.

15 But in this will we consent vnto you: if ye will be as we be, and all the ‖ males amongst you be [f] circumcised:

f They pollute the holy signe, making strangers without respect, partakers thereof.

16 Then wil we giue our daughters vnto you, and take your daughters to vs, & will dwell with you, and be one people.

17 But and if ye will not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then will we take our daughter, and goe our wayes.

18 Their wordes pleased Hemor, and Sichem his sonne.

19 And the yong man deferde not for to do the thing, because he had a lust to Jacobs daughter: he was also most set by of all that was in his fathers house.

20 Then Hemor and Sichem his sonne, went vnto the [g] gate of their citie, and communed with the men of their citie, saying, g Common assemblies and iudgements were then in the gates of cities.

21 These men liue peaceablie among vs, and dwel in the land, & do their occupation therein: and behold, the land is large enough for them, we will take their daughters to wiues, and giue them our daughters.

22 Onely herein will they consent vnto vs, for to dwell with vs, and to be one people, If all the males that are among vs be circumcised, as they are circumcised.

h Euill magistrates pretend common wealth, to get all to bee for their owne cause.

23 Shal not their goods and their substance, & all their cattel [h] be ours? let vs onely consent vnto them, and they will dwel with vs.

24 And vnto Hemor and Sichem his sonne, hearkened all that went out at the gate of the citie: and all the males were circumcised, whatsoeuer went out at the gate of his citie.

25 And the third day whiles they were sore, two of the sonnes of Jacob, Simeon and Leui, Dinas brethren, tooke either of them his sword, and went into the citie boldly, and slew all the males, i These were captaines of the band.

26 And slew also Hemor and [k] Sichem his sonne with the edge of the sword, and tooke Dina out of Sichems house, and went their way.

k The magistrates sinne is punished vpon all the people.

27 And the sonnes of Jacob comming vpon the ‡ dead, [l] spoiled the citie, because they had defiled their sister, l God would haue all men vnderstand, how much hee hateth all vncleannesse.

28 And tooke their sheepe, oxen, and their asses, and what so euer was in the citie, and also in the fields.

29 And all their goods, and all their children, & their wiues, tooke they captiue, and made hauocke of all that was in the house.

30 But Jacob sayd to Simeon and Leui, Ye haue troubled me, and made me to ‡ bee abhorred of the inhabiters of the land of ỹ Chanaanite and the Pherezite: and I being few in number, they shal gather themselues together against me, and slay me, and so shall I and my house be destroyed.

‡ To stinke.

m They foolishly defend such barbarous crueltie, done without authoritie vpon so many, vnder godly pretence, to the endangering of the godly.

31 And they answered, Should [m] he deale with our sister as with an harlot?

The xxxv. Chapter.

1 Iacob at Gods commandement goeth vp to Bethel, & burieth his images vnder an oke. 16 Rachel dieth in trauaile of Beniamin.

1 AND [a] God sayd vnto Jacob, Arise, and get thee vp to Bethel, and dwel there: and make there an aulter vnto God, that appeared vnto thee when thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.

a God will continually procure the health of his Church, as he doeth Jacobs in this miserable case.

2 Then sayd Jacob vnto his householde, and to all that were with him, [b] Put away the strange gods that are among you, and bee cleane, and change your garments.

b He exhorteth his household to repentance and outward profession of the same.

3 For we will arise and go vp to Bethel, and I will make an aultar there vnto God, which heard me in the day of my affliction, and was with me in the way which I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Jacob all the [c] strange gods which they had in their hand, and all their earerings which were in their eares, & Jacob hid them vnder an oke which was by Sichem.

c Thus one womans folly had polluted almost all the Church.

5 And when they departed, the feare of God fell vpon the cities that were rounde about them, and they did not pursue the sonnes of Jacob.

6 So came Jacob to Luza, which is in ỹ land of Chanaan (the same is Bethel) he and all the people that was with him, 27 And so Iacob came [k] vnto Isahac his father to Mamre, vnto Kiriath-arba, [l] which is Hebron, where Abraham and Isahac dwelt.

28 And the dayes of Isahac were an hundred and foure score yeeres.
29 And Isahac decaied away, and died, & was layd vnto his people, being olde and full of dayes: and his sonnes Esau and [m] Iacob buried him.

5 Ioseph telleth his dreames, and is hated of his brethren. 34 Iacob being perswaded that his sonne Ioseph was dead, bewaileth him.

1 IAcob dwelt in the lande wherein his father was a stranger, in the lande of Chanaan.

2 These are the a generations of Jacob: when Joseph was seuenteene yeeres olde, he kept sheepe with his brethren, and the lad was with the sonnes of Bilha, and with the sonnes of Zilpha, his fathers wyues: and Joseph brought vnto his father b their euill report.

5 Moreouer, when Joseph d had dreamed a dreame, hee tolde it his brethren, which hated him yet the more.

d The dreams that came frō God, had singular notes, whereby they were discerned from other.

6 And he sayd vnto them, Heare I pray you this dreame which I haue dreamed.

7 Beholde, we were bynding sheaues in the field, and loe, my sheafe arose & stood vpright, and behold, your sheaues stood rounde about, and made obeisance to my sheafe.

8 To whom his brethren sayd, Shalt thou be a king in deede ouer vs? or shalt thou in deede haue dominion ouer vs? e And they hated him yet the more, because of his dreames, and of his wordes.

e Gods graces to the godly, are an occasiō that the wicked hate them.

9 And he dreamed yet another dreame, & told it his brethren, saying, Beholde, I haue had one dreame more, and behold, the Sunne, and the Moone, and eleuen Starres made obeisance to me.

10 And when he had tolde it to his father and his brethren, his father rebuked him, and sayd sayde vnto him, What is this dreame that thou hast dreamed? Shall [f] I and thy mother and thy brethren in deede come to bowe to thee?

[f] By the chiefe of the familie, the whole is meant. Not that euery one should doe thus: for his mother was dead.

11 And his brethren enuied him: but his father noted the saying.

12 His brethren also went to keepe his fathers cattel in Sichem.

13 And Israel sayd vnto Ioseph, Doe not thy brethren keepe in Sichem? come, and I wil send thee to them.

14 He answered, Here I am. And he sayde vnto him, Goe, [I pray thee,] see whether it be well with thy brethren and the cattell, and bring me worde againe. And so hee sent him out of the vale of Hebron, and hee came to Sichem.

15 And a certayne man founde him, and beholde, hee was wandring out of his way in the fielde, and the man asked him, What seekest thou?

[g] Many seeke brethren, and find enemies.

16 He answered, I seeke my [g] brethren: tell me, I pray thee, where they keepe [cattell.]

17 And the man said, They are departed hence: for I haue heard them say, Let vs goe vnto Dothan. Thus went Ioseph after his brethren, and found them in Dothan.

18 And when they sawe him a farre off, before he came at them, they tooke counsell agaynst him, [h] for to slay him:

[h] Enuie & malice hauing occasion, will end in slaughter.

19 For one sayd to another, Beholde, this [‡] notable dreamer commeth.

21 When Ruben hearde that, he rid him out of their handes, and sayd, Let vs not [‡] kill him.

[‡] Strike him in the soule.

22 And Ruben said moreouer vnto them, Shed no blood, [but] cast him into this pit that is in the wildernesse, and lay no hand vpon him: [this he sayd] that he might ridde him out of their handes, and deliuer him to his father againe.

23 And when Ioseph was come vnto his brethren, they stript him out of his coate, his partie coloured coate, that was vpon him.

[k] This was worse then murder before God, though it was publikely done.

24 And they tooke him, and [k] cast him into an emptie pit, wherein was no water.

25 And they sate [l] them downe to eate bread: and as they lift vp their eyes & looked about, behold, there came a company of Ismaelites from Gilead: and their camels lade with spicerie, baulme, and myrrhe, and were going downe to cary it to Egypt.

[l] They were vnsensible, without any sense or conscience of sinne.

26 And Iuda said vnto his brethren, What [m] auaileth it if we slay our brother, and keepe his blood secret?

[m] Thus should all sinners say, what commoditie doth sinne bring?

27 Come on, and let vs sell him to the Ismaelites, and let not our hands be vpon him: for he is our brother, and our flesh. And his brethren were content.

28 Then as the Madianites marchant mē passed by, they drew and lift Ioseph out of ẏ pit, and sold him vnto the Ismaelites for twentie pieces of siluer: And they brought Ioseph into Egypt.

29 Then Ruben came againe vnto the pit, and behold, Ioseph [was] not in the pit: then he rent his clothes, 30 And went againe vnto his brethren, saying, The lad is not [ponder,] wo is me, whither shall I go?

31 And they tooke Iosephs coate, and killed a kid, and dipped the coate in the blood.

32 And they sent that partie coloured coat, and caused it to be brought vnto their father, and said, This haue we found, see whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no.

33 And he knewe it, saying, It is my sonnes coate, a naughtie beast hath deuoured him, Ioseph is without doubt rent in pieces.

34 And Iacob rent his clothes, and put sackcloth about his loynes, and mourned for his sonne a long season.

35 But all his sonnes and all his daughters rose vp to comfort him: neuertheless [n] hee would not be comforted, but sayd, I will goe downe into the graue vnto my sonne, mourning. And thus his father wept for him.

[n] He refused worldly comfort, yet he was obedient to God.

36 And the Madianites sold him in Egypt vnto Putiphar, chiefe officer of Pharao, and his [‖] chiefe steward.

16 And he turned to her vnto the way, & sayd, Come, I pray thee, let me lie vp thee: (For he knew not that it was his daughter in lawe.) And she answered, What wilt thou giue mee for to lie with me?

17 Then said he, I will send thee a kidde from the flocke. She said, Then giue me a pledge, till thou send it.

18 He sayde, What pledge shall I giue thee? She sayd, Thy signet, thy [e] bracelet, and thy staffe that is in thine hād. And he gaue it her, and lay by her, and shee was with childe by him.

19 And she gate her vp, and went, and put her vaile from her, and put on her widowes raiment.

20 And Juda sent the kidde by his friend Odollam, for to receiue his pledge againe from the womans hand: but he found her not.

21 Then asked hee the men of the same place, saying, Where is the [f] harlot that sate openly by the way side? They answered, There is no harlot here.

22 He came therfore to Juda agayne, and sayd vnto him, I cannot finde her: and also the men of the place sayd, that there was no harlot there.

23 And Juda sayd, Let her take it to her, [g] lest we be shamed: beholde, I sent the kid, & thou hast not found her.

24 And it came to passe, after three monethes, one told Juda, saying, Thamar thy daughter in lawe hath played the harlot, and with playing the harlot is become great with childe. And Juda sayd, Bring her forth, that she may be burnt.

25 And when they brought her forth, she sent to her father in lawe, saying, By the man vnto whom these things [pertaine] am I with childe: and sayde also, Looke I pray thee, whose are these, this seale, this bracelet, and this staffe.

26 And Juda acknowledged them, and sayde, [h] She hath bene more righteous then I: because I gaue her not Selah my sonne. And he lay with her no more.

27 But when the tyme was come that shee should bee deliuered, behold, there was two twinnes in her wombe.

28 And when she trauailed, the [one] put out his hand, and the midwife tooke and bounde a red [threed] about it, saying, This is come out first.

29 And he plucked his hand backe againe, and beholde, his brother came out. And she sayde, Wherefore hast thou rent a rent vpon thee? and called his name Phares.

8 They answered him, We haue dreamed a dreame, and haue no man to declare it. And Ioseph said unto them, Do not interpretings belong to God? tell me, I pray you?

9 And the chiefe Butler tolde his dreame to Ioseph, and sayde unto him, In my dreame, me thought there stoode a vine before me,

10 And in the vine [were] three branches, and it was as though it budded, and her blossoms shot foorth: and the clusters thereof brought foorth ripe grapes.

11 And I had Pharaos cup in my hand, and tooke of the grapes, and pressed thē in Pharaos cup, and deliuered Pharaos cup into his hand.

12 And Ioseph sayd unto him, This is the interpretation of it. The three branches, b are three dayes.

b That is, signifie, such maner speaches are often in Moses in the next Chapter, and other where.

13 For within three dayes shall Pharao ‖ lift c up thine head, and restore thee into thine office againe, and thou shalt deliuer Pharaos cup into his hand, after the old maner, when thou wast his Butler.

c That is, take thee out of prison.

14 But thinke on me when thou art in good case, and shew mercy I pray thee unto mee, d and make mention of me to Pharao, & bring me out of this house.

d He refuseth not to make meanes for his deliuerance, although he mistrusted not but God would deliuer him.

15 For I was priuily by stealth taken away out of the land of the Hebrewes: and here also haue I done nothing at all wherefore they should haue put me into this dungeon.

16 When the chiefe Baker saw that the interpretation was good, he sayd unto Ioseph, Me thought also in my dreame, that I had three ‖ white wicker baskets on my head.

‖ Or, ful of holes.

17 And in the uppermost basket there was of all maner bake meates for Pharao, and the birdes did eate them out of the basket [that was] upon my head.

18 And Ioseph answered, and sayde, This is the interpretation therof. The three baskets, are three dayes: For within three dayes shall Pharao take thy head from thee, & shall hang thee on a tree, and the birdes shall eate thy flesh from off thee.

19 And it came to passe the third day, which was Pharaos birth day, that hee made a feast vnto all his seruants: and hee ‖lifted vp the head of the chiefe Butler, and of the chiefe Baker among his seruants, ‖ Or, reckoned.

20 And restored the chiefe Butler vnto his Butlership againe, which also reached the cup into Pharaos hand:

21 But he hanged the chiefe Baker, as Ioseph [e] had interpreted vnto him.

e Thus Ioseph was proued a true prophet of God, as it is, Iere. 28.

22 Neither did the chiefe Butler remember Ioseph, but forgate him.

The xli. Chapter.

2 Ioseph expoundeth Pharaos dreames of kine & eares. 41 He is made ruler ouer all Egypt. 54 The dearth beginneth in all landes.

1 AND after two yeeres [a] Pharao dreamed, and behold, he thought ỳ he stood by a riuer.

a This dreame was not so much for Pharao, as it was for Ioseph, by whom God purposed to prouide for his Church.

2 And there came out of the riuer seuen goodly kine, and fat fleshed, and fed in a medowe.

3 And seuen other kine came vp after thē out of the riuer, euill fauoured, and leane fleshed, and stoode by the other kine vpon the brinke of the riuer.

4 And the ill fauoured and leane fleshed kine did eate vp the seuen well fauoured & fat kine: and Pharao awoke.

5 And he slept againe, and dreamed the second time: and behold, seuen eares of corne grew vpon one stalke, ranke, and goodly:

6 And againe, seuen thinne eares blasted with the East wynd, sprang vp after them.

7 And the seuen thinne eares deuoured the seuen ranke and full eares. And Pharao awaked, and see, [it was] a dreame:

8 And when the morning came, his spirit was troubled, and hee sent and called for all the southsayers of Egypt, and all the wise men thereof: and Pharao told them his dreame, but there was none of them that could interprete it vnto Pharao.

9 Thē spake the chiefe Butler vnto Pharao, saying, I do remember my faults this day:

10 Pharao beyng angry with his seruants, put me in warde, in the chiefe stewardes house, both me, and the chiefe Baker.

11 And we dreamed both of vs in one night, & each mans dreame of a sundry interpretation.

12 And there was with vs a yong man, an Hebrew borne, seruant vnto the chiefe steward: to whom when we told them, hee declared our dreames to vs, according to either of our dreames.

b Whom men do little regard in prosperitie, him they are glad to heare in aduersitie.

13 And as he declared them to vs, so it came to passe: For hee restored me to mine office againe, and hanged him.

14 Pharao [b] sent therefore and called Ioseph, and they brought him hastily out of the dungeon: And hee shaued himselfe, and changed his raiment, and came vnto Pharao.

15 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph, I haue dreamed a dreame, and no man can interprete it: and I haue heard say of thee, that as soone as thou hearest a dreame, thou canst interprete it.

16 Ioseph answered Pharao, saying, ‖Not I, [c] but God shall giue Pharao an answere of peace.

‖ Or, without me.

c He giueth all the glory to God, yet denieth not his ministerie.

17 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph, In my dreame me thought I stood by a riuers side,

18 And there came out of the riuer, seuen fat fleshed and well fauoured kine, and fedde in a medowe,

19 And then seuen other kine came out after them, poore, and very ill fauoured, and leane fleshed, such as I neuer sawe in all the land of Egypt, they were ‖so ill fauoured.

‖ Or, so leane.

20 And the seuen leane and ill fauoured kine, did eate vp the first seuen fat kine.

21 And when they had ‡ eaten them vp, a man could not perceiue that they had eaten them, but they were still ill fauoured, as they were at the beginning: and I awoke.

‡ Come to the inward partes of them.

22 And I sawe againe in my dreame, and behold, seuen eares sprang out of one stalke, ful and faire.

23 And behold, seuen eares againe ‖ withered, thinne, & blasted with the East wind, sprang vp after them.

‖ Or, small.

24 And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen good eares: and I haue told the soothsayers, but there was no man that could tell what it meaneth.

25 And Ioseph answered Pharao, [Both] Pharaos dreames are [d] one, God hath shewed Pharao what [e] he is about to doe.

d In signification and meaning.

e God doeth not onely foresee things to come, but also doth rule the same: thus Ioseph would begin to teach Pharao some godlinesse.

26 The seuen good kine, are seuen yeeres: and the seuen good eares, are seuen yeeres also: and it is but one dreame.

27 Likewise the seuen thinne and ill fauoured kine that came vp after them, are seuen yeeres: and the seuen emptie & blasted eares with the East winde, shall be seuen yeeres of famine.

28 This worde which I haue said vnto Pharao, is it that [f] God is about to doe, and sheweth it vnto Pharao.

f Lest Pharao should thinke any thing of his idoles: or that God is onely a beholder of ỳ world, & not a doer.

29 Beholde, there come seuen yeeres of great plentie throughout all the land of Egypt.

30 And againe, there shall arise after them seuē yeeres of famine, and all the plenteousnesse shalbe forgotten in the land of Egypt: & the famine shall consume the land.

31 Neither shall the plenteousnesse be knowen in the land, by reason of that famine that [shal come] after, for it shall be exceeding great.

32 And as concernyng that the dreame was doubled vnto Pharao the second tyme: behold, hold, the thing is certainly prepared of God, and God will g shortly bring it to passe.

g We are very negligent in Gods iudgements, if we remember not that the time is at hand.

33 Now therefore, h let Pharao prouide for a man of vnderstanding and wisedome, and set him ouer the land of Egypt.

h Gods true prophets tell remedies for ỹ punishments that God wil send.

34 And let Pharao doe this also, that he make ‡officers ouer the land, and take vp the fifth [part] in the land of Egypt in the seuen plẽteous yeeres.

‡Visitours, or ouerseers.

35 And let i them gather all the foode of those good yeeres that come, and lay vp corne vnder the hand of Pharao, and let them keepe foode in the cities.

i For in plentie, there is much spoile & wilfulnesse, & Gods blessings are abused.

36 And so shal that foode be for store in the land, against the seuen yeeres of famine, which shal come in the land of Egypt, that the land perish not through famine.

37 And the saying seemed good in the eyes of Pharao, and in the eies of all his seruants.

38 Then said Pharao vnto his seruants, May there be found a man such as this is, in whom the spirite of God is?

39 And Pharao said vnto Ioseph, Forasmuch as God hath shewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderstanding or of wisedome like vnto thee.

40 Thou therefore shalt be ouer my house, and according vnto thy word shall all my people be ‡ruled: onely in the [kings] seate will I be aboue thee.

‡Armed, or fed.

41 And Pharao sayde agayne vnto Ioseph, beholde, I haue set thee ouer all the lande of Egypt.

42 And Pharao tooke off his k ring from his hand, and put it vpon Iosephs hand, & araied him in cloth of silke, and put a golden chaine about his necke, k In such pomps, pride and vanitie must be auoided. For the godly may vse such honour, though he greatly seeke not after them.

43 And set him vpon the ‡best charet hee had saue one: and they cried before him, l tender father: and made him ruler ouer all the land of Egypt.

‡The second.

l This worde Abrech semeth rather to be an Egyptian word, then an Hebrew: it is as much also in Hebrew, as bow the knee.

44 And moreouer, Pharao said vnto Ioseph, m I am Pharao, and without thee shall no man n lift vp his hand or foote in all the land of Egypt.

m As if he said, As true as I am king, or, by my maiestie.

n That is, doe no publique duetie.

45 And Pharao called Iosephs name ‡Zaphnath Paaneach, and he gaue him to ° wife Asnath the daughter of Potipherah ‖ priest of On. Then went Ioseph ouer the land of Egypt.

‡A man to whom secrets are reuealed.

° Being in a strange land farre off, he could not haue a wife frõ his owne kinrede.

‖ Or, prince.

46 (And he was thirtie yeeres olde when hee stood before Pharao king of Egypt:) And Ioseph departing from the presence of Pharao, went throughout all the land of Egypt.

47 And in the seuen plenteous yeeres, the earth brought forth great store for to lay vp.

48 And hee gathered vp all the foode of the seuen plenteous yeeres which were in the land of Egypt, and laid vp the foode in the cities: the foode of the fields that grew round about euery citie, layd he vp in the same.

49 And Ioseph laid vp corne in store like vnto the sand of the sea, in multitude out of measure, vntill he left numbring: for it was with out number.

50 And vnto Ioseph were borne two sonnes before the yeeres of famine came: which Asnath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On bare vnto him.

51 And Ioseph called the name of ỹ first sonne ‡Manasses: for God [said he] hath made me forget all my labour, and all my fathers household.

‡Forgetfulnesse.

52 The name of the second called he ‡Ephraim: for God [said he] hath caused me to bee fruitfull in the land of my trouble.

‡Increasings.

53 And when the seuẽ yeeres of plenteousnes that was in the land of Egypt, were ended, 54 Then came the seuen yeeres of dearth, according as Ioseph had saide, and the dearth was in all landes: but in all the land of Egypt was there foode.

55 And when the lande of Egypt also began to hunger, the people cried to Pharao for bread. And Pharao said vnto all the Egyptians, Goe vnto Ioseph: and what he sayth to you, that doe.

56 And the dearth was throughout all the lande: and Ioseph opened all the barnes wherein was corne, and solde vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed sore in the land of Egypt.

57 And all countreis came into Egypt to Ioseph for to buy [corne,] because that the famine was so sore in all landes.

The xlij. Chapter.

This storie sheweth plainly ỹ all things are gouerned by Gods prouidence, for the profite of his Church.

1 Iacob sendeth Iosephs brethren into Egypt to buy corne. 7 Ioseph knoweth them, and trieth them. 24 Simeon remaineth in prison. 29 The other returne to their father to fetch Beniamin. 39 Iacob is loth to let Beniamin goe, but at the last he is content.

1 AND * Iacob seeing that there was ‡corne in Egypt, said vnto his sonnes, Why gape ye one vpon another?

Acts 7.12.

‡Breaking.

2 And he said, Beholde, I haue heard that there is corne in Egypt: get you downe thither, and buy vs corne from thence, that we may liue, and not die.

3 So went Iosephs tenne brethren downe to buy corne in Egypt.

4 But Beniamin Iosephs brother would not Iacob sende with his other brethren: for he saide, Least peraduenture destruction come vpon him.

5 And the sonnes of Israel came to buy corne among other that came: for there was dearth in the land of Chanaan.

6 And Ioseph was gouernour in the lande, and solde to all the people of the lande. And Iosephs brethren came, and bowed themselues with their faces downe to the ground before him.

7 When Joſeph ſawe his brethren, hee knew them, and made himſelfe ſtrange vnto them, & ſpake roughly vnto them, ſaying, Whence come ye? They anſwered, Out of the lande of Chanaan, to buy victual.

8 And Joſeph knewe his brethren, but they knew not him.

9 And Joſeph remembred his dreames which he dreamed of them, & ſaid vnto them, Ye are [a] ſpies: and to ſee where the land is ‡ weake, is your comming.

a The Egyptians commonly called the Philiſtims theeues, for they lined much by ſpoile and warre.
‡ The ſecrets of the land.

10 And they ſaid vnto him, Nay my lorde, but to buy victual are thy ſeruants come.

11 We are all one mans ſonnes, and ‡ meane truely, and thy ſeruants are no ſpies.

‡ Are true.

12 And he ſayd vnto them againe, Nay: but [b] to ſee where the lande is weake, is your comming.

b Great men thinke it ſufficient for them to affirme a thing without adding any reaſon.

13 And they ſaid, We thy ſeruants are twelue brethren, the ſonnes of one man in the land of Chanaan: and behold, the yongeſt is this day with our father, & one, no man woteth where he is.

14 And Joſeph ſayde vnto them, [c] That is it that I ſpake vnto you, when I ſayd, Ye are ſpies.

c Becauſe of the abſence of two of the brethren, it was ſuſpicious.

15 Hereby ye ſhall be prooued, [by] the life of Pharao, ye ſhall not goe hence, except your yongeſt brother come hither.

16 Send out one of you, which may fet your brother, & ye ſhalbe kept in priſon, that your wordes may be proued whether there be any trueth in you: or els, [by] the life of Pharao, ye are but ſpies.

17 And he put them all together in ward three dayes.

18 And Joſeph ſaide vnto them the third day, This do, and liue: [for] I [d] feare God.

d The feare of God is the beginning of a faithful & ſincere dealing.

19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bound in the houſe of your priſon: and go ye, cary corne [to put away] the famine from your houſehold.

20 But bring your yongeſt brother vnto me, & ſo ſhall your wordes be tried true, and ye ſhal not die. And they did ſo.

21 And one ſaide to another, Wee haue verily [e] ſinned againſt our brother, in that we ſawe the anguiſh of his ſoule, when hee beſought vs, and we would not heare him: and therefore is this [f] trouble come vpon vs.

e Affliction brought them to the conſcience of their ſinne done 13. yeeres before.
f Sinne is the cauſe of affliction.

22 And Ruben anſwered them, ſaying, Saide I not vnto you, that you ſhould not ſinne againſt the lad, and ye would not heare? and ſee, now his blood is required.

23 They were not aware that Joſeph vnderſtoode them: for he ſpake vnto them by an interpreter.

24 And hee turned from them and wept: and turned to them againe, and communed with them, and tooke out Simeon from amongſt them, and bound him before their eyes.

25 And Joſeph commanded to fill their ſackes with corne, and put euery mans money in his ſacke, and to giue them vittaile to ſpende by the way: and thus did he vnto them.

26 And they laded their aſſes with the corne, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his ſacke, for to giue his aſſe prouender in the [g] Inne, he eſpied his money, for it was in his ſacks mouth:

g The Hebrew word ſignifieth a place where one abideth all night.

28 And he ſaide vnto his brethren, My money is reſtored to mee againe, for loe, it is in my ſacke. And their heart ‡ failed them, & they were aſtonied, and ſayd one to another, Why hath God thus delt with vs?

‡ Went foorth.

29 And they came vnto Jacob their father, vnto the land of Chanaan, and told him all that befell vnto them, ſaying, 30 The man [who is] the Lorde of the lande, ſpake roughly to vs, and tooke vs for ſpies of the countrey.

31 And [h] we ſayd vnto him, We meane truely, we neuer were ſpies.

h They tell here no more then they thought made for their owne honeſtie and fame.

32 We be twelue brethren, ſonnes of our father: one is away, and the yongeſt is this day with our father in the land of Chanaan.

33 And the lord of the countrey ſaid againe vnto vs, Hereby ſhall I knowe that ye meane truely: Leaue one of your brethē here with me, & take [foode] to put away the famine from your houſholds, and get you away, 34 And bring your yongeſt brother vnto mee, that I may know that you are no ſpies, but meane truly: ſo will I deliuer you your brother, and ye ſhall occupy in the land.

35 And as they emptied their ſackes, behold, euery mans bundle of mony was in his ſacke: And when both they and their [i] father ſaw the bundles of money, they were afraid.

i Joſeph ment not to grieue his father: yet ſometymes wiſe mens deeds end otherwiſe then they minded.

36 And Jacob their father ſaide vnto them, [k] Me haue yee robbed of my children: Joſeph is away, and Simeon is away, and yee will take Beniamin away: all theſe things are againſt me.

k He was alſo tempted with the decay of Gods promiſe, which ſhould continue in his ſeed, that now daily decayed.

37 Ruben ſayd vnto his father, Slay my two ſonnes, if I bring him not to thee againe: deliuer him to my hand, and I will bring him to thee agayne.

38 And he ſaid, My ſonne ſhall not goe downe with you, for his brother is dead, & hee is left alone: if deſtruction come vpon him by the way which yee goe, yee ſhall bring my gray head with ſorow vnto the graue.

The xliij. Chapter.

13 Iacob ſuffereth Beniamin to depart with his children.

1 AND the dearth was great in the land.

2 And it came to paſſe when they had eaten vp the corne which they had brought out of ỹ land of Egypt, their father ſayd vnto them, Goe againe [and] buy vs a little foode.

3 Juda answered him, and sayde, The man did solemnely protest vnto vs, saying, Ye shall not see my face, except your brother bee with you.

4 If thou wilt send our brother with vs, wee will goe downe and buy thee foode.

5 But if thou wilt not send him, we will not goe downe: for the man sayd vnto vs, Ye shal not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel sayd, Wherefore delt ye so cruelly with [a] me, as to tell the man that yee had yet a brother?

a Meaning, though they hated their brother, yet they should haue pitied him.

7 They answered, The man asked vs straitly of ‡ our [state] and of our kinred, saying, Is your father yet aliue? haue ye [not an other] brother? And we tolde him according to the ‡ tenor of these wordes: Could wee by any meane knowe that he would say, Bring your brother downe [with you?]

‡ Mouth.

8 Then sayde Juda vnto Israel his father, Send the lad with me, that we may arise and goe, and that we may liue, and not die, yea both we and thou, and also our ‖ meanie.

‖ Or, children.

9 I will be suretie for him, of my hande shalt thou require him: if I bring him not vnto thee againe, and set him before thine eies, then let me beare the blame for euer.

10 Truely, except wee had made this tarying, by this we had returned the second tyme.

11 And their father Israel sayd vnto them, If it must needes be so, now then do thus: Take of the ‡ best fruites of the land in your vessels, and bring the man [b] a present, a curtsie of balme, and a curtsie of hony, spices & myrrhe, nuttes and almonds.

‡ Of the praise of the land.

b This thing had proued wel with him before, as Gen. 32.

12 And take double [c] money in your hand, and the money that was brought againe in your sackes, take it againe with you, peraduenture it was some ouersight.

c Wisedome and equitie in Jacob.

13 Take also your brother with you, and arise, and goe againe vnto the man.

14 And [d] God almightie giue you mercy in the sight of the mã, that he may deliuer you your other brother, and this Beniamin: and thus I am as one that is quite robbed of his children.

d Jacob doth all things necessarie, yet resteth vpõ God chiefly in a matter betwixt man and man.

15 Thus tooke they the present, and twise so much more money in their hand, with Beniamin, and rose vp, and went downe to Egypt, and stood before Joseph.

16 When Joseph saw Beniamin with them, he said to the ruler of his house, Bring these mẽ home, and slay, and make ready: for these men shall ‡ dine with me at noone.

‡ Eate.

17 And the man did as Joseph bade, & brought them into Josephs house.

18 When the men were brought into Josephs house, [e] they were afraid, and sayde, Because of the money that came in our sacks mouthes at the first tyme are we brought in, that hee may ‡ seeke occasion against vs, and violently lay hands vpon vs, to bring vs in bondage, and our asses also.

‡ Tumble or rolle himselfe vpon vs.

e An euil conscience taketh all things suspitiously.

19 Therefore came they to the man that was the ruler ouer Josephs house, and communed with him at the doore of the house,

20 And sayd, Oh sir, we came downe hither at the first tyme to buy foode, 21 And as we came to an Inne, we opened our sackes, and beholde, euery mans money was in the mouth of his sacke, [euen] our money in ful waight: and we haue brought it againe in our hand.

22 And other money haue wee brought also in our handes to buy foode: but we can not tell who put our money in our sackes.

23 And he sayd, Peace be vnto you, feare not: your [f] God, and the God of your father, hath giuen you that treasure in your sackes: I had your money. And hee brought Simeon out to them.

f Joseph instructed his owne familie in the knowledge of God, though he could not reforme ꝑ whole realme.

24 And the man led them into Josephs house, and gaue them water to wash their feete, and gaue their asses prouender.

25 And they made ready their present against Joseph came at noone: for they heard [say] that they should eate bread there.

26 When Joseph came home, they brought the present into the house to him, which was in their handes, and bowed themselues to the ground before him.

27 And hee asked them of their ‡ welfare, and sayde, Is your father, that olde man which ye tolde me of, in good health? and is he yet aliue?

‡ Peace.

28 They answered, Thy seruant our father is in good health, & is yet aliue. And they bowing themselues, made their obeisance.

g Thus they fulfil Josephs dreame, which they mocked before.

29 And he lifting vp his eyes, beheld his brother Beniamin his mothers sonne, and sayd, Is this your yonger brother of whõ ye spake vnto me? And he sayd, God be mercifull vnto thee, my sonne.

30 And Joseph made haste (for his ‡ heart did melt vpon his brother) and sought [where] to weepe, and entred into his chamber, and wept there.

‡ Bowels.

31 And he washed his face, and came out, & refrained himselfe, and said, Set on bread.

32 And they prepared for him by himselfe, and for them by themselues, and for the Egyptians which did eate with him, by themselues: because the Egyptians may not eate bread with the Hebrewes, for that is an [h] abomination vnto the Egyptians.

The xliiii. Chapter.

Ioseph commandeth his cup to be put in the sacke of Beniamin. 5 The cup is found in the sacke of Beniamin. 12 Ioseph accuseth his brethren of theft. 33 Iuda offereth himself to be bound for his brother Beniamin.

1 AND hee commaunded the ruler of his house, saying, Fill the mens sackes with foode, as much as they can cary, and put euery mans money in his sackes mouth.

a We may not by this example vse any vnlawful practise, seyng God hath cõmaunded vs to walk in simplicitie.

2 a And put my cup, my siluer cup, in ỹ sackes mouth of the yongest, & his corne money also. And he did according to the word that Ioseph had sayd.

3 And in the morning as soone as it was light, the men were let goe, they, and their asses.

4 And when they were out of the citie, & not yet farre away, Ioseph sayd vnto the ruler of his house, Up, and follow after the men: and when thou doest ouertake them, thou shalt say vnto them, Wherefore haue ye rewarded euill for good?

b Ye speaketh according to ỹ opinion of the Egyptians, who thought that all ỹ wise men of Egypt could prophesie.

5 Is not that the cuppe in the which my lord drinketh? and in the which he b prophecieth? Ye haue euill done that ye haue done.

6 And when he ouertooke them, he sayde the same wordes vnto them.

7 And they answered him, Wherefore sayth my lord such wordes? God forbid that thy seruants should doe so.

8 Beholde, the money which we found in our sackes mouthes, wee brought agayne vnto thee out of the land of Chanaan: how then should we steale out of thy lordes house either siluer or gold?

9 With whomsoeuer of thy seruantes it bee found, let him die, & we also wil be my lordes bondmen.

10 And he said, Nowe also let it bee according vnto your wordes: he with whom it is found, shalbe my seruant: and ye shalbe blameles.

11 And at once euery man tooke downe his sacke to the ground: and euery man opened his sacke.

12 And he searched, and began at the eldest, & left at the yongest: and the cup was found in Beniamins sacke.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded euery man his Asse, and went agayne vnto the citie.

14 And Iuda & his brethren came to Iosephs house (for he was yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

15 And Ioseph said vnto them, What deede is this that ye haue done? Wote ye not that such a man as I can certainly prophesie?

16 Then sayde Iuda, What shall wee say vnto my lorde? What shall wee speake? or how shall we ‡ cleare our selues? God hath 17 And he answered, God forbid that I should do so: but the man with whom the cuppe is found, he shalbe my seruant, & get you hence vp in peace vnto your father.

18 Then Iuda went vnto him, and sayde, Oh my lord, let thy seruant, I pray thee, speake a word in my lordes eares, and be not inflamed with wrath against thy seruaunt: for ‡ thou art euen as Pharao.

‡ As thou, as Pharao.

19 My lord asked his seruaunts, saying, Haue ye a father, or a brother?

20 And we answered my lord, Wee haue a father that is old, and a yong lad, which he begate in his age: and the brother of the sayde lad is dead, and he is all that is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

21 And thou saidst vnto thy seruaunts, Bring him vnto me, that I may set myne eyes vpon him.

22 And we answered my lord, that ỹ lad could not go from his father: for if he should leaue his father, he were but dead.

d As if he had bene the cause that Beniamin came into Egypt: and therfore should be mercifull.

23 Then saidst d thou vnto thy seruaunts, Except your yongest brother come with you, looke that ye see my face no more.

24 And when we came vnto thy seruant our father, we shewed him the words of my lord.

25 And our father said vnto vs, Goe againe, and buy vs a little foode.

26 And we answered, We cannot goe downe: neuertheless, if our yongest brother bee with vs, then will we go downe: for wee may not see the mans face, except our yongest brother be with vs.

27 And thy seruant our father said vnto vs, Ye know that my wife bare me two sonnes, 28 And the one went out from me, and I sayd, e Of a suretie he is torne in pieces: & I sawe him not since.

e Ioseph might vnderstand what lie they had made before of his selling. So wickednesse will bewray it selfe.

29 And if ye take this also away from me, & destruction come vnto him, yee shall bring my gray head with sorrow vnto the graue.

30 Now therefore, when I come to thy seruant my father, and the lad be not with vs (seeing that his f life ‡ hangeth by the lads life,) f That is, whom he loueth as his life.

‡ Tied vnto.

31 Then shall it come to passe, that as soone as he seeth that the lad is not come, he will dye: so shall we thy seruants bring the gray head of thy seruaunt our father with sorrow vnto the graue.

32 For I thy seruant became suretie for the lad before my father, and said, If I bring him not vnto thee againe, ‖ I shal beare the blame vnto my father all my life long.

‖ Or, shal sinne, or be guiltie of sinne.

33 Now therefore, I pray thee, let me thy seruant bide here for the lad, and bee my lordes g bondman, and let the lad goe vp with his brethren.

g A token of godlinesse, to feare ỹ blame of breaking promise and fidelitie.

34 For

34 For howe can I goe vp to my father, if the ladde be not with me, vnlesse I would see the wretchednesse that shall come on my father?

The xlv. Chapter.

1 Ioseph maketh him selfe knowen to his brethren. 5 He comforteth them, and sheweth that he was sent thither by Gods prouidence.

1 IOseph could no longer refrayne before all them that stoode by him: wherefore he cryed, [a] Cause euery man to auoyde. And there remayned no man with him, while Ioseph vttered him selfe vnto his brethren.

a He would not haue the shame of their wickednesse spread abrode.

2 And he wept aloude: and the Egyptians, and the house of Pharao heard.

3 And Ioseph sayde vnto his brethren, I am Ioseph, doeth my father yet liue? And his brethren could not answere him, they were so abashed at his presence.

4 And Ioseph saide vnto his brethren, Come neare to me, I pray you. And they came neare. And he saide, I am Ioseph your brother, whom ye solde into Egypt.

5 Nowe therefore, be not grieued herewith, neither let it seeme a cruel thing in your eyes that ye solde me hither: for God did send me before you to preserue life.

6 For this is the second yeere of dearth in the lande: and fiue more are behind, in the which there shall neither be earing, nor harueft.

‖ Or, remnant.

7 Wherefore, God sent me before you, to preserue you a ‖ posteritie in ỳ earth, and to saue your liues by a great deliuerance.

8 So now, it was not ye that sent me hither, [b] but God, which hath made me a father to Pharao, and lorde of all his house, and ruler throughout all the lande of Egypt.

b Though God vse the wicked, & turne their doings to his purpose: yet they are not excusable for their mischieuous intent.

9 Haste you, and goe vp to my father, and tell him, Thus saith thy sonne Ioseph, God hath made me lorde of [c] all Egypt, come downe therefore vnto me, tarie not.

c He doth not bragge of his glorie, but would comfort his father by this worke of God.

10 And thou shalt dwell in the land of [d] ‡ Gosen, and be a neighbour vnto me, thou, and thy children, and thy childrens children, thy sheepe, and thy beastes, and all that thou hast.

d It was called afterwarde Thebaida. ‡ Goshen.

11 And there will I prouide thee sustenance (for there remaine yet fiue yeeres of dearth) lest thou, and thy housholde, and all that thou hast, come to pouertie.

12 And behold, your eyes doe see, and the eyes also of my brother Beniamin, that [e] mine owne mouth speaketh vnto you.

e He spake vnto them in the Hebrue tongue.

13 Therefore tell my father of all my glorie in Egypt, and of all that you haue seene, and make haste, and bring my father hither.

14 And he fell on his brother Beniamins necke, and wept: and Beniamin wept on his necke.

15 Moreouer, he kissed all his brethren, and wept vpon them: and after that, his brethren talked with him.

16 And the fame [thereof] was heard in Pharaos house, so that they sayde, Iosephs brethren are come. And it pleased Pharao well, and all his seruants.

17 And [f] Pharao spake vnto Ioseph, Say vnto thy brethren, This doe yee, lade your beastes, and goe [and] returne vnto the land of Chanaan:

f This was Gods singular worke: for the Egyptians could not abide the Hebrues.

18 Take your father, and your householdes, and come vnto me: and I will giue you the good of the lande of Egypt, and ye shall eate the fat of the lande.

19 And thou also shalt commaund them, This doe ye, take charets with you out of the land of Egypt, for your children, and for your wiues, and bring your father, and come.

20 Also ‡ regarde not your stuffe: for the good of all the lande of Egypt is yours.

‡ Let not your eyes spare your vessels.

21 And the children of Israel did euen so: and Ioseph gaue them charets, according to the ‡ commandement of Pharao, and gaue them victuall also to spend by the way.

‡ Mouth.

22 And he gaue vnto eche of them change of rayment: but vnto Beniamin he gaue three hundred pieces of siluer, and fiue change of rayment.

23 And vnto his father he sent, after the same maner, tenne Asses laden with good out of Egypt, and ten shee Asses laden with corne, and bread and meate for his father, by the waye.

24 So sent he his brethren away, and they departed: and he sayde vnto them, See that ye [g] fall to no strife on the way.

g Seeing Ioseph had remitted ỳ fault done against him, he would not that they should blame or accuse one another.

25 They departed therefore from Egypt, and came into the lande of Chanaan, vnto Jacob their father, 26 And tolde him, saying, Ioseph is yet aliue, and is gouernour ouer all the land of Egypt. And Jacobs heart ‡ wauered: for he beleeued them not.

‡ Was astonied.

27 And they tolde him all the wordes of Ioseph, which he had saide vnto them: And when he sawe the charets which Ioseph had sent to carrie him, the spirite of Jacob their father reuiued.

28 And Israel said, [I haue] ynough, that Ioseph my sonne is yet aliue: I will goe and see him, yer that I dye.

The xlvi. Chapter.

1 God assureth Iacob of his iourney into Egypt.

1 ISrael tooke his iourney with all that he had, and came to Beer seba, and [a] offered offerings vnto the God of his father Isahac.

a In the beginning of his iourney he calleth vpō God, and is certainly perswaded that though he lefte his countrey,

2 And God spake vnto Israel in a vision by night, saying, Jacob, Jacob. And he answered, Here am I.

3 And he sayde, I am God, the God of thy father, [b] feare not to goe downe into Egypt:

b For the lande of Chanaan was as a pledge of Gods spirituall benediction, therefore he was loth to leaue it.

for

for I will there make of thee a great people.
4 I will goe downe with thee into Egypt: and I will surely make thee come vp againe, and Ioseph shal put his hand vpō thine eyes.
5 And Iacob rose vp from Beer-seba: and the sonnes of Israel caried Iacob their father, and their children, and their wiues, in the Charettes which Pharao had sent to carie him.
6 And they tooke their cattell, and the goods which they had gotten in the lande of Chanaan, and came into Egypt, both Iacob and all his seede with him,
7 His sonnes, and his sonnes sonnes with him, his daughters, and his sonnes daughters, and all his seede brought he with him into Egypt.
8 These are the names of the children of Israel which came into Egypt, [both] Iacob and his sonnes, Ruben * Iacobs first borne.
Num.26.5.
9 The children of Ruben: Hanoch, and Phallu, Hetron, and Charmi.
10 The children of Simeon: Iemuel, and Iamin, and [c] Ohad, and Iachin, and Sohar, and Saul the sonne of a Chanaanitish woman.
c 1. Chron.4.2. He is not named in the bookes of Numb. and Exo. because he died without issue.
11 The children of Leui: Gerson, Cehath, and Merari.
12 The children of Iuda: Er, and Onan, Selah, and Pharez, and Zarah: but Er & Onan dyed in the lande of Chanaan. The children of Pharez also were ‡ Hetron and Hamul.
‡ Chetsron.
13 *And the children of Issachar: Thola, Puuah, and Iob, and Simron.
* 1. Chron.7.1.
14 The children of Zabulon: Sered, and Elon, and Iahelel.
15 These be the children of Lea, which she bare vnto Iacob in Mesopotamia, with his daughter Dina. All the ‖ soules of his sonnes and daughters [make] [d] thirtie and three.
‖ Or, persons.
d Iacob must be counted as one of this number, for he was ꝑ begin ning and head of the rest.
16 The children of Gad: Siphion, and Haggi, Suni, and Esbon, Eri, and Arodi, and Areli.
17 The children of Aser: [e] Imnah, and [f] Iisuah, and Iisui, and Beriah, and Serah their sister. And the children of Beriah: Heber, and Malchiel.
e Num.26. he is named Iimna.
f He seemeth to haue left no familie after him, Num.26.
18 These are the sonnes of Zilpha, whom Laban gaue to Lea his daughter: and these she bare vnto Iacob, [euen] sixteene soules.
19 The children of Rachel Iacobs wife: Ioseph and Beniamin.
g She is so specially called, because she served for her, and wouldde haue married none other, but that he was beguiled.
20 And vnto Ioseph in the lande of Egypt, were borne ‡ Manasses, and Ephraim, which Asenah the daughter of Potipherа Priest of On bare vnto him.
‡ Manasseh.
21 The children of Beniamin: Bela, and Becher, and Asbel, Gera, and Naaman, Ehi, and Ros, Muppim, and Huppim, and Arde.
22 These are the children of Rachel which she bare vnto Iacob, foureteene soules altogether.
23 And the children of Dan: Husim.
24 The children of Nephthali: Iahseel, and Guni, Ieser, and Sillem.
25 These are the sonnes of Bilha, which Laban gaue vnto Rachel his daughter, and she bare these vnto Iacob, altogether seuen soules.
26 And so all the soules that came with Iacob into Egypt, which came out of his loynes, besides Iacobs sonnes wiues, were altogether three score and sixe soules.
27 And the sonnes of Ioseph which were borne him in Egypt, were two soules: so that all the soules of ꝑ house of Iacob which came into Egypt, [were] [h] three score and tenne:
h It was of Gods special grace, that in fewe yeres so small a number grewe to such a multitude as came out of Egypt.
28 And he sent Iuda before him vnto Ioseph, ‖ to direct his face vnto Gosen, & they came into the lande of Gosen.
‖ Or, to prepare for him in Gosen.
29 And Ioseph made ready his charet, and went vp [i] to meete Israel his father vnto Gosen, and presented himselfe vnto him: and he fell on his necke, and wept on his necke a good while.
i His dignitie letteth him not from doing his duetie to his father.
30 And Israel sayd vnto Ioseph, Nowe am I content to die, in so much as I haue seene thy face, and because thou art yet aliue.
31 And Ioseph sayd vnto his brethren, and vnto his fathers house, [k] I will goe vp, & shewe Pharao, and tell him, My brethren, and my fathers house, which were in the lande of Chanaan, are come vnto me.
k He will doe nothing as of priuate affection, without the consent of Pharao, though his authoritie was great.
32 And they are Shepheardes, for their trade hath bene to feede cattell: and they haue brought their sheepe and their cattell, and all that they haue.
33 And if that Pharao call you, and aske you, What is your occupation?
l Ioseph is not ashamed of the baseneſſe of his kinred.
34 Ye shal answere, [l] Thy seruantes haue bene occupied about cattell from our childhood vnto this time, we and our fathers: that ye may dwell in the lande of Gosen. For euery one that keepeth cattell, is an [m] abomination vnto the Egyptians.
m This pride of the enemie made for the better vniting of the Church, and other cōmodities.

The xlvii. Chapter.

1 Iacob commeth before Pharao, 11 to whom Pharao giueth the lande of Gosen.

1 IOseph came therefore, and tolde Pharao, and sayde, My father and my brethren, their sheepe, and their cattell, and all that they haue, are come out of the lande of Chanaan: and beholde, they are in the lande of Gosen.
2 And Ioseph tooke ‡ of the meanest of his brethren, [euen] fyue men, & presented them vnto Pharao.
‡ Of the extremo partes.
3 And Pharao said vnto his brethren, What is your occupatiō? And they answered Pharao, Thy seruantes are [a] keepers of cattell, both we, and also our fathers.
a The godly are not ashamed of ꝑ baseneſſe of their occupation, so it be lawfull.
4 They sayd moreouer vnto Pharao, For to soiourne ſoiourne in the lande are we come: for thy ſeruantes haue no paſture for their cattell, ſo ſore is the famine in the lande of Chanaan: Nowe therefore let thy ſeruants dwell in the lande of [b] Goſen.

b It was in ꝑ confines of the lande of Chanaan, & Arabia, and in the vttreme parts of Egypt.

5 And Pharao ſayd vnto Ioſeph, Thy father and thy brethren are come vnto thee.

6 The lande of Egypt is before thee: in the beſt place of the lande make both thy father and thy brethren dwell, euen in the lande of Goſen let them dwell. Moreouer, if thou knoweſt any man of actiuitie amongſt them, make them rulers ouer my [cattell.]

7 And Ioſeph brought in Iacob his father, and ſet him before Pharao: and Iacob bleſſed Pharao.

‡ The dayes of the yeeres of thy life.

8 And Pharao ſayd vnto Iacob, Howe ‡ olde art thou?

9 Iacob ſayde vnto Pharao, The dayes of my pilgrimage are an hundred and thirtie yeeres: Fewe and euill haue the dayes of my life bene, and [c] haue not attained vnto the yeeres of the life of my fathers, in the dayes of their pilgrimage.

c He doth not complaine of his dayes: but prayſeth God for his goodnes towardes his fathers.

10 And Iacob bleſſed Pharao, and went out of his preſence.

11 And Ioſeph prepared dwellings for his father, and his brethren, and gaue them poſſeſſions in the lande of Egypt, in the beſt of the lande, euen in the land of [d] Rameſes, as Pharao had commaunded.

d Which was a citie of Goſen.

12 And Ioſeph made prouiſion for his father and his brethren, and all his fathers houſeholde, with bread, [e] euen to the mouthes of the yong children.

e That is, he prouided for them all, from the leaſt to the moſt.

13 There was no bread in all the land: for the dearth was exceeding ſore, ſo that the land of [f] Egypt, and all the lande of Chanaan were famiſhed by reaſon of the dearth.

f God prouideth for his, when moſt fruitful lands want.

14 And Ioſeph brought together all the money that was founde in the lande of Egypt, and of Chanaan, for the corne which they bought: and he layde vp the money in Pharaos houſe.

15 When money fayled in the lande of Egypt and of Chanaan, all the Egyptians came vnto Ioſeph, and ſayd, Giue vs bread: wherefore ſuffereſt thou vs to dye before thee, when our money is ſpent?

g Ioſeph is not to be condemned of crueltie: for he was but another mans officer herein: and they had to pay.

16 Then ſayde Ioſeph, g Bring your cattell: and I will giue you for your cattell, if money fayle.

17 And they brought their cattel vnto Ioſeph: and Ioſeph gaue them bread for horſes, and ſheepe, and oxen, and aſſes, and fed them with bread for all their cattell that yeere.

18 But when that yeere was ended, they came vnto him the next yeere, and ſaide vnto him, We will not hide it from my lord howe that our money is ſpent, my lorde alſo had our heardes of cattell: neither is there ought left in the ſight of my lorde, but euen our bodies, and our lands.

19 Wherefore letteſt thou vs dye before thine eyes, both we and our lande? [h] bye vs and our lande for bread, and both we and our land will be bounde vnto Pharao: onely giue vs ſeede, that we may liue and not dye, and that the lande goe not to waſte.

h God puniſhed the delicate pride of this people by this extreme hunger.

20 And Ioſeph bought all the lande of Egypt for Pharao: For the Egyptians ſolde euery man his poſſeſſions, becauſe the dearth was ſo ſore vpon them: and ſo the lande became Pharaos.

21 And he cauſed the people to remoue from citie to citie, from one ſide of Egypt into the other.

22 Onely the lande of the Prieſtes bought he not: for the Prieſtes had a portion aſſigned them of Pharao, and did eate their portion which Pharao gaue them: wherefore they ſolde not their landes.

23 Then Ioſeph ſayd vnto the folke, Behold, I haue bought you this day, and your lande for Pharao: Loe, here is ſeede for you, and ye ſhall ſowe the lande.

24 And of the increaſe you ſhall giue the [i] fifth part vnto Pharao, and foure partes ſhall be your owne for ſeede of the fielde, and for you and them of your houſholdes, and for your children to eate.

i Neither doth he oppreſſe tyrannically the people, and doeth his good ſeruice to his prince.

25 And they anſwered, Thou haſt ſaued our liues, let vs finde grace in the ſight of my lorde, and we will be Pharaos ſeruants.

26 And Ioſeph made it a lawe ouer the land of Egypt vnto this day, that Pharao ſhoulde haue the fifth part, except the lande of the Prieſtes onely, which was not Pharaos.

27 And Iſrael dwelt in Egypt, in the countrey of Goſen, and they had their poſſeſſions therein, and grewe, and multiplied exceedingly.

28 Moreouer, Iacob liued in the lande of Egypt ſeuenteene yeeres, ſo that the whole age of Iacob was an [k] hundred and fourtie and ſeuen yeeres.

k Iacob liued in the lande of Chanaan 77. yeeres, then in Meſopotamia 20. afterwarde in the lande of Chanaan 33. and in Egypt 17.

29 When ẏ time drewe nigh that Iſrael muſt dye, he ſent for his ſonne Ioſeph, & ſaid vnto him, If I haue founde grace in thy ſight, oh put thy hande vnder my thigh, and deale mercifully and truely with me, that [l] thou burie me not in Egypt.

l He woulde hereby ſurely confirme his poſteritie in the promiſe of God.

30 But I ſhall ſleepe with my fathers, and thou ſhalt carie me out of Egypt, and burie me in their buriall. And he anſwered, I will doe as thou haſt ſayde.

31 And he ſayde, Sweare vnto me. And he ſware vnto him. And [m] Iſrael † worſhipped towarde the beddes head.

m Thus he thanked God for Ioſephs conſent, & commended as God his ſeede.

† Bowed himſelfe.

The xlviii. Chapter.

1 Ioſeph with his two ſonnes viſiteth his ſicke father.
3 Iacob rehearſeth Gods promiſes.

1 After

1 AFter these deedes, one tolde Joseph, Beholde, thy father is sicke: And he tooke with him his two sonnes, Manasses and Ephraim.

2 Then this message was declared vnto Jacob, Beholde, thy sonne Joseph commeth vnto thee. And Israel tooke his strength vnto him, and sate vpon the bed.

a He perswadeth Joseph to ioyne himselfe to the holy people, from the which he had bene diuided, and from the which his great glory might alienate him.

3 And a Jacob sayde vnto Joseph, God almightie appeared vnto me at Luz in the land of Chanaan, and blessed me, and said vnto me,

4 Beholde, I will make thee fruitfull, and cause thee to multiplie, and will make a great number of people of thee, and will giue this lande vnto thy seede after thee, vnto an euerlasting possession.

5 And nowe thy two sonnes Manasses and Ephraim, which were borne vnto thee in the lande of Egypt, before I came vnto thee into Egypt, are mine, euen as Ruben and Simeon are mine:

b When the land of Chanaan shalbe diuided, they shal haue no seuerall inheritãce, but shalbe vnder their brethrens names. Gen. 35.19.

6 And the children which thou hast gotten after them, shall be thine owne, and b shalbe called after the names of their brethren in their inheritance.

c If his mother left her owne countrey: he also ought to obey Gods worde.

7 And when I came from * Mesopotamia, c Rachel died vpon my hande in the lande of Chanaan by the way, when there was but a fieldes breadth to come vnto Ephratha: and I buried her there in the way to Ephratha, the same is Bethlehem.

8 And Israel beheld Iosephes sonnes, and sayd, What are these?

9 Joseph sayd vnto his father, They are my sonnes which God hath giuen me here. And he sayde, Oh bring them to me, and let me blesse them.

10 (And the eyes of Israel were dimme for age, so that he could not [well] see.) And he brought them to him, and he kissed them, and imbraced them.

d The godly in all thinges consider the goodnesse of God, who giueth more then we looked for.

11 And Israel sayde vnto Joseph, I had not thought to haue seene thy face: and yet loe, d God hath shewed me also thy seede.

12 And Joseph tooke them away from his lappe, and he bowed him selfe with his face towarde the earth.

e The holy ghost directed all these doings.

14 And Israel stretched out his right hand, e layde it vpon Ephraims head, which was the yonger: and his left hande vpon Manasses head, c guyding his hande wittingly: For Manasses was the first borne.

f This blessing commeth from Gods mercie, and depended of the couenãt made with the father.

15 And he blessed Joseph, and sayde, f God in whose sight my fathers Abraham and Isahac did walke, God which hath fed me all my life long vnto this day, g He meaneth Christ, as 1. Cor. 10.

16 And g the angell which hath deliuered me from all euill, blesse these ladies, and h let my name be named in them, and the name of my fathers Abraham and Isahac, and that they maye ‡ growe into a multitude in the middes of the earth.

h That is, compted as one of my children vnder my name.

‡ The word signifieth, to multiplie as fishe.

17 When Joseph sawe that his father layde his right hand vpon the head of Ephraim, it displeased him: and he lift vp his fathers hand, to haue remooued it from Ephraims head vnto Manasses head.

18 And Joseph said vnto his father, Not so my father, for this is the first borne: i put thy right hande vpon his head.

i Yet Gods free giftes are not to be esteemed by order of nature.

k As Gods minister he pronounceth what God hath decreed.

19 And his father would not, but sayde, k I knowe it well my sonne, I knowe it well, he shall be also a people, and shall be great: But his yonger brother shall be greater then he, and his seede shall become a great people.

l Gods grace shoulde so appeare in these two, that the people shoulde take thence a paterne of blessing their children.

20 And he blessed them that day, and sayd, l In thee let Israel blesse and say, God make thee as Ephraim and as Manasses: and he set Ephraim before Manasses.

21 And Israel said vnto Joseph, Behold, I die, and God shal be with you, and bring you againe vnto the lande of your fathers.

‡ Shoulder.

22 Moreouer, I haue giuen vnto thee a ‡ portion of land aboue thy brethren, which I gate out of the hande of the Amorite in my sword, and in my bowe.

23 The archers haue grieuously prouoked him, and shot him thorowe with darts, they haue hated him to his hinderance.

g The afflictions of Joseph and his posteritie shall be sore.

24 But his bowe abode fast, and the armes of his handes were made strong [h] by the hands of the mightie God of Jacob: Out of him shall come an heardman, a stone in Israel, h The deliuerāce of Joseph was by God, to the ende also that his people should be fedde.

25 [i] From thy fathers God which hath helped thee, and from the almightie which hath blessed thee with blessings from heauen aboue, with blessings of the deepe that lyeth vnder, and with blessings of the breastes, and of the wombe.

i That is, all these things come.

26 The [k] blessings of thy father shall be stronger then the blessings of my elders: vnto the vtmost of the hilles of the worlde, they shal be on the head of Joseph, and on the toppe of the head of him that was separate from his brethren.

k The time now was nigher when Gods blessings should take effect.

27 Beniamin [l] shal rauine as a woolfe: In the morning he shall deuoure the pray, and at night he shall diuide the spoyles.

l This tribe liued much on pray and spoyle.

28 All these are the twelue tribes of Israel: and this their father spake vnto them, and blessed them, euery one of them blessed he with a seuerall blessing.

29 And he charged them, and sayde vnto them, When I shall be gathered vnto my people, burie me with my fathers in the caue that is in the fielde of Ephron the Hethite:

30 In the caue that is in the fielde of Machpelah, which is before Mamre in the lande of Chanaan, *which Abraham bought with the fielde of Ephron the Hethite for a possession to burie in: Gene. 23. 1.

31 Where as were buried Abraham and Sara his wife, and where as were buried Isahac & Rebecca his wife: and there I buried Lea.

32 The fielde and the caue that is therein, was bought of the children of Heth.

33 And when Jacob had made an ende of commaunding all that he would vnto his sonnes, he plucked vp his feete vnto the bedde, and [m] died, and was put vnto his people.

m Jacob died in the 147. yeere of his age, after the beginning of the world 2255. and before the birth of Christ 1705.

10 Iacob is honorably buried. 19 Ioseph forgiueth his brethren all the iniuries done vnto him.

1 AND Joseph fell vpon his fathers face, and wept [a] vpon him, and kissed him.

a Natural sorrowe, if it be in measure, is not to be repressed.

2 And Joseph commaunded his seruantes the Physicians [b] to imbaume his father: and the Physicians imbaumed Israel.

b This was to the godly then an outward token of incorruption.

3 And fourtie dayes were continued (for so long doeth the imbauming last) and the Egyptians [c] mourned for him three score and tenne dayes.

c They were more expert in lamenting then the faithfull.

4 And when the dayes of mourning were ended, Joseph spake vnto the house of Pharao, saying, If I haue founde fauour in your eyes, speake I pray you in the eares of Pharao, saying,

5 My father made me sweare, and sayd, Loe, I die, burie me in the graue which I haue made me in the land of Chanaan. Now therfore let me goe vp, I pray thee, and burie my father, and then will I come againe.

6 And Pharao sayd, Goe vp, and burie thy father, [d] according as he made thee sweare.

d Among the vnbelieuers reuerence was had vnto an othe.

7 And Joseph went vp to bury his father, and with him went all the seruantes of Pharao that were the elders of his house, and all the elders of the lande of Egypt:

8 And all the house of Joseph, and his brethren, and his fathers house: onely their children, and their sheepe, and their cattell, left they behinde in the lande of Gosen.

9 And there went with him also charets and horsemen: and it was an exceeding great companie.

10 And they came to the corne floore of Atad, which is beyonde Jordane, and there they made a great & exceeding sore lamentation: and he mourned for his father seuen dayes.

11 And

11 And when the inhabiters of the lande, [euen] the Chanaanites, sawe the mourning in the corne flooze of Atad, they sayde, This is a great mourning vnto the Egyptians: Wherefoze the name of the place is called, The mourning of the Egyptians, and it is beyonde Jozdane.

12 And his sonnes did vnto him accozding as he had commaunded them.

13 Foz his sonnes caried him into the lande of Chanaan, and buried him in the caue of the fielde Machpelah, which fielde Abzaham bought to be a place to burie in of Ephzon the Hethite, befoze Mamre.

14 And Joseph returned into Egypt againe, he and his brethzen, and all that went vp with him to burie his father, as soone as he had buried him.

15 And when Josephs brethzen sawe that their father was dead, they said, [c] Joseph may peraduenture hate vs, and reward vs againe all the euill which we did vnto him.

16 And they did sende a message vnto Joseph, saying, Thy father did commaunde befoze he dyed, saying,

17 This wise shall ye say vnto Joseph, Fozgiue, I pray thee, the trespasse of thy brethzen, and their sinne: foz they rewarded thee euil. And nowe we pray thee fozgiue the trespasse of the seruantes [f] of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake vnto him.

18 Also his brethzen came vnto him, and fell flat befoze his face, saying, Behold, we be thy seruantes.

19 To whom Joseph sayde, Feare not, ‖ am I God?

20 Ye thought euill against me, but God [g] turned it vnto good, to bzing to passe as it is this day, and to saue much people aliue.

21 Feare not therefoze, nowe I will nourishe you & your childzen. And he comfozted them, and spake ‡ kindly vnto them.

22 Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his fathers house: and Joseph liued [h] an hundzed and ten yeeres.

23 And Joseph sawe Ephzaims childzen vnto the thirde generation: and vnto Machir the sonne of Manasses were childzen ‖ bozne on Josephs knees.

24 And Joseph sayde vnto his brethzen, I die: and God will surely visite you, and bzing you out of this lande, vnto the lande which he sware vnto Abzaham, Isahac, and Jacob.

25 And Joseph tooke an othe of [i] the childzen of Israel, saying, God will not [i] faile but visite you, and ye shal carie my bones hence. And so Joseph died when he was an hundzed & tenne yeeres olde: And they imbaumed him with spices, putting him in a chest in Egypt.

e An euill conscience is a foze witnesse to it selfe, and is not lightly shaken off.

This booke is in Hebrue called (generally) Schemoth, of ye seconde worde of it, which is, names. And in Greeke Exodus, which betokeneth an issue or going out, because it principally entreateth of the going out, & the deliuerance of the childzen of Israel.

Gen. 46, 8.

The first Chapter.

1 The childzen of Iacob which came into Egypt. 8 The newe Pharao goeth about to oppresse them in vayne, by ouerburdening of them, by murdering and drowning of their men childzen. 17 The midwiues haue pitie of them, and be rewarded of God.

1 THese are the names of the childzen of *Israel, which came into Egypt with Jacob, euery man came with his housholde:

2 Ruben, Simeon, Leui, and Juda:

3 Isachar, Zabulon, and Beniamin,

4 Dan, and Nephthali, Gad, and Aser.

5 All the soules that came out of the loynes of Jacob, were seuentie:

Acts 7.14.

6 But Joseph was in Egypt already, and Joseph dyed, and all his brethzen, and all that generation.

7 *And the childzen of Israel were fruitfull, ‡ encreased, multiplied, and wared exceeding mightie, and the [a] lande was full of them.

8 But there arose vp a newe king in Egypt, which [b] knewe not Joseph:

‡ As fish, or wormes.

a Meaning, the lande of Gosen.

b This king considered not how God had preserued Egypt foz Josephs sake.

9 And he sayde vnto his folke, Behold, the people of the childzen of Israel, are [c] greater and mightier then we.

10 Come on, let vs deale wittily with them, least they multiplie, and least it come to passe, that if there be any warre, they ioyne themselues vnto our enemies, and fight against vs, and so get them vp out of the lande.

11 Therefoze did they set taskemasters ouer them, to keepe them vnder with burdens: And they built vnto Pharao treasure cities, Pithom and Raamses.

12 But the moze they vexed them, the moze they [d] multiplied and grewe: so that they abhozred at the sight of the childzen of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians helde the childzen of Israel in bondage without mercie, 14 And they made their liues bitter vnto them in that cruell bondage, in clay, and bricke, and all maner of wozke in the fielde: foz all their bondage wherein they serued them, was full of tyrannie.

15 And the king of Egypt [e] spake vnto the Midwiues of ye Hebzues women: (of which the one was named Siphrah, and the other Puah) c The wicked enuie the prosperitie of the godly.

d God wonderfully encreaseth his Church in persecutions.

e Tyrants trie diuers wayes to oppresse the Church.

Puah) and sayd,

16 When ye doe the office of a Midwife to the women of the Hebrues, and see in the ‡ byrth time that it is a boy, ye shall kill it: but if it be a daughter, it shall liue.

‡ Secret.

17 Notwithstanding, the Midwiues feared God, f and did not as the king of Egypt commaunded them, but saued the men children aliue.

f It was better to obey God then man.

18 And the king of Egypt called for the Midwiues, and sayde vnto them, Why haue yee dealt on this maner, and haue saued the men children aliue?

19 And the Midwiues answered Pharao, that the Hebrues women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are more liuely women, and are deliuered per the Midwiues come at them.

g Ye rewarde by their constancy, and not their lying.

20 And g God dealt well therefore with the Midwiues: and the people multiplied, and waxed very mightie.

h That is, either God blessed & encreased the families of the Midwiues, or els blessed and encreased the families of the Israelites by their meanes.

21 And it came to passe, that because the Midwiues feared God, h he made them houses.

22 And Pharao charged al his people, saying, All the men children that are borne, cast into the riuer, and saue the maide children aliue.

The ii. Chapter.

God for his names sake will deliuer his Church from the affliction of tyrãts.

1 Moses is borne, and cast into the flagges. 6 He is taken vp of Pharaos daughter, and deliuered to his owne mother to be nursed.

1 AND there went a man out of the house of Leui, and tooke [to wife] a daughter of Leui.

a This Leuite was called Amram, who married Jocabed, cap. 6. verse. 20.

2 And the wife conceiued, and bare a sonne: and when she sawe that it was a proper childe, she hid him three moneths.

3 And when she could no longer hide him, she tooke a basket [made] of bull rushes, and daubed it with slime and pitche, and layd the child therein, and put it in the flagges by the riuers brinke.

4 And his sister stoode a farre off, to wit what would come of it.

5 And the daughter of Pharao came downe to wash her selfe in the riuer, and her maydens walked along by the riuer side: and when she saw the basket among the flagges, she sent her mayde to fetch it.

6 And when she had opened it, she saw it was a childe: and beholde, the babe wept. And she had b compassion on it, and sayd, It is one of the Hebrues children.

b Here appeareth the prouidence of God, who preserueth his men by their enemies.

7 Then sayd his sister to Pharaos daughter, Shall I goe and call to thee a nurse of the Hebrues women, to nurse thee the childe?

8 Pharaos daughter answered her, Goe. And the maide ranne & called the c childs mother.

c Mans deuice can not hinder that which God determineth to bring to passe.

9 To whom Pharaos daughter sayde, Take this childe away, and nurse it for me, and I will rewarde thee. And the woman tooke the childe, and nursed it vp.

10 The childe grewe, and she brought it vnto Pharaos daughter, and it was made her sonne. And she called the name of it ‡ Moses: ‡ Moseh.

Moses: because [sayde she] I tooke him out of the water.

11 And in those dayes, when Moses was waxen great, d he went out vnto his brethren, and looked on their burdens, and spied an Egyptian smiting an Hebrue which was one of his brethren:

d The godly preferre the Church of God before the roare of the wicked.

12 And he looked rounde about, and when he sawe no man by, e he slue the Egyptian, and hidde him in the sande.

e By Gods appointment, Actes 7. 25. But such speciall and heroicall facres of the godly men are not to be followed.

13 And when he was gone out another day, beholde, two men of the Hebrues stroue together: And he sayde vnto him that did the wrong, Wherefore smitest thou thy fellowe?

14 He answered, Who made thee a man of authoritie and a iudge ouer vs? ‡ intendest thou to kill me, as thou killedst the Egyptian? And Moses feared, and sayde, Of a suretie this thing is knowen.

‡ Speakest.

15 And Pharao heard of it, f and went about to slay Moses. And Moses fleeing from the face of Pharao, dwelt in the land of Madian: and he sate downe by the welles side.

f Worldly trouble followeth often the godly doing their office.

16 The ‖ priest of Madian had seuen daughters, the which came and drew [water,] and filled the troughes for to water their fathers sheepe.

‖ Prince, or head.

17 And the shepheards came and droue them away: but Moses stoode vp and helped them, and watered their sheepe.

18 And when they came to Raguel their father, he sayde, Howe came it to passe that ye are come so soone to day?

19 And they answered, A man of Egypt deliuered vs from the handes of the shepheards, and so ‡ drew vs water, and watered the sheepe.

‡ Heb. drawing he drewe, that is, with diligence and labour he drewe.

20 He sayde vnto his daughters, And where is he? why haue ye so left the man? Call him, that he may eate bread.

21 And Moses was content to dwell with the man. And hee gaue Moses Zipporah his daughter, 22 Which bare him a sonne, and he called his name Gershom: for he sayde, g I haue bene a stranger in a strange lande.

g Christ is the true Gershom, Psal. 68. 8. Heb. 11. 13. 1. Pet. 2. 11.

23 And in processe of time, the king of Egypt dyed, and the children of Israel sighed by the reason of h bondage, and cryed.

h Gods children are not alwayes deliuered from bondage.

24 And their complaint came by vnto God for the bondage: and God heard their mone, and God remembred his couenat with Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob.

25 And God looked vpon the children of Israel, and God had respect vnto them.

The iij. Chapter.

1 Moses keepeth the sheepe of Iethro his father in lawe.

2 God appeareth to him in a bush, 10 and sendeth him to deliuer the children of Israel.

1 MOses kept the sheepe of Iethro his father in lawe, priest of Madian: and he droue the flocke to the backside of the desert, and came to the mountaine of God [a]‡Horeb.

2 And the Angell of the Lord appeared vnto him in a flame of fire out of the middes of a bushe: and he looked, and beholde, [b] the bushe burned with fire, and the bushe was not consumed.

3 Therefore Moses sayd, I will goe nowe, and see this great sight, howe it commeth that the bushe burneth not.

4 And when the Lorde sawe that he came for to see, God called vnto him out of the middes of the bushe, and sayd, Moses, Moses: And he answered, Here am I.

5 And he sayd, Drawe not nigh hither: [c] put thy shoes off thy feete, for the place whereon thou standest, is holy grounde.

6 And he sayd, I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob. And Moses hidde his face: for he was afrayde to looke vpon God.

7 And the Lorde sayde, I [d] haue surely seene the trouble of my people which are in Egypt, and haue heard their crie from the face of their taskemasters: for I knowe their sorowes,

8 And am come downe to deliuer them out of the hand of the Egyptians, and to bring them out of that land, vnto a good land and a large, vnto a lande that floweth with milke and honie, [euen] vnto the place of ỹ Chanaanites, and Hethites, and Amorites, and Pherizites, and Heuites, and of the Iebusites.

9 Nowe therefore beholde, the complaint of the children of Israel is come vnto me: and I haue also seene the oppression wherewith the Egyptians oppressed them:

10 Come thou therefore, and I will send thee vnto Pharao, that thou mayest bring my people the children of Israel out of Egypt.

11 And Moses sayd vnto God, [e] What am I to goe vnto Pharao, and to bring the children of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he answered, For I will be with thee: and this shal be a token vnto thee, that I haue sent thee, [f] After that thou hast brought the people out of Egypt, ye shall serue God vpon this mountaine.

13 And Moses sayde vnto GOD, Beholde, [when] I come vnto the children of Israel, and shall say vnto them, The God of your fathers hath sent me vnto you. And if they say vnto me, What is his name? what answere shall I giue them?

14 And God answered Moses, [h] I AM THAT [i] I AM. And he sayd, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, I AM hath sent me vnto you.

15 And God spake further vnto Moses, Thus shalt thou say vnto the children of Israel, [k] The Lorde God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob, hath sent me vnto you: This is my name for euer, and this is my memorial vnto generation and generation.

16 Goe, and gather the Elders of Israel together, and thou shalt say vnto them, The Lord God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob, appeared vnto me and sayd, ‖In visiting, haue I visited you, and knowe that which is done to you in Egypt.

17 And I haue sayde, I will bring you out of the tribulation of Egypt, vnto the lande of the Chanaanites, and Hethites, and Amorites, and Pherizites, and Heuites, and Iebusites, [euen] into a lande which floweth with milke and honie.

18 And they shall heare thy voyce: then both thou and the Elders of Israel shall goe vnto the king of Egypt, and say vnto him, The Lord God of the Hebrues hath ‖met with vs, and nowe let vs goe, we beseeche thee, three dayes iourney into the wildernesse, and [l] doe sacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt will not let you goe, ‖no not in a mightie hande.

20 And I will stretche out my hande, and smite Egypt with all my wonders which I will doe in the middes thereof: and after that he will let you goe.

21 And [m] I will get this people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that when ye goe, ye shall not goe emptie:

22 But euery wife shall borowe of her neighbour, and of her that sojourneth in her house, ‡iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde, & rayment: and ye shall put them on your sonnes and daughters, & shall robbe the Egyptians.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 God giueth three signes vnto Moses, which doe declare that he was sent of God. 18 Moses taketh his leaue of his father in lawe.

1 MOses answered and sayd, [a] See, they will not beleeue me, nor hearken vnto my voyce: but will say, The Lord hath not appeared vnto thee.

2 And the Lord sayd vnto him, What is that [which is] in thine hande? He answered, A ‖rodde.

3 And he saide, Cast it on the ground. And he cast it on the ground, and it became a serpent: and Moses fledde from the sight of it.

4 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Put forth thine hande, & take it by the tayle. And therefore he put forth his hand, and caught it, and it became a rodde in his hande.

5 [b] By this thing shall they beleeue, that the Lorde God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, & the God of Jacob, hath a This hil was called also Horeb, vpon another part of it. ‡ Corebah.

b Though the Church be grieuously afflicted, yet the prouidence of God keepeth it from destruction.

c By this externall ceremonie he biddeth put in minde humilitie and reuerently to heare God.

d God seeth the affliction of his Church, he remembreth his promise, and heareth their prayers.

e God is sayd to come downe when he declareth that he purposeth to deliuer his people out of trouble.

f This refusal was of humilitie, and not of disobedience.

g By a signe that should come after, Moses is confirmed in his vocation.

h This is read in the future tense in the Hebrue.

i That is, I am the God which made heauen and earth, that God which is eternall, he which all things giueth a beginning, and the God of mercy, mindfull of his promise, Exod. 3. 14. Deut. 4.

k God would haue them rest vpon his free promise, which they had almost forgotten.

‖ Or, I haue surely remembred you.

‖ Or, appeared to vs.

hath appeared vnto thee.

6 And the Lorde sayd furthermore vnto him, Thrust thine hande into thy bosome. And he thrust his hande into his bosome: and when he tooke it out againe, beholde, his hand was leprous as snowe.

7 And he sayde, Put thine hande into thy bosome agayne. And he put his hande into his bosome agayne, and plucked it out of his bosome, and beholde, it was turned againe as his [other] flesh.

8 Therefore if they will not beleeue thee, neither heare the ‖ voyce of the first signe, yet will they beleeue for the voyce of the seconde signe.

‖ Or, the wordes confirmed by the first signe.

9 But and if they will not beleeue these two signes, neither hearken vnto thy voyce: thou shalt take of the water of the riuer, and powre it vpon the drie lande, and the water which thou takest out of the riuer, shall be turned into blood vpon the drie lande.

10 Moses sayd vnto the Lorde, Oh my Lorde, I ‖ am neither yesterday, nor yer yesterday, a man eloquent, neither since thou hast spoken vnto thy seruant: but I am slowe mouthed, and slowe tongued.

‖ Or, was neuer eloquent.

11 And the Lorde sayde vnto him, Who hath made mans mouth? or who maketh the dumbe, or deafe, the seeing, or the blinde? haue not I, the Lorde?

12 And nowe goe, and I will bee with thy mouth, and teache thee what thou shalt say.

13 He sayde, Oh my Lorde, send I pray thee by the hande of him, whom thou wilt sende.

14 And the Lord was angry with Moses, and sayd, Doe not I knowe Aaron thy brother ‡ the Leuite, that he can speake? For loe, he commeth forth to meete thee: and when he seeth thee, he will be glad in his heart.

‡ Of Leui.

15 Therefore thou shalt speake vnto him, and put [c] these wordes in his mouth, and I will be with thy mouth, and with his mouth, and wil teache you what ye ought to doe.

c Thou shalt instruct him what to say.

16 And he shal be thy spokesman vnto the people, and he shall be, [euen] he shalbe to thee in steade of ‖ a mouth, and thou shalt be to him in [d] steade of God.

‖ Or, he shall be the interpreter, and thou shalt be his guide. d That is, thou shalt be to him a wise counseller, and full of Gods spirite.

17 And thou shalt take this rodde in thy hand, wherewith thou shalt doe miracles.

18 Therefore Moses went and returned to Jethro his father in lawe agayne, and sayd vnto him, Let me goe I pray thee nowe, and turne agayne vnto my brethrē which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet aliue. And Jethro sayd to Moses, Goe in peace.

19 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses in Madian, Goe and returne againe into Egypt, for all the men are dead which went about to ‡ kill thee.

‡ Seeke thy soule.

20 And Moses tooke his wife, and his sonnes, and put them on an Asse, and went againe to Egypt: And Moses tooke the rodde of God in his hande.

21 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, When thou art entred and come into Egypt againe, see that thou doe all the wonders before Pharao, which I haue put in thy hand: [e] but I will harden his heart, and he shall not let the people goe.

e Only to laye to Pharaos charge, when he doth resist you with his obstinacie and wilfulnesse, by withdrawing his spirite and grace.

22 And thou shalt saye vnto Pharao, Thus saith the Lord, Israel is my sonne, [euen] my first borne.

23 And I sayde vnto thee, that thou let my sonne goe, that he may serue me: and if thou refuse to let him goe, beholde, I doe [f] slay thy sonne, euen thy first borne.

f Meaning, most deare vnto thee.

24 And it came to passe by the waye, in the Inne, that the Lorde met him, and would haue [g] killed him.

g Because he had not circumcised his sonne as God had appoynted.

25 And Sephora tooke a stone, and cut away the foreskinne of her sonne, and cast it at his feete, and sayde, A bloodie husband art thou vnto me.

26 Then [h] he let him goe, and she said, A bloodie husband: because of the circumcision.

h That is, the Lorde that would haue slayne him.

27 Then sayd the Lord vnto Aaron, Go meete Moses in the wildernesse. And he went & met him in the mount of God, and kissed him.

28 And Moses tolde Aaron all the words of the Lord which had sent him, and all the signes which he charged him withall.

29 So went Moses and Aaron, and gathered all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron tolde all the wordes which the Lorde had spoken vnto Moses, and did the miracles in the sight of the people.

31 And the people [i] beleeued: And when they heard that the Lorde had visited the children of Israel, & had looked vpō their tribulation, they bowed themselues, and worshipped.

i See what fruite first had mouing repentance of Gods iudgements, that ye shoulde haue good hope of profite in hearing the worde of Israel.

The v. Chapter.

1 Moses and Aaron doe their message to Pharao, who will not suffer the people of Israel to depart: but oppresseth them more and more.

1 MOses and Aaron went in afterwarde and tolde Pharao, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Let my people goe, that they may ‖ holde a feast vnto me in the wildernesse.

‖ worship God solemnely.

2 And Pharao sayde, Who is the Lorde that I should heare his voyce, and let Israel goe? I knowe not the Lorde, neither will I let Israel goe.

3 And they sayde, The God of the Hebrues ‡ hath called vs: let vs go, we pray thee, three dayes iourney into the desert, and do sacrifice vnto the Lord our God, least he smite vs with pestilence, or with the sworde.

‡ Heb. is called ouer vs.

4 Then sayde the king of Egypt vnto them, Wherefore doe ye Moses and Aaron let the people from their workes? get you vnto your burdens.

5 And Pharao sayde furthermore, Beholde, there is much people nowe in the lande, and you make them leaue their burdens.

a The godly ought not to be offended if afflictions encrease when God begynneth to helpe them.

6 And Pharao a commanded the same day the taskemasters which were amongst the people, and the officers, saying,

7 Ye shall giue the people no more strawe to make bricke withal, as ye did in time past: let them goe & gather them strawe them selues.

8 And the number of bricke which they were wont to make in time past, lay vnto their charges also, and minish nothing thereof, for they be idle, and therefore crie, saying, We will goe and doe sacrifice vnto our God.

9 They must haue more worke layde vpon them, that they may labour therein, and not regarde b vaine words.

b The more cruelly that tyrannie rage, the more is Gods helpe.

10 Then went the taskemasters of the people, and the officers out, and tolde the people, saying, Thus saith Pharao, I will giue you no more strawe.

11 Goe your selues and gather you strawe where ye can finde it: yet shall none of your labour be minished.

c This intolerable labour was layde on the people, that they might haue away Moses and Aaron.

12 And so were c the people scattered abroade throughout all the lande of Egypt, for to gather stubble in steade of strawe.

13 And the taskemasters hasted them forward, saying, Fulfill your worke, your daily taskes in their due time, as if you had strawe.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel, which Pharaos taskemasters had set ouer them, were beaten. And they sayd vnto them, Wherefore haue ye not fulfilled your taske in making of bricke, both yesterday, and to day, as well as in time past?

15 The officers also of the children of Israel came and complained vnto Pharao, saying, Wherefore dealest thou thus with thy seruantes?

16 There is no straw giuen vnto thy seruants, and they say vnto vs, Make bricke: and thy seruants are beaten, ‖ and the fault is in thine owne people.

‖ Or, they deale euill with thy people.

17 He said, Ye are idle, idle are ye: and therefore ye say, We will goe and do sacrifice vnto the Lorde.

18 Goe therefore nowe and worke, and there shall no strawe be giuen you, and yet shall ye deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in worse case, after it was sayde, Ye shall minish nothing of your bricke, of your dayly taske in due time.

20 And they met Moses & Aaron, which stood in their way as they came out from Pharao, d They misiudging Gods grace by the present aduersitie, become vnthankfull to men, & murmurers to God.

21 And said vnto them, d The Lord looke vpon you, and iudge you, which haue made the fauour of vs † to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharao, and in the eyes of his seruants, and haue put a sword in their hand to slay vs.

† To stinke.

22 e Moses returned vnto the Lord, and saide, Lorde, wherefore hast thou so euill entreated this people: And wherefore hast thou sent me?

e Moses imbecilitie appeareth in that he is wearie of his vocation, & complaineth of Gods slownesse in deliuering his people.

23 For sithe I came to Pharao to speake in thy name, he hath fared foule with this folke: & yet thou hast not deliuered thy people at all.

The vi. Chapter.

3 God renueth his promise concerning the deliuerance of the Israelites.

1 Then the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Now shalt thou see what I will doe vnto Pharao: for in a mightie hande shall he let them goe, and in a mightie hande shall he driue them out of his lande.

2 And God spake vnto Moses, and said vnto him, I am the Lorde.

3 I appeared vnto Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, as an almightie God: but in my name Iehouah was I a not knowen vnto them.

a The patriarkes knewe God before, but such manifest knowledge of God was neuer opened vnto them, as it is nowe by Moses.

4 Moreouer, I made a couenant with them, to giue them the lande of Chanaan, the lande of their pilgrimage, wherein they were strangers.

5 And therefore I haue also heard the groning of the children of Israel, whom the Egyptians keepe in bondage: and haue remembred my couenant.

6 Wherefore say vnto the children of Israel, I am the Lorde, I will bring you out from the burdens of the Egyptians, and will ridde you out of their bondage, and will deliuer you in a stretched out arme, and in great iudgements.

7 And I will take you for my people, and will be to you a God: and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde your God, which bringeth you out from the burdens of the Egyptians.

8 And I will bring you into the lande concerning the which I did ‖ lift vp my hand to giue it vnto Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and will giue it vnto you for a possession: [for] I am the Lorde.

‖ Or, sware.

9 And Moses told the children of Israel euen so: but they b hearkened not vnto Moses for anguish of spirite, and for cruell bondage.

b So hard a thing it is to shew true obedience vnder the crosse.

10 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

11 Goe in, and speake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, that he let the children of Israel goe out of his lande.

12 And Moses spake before the Lord, saying, Beholde, the children of Israel hearken not vnto me: Howe then shall Pharao heare me, which am of ‖ vncircumcised lippes?

‖ Or, which haue an impediment in my speache: or am rude.

13 And c the Lord spake vnto Moses and vnto Aaron, and gaue them a charge concerning the children of Israel, & concerning Pharao king of Egypt, ‖ that they should bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt.

c It appeareth that this redemptiō came altogether of Gods mercie, seeing that Moses was vnwilling, and the people careleſſe.

‖ Or, he should let goe.

14 These be the heads of their fathers houses. The children of Ruben the first borne sonne of Israel, are these: Hanoch, and Phallu, Hesron, Hesron, and Charmi: these be the children of Ruben.

15 The children of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, Ohad, and Jachin, Sohar, and Saul the sonne of the Chanaanitish woman: these are the kinreds of Simeon.

d It was necessarie to be knowen, that the ministers of this deliverance were of Abrahams stocke.

16 These also are the names of the children [d] of Leui in their generations: Gerson, and Cehath, and Merari: Leui liued an hundred, thirtie, and seuen yeeres.

17 The sonnes of Gerson: Libni, and Simi, by their kinreds.

18 The children of Cehath: Amram, and Ishar, and Hebron, and Uziel. And Cehath liued an hundred, thirtie, and three yeeres.

19 The children of Merari: Mahli, and Musi: these are the kinreds of Leui by their generations.

e Which kind of mariage was afterward in the law forbidden, Leuit. 18.12.

20 Amram tooke Jochebed [e] his fathers sister to wife, and she bare him Aaron and Moses: and Amram liued an hundred, and thirtie, and seuen yeeres.

21 And the children of Ishar: Corah, Nepheg, and Sichri.

22 The children of Uziel: Misael, Elzaphan, and Zithri.

f Aarons wife was of ye tribe of Juda.

23 And Aaron tooke [f] Eliseba, daughter of Aminadab, and sister of Nahason to wife, which bare him Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.

24 The children of Corah: Assir, and Elcanah, and Abiasaph: these are the kinreds of the Corahites.

25 Eleazar Aarons sonne tooke him one of the daughters of Putiel to wife, which bare him Phinees: and these are the principall fathers of ye Leuites, throughout their kinreds.

26 This is that Aaron & Moses to whom the Lorde sayde, ‖ Leade the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt, according to their g armies.

g For their families were so great, that they might be compared to armies.

27 These are that Moses and Aaron, which spake to Pharao king of Egypt, that ‡ they might bring ye childre of Israel out of Egypt.

‖ Might let goe.

28 And in the day when the Lorde spake vnto Moses in the lande of Egypt, 29 He spake vnto him, saying, I am the Lord: speake thou vnto Pharao the king of Egypt all that I say vnto thee.

30 And Moses said before the Lorde, Beholde, I am of vncircumcised lippes, and howe shall Pharao giue me audience?

The vii. Chapter.

1 Moses and Aaron speake to Pharao. 10 They turne the rodde into a serpent, and the water into blood, and Pharaos sorcerers doe the like. 13 and Pharaos heart is hardened the more.

a God communicateth his authoritie and power with his ministers.

1 AND the Lorde saide vnto Moses, Beholde, I haue made thee Pharaos [a] God: And Aaron thy brother shal be thy Prophet.

2 Thou shalt speake all that I commaunde thee, and Aaron thy brother shall speake vnto Pharao, that he sende the children of Israel out of his lande.

3 And I will harden Pharaos heart, & multiplie my miracles, and my wonders in the lande of Egypt.

4 But Pharao shall not hearken vnto you, that I may set my hande vpon Egypt, and bring out mine armies, and my people the children of Israel out of the lande of Egypt [b] in great iudgements.

b To strengthe Moses sayth, God promiseth against most sharply to punish the oppression of his Church.

5 And the Egyptians shall knowe that I am the Lorde, when I stretche forth my hande vpon Egypt, and bring out the children of Israel from among them.

6 Moses and Aaron did as the Lord commanded them, [euen] so did they.

7 Moses was fourescore yeeres olde, and Aaron fourescore and three, when they spake vnto Pharao.

8 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

9 If Pharao speake vnto you, saying, Shew a miracle for you: thou shalt say vnto Aaron, Take thy rodde, and cast it before Pharao, that it may be a serpent.

10 Then went Moses and Aaron in vnto Pharao, and did as the Lorde had commaunded: and Aaron cast forth his rodde before Pharao, and before his seruants, and it turned to a serpent.

11 Then Pharao called for the wise men, and [c] enchanters: and those sorcerers of Egypt did in like maner with their sorcerie.

c It seemeth that these were Iannes and Jambres, 2. Tim. 3.8. Howeuer they wicked maliciously resist the truethe of God.

12 For they cast downe euery man his rodde, and they turned to serpents: but Aarons rod did eate vp their roddes.

13 And he hardened Pharaos heart, that he hearkened not vnto thē, as the Lord had said.

14 The Lorde also sayde vnto Moses, Pharaos heart is ‡ hardened, he refuseth to let the people goe.

‡ Made heauie, or burdened.

15 Get thee vnto Pharao in the morning, loe, he will come vnto the water, and thou shalt stande vpon the ‡ riuers brinke against he come: and the rodde which was turned to a serpent, shalt thou take in thine hand:

‡ Nylus

16 And thou shalt say vnto him, The Lorde God of the Hebrues hath sent me vnto thee, saying, Let my people goe, that they may serue me in the wildernesse: and beholde, hitherto thou wouldest not heare.

17 Thus sayth the Lorde, In this thou shalt knowe that I am the Lorde: beholde, I will smite with the rodde that is in my hande the waters which are in the riuers, and they shall be turned to blood.

18 And the fish that is in the riuer shall dye: & the riuer shall ‖ corrupt, and it shall grieue the Egyptiās to drinke of the water of the riuer.

‖ Or, stinke.

19 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Take thy rodde, and stretche out thine hande ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers and pondes, and all pooles of water which they haue, that they may be blood, & that there may be blood throughout all the lande of Egypt, both in [vessels] of wood, and also of stone.

The first plague.

20 And Moses and Aaron did as the Lorde commaunded: and he lift vp the rodde, and smote the [d] waters that were in the riuer, in the sight of Pharao, and in the sight of his seruants: and all the water that was in the riuer turned into blood.

d The waters wherein ỹ Israelites children were drowned, are nowe turned to the Egyptians sorowe.

21 And the fish that was in the riuer died: and the riuer corrupted, & the Egyptians could not drinke of the water of the riuer, & there was blood throughout all the land of Egypt.

22 And the enchanters of Egypt did likewise with their sorceries: and he hardened Pharaos heart, neither did he hearkē vnto them, as the Lord had sayd.

23 And Pharao turned him selfe, and went againe into his house, and set not his heart thereunto.

24 And the Egyptians [e] digged rounde about the riuer for water to drinke: for they could not drinke of the water of the riuer.

e These circumstances declare that this was no vaine illusion.

25 And it continued seuen dayes, after that the Lorde had smitten the riuer.

The viii. Chapter.

6 The plague of frogges, which dye at the prayer of Moses. 30 Moses prayeth agayne, but Pharaos heart is hardened.

1 THe Lorde spake vnto Moses, Goe vnto Pharao, and tell him, Thus sayth the Lorde, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them goe, beholde, I will smite all thy borders with frogges:

3 And the riuer shall sraule with frogges, which shal goe vp and come into thine house, and into thy priuie chamber where thou sleepest, and vpon thy bed, and into the house of thy seruants, & vpon thy people, & into thine ouens, and vpon all thy ‖ victuals in store:

‖ Or, thy dough, or in thy ambrie.

4 And the frogges shall come vp vpon thee, & on thy people, and vpon all thy seruants.

5 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretche foorth thine hande with thy rodde ouer the streames, ouer the riuers, and ouer the ponds: and cause frogs to come vp vpon the lande of Egypt.

The seconde plague.

6 And Aaron stretched his hand ouer the waters of Egypt, and the frogges came vp, and couered the lande of Egypt.

a Thus God will exercise his seruants with aduersaries to their triall.

7 And [a] the sorcerers did likewise with their sorcerie, and brought frogges vp vpon the lande of Egypt.

b Hypocrites feared ỹ Gods iudgement, pretend a certaine repentance, 8 Then Pharao called for Moses and Aaron, and sayde, Pray [b] ye vnto the Lorde, that he may take away the frogges from me, and from my people: and I will let the people goe, that they may do sacrifice vnto the Lord.

9 And Moses sayde vnto Pharao, [c] Glorie herein because of me, and [appoynt] when I shall pray for thee, and for thy seruantes, and for thy people, to driue away the frogges from thee and thy houses: that they may remaine but in the riuer onely.

c This was ỹ glorie of Pharao, that he might choose the time when Moses should pray for him.

10 He said, To morowe. And he said, Euen as thou hast said: That thou mayest know that there is none like vnto the Lord our God.

11 And so the frogges shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, from thy seruantes, and from thy people, and shall remayne in the riuer onely.

12 Moses and Aaron went out from Pharao, and Moses cried vnto the Lorde as touching the frogges which he had brought agaynst Pharao.

13 And the Lorde did according to the saying of Moses: and the frogges dyed out of the houses, out of the villages and fieldes.

14 And they gathered them together vpon heapes, and the lande ‡ had an euill smell [through them.]

‡ Stanke.

15 But when Pharao sawe that he had rest giuen him, he hardened his heart, and harkened not vnto them, as the Lord had sayd.

16 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron, Stretche out thy rodde, and smite the dust of the lande, that it may be [turned] to lice throughout all the lande of Egypt.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hande with his rodde, and smote the dust of the earth, and there were lice in man and beast: so that all the dust of the land was lice, throughout all the lande of Egypt.

The third plague.

18 And the inchanters ‡ allayed likewise with their inchantmentes, to bring foorth lice, [d] but they could not: and the lice were both vpon men and beastes.

d God confounded their wisedome and authoritie in a thing most vile.

19 Then said the inchanters to Pharao, This is the finger of God. And Pharaos heart remayned obstinate, and he harkened not vnto them, as the Lord had sayde.

20 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stande before Pharao, loe, he will come foorth vnto the water, & thou shalt say vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

21 Els, if thou wilt not let my people goe, beholde, I will sende ‡ all maner of flyes, both vpon thee and thy seruantes, and thy people, and into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shall be full of flies, & the ground whereon they are.

‡ Swarmes of flies.

22 And the lande of Gosen where my people are, will I ‖ cause to be wonderfull in that day, so that there shal no flies be there: whereby thou shalt knowe that I am the Lorde

in the middest of the earth.

‡ Redemption.

23 And I will put a ‡ diuision betweene my people and thine: and to e morowe shall this miracle be done.

e God graunteth a time of repentance.

24 And the Lorde did so, and f there came an intolerable swarme of flies into the house of Pharao, and into his seruantes houses, and into all the lande of Egypt: and the lande was corrupt with these flies.

The fourth plague.

f This miracle was wrought without the meanes of the rodde.

25 And Pharao called for Moses and Aaron, and sayde, Goe and doe sacrifice vnto your God in this lande.

26 And Moses answered, It is not meete that we so doe: for we must offer vnto the Lorde our God, that [which is] g an abomination vnto the Egyptians. Loe, if we sacrifice that which is an abomination vnto the Egyptians before their eyes, will they not stone vs?

g For the Egyptiās worshipped their god Apis in the likenesse of an oxe, & their god Iupiter in the likenesse of a sheepe, which kinde of beast the Israelites offred in sacrifice to the true God.

27 We will goe three dayes iourney into the desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lorde our God, as he hath commaunded vs.

28 And Pharao sayde, I will let you goe, that ye may sacrifice vnto the Lorde your God in the wildernesse, but goe not h farre away: pray for me.

h The wicked wickedly prescribeth vnto Gods ministers how farre they shall goe.

29 And Moses sayde, Beholde, I will goe out from thee, and pray vnto the Lorde, that the flies may depart from Pharao, and from his seruants, and from his people to morowe: but let Pharao from henceforth deale deceitfully no more, that he will not let the people goe to sacrifice vnto the Lorde.

30 And Moses went out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the Lorde:

31 And the Lorde did according to the saying of Moses, and the flies departed from Pharao, and from his seruantes, and from his people, and there remayned not one.

32 And Pharao hardened his heart once more at this time, and did not let the people goe.

The ix. Chapter.

1 The murrayne of beastes. 10 The plagues of botches and sores. 23 The horrible hayle, thunder, and lightnings.

1 THe Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Goe in vnto Pharao, and thou shalt tell him, Thus saith the Lorde God of the Hebrues, Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

2 If thou refuse to let them goe, and wilt holde them still,

3 Beholde, the hande of the Lorde is vpon thy flocke which is in the fielde, [for] vpon horses, vpon asses, vpon camels, vpon oxen, and vpon sheepe, there shal be a mighty great murraine.

4 And the Lorde shall do wonderfully betweene the beasts of Israel, and the beasts of Egypt, so that there shall nothing die of all that perteineth to the children of Israel.

5 And the Lorde appointed a time, saying, To morowe the Lorde shall finish this worde in the lande.

6 And the Lorde did that thing on the morow, and i all the cattell of Egypt died: but of the cattell of the children of Israel died not one.

The fifth plague.

i This speach signifieth a verie great number, or the most part.

7 And Pharao sent, and behold, there was not one of the cattell of the Israelites dead: And the heart of Pharao was hardened, and he did not let the people go.

8 And the Lorde saide vnto Moses and Aaron, Take your hands full of ashes out of the furnace, and Moses shall sprinkle it vp into the aire in the sight of Pharao:

9 And it shall be dust in all the lande of Egypt, and shall be swelling sores with blaines both on man and beast throughout all the lande of Egypt.

10 And they tooke ashes out of the furnace, and stood before Pharao, and Moses sprinkled it vp into the aire: & there were swelling sores with blaines, both in men, and in beasts:

11 And the k sorcerers could not stande before Moses because of the blaines: for there were botches vpon the inchanters, and vpon all the Egyptians.

The sixth plague.

k The sorcerers ceased not to resist Moses & Aarō, wherefore this plague did more grieue them then the residue of the Egyptians.

12 And the Lorde hardened the heart of Pharao, and he harkened not vnto them, as the Lorde had said vnto Moses.

13 And l Lorde said vnto Moses, Rise vp early in the morning, and stand before Pharao, and thou shalt tell him, Thus saith the Lorde God of the Hebrues, Let my people goe, that they may serue me:

14 Or els I wil at this time send al my plagues vpon thine c heart, and vpon thy seruants, and on thy people: that thou maiest knowe that there is none like me in all the earth.

c So l thine owne cōscience shal condemne thee of ingratitude and malice.

15 For now I will stretch out my hand, that I may smite thee & thy people with pestilence, and thou shalt perish from the earth.

16 And in very deede d for this cause haue I kept thee, for to shew thee my power, and that my name may bee declared throughout all the world.

d God pronounceth that he could quickly haue destroyed him, yet for other causes he reserued him.

17 Yet exaltest thou thy selfe against my people, that thou wilt not let them go?

18 Beholde, to morowe this time I will cause downe a mighty great haile, such a one as was not in Egypt since the foundation thereof was laide, vnto this time.

19 Sende therefore nowe, and e gather thy beastes, and all that thou hast in the fielde: for vpon all the men and the beastes which are found in the fielde, & not brought home, shall the hayle fall, and they shall die.

e Here we see though Gods wrath be kindled, yet there is a certaine mercy shewed euen to his enemies.

20 And as many as feared l worde of the Lord amongst the seruantes of Pharao, made their seruants and their beasts flee into the houses.

21 But he that regarded not the worde of the Lorde, left his seruants and his beasts in the fielde.

22 And the Lorde saide vnto Moses, Stretch foorth thy hande vnto heauen, that there may be hayle in all the lande of Egypt, vpon man, and vpon beasts, and vpon all the herbes of the fielde, throughout the lande of Egypt.

The seuenth plague.

23 And Moses stretched foorth his rodde vnto heauen, and the Lord thundered and hayled, and the fire ran along vpon the ground, and the Lord hayled in the lande of Egypt.

24 So there was hayle, & fire mingled with the hayle, so grieuous, and such as there was none throughout all the land of Egypt since people inhabited it.

25 And the hayle smote throughout all the lande of Egypt, all that was in the fielde, both man and beast: and the hayle smote all the herbes of the field, and broke all the trees of the fielde.

26 Onely in the lande of Gosen, where the children of Israel were, was there no hayle.

27 And Pharao sent, and called for Moses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them, I haue nowe sinned: the Lorde is righteous, and I and my people are vngodly.

28 Pray ye vnto the Lorde, that these thundryngs of God and hayle may be sufficient:
and I will let you goe, and ye shall tarie no longer.

f He sheweth the kings that through his incredulitie he pulleth the plague where he was.

29 Moses sayde vnto him, f As soone as I am out of the citie, I will spreade abroade my handes vnto the Lorde, and the thunder shall cease, neyther shall there be any more hayle:
that thou mayest know how that the earth is the Lordes.

30 But I knowe that thou and thy seruantes yet feare not the g face of the Lorde God.

g Moses speaketh condi-tionally with the king & all his court of vngodlinesse.

31 And so the flaxe and the barley were smitten, for the barley was shot vp, and the flaxe was bolled:

h made.

32 But the wheate and the rye were not smitten, for they were ‡ late sowen.

33 And Moses went out of the citie from Pharao, and spread abroade his handes vnto the Lorde: and the thunder and hayle ceased, neither rayned it vpon the earth.

34 And when Pharao sawe that the rayne, and the hayle, and thunder were ceased, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his seruantes:

35 And the heart of Pharao was hardened, neither would he let the children of Israel goe, as the Lord had sayde by the hand of Moses.

The x. Chapter.

1 The plague of Grashoppers. 16 Pharao confesseth his sinne. 28 Pharao forbiddeth Moses to come any more in his presence.

1 AND the Lorde sayd vnto Moses, Goe in to Pharao: for I haue hardened his heart, and the heart of his seruãts, that I might shewe these my signes before him,

2 And that thou tell in the audience of thy sonne, and of thy sonnes sonne, what things
I haue done in Egypt, & the miracles which I haue done amongst them, that yee maye knowe howe that I am the Lorde.

a Gods miracles be so great, þ they ought to be spoken of for euer: and the duetie of parents is to declare the same to their children.

3 And so Moses and Aaron came in to Pharao, and sayd vnto him, Thus sayth the Lord God of the Hebrues, Howe long wilt thou b refuse to submit thy selfe vnto me? Let my people goe, that they may serue me.

b The ende of afflictiõs is to humble our selues with true repẽtance vnto the mercie of God.

4 Or els if thou refuse to let my people goe, beholde, to morowe will I bring Grashoppers into thy coastes:

5 And they shall couer the face of the earth, that it can not be seene: and they shal eate the residue which remayneth vnto you, and is escaped from the hayle: and they shal eate euery greene tree that beareth you fruite in ỳ field.

6 And they shall fill thy houses, and all thy seruantes houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, after such a maner, as neither thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue seene, since the time they were vpon the earth, vnto this day. And he turned him selfe about, and went out from Pharao.

7 And Pharaos seruantes sayde vnto him,
Howe long shall he be ‡ hurtfull vnto vs? ‡ A snare.
Let the men goe, that they may serue ỳ Lorde their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

8 And Moses and Aaron were brought againe vnto Pharao, and he sayde vnto them, Goe and serue the Lord your God: but who are they that shall goe?

9 And Moses answered, We will goe with our young, and with our olde, and with our sonnes, and with our daughters, & with our sheepe, and with our oxen we must goe: for we must holde a feast vnto the Lorde.

10 And he sayde vnto them, c Let the Lorde be so with you as I will let you goe, and your children: take heede, ‡ for ye haue some mis-chiefe in hande.

c That is, I would ỳ Lorde were no more bent towardes you, thẽ I am minded to let you goe.
‡ For euill is be-fore your face.

11 Nay, not so, but goe ye men, and serue the Lorde: for that was your desire. d And they were thrust out of Pharaos presence.

d Moses is careful to haue Gods commaundement in all poyntes duly obserued, choosing rather to be hated for Gods sake, then to consent to a thing vnlawfull.

12 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Stretche out thine hande ouer the lande of Egypt for grashoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eate all the herbes of the lande, and all that the hayle left behinde.

13 And Moses stretched foorth his rodde ouer the lande of Egypt, and the Lord brought an e East winde vpon the lande all that day, and all that night: and in the morning the East winde brought the Grashoppers.

The eight plague.

e Hereby we learne that dis-temperate and noysome weather is chiefly to be ascribed to the iust iudgement of God, and not to any natu-rall cause.

14 And the Grashoppers went vp ouer all the lande of Egypt, and remayned in all quarters of Egypt very grieuously: before them were there no such Grashoppers, neither after them shall be.

15 For

15 For they couered all the face of the earth, so that the land was darke, and they did eate all the herbes of the lande, and all the fruites of the trees what soeuer the hayle had left: there was no greene thing left in ỹ trees & herbes of the fielde, through all the land of Egypt.

16 Therefore Pharao called for Moses & Aaron in haste, and sayd, I haue sinned agaynst the Lord your God, and against you.

17 And nowe forgiue me my sinne onely this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God, that he may take away from me this death onely.

18 And [Moses] went out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the Lord.

19 And the Lord turned a mightie strõg West winde, & it tooke away the Grashoppers, and cast them into the red sea: so that there was not one Grashopper in all ỹ coasts of Egypt.

20 And the Lorde hardened Pharaos heart, so that he would not let ỹ children of Israel go.

21 And the Lorde saide vnto Moses, Stretch out thy hande vnto heauen, that there may be vpon the lande of Egypt darknesse which may be felt.

The ninth plague. ‡ Palpable darknesse.

22 And Moses stretched foorth his hande vnto heauen: and there was a ‡ thicke darknesse vpon all the land of Egypt three dayes.

23 No man sawe another, neither rose vp from the place where he was by the space of three dayes: But all the children of Israel had light where they dwelled.

24 And Pharao called for Moses, and sayde, Goe, and serue the Lorde: onely let your sheepe and your oxen abide, and let your children goe with you.

f Moses will not yeelde in any poynt in such things as God cõmaunded, for all that Pharao could doe.

25 f And Moses saide, Thou must giue vs also sacrifice and whole burnt offerings, for to doe sacrifice vnto the Lord our God.

26 Our cattell also shall goe with vs, & there shall not one hoofe be left behinde: for thereof must we take to serue the Lord our God: neither doe we knowe with what we must doe seruice vnto the Lord, vntil we come thither.

27 But the Lord hardened Pharaos heart, and he would not let them goe.

g The wicked, the nigher they be to their destruction, the more furious cõmonly they be. Therefore, the godly in such cases ought to be of good hope.

28 g And Pharao sayd vnto him, Get thee from me, and take heede vnto thy selfe, that thou seest my face no more: for, when so euer thou commest in my sight, thou shalt die.

29 And Moses said, Let it be as thou hast said, I will see thy face no more.

The xi. Chapter.

2 The Lorde commaundeth the Hebrues to robbe the Egyptians. 4 The death of the first borne of all things in Egypt is signified.

1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Yet will I bring one plague more vpon Pharao, and vpon Egypt, and after that he will let you goe hence: when he shall let you goe quite, he shall vtterly driue you hence.

2 a Speake thou therefore in the eares of the people, that euery man borowe of his neighbour, & euery woman of her neighbour, iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde.

a We must not take this for an example to spoile our neighbour, that was ordained by especiall commission for the due punishment of the Egyptians, Augu. 39. q.

3 And the Lorde shall giue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians: Moreouer, Moses was a very great man in the lande of Egypt, in the sight of Pharaos seruants, and in the sight of the people.

4 And Moses sayd, Thus saith the Lord, At midnight will I goe out into the middest of Egypt,

5 And all the first borne in all the lande of Egypt shall dye, from the first borne of Pharao that sitteth on his seate, vnto the first borne of the maide seruant that is behinde the mill, and all the first gendred of the cattell,

6 And there shall be a great crie throughout all the lande of Egypt, such as there was neuer none like, nor shall be.

7 But amongst all the children of Israel, shall not a dogge moue his tongue, from a man vnto a beast: that ye may knowe howe that the Lorde putteth a difference betweene the Egyptians and Israel.

b Pharaos seruants shal desire Moses to depart with his people: for the king speaks no more to Moses, as was said before, Chap. 10. verse 28. || Or, in a great anger.

8 b And these thy seruantes shall all come downe vnto me, and fall before me, and say, Get thee out, and all the people that are vnder thee: and then will I depart. And he went from Pharao || with an angry countenance.

9 And the Lorde saide vnto Moses, Pharao shall not heare you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.

10 And Moses and Aaron did all these wonders before Pharao: and the Lord hardened Pharaos heart, so that he would not let the children of Israel go out of his land.

The xii. Chapter.

2 The Lorde ordeineth the Passeouer. 37 The number that went out of Egypt, and howe long they continued in Egypt.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron in the land of Egypt, saying,

2 This moneth shall be vnto you the beginning of moneths: and the first moneth of the yeere shall it be vnto you.

3 Speake ye vnto all the congregation of Israel, saying, In the tenth day of this moneth, euery man take vnto him a a lambe, according to the house of the fathers, a lambe throughout euery house.

a God ordeined this sacrifice for a token and pledge of their deliuerance.

4 If the household be too litle for the lambe, let him take his neighbour which is next vnto his house, according to the number of the soules, euery one of you according to his eating, shall make your count for a lambe.

5 And let your lambe bee without blemish, a male of a yeere olde, [which] ye shall take out from among the sheepe, and from among the goates.

6 And ye shall keepe him in, vntill the foure-teenth day of the same moneth: and euery assemblie of the congregation of Israel shall kill him about ‖ euen.

‖ Or, twilight.

b The Church is distinguished from the synagogue of the vnfaithful, by the word of God, & by the Sacraments.

7 b And they shall take of the blood, and strike it on the two [side] postes, and on the vpper doore post, in the houses where they shall eate him.

8 And they shall eate the flesh the same night, rosted with fire, and with vnleauened bread, and with sowre herbes they shall eate it.

9 See that ye eate not thereof rawe, nor sodden with water, but rosted with fire: the head, feete, and purtenance thereof.

10 And ye shall let nothing of it remayne vnto the morning: That which remaineth of it vntill the morowe, shall ye burne with fire.

11 Of this maner shall ye eate it, With your loynes girded, and your shooes on your feete, and your staffe in your hand, c and ye shal eate it in haste: for it is the Lords Passeouer.

c This was the Passeouer of the Iewes: but our Paschal Lambe is Christ, as witnesseth Paul, 1 Cor. 5.

12 For I wil passe through the land of Egypt this same night, and will smite all the first borne of Egypt, from man to beast, and vpon all the ‡ goddes of Egypt I will execute iudgement: I [am] the Lorde.

‡ Princes, or Idoles.

13 And the blood shall be vnto you a token in the houses wherein you are: and when I see the blood, I will passe ouer you, and ẏ plague shall not be vpon you to destroy you, when I smite the lande of Egypt.

14 And this day shall be vnto you a remembrance: & you shall keepe it an holy feast vnto ẏ Lord throughout your generations, you shall keepe it holy for an ordinance for d euer.

d Euer is not here taken for a terme without ende, but for a long season in scripture, as in Genesis 13.

15 Seuen daies shal ye eate vnleauened bread, so that the first day ye put away leauen out of your houses: For who so euer eateth leauened bread, from the first day vntil ẏ seuenth day, that soule shall be rooted out of Israel.

16 The first day shall be an holy conuocation vnto you, and the seuenth day shall be an holy conuocation vnto you: there shal be no maner of worke done in them, saue about that onely which euery mā must eate, ẏ only may ye do.

17 And ye shall obserue the feast of vnleauened bread: for this same day haue I brought your armies out of the land of Egypt, therefore ye shall obserue this day, and all your children after you, by an euerlasting decree.

18 The first moneth, and the fourteenth day of the moneth e at euen ye shall eate vnleauened bread, vnto the one and twentieth day of the same moneth at euen againe.

e The Iewes counted ẏ beginning of the day, at sunne set, till the next day at ẏ same time.

19 Seuen dayes shall there be no leauened bread found in your houses: and who so euer eateth leauened bread, that soule shall be rooted out from the cōgregation of Israel, whether he be stranger, or borne in the lande.

f By leauen is meant corruption, either of life, or doctrine.

20 f Ye shall eate no leauened bread: but in all your habitations shall ye eate vnleauened bread.

21 Then Moses called for all the Elders of Israel, and sayd vnto them, Choose out, and take you to euery houshold of you a Lambe, and kill the Passeouer.

22 And take a bunch of hysope, and dippe it in the blood that is in the bason, and strike the vpper post of the doore, & the two side postes, with the blood that is in the bason: and none of you goe out at the doore of his house vntill the morning.

23 For the Lorde will passe ouer to smite the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood vpon the vpper doore post, & the two side postes, he will passe ouer the doore, and will not suffer g the destroyer to come into your houses to plague you.

g The Angel sent of God to destroy the first borne.

24 Therefore shall ye obserue this thing for an ordinance to thee and to thy sonnes for euer.

25 And when ye be come to the land which the Lorde will giue you, according as he hath promised, ye shall keepe this seruice.

26 And when your children aske you, What maner of seruice is this that ye doe?

27 Ye shall say, It is the sacrifice of the Lords Passeouer, which passed ouer the houses of the children of Israel in Egypt, and he smote the Egyptians, & saued our houses. And the people bowed them selues, and worshipped.

28 And the children of Israel went and did as the Lord had commanded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

29 And at midnight the Lorde smote the first borne in the lande of Egypt, from the first borne of Pharao that sate on his seate, vntill the first borne of the captiue that was in prison, and all the first borne of cattell. The tenth plague.

30 And Pharao rose in the night, he and his seruantes, and all the Egyptians, and there was a great cry in Egypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead.

31 And he called vnto Moses and Aaron by night, saying, Rise vp, and get you out from amongst my people, both you, and also the children of Israel: and goe, and serue the Lord, as ye haue sayde.

32 And take your sheepe & your kyne with you as ye haue said: and depart, and blesse me.

33 And the Egyptians forced the people, that they might send them out of ẏ lande in haste: for they sayde, We be all [but] dead men.

34 And the people tooke their dough before it was sowred, which they had in store, being bound in clothes, vpon their shoulders.

35 And the children of Israel did according to the saying of Moses: and they borowed of the Egyptians iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde, and rayment.

36 And the Lorde gaue the people fauour in the sight of the Egyptians, so that they ‖ granted such things as they required: And they robbed the Egyptians.

‖ Or, lent them.

37 And

37 And the children of Israel tooke their iourney from Rameſis to Sucoth, [h] sixe hundred thousand men of foote, beside children.

h If they grew so amongst their enemies being so smal a number at their first comming to Egypt: let vs also be of good hope, that God will encrease his Church, be it neuer so much oppressed.

38 And a great multitude of sundry other nations went also with them, and sheepe, & oxen, and exceeding much cattel.

39 And they baked vnleauened cakes of the dough which they brought out of Egypt, for it was not sowred: for they were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tarie, neither had they prepared for themselues any prouision of meate.

40 The dwelling of the childrē of Israel which they dwelled in Egypt, was [i] foure hundred and thirtie yeeres.

i From Abrahams departing from Vr in Chaldea, vnto the departing of the children of Israel out of Egypt, were 430. yeeres.

41 And when the foure hundred and thirtie yeeres were expired, euen the selfe same day departed all the hostes of the Lord out of the land of Egypt.

42 It is a night to be obserued vnto the Lord, in the which he brought them out of the land of Egypt: This is that night of the Lorde, which all the children of Israel must keepe throughout their generations.

43 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses and Aaron, This is the lawe of Passeouer: there shal no stranger eate thereof.

44 But euery seruāt that is bought for money, after that thou hast circumcised him, shal eate thereof.

45 A stranger and an hired seruant shall not eate thereof.

46 In one house shall it be eaten, thou shalt carie none of the flesh out of the house, neither shall ye breake a bone thereof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall obserue it.

48 If a stranger also dwell among you, and wil hold Passeouer vnto the Lorde, let him circumcise all that bee males, and then let him come and obserue it, and he shall bee as one that is borne in the land: for no vncircumcised person shall eate thereof.

49 One maner of lawe shal be vnto him that is borne in the land, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among you.

50 And all the children of Israel did as the Lorde commaunded Moses and Aaron, so did they.

51 And the selfe same day did the Lorde bring the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt, with their armies.

The xiij. Chapter.

Sanctifie, that is, offer.

The first borne are sanctified vnto the Lord. 8 Children must be taught how their fathers were deliuered out of Egypt.

a All law for the offring of the first begotten vnto God, who were deliuered not frō death only, but frō bondage also.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 [a] Sanctifie vnto me all ỹ first borne, whatsoeuer openeth the wombe among the children of Israel, as well of man as of beast: for it is mine.

3 And Moses said vnto the people, Remember this day in which ye came out of Egypt out of the house of ‡ bondage: for through a mightie hand the Lorde brought you from thence: there shal no leauened bread be eaten.

‡ Seruants.

4 This day came ye out, in the moneth [b] Abib.

b This was about April, when corne began to ripe in that countrey.

5 When the Lord hath brought thee into the land of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Heuites, and Iebusites, which he sware vnto thy fathers that hee would giue thee, a land wherein milke and hony floweth: thou shalt keepe this seruice in this same moneth.

6 Seuen dayes thou shalt eate vnleauened bread, and in the seuenth day is the feast of the Lord.

7 Unleauened bread shalbe eaten seuen daies: and there shall no leauened bread bee seene with thee, nor yet leauen be seene with thee in all thy quarters.

8 [c] And thou shalt shew thy sonne in that day, saying, This is done because of that which the Lorde did vnto me when I came out of Egypt.

c God willed the cause of the ceremonies to be declared at the celebration thereof.

9 [d] And it shall bee as a signe vnto thee vpon thine hand, and as a remembrance betweene thine eies, that the Lordes law may be in thy mouth: for in a strong hand hath the Lorde brought thee out of Egypt.

d Sacraments make to this purpose: that Gods worde might be the perpetuer rooted in our hearts, so that thence might flote a sincere confession of the mouth.

10 Keepe therefore this ordinance in his season from yeere to yeere.

11 And when the Lorde shall bring thee into the land of the Chanaanites, which he sware vnto thee and to thy fathers, and shall giue it thee:

12 Then thou shalt appoint vnto the Lord all that openeth the matrix, and euery first borne that commeth of a beast which thou hast, if it be a male, it shall be the Lordes.

13 And euery first borne of an Asse thou shalt redeeme with a Lambe: if thou redeeme him not, thou shalt breake his necke: All the first borne of man amongst thy children also shalt thou [e] buy out.

e By offering a cleane beast in sacrifice, Leuit. 12. 6.

14 And when thy sonne aske thee in time to ‡ come, saying, What is this? Thou shalt say vnto him, With a mightie hand the Lord brought vs out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

‡ To morrow.

15 And when Pharao was very loth to let vs goe, the Lord slew all the first borne in ỹ land of Egypt, as well the first borne of man, as the first borne of beast: Therefore I sacrifice vnto the Lorde all the males that open the matrix: but all the first borne of my children I redeeme.

16 This shall be as a token vpon thine hand, & as a remembrance betweene thine eyes, that the Lord brought vs out of Egypt through a mightie hand.

17 It came to passe that when Pharao had let the the people go, God caried them not through the way of the land of the Philistines, which was the more nigh way: But God sayd, Lest peraduenture the people [f] repent when they see warre, and so turne againe to Egypt.

[f] Repent, this word declareth the great weakenesse of the Israelites for all the wōders that were wrought.

18 But God led the people about thorowe the way of the wildernesse of the red sea, and the children of Israel went vp ‡harnessed out of the land of Egypt.

‡ By fiue in a ranke.

19 And Moses tooke the bones of Joseph with him: for he made ỹ children of Israel sweare, saying, God will surely visite you, and ye shal take my bones away hence with you.

20 And they tooke their iourney frō Suchoth, and abode in Etham in the edge of the wildernesse.

21 And the Lord went before them by day in a pillar of a cloud to leade them the way, and by night in a pillar of fire to giue them light, that they might goe both by day and night.

[g] God neuer faileth his people, whom he ordeth beyond the compasse of mans reason, euen in their most desperate case.

22 [g] The pillar of the cloude departed not by day, nor the pillar of fire by night, out of the sight of the people.

The xiiij. Chapter.

4 Pharaos heart is hardened, 8 and he pursueth the Israelites.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake to the children of Israel, that they turne and pitch their tentes before Pi-hahiroth, betweene Migdol & the sea, ouer against Baal-sephon: & before that shall they pitch by the sea.

3 For Pharao will say of the children of Israel, They are tangled in the land, the wildernesse hath shut them in.

4 And I will harden Pharaos heart, that he shall follow after you, and I will get me honour vpon Pharao and vpon all his hoste: The Egyptians also shall knowe that I am the Lord. And they did so.

5 And it was told the king of Egypt that the people fled: And the heart of Pharao and of his seruants turned against the people, and they sayd, Why haue we done this, that wee haue let Israel goe out of our seruice?

6 And he made ready his charet, and tooke his people with him,

7 And tooke sixe hundred chosen charets, and all the charets of Egypt, and captaines vpon euery one of them.

8 And the Lord hardened the heart of Pharao king of Egypt, and he followed after the children of Israel: but the childrē of Israel went out with an high hand:

9 And the Egyptians followed after them, & all the horses and charets of Pharao, and his horsemen, and his hoste ouertooke them pitching of their tent by the sea, beside Pi-hahiroth before Baal-sephon.

10 And when Pharao drew nigh, the children of Israel lift vp their eyes, and behold, the Egyptians followed after them, and they were sore afraid: and the children of Israel cried out vnto the Lord.

11 But they said vnto Moses, [a] Because there were no graues in Egypt, hast thou therefore brought vs away for to die in the wildernesse? Wherefore hast thou serued vs thus, for to cary vs out of Egypt?

[a] See the inconstancie and vnkinde dealing of the people: They burden Moses their guide, not considering the power of God, but the commō course of things naturall.

12 Did not wee tell thee this in Egypt, saying, Let vs bee in rest, that we may serue the Egyptians? For it had bene better for vs to haue serued the Egyptians, then for to die in the wildernesse.

13 [b] And Moses said vnto the people, Feare ye not, stand still, and behold the saluation of the Lord which he will shew to you this day: for ye that haue seene the Egyptians this day, shall see them no more for euer.

[b] Moses nothing discouraged, goeth forward manfully in his callinge a worthie patterne for the godly magistrate alwaies to imbrace.

14 [c] The Lorde shall fight for you, and ye shall hold your peace.

[c] When we be hardest bestead, our strength shall stand in hope and quiet silence, God mightily fighting for vs.

15 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Wherefore [d] criest thou vnto me? Speake vnto the children of Israel that they goe forward:

[d] This cry is to be vnderstand, not of the sound of his voyce, but of the earnest affection of his heart.

16 But lift thou vp thy rod, and stretch out thy hand ouer the sea, and deuide it asunder, and let the children of Israel goe on dry ground through the middes of the sea.

17 And beholde, I, [euen] I will harden the heart of the Egyptians, and they shall follow after them: and I will get me honour vpon Pharao, and vpon all his hoste, and vpon his charets, and vpon his horsemen.

18 [e] And the Egyptians shall know that I am the Lord, when I haue gotten me honour vpon Pharao, vpon his charets, and vpon his horsemen.

19 And the Angel of God which went before the hoste of Israel, remoued, and went behind them, and the pillar of the cloude went from before their face, and stood behind them,

20 And came betweene the tentes of the Egyptians, and the tentes of Israel, and it was a cloude and darkenesse, and gaue light by night: and all the night long the one came not at the other.

21 And Moses stretched out his hand ouer the sea, and the Lord caused the sea to goe backe by a very strong East winde all that night, & made the sea dry [land,] and the waters were deuided.

22 And the children of Israel went into the middes of the sea vpon the dry [ground,] and the waters were a wall vnto them on their right hand, and on their left hand.

23 And the Egyptians followed, and went in after them [f] to the middes of the sea, euen all Pharaos horses, his charets, and his horsemen.

[f] See the vaine confidence of the vngodly to their vtter vndoing, presuming of their owne strength.

24 And in the morning watch, the Lord looked vnto the hoste of the Egyptians out of the pillar of the fire and of the cloude, & troubled the hoste of the Egyptians, 25 And tooke off his charet wheeles, and caried them away violently: So that the Egyptians said, g Let vs flee from the face of Israel: for the Lord fighteth for them against the Egyptians.

g Late repentance helpeth not the vngodly, whose heart is not changed.

26 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moses, Stretch out thy hand ouer the sea, that ỹ waters may come againe vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charets, and vpon their horsemen.

The last plague.

27 And Moses stretched foorth his hand ouer the sea, and it came againe to his course early in the morning, & the Egyptians fled against it: and the Lorde ouerthrew the Egyptians in the middes of the sea.

28 And the water returned, and couered ỹ charets, and the horsemen, & all the hoste of Pharao that came into the sea after them, so that there remained not one of them.

h The benefites that we receiue of God, and his iudgements against the wicked, tend all to this purpose, that we should stand in feare of him, and be strengthened in the faith of his promises. ‡ Hebr. mightie hand.

29 But the children of Israel walked vpon dry [land] through the middes of the sea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on the right hand of them, and on the left.

30 Thus the Lorde deliuered Israel the selfe same day out of the hand of the Egyptians: and Israel saw the Egyptians dead vpon the sea side.

31 h And Israel sawe that ‡ mightie power which the Lord shewed vpon the Egyptiãs: and the people feared the Lord, and beleeued the Lord, and his seruant Moses.

The xv. Chapter.

1 Moses with the men and women sing praises vnto God for their deliuerance.

1 THen Moses and the children of Israel sang this song vnto the Lord, and said on this maner: I will sing vnto the Lord, for he hath triumphed gloriously, the horse and him that rode vpon him hath he ouerthrowen in the sea.

2 The Lord is my strength and prayse, and he is become my saluation: he is my God, and I will glorifie him, my fathers God, and I will exalt him.

3 The Lord is a man of warre, the Lorde is his name.

4 Pharaos charets and his hoste hath he cast into the sea, his chosen captaines also are drowned in the red sea.

5 The deepe waters haue couered them, they sunke to the bottome as a stone.

6 Thy right hand, Lord, is become glorious in power, thy right hand, Lord, hath all to dashed the enemie.

7 And in thy great glory thou hast ouerthrowen them that rose vp against thee: thou sentest foorth thy wrath, which consumed them as stubble.

8 Through the blast of thy nosethils the waters gathered together, the floods stoode still as an heape, and the deepe waters congealed together in the heart of the sea.

9 The enemie sayd, I will follow [on them,] I will ouertake [them,] I will deuide the spoile, & my lust shalbe satisfied vpon them: I will draw my sword, mine hand shall destroy them.

10 Thou didst blow with thy winde, the sea couered them, they sanke as lead in the mightie waters.

11 Who is like vnto thee, O Lord, amongst ỹ gods? Who is like thee, so glorious in holinesse, fearefull in praises, shewing wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hand, ỹ earth swalowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercie hast caried this people which thou hast redeemed, and hast brought them in thy strength vnto thy holy habitatiõ.

a Ye shewerh how this proofe of Gods mightie power, not onely for the time present, but also hereafter, shalbe of great efficacie and force, as Deut. 2.

14 a The nations shall heare, and be afrayd, sorow shall come vpon Palestina.

15 Then the dukes of the Edomites shall bee amased, and the mightiest of the Moabites: trembling shal come vpon them, all the inhabiters of Chanaan shal waxe faint hearted.

16 Feare and dread shall fall vpon them, in the greatnesse of thine arme they shall bee as still as a stone, till thy people passe thorowe, O Lord, while this people passe thorowe which thou hast gotten.

17 Thou shalt bring them in, and plant them in the b mountaine of thine inheritance, the place, Lord, which thou hast made for to dwel in, the sanctuarie, O Lord, which thy handes haue prepared.

22 And so Moses brought Israel from the red sea, and they went out into the wildernesse of Sur: and they went three dayes in the wildernesse, and found no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they could not drinke of the waters of d Marah, for they were bitter: therefore the name of the place was called Marah.

24 e And the people murmured against Moses, saying, What shall we drinke?

26 And sayde, If thou wilt hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, and wilt doe that which is right in his sight, and wilt giue eare vnto his cõmandements, & keepe all his ordinances: thẽ wil I put none of these diseases vpõ thee, which I haue brought vpon the Egyptiãs: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

27 And the children of Israel came to Elim, where were twelue welles of water, and three score and tenne palme trees: and they pitched their tentes there by the waters.

The xvj. Chapter.

1 The Israelites come into the desert of Sin. 32 Manna is reserued for a remembrance vnto their posteritie.

1 AND they tooke their iourney from Elim, and all the congregation of the children of Israel came to the wildernesse of Sin, which is betweene Elim and Sinai, the fifteenth day of the second moneth after their departing out of the land of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron in the wildernesse.

3 And the children of Israel said vnto them, Would to God wee had died by the hand of the Lord in the land of Egypt, when we sate [a] by the flesh pots, and when we did eate bread our bellies full: for ye haue brought vs out into this wildernesse to kill this whole multitude with hunger.

a So hard a thing it is to the flesh, not to murmure against God, when the belly is punished.

4 Then sayd the Lord vnto Moses, Beholde, I will raine bread from heauen to you: and the people shall goe out, and gather a certaine rate euery day, that I may prooue them, whether they will walke in my law or no.

5 The sixth day they shall prepare for themselues that which they will bring in, & let it be twise as much as they gather in daily.

6 And Moses and Aaron sayde vnto all the children of Israel, At euen ye shall know that it is the Lorde which brought you out of the land of Egypt.

7 And in the morning ye shall see the glory of the Lord, because he hath [b] heard your grudgings against the Lorde: And what are we, that ye haue murmured against vs?

b We game thẽ not Manna because they murmured, but for his promise sake.

8 And Moses said, At euen shal the Lord giue you flesh to eate, and in the morning bread enough: for the Lorde hath heard your murmurings which ye murmure against him: for what are we? Your murmurings are not against vs, but against the Lord.

9 And Moses spake vnto Aaron, Say vnto all the congregation of the children of Israel, Come foorth before the Lorde: for hee hath heard your grudgings.

10 And as Aaron spake vnto the whole congregation of the children of Israel, they looked toward the wildernesse, and behold, the glory of the Lord appeared in the cloud.

11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Israel: tell them therefore, and say, At euen ye shall eate flesh, and in the morning ye shalbe filled with bread: [c] and ye shall know that I am the Lord your God.

c God worketh all that he doeth for this ende, that the knowledge of him may sticke deepelier in our myndes.

13 And at euen the Quailes came vp, & couered the tentes: and in the morning the dewe lay round about the hoste.

14 And when the dewe was gone, beholde, vpon the ground in the wildernesse there lay a small round thing, as small as the hoare frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said euery one to his neighbour, It is ‡Manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moses said vnto them, This is the bread which the Lord hath giuen you to eate.

‡ Man, which signifieth gift.

16 This is the word which the Lord had commanded: [d] gather of it euery man for himselfe for to eate, a Gomer ful for euery man, according to the number of your soules, and take euery man for them which are in his tentes.

d Hauing receiued gifts at Gods hand, we haue neede of lawes for the due vse of the same, els should we abuse them to our destruction.

17 And the children of Israel did so, and gathered some more, some lesse.

18 And when they did mete it with a Gomer, vnto him that gathered much, remained nothing ouer, and vnto him that had gathered little, was there no lacke: euery man gathered sufficient for his eating.

19 And Moses sayd vnto them, [e] See that no man let ought remaine to the morning.

e This doctrine also pertaineth to vs, who are bidden to aske but our daily food, and forbidden to be carefull for to morow.

20 Notwithstanding, they hearkened not vnto Moses: but some of them left of it vntill the morning, and it waxed [f] full of wormes, and corrupted: & Moses was angry with them.

f So God punisheth them that greedily gather goods, trusting rather to their owne riches and diligence, then to his goodnes and prouidence.

21 And they gathered all mornings euery man as much as sufficed for his eating: & as soone as the heate of the sunne came, it moult.

22 And the sixth day they gathered twise as much bread, two Gomers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and told Moses.

23 He sayd vnto them, This is that which the Lord hath sayd, To morow is the rest of the holy Sabboth vnto the Lord, bake that which you will bake to day, and seethe that ye will seethe, & that which remaineth, lay vp till the morning.

24 And they laid it vp till the morning as Moses bade: and it did not corrupt, neither bred there any wormes therein.

25 And Moses sayd, Eate that to day, for it is the Sabboth vnto the Lorde: to day ye shall not finde it in the field.

26 Sixe dayes ye shall gather it, and in the seuenth day which is the Sabboth, in it there shall be none.

27 Notwithstanding, there went out some of the people in the seuenth day for to gather, and they found none.

28 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, How long refuse ye to keepe my commandements and my lawes?

29 See, the Lord hath giuen you a Sabboth, therefore hee giueth you the sixth day bread for two dayes: bide therefore euery man at home, and let no man goe out of his place the seuenth day.

30 And the people rested the seuenth day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name thereof Manna: and it was like g Coriander seede, and white: and the taste of it was like wafers made with honie.

g In forme and figure, and not in colour, Num. 11.7.

32 And Moses sayde, This is that which the Lord commandeth, Fill a Gomer of it, which may be kept for your children after you, that they may see the bread wherewith I haue fed you in the wildernesse, when I brought you out of the land of Egypt.

33 And Moses spake vnto Aaron, Take a pot, and put a Gomer full of Manna therein, and lay it vp before the Lorde, to be kept for your children after you.

34 As the Lord commanded Moses, so Aaron layd it vp before the testimonie to be kept.

35 And the children of Israel did eate Manna fourtie yeeres, vntill they came to a land inhabited, and so they did eate Manna, vntill they came vnto the borders of the land of Chanaan.

h Which measure conteineth about ten pottels.

36 A Gomer is the tenth part of an h Epha.

The xvii. Chapter.

1 The Israelites come into Raphidim. 11 Moses holdeth vp his handes in prayer, and the Amalekites are ouercome.

1 AND all the congregation of the children of Israel went on their iourneys from the wildernesse of Sin, after the commandement of the Lord, and pitched a in Raphidim, there was no water for the people to drinke.

a Moses here noteth not euery place where they camped, as Num. 33. but onely those places where some notable thing was done.

2 And the people did chide with Moses, and said, Giue vs water to drinke. Moses said vnto them, Why chide you with me? Wherefore doe ye tempt the Lord?

3 There the people thirsted for water, and the people murmured against Moses, and sayde, Wherefore hast thou thus brought vs vp out of Egypt, to kill vs, and our children, and our cattel with thirst?

4 And Moses cried vnto the Lorde, saying, What shall I do vnto this people, they be almost ready to stone me?

5 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Goe before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Israel: and thy rod wherewith thou smotest the riuer, take it in thine hand, and goe.

6 Beholde, I will stand before thee vpon the rocke that is in Horeb, and thou shalt smite the rocke, & there shall come water out thereof, that the people may drinke. And Moses did so before the eies of the elders of Israel.

7 And he called the name of the place b Massah, and Meribah, because of the chiding of the children of Israel, and because they tempted the Lorde, saying, Is the Lord amongst vs, or not?

b To print this example in our hearts, Dauid mentioneth it. Psal. 95. saying, Harden not your hearts, &c.

8 Then came Amalec, and fought with Israel in Raphidim.

9 And Moses said vnto ‡ Iosuah, Choose vs out men, and go fight with Amalec: and to morow I will stand on the top of the hill, and the rod of God shalbe in my hand.

‡ Iehosuah.

10 Iosuah did as Moses bade him, and fought with Amalec: and Moses and Aaron, and Hur went vp to the top of the hill.

11 And it came to passe, that when Moses held vp his hand, c Israel had the better: And when he let his hand downe, Amalec had the better.

c The feruent prayer of the godly, of how great force it is, hereby it is well knowen.

12 But Moses handes were heauie, and therefore they tooke a stone and put it vnder him, and he sate downe thereon: and Aaron and Hur stayed vp his handes, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: and his handes remained steadie vntil ỹ going downe of the sunne.

d This slaughter of the Amalekites was but the beginning of Gods vengeance, as it appeareth Deut. 25.17. and 1. Sam. 15.

13 And Iosuah discomfited Amalec & his people with the edge of the sword.

14 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Write d this for a remembrance in a booke, & commit it into the eares of Iosuah: for I wil vterly put out the remembrance of c Amalec from vnder heauen.

e An example to be trembled at, of them that persecute Gods Church.

15 And Moses made an altar, and called the name of it, ‡ The Lorde is he that worketh miracles for me.

‡ Iehouah Nissi, that is, the Lord my banner.

16 For he saide, The f hand is on the seate of God, the Lord will haue warre with Amalec from generation to generation.

f This Hebrew speach meaneth as much, as if he should say, God sweareth by his throne.

The xviii. Chapter.

1 Iethro Moses father in lawe, brought his wife & children vnto him.

1 IEthro the priest of Madian, Moses father in lawe, heard of all that God had done for Moses, and for Israel his people, and that ỹ Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 Therefore he tooke Sephora Moses wife, after he had a sent her backe, a It may seeme ỹ he sent her backe to her father for her impatiẽce, least she should be a let to his vocatiõ, which was so dangerous, chap. 4. verse 25.

3 And her two sonnes, of which the one was called Gershom: for he sayd, I haue bene an aliant in a strange land.

4 The name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father [sayd he] was mine helpe, and deliuered me from the sword of Pharao.

5 And Iethro Moses father in lawe, came with his two sonnes, and his wife, vnto Moses into the wildernesse, where he abode by the b mount of God.

b So called, because the presence of God was there, and wrought many miracles.

6 And c That is, he sent messengers to Moses.

6 And chee said vnto Moses, I thy father in lawe Iethro am come to thee, and thy wife also, and her two sonnes with her.

7 And Moses went out to meete his father in lawe, and did obeisance, and kissed him: and eche asked other of his ‡ health, & they came into the tent.

‡ Peace.

8 And Moses tolde his father in lawe all that the Lorde had done vnto Pharao and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and all the trauaile that had ‡ come vpon them by the way, and how the Lord deliuered them.

‡ Found them.

9 And Iethro reioyced ouer all the goodnesse which the Lord had done to Israel, and because he had deliuered them out of the hands of the Egyptians.

d Whereby it may appeare that he worshipped the true God, and therefore Moses refused not to marrie his daughter.

10 And Iethro said, d Blessed be ỹ Lord which hath deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, & out of the hand of Pharao, which hath also deliuered his people from the hand of the Egyptians.

11 Now I know that the Lord is greater then all gods: for in the thing whereby they delt proudly with them, c [were they destroyed themselues.]

e For they that drowned the children of Israel, were drowned themselues in water.

12 And Iethro Moses father in lawe, tooke whole burnt offerings and sacrifices, to offer to God: and Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eate bread with Moses father in lawe before God.

13 And on the morow Moses sate to iudge the people: and the people stoode about Moses, from morning vnto euen.

14 And when Moses father in lawe sawe all that he did vnto the people, he sayd, What is this that thou doest vnto the people? Why sittest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stand about thee from morning vnto euen?

15 And Moses said to his father in lawe, Because ỹ people come vnto me to seeke [counsell] of God.

16 When they haue a matter, they come vnto me, and I iudge betweene euery man & his neighbour, and shew them the ordinances of God and his lawes.

f As negligēce and slouthfulnesse in magistrates is vtterly euill: so for a man to ouercharge himselfe further then he is able to susteine, is not well.

17 And Moses father in lawe sayd vnto him, It is not f well that thou doest.

18 Thou both weariest thy selfe, and this people that is with thee: for this thing is of more waight then thou art able to performe thy selfe alone.

g Iudge thou in hard causes which cannot be decided, but by consulting with God.

19 Heare therefore now my voyce, and I will giue thee counsel, and God shalbe with thee: Be thou vnto the people g to Godward, that thou maiest bring the causes vnto God:

20 And thou shalt teach them ordinances and lawes, and shew them the way wherein they must walke, and the worke that they must doe.

21 Moreouer, thou shalt seeke out among all the people mē of courage [and] such as feare God, true men, hating couetousnesse, & place [of these] ouer the [people] rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tennes, 22 And let them iudge the people at all seasons: and euery great matter that commeth, let them bring vnto thee, but let them iudge all small causes themselues, and so shall it be easier for thy selfe, and they shall beare a [burden] with thee.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God charge thee with all, thou shalt bee able to endure, and yet the people shall come to their place in peace.

h Though Iethro were not to be compared, yet Moses followeth his counsell. So we also must follow wholesome instructions, whosoeuer putteth them in our minde.

24 h And so Moses obeied the voyce of his father in lawe, and did all that he had said.

25 And Moses chose men of courage out of all Israel, and made them as heads ouer the people, rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties, and rulers of tennes, 26 And they iudged the people at all seasons: but brought the hard causes vnto Moses, and iudged all small matters themselues.

i Read the occasions, Num. 10, 29.

27 And Moses i let his father in lawe depart: and he went into his owne land.

The xix. Chapter.

10 The people are commanded to be sanctified.

1 IN the third moneth, when the children of Israel were gone out of the lande of Egypt, the same day came they into the wildernesse of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Raphidim, & were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched their tentes in the wildernesse, and there Israel camped before the mount.

3 But Moses went vp vnto God, and ỹ Lord called vnto him out of the mountaine, saying, Thus shalt thou say vnto the house of Iacob, and tell the children of Israel, a The Egle carrieth her yong ones vpon her wings, fearing onelp mans violence, which rather thē they should take harme, she would receiue the harme in her owne body. Instead thereof, serued the cloude that kept off the Egyptias force.

4 Ye haue seene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and tooke you vp vpon a Egles wings, and haue brought you vnto my selfe.

‡ A deare and precious thing of all mē greatly desired.

5 Now therefore if ye will heare my voyce in deede, and keepe my couenant, ye shalbe [as] a deare ‡ treasure vnto me aboue all nations: for all the earth is mine.

6 Ye shall bee vnto me also a priestly kingdome, and an holy people. And these are the wordes which thou shalt say vnto the children of Israel.

7 Moses came and called for the elders of the people, and layd before their faces all these wordes which the Lord commanded him.

8 And the people answered all together, and said, All that the Lord hath said, we will doe. And Moses brought the wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Loe, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, that the people may heare mee talking with thee, and beleeue thee for euer. Moses shewed the wordes wordes of the people vnto the Lord.

10 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Goe vnto the people, and [b] sanctifie them to day and to morow, and let them wash their clothes, 11 And be ready against the third day: for the third day ‡ the Lord will come downe in the sight of all the people vpon mount Sinai.

12 [c] And thou shalt set boundes vnto the people round about, and say, Take heede to your selues, that ye goe not vp into the mount, or touch the border of it: whosoeuer toucheth the mount, shall surely die.

13 There shall not an hand touch it, els he shall be stoned, or shot thorow: whether it be beast, or man, it shall not liue: when the ‖ trumpet bloweth long, then may they come vp into the mountaine.

14 And Moses went downe from the mount vnto the people, and sanctified them, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he sayde vnto the people, Be ready against the third day, and come not at [your] wiues.

16 And the third day in the morning there was thunder and lightning, and a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and the voyce of the trumpet exceeding loude, so that all the people that was in the hoste was afraid.

17 And Moses brought the people out of the tentes to meete with God, and they stoode at the nether part of the hill.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lord descended downe vpon it in fire, and the smoke thereof ascended vp as the smoke of a furnace, and all [d] the mount quaked exceedingly.

19 And when the voyce of the trumpet blewe long, and waxed louder and louder, Moses spake, and God answered him by a voyce.

20 And the Lord came downe vpon mount Sinai in the top of the hill: and when the Lord called Moses vp into the top of the hill, Moses went vp.

21 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Go downe, charge the people, least they breake out from their boundes to see the Lord, and so, many of them perish.

22 And let the priestes also which come to the Lord sanctifie themselues, least the Lord destroy them.

23 And Moses sayd vnto the Lord, The people can not come vp into the mount Sinai, for thou chargest vs, saying, Set boundes about the hill, and sanctifie it.

24 And the Lord said vnto him, Away, and get thee downe, and thou shalt come vp, thou, and Aaron with thee: but let not the [e] priests and the people presume for to come vp vnto the Lord, least he destroy them.

25 And so Moses went downe vnto the people, and told them.

b Teach them to be pure in heart, as they shew themselues outwardly cleane by washing.

‡ The Lord will come downe, for I will come downe.

c Men must be no bolder in Gods matters, then he giueth them leaue, nor farther curious, then he reuealeth in his worde.

‖ Or, cornet.

d God vsed these fearefull signes, to signifie that his law doth terrifie the conscience of man, whereby he might be moued the more to reuerence and feare the maiestie of God.

e Neither dignitie nor multitude haue authoritie to passe [p] bounds that Gods word prescribeth.

The xx. Chapter.

1 The ten commandements of God are declared vnto the people. 23 Gods of siluer and gold are againe forbidden.

AND [a] God spake all these wordes, and sayd,

The first Table.

2 I * am the Lorde thy God, which haue brought thee out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

a When Moses and Aaron were gone vp, or had passed the bounds of the people, God spake thus out of the mount, that all the people heard. Deut. 5. 25.

3 Thou shalt haue none other gods in my sight.

4 Thou shalt make thee no graue ymage, neither the likenesse of any thing that is in heauen aboue, either in the earth beneath, nor in the waters vnder the earth.

5 Thou shalt not bowe downe to them, nor worship them: for I the Lord thy God am a ielous God, and visite the sinne of the fathers vpon the children, vnto the third and fourth generation of them that hate me:

6 And shew mercy vnto thousandes in them that loue me, & keepe my commandements.

7 [b] Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vayne: for the Lord will not hold him giltlesse that taketh his name in vayne.

b Not onely periurie, but rash and light othes be condemned.

8 Remember þ Sabboth day, that thou [c] sanctifie it.

c The day is halowed, whē they that come together on the Sabboth be holy themselues.

9 Sixe daies shalt thou labour, and do all that thou hast to doe,

10 But the seuenth day is the Sabboth of the Lord thy God: in it thou shalt doe no maner of worke, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, thy man seruant, and thy maide seruant, thy cattell, and the stranger that is within thy gates:

11 For in sixe daies the Lord made heauen and earth, the sea, and all that in them is, & rested the seuenth day: wherefore the Lord blessed the seuenth day, and halowed it.

The second Table.

12 [d] Honour [e] thy father and thy mother: that thy dayes may be long in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

d By honour is meant all dueties that we owe vnto them.

e Vnder the name of parents, all magistrates and superiours be conteined.

13 Thou shalt not [f] kill.

f Here, not only slaughter, but wrath and hatred is forbidden.

14 Thou shalt not [g] commit adulterie.

g And here with the outward acte, the inward affection, with all that proceedeth thereof, is condemned.

15 Thou shalt not [h] steale.

h We must withdraw both our handes, our eyes, and our 16 Thou shalt not beare false witnesse against thy neighbour.

17 Thou shalt not couet thy neighbours house, neither shalt thou couet thy neighbours wife, nor his man seruant, nor his maide, nor his oxe, nor his asse, nor any thing that is thy neighbours.

18 And all the people saw the thundering, and lightning, and the noise of the trumpet, & the mountaine smoking: And when the people sawe it, they remooued, and stood a farre off, 19 And sayd vnto Moses, Talke thou with vs, and we will heare: But let not God talke with vs, least we die.

minds from another mans good. And here all auarice & gaines is disproued.

20 And

20 And Moses said vnto the people, Feare not, for God is come to proue you, & that his feare may be before your eies, that ye sinne not.
21 And the people stoode a farre off, & Moses went into the thicke cloud, where God was.
22 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Thus thou shalt say vnto the children of Israel, Ye haue seene that I haue talked with you from out of heauen.
23 Ye shall not make therefore with mee gods of siluer, neither shall ye make yee gods of golde.
24 An altar of earth thou shalt make vnto me, and thereon offer thy whole burnt offerings, and thy peace offerings, thy sheepe, & thine oxen: In all places where I shall put the remembrance of my name, thither I will come vnto thee, and bl esse thee.
25 And if thou wilt make me an altar of stone, see thou make it not of hewen stone: eis if thou lift vp thy toole vpon it, thou hast polluted it.
26 Neither shalt thou goe vp by steppes vnto mine altar, that thy ‖ shame bee not shewed thereon.

‖ Or, filthinesse.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Iudicial and ciuill ordinances appointed by God, touching seruitude, stealing of men, manslaughter, cursing of parents, brawling, punishment of like with like, and of a goring oxe, and such like.

a That is, the fifth partition of this booke after the Hebrewes, called the iudiciall part, that is, orders taken for the dissolning of controuersies. Deut. 15. 12.

1 THese a are the lawes which thou shalt set before them.
2 *If thou buy a seruant that is an Hebrew, sixe yeeres he shall serue, and in the seuenth he shall goe out free [paying] nothing.
3 If he came alone, he shall go out alone: and if he came maried, his wife shall go out with him.
b Albeit God made this law for defence of libertie yet so would he haue it kept, that the master might not be endamaged: for vse must not do good to one with an others harme.
4 b And if his master haue giuen him a wife, and she haue borne him sonnes or daughters: then the wife and her children shal be her masters, and he shall go out alone:
5 And if the seruant say, I loue my master, my wife, & my children, I will not goe out free:
6 His master shal bring him vnto the iudges, and set him to the doore, or the doorepost, and his master shall bore his eare thorowe with a naule, and he shalbe his seruant for euer.
7 And if a man sel his daughter to be a seruãt, she shall not go out as the men seruants doe.
8 If she please not her master, who hath [now] promised her mariage, then shall hee let her redeeme her selfe: To sell her vnto a strange nation shall he haue no power, seeing he despised her.
9 If hee haue promised her vnto his sonne to wife, he shall deale with her as men doe with their daughters.
10 And if hee take him another wife, yet her foode, her raiment, and duetie of mariage shal he not minish.
11 And if he do not c these three vnto her, then shall she go out free, and pay no money.
12 He that smiteth a man that he die, shall bee slaine for it.
13 If a man lay not awaite, but God deliuer [him] into his hand, then I will point thee a place ‡ whither he shall flee.
14 If a man come presumptuously vpon his neighbour, to slay him with guile, thou shalt take him from mine altar, that he die.
15 He that smiteth his father or his mother, let him ‡ be slaine for it.
16 He that stealeth a man, and selleth him, if he be prooued vpon him, shalbe slaine for it.
17 And hee that curseth his father or mother, shalbe put to death for it.
18 ‡ If men striue together, and one smite ‖ another with a stone, or with his fist, and he die not, but lieth in his bed:
19 If he rise againe, and walke without vpon his staffe, thē shal he that smote him go quite, saue onely hee shall beare his charges for losing his tyme, and shall pay for his healing.
20 And if a man smite his seruant or his maide with a rodde, and they die vnder his hand, he shalbe grieuously punished.
21 And if hee continue a day or two, d it shall not be reuenged, for he is his money.
22 If men striue, and hurt a woman with child, so that her fruite depart from her, and yet no destruction follow: then he shall be sore punished, according as the womans husband will lay to his charge, and he shall pay as the daies men will appoint him.
23 And if any destruction e follow, then he shal giue life for life, 24 *Eie for eie, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foote for foote, 25 Burning for burning, wound for wound, stripe for stripe.
26 And if a man smite his seruant, or his maide in the eie, that it perish, he shall let them goe free for the eyes sake.
27 Also, if he smite out his man seruant or his maides tooth, he shall let them go out free for the toothes sake.
28 If an oxe ‖ gore a man, or a womã, that they die, then the oxe shall be stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten: but the owner of the oxe shall goe quite.
29 If the oxe were woont to push with his horne in time past, & it hath bene told his master, & he hath not kept him, but that hee hath killed a man or a woman: f then the oxe shall be stoned, and his owner shall die also.
30 If there bee set to him a summe of money, then he shal giue for the redeeming of his life, whatsoeuer is layd vpon him.
31 And whether hee haue gored a sonne or a daughter, according to the same iudgement shall

d In these ciuill lawes, we must not seeke for absolute perfection, which God tempered according to the rudenes of the people, amongst whom many things were to be winked at for the time.

32 But if it be a manseruant, or a maide, that the oxe hath gored, then hee shall giue vnto their master thirtie * sicles, and the oxe shall be stoned.

Gen.23.15.

33 If a man open a well, or dig a pit, and couer it not, and an oxe or an asse fall therein:

34 The owner of the pit shal make it good, and giue money vnto their master, and the dead beast shall be his.

35 If one mans oxe hurt another, that he die: then they shall sell the liue oxe, and deuide the money, and the dead oxe also they shall deuide.

36 Or if it be knowen that the oxe hath vsed to push in time past, and his master hath not kept him: he shal pay oxe for oxe, and the dead shal be his owne.

1 If [a] a man steale an oxe or a sheepe, and kill it, or sell it: he shal restore fiue oxen for an oxe, foure sheepe for a sheepe.

2 If a thiefe be found breaking vp, and bee smitten that he die: there shall no blood bee shed for him.

3 But if the sunne be vpon him, then there shal be blood shed for him, for he should make restitution: if he haue not wherewith, he shalbe sold for his theft.

4 If the theft be found in his hand aliue, whether it be oxe, or asse, or sheepe, he shall restore double.

5 If a man do hurt field or vineyard, and put in his beast to feede in another mans field, of the best of his owne field, and of the best of his owne vineyard, shall he make restitution.

6 If fire breake out and catch in the thornes, & the stackes of corne, or the standing corne, or field be consumed therewith: he that kindled the fire, shall make restitution.

7 If a ‖ man deliuer his neighbour money or stuffe to keepe, and it be stollen out of his house, if the theft bee founde, let him pay double:

8 And if the theft be not found, then the good man of the house shall be brought vnto ỹ iudges, that it may be knowen [b] whether he haue put his hand vnto his neighbours good.

b That is, whether he haue stollen it.

9 And in all maner of trespasse, whether it bee for oxe, asse, or sheepe, raiment, or any maner of lost thing, which another chalengeth to be his: the cause of both parties shal come before the iudges, and whom the iudges condemne, let him pay double vnto his neighbour.

10 If a man deliuer vnto his neighbour to keepe, asse, oxe, sheepe, or whatsoeuer beast it be: and it die, or be hurt, or taken away by enemies, and no man see it:

11 Then shall an othe of the Lord be betweene them, that he hath not put his hand vnto his neighbours good: and the owner of it shall take the othe, and the other shall not make it good.

12 And if it be stollen from him, then hee shall make restitution vnto the owner thereof. If it be torne in pieces, then let him [c] bring record of the tearing, and he shal not make it good.

c Or shew some part of the beast.

13 And if a man borow ought of his neighbour, and it be hurt, or els die, & the owner thereof be not by, he shall surely make it good.

14 But if the owner thereof be by, he shall not make it good: If it be an hired thing, it came for his hire.

15 If a man entice a maide that is not betrothed, and lie with her, he shall endowe her, and take her to his wife.

16 [d] And if her father refuse to giue her vnto him, he shal pay money according to the dowrie of virgins.

d Hereby we see what authoritie the parents haue in the bestowing of their daughter, whom it were not reason to take him for their sonne in law against their wils, that had wrought them so great a villanie.

17 Thou shalt not suffer a [e] witch to liue.

18 Whosoeuer lieth with a beast, shal [f] be slaine for it.

19 He that offreth vnto any gods, saue vnto the Lord onely, he shalbe killed.

20 Vexe not a stranger, neither oppresse him: for ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

21 Ye shall trouble no widowe nor fatherlesse childe.

22 If ye shall euill entreat them, and they cry out vnto me, I will surely heare their cry.

23 And then will my wrath waxe hote, and I will kill you with the swoorde, and your wiues shall bee widowes, and your children fatherlesse.

24 If thou lend money to any of my people that is poore by thee, thou shalt not bee as a tyrant vnto him, neither shalt thou lay vpon him vsurie.

e The woorde in Hebrew signifieth a sorcerer or inchanter, or any that by deuilish meanes hurteth either cattell, corne, or men.

f And here also the woord signifieth not hate killing, but cursing, and banning, for the more detestation thereof

25 If thou take thy neighbours raiment to pledge, thou shalt deliuer it vnto him by that the sunne goe downe.

26 For that is his couering onely, euen the raiment for his skinne, wherein he sleepeth: and when he crieth vnto me, I will heare him, for I am mercifull.

27 Thou shalt not raile vpon the ‖ gods, neither blaspheme the ruler of thy people.

‖ Or, Iudges.

28 Thy fruites, whether they be dry or moist, see thou keepe them not backe: thy first borne sonne thou shalt giue me.

29 Likewise also shalt thou do with thine oxen, and with thy sheepe: seuen dayes it shall bee with the damme, and the eight day thou shalt giue it me.

30 Ye shall be an holy people vnto me, neither shall ye eate any flesh that is torne of beastes in the field, but shall cast it to a dog.

The xxiii. Chapter.

2 A multitude is not to be followed in euill. 25 The reward of them that keepe the commandements.

1 THou shalt not haue to doe with any false report, neither shalt thou [a] put thine hand with the wicked, to bee an vnrighteous witnesse.

a That is, thou shalt not conspire with the wicked, &c. or sweare with them: for the Iewes take no othe, but they lay their hand vpō the booke of the law. ‡ Answer.

2 Thou shalt not follow a multitude to do euill, neither shalt thou ‡ speake in a matter of iustice according to the great number, for to peruert iudgement.

3 Neither shalt thou [b] esteeme a poore man in his cause.

b Trueth of the matter, & not respect of any person, is to be esteemed in iudgement.

4 If thou meete thine enemies Oxe or Asse going astray, thou shalt bring them to him againe.

5 If thou see the Asse of him that hateth thee sinke vnder his burden, thou shalt not passe by & let him alone, but shalt helpe him to lift him vp againe.

6 Thou shalt not hinder the right of the poore in his suite.

7 Keepe thee farre from a false matter, & the innocent & righteous see thou slay not: [c] for I will not iustifie the wicked.

c Though the wicked oppresse the godly in this life, and goe for good men notwithstanding: yet before God it shall not be so, who will be reuenged of the wrong.

8 [d] Thou shalt take no gifts: for gifts blinde the ‡ seeing, and peruert the wordes of the righteous.

d Against bribes. ‡ Wise.

9 Thou shalt not oppresse a stranger: for yee know the heart of a stranger, seeing ye were strangers in the land of Egypt.

10 Sixe yeeres thou shalt sowe thy land, and gather in the fruites thereof.

11 And the seuenth yeere thou shalt let it rest and lie still, that the poore of thy people may eate: and what they leaue, the beastes of the field shall eate. In like maner thou shalt deale with thy vineyard and thine Oliue tree.

12 Sixe dayes thou shalt do thy worke, and in the seuenth day thou shalt rest: that thine Oxe and thine Asse may rest, and the sonne of thy maide, and the stranger may be refreshed.

13 In all things that I haue said vnto you, be circumspect: and make no rehearsall of the names of strange gods, neither let it be heard out of thy mouth.

14 Three feasts thou shalt hold vnto me in a yeere.

e Because the Passeouer was eaten but on one day, the vnleauened bread seuen dayes together: this solemnitie tooke his name of that that longest continued. ‡ March. f Deut. 16. it is also called the feast of weekes. g The feast of tabernacles.

15 Thou shalt keepe [e] the feast of vnleauened bread: thou shalt eate vnleauened bread seuen daies, as I commanded thee, in the tyme appointed of the moneth ‡ Abib: for in that moneth ye came out of Egypt, and see that no man appeare before me emptie:

16 And the feast of [f] haruest, when thou reapest the first fruits of thy labours, which thou hast sowen in the field: and the feast of [g] ingathering [which is] in the end of the yeere, when thou hast gathered in thy labours out of the field.

17 [These] three times in the yeere, shal all thy men children appeare before the Lord God.

18 Thou shalt not offer the blood of my sacrifice vpon leauened bread, neither shall the fat of my feast remaine vntill the morning.

19 The first of the first fruites of thy land, thou shalt bring into ỹ house of the Lord thy God: thou shalt not [h] seethe a kidde in his mothers milke.

h Vntimely fruites ought neither to be offred nor eaten, for it hath a spice of crueltie, and of an intemperate appetite.

20 Beholde, I send an Angell before thee, to keepe thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I haue prepared.

21 Beware of him, and heare his voyce, and resist him not: for hee will not spare your misdeedes, and my [i] name is in him.

i I will giue him mine authoritie, and he shall gouerne you in my name.

22 But and if thou shalt in deede hearken vnto his voyce, and do all that I speake, I will be an enemie vnto thine enemies, and an aduersarie vnto thine aduersaries.

23 For mine Angel shal go before thee, & bring thee in vnto the Amorites, and Hethites, and Pherezites, and Chanaanites, Heuites, and Iebusites, and I shall destroy them.

24 Thou shalt not bowe downe to their gods, neither serue them, neither do after the workes of them: but ouerthrowe them, and breake downe the images of them.

25 And ye shall serue the Lord your God, and and he shall blesse thy bread and thy water: and I will take all sicknesses away from the middes of thee.

26 There shall nothing haue his vntimely birth, nor be vnfruitful in thy land: the number of thy dayes [k] I will fulfill.

k I will prolong thy life to my honour, and thy saluation.

27 I will send my feare before thee, and will destroy all the people whither thou shalt goe: and I will make all thine enemies [turne] their backes vnto thee.

28 And I wil send hornets before thee, which shall driue out the Heuites, the Chanaanites, and the Hethites before thee.

29 Neuertheless, I will not cast them out before thee in one yeere, least the land growe to a wilderness, and the beast of the field multiplie against thee.

30 By little and little, I will driue them out before thee, vntill thou be increased, and inherite the land.

31 And I will make thy coastes from the red sea, vnto the sea of the Philistines, and from the [l] desert vnto the riuer: for I will deliuer the inhabiters of the land into thy hand, and thou shalt driue them out before thee.

l From the desert of Sur vnto the riuer Euphrates.

32 Thou shalt make no couenant with them, nor with their gods.

33 Neither let them dwel in thy land, least they make thee sinne against me: for if thou serue their gods, it will surely be thy decay.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

5 Moses offred vp sacrifice vnto the Lord, and sprinkled the people with the blood of the couenant. 7 The people promise obedience vnto the Lord.

1 And

1 And he sayd vnto Moses, Come vp vnto the Lord, thou, and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and the threescore and ten elders of Israel, and ye shall worship afarre off.

2 And Moses himselfe alone shall goe vnto the Lord: but they shall not come nigh, neither shall the people goe vp with him.

3 And Moses came, and told the people all the wordes of the Lord, and all the iudgements: and all the people answered with one voyce, and said, All the words which the Lord hath said, will we do.

4 And Moses wrote all the wordes of ỹ Lord, and rose vp earely, and set vp an altar vnder the hill, and twelue stones, according to the twelue tribes of Israel,

5 And sent yong men of the children of Israel, which brought whole burnt offrings, & offred peace offrings of oxen vnto the Lord.

a The reason of this ceremonie, is declared in the 9. to the Hebrews, vers. 20

6 And Moses tooke halfe of the [a] blood, and put it in basons, and the other halfe he sprinkled on the altar.

7 And he tooke the booke of the couenant, & read it in the audience of the people: and they said, All that the Lord hath said, will we doe, and be obedient.

8 And Moses tooke the blood, and sprinkled it on the people, and sayd, Behold, this is the blood of the couenant which the Lord hath made with you vpon all these wordes.

9 Then went Moses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and the threescore and ten elders of Israel vp.

10 And they sawe the God of Israel: & there was vnder his feete, as it were, a worke of a Saphire stone, & as it were the heauen when it is cleare.

b God neither destroied the, nor shewed himselfe terrible, as he did to the people, chap. 10.

11 And [b] he laide not his hande vpon the nobles of the children of Israel: and they sawe God, and did eate and drinke.

12 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Come vp to me into the hill, and be there, and I will giue thee [c] tables of stone, and a law & commandements which I haue written, that thou maiest teache them.

c Signifying the hardnes of our hearts, except God do write his lawes therein by his holy spirit.

13 And Moses rose vp, and his minister Iosuah: and Moses went vp into the hill of God, 14 And said vnto the elders, Tary ye here vntill we come againe vnto you: Behold, here is Aaron and Hur with you. ‡ If any man haue any matters to do, let him come to thē.

‡ Heb. Who is a master of wordes.

15 And Moses went vp into the mount, and a cloude couered the hill.

16 And the glory of the Lord abode vpon the mount Sinai, and the cloude couered it sixe daies: and the seuēth day he called vnto Moses out of the middes of the cloud.

17 And the sight of the glory of the Lord, was like consuming fire on the top of the hill, in the eyes of the children of Israel.

18 And Moses went into the middes of the cloud, and gate him vp into the mountaine: and *Moses was in the mount fourtie daies, and fourtie nights. Deut. 9. 9.

The xxv. Chapter.

The voluntarie gifts for making of the Tabernacle.

1 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, that they bring me an offring: ye shal take it of euery man that giueth it willingly with his heart.

3 This is the offering which ye shall take of them, gold, and siluer, and brasse,

4 And blew silke, and purple, and skarlet, and white silke, and goates [haire,]

5 And rammes skinnes that are red, and the skinnes of Taxus, and Sittim wood,

6 Oile for light, spices for anointing oile, and for sweete sence:

7 Onyx stones, and stones to be set in the Ephod, and in the brest plate.

8 And let them make me a sanctuarie, that I may dwell amongst them.

9 And according to all that I shew thee, both after the fashion of the tabernacle, and after the fashion of the ornaments thereof, so shall ye make it.

10 And they shal make an arke of Sittim wood, two cubites and a halfe long, a cubite and an halfe broad, and a cubite and a halfe high.

13 And thou shalt make barres of Sittim wood, and couer them with gold:

14 And put the barres into the rings along by the sides of the arke, that the arke may bee borne with them.

‖ Or, propitiatorie.

18 And thou shalt make [b] two Cherubims of gold: euē ‖ of a whole worke shalt thou make them, in the two endes of the mercy seate.

b The Cherubims were winged images, and as the Hebrew interpreters doe hold, they had the shapes of boyes. But as Iosephus writeth, they were flying beasts, which had such figure, as of no mā hath bene seene.

‖ Or, beaten with hammers.

19 And the one Cherubim shalt thou make on the one end, and the other on the other end: of the same mercy seate shall ye make Cherubims in the two endes thereof.

20 And the Cherubims shall stretch forth their winges abroad ouer an high, couering the mercy seate with their wings, and their faces shall looke one to another: to the mercy seatward shal ẏ faces of the Cherubims be.

21 And thou shalt put the mercy seate aboue vpon the arke, and in the arke thou shalt put ‖ Or, testimonie. the ‖ witnesse that I shall giue thee.

22 And from thence I will testifie vnto thee, & I wil commune with thee from vpõ the mercy seate, from betweene the two Cherubims which are vpon the arke of witnesse, of all things which I will giue thee in commandement vnto the children of Israel.

23 Thou shalt also make a table of Sittim wood, of two cubites long, and one cubite broad, and a cubite and a halfe high.

24 And thou shalt couer it with pure gold, and make thereto a crowne of gold round about.

25 And make vnto that an hoope of foure fingers broad round about, and make a golden crowne also to the hoope round about.

32 Sixe branches also shall proceede out of the sides of it: three branches of the candlesticke out of the one side, and three out of the other.

33 Three bolles like vnto almonds, with a knoppe and a flowre in one branch: and three bolles like almondes in the other branche, with a knoppe and a flowre, according to the sixe branches that proceede out of the candlesticke.

34 And in the candlesticke it selfe, [there shall be] foure bolles like vnto almonds, with their knops and flowres.

35 And there shall bee a knop vnder two branches of the same in three places, according to the sixe branches that proceed out of the candlesticke.

6 They shall make the Ephod of golde, blew silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke, with broudered worke.
7 The two sides shall come together, and bee closed vp in the two edges thereof.
8 And the girdle of the Ephod shal bee of the same workemanship, & of the same stuffe, euen of gold, blew silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke.
9 And thou shalt take two Onix stones, and graue in them the names of the children of Israel, 10 Sixe names of them in one stone, and the other sixe in the other stone, according to their birth.
11 * After the worke of a stone grauer, and of him that graueth signets shalt thou graue the two stones, with the names of the children of Israel, and shalt make them to bee set in ouches of gold. Sap. 18. 24.
12 And thou shalt put the two stones vpon the two shoulders of the Ephod, [that they may be] b stones of remembrance vnto the children of Israel: and Aaron shall beare their names before the Lord vpon his two shoulders for a remembrance.
b That Aaron might remember the Israelites to Godward.
13 And thou shalt make ouches of gold:
14 And two chaines of fine gold of a certaine length, linke worke, and wreathed, and fasten the wreathed chaines to the ouches.
15 And thou shalt make the c brestlap of iudgement with broudered worke: euen after the worke of ẏ Ephod thou shalt make it, [namely,] of gold, blew silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke.
c It was so called, because the high priest could not giue sentence in iudgement without that on his brest.
16 Foure square it shall be, and double: and an hand breadth long, & an hand breadth broad.
17 And thou shalt fill it with foure rowes of stones: in the first rowe shall be a Sardius, a Topas, and a Smaragdus.
18 In the second rowe a Rubi, a Saphir, and a Diamond.
19 In the third, a Lyncurius, an Achat, and an Amathyst.
20 In the fourth, a Turcas, an Onyx, and a Jaspis: and they shall be set in golde in their inclosers.
21 And the stones shalbe grauen, as signets be grauen, with the names of the children of Israel, with twelue names, euery one with his name according to the twelue tribes.
22 And thou shalt make vpon the brestlap twe fastening chaines of pure gold, and wreathen worke.
23 And thou shalt make likewise vpon the brestlap two rings of gold, and put them on the edges of the brestlap.
24 And put the two wreathen chaines of gold in in the two rings which are in the edges of the brestlap.

25 And in the other two endes of the chaines thou shalt fasten in the two close ouches, and put them vpon the shoulders of the Ephod on the forepart of it.

26 And thou shalt yet make two rings of gold, which thou shalt put in the two edges of the brestlap, [euen] in the borders thereof, toward the inside of the Ephod ouer against it.

27 And yet two [other] rings of golde thou shalt make, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod beneath, ouer against the brestlap, alow where the sides are ioyned together, vpon the bordered girdle of the Ephod.

28 And they shall binde the brestlap by his rings, vnto the rings of the Ephod, with a lace of blewe silke, that it may lye close aboue the bordered girdle of the Ephod, and that the brestlap bee not loosed from the Ephod.

d Aaron shall not enter into the holy place in his owne name, but in the name of all the children of Israel.

29 And Aaron shall [d] beare the names of the children of Israel in the brestlap of iudgement vpon his heart, when he goeth into the holy place, for a remembrance before the Lord alway.

e Vrim and Thummim signifie light and perfectnes, out of the which it pleased God to giue answers, oracles, and iudgement: but what they were, it doeth not well appeare vnto any writer. They were placed in the priests brest, to admonish him that her ought to shine with doctrine, and to be perfect in conuersation of life.

30 And thou shalt put in the brestlap of iudgement [e] the ‖ Urim and the Thummim, and they shalbe [euen] vpon Aarons heart when he goeth in before the Lord: and Aaron shall beare the iudgement of the children of Israel vpon his heart before the Lord alway.

31 And thou shalt make the tunicle vnto the Ephod, altogether of blew silke.

32 And there shalbe an hole for the head in the middes of it, hauing a band of wouen worke round about the coller of it, as it were ẏ coller of a partlet, that it rent not.

33 And beneath vpon ẏ hemme, thou shalt make pomegranates of blew silke, and of a purple, and of scarlet, round about the hemme, and belles of gold betweene them round about.

34 And let there bee euer a golden bell and a pomegranate: a golden bell and a pomegranate round about vpon the hemme of the tunicle.

Eccl. 45.10.

35 *And Aaron shall haue it vpon him when he ministreth, and the sound shall bee heard when he goeth into the holy place before the Lord, and when he commeth out: and he shal not [f] die.

f As who should say, he should die, if he ministred not apparelled as God hath there appointed.

36 And thou shalt make a plate of pure golde, and graue thereon as signets are grauen, THE HOLINES OF THE LORD.

37 And put it on a blew silke lace to bee vpon the mitre, euen vpon the forefront of it.

g All the sinnes that might be committed in their offerings, shall be pardoned through the chiefe priest, which represented Jesus Christ.

38 And it shall be vpon Aarons forehead, that Aaron may [g] beare the sinne of ẏ holy things which the children of Israel halow in al their holy gifts: and it shall be alwayes vpon his forehead, for the reconciling of them before the Lord.

39 And thou shalt make a coate of white silke, embroidered with knots, and thou shalt make a mitre of white silke, and a girdle of needle worke.

40 And thou shalt make for Aarons sonnes also coates, and thou shalt make for them girdles, and bonets shalt thou make for them, glorious and beautifull.

41 And thou shalt put them vpon Aaron thy brother, and on his sonnes with him: & shalt anoint them, and [h] fill their hands, and sanctifie them, that they may minister vnto mee in the priests office.

h That is, consecrate them. For the ceremome of consecrating priests, was to put part of the sacrifices into the hands of them ẏ should bee made priests for to sacrifice and to offer.

42 And thou shalt make them linnen slops to couer their priuities: from the loines vnto the thighes they shall reach.

43 And they shall bee vpon Aaron and his sonnes, when they come into the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they come vnto the altar to minister in holinesse: [i] that they beare not sinne, and there die. And it shall bee a lawe for euer vnto Aaron and his seede after him.

i Lest if they be otherwise apparelled, they sinne, and therefore be punished with death.

The xxix. Chapter.

1 The maner of the consecrating of the priests. 38 Of the two lambes of one yeere olde daily to bee offered.

1 THis thing also shalt thou do vnto them, when thou halowest them to bee my priests. *Thou shalt take one yong calfe, and two Rammes that are without blemish: Leuit. 9.2.

2 And vnleauened bread, and cakes vnleauened tempered with oile, and wafers vnleauened anointed with oile: of wheaten flowre shalt thou make them.

3 And thou shalt put them in a maund, & bring them in the maund with the calfe and the two Rammes.

4 And bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

5 And take the garments, and put vpon Aaron, the coate, the tunicle of the Ephod, & the Ephod it selfe, and the brestlap, and gird them to him with the bordered girdle which is in the Ephod.

6 And put the mitre vpon his head: and put the holy crowne vpon the mitre.

7 Then shalt thou take the anointing oile, and powre it vpon his head, and anoint him.

8 And bring his sonnes, and put coates vpon them:

9 And gird them with girdles, as well Aaron as his sonnes, and put the bonets on them, and the priests office shall be theirs for a perpetual lawe: & thou shalt fil the hands of Aaron, and the hands of his sonnes.

Leuit.1.3.

10 *And thou shalt cause a calfe to bee brought before the tabernacle of the congregation: & Aaron and his sonnes shall [a] put their handes vpon the head of the calfe.

a Signifying that the sacrifice was also offred for them and that they did approoue it.

11 And thou shalt kill him before the Lorde, by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

12 And take of the blood of the calfe, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar with thy finger: and powre all [the rest] of the blood beside the bottome of the altar.

Leuit.3.3.

13 *And take all the fatte that couereth the inwards, and the kall [that is] on the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fatte that is vpon them, and burne them vpon the altar.

14 But the flesh of the calfe, and his skinne, & his dung, shalt thou burne with fire without the hoste: it is a sinne offering.

15 Thou shalt also take one Ramme, & Aaron and his sonnes shall put their hands vpon the head of the Ramme.

16 And when thou hast slaine the Ramme, thou shalt take his blood, and sprinkle it round about vpon the altar:

17 And cut the Ramme in pieces, and wash the inwards of him, and his legs, and put them vnto the pieces, and vnto his head.

18 And then burne the whole Ramme vpon the altar: [for] it is a whole burnt offering vnto the Lord for a sweete sauour, a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

19 And take the other Ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shal put their hands vpō his head.

20 Then shalt thou kill him, and take of his blood, and put it vpon the tip of the right eare of Aaron, and vpon the tip of the right eare of his sonnes, and vpon the thombe of their right hands, and vpon the great toe of their right foote, and sprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

21 And thou shalt take of the blood that is vpon the altar, and of the anointing oile, and sprinkle it vpon Aaron and his vestments, & vpon his sonnes, & vpon their garments with him, and he shall be halowed and his clothes, and his sonnes, and their clothes with him.

22 And thou shalt take the fatte of the Ramme, and his rumpe, and the fatte that couereth the inwards, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneis, and the fatte that is vpon them, and the right shoulder, for that Ramme is a [b] full offering:

b It is the Ramme that was offered at the filling of the hands and consecrating of the high priest.

23 And a sinnel of bread, and a cake of oyled bread, and a wafer out of the basket of vnleauened bread that is before the Lord.

24 And put all vpon the handes of Aaron, and on the handes of his sonnes, and ‖ waue them for a [c] waue offering before the Lorde.

c This sort of offering, after the priest had lifted it vp, was mooued into euery side of all coastes, to signifie that God was Lord of all the earth.

25 And againe, thou shalt take it from off their hands, and burne it vpon the altar for a whole burnt offering, to be a sauour of sweetenesse before the Lord: for it is a sacrifice by fire vnto the Lord.

26 And thou shalt take the brest of the Ramme of Aarons consecration, and waue it for a waue offering before the Lord, and it shall be thy part.

27 And thou shalt sanctifie the brest of ẏ waue offering, and the shoulder of [d] the heaue offering, which is waued and heaued vp of the Ramme of the consecration for Aaron and for his sonnes.

d The heaue offering was lifted vpward & downward, but not on the sides.

28 And it shall bee Aarons and his sonnes by a statute for [e] euer from the children of Israel, for it is an heaue offering: and it shall be an heaue offering from the children of Israel, of the sacrifice of their peace offerings, euen their heaue offering [shall it be] vnto the Lorde.

e Euer, vntill Christes comming.

29 And the holy garments of Aaron shalbe his sonnes after him, to bee anointed therein, and to ‖ fill their hands therein.

‖ Or, consecrate.

30 And that sonne that is priest in his stead after him, shall put them on seuen dayes, when he commeth into the tabernacle of the congregation to minister in the holy place.

31 And thou shalt take ẏ Ramme of the consecration, and seethe his flesh in the holy place.

32 And Aaron and his sonnes shal eate the flesh of the Ramme, and the *bread that is in the basket, by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

Leuit 8.31. matth.12.4.

33 And they shal eate them, because the atonement was made therewith, to fill their hands, and to consecrate them: but a stranger shall not eate thereof, because they are holy.

34 And if ought of the flesh of the consecration, or of the bread, remaine vnto the morning, thou shalt burne it with fire: and it shall not be eaten, because it is holy.

35 Therefore shalt thou doe vnto Aaron & his sonnes, according to all things which I haue commanded thee: seuen daies shalt thou fill their hands.

36 And thou shalt offer euery day a calfe for a sinne offering for [f] to reconcile withall: and thou shalt clense the altar when thou hast offered vpon it the sacrifice of expiation, and thou shalt anoint it, to sanctifie it.

f To appease Gods wrath, that sinne may be pardoned.

37 Seuen daies thou shalt reconcile the altar, and sanctifie it, and it shal be an altar most holy: and whatsoeuer toucheth the altar, shall be holy.

38 This is that which thou shalt ‖ offer vpon the altar, *two lambes of one yeere olde day by day continually:

‖ Or, present.

Num.28.3.

39 The one thou shalt offer in the morning, and the other at Euen.

40 And with the one lambe a tenth deale of flowre flowre mingled with the fourth part of an g Hin of beaten oyle: and the fourth part of an Hin of wine for a drinke offering.

g A Hin was a measure of liquid thinges containing twelue logins, and one login was so much as five egges shels would receive.

41 And the other lambe thou shalt offer at Euen, and shalt doe thereto according to the meate offering & drinke offering in the morning, to be an odour of a sweete sauour, and a sacrifice by fire vnto the Lorde.

42 And let this be a continuall whole burnt offering amongst your children after you, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lorde, where I will meete you, to speake there vnto thee.

43 There I will meete with the children of Israel, and [the place] shall be sanctified in my glory.

44 And I will sanctifie the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar: and I will sanctifie also both Aaron and his sonnes to be my Priestes.

45 And I will dwell amongst the children of Israel, and will be their God:

46 And they shall knowe that I am the Lorde their God, that brought them out of the land of Egypt, for to dwel amongst them, [euen] I the Lord their God.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 The fourme of the altar of incense. 13 The summe that the Israelites should pay to the Tabernacle.

1 AND thou shalt make an altar for sweete incense: of Sittim wood shalt thou make it.

2 A cubite long, and a cubite broade, foure square shall it be, and two cubits high: the hornes thereof shall proceede out [a] of it.

a Of the same wood & piece.

3 And thou shalt ouerlay it with fine golde, both the ‖ ruffe and the walles round about, and his hornes also, and shalt make vnto it a crowne of golde rounde about.

‖ Or, vpper part and sides.

4 And two golden rings shalt thou make to it, on either side vnder the crowne, that they may be as places for the barres to beare it withall.

5 And thou shalt make the barres of Sittim wood, and couer them with golde.

6 And thou shalt put it before the vayle that is by the arke of ‖ testimonie before the mercie seate, that is, vpon the testimonie where I will meete with thee.

‖ Or, witnes.

7 And Aaron shall burne thereon sweete incense euery morning, when he dresseth the lampes, then shall he burne it.

8 And likewise at Euen when he setteth vp the lampes, he shall burne incense, and this incensing shal be perpetually before the Lord throughout your generations.

b After any other sort then is here prescribed by Gods worde.

9 Ye shal offer no [b] strange incense theron, nor whole burnt sacrifice, nor meate offering, neither powre any drinke offering thereon.

‖ Make reconciliation.

10 And Aaron shal ‖ reconcile vpon the hornes of it once in a yeere, with ỹ blood of the sinne offering of reconciling, euen once in ỹ yeere shall he reconcile vpon it throughout your generations: it is most holy vnto the Lord.

11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 If thou takest the summe of the children of Israel [c] after their number, they shall giue euery man a ‖ reconciling of his soule vnto the Lorde when thou numbrest them, that there be no plague amongst them when thou numbrest them.

c After they be come to xx. yeeres of age: for vnder that age they were not to be numbred.

‖ Or, redemptiō. For by that oblation they redeemed their liues, whom els God would kill, as he did in Dauids dayes, 1. Reg. 24 vers. 1.

13 And thus much shall euery man giue that goeth into the number: halfe a [d] sicle, after the sicle of the Sanctuarie. A sicle is twentie ‡ Gerahs: an halfe sicle shall be the heaue offering of the Lorde.

d For this word sicle, & talent, see Mat. 3. vers. 47.

‡ Gerah.

14 All that are numbred from twentie yeeres olde and aboue, shall giue a heaue offering vnto the Lorde.

15 The rich shall not passe, and the poore shall not goe vnder halfe a sicle, but ye shall giue an heaue offering vnto the Lord, that he may haue mercie on your soules.

16 And thou shalt take the reconciling money of the children of Israel, and shalt put it vnto the vse of the tabernacle of the congregation, that it may be a memoriall vnto the children of Israel before the Lorde, that he may haue mercie vpon your soules.

17 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Thou shalt make a lauer of brasse, and his foote also of brasse, to wash withall, and shalt put it betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and put water therein.

19 For Aaron and his sonnes shall [e] wash their hands and their feete therein.

e Signifying, that all ministers in ỹ house of God, must be washt from all sinne and corruption.

20 When they goe into the tabernacle of the congregation, or when they goe into the altar to minister and to burne the Lordes offering, they shall wash themselues with water, least they die.

21 Likewise they shall wash their handes and their feete, least they die: and it shall be an ordinance vnto them for euer, both vnto him and his seede throughout their generations.

22 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Take vnto thee principall spices, of the most pure Myrrhe fiue hundred [f] sicles, of sweete Synamome halfe so much, euen two hundred and fiftie sicles, of sweete Calamus two hundred and fiftie sicles, f Not in valve of money, but in weight. Exod. 29. 41.

24 Of Cassia fiue hundred sicles, after the weight of the Sanctuarie, and of oyle Oliue an Hin:

25 And thou shalt make of the oyle an holy oyntment, an oyntment compounde after the craft of the Apotecarie:

26 It shall be the oyle of holy oyntment, and thou shalt anoynt the tabernacle of the congregation therewith, and the arke of the testimonie,

27 And the table and all his apparell, and the candlesticke candlestick and all his vessels, and the altar of incense, 28 And the altar of whole burnt sacrifice with all his vessels, and the lauer and his foote.

29 And thou shalt sanctifie them, that they may be most holy: what so euer toucheth them, shall be sanctified.
30 And thou shalt anoynt Aaron & his sonnes, and consecrate them, that they may minister vnto me in the Priestes office.
31 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, This shall be an holy oynting oyle vnto me throughout your generations.
32 Upon mans flesh shal it not be powred, neither shal ye make any other after the making of it: for it is holy, and shalbe holy vnto you.
33 Whosoeuer maketh like that, or whosoeuer putteth any of it vpon a stranger, shall perish from amongst his people.
34 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Take vnto thee sweete spices, Starte, Onycha, sweete Galbanum: these spices with pure Frankincense, of eche a like weight:
35 And make of them sweete smelling incense, after the craft of the Apoticarie, mingled together, pure and holy,
36 And beate it to powder, and put of it before [the Arke] of the testimonie in the tabernacle of the congregation, where I will meete with thee: it shalbe vnto you most holy.
37 And you shal not make to your selues, after the making of that incense which thou shalt make: it shalbe vnto you holy for the Lord.
38 Who so euer shall make like vnto that to smell thereto, shall perish from amongst his people.

The xxxi. Chapter.

13 The Sabboth day is the signe of our sanctification.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Beholde, I haue called by name Beseleel the sonne of Uri, the sonne of Hur, of the tribe of Juda, a By this ye may gather that handie crafts be the gifts of God.
3 And I haue filled him with the a spirite of God, in wisedome and vnderstanding, in knowledge, and in all maner worke,
4 To find out wittie deuises, and to worke in golde, siluer, and in brasse,
5 And in the craft to set stones, and to carue in timber, and to worke in all maner workemanship.
6 And beholde, I haue giuen him to be his companion, Doliab the sonne of Achisemec, of the tribe of Dan: and in the heartes of all that are wise hearted I haue put wisedome, to make all that I haue commanded thee:
7 The tabernacle of the congregation, the Arke of the testimonie, and the mercie seate that is thereupon, and al the ‡ furniture of the tabernacle:
‡ vessels.
8 And the table & his furniture, and the pure candlestick with all his furniture, and the altar of incense:
9 And the altar of whole burnt offering, and al his furniture, and the lauer with his foote,
10 The vestments to minister in, and the holy garments for Aaron the Priest, and the garments of his sonnes to minister in:
11 And the anoynting oyle, and sweete incense for the Sanctuarie: according to all that I haue commanded thee, shall they doe.
12 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
13 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, In any wise see that yee b keepe my Sabboths: for it is a signe betweene me and you in your generations, for to knowe that I the Lord am he that doeth sanctifie you.
b Though I commaunde these works to be done, yet will I not that you breake my Sabboth.
14 Keepe my Sabboth therefore, for it is holy vnto you. He that defileth it, shall be put to death: for who so euer worketh therein, the same soule shall be rooted out from amongst his people.
15 Sixe dayes shall men worke, and in the seuenth day is the Sabboth of the holy rest of the Lorde: whosoeuer doeth any worke in the Sabboth day, shall die the death.
16 Wherefore let the children of Israel keepe the Sabboth, that they obserue the Sabboth throughout their generations: it is a perpetuall couenant.
17 For it is a signe betweene me and the children of Israel for euer: *for in sixe dayes the Lorde made heauen and earth, and in the seuenth day he rested, and c was refreshed.
Gene. 1. 31.
c As man refresheth him selfe after labour, euen so doth ꝑ scripture speake of God that he did.
18 And when the Lorde had made an ende of communing with Moses vpon the mount Sinai, he gaue him two tables of witnesse, euen tables of stone, written with the finger of God.

The xxxii. Chapter.

1 The Israelites worship the golden Calfe. 11 Moses prayeth for the sinne of the people.

1 AND when the people sawe that it was long yer Moses came downe out of the mountayne, they gathered them selues together ‖ vnto Aaron, and sayde vnto him, *Up, make vs goddes to goe before vs: for we wote not what is become of this Moses, the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt.
‖ Or, against.
Acts 7. 40.
2 And Aaron said vnto them, a Plucke off the golde earings which are in the eares of your wiues, of your sonnes, and of your daughters, and bring them vnto me.
a Thinking ꝑ they would rather forgoe idolatrie then to forsake their most precious iewels.
3 And all the people plucked off the golden earings which they had in their eares, and brought them vnto Aaron.
4 And he receyued them of their handes, and ‖ fashioned it with a grauer, and made of it a b Calfe of molten mettall: and they sayde, ‖ Or, he cast it into a moulde.
b They smelled of the idolatrie of Egypt, where they sawe the image of calues, oxen, and serpentes worshipped.

These

These be thy gods, O Israel, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt.

5 And when Aaron sawe that, he made an altar before it, and Aaron made proclamation, saying, To morowe is the holy day of the Lorde.

6 And they rose vp in the morning, and offered whole burnt offerings, and brought peace offerings also: and the people sate them downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp againe to play.

7 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Go get thee downe, thy people which thou broughtest out of the lande of Egypt hath marred all.

Deut.9.8. 8 *They are turned quickly out of the way which I commaunded them, for they have made them a Calfe of molten mettall, and have worshipped it, and have offered thereunto, saying, These be thy gods, O Israel, which have brought thee out of the lande of Egypt.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, I have seene this people, and behold, it is a stiffenecked people.

c God sheweth that ỳ prayers of the godly stay punishment. 10 And nowe c suffer me, that my wrath may ware hot agaynst them, & consume them: and I will make of thee a mightie people.

11 And Moses besought the Lorde his God, & sayde, O Lorde, why doeth thy wrath ware hotte agaynst thy people which thou hast brought out of the land of Egypt with great power, and with a mightie hande?

Num.14.13. 12 *Wherefore should the Egyptians speake and say, For a mischiefe did he bring them out, euen for to slay them in the mountaines, and to consume them from the face of the earth? Turne from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this euill against thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isahac, and Israel thy seruants, to whom thou swarest by thine owne selfe, and saydest vnto them, *I will multiplie your seede as the starres of heauen, and all this lande that I have spoken of will I giue vnto your seede, and they shall inherit it for euer.

Gene.12.7.

14 And the Lorde refrayned him selfe from the euill which he sayde he would doe vnto his people.

15 And Moses turned his backe, and went downe from the hil, and the two tables of the testimonie were in his hande.

16 And the same tables were written in both the leaues, [euen] on the one side and on the other were they written: and these tables were the worke of God, and the writing was the writing of God, grauen in the tables.

d Iosuah accompanied Moses in the mount, although there was not like reuelation to him as to Moses. 17 And when d Iosuah heard the noyse of the people as they shouted, he sayde vnto Moses, [There is] a noyse of warre in the host.

18 And he answered, It is not the crie of them that have the masterie, nor of them that have the worse: [but] I doe heare the noyse of them that sing.

19 And assoone as he came nigh vnto the host, he sawe the Calfe and the dauncing: and Moses wrath waxed hotte, and he cast the tables out of his handes, and brake them beneath the hill.

20 And he tooke the Calfe which they had made, and burned it in the fire, and stamped it into powder, and strawed it in the water, & made the children of Israel e drinke of it.

e Partly to despite them of their idolatrie, & partly that they should have no occasiõ to remember it afterward.

21 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, What did this people vnto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them?

22 And Aaron answered, Let not the wrath of my lorde ware fierce: thou knowest the people that they are set on mischiefe.

23 For they sayd vnto me, Make vs goddes to goe before vs, for we wote not what is become of Moses, the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt.

24 And I said vnto them, Let them that have golde, plucke it off: And they brought it vnto me, and I did cast it into the fire, & there of came out this Calfe.

f That is, destitute of Gods grace, wild, licentious, & ready to fal into al kind of idolatrie, whereby they gaue their enemies an occasion to speake euill of their God. 25 Moses therefore saw that the people f were naked (and that Aaron had made them naked vnto their shame, amongst their enemies,)

26 And Moses stoode in the gate of the host, and sayde, Who [pertaineth] to the Lorde, [let him come] vnto me. And all the sonnes of Leui gathered them selues together vnto him.

27 And he sayde vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Put euery man his swoorde by his side, and goe in and out from gate to gate throughout the host, g and slay euery man his brother, and euery man his cõpanion, and euery man his neighbour.

g This fact did so please God, that he turned ỳ curse of Jacob against Leui, Gene.49.5. to a blessing, Deut.33.9.

28 And the children of Leui did as Moses had sayd: And there fell of the people the same day about three thousand men.

‖ Or, consecrate. 29 And Moses sayde, ‖ Fill your hands vnto the Lord this day, euery man vpon his sonne, and vpon his brother, and that there may be giuen you a blessing this day.

30 And on the morowe, Moses sayde vnto the people, Ye have sinned a great sinne: And nowe I will goe vp vnto the Lorde, peraduenture I may purchase an atonement for your sinne.

h Moses prostrate made his prayer fourtie dayes and nightes, Deut.9. 31 Moses therefore went agayne vnto the Lorde, and sayde, h Oh, this people have sinned a great sinne, and have made them gods of golde.

i Out of the number of ỳ that be elect and predestinate to life euerlasting. 32 And nowe forgiue them their sinne: or if thou wilt not, wipe me, I pray thee, out of thy i booke which thou hast written.

k I will make it knowen that he was neuer any of ỳ elect, 33 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, k I will put him out of my booke that hath sinned against me.

34 And

34 And nowe goe thou, bring the people vnto the place which I ſayde vnto thee, Beholde, mine Angell ſhall goe before thee: Neuertheleſſe, in that day when I viſite, I will viſite their ſinne vpon them.

35 And the Lorde plagued the people, becauſe they made the Calfe which Aaron made.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

2 The Lorde ſendeth an Angell before his people. 3 The people ſorowe becauſe the Lorde denieth to goe vp with them.

1 AND the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Depart, and goe vp hence, thou and the people which thou haſt brought out of the lande of Egypt, vnto the lande which I ſware vnto Abraham, Iſahac and Iacob, ſaying, *Vnto thy ſeede will I giue it:

Gene.12.7.

2 *And I will ſende an Angell before thee, (and I will caſt out the Chanaanites, the Amorites, and the Hethites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Iebuſites:)

Deut.7.21.

3 Vnto a lande that floweth with [a] milke and honie. For I will not goe amongſt you my ſelfe: for ye are a ſtiffenecked people, leaſt I conſume thee in the way.

a By milke, vnderſtand all neceſſarie things: by honie, al delicates and pleaſant things.

4 And when the people heard this euill tidings, they ſorowed: and no man did put on his beſt rayment.

5 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, Say vnto the children of Iſrael, Ye are a ſtiffenecked people: I muſt come once ſodainely vpon you, and make an ende of you: Therefore now put thy goodly rayment from thee, that I may wit what to doe vnto thee.

6 And the children of Iſrael layde their goodly rayment from them, by the mount Horeb.

7 And Moſes tooke the tabernacle, and pitched it without the hoſt, a farre off from the hoſt, and called it the tabernacle of the cõgregation: And [ſo it came to paſſe,] that euery one which would pray vnto the Lorde, went out vnto the tabernacle of the congregation, which was without the hoſt.

8 And when Moſes went out vnto the tabernacle, all the people roſe vp, and ſtoode euery man at his tent doore, and looked after Moſes, vntill he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And as ſoone as Moſes was entred into the tabernacle, the cloudie pillar deſcended, and ſtoode at the doore of the tabernacle, and he talked with Moſes.

10 And all the people ſawe the cloudie pillar ſtande at the tabernacle doore, & they roſe vp, and worſhipped euery man in his tent doore.

b Wore plainly & familiarly then euer he did to any other, as Num. 12.7. for no man can ſee God in this life, and liue.

11 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes [b] face to face, as a man ſpeaketh vnto his friende. And he turned againe into the hoſt: but the yong man Joſhuah his ſeruant the ſonne of Nun, departed not out of the tabernacle.

12 And Moſes ſayde vnto the Lord, See, thou ſayeſt vnto me, Leade this people forth: and thou haſt not ſhewed me whom thou wilt ſende with me. And thou haſt ſayd moreouer, I knowe thee by name, and thou haſt alſo founde grace in my ſight.

13 Nowe therefore if I haue founde fauour in thy ſight, then, I pray thee, ſhewe me thy [c] way, that I may know thee, and that I may finde grace in thy ſight, and conſider alſo that this nation is thy people.

c The meanes whereby thou wilt keepe and ſaue thy people out of ſo many perils, ſeeing thou wilt not goe with them.

14 And he ſaide, My preſence ſhall goe with thee, and I will giue thee reſt.

15 He ſayde vnto him, If thy preſence goe not with me, carie vs not hence.

16 For how ſhall it be knowen here that I and thy people haue founde fauour in thy ſight, but in that thou goeſt with vs? If thou goeſt with vs, ſhall not I and thy people haue preeminence before all the people that are vpon the face of the earth?

17 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, I will doe this alſo that thou haſt ſayd, for thou haſt founde grace in my ſight, and I knowe thee by name.

18 And he ſayde, I beſeech thee ſhewe me thy glorie.

19 Who anſwered, I will make all my [d] good goe before thee, and I will [e] proclayme the name of the Lord before thee: and will ſhew mercie to whom I will ſhewe mercie, and will haue compaſſion, on whom I will haue compaſſion.

d Heart and affection to this my people.

e Paſſing by I will ſounde with a loude voice my name Jehouah, whõ thou canſt not ſee.

20 And he ſayde furthermore, Thou mayeſt not ſee my face: for there ſhall no man ſee me, and liue.

21 And the Lorde ſayde, Beholde, there is a place by me, and thou ſhalt ſtande vpon a rocke.

22 And while my glorie goeth forth, I will put thee in a clift of the rocke, and will put my hande vpon thee, while I paſſe by.

23 And I will take away mine hande, and thou ſhalt ſee my backe partes: but my face ſhall not be ſeene.

The xxxiiij. Chapter.

6 The deſcription of God. 28 After the faſt of fourtie dayes, Moſes commeth downe from the mountaine, and ſpeaketh to the people with a couered face.

4 And Moses hewed two tables of stone, like vnto the first, and rose vp early in the morning, and went vp vnto the mount Sinai as the Lord had commaunded him, and tooke in his hande the two tables of stone.

5 And the Lorde descended in the cloude, and stoode with him there, and proclaymed the name of the Lorde.

10 And he sayde, Beholde, I make a couenant before all thy people, & I will do marueiles, such as haue not bene done in all the world, neither in all nations: and all the people amongst which thou art, shall see the worke of the Lord: for it is a terrible thing that I will doe with thee.

11 Keepe diligently those things that I commande thee this day: Beholde, I cast out before thee, the Amorites, Chanaanites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites.

b God is called ielous, because he will not permit that any other goddes shal be worshipped with him: but he alone wil be loued & worshipped for God.

15 Least, if thou make any agreement with the inhabiters of the lande, and they goe a whoring after their goddes, and doe sacrifice vnto their goddes, they call thee, and thou eate of their sacrifice, 17 Thou shalt make thee no gods of metall.

23 Thrise a yeere shal al your men children appeare before ỹ almightie Lord God of Israel.

24 For I will cast out the nations before thee, and enlarge thy coasts: neither shal any man desire thy land, when thou shalt goe vp to appeare before ỹ Lord thy God thrise in a yeere.

27 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Write these wordes: for after the tenour of these *wordes, I haue made a couenant with thee, and with Israel. Deut.4.13.

28 And he was there with the Lorde fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, and did neither eate bread, nor drinke water, and he wrote vpon the table the words of the couenant, the ten ‖ commandements.

29 And when Moses came downe frō mount Sinai, the two tables of testimonie were in Moses hand: when he came downe from the mount, Moses wist not that the skinne of his face shone, while he talked with ‡ him.

30 And Aaron and all the children of Israel looked vpon Moses, and beholde, the skinne of his face shone, and they were afrayde to come nigh him.

32 And afterwarde, all the children of Israel came nigh: and he gaue them in commaundement all that the Lord had sayd vnto him in mount Sinai.

33 And when Moses had made an ende of communing with them, he put a couering vpon his face.

a This coueringsignifieth the infirmitie of our nature, wherby when we heare or reade the law, we heare it not, nor vnderstande it.

34 And againe, when Moses went in before the Lorde to speake with him, he tooke the couering off, vntill he came out. And he came out, & spake vnto the children of Israel, that which he was commanded.

35 And the children of Israel sawe the face of Moses, Moses, that the skinne of Moses face shone: and Moses put the couering vpon his face againe, vntill he went in to commune with him.

22 And they came both men and women, as many as were willing hearted, and brought bracelets and earerings, rings, and chaynes, which iewels were all of golde: and all the men brought a waue offering of golde vnto the Lorde.

23 And euery man with whome was founde blewe silke, purple, scarlet, white silke, and goates haire, & red skinnes of rammes, and Taxus skinnes, brought them.

24 All that did heaue vp an oblation of siluer and brasse, brought an heaue offering vnto the Lorde: and all men with whome was founde Sittim wood for any maner worke of the ministration, brought it.

a A rare example and notable, to ſee the people to ſerue God with their goods.

6 And then Moſes gaue commandement, and they cauſed it to be proclaymed throughout the hoſt, ſaying, See that neither man nor woman prepare any more worke for ỹ heaue offering of the ſanctuarie: and ſo the people were forbidden to bring.

7 For the ſtuffe they had, was ſufficient for al the worke to make it, and too much.

8 All the wiſe hearted men therfore, and they that wrought for the tabernacle, made tenne curtaines of white twined ſilke, blewe ſilke, purple, and ſcarlet, with Cherubims of broodered worke made they them.

9 The length of one curtaine was twentie and eight cubites, and the breadth foure: and the curtaines were all of one ciſe.

10 And he coupled fiue curtaines by thẽ ſelues, and other fiue by them ſelues.

23 And he made twentie boordes for ỹ South-ſide of the tabernacle.

24 And fourtie ſockets of ſiluer vnder ỹ twentie boords: two ſockets vnder one boorde for his two tenons, and two ſockets vnder another boord for his two tenons.

25 And for the other ſide of the tabernacle which is towarde the north, he made twentie boords, 26 And their fourtie ſockets of ſiluer: two ſockets vnder one boord, and two ſockets vnder the other boord.

27 And toward the ‡ Weſt end of the tabernacle, he made ſixe boords. ‡ The ſea.

28 And two other boordes made he in the corners of the tabernacle, for either ſide.

29 And they were ioyned cloſe beneath and aboue with a ring: and thus they did to both the corners.

30 And there were eyght boordes, and ſixteene ſockets of ſiluer: vnder euery boorde two ſockets.

31 And he made barres of Sittim wood, fiue for the boords of the tabernacle in ỹ one ſide, 32 And fiue for the boords of the tabernacle in the other ſide, and fiue barres for the boordes of the tabernacle in the Weſt ende.

33 And he made the middeſt barre to ſhutte through the boords, from the one ende to the other:

34 And ouerlaide the boords with golde, and made rings of golde to thruſt the barres thorowe, and couered the barres with golde.

35 And he made a vayle of blewe ſilke, purple, ſcarlet, and white twined ſilke: with Cherubims made he it of broodered worke.

36 And he made therunto foure pillars of Sittim wood, and ouerlaide them with golde: their knops were alſo of golde, and he caſt for them foure ſockets of ſiluer.

18 Sixe branches proceeding out of the sides thereof: three branches of the candlesticke out of the one side thereof, and three branches of the candlesticke out of the other side therof.

19 And in one branche three bolles, made like vnto almonds, with a knop and a flowre: and in an other branche three bolles made like almonds, with a knoppe and a flowre: and so throughout the sixe branches that proceede out of the candlesticke.

20 And vpon the candlesticke it selfe, were foure bolles, after the fashion of almõds, with knops and flowres.

21 Under euery two branches, a knoppe of the same, and a knoppe vnder two branches of the same, & a knoppe vnder two branches of the same, according to the sixe branches that proceede out of it.

vp by the two edges.
5 And the broodering of the gyrdle that was vpon it, was of the same stuffe, and after the same worke, of golde, blewe silke, purple, scar-

9 And he made the court on the Southside, ful South: & the hangings of the court were of white twined silke, hauing a hundred cubites.
10 Their pillars were twentie, and their bra-

The xxxix. Chapter.

1. The apparell of Aaron and his sonnes, 32 All that the Lord commanded, was done and finished. 43 Moses blesseth the people.

1 AND of the blewe silke, purple, and scarlet, they made vestments of ministration, to do seruice in the holy place:
and made the holy garmentes for Aaron, as the Lord commanded Moses.
2 And he made the Ephod of golde, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke.
3 And they did beate the golde into thinne plates, and cut it into wyers, to worke it in the blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and in the fine white, with broidered worke.
4 And they made two sides for it, to close them
vp by the two edges.
5 And the broidering of the girdle that was vpon it, was of the same stuffe, and after the same worke, of golde, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and twined white silke, as the Lorde commanded Moses.
6 And they wrought Onyx stones, closed in ouches of golde, & graued as signets are grauen, with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, that they should be stones for a remembrance of the children of Israel, as the Lorde commanded Moses.

8 And he made the brestlap of broudered worke, like the worke of the Ephod, of golde, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and twined white silke.

9 It was foure square, and they made the brestlap double, an hand breadth long, and an hand breadth broade.

10 And they filled it with foure rowes of stones. The first rowe, a Sardius, a Topazius, and a Smaragdus.

11 The second rowe, a Rubi, a Saphire, and a Diamonde.

12 In the thirde rowe, a Lyncurius, an Achates, and an Amathyst.

13 In the fourth rowe, a Turcas, an Onix, and a Jaspis: and they were closed in ouches of golde in their inclosers.

14 And the twelue stones were grauen as signets, with the names of the children of Israel, euery stone with his name, according to the twelue tribes.

15 And they made vpon the breastlap, two fastening chaines of wrethen worke, of pure gold.

16 And they made two ouches of golde, & two golde rings: and put the two rings in the two corners of the brestlap.

17 And they put the two chaynes of gold in the two rings in the corners of the brestlap.

18 And the two endes of the two chaynes, they fastened in the two ouches, & put them on the shoulders of ỹ Ephod, vpon the forefront of it.

19 And they made two ringes of golde, and put them on the two corners of the brestlap, vpon the edge of it [which was] on the inside by the Ephod.

20 And they made two golden ringes, and put them on the two sides of the Ephod, beneath on the foreside of it, & ouer against his fellow, aboue vpon the broudering of the Ephod.

21 And they strayned the brestlap by his ringes vnto the ringes of the Ephod, with a lase of blewe silke, that it might be vpon the broudering of the Ephod, and that the brestlap should not be loosed from off the Ephod, as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 And he made the tunicle vnto the Ephod, of wouen worke, altogether of blewe silke.

23 And there was a hole in the middest of the tunicle, as the collar of a partlet, with a band round about the collar, that it should not rent.

24 And in the tunicle they made hemmes with Pomegranates of blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and white twined silke.

25 And they made litle belles of pure gold, and put them amongst the Pomegranates round about vpon the edge of the tunicle.

26 A bell and a pomegranate, a bell & a pomegranate, round about the hemmes of the tunicle to minister in, as the Lorde commanded Moses.

27 And they made coates of fine white silke of wouen worke, for Aaron and his sonnes.

28 And a mitre of fine white silke, and goodly bonnets of fine white silke, and linen sloppes of twined white silke.

29 And a gyrdle of twined white silke, blewe, purple, and scarlet, euen of needle worke, as the Lord commanded Moses.

30 And they made the plate of the holy crowne of fine golde, and wrote vpon it with grauen worke as signets are grauen, THE HOLINES OF THE LORD.

31 And he tyed vnto it a lace of blewe silke, to fasten it an high vpon the mitre, as the Lorde commanded Moses.

32 Thus was all the worke of the tabernacle, [euen] of the tabernacle of the congregation finished: And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did they.

33 And they brought the tabernacle vnto Moses, [euen] the tabernacle, & all his furniture, his taches, his boordes, his barres, his pillars, and his sockets,

34 The couering of Rammes skinnes, red, and the couering of Taxus skinnes, and the hanging vayle, 35 The arke of the testimonie, and the barres thereof, and the mercie seate,

36 The table, and all the vessels thereof, and the shewe bread,

37 The pure candlesticke, with the lampes thereof, euen with the lampes to be prepared, and all the vessels thereof, & the oyle for light,

38 The golden altar, and the anoynting oyle, and the sweete incense, and the hanging of the tabernacle doore,

39 And the brasen altar, with his grediron of brasse, his barres, and all his vessels, the lauer, and his foote, 40 The curtaines of the court, with his pillars and sockets, the hanging to the court gate, & his pinnes and cordes, and all the vessels of the seruice of the tabernacle, euen of the tabernacle of the congregation.

41 The ministring vestmentes to serue in the holy place, and the holy vestments for Aaron the Priest, and his sonnes rayments to minister in, in the Priestes office:

42 According to all that the Lorde commanded Moses, so the children of Israel made all the worke.

43 And Moses did looke vpon al the worke: and behold, they had done it as the Lord had commanded, euen so had they done it: and Moses blessed them.

The xl. Chapter.

2 The Tabernacle is reared vp. 34 The glory of the Lord appeareth in a cloude, couering the tabernacle.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying, a In the secõd yeere of their comming out of Egypt.

2 In the first day of the first a moneth shalt thou set vp the tabernacle, euen the tabernacle of the congregation.

3 And put therein the arke of the testimonie, and couer the arke with the vayle: and thou shalt bring in the table, and order it according to the appoyntment thereof:

4 And thou shalt bring in the candlesticke, and light his lampes,

5 And set the incense altar of golde before the arke of the testimonie, and put the hanging at the dooze of the tabernacle.

6 And set the whole burnt offring altar before the dooze of the tabernacle, [euen] the tabernacle of the congregation:

7 And set the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and put water therein,

8 And make the court rounde about, and hang vp the hanging at the court gate.

9 And thou shalt take the anoynting oyle, and anoynt the tabernacle, and all that is therein, and halowe it, with all the vessels thereof: and it shalbe holy.

10 And thou shalt anoynt the altar of the whole burnt offring, and all his vessels, and sanctifie the altar: and it shalbe an altar most holy.

11 And thou shalt also anoynt the lauer and his foote, and sanctifie it.

12 And thou shalt bring Aaron and his sonnes vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation, and wash them with water.

13 And thou shalt put vpon Aaron the holie vestments, and anoynt him, and sanctifie him, that he may minister vnto me in the Priestes office.

14 And thou shalt bring his sonnes, and clothe them with garments, 15 And anoynt them, as thou diddest anoynt their father, that they may minister vnto mee in the Priestes office: For their anoynting shall be an euerlasting priesthoode vnto them throughout all their generations.

16 And Moses did according to al that the Lord commanded him, so did he.

17 Thus was the tabernacle reared vp the first day of the first moneth, in the b second yeere.

b Of the comming of the children of Israel out of Egypt.

18 And Moses reared vp the tabernacle, and fastened his sockets, & set vp the boords therof, & put in ỹ barres of it, & reared vp his pillars:

19 And spread abrode the tent ouer the tabernacle, and put the couering of the tent an high aboue it, as the Lord commanded Moses.

c That is, the tables of the lawe.

20 And he tooke the c testimonie, and put it in the arke, and set the barres to the arke, & put the mercie seate an high vpon the arke.

21 And he brought the arke into the tabernacle, and hanged vp the vayle, and couered the arke of the testimonie, as the Lorde commanded Moses.

22 And he put the table in the tabernacle of the congregation, in the North side of the tabernacle, without the vayle, 23 And set the bread in order before the Lorde, as the Lord had commanded Moses.

24 And he put the candlesticke in the tabernacle of the congregation, ouer against the table toward the south side of the tabernacle, 25 And set vp the lampes before the Lorde, as the Lord commanded Moses.

26 And he put the golden altar in the tabernacle of the congregation before the vayle, 27 And burnt sweete incense thereon, as the Lord commanded Moses.

28 And he hanged vp the hanging at the dooze of the tabernacle:

29 And set the whole burnt offring altar by the entring in of the tabernacle, [that is,] the tabernacle of the congregation, & offered whole burnt offerings, and meate offrings * thereon, as the Lord commanded Moses. Exod. 30. 9.

30 And he set the lauer betweene the tabernacle of the congregation and the altar, and powred water therein, to wash withall.

31 And Moses, Aaron, and his sonnes, washed their handes and their feete thereat, 32 When they went into the tabernacle of the congregation, and when they went to the altar, they washed themselues, as the Lord commanded Moses.

33 And he reared vp the court rounde about the tabernacle, and the altar, and set vp an hanging at the court gate: and so Moses finished the worke.

34 * And the cloude couered the tabernacle of the congregation, and the glory of the Lorde filled the tabernacle. Num. 9. 15.

35 And Moses coulde not enter into the tabernacle of the congregation, because the cloude abode thereon, and the glory of the Lord filled the tabernacle.

36 And when the cloude was taken vp from off the tabernacle, the children of Israel tooke their iourneys throughout their armies:

37 And when the cloude was not taken vp, they iourneyed not till it was taken vp.

38 For the d cloude of the Lorde was vpon the tabernacle by day, and fire by night, in the sight of all the house of Israel, throwout all their armies.

d Thus the presence of God preserued and guyded them both day and night, till they came to the land of promise.

The ende of the second booke of Moses, called Exodus.

This booke is so named, because that in the same is chiefly entreated of the Leuiticall sacrifices, and other ceremonies of ỹ law, vnto the which the Leuites were committed, and ordeined by the Lord.

The third booke of Moses, called in the Hebrewe Vaicrah, and in the Latine Leuiticus.

The first Chapter.

Of whole burnt offerings for particular persons.
3 The maner to offer whole burnt offerings, as well of Bullockes, as of Sheepe and Birdes.

1 AND the Lord [a] called vnto Moses, and spake vnto him out of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and thou shalt saye vnto them, If any [b] of you bring a [c] sacrifice vnto the Lorde, yee shall bring your sacrifice from among the cattell, euen from among the beeues, and the [d] sheepe.

3 If his sacrifice be a whole burnt offering of beeues, let him offer a male without blemish, and bring him of his owne voluntarie will vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation before the Lord.

4 And he shall put his [e] hande vpon the head of the whole burnt sacrifice, and it shall be accepted for him to be his atonement.

5 And he shal kil the bullocke before the Lord: And the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall bring the blood, and sprinckle it rounde about vpon the altar that is by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And then shall he slay the whole burnt offering, and hew him in pieces.

7 And the sonnes of Aaron the Priest shal put fire vpon the altar, and put wood vpon the fyre.

8 And the Priestes Aarons sonnes shall laye the partes, euen the head and the fat vpon the wood that is in the fire on the altar.

9 But the inwardes and the legges thereof shall bee wash in water, and the Priest shall burne all on ỹ altar, that they may be a whole burnt sacrifice, an offering made by fire for a sweete odour vnto the Lord.

10 And if his sacrifice be of flockes, namely of the Sheepe or Goates, let him bring a male without blemish for a whole burnt offering:

11 And let him kill it on the North side of the altar before the Lorde: And the Priestes Aarons sonnes shal sprinckle the blood round about vpon the altar.

12 And he shall cut it into his pieces, euen with his head and his fatte: and the Priest shall put them vpon the wood that lyeth vpon the fire on the altar.

13 But hee shall wash the inwardes and the legges with water, and the Priest shall bring all together, and burne it vpon the altar for a whole burnt offring, an oblation made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

14 If the whole burnt offering for the sacrifice of the Lorde be of fowles, he shall bring his sacrifice of Turtle Doues, or of the yong Pigeons.

15 And the Priest shall bring it vnto the altar, and [f] wring the necke asunder of it, & burne it on the altar: but the blood thereof shall be wrung out vpon the side of the altar.

16 And he shall plucke away his crop with his feathers, and cast them beside the altar on the East part in the place of ashes.

17 And he shall breake the winges of it, but plucke them not asunder: And the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar, euen vpon the wood that is vpon the fire: that it may be a whole burnt offering, an oblation made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

The ii. Chapter.

1 The order of meate offerings. 13 All meate offrings must be seasoned with salt.

1 THE soule that will offer a meate offering vnto the Lorde, his offering shall be of fine flowre: and he shall powre oyle vpon it, and put Frankincense thereon:

2 And shall bring it vnto Aarons sonnes the Priestes: And he shal take thereout his handfull of the flowre, and of the oyle, with all the Frankincense, and the Priest shall burne it for a memorial of him vpon the altar, to be an offering made by fire, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde.

3 And the remnant of the meate offering shal be Aarons and his sonnes, a thing most [a] holy of the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire.

4 If thou bring also a meate offering that is baken in the Ouen, let it be an vnleauened cake of fine flowre mingled with oyle, or an vnleauened wafer anoynted with oyle.

5 If thy meate offring be baken in the frying panne, it shalbe of vnleauened flowre mingled with oyle.

6 And thou shalt part it in pieces, and powre oyle thereon: that it may be a meate offering.

7 And if thy meate offring be a thing broyled vpon the gridiron, let it be of flowre mingled with oyle.

8 And thou shalt bring the meate offring that is made of these thinges vnto the Lorde, and shalt deliuer it vnto the Priest, that he may offer it vpon the altar.

9 And the Priest shall take from the meate offering a memoriall thereof, and shall burne it vpon the altar, that it may be a burnt offering for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

10 And that which is left of the meate offring, shalbe a Moses doth euidently declare that these sacrifices were instituted of God, and not of man.

b When any priuate man will offer for himselfe a priuate sacrifice.

c That the Leuitical sacrifices were preachings of the passion & death of Christ, & of his gospel, which should afterward be published thorowe all the worlde, men haue not dreamed it, but the holy Ghost hath taught it, and hath confirmed it by many testimonies as well of the old Testament, as of the new, as Psal. 39. Esa. 41. John 1. 1. Pet. 1. Heb. 10. &c.

d The Hebrew word signifieth Sheepe or the Goates, Exo. 29. 10.

e Declaring that he did it voluntarily, & all that he hath in his handes, he receiued of God.

f The Hebrew worde signifieth, to be cut or pinched with a naple of a finger.

a Because it doeth remains of that which was burnt in the honour of God, & therefore might not be eaten but of the holy, that is, the Priests.

shalbe Aarõs & his sonnes: It is a thing most holy of the offerings of the Lord made by fire.

11 All the meate offrings which ye shall bring vnto the Lorde, shalbe made without leauen: For ye shal neither burne leauen nor [b] hony in any offering of the Lord made by fire.

12 In the oblation of the first fruites ye shal offer them vnto the Lorde: but they shall not be burnt vpon the altar for a sweete sauour.

13 All the meate offerings also shalt thou season with salt, neither shalt thou suffer the salt of the couenãt of thy God to be lacking from thy meate offering: but vpon all thine offerings thou shalt bring [c] salt.

14 And if thou offer a meate offring of thy first fruites vnto the Lorde, thou shalt offer for the meate offring of thy first fruits, eares of corne dried by ẏ fire, [eũ] beatẽ wheate of ful eares.

15 And thou shalt put oyle vpon it, & lay frankincense thereon, ẏ it may be a meate offring.

16 And the Priest shal burne part of the beaten corne, & part of that oyle with all the frankincense, for a remembrance: and it shall be a sacrifice vnto the Lord made by fire.

b That is, all maner of fruite as sweete as hony: as figs, dates, and such like. Of these nothing might be burned, but kept only to be offered before God.

c By this ceremonie is the nature of Christ set forth which is figured in all sacrifices. For Christ is the true & heauenly salt, by whõ all that beleeue in him, be made sauourie & pleasant vnto God the father, so that they shal neuer so putrifie that they shall perish.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The order of peace offerings. 6 Of Sheepe. 7 Of Lambes. 12 Of Goates.

1 AND if his sacrifice be a [a] peace offring, & he take it from amõg ẏ droues, whether it be a male or female, he shal bring such as is without blemish before the Lorde,

2 And put his hand vpon the head of his offering, and kill it at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: And Aarons sonnes the Priestes shall sprinkle the blood vpon the altar round about.

3 And he shal offer [b] somewhat of the peace offering, to be a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord: euen the fat that couereth the inwards, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes:

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall with the liuer shal he take away with the kidneys.

5 And Aarons sonnes shal burne them on the altar with the whole burnt sacrifice which is vpõ the wood that is on the fire, to be a burnt sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

6 If he bring a peace offering vnto the Lorde from of the flocke, let him offer male or female, but without blemish.

7 [And] if he offer a Lambe for his sacrifice, he shal bring it before the Lord,

8 And put his hande vpon his offerings head, and kill it before the dooze of the tabernacle of ẏ congregation: & Aarons sonnes shal sprinckle the blood thereof rounde about the altar.

9 And of the peace offering let him bring a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde, the fatte thereof, and the rumpe altogether, which they shall take off hard by the backe bone: and the fat that couereth the inwardes, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes,

10 And the two kidneys, & the fat that is vpon them, & vpon the flanks, & the kal that is vpon the liuer shal he take away, with the kidneys.

11 And the Priest shal burne them vpon the altar, to be the foode of a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

12 If his offering be a Goate, he shall bring it before the Lord, 13 And put his hande vpon the head of it, & kill it before the tabernacle of the congregation: & the sonnes of Aaron shal sprinkle the blood thereof vpon the altar round about.

14 And he shal bring thereof his offering, euen [c] a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, the fat that couereth the inwards, and all the fat that is vpon the inwardes.

15 And the two kidneys, & the fat that is vpon them, & vpon the flankes, & the kall vpon the liuer shal he take away with the kidneys.

16 And the Priest shal burne them vpon the altar, for the foode of the sacrifice made by fire, for a sweete sauour: All the fat is the Lordes.

17 Let it be a perpetuall statute for your generations throughout your dwellings, that yee eate neither fat nor blood.

a That is, a sacrifice of thanksgiuing, offred for peace & prosperitie, either generally or particularly.

b One part was burnt, an other appoynted to the Priests, & the third to him that offered.

c In ẏ whole burnt offering all was consumed, but in the offering made by fire, onely the inwardes were burnt.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 The offring for the sinnes, 3 Of the Priest, 13 Of the congregation, 22 The princes, 27 The priuate persons sinne done by ignorance.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If a soule shall sinne through ignorance in any of the commandementes of the Lord, which ought not to be done, but shal doe contrary to any of them:

3 As if the Priest that is anoynted, doe sinne according to the [a] sinne of the people, let him bring for his sinne which he hath sinned, a yong bullock without blemish, vnto the Lord for a sinne offering.

4 And he shall bring the yong bullocke vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the cõgregation before the Lord, and shall put his hande vpon the yong bullockes head, and [b] kill the yong bullocke before the Lord.

5 And the Priest that is anoynted, shal take of the yong bullockes blood, and bring it into the tabernacle of the congregation.

6 And the Priest shall dippe his finger in the blood, & sprinckle thereof seuen times before the Lord, before the vayle of the sanctuarie.

7 And the Priest shal put some of the blood before the Lorde, vpon the hornes of the altar of sweete incense, which is in the tabernacle of the congregation, & shal powre al the blood of the yong bullocke, vnto the bottome of the altar of the whole burnt offring, which is at the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation.

a By conuersation or doctrine to do any thing whereby ẏ people sinne, or els if the people sinne through the priests fault, their sinne is required at his handes.

b Whereby confessing that he deserued the same punishment which ẏ beast suffered.

8 And he shall take away all the fat of the bullocke for the sinne offering, the fat that coue-reth the inwardes, and all the fat that is about the inwardes,
9 And the two kidneys, and the fatte that is vpon them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall vpon the liuer shall hee take away with the kidneys,
10 As it was taken away in the bullocke of the peace offeringes: and let the Priest burne them vpon the altar of the whole burnt offering,
11 But the skinne of the yong bullocke, and all his flesh, with his head and his legges, with his inwardes and his doung, [shall he beare out,]
12 And cary the whole bullocke altogether out of the hoste vnto a cleane place, where the ashes are powred out, and *burne him there on wood in the fire: by the place where the ashes are cast out shal he be burnt.
13 If the whole congregation of Israel sinne through ignorance, and the thing be hid from the eyes of the multitude, & haue done somewhat against any of the commandementes of the Lorde, which should not be done, and haue offended:
14 When the sinne which they haue sinned is knowen, the congregation shall bring a yong bullocke for the sinne, and bring him before the tabernacle of the congregation,
15 And the Elders of the multitude shall put their handes vpon the head of the bullocke before the Lord: and the bullocke shall be slayne before the Lord.
16 And the Priest that is anoynted, shall bring of the bullockes blood into the tabernacle of the congregation.
17 And the Priest shall dippe his finger in the blood, and sprinckle it seuen times before the Lord, euen before the vayle, 18 And shal put of the blood vpon the hornes of the altar which is before the Lorde, in the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall powre all the blood vnto the bottome of the altar of the whole burnt offering, which is before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.
19 And he shal take his fat from him, and burne it vpon the altar,
20 And shal do with this bullock as he did with the bullocke for sinne, so shall he do with this: And the Priest shall make an atonement for them, and it shalbe forgiuen them.
21 And he shal bring this bullocke without the hoste, and burne him as he burned the first bullocke: for it is an oblation for the sinne of the congregation.
22 When a Lorde sinneth, and committeth through ignorance any of these things which the Lord his God hath forbidden to be done in his commandements, and hath offended:
23 And if his sinne be [b] shewed vnto him which he hath done, he shal bring his offring, [euen] an hee goate without blemish,
24 And lay his hande vpon the head of the hee goate, and kill it in the place where the whole burnt offering is vsed to be killed before the Lord: for it is a sinne offering.
25 And let the Priest take of the blood of the sinne offring with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering altar, and powre his blood vnto the bottome of the whole burnt offring altar,
26 And burne all his fat vpon the altar, as the fat of the peace offerings: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him as concerning his sinne, and it shalbe forgiuen him.
27 If one of the common people of the lande sinne through ignorance, and commit any of the things which the Lorde hath forbidden in his commandementes to be done, and so hath trespassed:
28 If his sinne which hee hath sinned come to his knowledge, he shall bring for his offering a shee Goate from among the flockes without blemish for his sinne which he hath sinned,
29 And shal lay his hande vpon the head of the sinne offering, and slaye the sinne offering in the place of the whole burnt offerings.
30 And the Priest shall take of the blood thereof with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering altar, and powre all the blood vnto the bottome of the altar,
31 And * shall take away all his fatte, as the fat of the peace offring is taken away: and the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar, that it may be a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde, and the Priest shal make an atonement for him, and it shalbe forgiuen him.
32 And if he bring a sheepe for a sinne offering, he shal bring a female without blemish, 33 And laye his hande vpon the head of the sinne offering, and slay it for a sinne offering, in the place where they kill the whole burnt offering.
34 And the Priest shall take of the blood of the sinne offring with his finger, and put it vpon the hornes of the whole burnt offering altar, and shall powre the blood thereof vnto the bottome of the altar.
35 And he shall take away all the fatte thereof, as the fat of the sheepe of the peace offerings is wont to be taken away: and the Priest shal burne it vpon the altar, that it may bee the Lordes burnt sacrifice, & the Priest shal make an atonement for his sinne that he hath committed, and it shalbe forgiuen him.

[b] Either by knowledging himselfe to haue sinned, & confessing his fault, or some other hath reuealed it vnto him.

Heb. 13.11.

Leuit. 3.14.

The v. Chapter.

1 Of othes. 2 The cleansing of him that toucheth vncleane things. 6 The purgation of an othe, 15 and of sinne done by ignorance.

1 If

1 IF a soule sinne, and heare the voyce [a] of swearing, and is a witnesse whether he hath seene or knowen of it, if he do not vtter it, he shall beare his sinne.

2 Either if a soule touche any vncleane thing, whether it be the carion of an vncleane beast, or a carion of vncleane cattel, or a carion of vncleane creeping thinges, and is not ware of it:
behold he is vncleane, and hath offended.

3 Either if he touche any vncleannesse of man, whatsoeuer vncleannesse it be that a man is wont to be defiled withall, and is not ware of it, and commeth to the knowledge of it, he hath trespassed.

4 Eyther if a soule sweare, and pronounceth with his lippes to do euill or to do good, whatsoeuer it be that a man shal pronounce with an othe, and the thing be hid from him, and commeth to the knowledge of it, and hath offended in one of these:

5 When he hath sinned in one of these things, he shal confesse ỳ he hath sinned in that thing.

6 Therefore shal he bring his trespasse offring vnto the Lord for his sinne which he hath sinned, a female from the flocke, a lambe or a shee goate, for a sinne offering: And the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his sinne.

7 And if he be not able to bring a sheepe, he shal bring for his trespasse which he hath sinned, two Turtle doues, or two yong pigeons vnto
the Lorde: one for a sinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering.

8 And hee shall bring them vnto the Priest, which shall offer the sinne offering first, and wring the necke asunder of it, but plucke it not cleane off.

9 And he shal sprinckle of the blood of the sinne offering vpon the side of the altar, and the rest of the blood shall be powre by the bottome of the altar: for it is a sinne offering.

10 And hee shall offer the seconde for a whole burnt offering as the maner is: and so shall the Priest make an atonement for him for the sinne which he had sinned, and it shall be forgiuen him.

11 And if hee be not able to bring two Turtle doues, or two yong Pigeons, then he that hath sinned, shall bring for his offering the tenth part of an Epha of fine flowre for a sinne offering: but put none oyle thereto, neyther put any Frankincense thereon: for it is a sinne offering.

12 Then shall he bring it to the Priest, and the Priest shall take his handefull of it for a remembrance thereof, and burne it vpon the altar, to be a sacrifice for the Lord made by fire:
for it is a sinne offering.

13 And the Priest shall make an atonement for him as touching his sinne that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shalbe forgiuen him: and the remnant shall be the Priestes, as a meate offering.

14 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

15 If a soule trespasse and sinne through ignorance in things that are consecrated vnto the Lorde, let him bring for his trespasse vnto the Lorde, a Ramme without blemish out of the flockes, valued in money at two sicles, after the sicle of the Sanctuarie, that it may be for a trespasse offering.

16 And he shall make amendes for the harme that he hath done in the holy thing, and let him put the fift part more thereto, and giue it vnto the Priest: And the Priest shall make an atonement for him with the ramme that is for the trespasse: and it shalbe forgiuen him.

17 If a soule sinne, and committe any of these thinges which are forbidden to be done by the commaundementes of the Lorde, and [b] wist it not, and hath offended, and beare his sinne:

18 Then shall he bring a Ramme without blemishe out of the flocke, that is esteemed to bee worth a trespasse offering, vnto the Priest:
And the Priest shall make an atonement for him concerning his ignorance, wherein he erred and was not ware: and it shall be forgiuen him.

19 This is a trespasse offering, for the trespasse committed against the Lord.

[a] This is diuersly expounded, because ỳ Hebrew word hath a double signification: this is ỳ sense as some thinketh. If a Iudge doeth minister an oth to any priuate man, to declare ỳ trueth of any thing that he hath seene, and doe it not, he sinneth: other, thus: If any man see his neighbour cõmit any sinne, which is by ỳ law of God execrable, or detestable, & did conceale it, & not open it as much as in him did lie, he did sinne. Other taketh it thus. All such as did heare a mp man curse, ban and abuse the name of God, & did not open it vnto ỳ magistrate, did sinne: the first sense is best liked.

[b] And doeth afterward knowledge himselfe to haue offended, and thinketh himselfe to be guilty of that sinne.

The vi. Chapter.

3 The offering for sinnes, which are done willingly. 20 The offering of Aaron and his sonnes.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 If a soule sinne & trespasse against the Lorde, and denie vnto his neighbour that which was taken him to keepe, or that was put into his handes, or doeth violent robberie or wrong vnto his neygh-bour,

3 Or if he haue found that which was lost, and denieth it, and * sweareth falsely vpon what- Nom.5.6.
soeuer thing it be that a man doeth, and sinneth therein:

4 If he haue so sinned and trespassed, he shall restore againe that he tooke violently away, or the wrong which he did, or that which was deliuered him to keepe, or the lost thing which he founde:

5 And all that about which hee hath sworne falsly, he shall restore it againe in the whole summe, & shal adde the fifth part more therto, and giue it vnto him to whom it apperteineth,
the same day that he offereth for his trespasse.

6 And let him bring for his trespasse vnto the Lorde a Ramme without blemish out of the flocke, that is esteemed worth a trespasse offering vnto the Priest.

7 And the Priest shall make an atonement for him before the Lord, & it shalbe forgiuen him, whatsoeuer thing it be that he hath done and tresposseth therein.

8 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

9 Commande Aaron and his sonnes, saying, This is the lawe of the whole burnt offring. (The whole burnt offering shall be vpon the herth of the altar all night vnto the morning, and the fyre shalbe kindled on the altar.)

10 And the Priest shall put on his linnen garment, and his linnen breeches vpon his flesh, and take away the ashes vpon the which the fyre consumed the whole burnt sacrifice in the altar, and he shall put them beside the altar, 11 And put off his rayment, and put on other, and carie the ashes out without the hoste vnto a cleane place.

12 The fyre vpon the altar shall burne stil, and neuer be put out: But the Priest shall laye wood on it euery day in the morning, and put the whole burnt sacrifice vpon it, and he shall burne thereon the fat of the peace offerings.

a This figured Christ: for as it doeth purifie, heate, and consume: so Christ by his death and passion purifieth sinners, & consumeth all sinnes, & by his holy spirite heateth and warmeth all the faithfull.

13 a The fyre shall euer burne vpon the altar, and neuer goe out.

14 This is the lawe of the meate offring, which Aarons sonnes shall bring before the Lord, before the altar.

15 And one of them shall take his handfull of the floure of the meate offering, and of the oyle, and all the Frankincense which is vpon the meate offering, and shall burne it vnto a remembrance vpon the altar for a sweete sauour, a memorial of it vnto the Lord.

16 And of the rest thereof shall Aaron and his sonnes eate: vnleauened shall it be eaten in the holy place, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eate it.

17 It shall not be baken with leauen: I haue giuen it vnto them for their portion of my sacrifices made by fyre: It is most holy, as is the sinne offring, and the tresposse offring.

18 All the males among the children of Aaron shall eate of it: It shalbe a statute for euer in your generations concerning the sacrifice of the Lord made by fyre: let euery one that toucheth it, be holy.

19 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

20 This is the offering of Aaron, and of his sonnes, which they shall offer vnto the Lord in the day when he is anoynted: The tenth part of an Epha of fine flowre for a meate offring perpetual, halfe of it in the morning, and halfe thereof at night.

21 In the frying panne it shalbe made with oyle, and when it is fryed, thou shalt bring it in: and the baken pieces of the meat offrings shalt thou offer for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

22 And the Priest amongst his sonnes that is anoynted in his steade, shall offer it: It is the Lords ordinance for euer, it shalbe burnt altogether.

23 For euery meate offering that is made for the Priest, shalbe burnt altogether, and shall not be eaten.

24 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

25 Speake vnto Aaron, and vnto his sonnes, and say, This is the lawe of the sinne offring: In the place where the whole burnt offering is killed, shall the sinne offering be killed before the Lord, for it is most holy.

26 The Priest that offereth it, shall eate it: In the holy place shall it be eaten, in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatsoeuer shall touch the flesh thereof, shalbe holy: and when there droppeth of the blood thereof vpon any garment, thou shalt wash that wheron it droppeth, in ỹ holy place.

28 But the earthen pot that it is sodden in, shall be broken: And if it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shalbe scoured, and rinsed in water.

29 All the males among the Priests shall eate thereof, for it is most holy.

30 And no sinne offering, whose * blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withal in the holy place, shal be eaten: but shall be burnt in the fyre. Heb.13.12.

The vij. Chapter.

1 Tresposse offerings. 7 Sinne offrings. 11 Of peace offerings. 23 The fat and the blood may not be eaten.

1 LIkewise this is ỹ lawe a of the tresposse offering: it is most holy.

a Because it was altogether burnt with fire, or that ỹ priestes onely did eate it.

2 In the place where they kill the whole burnt offering, shall they kill the tresposse offering also, and the blood thereof shall he sprinckle round about vpon the altar.

3 All the fat thereof shall he offer, the rumpe, and the fat that coureth the inwardes,

4 And the two kidneys, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall that is on the liuer shalt thou take away with the kidneys.

5 And the Priest shall burne them vpon the altar, to be a sacrifice made by fyre vnto the Lord: for it is a tresposse offering.

6 All the males among the Priests shall eate thereof: it shalbe eaten in the holy place, for it is most holy.

7 As the sinne offering is, so is the tresposse offring, one law serueth for both: that, wherewith the Priest shall make atonement, shal be his.

8 And ỹ Priest that offereth any mans whole burnt offering, shall haue the skinne of the whole burnt offering which he hath offered.

9 And all the meate offering that is baken in the Ouen, and that is dressed in the panne, and in the frying panne, shalbe the Priests that offereth it.

10 And euery meate offering that is mingled with oyle, and that is drie, shall pertaine vnto all the sonnes of Aaron, and one shal haue as as much as another.

11 This is ỳ lawe of the peace offering, which he shall offer vnto the Lord.

12 If he offer it to giue thankes, he shall bring vnto his [b] thanke offering vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, & vnleauened wafers anointed with oyle, and cakes mingled with oyle of fine flowre fried.

[b] The Hebrew word signifieth to praise & giue thankes: this sacrifice they vsed whē any mā knowledged himselfe to be a sinner, and confessed his sinnes vnto the Lord, willing to reconcile him selfe vnto him.

13 He shall bring his offring, with cakes of vnleauened bread for his peace offrings, to giue thankes:

14 And of all the sacrifice he shall offer one for an heaue offring vnto the Lord, and it shalbe the Priests that sprinckled the blood of the peace offrings.

15 And the flesh of his peace offrings for thāks giuing, shalbe eaten the same day that it is offered: and let him leaue nothing of it vntil the morowe.

16 But if the offring of his sacrifice be a vowe, or of his owne free will, it shalbe eaten the same day that he offreth his sacrifice: and if ought remaine vntil the morowe, it may be eaten.

17 But as much of the offred flesh as remaineth vnto the third day, shalbe burnt with fyre.

18 And if any of the flesh of his peace offrings be eaten in the third day, then shall hee that offreth it obtaine no fauour, neither shal it be reckoned vnto him, but shalbe an abomination: therefore the soule that eateth of it, shal beare his sinne.

19 And the flesh ỳ toucheth any vncleane thing, shall not be eaten, but burnt with fire: and of this flesh, all that be cleane, shal eate thereof.

20 But if any soule eate of the flesh of the peace offring that pertaineth vnto the Lord, hauing his vncleannesse vpon him: the same soule shalbe cut off from among his people.

Leuit 15.5.

21 Moreouer, the * soule that doeth touch any vncleane thing, that is of the vncleannesse of man, or of any vncleane beast, or any ‖ abomination that is vncleane, and then eate of the flesh of the peace offering which perteineth vnto the Lord: that soule shalbe cut off from his people.

‖ Or, vncleane creeping beast.

22 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

23 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, Ye shal eate no maner fat of beeues, of sheepe, and of goates.

24 Neuertheless, the fatte of the beast that dyeth alone, and the fat of that which is torne with wylde beasts, shalbe occupied in any maner of vse: but ye shal in no wise eate of it.

25 For whosoeuer eateth the fatte of the beast, of which men vse to bring an offring made by fire vnto the Lord, that soule that eateth it, shalbe cut off from his people.

26 Moreouer, ye shall eate no maner of blood, whether it be of foule or of beast, in any your dwellings.

27 Whatsoeuer soule it be that eateth any maner of blood, the same soule shalbe cut off frō his people.

28 And the Lord talked with Moses, saying,

29 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, He that bringeth his peace offring vnto the Lord, let him bring his gift vnto the Lord of his peace offring:

30 Let his owne hands bring the offrings of the Lord made by fire: euen the fatte with the brest shall he bring, that the brest may be waued for a waue offring before the Lord.

31 And the Priest shal burne the fatte vpon the altar, & the brest shalbe Aarons & his sonnes.

32 And the right shoulder shall ye giue vnto the Priest for an heaue offring of your peace offrings.

33 The same that offreth the blood of the peace offrings and the fatte, among the sonnes of Aaron, shall haue the right shoulder for his part:

34 For the waue brest and the heaue shoulder haue I taken of the children of Israel of their peace offrings, and haue giuen them vnto Aaron the Priest, and vnto his sonnes, by a statute for euer from among the children of Israel.

35 This is the anoynting of Aaron, and the anoynting of his sonnes, concerning the sacrifices of ỳ Lord made by fire, in ỳ day when he offred them to be Priests vnto the Lord:

36 And these be the [portions] which the Lord commanded to be giuen them in ỳ day of their anoynting from among the children of Israel, by a statute for euer in their generations.

37 This is the lawe of the whole burnt offring, and of the meate offring, and of the sacrifice for sinne and trespasse, [c] for consecrations, and for the peace offring:

[c] Which sacrifice was offered, when the priestes were consecrated, Exod. 29.22.

38 Which the Lord commanded Moses in the mount of Sinai, when hee commanded the children of Israel to offer their sacrifices vnto the Lord in the wildernesse of Sinai.

The viii. Chapter.

The consecration of Aaron and his sonnes, and of the anoynting of the tabernacle.

1 AND ỳ Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Take Aaron & his sonnes with him, and ỳ vestures, & the anoynting oyle, and a bullocke for a sinne offring, and two Rams, & a basket of vnleauened bread:

3 And gather thou all the congregation together, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moses did as the Lord commaunded him: and the people were gathered together vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And Moses sayde vnto the congregation, This is the thing which the Lord commanded to be done.

6 And

6 And Moses brought Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them with water,

7 And put vpō him the coate, and girded him with a girdle, and put vpon him the robe, and put the Ephod thereon, which he girded with the broidered garde that was in the Ephod, and bound it vnto him therewith.

8 And he put the brestplate thereon, and put in the brestplate the Urim & the Thummim.

9 And he put the cap of estate vpon his head, and put vpon the cappe, euen vpon the forefront, the golden plate, [a] the holy crowne, as the Lord commanded Moses.

a So called, because this superscription (holinesse to ỹ Lorde) was grauen in it.

10 And Moses tooke the anoynting oyle, and anoynted the Tabernacle and all that was therein, and sanctified them, 11 And sprinckled therof vpon the altar seuen times, and anoynted the altar and all his vessels, the lauer & his foote, to sanctifie them.

12 And he * powred of the anoynting oyle vpon Aarons head, and anoynted him, to sanctifie him.

* Eccle. 45. 18.

13 And Moses brought Aarons sonnes, & put coates vpon them, and girded them with girdles, and put bonnets vpō their heads, as the Lord commanded Moses.

14 And hee brought the bullocke for the sinne offering: and Aaron and his sonnes put their handes vpon the head of the bullocke for the sinne offering.

b Moses did this, because that the priests were not established in their office.

15 And Moses [b] slue him, and tooke the blood, which hee put vpon the hornes of the altar round about with his finger, and purified the altar, and powred the blood at the bottome of the altar, and sanctified it, to make reconciliation vpon it.

16 And hee tooke all the fat that was vpon the inwards and the kall of the liuer, and ỹ two kidneis, and their fat, and Moses burned it vpon the altar.

17 But the bullocke, and his hide, his flesh, and his doung hee burnt with fire without ỹ host, as the Lord commanded Moses.

18 And hee brought the Ramme for the whole burnt offring, and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the Ramme, 19 Which Moses killed, and sprinkled ỹ blood vpon the altar round about.

20 And Moses cut the Ramme into pieces, & burnt the head, the pieces, and the fat, 21 And washed the inwardes and the legges in water, & Moses burnt ỹ Ramme euery whit vpō ỹ altar: for it was a whole burnt sacrifice for a sweete sauour, and an offering made by fire vnto the Lorde, as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 And hee brought the other Ramme, the Ramme of consecration: and Aaron and his sonnes put their hands vpon the head of the Ramme, 23 Which Moses slew, and tooke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the tippe of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpō the great toe of his right foote.

24 And Moses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the blood on the tippe of the right eare of them, and vpon the thumbes of their right handes, and vpon the great toes of their right fecte: and Moses sprinckled the blood vpon the altar rounde about.

25 And hee tooke the fat, and the rumpe, and al the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kidneyes with their fat, and their right shoulder.

26 And out of the basket of vnleauened bread that was before the Lord, he tooke one vnleauened cake, and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, and put them on the fat, and vpon the right shoulder:

27 And put altogether vpon Aarons handes, and vpon his sonnes handes, and waued it a waue offering before the Lord.

28 And Moses tooke thē from off their hands, and burnte them vpon the altar for a whole burnt offring: These were consecrations for a sweete sauour and sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

29 And Moses tooke the breast, and waued it for a waue offring before the Lorde: for of the Ramme of consecration it was Moses part, as the Lord commanded Moses.

30 And Moses tooke of the anoynting oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the altar, and sprinkled it vpon Aaron and vpō his garmentes, and vpon his sonnes, and vpon his sonnes garmentes with him: and sanctified Aaron and his vestures, and his sonnes, and his sonnes vestures with him.

31 And Moses saide vnto Aaron & his sonnes, Boyle the flesh at the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation, and there * eate it with the bread that is in the basket of consecration, as I commanded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shall eate it.

* Exod. 29. 32.

32 And that which remaineth of the flesh, and of the bread, shall ye burne with fire.

33 And ye shal not depart from the doore of the tabernacle of the Congregation, seuē dayes, vntill the dayes of your consecration be at an ende: for seuen dayes shall he ‖ fill your hand.

‖ Or, consecrate you.

34 As he did this day, so the Lord hath commāded to doe, to make an atonement for you.

35 Therefore shall ye abide at ỹ doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, day & night, seuen dayes long, & keepe the watch of ỹ Lord, and ye shall not die: for so I am commanded.

36 And so Aaron and his sonnes, did al things which the Lord commanded by the ‡ hand of Moses.

‡ Heb. Ministerie

The ix. Chapter.

8 The first offrings of Aaron. 22 Aaron blesseth the people. 23 The glory of the Lord is shewed.

1 And

1 AND in the eight day, Moses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the elders of Israel.

Exod.29.1. 2 And he said vnto Aaron, *Take thee a yong calfe for a sinne offring, and a Ramme for a whole burnt offering, both without blemish, and bring them before the Lord.

3 And vnto the children of Israel thou shalt speake, saying, Take yee an hee goate for a sinne offering, and a calfe, and a lambe, both of a yeere olde, without blemish, for a whole burnt sacrifice.

4 Also, a Bullocke and a Ramme for peace offerings, to offer before the Lorde, and a meate offering mingled with oyle: for to day ỹ Lord will appeare vnto you.

5 And they brought that which Moses commaunded, before the Tabernacle of the Congregation: and all the Congregation came and stood before the Lord.

6 And Moses sayde, This is the thing which the Lord commanded, that ye should doe, and the glory of the Lorde shall appeare vnto you.

7 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, Goe vnto the altar, and offer the sacrifice for thy sinne, and thy whole burnt offering, and make an atonement for thee and for the people: and thou shalt offer the offering of the people, and make an atonement for them, as the Lorde commanded.

8 Aaron therefore went vnto the altar, and slew the calfe of the sinne offring, which was for himselfe.

9 And the sonnes of Aaron brought the blood vnto him, and he dipt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar, and powred the blood at the bottome of the altar.

10 But the fat, and the two kydneies, and the kall of the liuer of the sinne offering, he burnt vpon the altar, as the Lorde commaunded Moses.

11 The flesh and the hide hee burnt with fire without the host.

12 And he slewe the whole burnt offering, and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which hee sprinckled rounde about vpon the altar.

13 And they brought the whole burnt offering vnto him, with the pieces thereof, & the head: and he burnt [them] vpon the altar.

14 And he did wash the inwards, & the legges, and burnt them vpon the whole burnt offring on the altar.

15 And then hee brought the peoples offering, taking the Goate, which was the sinne offering for the people, and slewe it, and offered it for sinne, as he did the first,

16 And brought the whole burnt offering, and offered it as the maner was.

17 And hee brought the meate offering, and filled his hande thereof, and burnt it vpon the altar, beside the whole burnt sacrifice of the morning.

18 Hee slewe also the bullocke and the ramme, for the peace offering which was for the people: and Aarons sonnes brought vnto him the blood, which he sprinckled vpon ỹ altar round about:

19 And the fat of the bullocke & of the ramme, the rumpe and that couereth the inwards, and the kidneyes, and the kall of the liuer,

20 And they put the fat vpon the breastes, and he burnt the fat vpon the altar:

21 But the breastes and the right shoulder Aaron waued for a waue offering before ỹ Lord, as the Lord commanded Moses.

22 And Aaron lift vp his hand ouer the people, and blessed them, and came downe from offering of the sinne offering, the whole burnt offering, and peace offerings.

23 And Moses and Aaron went into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, and *came out, and blessed the people: & the glory of the Lord appeared vnto all the people. 2.Mac.2.11.

24 And there came [a] a fire out from before the Lord, and consumed vpon the altar the whole burnt offering, and the fat: which when all the people sawe, they gaue thankes, and fell on their faces.

a This miracle was done to this purpose, to signifie that the Lorde did alow this kinde of sacrifice by Aaron.

The x. Chapter.

1 Nadab and Abihu are slayne. 6 Israel mourneth for them. 9 The Priestes are forbidden wine.

1 AND Nadab and Abihu, the sonnes of Aaron, tooke either of them his censer, and *put fire therein, & put cense thereupon, & offered [a] strange fire before the Lord, which he commanded them not. Numb.3.4. 1.chro.24.2.

2 And there went a fire from the Lorde, and [b] consumed them, and they dyed before the Lord.

a Not taken of the altar, which fire was kindled from heaue, and endured to the captiuitie of Babylon.

b This terrible punishmēt doeth declare, that vnlawfull seruice of God, though it seme to be done of good deuotion, displeaseth God.

3 Then Moses sayde vnto Aaron, This is it that the Lord spake, saying, I will be sanctified in them that come nigh mee, and before all the people I will be glorified. And Aarō held his peace.

4 And Moses called Misael and Elsaphan the sonnes of Oziel, the vncle of Aaron, and said vnto them, Come neare, carrie your brethren from before the sanctuarie, out of the host.

5 And they went to them, and carryed them in their coates out of the hoste, as Moses had sayde.

6 And Moses sayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes, Uncouer not your heads, neither rent your clothes, lest ye dye, and least wrath come vpon all the people: But let your brethren the whole house of Israel bewaile the burning which the Lorde hath kindled.

7 And go not ye out from the doore of the Tabernacle of ỹ congregation, lest ye die: for the anoynting anoynting oyle of God is vpon you. And they did as Moses sayde.

8 And the Lord spake vnto Aaron, saying,

c Some thinke that Nadab & Abihu being ouercome with drinke, did not their seruice lawfully, wher upon they thinke that this lawe of forbidding of wine & strong drink to priests was made.

9 Thou shalt not c drinke wine nor strong drinke, thou, nor thy sonnes that are with thee, when ye goe into the Tabernacle of the Congregation, lest ye die: Let it be a lawe for euer throughout your generations:

10 And that yee may put difference betweene holy and vnholy, betweene vncleane & cleane:

11 And that ye may teach the children of Israel all the statutes which the Lorde hath spoken vnto them by the hand of Moses.

12 And Moses sayd vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar and Ithamar his sonnes that were left, Take the meate offering that remayneth of the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fire, and eate it without leauen beside the altar: for it is most holy.

13 Ye shall eate it in the holy place, because it is thy duetie, and thy sonnes duetie, of the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fire, for so I am commanded.

14 And the waue brest and heaue shoulder shall ye eat in a cleane place, thou, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters with thee: For they be thy duetie, and thy sonnes duetie, giuen out of the peace offerings of the children of Israel.

15 The heaue shoulder, and the waue brest shall they bring in, with the sacrifices made by fire, of the fat, to waue it for a waue offering before the Lord: and it shalbe thine & thy sonnes with thee, by a lawe for euer, as the Lord hath commanded.

16 And Moses sought the Goate that was offered for sinne, and see it was burnt: And hee was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar, the sonnes of Aaron, which were left aliue, saying,

17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the sinne offering in the holy place: seeing it is most holy, and God hath giuen it you, to beare the sinne of the Congregation, to make agreement for them before the Lord.

18 Beholde, the blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: Ye should haue eaten it in the holy place, as I commanded.

19 And Aaron sayd vnto Moses, Beholde, this day haue they offered their sinne offering, and their whole burnt offering before the Lorde: d and such thinges are come vnto me, if I had eaten the sinne offering to day, should it haue bene accepted in the sight of the Lord:

d I haue not left this vndone of any contempt or negligence, but both my children be dead: and how could I be merie in such a wofull and lamentable case of my children.

20 And when Moses heard that, hee was content.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Of beastes, fishes, and birdes: which bee cleane, and which be vncleane.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, * These are the beastes which yee shall eate among all the beastes that are on the earth. Deut. 14.4.

3 Whatsoeuer a parteth the hoofe, and is clouenfooted, and chaweth cud among ỳ beasts, that shall ye eate.

a Ye noteth foure sorts of beastes: some chewe the cud only, and some haue onely the foote clouen: others neyther chewe the cud, nor haue the foote clouen: ỳ fourth, both chew the cud, and haue the hoofe clouen. This last onely may be eaten.

4 Neuertheless, these shall ye not eate of thẽ that chawe the cud [onely,] and of them that deuideth the hoofe [onely,] as is the Camel, which chaweth cud, but hee deuideth not the hoofe, therefore he is vncleane vnto you.

5 Euen so the Connie which chaweth ỳ cud, but deuideth not the hoofe, he is vncleane vnto you.

6 And ỳ Hare, though he chaweth the cud, yet because he deuideth not the hoofe, he is therefore vncleane vnto you.

7 And * againe, the swine, though hee deuide the hoofe, and is clouen footed, yet hee chaweth not the cud, he is vncleane to you. 2. Mac. 6. 18.

8 Of their flesh shall yee not eate, and their carkeise shal ye not touch: but let them be vncleane to you.

9 These shall ye eate of all that are in the waters, whatsoeuer hath finnes and scales in the waters, seas, and riuers, that shall ye eate.

10 And al that haue not finnes nor scales in the sea and riuers, of all that moue & liue in the waters, let them be abomination vnto you.

11 They, I say, shall bee an abomination vnto you: ye shal not eate of their flesh, but abhorre their carkeises.

12 Let all that haue no finnes nor scales in the waters, be abominable vnto you.

13 These are they which yee shall abhorre among the foules, and that ought not to be eaten, for they are an abomination: The Eagle, the Gosshauke, and the Osprey,

14 The Vulture, and the Kite, after his kinde,

15 And all Rauens after their kinde,

16 The Estritch, the night Crowe, the Coockowe, and the Hauke, after his kinde, 17 The Falcon, the Cormorant, the great Owle,

18 The Backe, the Pellicane, the Pye,

19 The Storke, the Jay, after his kinde, the Lapwing, and the Swalowe.

20 Let all foules that creepe and goe vpon all foure, be an abomination vnto you.

21 Yet these may yee eate, of euery creeping thing that hath winges, and goe vpon foure [feete:] euen those that haue not bowings aboue vpon their feete, to leape withall vpon the earth.

22 Euen these of them yee may eate: the Arbe after his kinde, the Selaam after his kinde, the Hargol after his kinde, and the Hagab after his kinde.

23 All [other] foules that creepe, & haue foure feete, shalbe abomination vnto you.

24 In such yee bee vncleane, and who so euer toucheth toucheth the carkeise of thē, shall be vncleane vntill the Euen.

25 And whosoeuer beareth the carkeise of thē, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

26 And eucry beast that hath hoofe, and is not clouen footed, nor chaweth cud, such are vncleane vnto you: euery one that toucheth thē, shalbe vncleane.

27 And whatsoeuer goeth vpon his pawes, among all maner beastes that goe on all foure [feete,] such are vncleane vnto you: & who so doth touch their carkeise, shalbe vncleane vntill the Euen.

28 And hee that beareth the carkeise of them, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the Euen: for such are vncleane vnto you.

29 And let these also bee vncleane vnto you, among the thinges that creepe vpon the earth: the Weasell, and the Mouse, and the Toade, after their kinde, 30 The Hedgehogge, the Stellio, the Lacert, the Snayle, and the Mole.

31 These are vncleane to you among all that creepe: whosoeuer doeth touche them when they be dead, shalbe vncleane vntill the Euen.

32 And whatsoeuer any of the dead carkeises of them doeth fall vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be vessell of wood, or rayment, or skin, or sacke, or whatsoeuer vessell it bee that any worke is wrought in: and it must bee plunged in the water, and it shalbe vncleane vntill the Euen, and so shall it be cleansed.

33 All maner of earthen vessell whereinto any of them falleth, shalbe vncleane, with all that therein is, and it shalbe broken.

34 All maner meate also that is vsed to bee eaten, if any such water come vpon it, shall bee vncleane: And al maner drinke that is vsed to be drunke in all maner such vessels, shalbe vncleane.

35 And euery thing that their carkeise falleth vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it bee ouen or kettle, let it be broken: For they are vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you.

36 Neuertheles, yet the fountaines and welles, and collections of waters, shall be cleane still: but that which toucheth their carkeises, shall be vncleane.

37 If the dead carkeise of any such fall vpon any seede vsed to sowe, it shal yet be cleane still:

38 But and if any water bee powred vpon the seede, and a dead carkeise fall thereon, it shall be vncleane vnto you.

39 If any beast of which yee may eate, dye, and any man touche the dead carkeise thereof, hee shalbe vncleane vntill the Euen.

40 He that eateth of the dead carkeise of it, shall wash his clothes, and bee vncleane vntill the Euen: And he also that beareth the carkeise of it, shall wash his clothes, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

41 Let euery creeping thing that creepeth vpō the earth, be an abomination, & not be eaten.

42 Whatsoeuer goeth vpon the breast, & whatsoeuer goeth vpō foure, or that hath moe feete among all creeping thinges that creepe vpon the earth: of that see yee eate not, for they are abominable.

43 Yee shall not make your soules abominable with any thing that creepeth, neyther make your selues vncleane with thē, that ye shoulde be defiled thereby.

44 For I am your Lorde God: Be * sanctified therefore, and ye shall be holy, for I am holy: and yee shall not defile your soules with any maner of creeping thing that creepeth vpon the earth: 1. Pet. 1. 15.

45 For I am the Lord that brought you out of the land of Egypt to be your God: ye shall be holy therefore, for I am holy.

46 This is the lawe of the beastes and foules, and of euery liuing creature that moueth in the waters, & of euery creature that creepeth vpon the earth, 47 That there may bee a difference betweene the vncleane & cleane, and betweene the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

The xij. Chapter.

2 A lawe howe women shoulde be purged after their deliuerance.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If a * woman haue conceiued seede, and borne a man childe, shee shall be vncleane seuen dayes: according to the dayes of the separation of her infirmitie shal she be vncleane. Luke 2. 22.

3 And in the * eight day, the flesh of the childes foreskinne shall be cut away. Luke 2. 21.

4 And shee shall then continue in the blood of her purifying three and thirtie dayes: Shee shall touche no halowed thing, nor come into the Sanctuarie, vntill the time of her purifying be out.

5 If she beare a mayde childe, shee shall bee vncleane two weekes, according as in her separation: and shee shall continue in the blood of her purifying threescore and sixe dayes.

6 And when ỹ dayes of her purifying are out, whether it be for a sonne or for a daughter, she shall bring a lambe of one yere old for a whole burnt offering, and a yong pigeon or a turtle doue for a sinne offering, vnto the doore of the Tabernacle of the Congregation, vnto the Priest:

7 Which shall offer them before the Lord, and make an atonement for her, & she shall be purged of the issue of her blood. And this is the lawe for her that hath borne a male or female.

8 *But

Luke 2.24. 8 *But and if she be not able to bring a lambe, shee shall bring two turtles, or two young pigeons, the one for the whole burnt offering, and the other for a sinne offering: And the Priest shall make an atonement for her, and she shalbe cleane.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 The priests must haue a consideration, and iudge who are lepers. 47 Of the leprous garments.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 The man that shall haue in the skin of his flesh a swelling, eyther a scab, or a glistering white, and the plague of leprosie be in the skin of his flesh, he shall be brought vnto Aaron the Priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the Priests.

3 And the Priest shall looke on the sore in the skinne of his flesh: and when the heare in the sore is turned to white, and the sore also seeme to be lower then the skinne of his flesh, it is a plague of leprosie: and the Priests shall looke on him, and iudge him vncleane.

4 If there be a white spot in the skinne of his flesh, and seeme not to be lower then the skin, nor the heare therof is turned vnto white, the Priest shal shut vp [him that hath] the plague seuen dayes.

5 And the priest shal looke on him againe the seuenth day: and if the plague seeme to him to abide still, and the plague growe not in the skinne, ỹ Priest shall shut vp [him that hath] the plague seuen dayes moe.

6 And ỹ Priest shall looke on him againe the seuenth day: then if the plague be darker, and not growen in the skin, the Priest shall iudge him cleane, for it is but a scabbe: and hee shall wash his clothes, and be cleane.

7 But if the scab growe in the skin after that he is seene of the Priest, and iudged cleane, he shalbe seene of the Priest againe.

8 If the Priest see that the scab be growen abroade in the skin, the Priest shall pronounce him [a] vncleane: [for] it is a leprosie.

a As touching his bodily disease, for his disease was not imputed to him for sinne before God: yet it was the punishment for sinne.

9 When the plague of leprosie is in a man, he shalbe brought vnto the Priest,

10 And the Priest shall see him: and if the swelling bee white in the skinne, and haue made the heare white, and there be rawe flesh in the swelling:

11 It is an old leprosie in ỹ skinne of his flesh, and the priest shall pronounce him vncleane, and shall not shutte him vp, seeing hee is vncleane.

12 If a leprosie breake out abroad in ỹ skinne, and couer all the skinne from his head to his foote whereseouer the Priest looketh:

b For it is not that contagious leprie that infecteth, but a kinde of skurfe, which maketh not ỹ flesh raw as the leprosie doeth.

13 Then the Priest shall consider: and if the leprosie haue couered all his flesh, he shall iudge the plague to be [b] cleane, because it is all turned into whitenesse, and he shall be cleane.

14 But if there bee rawe flesh on him when he is seene, he shalbe vncleane.

15 And the Priest shall see the rawe flesh, and declare him to be vncleane: for the rawe flesh is vncleane, seeing it is a leprosie.

16 Or if the rawe flesh turne againe, & change vnto white, he shall come vnto the Priest:

17 And the Priest shall see him, and beholde, if the sore bee changed vnto white, ỹ Priest shal iudge the plague cleane, and he shalbe cleane.

18 The flesh also, in whose skinne there is a byle, and is healed, 19 And in the place of the byle there appeare a white rising, either a shining white, & somewhat reddish, it shalbe seene of the Priest.

20 And if when the Priest seeth him, it appeare lower then the skinne, and the heare thereof be changed vnto white, the Priest shal iudge him vncleane: for it is a plague of leprosie broken out of the byle.

c None were exempted, but if the Priest iudged him vncleane hee was put out from among ỹ people, as appeareth by Marie the prophetisse, Num. 12.14. & by king Ozias, 2. Chro. 26.20.

21 But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white heares therein, and if it bee not lower then the skinne, but be darker, the Priest shall shut him vp seuen dayes.

22 And if it spreade abroade in the skinne, the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane, seeing it is a sore.

23 But if the spot stand still, and growe not, it is a scarre of a byle, and therefore the Priest shall declare him to be cleane.

24 If there be any flesh, in whose skinne there is a whote burning, and the quicke flesh that burneth haue a white spot, somewhat reddish, or white,

25 The Priest shall looke vpon it: and if the heare in that bright spot be changed to white, and it appeare lower then the skinne, it is a leprosie broken out of the burning, and therefore ỹ Priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing it is the plague of leprosie.

26 But if the Priest looke on it, and there be no white heare in the bright spot, and the place be no lower then the other skinne, but be darker, the Priest shall shut him vp seuen dayes.

27 And the Priest shall looke vpon him the seuenth day: and if it be growen abroade in the skinne, the Priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing it is the plague of leprosie.

28 And if the spot stande still in it, and growe not in the skinne, but is darke, it is a rysing of the burning, and the Priest shall therefore declare him cleane, seeing it is a scarre of the burning.

29 If man or woman hath a sore vpon the head or the beard,

30 The Priest shall see the sore, and if it appeare lower then the skinne, and there bee in it a yealowe heare and thinne, the Priest shall iudge him vncleane, seeing that the same fretting is a token of leprosie vpon the head or beard.

31 And

31 And if the priest looke on the sore of the fret, and it seeme not lower then the skinne, & that the heare is not blacke, the Priest shall shut vp [him that hath] the fretting sore seuen dayes.
32 And in the seuenth day, the priest shall looke on the sore: and if the fret be not growen, and there bee in it no yealowe heare, and the fret seeme not lower then the skinne,
33 He shall bee shauen, but the fret shall hee not shaue: and the Priest shall shut vp [him that hath] the fret, seuen dayes moe.
34 And in the seuenth day the Priest shall looke on the fret: and if the fret bee not growen in the skinne, nor seeme lower then the other skinne, the priest shal cleanse him: and he shall wash his clothes, and be cleane.
35 But if the fret growe in the skinne after his cleansing, 36 The Priest shall looke on him, and if the fret be growen in the skinne, the Priest shall not seeke for yealowe heare, for he is vncleane.
37 But if he see the fret stande still, & that there is blacke heare growen vp therein, the fret is healed, and he shalbe cleane, and the priest shal declare him to be cleane.
38 If there be many white spots in the skinne of the flesh of man or woman, 39 The Priest shall looke vpon it: and if the spots in the skinne of their flesh be somewhat darke and white withal, it is a freckle growen in the skinne, therefore he is cleane.
40 And the man whose heare is fallen off his head, he is balde, yet cleane.
41 And he that hath his heare fallen off on the part of his head towarde his face, is forehead balde, yet cleane.
42 If there bee in the balde head, or balde forehead, a white reddish sore, there is leprosie sprong vp in his balde head, or balde forehead.
43 And the Priest shall looke vpon him: and if the rysing of the sore bee white reddish in his balde head, or balde forehead, after the maner of leprosie, which is in the skinne of his flesh, 44 Then he is a leprous man, and vncleane: and the Priest shall pronounce him vncleane, for the plague thereof is in his head.
45 The leper in whom the plague is, shall haue his [d] clothes rent, and his head bare, and shall put a couering vpon his lippes, and shall cry, Uncleane, vncleane.
46 And as long as the disease lasteth vpon him, he shall be defiled, and vncleane: he shall dwell alone, euen without the campe shall his habitation be.
47 The garment also, that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it bee a wollen garment or a linen garment.
48 Whether it bee in the warpe or woofe of linen or of wollen, either in a skinne, or any thing made of skinne:
49 If the disease bee light greene, or somewhat reddish in the garment or skinne, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or any thing that is made of skinne, then it is a plague of leprosie, and shalbe shewed vnto the Priest.
50 The Priest therfore shall see the plague, and shut it vp seuen dayes.
51 And he shal looke on the plague the seuenth day: which if it bee encreased in the garment, whether it bee in the warpe or woofe, or in a skinne, or in any thing that is made of skinne, it is the leprosie of a fretting sore, it is vncleane.
52 And hee shall burne that garment, eyther warpe or woofe, whether it be wollen or linen, or any thing ẏ is made of skinne, wherein the plague is, for it is a fretting leprosie, it shalbe burnt in the fire.
53 If the Priest see that the plague is not growen in the garment, either in the warpe, or woofe, or in whatsoeuer thing of skinne it be,
54 The Priest shall commande them to wash the thing wherein the plague is, and hee shall shut it vp seuen dayes moe.
55 And the Priest shall looke on the plague againe after that it is washed: and if the plague haue not changed his colour, and is spread no further abroad, it is vncleane, thou shalt burne it in the fire, for it is fret inward, whether it be bare behinde or before.
56 And if the Priest see that the plague is darker after that it is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment, or out of the skinne, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.
57 And if it appeare still in the garment, eyther in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thing made of skin, it is a spreading plague, thou shalt burne that wherein the plague is, with fire.
58 Moreouer, the garment, eyther warpe or woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of skinne it bee, which thou hast washed, if the plague bee departed therefrom, it shall bee washed once againe, and then it shalbe cleane.
59 This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment, whether it bee wollen or linen, eyther in the warpe or woofe, or in any thing of skinnes, to declare it cleane, or vncleane,

[d] In signe of sorowe, and lamentation.

The xiiij. Chapter.

3. The clensing of the Leper, 34 and of the house that he is in.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 This is the lawe of the leper in the day of his cleansing: hee * shall bee brought vnto the Priest, Matth. 8. 1. marke 1. 40.
3 And the Priest shall goe out of the campe, and the Priest shall looke vpon him, and if the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper,
4 Then shall the Priest commande to take for him him that is cleansed, two liue birdes & cleane, and Cedar wood, & a scarlet [lace,] & hysope.

5 And the Priest shall commande that one of the birdes be killed in an earthen vessell, and vpon running water.

6 And he shall take the liuing birde, with the Cedar wood, the scarlet [lace] and the hysope, and shal dippe them and the liuing birde in the blood of the slayne birde vpon the running water.

7 And he shall sprinckle vpon him that must be cleansed of his leprosie, seuen tymes, and cleanse him, and shall let the liuing birde goe free into the fielde.

8 And he that is cleansed shall wash his clothes, and shaue off all his heare, and wash him selfe in water, that he may be cleane: And after that shall he come into the hoste, and shall tarry without his tent seuen dayes.

9 But in the seuenth day, he shall shaue off all his heare of his head, his beard, & his browes, all his heare shall be shauen off: And he shall washe his clothes, and also washe his flesh in water, and he shalbe cleane.

10 In the eyght daye he shall take two hee lambes, without blemish, and an ewe lambe of a yeere olde, without blemish, & three tenth deales of fine floure for a meate offring, mingled with oyle, and a[a] Logge of oyle.

11 And the Priest that maketh him cleane, shal bring the man that is to be made cleane, and those things before the Lord, at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, 12 And the Priest shall take one lambe, and offer him for a trespasse offering, and the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offring before the Lord.

13 And he shal slea the lambe in the place where the sinne offering and the whole burnt offering are slayne, in the holy place: for as the sinne offering is the Priestes, so is the trespasse offering, seeing it is most holy.

14 And the Priest shall take of the blood of the trespasse offring, and put it vpon the tip of the right eare of him that is to bee cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.

15 The Priest shal take of the Logge of oyle, & powre it into the palme of his left hande:

16 And he shall dippe his right finger in the oyle that is in his left hande, and sprinckle of the oyle with his finger seuen times before the Lord.

17 And of the rest of the oyle that is in his hand, shal the Priest put vpon the tippe of the right eare of him that is for to be cleansed, and vpõ the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote, euen vpon the blood of the trespasse offering.

18 And the remnant of the oyle that is in the Priestes hande, he shal powre vpõ the head of him that is for to be cleansed: & the Priest shal make an atonement for him before the Lord.

19 And the Priest shall offer the sinne offering, and make an atonement for him that is to bee cleansed from his vncleanesse, and then shall he kill the whole burnt offering.

20 And the Priest shall offer the whole burnt offering, and the meate offering vpon the altar: and the Priest shall make an atonement for him, and he shalbe cleane.

21 If he be poore, and can not get so much, he shal take one lambe for a trespasse offering, to waue it for his atonement, and a tenth deale of fine flowre mingled with oyle, for a meate offering, and a Logge of oyle,

22 And two turtle doues, or two yong pigeõs, such as he is able to get: whereof the one shal be for a sinne offring, & the other for a whole burnt offering.

23 And he shall bring them the eyght daye for his cleansing vnto the Priest before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, before the Lord.

24 And the Priest shall take the lambe that is for the trespasse offering, and the Logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offering before the Lord.

25 And he shall kill the lambe for the trespasse offering, and the Priest shal take of the blood of the trespasse offering, and put it vpon the tippe of his right eare that is to be cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.

26 And the Priest shall powre of the oyle into the palme of his owne left hand, 27 And the Priest shall with his right finger, sprinckle of the oyle that is in his left hande seuen times before the Lord.

28 And the Priest shall put of the oyle that is in his hand, vpon the tippe of the right eare of him that is to bee cleansed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hand, and vpon the great toe of his right foote, in the place where the blood of the trespasse offering was put.

29 And the rest of the oyle that is in the priests hande, he shall put vpon the head of him that is to be cleansed, that he may make an atonement for him before the Lorde.

30 And he shall offer one of the turtle doues, or of the yong pigeons, such as he can get:

31 Such [I say] as he is able to get, the one for a sinne offering, & the other for a whole burnt offering, with the meate offering: And the Priest shall make an atonement for him that is to be cleansed, before the Lord.

32 This is the lawe of him in whome is the plague of leprosie, & whose hand is not able to get that which pertaineth to his cleansing.

33 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

34 When ye be come vnto ỹ land of Chanaan, which a This measure in the Hebrew called Logge, is the quantitie of sixe egges full.

which I giue you in possession, and if I put the plague of leprosie in a house of the lande of your possession:

35 He that oweth the house shall come, and tell the Priest, saying, Me thinke that there is as it were a plague in the house.

36 Then the Priest shall command them to emptie the house, before the Priest goe into it to see the plague, that all that is in ỳ house be not made vncleane: & then must the Priest goe in, to see the house.

37 And he shall see the plague: and if the plague be in the walles of the house, and that there be holowe strakes, greenish or reddish, which seeme to be lower then the wall it selfe:

38 Then the Priest shall goe out of the house, to the doore of the house, and shut vp the house seuen dayes,

39 And the Priest shall come agayne ỳ seuenth day, and if he see that the plague be increased in the walles of the house,

40 Then the Priest shall commande them to take away the stones in which the plague is, and let them cast them into a foule place without the citie,

41 And he shall command the house to be scraped within rounde about, and powre out the dust that they scrape off, without the citie into a foule place,

42 And they shall take other stones, and put them in the place of those stones, and other morter to plaster the house withall.

43 And if the plague come againe, and breake out in the house, after that he hath take away the stones, and scraped the house, and after that he hath plastered the house,

44 Then the Priest shall come and see it: and if that the plague hath growen further in the house, it is a fretting leprosie in the house, it is therefore vncleane.

45 And he shall breake downe the house, and the stones of it, and the timber thereof, and all the morter of the house, and he shall carrie them out of the citie into a foule place.

46 Moreouer, he that goeth into the house all the while that it is shut vp, shall be vncleane vntill the Euen.

47 He also that sleepeth in the house, shall wash his clothes: he likewise that eateth in the house, shall wash his clothes.

48 And if the Priest come & see that the plague hath spread no further in the house, after that it is new plastered: the Priest shall iudge that house cleane, because the plague is healed.

49 And let him take to cleanse the house withall two birdes, Cedar wood, and a scarlet [lace,] and hysope.

50 And he shall kill one of the birdes in an earthen vessell, and vpon running water, 51 And take the Cedar wood, and the hysope, and the scarlet [lace,] with the liuing birde, and dippe them in the blood of the slaine bird, and in the running water, and sprinkle the house seuen times.

52 And he shall cleanse the house with the blood of the birde, and with the running water, with the liuing birde, with the Cedar wood, and the hysope, and the scarlet [lace.] Hebr. 9. 19.

53 But he shall let the liuing birde flie out of the towne into the broade fields, and so make an atonement for the house, and it shall be cleane.

54 This is the lawe for all maner plague of leprosie and fret,

55 And of the leprosie of garment and house,

56 For a swelling, for a scabbe, & for a shining white,

57 To teache when it is vncleane, and cleane: this is the lawe of leprosie.

The xv. Chapter.

2. 19 The maner of purging the vncleannesse both of men and women.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whosoeuer hath a running issue out of his flesh, is vncleane by reason of that issue.

3 And this shalbe his vncleannes in his issue: if his flesh runne, or if his flesh be stopped frõ his issue, then it is vncleannesse.

4 Euery bed whereon he lieth that hath the issue, is vncleane: and euery thing whereon he sitteth, is vncleane.

5 Whosoeuer toucheth his bed, shall wash his clothes, and bathe him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

6 And he that sitteth on any thing whereon he sate that hath the issue, shal wash his clothes, and bathe him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

7 He that toucheth the flesh of him that hath the issue, shall wash his clothes, and bathe him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

8 If he also that hath the issue, spit vpon him that is cleane, he shall wash his clothes, and bathe him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

9 And what saddle soeuer he rideth vpon that hath the issue, shalbe vncleane.

10 And whosoeuer toucheth any thing that was vnder him, shall be vncleane vnto the Euen: And he that beareth any such things, shall wash his clothes, and bathe him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

11 And whomsoeuer he toucheth that hath the issue, and haue not washed his hands in water, shall wash his clothes, and bathe him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

12 The vessell of earth that he toucheth which hath the iſſue, ſhall be broken: and all veſſels of wood ſhall be rinſed in water.

13 When he alſo that hath an iſſue is cleanſed of his iſſue, he ſhall number him ſeuen dayes for his cleanſing, and waſh his clothes, and bathe him ſelfe in running water, and ſo ſhall he be cleane.

14 And the eyght day he ſhall take to him two turtle doues, or two yong pigeons, and come before the Lorde vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and giue them vnto the Prieſt:

15 And the Prieſt ſhall offer them, the one for a ſinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering, and the Prieſt ſhall make an atonement for him before the Lorde, as concerning his iſſue.

16 If any mans ſeede depart from him in his ſleepe, he ſhall waſh all his fleſh in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

17 And euery garment, and euery ſkinne, wherein is ſuch ſeede of ſleepe, ſhall be waſhed with water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

18 And if he that hath ſuch an iſſue of ſeede, doe lye with a woman, they ſhall both waſh themſelues with water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

19 Alſo if a woman ſhall haue an iſſue, [and] her iſſue in her fleſh ſhall be blood, ſhe ſhall be put apart ſeuen dayes: whoſoeuer toucheth her, ſhall be vncleane vntill the Euen.

20 And all that ſhe lieth vpon in the time of her ſeparation ſhalbe vncleane: like as euery thing alſo that ſhe ſitteth vpon is vncleane.

21 Whoſoeuer toucheth her bed, ſhal waſh his clothes, and bathe himſelfe with water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

22 And whoſoeuer toucheth any thing that ſhe ſate vpon, ſhal waſh his clothes, and bathe him ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

23 So that whether he touche her bed, or any veſſell whereon ſhe hath ſitten, he ſhall be vncleane vntill the euening.

24 And if any man lye with her, and her ſeparation come vpon him, he ſhalbe vncleane ſeuen dayes: and all the bed whereon he lyeth ſhalbe vncleane.

25 Alſo if a woman haue an iſſue of her blood many daies out of the time of her ſeparation, or if it runne beyonde her ſeparation, let all the dayes of the iſſue of her vncleanneſſe, be euen as the dayes of her ſeparation: [for] ſhe is vncleane.

26 Euery bed whereon ſhe lieth as long as her iſſue laſteth, ſhall be vnto her as the bed of her ſeparation: and whatſoeuer ſhe ſitteth vpon, ſhalbe vncleane, as the vncleanneſſe of her ſeparation.

27 And whoſoeuer toucheth any of theſe, ſhall be vncleane, and ſhall waſh his clothes, and bathe him ſelfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen.

28 But if ſhe be cleanſed of her iſſue, ſhe ſhall count her ſeuen dayes: and after that ſhe ſhal be cleane.

29 And in the eyght day ſhe ſhall take vnto her two Turtles, or two yong pigeons, & bring them vnto the Prieſt, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

30 And the Prieſt ſhall offer the one for a ſinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering, and make an atonement for her before the Lorde, as concerning the iſſue of her vncleanneſſe.

31 Thus ſhall ye ſeparate the children of Iſrael from their vncleanneſſe, that they die not in their vncleanneſſe, if they defile my tabernacle that is among them.

32 This is the lawe of him that hath an iſſue, and of him whoſe ſeede runneth from him in his ſleepe, and is defiled therein:

33 Alſo of her that for her ſeparation is put apart, and of whoſoeuer hath a running iſſue, whether it be man or woman, and of him that lieth with her which is vncleane.

The xvi. Chapter.

2 What Aaron muſt doe. 8 Of the ſcape Goate. 14 The cleanſing of the ſanctuarie.

1 AND the Lord * ſpake vnto Moſes after the death of the two ſonnes of Aaron, when they offred before the Lord, and died. Leuit. 10. 2.

2 And the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, Speake vnto Aaron thy brother, that he * come not at all tymes into the holy place within the vaile before the mercy ſeate which is vpon the Arke, that he die not: for I will appeare in the cloude vpon the mercy ſeate. Exod. 30. 10. hebr. 9. 7.

3 But with this thing ſhall Aaron come into the holy place: euen with a yong bullocke for a ſinne offering, and with a ramme for a whole burnt offering.

4 He ſhall put the holy linen coate vpon him, and ſhall haue linen breeches vpon his fleſh, and ſhall bee girded with a linen girdle, and with a linen cap ſhall he be attired. Theſe are holy garments: therefore ſhall hee waſh his fleſh in water when he doeth put them on.

5 And he ſhall take of the congregation of the children of Iſrael, two hee goates for a ſinne offering, and a ramme for a whole burnt offering.

6 And Aaron ſhall offer his bullocke for his ſinne offering, and make an atonement for him, and for his houſe.

7 And he ſhall take the two hee Goates, & preſent them before the Lord at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

8 And Aaron ſhall caſt lottes ouer the two goates: one lot ſhall be for the Lord, and the other other for the [a] Scape goate.

9 And Aaron shall bring the goate vpon which the Lords lot fell, and offer him for a sinne offering.

10 But the goate of which the lot fell to be the Scape goat, shalbe set aliue before the Lorde to reconcile with, & to let him go as a Scape goate into the wildernesse.

11 And Aaron shall bring the bullocke for his sinne offering, and reconcile for him selfe and for his house, and shall kill the bullocke for his sinne offering.

12 And he shall take a censor full of burning coales from off the altar before the Lord, and shall fill his hande full of sweete incense beaten small, and bring them within the vayle, 13 And put the incense vpon the fire before the Lorde, that the cloude of the incense may couer the mercy seate that is vpon the witnesse, and he shall not dye.

Hebr. 9. 13. and 10. 4.

14 *And he shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and sprinkle it with his finger vpon the mercie seate Eastwarde: and before the mercie seate shal he sprinkle of the blood with his finger seuen times.

15 Then shall he kill the goate that is the peoples sinne offering, and bring his blood within the vayle, and doe with that blood as he did with the blood of the bullocke, sprinkling it vpon the mercie seate, and before the mercie seate.

16 And he shall reconcile the holy place from the vncleannesse of the children of Israel, and from their trespasses in all their sinnes: and so shall he doe for the tabernacle of the congregation that is set among thē, euen among their vncleannesse.

Luke 1. 10.

17 *And let there be no body in the tabernacle of the congregation, when he goeth in to make an atonement in the holy place, vntill he come out, and haue made an atonement for him selfe, and for his housholde, and for all the congregation of Israel.

18 And he shall goe out vnto the altar that is before the Lord, & reconcile vpon it, and shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and of the blood of the goate, and put it vpon the hornes of the altar round about.

19 So shall he sprinkle of the blood vpon it with his finger seuen times, and cleanse it, and halowe it from the vncleannesse of the children of Israel.

20 And when he hath made an ende of reconciling the holy place, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and the altar, he shall bring the liue goate,

21 And Aaron shall put both his hands vpon the head of the liue goate, and confesse ouer him all the misdeedes of ỹ children of Israel, and all their trespasses in al their sinnes, putting them vpon the [b] head of the goate, and sende him away by the hande of a conuenient man into the wildernesse.

22 And the goate shall beare vpon him all their misdeedes vnto the lande of separation, and he shall let the goate goe into the wildernesse.

23 After, Aaron shall come into the tabernacle of the congregation, and put off the linen clothes which he put on when he went in into the holy place, and leaue them there.

24 And let him wash his flesh with water in the holy place, and put on his owne rayment, and then come out, and offer his whole burnt offering, and the whole burnt offering of the people, and make an atonement for him selfe, and for the people.

25 And the fat of the sinne offering shall he burne vpon the altar.

26 And he that carried forth the goate for the Scape goate, shall wash his clothes, & bathe his flesh in water, and then come into the host.

27 And the bullocke for the sinne offering, and the goate for the sinne offering, whose blood was brought in to cleanse the holy place, shal one carrie out *without the host, to be burnt in the fire, with their skinnes, their flesh, and their doung.

Leuit. 6. 30. Hebr. 13. 11.

28 And he that burneth them, shall wash his clothes, and bathe his flesh in water, and then come into the host.

29 And this shall be an ordinance for euer vnto you: that in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth ye humble your soules, and doe no worke at all, whether it be one of your owne countrey, or a stranger that soiourneth among you.

30 *For that day shall the Priest make an atonement for you, to cleanse you, and that ye may be cleane from al your sinnes before the Lorde.

Leuit. 23. 27.

31 Let it be a Sabboth of rest vnto you, and ye shall humble your soules by an ordinance for euer.

32 And the Priest whom he shall anoynt, and whome he shall consecrate to minister in his fathers steade, shall make the atonement, and shall put on the linen clothes, and holy vestments:

33 And shall reconcile the holy Sanctuarie, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and shall cleanse the altar, and make an atonement for the Priests, and for all the people of the congregation.

34 And this shall be an euerlasting ordinance vnto you, to make an atonement for the children of Israel, for al their sinnes once a yeere. And he did as the Lorde commanded Moses.

The xvii. Chapter.

4 Al sacrifice must be brought to the doore of the taber-

[a] In Hebrue it is called Azazel, which some say is a mountaine neere Sinai, whither this goat was sent, but rather it is called ỹ Scape goate, because he was not offered, but sent into the desert, as verse 22.

[b] Here in this goate is a true signe of Jesus Christ, who beareth the sinnes of the people, Esai. 53. verse 5.

nacle. 7 To deuils may they not offer. 10 They may not eate blood.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto Aaron, and vnto his sonnes, and vnto all the children of Israel, and say vnto them, This is the thing which the Lord hath charged, saying,
3 What man soeuer of the house of Israel killeth an oxe, or lambe, or goate in ỳ host, or that killeth it out of the host,
4 And bringeth it not vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer an offering vnto the Lord before the dwelling place of the Lord, [a] blood shal be imputed vnto that man, he hath shed blood, and that man shal be cut off from among his people.
5 Wherefore, when the children of Israel bring their offerings that they offer [b] in the wilde fielde, they shall bring them vnto the Lord, euen vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation by the Priest, to offer them for peace offerings vnto the Lord.
6 And the Priest shall sprinkle the blood vpon the altar of the Lorde, which is before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and burne the fat for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde.
7 And let them no more offer their offerings [c] vnto deuils, after whom they haue gone a [d] whoring: This shall be an ordinance for euer vnto them in their generations.
8 And thou shalt say vnto them, Whatsoeuer man it be of the house of Israel, or of ỳ strangers which soiourne among you, that offreth a whole burnt offering or sacrifice,
9 And bringeth it not vnto the [e] doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, to offer it vnto the Lord, that man shall be cut off from among his people:
10 And whatsoeuer man it be of the house of Israel, or of ỳ strangers that soiourne among you, that eateth any maner of blood, I wil set [f] my face against that soule that eateth blood, and will cut him off from among his people.
11 For the life of the flesh is in the blood, and I haue giuen it vnto you vpō the altar, to make an atonement for your soules: for this blood shall make an atonement for the soule.
12 Therefore I sayde vnto the children of Israel, Let no soule of you eate blood, neither let any stranger that soiourneth among you eate blood.
13 And whatsoeuer man it be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that soiourne among you, which hunteth and catcheth any beast or foule that may be eatē, let him powre out the blood thereof, and couer it with dust.
14 *For the life of the flesh is the blood of it [ioyned] with his life: therefore I said vnto the children of Israel, Ye shall eate the blood of no maner of flesh, for the life of all flesh is the blood thereof: who soeuer eateth it, shall be cut off.
15 And euery soule that eateth it which dyed alone, or that which was torne with wilde beasts, whether it be one of your owne countrey, or a stranger, he shall wash his clothes, & bathe himselfe in water, and be vncleane vntill the Euen: and then shall he be cleane.
16 If he wash them not, nor bathe his flesh, he shall beare his sinne.

a That man shalbe charged with as much as if he had killed a man, as Esai. 66.3.
b That which they offered before of deuotion in ỳ fielde, must now by the lawe be brought to the doore of the tabernacle.

The xviii. Chapter.

3 The Israelites may not walke after the maner of the Egyptians nor Chanaanites. 6 What degrees of kinred may marrie together.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, I am the Lorde your God:
3 After the doings of the lande of Egypt, wherein ye dwelt, shall ye not doe: and after the doings of the lande of Chanaan whither I will bring you, shall ye not doe: neither walke in their ordinances.
4 But doe after my iudgements, and keepe mine ordinances, to walke therein: I am the Lorde your God.
5 *Ye shall keepe therefore mine ordinances and my iudgements: which if a *man doe, he shall liue in them: I am the Lorde. Rom.10.5. Galat.3.12.
6 None shall approche to any kinred of his flesh, for to vncouer their ‖ nakednesse: I am the Lorde. ‖ Or, shame.
7 The nakednesse of thy father, and the nakednesse of thy mother, shalt thou not vncouer: for she is thy mother, therefore shalt thou not discouer her nakednesse.
8 The nakednesse of thy fathers wife shalt thou not discouer: for it is thy fathers nakednesse.
9 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of thy sister, the daughter of thy father, or daughter of thy mother, whether she be borne at home, or without.
10 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy sones daughter, or thy daughters daughter, for that is thine owne nakednesse.
11 The nakednes of thy fathers wiues daughter, begotten of thy father, which is thy sister, thou shalt not discouer her nakednesse.
12 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy fathers sister, for she is thy fathers kinswoman.
13 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of thy mothers sister: for she is thy mothers kinswoman.
14 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy fathers brother, that is, thou shalt not goe in vnto his wife, which is thine aunt.
15 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of thy Degrees of kinred, which let Matrimonie, as it is set foorth in the xviii. of Leuiticus.

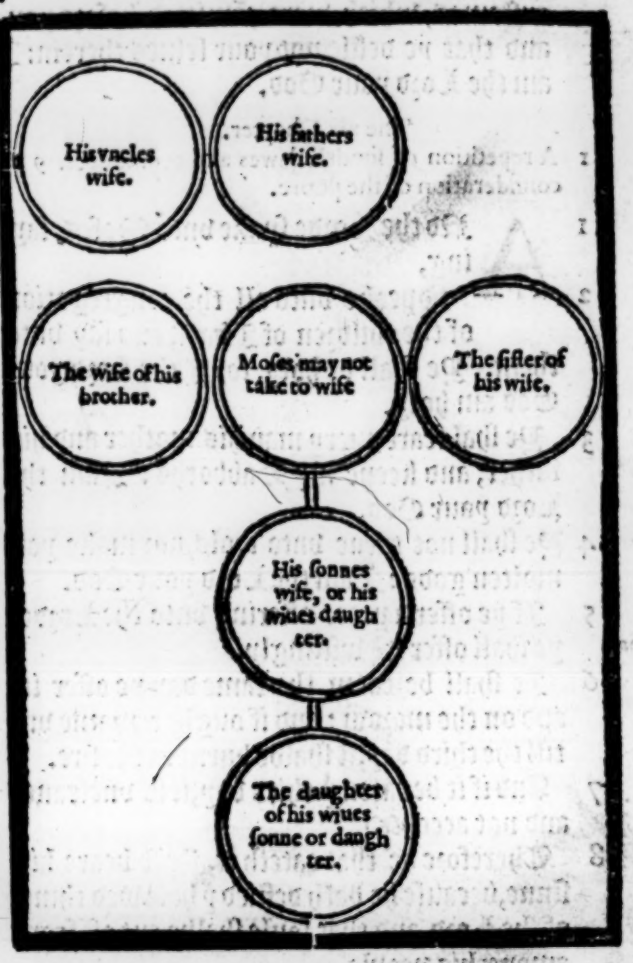
Degrees of affinitie or aliance, which let Matrimonie, as it is set foorth in the xviii. of Leuiticus.



Therefore as Moses may not marrie with women that are of his kinred or aliance, according to that which is here aboue conteined: Likewise Mary Moses sister may not marrie with the men which are of her kinred and aliance. And it is to be noted, that besides the persons here specified, are comprised the ascending and descending of the same degrees, eyther of kinred or aliance.

thy daughter in lawe: for she is thy sonnes wife, therefore shalt thou not vncouer her nakednesse.

16 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy brothers wife, for that is thy brothers nakednesse.

17 Thou shalt not discouer the nakednesse of the wife and her daughter, neither shalt thou take her sonnes daughter, or her daughters daughter, to vncouer their nakednesse: For they are her kinswomen, and it were wickednesse.

18 Thou shalt not take a wife and her sister also, to vexe her, that thou wouldest vncouer her nakednesse vpon her in her life [time.]

19 Thou shalt also not goe vnto a woman to vncouer her nakednesse as long as she is put apart for her vncleannesse.

20 Moreouer, thou shalt not lye with thy neighbours wife, to defile her with seede.

b Seede is here put for children. Leuit. 20. 2. 4 reg. 23. 10.

21 Thou shalt also not giue of thy [b]seede to *offer it vnto Moloch, neither shalt thou defile the name of thy God: I am the Lord.

22 Thou shalt not lye with mankinde, as with womankinde, for it is abomination.

23 Thou shalt lye with no maner of beast, to defile thy selfe therewith: neither shall any woman stande before a beast to lye downe thereto: for it is abomination.

24 Ye shal not defile your selues in any of these things: for in all these, the nations are defiled which I cast out before you,

25 Wherethrough the lande is defiled, and I will visite the wickednesse thereof vpon it, yea and the lande it selfe hath vomited out her inhabitants.

26 Ye shall keepe therefore mine ordinances and my iudgements, and commit none of these abominations, neither any of your owne nation, nor any stranger that sojourneth among you:

27 (For all these abominations haue the men of the lande done which were before you, and the lande is defiled)

28 Shall not the lande spewe you out also, if ye defile it, as it spewed out the nations that were before you:

29 For whosoeuer shall commit any of these abominations, the ſame ſoules that commit them, ſhalbe cut off from among their people.

30 Therefore ſhall ye keepe mine ordinances, that ye commit not one of theſe abominable cuſtomes, which were cõmitted before you, and that ye defile not your ſelues therein: I am the Lord your God.

The xix. Chapter.

1 A repetition of ſundrie lawes and ordinances. 9 A conſideration of the poore.

1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

2 Speake vnto all the congregation of the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them, *Ye ſhall be holy, for I the Lord your God am holy. Leuit.11.44. 1.pet.1.16.

3 Ye ſhal feare euery man his mother and his father, and keepe my Sabbaths: I am the Lord your God.

4 Ye ſhall not turne vnto idols, nor make you molten gods: I am the Lord your God.

6 It ſhall be eaten the ſame day ye offer it, and on the morow: and if ought remaine vntill the third day, it ſhalbe burnt in the fire.

7 And if it be eaten ye third day, it is vncleane, and not accepted.

8 Therefore he that eateth it, ſhall beare his ſinne, becauſe he hath defiled ye halowed thing of the Lord, and that ſoule ſhalbe cut off from among his people.

9 *When ye reape the harueſt of your lande, thou ſhalt not thoroughly reape the corners of the fielde, neither ſhalt thou gather the gleanings of thy harueſt. Leuit.23.22.

10 Thou ſhalt not gather thy vineyard cleane, neither returne to gather the grapes left in the vineyarde, but thou ſhalt leaue them for the poore and ſtranger: I am the Lorde your God.

11 Ye ſhall not ſteale, neither deale falſly, neither lye one to another.

12 Ye ſhal not *ſweare by my name falſly, neither ſhalt thou defile the name of thy God: I am the Lorde. Exod.20.7. deut.5.11.

14 Thou ſhalt not curſe the deafe, neither put a ſtumbling blocke before the blind, but ſhalt feare thy God: I am the Lord.

15 Ye ſhall doe no vnrighteouſneſſe in iudgement, thou ſhalt not *fauour the perſon of the poore, nor honour the mightie, but in righteouſneſſe ſhalt thou iudge thy neighbour. Deut.1.17. Iames 2.1.

16 Thou ſhalt not goe vp and downe with tales among thy people, neither ſhalt thou ſtande [a] againſt the blood of thy neighbour: I am the Lorde. [a] That is, be not the occaſion of thy neighbours death.

17 *Thou ſhalt not hate thy brother in thine heart, but ſhalt in any wiſe rebuke thy neighbour, and ſuffer not ſinne vpon him. 1.Iohn.2.11. matth.8.5. eccle.19.13.

18 Thou ſhalt not auenge, nor wayte to doe diſpleaſure againſt the children of thy people, *but ſhalt loue thy neighbour as thy ſelfe: I am the Lorde. Matth.5.45. and 22.39. rom.13.9. galat.5.14. iames 2.8.

19 Ye ſhall keepe mine ordinances. Thou ſhalt not let thy cattell gender with a contrarie kinde, neither ſowe thy fielde with mingled ſeede, neither ſhalt thou put on any mingled garment of linen and woollen.

20 Whoſoeuer lieth and medleth with a woman that is a bondmaide, betrothed to a huſbande, but not redeemed, nor freedome giuen her, ‖ ſhe ſhalbe ſcourged, [but] they ſhall not die, becauſe ſhe was not free. ‖ Or, they.

21 And he ſhall bring for his treſpaſſe vnto the Lorde, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, a Ramme for a treſpaſſe offering.

22 And the Prieſt ſhall make an atonement for him with the Ramme, which is for the treſpaſſe before the Lorde, concerning his ſinne which he hath done: and the ſinne which he hath done ſhall be forgiuen him.

23 When ye ſhall come to the lande, and haue planted all maner of trees conuenient to be eaten of, ye ſhall count the fruite thereof as vncircumciſed: three yeeres ſhall they be [b] vncircumciſed vnto you, & ſhall not be eaten of. [b] That is, vncleane for the ſpace of the firſt three yeeres.

24 But in the fourth yeere, all the fruite of them ſhall be holy, and commendable to the Lorde.

25 In the fifth yeere ſhall ye eate of the fruite thereof, that it may yeeld vnto you ye increaſe thereof: I am the Lord your God.

26 Ye ſhall not eate [fleſh] with blood, neither ſhall ye vſe witchcraft, nor obſerue times.

27 Ye ſhall not rounde the corners of your heades, neither ſhalt thou marre the tuftes of thy beard.

28 Ye ſhal not *rent your fleſh for any ‖ ſoules ſake, nor print any markes vpon you: I am the Lorde. Deut.14.1. ‖ Or, dead.

29 Thou ſhalt not make thy daughter common, that thou wouldeſt cauſe her to be a whore, leaſt the lande alſo fall to whoredome, and become full of wickedneſſe.

30 Ye ſhal keepe my Sabbaths, and ‖ feare my Sanctuarie: I am the Lord. ‖ Or, reuerence.

34 But the ſtranger ye dwelleth with you, ſhall be as one of your owne nation, and thou ſhalt loue

36 True ballances, true ‡weightes, a true Epha, and a true Hin shall ye haue: I am the Lord your God which brought you out of the lande of Egypt.

The xx. Chapter.

1 They that giue of their seede to Moloch, must dye. 6 Against such as seeke after sorcerers.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

Leuit. 18. 21.

2 *This shalt thou say to the children of Israel: whosoeuer he be of the children of Israel, or of the strangers that dwell in Israel, that giueth of his children vnto Moloch, let him be slaine: the people of the land shall ouerwhelme him with stones.

a That is, I will bend mine anger against that man.

3 And I will [a] set my face against that man, and will cut him off from among his people, because he hath giuen his children vnto Moloch, for to defile my Sanctuarie, and to pollute my holy name,

4 And though that the people of the land hide their eyes from the man that giueth his children vnto Moloch, and kill him not:

5 I will put my face against that man, and against his kinred, and will cut him off, and all that goe a whoring after him, to commit whoredome with Moloch, from among their people.

6 If a soule turne him selfe after suche as worke with spirites, and after Soothsayers, to goe a whoring after them, I will put my face against that soule, and will cut him off from among his people.

1. Pet. 1. 16.

7 *Sanctifie your selues therefore, and be holy: for I am the Lorde your God.

8 Keepe ye mine ordinances, and doe them: I am the Lord which sanctifie you.

Matth. 15. 4. prou. 20. 20. exod. 21. 17.

9 *Whosoeuer he be that curseth his father or his mother, let him dye: for that he hath cursed his father and mother, his blood be vpon him.

10 And the man that breaketh wedlocke with another mans wife, euen he that breaketh wedlocke with his neighbours wife, let both the adulterer and the adulteresse be slaine.

Deut. 22. 22. iohn 8. 4.

11 *And the man that lieth with his fathers wife, & vncouereth his fathers nakednesse, let them both die, their blood be vpon them.

12 If a man lie with his daughter in lawe, let them dye both of them: they haue wrought abomination, their blood be vpon them.

Leuit. 18. 17.

13 *If a man also lye with mankinde, after the maner as with womankinde, they haue both committed an abomination: let them dye, their blood be vpon them.

14 And if a man take a wife, and her mother also, it is wickednesse: They shall burne with fire both him and them, that there be no wickednesse among you.

15 And if a man lie with a beast, let him die, and ye shall slay the beast also.

16 If a woman go vnto any beast, & lie downe thereto, thou shalt kill the woman & the beast also: let them die, their blood be vpon them.

17 If a man take his sister, his fathers daughter, or his mothers daughter, and see her nakednesse, & she his nakednesse, it is a wicked thing, they shall be cut off in the sight of their people: he hath vncouered his sisters nakednesse, he shall beare his sinne.

18 If a man lie with a woman hauing her naturall disease, and vncouer her nakednesse, and open her fountaine, and she also open the fountaine of her blood, they shall both be cut off from among their people.

19 Thou shalt not vncouer the nakednesse of thy mothers sister, nor of thy fathers sister: for he that doeth so, hath vncouered his next kinne, they shall beare their misdoing.

20 If a man lie with his vncles wife, and vncouer his vncles nakednesse, they shall beare their sinne, and shall die childlesse.

21 If a man take his brothers wife, it is an vncleane thing: he hath vncouered his brothers nakednesse, they shall be childlesse.

22 Ye shall keepe therefore all mine ordinances, and all my iudgements, and doe them: that the lande whither I bring you to dwell therein, spewe you not out.

23 Ye shal not walke in the maners of this nation, which I cast out before you: for they committed all these things, and therefore I abhorre them.

24 But I haue sayd vnto you, ye shall inherite their lande, and I will giue it vnto you to possesse it, a land that floweth with milke and honie: I am the Lord your God which haue separated you from other nations.

25 And therfore shall ye put differẽce betweene cleane beasts & vncleane, betweene vncleane foules and cleane: Ye shall not defile your soules in beasts & foules, & in all maner creeping things that the ground bringeth forth, which I haue separated frõ you as vncleane.

26 Therefore shall ye be holy vnto me: for I the Lord am holy, and haue seuered you from other nations, that ye should be mine.

1. Reg. 28. 7.

27 *If there be a man or woman that worketh with a spirite, or that is a soothsayer, let them die: Men shal ouerwhelme them with stones, their blood be vpon them.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 At what funerals the Priests may be present. 6 Howe pure the Priests ought to be, touching themselues, and their families.

1 AND the Lorde ſayde vnto Moſes, Speake vnto the Prieſtes the ſonnes of Aaron, and ſay vnto them, Let none

Leuit. 19. 27. 5 *Let them not make baldneſſe vpon their head, nor ſhaue off the lockes of their beard, nor make any cuttings in their fleſh.
6 They ſhall be holy vnto their God, and not pollute ꝯ name of their God, for the ſacrifices of the Lorde made by fire, [and] the bread of their God they doe offer, therefore they ſhall be holy.
c Which hath an euill name, or is defamed. 7 Let them not take a wife that is a whore, or [c] polluted, nor put from her husband: for ſuch a one is holy vnto his God.

9 If a Prieſts daughter fall to play ꝯ whore, ſhe polluteth her father, therefore muſt ſhe be burnt with fire.
10 He that is the high Prieſt among his brethren, vpon whoſe head the anoynting oyle was powred, and that conſecrated his hande to put on the veſtmentes, ſhall not

14 But a widowe, a diuorſed woman, or a polluted, or a harlot, theſe ſhal he not marrie: but ſhal take a virgin of his owne people to wife.
15 Neither ſhall he defile his ſeede among his people: for I am the Lorde which ſanctifie him.
16 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
17 Speake vnto Aaron, and ſay, Whoſoeuer of thy ſeede in their generatiõs hath any blemiſh, let him not preaſe for to offer bread vnto his God:
18 For whoſoeuer hath any blemiſh, ſhall not come neare: as if he be blind or lame, or that hath a ‖ bruiſed noſe, or that hath any miſſhapen member:

21 No man that hath a blemiſh, and is of the ſeede of Aaron the Prieſt, ſhall come nigh to offer the ſacrifices of the Lorde made by fire: When he hath a blemiſh, let him not preaſe to offer the bread of his God.
22 Let him eate the bread of his God, both of the moſt holy, and of the holy:
23 Onely let him not goe in vnto the vaple, nor come nigh the altar, becauſe he is deformed, that he pollute not my ſanctuarie: for I am the Lord that ſanctifie them.
24 And Moſes tolde it vnto Aaron, and to his ſonnes, and vnto all the children of Iſrael.

The xxii. Chapter.

1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,
2 Speake vnto Aaron and his ſonnes, that they be ſeparated from the holy things of the children of Iſrael, and that they pollute not my holy name in thoſe things which they halowe vnto me: I am the Lord.

a Some think it was his ſeruant, which had his eare boared, and would not goe out free, as Exod. 21. 6.

11 But if the prieſt buy any ſoule with money, he he shal eate of it, like as he that is borne in his house: they shall eate of his meate.

12 If the Priests daughter also be maried vnto a stranger, she may not eate of the halowed heaue offerings:

13 Notwithstanding, if the priests daughter be a widow, or diuorsed, and haue no child, but is returned vnto her fathers house againe, shee shall eate of her fathers meate, as well as she did in her youth: but there shall no stranger eate thereof.

14 If a man eate of the holy thing vnwittingly, he shal put the fifth part thereunto, & giue it vnto the Priest, with the halowed thing.

15 And the Priests shal not defile ẏ holy things of the children of Israel, which they offer vnto the Lord:

16 To lade themselues with misdoing & trespasse, while they eate their holy things: for I the Lord do halow them.

17 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, & vnto all the children of Israel, and say vnto them, Whatsoeuer he be of the house of Israel, or stranger in Israel, that will offer his sacrifice for all his vowes, and for all his free will offerings, which they will offer vnto the Lord for a whole burnt offering:

‖ Or, that it may be accepted.

19 [Ye shall offer] ‖ willingly a male without blemish, of the beefes, of the sheepe, or of the goates.

20 But whatsoeuer hath a blemish, that shal ye not offer: for it shal not be acceptable for you.

Deut. 15. 20. & ccl. 35. 14.

21 *And whosoeuer bringeth a peace offering vnto the Lorde, to accomplish his vowe, or a freewill offering in beefes or sheepe, it shal be perfite to be accepted: there shall bee also no blemish therein.

22 Blind, or broken, or lame, or hauing a wēne, or skuruie, or scabbed, ye shall not offer such vnto the Lorde, nor make an offering by fire of any such vpon the altar vnto the Lord.

23 A bullocke or a sheepe that hath any member superfluous or lacking, mayest thou offer for a freewill offering: but for a vowe it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye shall not offer vnto the Lord that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut away, neither shall you make any offering thereof in your land.

25 Neither of a strangers hand shall ye offer the bread of your God of any such, because their corruption is in them, and they haue deformitie in themselues: and therefore shall they not be accepted for you.

26 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

27 When a bullocke, or a sheepe, or a goate, is brought foorth, it shall be seuen dayes vnder the damme, and from the eight day & thencefoorth, it shal be accepted for a burnt sacrifice vnto the Lord.

28 And whether it be Cowe or Ewe, ye shall not kill it and her yong both in one day.

29 When ye will offer a thanke offering vnto the Lord, offer ‖ it willingly:

‖ Or, that it may be accepted.

30 And the same day it must bee eaten vp, so that ye leaue none of it vntill the morowe: I am the Lord.

31 Therefore shall ye keepe my commandements, and do them: I am the Lord.

32 Neither shall ye * pollute my name, but I will be halowed among the children of Israel: I am the Lord which halowe you.

The xxiii. Chapter.

2 Of the holy dayes. 3 Of the Sabboth. 5 The Passeouer. 6 The feast of vnleauened bread.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, The feastes of the Lord, which ye shall call holy conuocations, euen these are my feasts.

3 Sixe dayes ye shall worke, but the seuenth day is the Sabboth of rest, an holy conuocation, so that ye do no worke therein: it is the Sabboth of the Lord in all your dwellings.

4 These are the feastes of the Lord, euen holy conuocatiōs, which ye shall proclaime in their seasons.

5 *In the fourteenth day of the first moneth at Euen, is the Lordes Passeouer.

Exo. 12. 18. num. 28. 16.

6 And on the fifteenth day of the same moneth, is the feast of vnleauened bread vnto ẏ Lord: seuen dayes ye must eate vnleauened bread.

7 In the first day ye shall haue an holy conuocation: ye shall do no seruile worke therein.

8 But ye shal offer sacrifices made by fire vnto the Lord throughout these seuen dayes: & in the seuenth day is an holy conuocation, ye shall do no seruile worke therein.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say vnto them, When ye be come into the land which I giue vnto you, and reape downe the haruest thereof, ye shall bring a sheafe of the first fruits of your haruest vnto the priest:

11 Which shal waue the sheafe before the Lord to be accepted for you: and the morow after the Sabboth the priest shall waue it.

12 And ye shall offer that day, when ye waue the sheafe, an hee lambe without blemish, of a yeere olde, for a whole burnt offering vnto the Lord:

13 And the meate offering thereof shal be made of two tenth deales of fine flowre, mingled with oyle, to be a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord for a sweete sauour: and the drinke offering thereof shall be of wine, the fourth deale of an Hin.

14 And ye shall eate neither bread, nor parched corne, corne, nor greene eares, vntill the selfe same day that ye haue brought an offering vnto your God: Let this be a law for euer in your generations, and in all your dwellings.

Deut.16.9. 15 *And ye shall count vnto you from the morowe after the Sabboth, from the day that ye brought the sheafe of the waue offering, seuen Sabboths, they shall be complete:

16 Euen vnto the morowe after the seuenth Sabboth, shall ye number fiftie dayes, and ye shall bring a new meate offering vnto the Lord.

17 And ye shall bring out of your habitations two waue loaues, made of two tenth deales of fine flowre, and that are made with leauen, for first fruits vnto the Lord.

18 And yee shall bring with the bread seuen lambes without deformitie, of one yeere of age, & one yong bullocke, and two rammes, which shal serue for a whole burnt offring vnto the Lord, with their meate offerings and their drinke offerings, to be a sacrifice made by fire, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

19 Then yee shall prepare an hee goate for a sinne offering, and two lambes of one yeere olde for peace offerings.

20 And the Priest shall waue them with the bread of the first fruites, for a waue offering before the Lord, with the two lambes: they shalbe holy to the Lord for the Priests.

21 And ye shall proclaime the same day, that it may be an holy conuocation vnto you: ye shall do no seruile worke therein, let it bee a lawe for euer in all your dwellings thorowout your generations.

Leuit.19.9. 22 *And when ye reape downe the haruest of your lande, thou shalt not make cleane riddance of the corners of the field when thou

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 Speake vnto the children of Israel, & say,

Num.29.1. In the *seuenth moneth, in the first day of the moneth shall ye haue Sabboth, euen the remembrance of blowing of trumpets, an holy conuocation.

25 Ye shall do no seruile worke therein, but offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

26 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

Leuit.16.13. num.29.7. 27 *The tenth day of the selfe seuenth moneth, is a day of reconciling, therefore shall it be an holy conuocation vnto you, and ye shall

‖That is, you shall fast. ‖humble your soules, & offer sacrifices made by fire vnto the Lord.

28 Ye shall do no worke the same day, for it is a day of reconciling, to make an atonement for you before the Lord your God.

29 For whatsoeuer soule it bee that humbleth not himselfe that day, he shall be cut off from among his people.

30 And whatsoeuer soule doe any worke that day, the same soule wil I destroy from among his people.

31 Ye shall do no maner of worke, therefore let it be a lawe for euer in your generations, and in all your dwellings.

32 Let it be vnto you a Sabboth of rest, and ye shall humble your soules in the ninth day of the moneth at Euen: from Euen to Euen shall ye celebrate your Sabboth.

33 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

34 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, The fifteenth day of the same seuenth moneth, is the feast of tabernacles, * seuen dayes vnto the Lord.

Ioh.7.37. exo.23.16.

35 The first day is an holy conuocation, ye shal do no seruile worke.

36 Seuen dayes ye shall offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, and in the eight day shalbe an holy conuocation vnto you, and ye shall offer sacrifices made by fire vnto the Lord: It is the solemne assembly, and ye shall doe no seruile worke therein.

37 These are the feastes of the Lord which ye shall call holy conuocations, for to offer sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, whole burnt offering, meate offering, ‖ sacrifices, & drinke offerings, euery thing vpon his day,

‖ Or, peace offerings.

38 Beside the Sabboths of the Lorde, and beside your gifts, beside all your vowes, and all your free offerings, which ye giue vnto the Lord.

39 Moreouer, in the fifteenth day of the seuenth moneth, when ye haue gathered in the fruite of the land, ye shall keepe holy day vnto the Lord seuen dayes. The first day shalbe a Sabboth, likewise in the eight day shalbe a Sabboth.

40 And ye shall take you in the first day the fruites of goodly trees, branches of Palme trees, and the boughes of thicke trees, & willowes of the brooke, and shall reioyce before the Lord your God seuen dayes.

41 And ye shall keepe this feast vnto the Lord seuen dayes ‖ in the yeere: It shall be a lawe for euer in your generations, that ye keepe it in the seuenth moneth.

‖ Or, yeerely.

42 Ye shall dwell in ‖ boothes seuen dayes: euen all that are Israelites borne, shall dwell in boothes:

‖ Or, tentes.

43 That your children after you may knowe how that I made the children of Israel to dwell in boothes, when I brought them out of the lande of Egypt: I am the Lord your God.

44 And Moses declared vnto the children of Israel the feasts of the Lord.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 The oile for the lampes. 15 Hee that blasphemeth must be stoned. 17 He that killeth, shalbe killed.

1 And

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Commaund the children of Israel, that they bring vnto thee pure oile Olyue, beaten for the light, to cause the lampes to burne continually:
3 Without the vaile of witnesse, in the tabernacle of the congregation, shall Aaron dresse them, both euening and morning before the Lord alwayes: Let it bee a lawe for euer in your generations.
4 He shall dresse the lampes vpon the pure candlesticke before the Lord perpetually.
5 And thou shalt take fine flowre, and bake twelue cakes thereof, two tenth deales shall be in one cake.
6 And thou shalt set them in two rowes: sixe on a rowe vpon the pure table before the Lord.
7 And put pure frankincense vpon ẏ rowes, that they may be head of remembrance, and an offering made by fire vnto the Lord.
8 Euery Sabboth he shal put them in rowes before the Lord euermore, of the children of Israel [shall they bee offered] for an euerlasting couenant.
Exo.29.33. mat.12.4. 9 *And they shall be Aarons and his sonnes, which shall eate them in the holy place: For they are most holy vnto him, of the offerings of the Lorde made by fire, by a perpetuall statute.
10 And the sonne of an Israelitish wife, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the children of Israel: and this sonne of the
* Israelitish wife, and a man of Israel stroue together in the hoste.
11 And the Israelitish womans sonne blasphemed the name of the Lord, and cursed, & they brought him vnto Moses: His mothers name was Selomith, which was the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.
12 And they put him in warde, that the minde of the Lord might be shewed them.
13 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
14 Bring the cursed speaker without the hoste, and let all that heard him, put their handes vpon his head, and let all the multitude stone him.
15 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, Whosoeuer curseth his God, shall beare his sinne.
16 And hee that blasphemeth the name of the Lord, let him be slaine, and all the multitude shal stone him to death: Whether he be borne in the lande, or a stranger, when he blasphemeth the name of the Lord, let him be slaine.
Exo.21.12. 17 *And he that killeth any man, let him die the death.
18 And hee that killeth a beast, let him make him good, beast for beast.
19 And if a man cause a blemish in his neighbour: as *he hath done, so shall it bee done to him. Mat.5.24.
20 Breach for breach, *eie for eie, and tooth for tooth: euen as he hath blemished a man, so shall he be blemished againe. Exo.21.24. leuit.19.21.
21 And he that killeth a beast, let him restore it, and he that killeth a man, let him die.
22 Ye shall haue one maner of lawe, euen for the stranger, as well as for one of your owne countrey: for I am the Lord your God.
23 And Moses told the children of Israel, and they brought him that had cursed, out of the hoste, and stoned him with stones: and the children of Israel did as the Lord commaunded Moses.

The xxv. Chapter.

2 The Sabboth of the seuenth yeere, 8 and the yeere of Iubilee.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses in mount Sinai, saying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When I come into the land which I giue you, the land shall rest and keepe *Sabboth vnto the Lord: Exo.23.10.
3 Sixe yeeres thou shalt sowe thy field, and sixe yeeres thou shalt cut thy vineyard, and gather in the fruit thereof.
4 But the seuenth yeere shall be a Sabboth of rest vnto the land, the Lordes Sabboth it shall be: thou shalt neither sowe thy field, nor cut thy vineyard.
5 That which groweth of the owne accord of thy haruest, thou shalt not reape, neither gather the grapes that thou hast left behind: for it is a yeere of rest vnto the land.
6 And the rest of the land shall bee meate for you, euen for thee, for thy seruant, and for thy maide, for thy hired seruant, and for the stranger that sojourneth with thee:
7 And for thy cattell, and for the beastes that are in thy land, shall all the encrease thereof be meate.
8 And thou shalt number seuen Sabbothes of yeeres vnto thee, euen seuen tymes seuen yeeres, and the space of the seuen Sabboths of yeeres, will be vnto thee fourtie and nine yeeres.
9 And then thou shalt cause to blow the trumpet of the *Iubilee in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth, euen in the day of atonement shall ye make the trumpe blowe thorowout all your land.
10 And ye shall halowe that yeere, euen the fiftieth yeere, and proclaime liberte thorowout all the land, vnto all the inhabiters thereof: for it shall be a Jubilee vnto you, and ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession, and euery man vnto his kinred againe.
11 A yeere of Jubilee shall that fiftieth yeere be vnto you. Ye shal not sowe, neither reape that which groweth of it selfe, neither gather the grapes

* It was so called, because the ioyfull tidings of liberte was publikely proclaimed by the sound of a trumpet.

12 For that yeere of Jubilee shall be holy vnto you: but ye shall eate of the increase thereof out of the field.

13 In the yeere of this Jubilee ye shal returne euery man vnto his possession againe.

14 If thou sellest ought vnto thy neighbour, or buyest ought of thy neighbours hand, ye shal not oppresse one another.

15 But according to the number of yeeres after the Jubilee yeere, thou shalt buy of thy neighbour: and according vnto the number of yeeres of the fruits he shall sell vnto thee.

16 According to the multitude of yeeres, hee shall encrease the price thereof, and according to the fewenesse of yeeres, he shall minish the price of it: for the [b] number of fruits doeth he sell vnto thee.

b Onely he selleth vnto thee, the profite which may rise of the ground all those yeeres, vntil the yeere of Jubilee.

17 Oppresse not ye therefore euery man his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: For I am the Lord your God.

18 Wherefore, ye shall do after mine ordinances, and keepe my lawes, and do them, and ye shall dwel in the land in safetie.

19 And the land shal giue her fruite, and ye shal eate your fill, and dwel therein in safetie.

20 And if ye shall say, What shall we eate the seuenth yeere, for we shall not sowe, nor gather in our increase?

21 I will send my blessing vpon you in ỳ sixth yeere, and it shall bring forth fruite for three yeeres.

22 And ye shall sowe the eight yeere, and eate yet of old fruit vntill the nineth yeere: vntill her fruits come, ye shall eate of old store.

e That is, they may not be quite put from the possessour, but restored in the yeere of Jubilee.

23 The land shal not be solde to [c] waste: for the lande is mine, and ye but strangers, and sojourners with me.

d That the seller may redeeme it againe.

24 In all the lande of your possession, ye shall [d] graunt a redemption for the land.

25 If thy brother be waxen poore, and hath sold away of his possession, and if any of his kinne come to redeeme it, let him bye out that which his brother solde.

26 And if he haue no man to redeeme it, and his hand hath gotten and found as much as may be sufficient to bye it out againe:

27 Then let him count howe long it hath bene solde, and deliuer the rest vnto the man to whome he solde it, that he may returne to his possession againe.

28 But and if his hande can not get sufficient to restore to the other againe, then that which is solde, shal remaine in the hande of him that hath bought it, vntill the yeere of Jubilee: and in the Jubilee it shall come out, and he shal returne vnto his possession againe.

29 And if a man sell a dwelling house in a walled citie, he may bye it out againe within a whole yeere after it is solde: within a yeere may he redeeme it.

30 But and if he buy it not out againe within the space of a full yeere, then the house that is in the walled citie, shall be stablished, as translated to him that bought it, and his successours after him, and shall not goe out in the Jubilee:

31 But the houses of villages, which haue no walles rounde about them, are counted as the fielde of the countrey: and therefore they may be bought out againe, and shall goe out in the Jubilee.

32 Notwithstanding, the cities of the Leuites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Leuites redeeme at all seasons.

33 And if a man purchase of the Leuites: the house that was solde, and the citie of their possession, shall goe out in ỳ yeere of Jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Leuites, are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the fielde of the suburbes of their cities may not be solde, for it is their perpetuall possession.

35 If thy brother be waxen poore, and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt relieue him as a stranger, or a soiourner, that he may liue with thee.

36 And thou shalt take no vsurie of him, or vantage: but thou shalt feare thy God, that thy brother may liue with thee.

37 Thou shalt not giue him thy money vpon vsurie, nor lend him thy victuals for increase.

38 I am the Lorde your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, to giue you the lande of Chanaan, and to be your God.

39 If thy brother ỳ dwelleth by thee, be waxen poore, and be sold vnto thee, thou shalt not cõpell him to serue as a bond seruant:

40 But as an hyred seruant, and as a soiourner he shalbe with thee, and shall serue thee vnto the yeere of Jubilee.

41 And then shall hee depart from thee, both he and his children with him, and shall returne vnto his owne kinred againe, and vnto the possession of his fathers shall he returne.

42 For they are my seruants, which I brought out of the land of Egypt: and shall not therefore be solde as bondmen.

43 Thou shalt not rule ouer him cruelly, but shalt feare thy God.

44 Thy bondseruant, and thy bondmayde, which thou shalt haue, shall be of the Heathen that are round about you: of them shal ye purchase seruants and maydes.

45 Moreouer, of the children of the strangers that are soiourners among you, of them shall yee buy, and of their families that are with you, which they begat in your land: these shalbe your possession.

46 And ye shall take them as inheritance for your children after you, to possesse them for an inheritance, they shal be your bondmen for euer,

euer, but ouer your brethren the children of Israel, yee shall not rule one ouer an other cruelly.

47 If a sojourner or stranger waxe rich by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by him waxe poore, and sell himselfe vnto the stranger or sojourner by thee, or to the stocke of the strangers kinne:

48 After that hee is solde, he may bee redeemed againe, one of his brethren may redeeme him:

49 Either his vncle or his vncles sonne may buy him out, or any that is nigh of kinne vnto him of his kinred, may redeeme him: either if his hand can get so much, he may bee bought out.

50 And he shall recken with him that bought him, from the yeere that he was sold in, vnto the yeere of Iubilee, & the price of his ‡ buying, shall be according vnto the number of yeeres, according to the time of an hired seruant shall he be with him.

‡ Sale.

51 If there bee yet many yeeres behinde, according vnto them, let him giue againe for his deliuerance, of the money that he was bought for.

52 If there remaine but fewe yeeres vnto the yeere of Iubilee, let him count with him againe, and according vnto his yeeres giue him againe for his redemption.

53 And he shall be with him yeere by yeere as an hired seruant: and the other shall not rule cruelly ouer him in thy sight.

54 If he be not redeemed thus, he shall goe out in the yeere of Iubilee, both he and his children with him.

55 For vnto me the children of Israel are seruants, they are my seruãts which I brought out of the land of Egypt: I am the Lorde your God.

The xxvi. Chapter.

3 They are blessed that keepe the commandements of God: 14 And cursed are they that keepe them not.

Exo.20.4. deut.5.8. pial.96.7.

1 YE shal make you * no idols nor grauen image, neither reare you vp a pillar, neither shall yee set vp any image of stone in your land to bowe downe vnto it: for I am the Lord your God.

2 Ye shal keepe my Sabboths, and reuerence my sanctuarie: for I am the Lord.

Deut 28.3.

3 * If ye walke in my ordinances, and keepe my commandements, and do them,

4 I will send you raine in due season, and the land shall yeeld her increase, and the trees of the field shall giue their fruit:

a There shall be such plenty, that corne harnest can scarcely be inned before wine harnest, and wine harnest scarcely ended before sowing time.

5 And your [a] threshing shall reach vnto the vintage, and the vintage shall reach vnto the sowing tyme: and yee shall eate your bread in plenteousnesse, and dwell in your lande safely.

6 And I will sende peace in the land, and yee shall sleepe, and none shall make you afraid: and I will ridde euill beastes out of the land, * and there shall no sworde goe thorowout your land. Iob.11.19.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shall fall before you vpon the sword.

8 And fiue of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put tenne thousand to flight: and your enemies shall fall before you vpon the sword.

9 For I will haue respect vnto you, and make you encrease, and multiply you, and set vp my couenant with you.

10 And ye shall eate old store, and carry out olde, because of the new.

11 And I will make my dwelling place amongst you, & my soule shall not lothe you.

12 * I will walke among you, & will bee your God, and ye shalbe my people. 2.Cor.6.16.

13 I am the Lorde your God which brought you out of the land of Egypt, that ye should not be their bondmen, and I haue broken the chaines of your yoke, and made you goe vpright.

14 * But and if yee will not hearken vnto me, nor will not doe after these commandements: Deut.28.15. malac.2.2.

15 And if ye shall despise mine ordinances, either if your soule abhorre my lawes, so that ye will not doe all my commandements, but breake my couenant:

16 I also will doe this vnto you, I will bring vpon you fearefulnesse, consumption, and the burning ague, to consume your eies, and render sorow of heart: and ye shall sowe your seede in vaine, for your enemies shall eate it.

17 And I will set my face against you, and ye shall fall before your enemies: they that hate you shall reigne ouer you, and ye shall flee when no man followeth you.

18 And if yee will not yet for all this hearken vnto me, then will I punish you seuen times more for your sinnes:

19 And will breake the pride of your power, & I will make your heauen as iron, and your earth as brasse, 20 And your labour shall be spent in vaine, for your land shall not giue her increase, neither shall the trees of the land giue their fruites.

21 And if ye walke contrary vnto me, and will not hearken vnto mee, I will bring seuen times moe plagues vpon you, according to your sinnes.

22 I will also sende in wilde beastes vpon you, which shall robbe you of your children, and destroy your cattell, and make you fewe in number, and cause your high wayes to bee desolate.

23 And if yee may not bee reformed by these things, but shall walke contrary vnto me:

24 Then will I also walke contrary vnto you, and and will punish you yet seuen times for your sinnes.

25 And I will send a sword vpon you, that shal auenge my couenant: and when ye are gathered together within your cities, I will send the pestilence among you, and ye shal be deliuered into the hand of the enemie.

Ezech.4.16.
b He speaketh thus, because that man is sustained and strengthened by the bread that he eateth, like as a person is sustained by the staffe he leaneth vnto.
c The scarcitie shall be so great, that one litle auen shall serue for tenne houlholds.

26 And * when I haue broken the b staffe of your bread, c ten wiues shall bake your bread in one ouen, and they shall deliuer you your bread againe by waight: ye shall eate, and not be satisfied.

27 And if yee will not yet for all this hearken vnto me, but walke against me:

28 I will walke contrary vnto you also in indignation, and will chastise you seuen times more for your sinnes.

29 And ye shall eate the flesh of your sonnes, & the flesh of your daughters shal ye deuoure.

30 I will destroy your high places, and cut away your images, and cast your carkeises vpon the bodies of your idols, and my soule shall abhorre you.

31 And I will make your cities desolate, and bring your sanctuarie vnto nought, and will not smell the sauour of your sweete odours.

32 I will bring the land vnto a wildernes, and your enemies which dwel therein, shall wonder at it.

33 And I wil strowe you among the Heathen, and will drawe out a sworde after you: and your land shall be waste, and your cities desolate.

34 Then shall the land enioy her Sabbothes as long as it lieth voide, & ye shall be in your enemies land, euen then shall the lande rest and enioy her Sabboths.

35 As long as it lieth voide, it shal rest: because it did not rest in your Sabboths when yee dwelt vpon it.

36 And vpon them that are left aliue of you, I will send a faintnesse into their hearts in the lands of their enemies, and the sound of a shaking leafe shall chase them, and they shal flee, as fleeing from a sworde: they shall fall, no man following vpon them.

37 They shall fall one vpon another, as it were before a sword, no man following vpon them, and yee shall haue no power to stand before your enemies.

38 And ye shal perish among the Heathen, and the land of your enemies shall eate you vp.

39 And they that are left of you shall pine away in their vnrighteousnesse in your enemies landes, and in the misdeedes of their fathers shall they consume with them.

40 And they shall confesse their misdeedes, and the misdeedes of their fathers, for their trespasse which they haue trespassed against me, and for that also that they haue walked contrary vnto me.

41 Therefore I also will walke contrarie vnto them, and will bring them into the lande of their enemies: and then at the least way their vncircumcised hearts shalbe tamed, and they shall willingly accept their d sinne.

d That is, the punishment for their sinne.

42 Then I will remember my couenant with Jacob, and my couenant with Isahac, & my couenant with Abraham will I remember, and will thinke on the land.

43 The land also shall be left of them, and shall enioy her Sabbothes while shee lieth waste without them: and they shall willingly accept their ‖ sinne, because they despised my lawes, and because their soule abhorred mine ordinances.

‖ Or, the punishment for their sinne.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in ỹ land of their enemies, I will not cast them away, neither will I abhorre them, to destroy them vtterly, and to breake my couenãt with them: for I am the Lord their God.

45 I will for their e sakes remember the couenant of old, when I brought them out of the land of Egypt in the sight of the Heathen, that I might be their God: I am the Lord.

e God thinketh on his mercy in the middest of his anger.

46 These are the ordinances, and iudgements, and lawes, which the Lorde made betweene him and the children of Israel in mount Sinai, by the hand of Moses.

The xxvii. Chapter.

1 Of diuers vowes, and redemption of the same. 31 All tithes are due to the Lord.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, If any man will make a a singular vowe of a person vnto the Lord, by thy estimation:

a As of his sonne or his daughter.

3 Then thy estimation shalbe [thus,] Of the male, frõ twentie yeeres old vnto sixtie, shalbe by thy estimation fiftie sicles of siluer, after the sicle of the sanctuarie:

4 And if it be a female, then thy valuatiõ shall be thirtie sicles.

5 And from fiue yeeres to twentie, thy valuation shall be of the male twentie sicles, and of the female ten sicles.

6 And from a b moneth vnto fiue yeeres, thy estimation shall bee of the male, at fiue sicles of siluer, and of the female, at three sicles of siluer.

b He speaketh of those vowes whereby their fathers dedicated their children to God, which were not of such force that they might be redeemed from them.

7 And from sixtie yeeres olde and aboue, if he be a male, thẽ thy price shall be fifteene sicles, and for the female ten sicles.

8 But if he be poorer then thou hast esteemed him, he shal present himselfe before the Priest, and the Priest shall value him: according as the hand of him that vowed is able to get, euen so shal the Priest value him.

9 If it be a beast of which men bring an offering vnto the Lord, all that any man giueth of such vnto the Lord, shall be holy.

10 He

10 He ſhall not alter it, nor change it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: And if he change beaſt for beaſt, then both the ſame beaſt, and it alſo wherewith it was changed, ſhall bee c holy.

c That is, conſecrate to the Lord.

11 If it bee any maner of vncleane beaſt, of which men doe not offer a ſacrifice vnto the Lord, he ſhall ſet the beaſt before the Prieſt:

12 And the Prieſt ſhall value it, whether it bee good or bad: and as the Prieſt ſetteth it, ſo ſhall it be.

13 But if he will buy it againe, he ſhall giue the fifth part more aboue that it was ſet at.

14 If any man dedicate his houſe to be holy vnto the Lord, the Prieſt ſhall ſet it, whether it be good or bad: and as the Prieſt hath ſet it, ſo ſhall it ſtand.

15 And when he that ſanctified it, wil redeeme his houſe, let him giue the fifth part of the money that it was iudged at thereto, and it ſhall be his.

16 If a man halowe a piece of his inherited land vnto the Lord, thou ſhalt value it according to the ſeede thereof: An ‡ Homer of barley ſeede ſhalbe ſet at fiftie ſicles of ſiluer.

‡ Corus, was an Hebrew meaſure, that conteineth thirtie of our common buſhels, euery buſhel hauing in waight 26. pound, 8. ounces.

17 If he halow his field immediatly from the yeere of Jubilee, it ſhalbe worth according as thou doeſt eſteeme it.

18 But and if he halowe his field after the Jubilee, the Prieſt ſhal recken vnto him the money, according to the number of the yeeres that remaine, vnto the yeeres of Jubilee following, and it ſhall be abated by thy eſtimation.

19 If he that conſecrated the field, wil redeeme it againe, let him put the fifth part of the price that thou diddeſt value it at thereunto, and it ſhall be his.

20 And if he will not redeeme the field, but ſelleth the field to another man, he [that vowed] may redeeme it no more:

21 But when the field goeth out in the yeere of Jubilee, it ſhall be holy vnto the Lorde, as a field ſeparate from common vſes, and it ſhall be the Prieſts poſſeſſion.

22 If a man ſanctifie vnto the Lorde a fielde which he hath bought, & is not of the ground of his inheritance:

23 The Prieſt ſhall recken vnto him what it is worth vnto the yeere of Jubilee, and hee ſhall giue the price that it is ſet at the ſame day, as a thing conſecrate vnto the Lord.

24 And in the yeere of Jubilee the field ſhall returne vnto him of whome it was bought, to him whoſe inheritance of land it was.

25 And all thy valuation ſhall bee according to the ſicle of the ſanctuarie: One * ſicle conteineth twentie Gerahs. Exo. 30.13. num. 3.47. ezech. 45.12.

26 But the firſt borne of the beaſtes, that is the Lordes firſt borne, may no man ſanctifie, whether it be oxe or ſheepe, for it is the Lords already.

27 If it be an vncleane beaſt, he ſhall redeeme it as thou ſhalt ſet it at, and giue the fifth part more thereto: Or if it be not redeemed, it ſhal be ſold according to thy eſtimation.

28 * Notwithſtanding, nothing ſeparate from the common vſe, that a man doth ſeparate vnto the Lorde, of all that he hath, whether it bee man or beaſt, or lande of his inheritance, may be ſold or redeemed: for euery thing ſeparate from the common vſe, is moſt holy vnto the Lord. Ioſ. 6.19.

29 Nothing ſeparate from the common vſe, which ſhall be ſeparate from man, ſhall be redeemed, but die the death.

30 Euery tithe of the lande alſo, both of the ſeede of the lande, and of the fruite of the trees, is the Lordes, and is ſanctified vnto the Lord.

31 And if a man will redeeme ought of his tithes, let him adde the fifth part thereto.

32 And euery tithe of oxe and of ſheepe, and of euery beaſt that goeth vnder the d rodde, euen euery tenth, ſhalbe holy vnto the Lord.

d That is, euery tenth as it riſeth by tale, whether it be male or female, without acception or reſpect.

34 And the children of Israel did according to all that the Lorde commaunded Moses, so they pitched with their standerds, and so they iourneyed euery one throughout their kinreds, according to the houlholdes of their fathers.

The iii. Chapter.

7 The Leuites go not to battaile, but minister in the Sanctuarie. 21 They pitch their tents next to the habitation.

1 THese also are the generations of Aaron and Moses, in the day that the Lorde spake with Moses in mount Sinai.
2 And these are the names of þ sonnes of Aaron: Nadab the * eldest sonne, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar. Exod. 6.23.

a Aaron his sonnes the Priests serued in the Sanctuarie in praying for the people, and offering sacrifice, & the Leuites serued for the inferior vses of the same.

14 And

14 And the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wildernesse of Sinai, saying, 15 Number the children of Leui after the houses of their fathers in their kinreds: all that are males from a moneth old and aboue, shalt thou number.
Exod. 6. 17. 1. chro. 6. 11. 16 *And Moses numbred them according to the worde of the Lorde, as hee was commanded.
17 And these were the children of Leui in their names: Gerson, and Caath, and Merari.

21 Of Gerson came ꝑ kinred of the Libnites, and the kinred of the Semeites. These are the kinreds of the Gersonites.

26 And the hangings of the court, and the curtaine of the doore of the court, which is round about the Tabernacle, and the altar, and the cordes of it, for all the seruice thereof.
27 And of Caath came the kinred of the Amramites, and the kinred of the Izeharites, the kinred of the Hebronites, and the kinred of the Ozielites: These are the kinreds of the Caathites.
28 And the number of all the males from a moneth olde and aboue, was eight thousand and sixe hundred, hauing the charge of the Sanctuarie.
29 And the kinred of the children of Caath, shal pitch on the South side of the Tabernacle.

43 And all the first borne males, rehearsed by their names, from a moneth olde and aboue, according to their number, were twentie and two thousands, two hundred and three score and thirteene.
44 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
45 Take the Leuites for all the first borne of the children of Israel, and the cattell of the Leuites for their cattell, and the Leuites are mine: I am the Lord.
46 And for the redeeming of the two hundred and threescore and thirteene, which are moe then the Leuites, in the first borne of the children of Israel, 47 a Take fiue sicles of euery head, after the wayght of the Sanctuarie, the sicle conteining twentie gerahs, a Sicles were of two sortes: the one common, the other belonging to the sanctuarie, and that of the sanctuary was double the waight of the common. The common sicle weighed two groates, & the sanctuarie sicle foure. The scripture in this place, & in the thirtie of Exodus, and Ezechiel fourtie and fiue, sayth that the sanctuarie sicle doeth weigh twentie Gerahs, which the Grecians do cal Oboles, and we in english, an halfepenie, when eight groates of our money was an ounce: and the Hebrues do think that Oboles doeth weigh ꝑ wayght of sixteene barlie cornes, 48 And giue the money, wherewith the odde number of them is redeemed, vnto Aaron and his ſonnes.

49 And Moſes tooke the redemption money, of them that were redeemed, being moe then the Leuites:
50 Of the firſt borne of the children of Iſrael tooke hee this money, a thouſande three hundred and threeſcore and fiue ſicles, after the ſicle of the Sanctuarie.

15 And when Aaron and his ſonnes haue made an ende of couering the ſanctuarie, and all the veſſels of the ſanctuarie, againſt that the hoſt remoue, then the ſonnes of Caath ſhall come in for to beare: but they ſhall not touch any holy thing, leaſt they die. And this is the charge of the ſonnes of Caath in the Tabernacle of the Congregation.
16 And to the office of Eleazar the ſonne of Aaron the Prieſt, perteineth the oyle for the light, the ſweete incenſe, the dayly meate offering, and the anoynting oyle, and the ouerſight of all the Tabernacle, & of al that therein is, both in the Sanctuarie, and in all the veſſels thereof.
17 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes & Aaron, ſaying,

24 And this is the ſeruice of the kinred of the Gerſonites, to ſerue and to beare:
25 They ſhall beare the curtaines of the Tabernacle, and the Tabernacle of the Congregation, his couering, and the couering of the Badgers ſkinnes that is on high vpon it, and the vayle of the dooze of the Tabernacle of the Congregation:
26 And the curtaines of the court, and the vaile that is in ẏ entring in of the gate of the court, which is neere the Tabernacle, and neere the altar rounde about, with the cordes, and all the inſtrumentes that ſerue vnto them, and all that is made for them: and ſo ſhall they ſerue.
27 At the mouth of Aaron and his ſonnes ſhall all the ſeruice of the childrē of the Gerſonites bee done, in all their charges, and in all their ſeruice: and yee ſhall appoynt vnto them all their burdens to keepe.

33 This is the seruice of the kinreds of the sonnes of Merari, according to all their office in the tabernacle of the congregation, vnder the hand of Ithamar the sonne of Aaron the Priest.

34 And Moses and Aaron, and the princes of the multitude, numbred the sonnes of the Caathites, after their kinreds and houses of their fathers, 36 And the number of them throughout their kinreds, were two thousande, seuen hundred and fiftie.

37 This is the number of the kinredes of Caath, [namely,] all that might doe seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, which Moses and Aaron did number, according to the commandement of the Lord, by the hand of Moses.

38 Also the numbers of the sonnes of Gerson, throughout their kinreds and houses of their fathers:

39 From thirtie yeeres olde and aboue, vnto fiftie yeeres, all that enter into the assembly for to doe seruice in the Tabernacle of the Congregation:

40 And the numbers of them throughout their kinreds, and houses of their fathers, were two thousand, sixe hundred and thirtie.

47 From thirtie yeeres olde and vp, vnto fiftie yeeres, euery one that came to doe his duetie, office, seruice, and charge in the Tabernacle of the Congregation: So the numbers of them were eight thousande, fiue hundred and foure score.

48 According to the word of the Lord did [Aaron] number them by the hande of Moses, euery one according to their seruice & charge: Thus [were] they of that tribe numbred, as the Lord commanded Moses.

The v. Chapter.

1 The leprous and polluted persons shalbe put out of the tents. 6 The satisfaction for sinne. 12 The lawe of iealousie.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commaunde the children of Israel that they put out of ỹ host euery leper, and euery one that hath an issue, and whosoeuer is defiled by the dead:

3 Both male and female shall ye put out, euen out of the host shall yee put them, that they defile not their [a] tentes among which I dwell.

4 And the children of Israel did so, & put them out of the host: as ỹ Lorde spake vnto Moses, so did the children of Israel.

5 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

6 Speake vnto the children of Israel, When a man or a woman shall cōmit any sinne that men commit, and trespasse against the Lorde: when that person shall trespasse,

7 Thē they shal knowledge their sinne which they haue done, and let him restore againe the hurt that hee hath done, with his principall, and put the fifth part of to more thereto, and giue it vnto him whome he hath trespalled against.

8 But if the man haue no kinsman to restore the hurt vnto, let ỹ trespasse be made good vnto the Lorde, and it shall be the Priests, beside the ramme of the atonement, whereby an atonement shalbe made for him.

9 And euery heaue offring that is made of the holy things of the children of Israel, which they bring vnto the Priest, shalbe his.

[a] There were three sorts of tents among the Hebrewes: The tent of the Lorde, that is, the tabernacle: the tent of the Leuites, & the tent of Israel. The lepers were excluded from them all: the impure by an issue, from the two first, & the defiled by the dead, onely from the Tabernacle of the Congregation. Leuit. 6. 3.

10 And euery mans halowed thing shall be his: whatsoeuer any man giueth the Priest, it shal be his.

11 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

12 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, If any mans wife go aside, & trespasse against him,

13 So that another man lie with her fleshly, & it be hid from the eyes of her husband, and is kept close that she is defiled, and there is no witnesse against her, neither she taken with the manet,

14 And the spirit of ielousie commeth vpō him, so that he is ielous ouer his wife which is defiled: or if the spirit of ielousie come vpon him, so that he is ielous ouer his wife which is yet vndefiled:

15 Then let the man bring his wife vnto the Priest, and bring her offering with her, the tenth part of an [b] Epha of barley meale: but let him put no oyle vpon it, nor put Frankincense thereon, for it is an offering of ielousie, an offering for a remembrance, causing ỹ sinne to be thought vpon.

16 And the Priest shal bring her, and set her before the Lord.

17 And the Priest shall take holy water in an earthen vessell, and of the dust that is in the floore of the Tabernacle, the Priest shall take it, and put it into the water:

18 And let the Priest set the woman before the Lorde, and vncouer the womans head, and put the offering of memorial in her handes, which is the ielousie offering: and the Priest shall haue bitter and cursed water in his hand.

19 And the Priest shall charge her by an othe, and saye vnto the woman, If no man haue lyen with thee, neyther hast gone aside to vncleanesse without thy husbande, then haue thou no harme of this bitter and cursed waters.

20 But and if thou hast gone aside from thy husband, and art defiled, and some man hath lyen with thee beside thine husband:

21 (Then the Priest shall charge the woman with an othe of cursing, and the Priest shall say vnto the woman) The Lorde make thee accursed and detestable for the othe among thy people, when the Lorde doeth make thy thigh to rot, and thy belly swell.

22 These cursed waters go into the bowels of thee, that they may make thy belly swell, and thy thigh to rotte. And let the woman say, Amen, Amen.

23 And let the Priest write these curses in a booke, and he shall blot them out with the bitter waters:

24 And giue the woman those bitter and cursed waters to drinke, that those cursed and bitter waters may enter into her.

25 And then the Priest shall take the ielousie offering out of the womans hande, and waue it before the Lorde, and bring it vnto the altar.

26 And the Priest shall take [an handfull] of the offering for a memorial, and burne it vpon the altar, and then make the woman drinke the waters:

27 And when hee hath made the woman drinke the waters, if she bee defiled and haue trespassed against her husbande, then shall the cursed and bitter waters goe into her, and her belly shall swell, and her thigh shall rot: and the woman shalbe a curse among her people.

28 And if the woman bee not defiled, but is cleane, shee shall haue no harme, but shall conceiue and beare.

29 This is the law of ielousie, when a wife goeth aside from her husband, and is defiled:

30 Or when the spirit of ielousie commeth vpon a man, and hee being ielous ouer his wife, doeth bring her before the Lord, and ỹ Priest shal do to her according vnto all this lawe:

31 And the man shall be giltlesse, and this woman shall beare her sinne.

b Epha containeth three bushelles. The tenth deale of an Epha containeth onely so much as fourtie egge shels can comprise. An Hin is a measure of things liquid, containing as much as twelue logs, eche log holdeth as much as fiue egge shels can holde. But Omer, or Gomer, which is also called Corus in Latine, containeth the measure of three Ephaes, that is almuch as a thousand, two hundred, foure score and ten egge shels can containe.

The vi. Chapter.

2 The lawe of consecration of the Nazarites. 14 Howe the Priests shall blesse the people.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When eyther man or woman doeth separate them selues to bowe a vow of [a] a Nazarite, to separate themselues vnto the Lord:

3 Hee shall separate him selfe from wine and strong drinke, and shall drinke no vineger of wine or of strong drinke, nor shal drinke whatsoeuer is pressed out of grapes, and shal eat no fresh grapes, neither yet dryed.

4 As long as his abstinence endureth, shall he eate nothing that is made of the vine tree, or of the cornels, or of the huske of the grape.

5 And as long as he boweth and is separated, there shall no * rasor come vpon his head, vntil his daies be out in the which he separateth himselfe vnto the Lord, he shalbe holy, & shall let the lockes of his heare growe.

6 As long as hee separateth himselfe vnto the Lord, he shall come at no body.

7 He shall not make him selfe vncleane at the death of his father, mother, brother, or sister: because that the consecration of his God is vpon his head.

8 All the dayes of his separation hee is holy vnto the Lord.

9 And if any man dye suddenly before him or hee bee ware, the head of his consecration shall bee defiled: and hee shall shaue his head the day of his clensing, the seuenth day shall he shaue it.

a The Lorde hath left free this vowe to the discretion and will of persons, without limiting any certaine time for the obseruation of it. The Hebrewe worde Nazir, whereof the word of Nazarees commeth, signifieth separate.

* Iud. 13. 5.

10 And

10 And the eyght day he shal bring two turtles or two yong pigeons to the Priest, before the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation.
11 And the Priest shall offer the one for a sinne offering, and the other for a whole burnt offering: & make an atonemẽt for him as concerning that he sinned by the dead, and shall halowe his head the same day.
12 And hee shall consecrate vnto the Lorde the time of his separation, & shall bring a lambe of a yeere olde for a trespasse offering, but the dayes that were before are lost, because his consecration was defiled.
13 This is the lawe of the Nazarite: when the time of his consecration is out, he shall be brought vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation:
14 And he shall bring his offering vnto ỹ Lord, an hee lambe of a yeere olde without blemish, for a whole burnt offering, and a shee lambe of a yeere olde without blemish for a sinne offering, and a ramme without blemish also for peace offerings,
15 And a basket of vnleauened bread, cakes of fine flowre mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread anoynted with oyle, with their meate offerings, and drinke offerings.
16 And the Priest shall bring them before the Lorde, and offer his sinne offering, and his whole burnt offering,
17 And shall prepare the ramme for a peace offering vnto the Lorde, with the basket of vnleauened bread: and the Priest shall make also his meate offering, and his drinke offering.
Acts 21.24. 18 *And the Nazarite shall shaue the head of his consecration, at the dooze of the tabernacle of the Congregation, and shall take the heare of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire which is vnder the peace offering.
19 And the Priest shal take the sodden shoulder of the ramme, and one vnleauened cake out of the basket, and one vnleauened wafer also, and put them vpõ the hands of the Nazarite, after he hath shauen his consecration.
20 And the Priest shall waue them before the Lord: & these holy things shalbe the Priests, with the waue brest, and the heaue shoulder: and then the Nazarite may drinke wine.
21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite, which hath vowed his offering vnto the Lorde for his consecration, besides those thinges that his hand can get: according to ỹ vowe which he vowed, so he must doe after the lawe of his consecration.
22 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
23 Speake vnto Aaron & his sonnes, saying,
Eccle.36.19. *On this wise yee shall blesse the children of Israel, and say vnto them, 24 The Lord blesse thee, and keepe thee:
25 The Lord make his face shine vpon thee, & be mercifull vnto thee:
26 The Lorde lift vp his countenance vpon thee, and giue thee peace.
27 And they shall put my name vpon the children of Israel, and I will blesse them.

The viii. Chapter.

2 The order of the lampes. 4 The forme of the candlesticke. 6 The cleansing and offering of the Leuites.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto Aaron, and say vnto him, Whē thou settest vp the lampes, the seuen lampes shall giue light towarde the forefront of the candlesticke.
3 And Aaron did so, and lighted the lampes thereof toward ỹ forefront of the candlestick, as the Lord commanded Moses.
4 And this was the worke of the candlestick, euen of golde, beaten out with the hammer, both the shaft & the flowres thereof was beatē out with the hammer: according vnto the paterne which the Lorde had shewed Moses, so he made the candlestick.
5 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
6 Take the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.
7 And thus shalt thou doe vnto them, when thou cleansest them, Sprinckle [a] water of purifying vpon them, and let them shaue al their flesh, and let them wash their clothes, and so make themselues cleane.
8 Then let thē take a yong bullocke with his meat offring, [euē] fine floure mingled with oile, and and another yong bullocke shalt thou take for a sinne offering.

[a] In Hebrew it is called sinne water, because it is made to purge sinne.

9 And thou shalt bring the Leuites before the tabernacle of the congregation, thou shalt gather the whole multitude of the children of Israel together,

10 And bring the Leuites before the Lord, and the children of Israel shall put their handes vpon the Leuites.

11 And Aaron shall waue the Leuites before the Lord for a waue offring of the children of Israel, that they may execute the ministration of the seruice of the Lord.

12 And the Leuites shal put their handes vpon the heads of the bullockes: and thou shalt offer the one for a sinne offring, and the other for a whole burnt offring vnto the Lord, that thou mayest make an atonement for the Leuites.

13 And thou shalt set the Leuites before Aaron and his sonnes, and waue them for a waue offering vnto the Lord.

14 And thus thou shalt separate the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and the Leuites shalbe mine.

15 After that, shall the Leuites go in, to doe the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation: and thou shalt cleanse them, and waue them for a waue offering:

16 For they are giuen and deliuered vnto mee from amõg the children of Israel, for such as open euery wombe, * for the first borne of al ỹ children of Israel haue I takẽ them vnto me.

Num.3.13. exod.13.2. luke 2.20.

17 For all the first borne of the children of Israel are mine, both man & beast: since the day that I smote euery first borne in the lande of Egypt, I sanctified them for my selfe.

18 And I haue taken the Leuites for al the first borne of the children of Israel, 19 And haue giuen the Leuites as a gift to Aaron and his sonnes, from among the children of Israel, to do the seruice of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an atonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, if the children of Israel come nigh vnto the sanctuarie.

20 And Moses, and Aaron, and all the congregation of the children of Israel, did with the Leuites, according vnto all that the Lorde cõmaunded Moses concerning the Leuites, so did the children of Israel vnto them.

21 And the Leuites were purified, and washed their clothes: And Aaron waued them as a waue offering before the Lorde, and made an atonement for them, to cleanse them.

22 After that, went the Leuites in, to doe their seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron and his sonnes: as the Lord had commanded Moses concerning the Leuites, so they did vnto them.

23 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

24 This is it that [belõgeth] vnto the Leuites: From twentie and fiue yeres olde, & vpward, they shall goe in to wayte vpon the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

25 And from the age of [b] fiftie yeeres, they shal cease wayting vpon the seruice thereof, and shal serue no more:

b The Leuites, after they were fiftie yeres old, were discharged of al painfull offices, as to beare burdens, and such like: and were after appoynted to sing psalmes, to instruct, to giue counsell, to admonish, and to keepe thyngs in order.

26 But shal minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of ỹ congregation, to keepe things committed to their charge: but shall doe no more seruice. Thus therefore shalt thou doe vnto the Leuites, touching their charge.

The ix. Chapter.

2 What time the cleane, and what time the vncleane ought to keepe the Passeouer. 15 The cloude couering the tabernacle, leadeth the Israelites thorow the wilderneſſe.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses in the wilderneſſe of Sinai, in the first moneth of the secõd yeere after they were come out of the land of Egypt, saying,

2 Let the children of Israel celebrate the Passeouer, at the time appoynted thereunto.

3 In the fourteenth day of this moneth at Euẽ ye shall keepe it in his season: according to all the rites of it, and according to all the ceremonies thereof, shal ye keepe it.

4 And Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, that they should celebrate the Passeouer.

5 And they kept the Passeouer the fourteenth day of the first moneth at Euen, in the wildernesse of Sinai: according to all that the Lord commanded Moses, so did the children of Israel.

6 And certaine men were defiled by a dead mã, that they might not keepe the Passeouer the same day, and they came before Moses and Aaron the same day,

7 And those men said vnto him, We are defiled by a dead man: wherefore are we kept backe, that we may not offer an offering vnto ỹ Lord in due season, among the children of Israel?

8 And Moses sayd vnto them, Stand still, and I will heare what the Lorde will commande concerning you.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say, If any man of you, or of your posteritie, shall be vncleane by the reason of a coarse, or be in a way farre distant from you, and from your generations, he shal keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lorde.

11 The fourteenth day of the second moneth at Euen let them keepe it, and eate it with vnleauened bread, and sowre herbes.

12 Let them leaue none of it vnto the morning, nor breake any bone of it: * But according to all the ordinance of the Passeouer let them keepe it.

Exod.12.46. iohn.19.36.

13 But the man that is cleane, and is not in a iourney, and yet was negligent to keepe the Passeouer, Passeouer, the same soule shall be cut off from his people, because he brought not the offring of the Lord in his due season: that man shall beare his sinne.

14 And if a stranger dwell among you, and wil keepe the Passeouer vnto the Lord: according to the ordinance of the Passeouer, and maner thereof, so shall he doe. Ye shall haue one lawe both for the stranger, and for him that was borne in the same land.

Exod. 40. 34. 15 *And the same day that the Tabernacle was reared vp, a cloude couered the Tabernacle, [namely] the Tabernacle of the testimonie: and at Euen there was vpon the Tabernacle as it were the appearance of fire, vntill the morning.

16 So it was alway: the cloude couered it by day, and the appearance of fire by night.

17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the Tabernacle, then the children of Israel iourneyed: & in the place where the cloude abode, there ẏ children of Israel pitched their tents.

‖ Or, worde. 18 At the ‖ mouth of the Lorde the children of Israel iourneyed, & at the mouth of the Lord they pitched: & * as long as the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle, they lay still:

1. Cor. 10. 1. 19 And when the cloude taryed still vpon the Tabernacle long time, the children of Israel a kept the watch of the Lord, & iourneyed not.

a They watched diligently to obserue all those things which God had cõmanded to be kept by his seruant Moses. 20 And when the cloude abode a few dayes vpon the Tabernacle, they abode in their tentes according to the commandement of the Lord: and they iourneyed also at the commandemẽt of the Lord.

21 And when the cloude abode vpon the Tabernacle from Euen vnto the morning, and was taken vp in the morning, then they iourneyed: Whether it was by day or by night that the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.

22 Or if the cloude taryed two dayes, or a moneth, or a yeere vpon the Tabernacle, and remained thereon, the children of Israel remayned still, and iourneyed not: and as soone as the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.

23 At the mouth of the Lorde they rested in the tentes, and at the commandement of the Lord they iourneyed, keeping the watch of ẏ Lord at the commaundement of the Lorde by the hand of Moses.

The x. Chapter.

2 The trumpets of siluer, and their vse. 30 Hobab refuseth to go with Moses.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Make thee two trumpettes of siluer: of an whole piece shalt thou make them, that thou mayest vse them, to call the congregation together, and when the campe shall iourney.

3 And when they shal blow with them, all the multitude shall resort to thee, before the doore of the Tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And if they blowe but one trumpet, then the princes which are heads ouer the thousandes of Israel shal come vnto thee.

5 But if ye blow an alarme, the hostes that lie on the East partes shall go forwarde.

6 And if ye blowe the alarme the second time, the host that lyeth on the South side shal take their iourney, for they shall blowe an alarme when they take their iourneys.

7 But when ẏ congregation is to be gathered together, they shal blowe without an alarme.

8 And the sonnes of Aaron the Priestes shall blow with their trumpets, & ye shal haue them as a law for euer in your generations.

9 And if ye goe to warre in your land against your enemies that vexe you, ye shall blowe an alarme with the trumpets, and ye shall be remembred before the Lord your God, to be saued from your enemies.

10 Also in the day of your gladnesse, and in your feast dayes, and in the beginning of your moneths, ye shall blowe the trumpets ouer your whole burnt sacrifices, & peace offerings, that they may be a remẽbrance for you before your God: I am the Lord your God.

11 And it came to passe the twentieth day of the second moneth, in the second yeere, that the cloude was taken vp from off the Tabernacle of the testimonie.

12 And the children of Israel tooke their iourney out of the desert of Sinai, and the cloude rested in the wildernesse of Pharan.

13 And they first tooke their iourney at the mouth of the Lord by the hand of Moses.

14 In the first place went the standerd of the host of the children of Iuda, according to their armies, whose captaine was Nahasson the sonne of Aminadab.

15 And ouer the host of the tribe of the children of Issachar, was Nathanael ẏ sonne of Zuar.

16 And ouer the host of the tribe of the children of Zabulon, was Eliab the sonne of Helon.

17 And the Tabernacle was taken downe, and the sonnes of Gerson & Merari went forth, bearing the Tabernacle.

18 And the hoste of Ruben went forth with their standerd and armies, whose captaine was Elizur the sonne of Sedeur.

19 And ouer the host of the tribe of the children of Simeon, was Salamiel the sonne of Surisaddai.

20 And ouer the host of the tribe of the children of Gad, was Eliasaph the sonne of Duel.

21 The Caathites also went forwarde, & bare the Sanctuarie, and the other did set vp the Tabernacle against they came.

22 And the standerd of the hoste of the children of Ephraim went forth according to their armies, whose captaine was Elisama the sonne of Ammiud.

23 And

23 And ouer the host of the tribe of the sonnes of Manasse, was Gamaliel the sonne of Pedazur.

24 And ouer the host of the tribe of ỹ sonnes of Beniamin, was Abidan the sonne of Gedeon.

25 And the standerd of the hoste of the childzen of Dan came forth (gathering all the host together) throughout their armies, whose captaine was Ahiezer the sonne of Ammisadai.

26 And ouer the host of the tribe of the childzen of Aser, was Pagiel the sonne of Ochran.

27 And ouer the host of the tribe of the childzen of Nepthali, was Ahira the sonne of Enan.

28 These are the iourneys of the childzen of Israel throughout their armies, and thus the hostes remoued.

29 And Moses sayde vnto Hobab the sonne of Raguel the Madianite, which was Moses ‖father in law: We go vnto the place, of which the Lord sayd, I will giue it you. Come thou therefore with vs, and we will doe thee good: for the Lord hath promised good vnto Israel.

‖ Or, kinsman.

30 And he answered him, I wil not go, but wil depart to mine owne lande, and to my kinred.

31 He sayde, Oh nay, leaue vs not: for thou knowest our mansions in the wildernesse, and thou mayest be to vs in steade of ‖ eyes.

‖ Or, a guyde.

32 And if thou go with vs, looke what goodnes the Lozde sheweth vnto vs, the same will we shewe vnto thee.

33 And they departed from the mount of the Lord three dayes iourney, and the arke of the couenant of the Lord went before them in the three dayes iourney, to searche out a resting place for them.

34 And the cloude of the Lord was vpon them by day, when they went out of the campe.

35 And when the arke went forth, Moses sayd, * Rise vp Lord, & let thine enemies be scattered, & let them that hate thee, flee before thee.

Psal. 67. 1.

36 And when the arke rested, he sayd, Returne, O Lozde, vnto the many thousands of Israel.

The xi. Chapter.

1 The people murmureth. 4 They desire flesh. 6 They lothe Manna. 31 It rayneth quayles. 33 The flesh raueners are punished.

1 AND when the people ‖ did impatiently, it was a displeasure in the eares of the Lozde: And when the Lozde heard it, his countenance was prouoked to wrath, and the fire of the Lozde burnt among them, and consumed them that were the vttermost of the host.

‖ Or, murmured.

2 And the people cried vnto Moses: and when Moses made intercession vnto the Lozde, the fire quenched.

3 And he called the name of ỹ place Taberah: because the fire of the Lord burnt among thē.

4 And a number of people that was among [a] them, fell a lusting, and turned themselues, and wept (as did also the childzen of Israel) and said, * Who shal giue vs flesh to eate?

a Which were of those strangers that came out of Egypt with them.

1. Chro. 10. 6.

5 We remember the fish which we did eate in Egypt freely, and the cucumbers, & melons, leekes, onions, and garlicke.

6 But now our soule is dried away: for wee can see nothing els but * Manna.

Exod. 12. 38.

7 And * Manna was as coziander seede, and to see to like [b] Bedellion.

Exod. 16. 14.

b Some calleth it a white precious stone, and some a white pearle.

8 And the people went about, and gathered it, and ground it in milles, or beat it in mozters, and baked it in pannes, and made cakes of it: and the taste of it was like vnto the taste of a fresh oile [cake.]

9 And when the deawe fell downe vpon the hoste in the night, Manna fell ‖ vpon it.

‖ Or, with it.

10 And when Moses heard the people weepe throzowout their households, euery man in the dooze of his tent, the wrath of the Lozd was kindled exceedingly, & it grieued Moses also.

11 And Moses said vnto the Lozd, Wherefoze hast thou troubled thy seruant? And wherefoze haue I not found fauour in thy sight, seeing that thou puttest the waight of all this people vpon me?

12 Haue I conceiued all this people, or haue I begotten them, that thou shouldest say vnto me, Carry them in thy bosome as a nurse beareth the sucking childe, vnto the lande which thou swarest vnto their fathers?

13 Where shoulde I haue flesh to giue vnto all this people which weepe before mee, saying, Giue vs flesh, that we may eate?

14 I am not able to beare all this people alone, seeing it is too heauy for me.

15 If thou deale thus with me, kill me, I pray thee, if I haue found fauour in thy sight, that I see not my wretchednesse.

16 And the Lozde sayde vnto Moses, Gather vnto me threescore and ten men, of the elders of Israel, which thou knowest that they are the elders of the people & officers ouer them: and thou shalt bring them vnto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stande there with thee:

17 And I wil come downe and talke with thee there, and [b] take of the spirite which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shall beare the burden of the people with thee, least thou be constrayned to beare it alone.

b That is, I will distribute my spirite among them, as I haue done to thee. Exo. 16.

18 And say thou vnto the people, Be hallowed against to morowe, and ye shall eate flesh: for your whyning is in the eares of the Lord, seeing ye sayde, Who shall giue vs flesh to eate? we were well in Egypt: therefore the Lozde wil giue you flesh, and ye shall eate.

19 Yee shall not eate one day, nor two, nor fiue dayes, neither ten, nor twentie dayes:

20 But a whole moneth, vntil it come out at the nostrels of you, and it shall be lothsome vnto you, because that ye haue cast the Lozde aside which is among you, & haue wept before him, saying, saying, Why came we thus out of Egypt?

21 And Moses sayd, Sixe hundred thousande footemen are there of the people amõg which I am, and thou hast sayde, I will giue them flesh, that they may eate a whole moneth.
John 6.7. 22 *Shall ỹ sheepe & the oxen be slaine for thẽ, to finde them? eyther shal all the fish of the sea be gathered together for them, to suffise thẽ?
Isa.59.1. 23 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, *Is the Lords hand waxed short? Thou shalt see now whether my worde shall come to passe vnto thee, or not.
24 And Moses went out, and tolde the people the saying of the Lord, and gathered the three score and ten Elders of the people, & set them rounde about the Tabernacle.
25 And the Lorde came downe in a cloude, and spake vnto him, & tooke of the spirit that was vpon him, and gaue it vnto the threescore and ten Elders: And when the spirit rested vpon them, c they prophecied, and did not cease.
c The Hebrues do expounde this worde prophecie, to sing Psalmes and giue prayses.
26 But there remayned two of the men in the hoste, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: and the spirit rested vpon them (and they were of them that were written, and went not out vnto the Tabernacle) and they prophecied in the host.
27 And there ranne a yong man, and told Moses, and sayd, Eldad and Medad do prophecie in the hoste.
28 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun the seruant of Moses, one of his yong men, answered, and sayd, My lord Moses, forbid them.
29 And Moses sayd vnto him, Enuyest thou for my sake? Would God that all the Lords people could prophecie, and that the Lord would put his spirit vpon them.
30 And Moses gate him into the hoste, he, and the Elders of Israel.
Exod.16.13. psal.77.26. 31 And there went foorth a *winde from the Lorde, and brought quayles from the sea, and let them fall about the host, euen a dayes iourney round about on euery side of the host, and [they did flye in the ayre] as it were two cubites high ouer the earth.
32 And the people stoode vp all that day, and all that night, and all the next day, and they gathered quayles: And he that gathered litle, gathered ten Homers full: & they spread them abroade for their vse round about the host.
Psal.7.31. 33 And while the *flesh was yet betweene their teeth, and yer it was chewed vp, the wrath of the Lorde was kindeled against the people, and the Lord smote the people with an exceeding great plague.
Num.33.17. 34 And he called the name of the place, *The graues of lust: because they buryed the people that lusted there.
35 And the people tooke their iourney from the graues of lust, vnto Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Aaron and Marie grudge against Moses. 10 Marie is stricken with leprosie, & healed at the prayer of Moses.

1 AND ‖ Marie and Aaron spake against Moses, because of the woman of Ethiopia which he had taken: for he had taken a to wife one of Ethiopia. ‖ Or, Miriam.
a Zipporah was a Madianite, & because Midian bordered on Ethiopia, it is sometime in the scripture comprehended vnder this name.
2 And they sayde, Hath the Lord in deede spoken onely through Moses? Hath he not spoken also by vs? And the Lord heard it.
3 (But Moses was a very meeke man, aboue all the men of the earth.)
4 And the Lorde spake at once vnto Moses, vnto Aaron, and to Marie, Come out ye three vnto the Tabernacle of the Congregation. And they came out all three.
5 And the Lorde came downe in the pillar of the cloude, and stoode in the doore of the Tabernacle, and called Aaron & Marie: and they went out both of them.
6 And he sayd, Heare my wordes: If there be a Prophet of the Lorde among you, I will be knowen of him in a vision, and wil speake vnto him in a dreame.
7 My *seruãt Moses is not so, which is faithfull in all mine house. Heb.3.2.
8 Unto him will I speake mouth to mouth in a vision, not in darke speaches & similitudes of the Lord shal he see: Wherefore then were ye not afraid to speake against my seruãt Moses?
9 And ỹ Lord was moued vnto wrath against them, and he went his way.
10 And the cloude departed from the Tabernacle, & behold, Marie was become leprous as it were snow: And Aaron looked vpõ Marie, and beholde, shee was leprous.
11 And Aaron said vnto Moses, Alas my lord, I beseeche thee, put not the sinne vpon vs, which we haue foolishly cõmitted and sinned.
12 Oh, let her not be as one dead, of whom the flesh is halfe consumed when he commeth out of his mothers wombe.
13 And Moses cryed vnto the Lorde, saying, Heale her now, O God, I beseech thee.
14 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, If her father had b spit in her face, should shee not be ashamed seuen dayes? Let her be shut out of the hoste seuen dayes, and after that let her be receiued in againe.
b If her father vpon displeasure should spit in her face, she may not presume to come into his presence by the space of seuen dayes: howe much more shall she not presume to come vnto me?
15 And Marie was shut out of the hoste seuen dayes: and the people remoued not till Marie was brought in againe.
16 And afterwarde the people remoued from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wildernesse of Pharan.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 Certaine men are sent to search the land of Chanaan. 24 They bring of the fruite of the land.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Send men out to searche the lande

of

of Chanaan, which I giue vnto the children of Iſrael: of euery tribe of their fathers ſhall ye ſende a man, and let them all be ſuch as are rulers among them.

3 And Moſes at the commaundement of the Lorde, * ſent forth out of the wildernesse of Pharan, ſuch men as were all heads of the children of Iſrael. Deut.12.23.

4 Their names are theſe. Of the tribe of Ruben, Sammua the ſonne of Zacur.

5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Saphat the ſonne of Hori.

6 Of the tribe of Iuda, Caleb the ſonne of Iephune.

7 Of the tribe of Iſachar, Igal the ſonne of Ioſeph.

8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Oſea the ſonne of Nun.

9 Of the tribe of Beniamin, Palti the ſonne of Raphu.

10 Of the tribe of Zabulon, Gaddiel the ſonne of Sodi.

11 Of the tribe of Ioſeph, namely, of the tribe of Manaſſe, Gaddi the ſonne of Suſi.

12 Of the tribe of Dan, Amiel the ſonne of Gemalli.

13 Of the tribe of Aſer, Sethur the ſonne of Michael.

14 Of the tribe of Nephthali, Nahabi the ſonne of Vaphſi.

15 Of the tribe of Gad, Guel the ſonne of Machi.

16 Theſe are the names of the men which Moſes ſent to ſpye out the lande: And Moſes called the name of Oſea the ſonne of Nun, Ioſuah.

17 And Moſes ſent them forth to ſpie out the lande of Chanaan, and ſayde vnto them, Get you vp this way Southwarde, that ye may go vp into the high countrey,

18 And ſee the land what maner thing it is, and the people that dwelleth therin, whether they be ſtrong or weake, either fewe or many:

19 And what the lande is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad, and what maner of cities they be that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tentes, or walled townes:

20 And what maner of lande that is, whether it be fatte or leane, and whether there be trees therein, or not. Be of good courage, and bring of the fruite of the land: And it was about the time that grapes are firſt ripe.

21 And ſo they went vp, and ſearched out the land, from the wildernesse of Zin, vnto Rehob, as men come to Hemath.

22 And they aſcended vnto the South, and came vnto Hebron, where Ahiman was, and Seſai, and Thalmai, the ſonnes of Anac. Hebron was built ſeuen yeeres before Zoan in Egypt.

23 *And they came vnto the riuer of Eſcol, and cut downe there a branche with one cluſter of grapes, and twayne bare it vpon a ſtaffe: and [they brought] alſo of the pomegranates, and of the figges. Deut.1.24.

24 And the place was called the riuer Eſcol, becauſe of the cluſter of grapes which the children of Iſrael cut downe thence.

25 And they turned backe againe from ſearching of the land after fourtie dayes.

26 And they went, and came to Moſes and Aaron, and vnto all the multitude of the children of Iſrael in the wildernesse of Pharan, to Cades, and brought them worde, and alſo vnto all the congregation, and ſhewed them the fruite of the lande.

27 And they tolde him, and ſayd, We came vnto the lande whither thou ſenteſt vs, and ſurely it floweth with milke and hony, and here is of the fruite of it.

28 Neuertheleſſe, the people bee ſtrong that dwell in the lande, and the cities are walled and exceeding great: and moreouer, we ſawe the children of Anac there.

29 The Amalechites dwel in the South countrey: and the Hethites, and the Iebuſites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountaines: and the Chanaanites dwell by the ſea, and by the coaſt of Iordane.

30 And Caleb ſtilled the people before Moſes, ſaying, Let vs goe vp at once, and poſſeſſe it, for we be able to ouercome it.

31 But the men that went vp with him, ſayde, We be not able to go vp againſt the people, for they are ſtronger then we.

32 And they brought vp an euill report of the land which they had ſearched, ſaying vnto the children of Iſrael, The lande which we haue gone thorow to ſearche it out, is a lande that [a]eateth vp the inhabitours therof, and the people that we ſaw in it, are men of a great ſtature.

a The Giants were ſo cruell, that they ſpoyled and killed one another, and thoſe that came vnto them.

33 And there we ſaw alſo Giants, the children of Anac, [which come] of the Giants: and we ſeemed in our ſight as it were Graſhoppers, and ſo we did in their ſight.

The xiiii. Chapter.

2 The people murmure againſt Moſes and Aaron. 10 They would haue ſtoned Caleb and Ioſuah.

1 AND all the multitude of the people cryed out, and wept throughout that night.

2 And all the children of Iſrael murmured againſt Moſes and Aaron: and the whole congregation ſayde vnto them, Would God that we had dyed in the land of Egypt, either that we had dyed in this wildernesse.

3 Wherefore hath the Lorde brought vs vnto this land to fall vpon the ſworde, and that our wyues and our children ſhoulde be a pray: Were it not better that wee returne vnto Egypt againe:

4 And they ſayd one to another, Let vs make a captaine, and returne vnto Egypt againe.

5 Then

a Lamenting the people, and praying for them.

5 Then Moſes and Aaron [a] fel on their faces, before all the aſſemblie of the congregation of the children of Iſrael.

Eccle.46.9. 1.mac.2.56.

6 * And Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun, and Caleb the ſonne of Iephune [which were] of them that ſearched the land, rent their clothes:

7 And ſpake vnto all the company of the childrē of Iſrael, ſaying, The land which we walked thorowe to ſearch it, is a very good land.

8 If the Lord haue a loue to vs, he will bring vs into this land, and giue it vs, which is ſuch a land as floweth with milke and hony.

9 But in any wiſe rebell not yee againſt the Lord, neither feare the people of the lande, for they are but [b] bread for vs: Their ſhielde is departed from them, and the Lorde is with vs: feare them not therefore.

b We ſhal eaſily ouercome them.

10 But all the congregation bade ſtone them with ſtones: and the glory of the Lorde appeared in the Tabernacle of the congregation, before all the children of Iſrael.

11 And the Lord ſayd vnto Moſes, Howe long do this people prouoke me, and how long wil it be yer they beleeue mee, for all the ſignes which I haue ſhewed among them?

12 I will ſmite them with the peſtilence, and deſtroy them, and will make of thee a greater nation, and mightier then they.

Exod.32.12. 13 And * Moſes ſaide vnto the Lord, Then the Egyptians ſhall heare it (for thou broughteſt this people in thy might from among them)

14 And it wil be tolde to the inhabiters of this lande alſo: for they haue heard likewiſe, that thou Lord art among this people, & that thou

Exod.13.21. Lord art ſeene face to face, & that thy * cloude ſtandeth ouer them, and that thou goeſt before them by day time in a pillar of a cloude, and in a pillar of fire by night.

15 If thou ſhalt kil all this people, as they were but one man, then the nations which haue heard the ſame of thee, will ſay, Deut.9.28. 16 *Becauſe the Lorde is not able to bring in this people into the land which he ſware vnto them, therefore he hath ſlayne them in the wilderneſſe.

17 And nowe, I beſeeche thee, let the power of my Lord be great, according as thou haſt ſpoken, ſaying, Pſal.102.8. 18 * The Lorde is long yer he be angry, and of great mercy, and forgiueth iniquitie & ſinne, and ‖leaueth no man innocent, * and viſiteth the vnrighteouſneſſe of the fathers vpon the children in the third and fourth generation.

‖Or, doeth pardon, and doeth not pardon.

Exod.34.7.

19 Be mercifull, I beſeech thee, vnto the ſinne of this people, according vnto thy great mercie, as thou haſt forgiuen this people from Egypt, euen vntill nowe.

20 And the Lord ſayde, I haue forgiuen it, according to thy requeſt.

21 But as truely as I liue, all the earth ſhall be filled with the glory of the Lord.

22 But al thoſe men which haue ſeene my glorie, and my miracles which I did in Egypt, and in the wildernelle, and haue tempted mee nowe this ten times, and haue not hearkened vnto my voyce, 23 Shall not ſee the land which I ſware vnto their fathers, neyther ſhall any of them that prouoked me, ſee it.

24 But my * ſeruant Caleb, becauſe he had an other maner of ſpirite (and becauſe he hath followed me vnto the vtmoſt) him will I bring into the land which he hath walked in, and his ſeede ſhall inherite it. Ioſu.14.6.

25 And alſo the Amalechites, & Chanaanites remaine in the valley: To morow turne you, and get you into the wildernelle, by the way of the red ſea.

26 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moſes and Aaron, ſaying, 27 *How long doeth this euill multitude murmure againſt me? I haue heard the murmurings of the children of Iſrael with the which they murmure againſt me. Pſal.105.26.

28 Tell them therefore, As truely as I liue, ſayth the Lord, I will do vnto you as ye haue ſpoken in mine eares:

29 Your carkeiſes ſhall fall in the wildernelle, and all you that were tolde throughout your nombers, from twentie yeeres & aboue, which haue murmured againſt me,

30 Shall not come into the land, ouer which I lifted vp mine hand to make you dwell therein, ſaue Caleb the ſonne of Iephune, and Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun.

31 But your children which ye ſayd ſhould be a pray, them will I bring in, & they ſhall know the land which ye haue refuſed.

32 And your carkeiſes ſhall fall in this wildernelle.

33 And your children ſhall wander in the wildernelle fourtie yeeres, and ſuffer for your [c] whoredome, vntill your carkeiſes be waſted in the wildernelle.

c That is, their infidelitie & diſobedience againſt God.

34 After the nomber of the dayes in which yee ſearched out the land, euen fourtie dayes (euery day for a yeere) ſhall ye beare your vnrighteouſneſſe, euen * fourtie yeeres, and ye ſhall know [d] my breache of promiſe. Ezec.4.6.

d You ſhall vnderſtande whether my promiſe be true or no.

35 I the Lord haue ſaide that I will doe it vnto all this euill congregation, that are gathered together againſt me: For in this wilderneſſe they ſhalbe conſumed, and there they ſhal dye.

36 And the men which Moſes ſent to ſearche the lande, and which (when they came againe) made all the people to murmure againſt him, and brought vp a ſlaunder vpon the lande:

37 Euen thoſe men that did bring vp that ſlaunder vpon it, as though it had bene euil, * dyed in a great plague before the Lord. 1.Cor.10.10.

38 But Ioſuah the ſonne of Nun, and Caleb the the sonne of Iephune, which were of the men that went to search the land, liued still.

39 And Moses tolde these sayings vnto all the children of Israel, and the people tooke great sorowe.

Deut. 1. 41.

40 *And they rose vp early in the morning, and gate them vp into the top of the mountaine, saying, Loe, we be here, and will goe vp vnto the place of which the Lorde sayde: e For we haue sinned.

e They confesse they sinned by rebelling against God, but consider not they offend in going vp without Gods commandement.

41 And Moses sayd, Wherefore transgresse ye thus the worde of the Lorde: it will not come well to passe.

42 Goe not vp therefore, for the Lorde is not among you, that ye be not slayne before your enemies.

f Be ready to come against you.

43 For the Amalechites and the Chanaanites f are there before you, and ye wil fall vpon the sworde, because ye are turned away from the Lord, and the Lord will not be with you.

44 But they presumed obstinately to go vp into the hill top: Neuertheless, the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and Moses, departed not out of the host.

45 Then the Amalechites & the Chanaanites which dwelt in that hil, came downe, & smote them, and consumed them vnto Horma.

The xv. Chapter.

What maner of offerings the Israelites shoulde offer when they enter into the land of promise. 36 The man stoned.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye be come into the lande of your habitations, which I giue vnto you:

3 And will make an offering by fire vnto the Lord, namely, a whole burnt offering, or a sacrifice to fulfill a vowe, or a free offering, or in your principal feasts, to make a sweete sauor vnto the Lord of the heard, or of the flocke:

4 Then let him that offereth his offering vnto the Lord, bring also a meate offring of a tenth deale of floure, mingled with the fourth part of an Hin of oyle.

5 And the fourth part of an Hin of wine for a drinke offering shalt thou prepare, with the whole burnt offering, or any other offering, for one Lambe.

6 Or if it be a ramme, thou shalt prepare for a meate offering two tenth deales of floure, mingled with the third part of an Hin of oyle.

7 And for a drinke offring, thou shalt offer the thirde part of an Hin of wine, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

8 And when thou preparest a bullocke for a whole burnt offering, or for a sacrifice, to fulfill a vowe or peace offering vnto the Lord:

9 Let him bring with a bullocke a meate offering of three tenth deales of floure, mingled with halfe an Hin of oyle.

10 And thou shalt bring for a drinke offering halfe an Hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

11 After this maner shall it be done for a bullocke, or for a ramme, or for a lambe, or a kyd, 12 According to the number that ye shall prepare, so shall ye doe to euery one according to their number.

13 All that are borne of ỳ countrie, shal do these things after this maner, to offer an offering made by fire of a sweete sauour vnto ỳ Lorde.

14 And if a stranger soiourne with you, or whosoeuer be among you in your generations, & wil offer an offering made by fire of a sweete sauour vnto the Lord: as ye do, so he shall do.

15 One ordinance shall be both for you of the congregation, and also for the stranger that dwelleth [with you:] It shalbe an ordinance for euer in your generations: as ye are, so shal the stranger be before the Lord.

16 One lawe, and one maner shal serue both for you, & for ỳ stranger that soiourneth with you.

17 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

18 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye be come into the land to the which I bring you,

19 Then when ye will eate of the bread of the lande, ye shall offer vp an heaue offering vnto the Lorde.

20 Yee shall offer vp a cake of the first of your dough for an heaue offring: as ye do the heaue offering of the barne, so ye shal heaue it.

21 Of the first of your dough ye shal giue vnto ỳ Lord an heaue offring in your generations.

22 And if ye haue erred, & obserue not all these commandements which the Lorde hath spoken vnto Moses,

23 Euen all that the Lorde hath commanded you by the hand of Moses, from the [first] day that the Lord commanded Moses, and henceforward, among your generations:

24 If ought be cõmitted ignorantly of the cõgregation, all the multitude shall offer a bullocke for a whole burnt offring, to be a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, with the meate offring & drinke offring thereto, according to the maner, and an hee goate for a sinne offering.

25 And the Priest shall make an atonement for all the multitude of the children of Israel, and it shall be forgiuen them, for it is ignorance: & they shal bring their offring, a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, and their sinne offering before the Lord for their ignorance.

26 And it shall be forgiuen vnto all the congregation of the children of Israel, and vnto the stranger that dwelleth among you, seeing all the people were in ignorance.

27 If any soule sinne through ignorance, hee shal bring a shee goate of a yeere old for a sinne offering.

28 And

28 And the Priest shall make an atonement for the soule that sinneth ignorantly, when hee sinneth by ignorance before the Lord, to reconcile him, & that it may be forgiuen him.

29 And both thou that art borne of the children of Israel, and the stranger that dwelleth among you, shall haue one lawe, who so doeth sinne through ignorance.

a The Hebrue, by an high hand, that is, boldly, arrogantly, & contemptuously.

30 But the soule that doeth ought a presumptuously, whether he bee borne in the land, or a stranger, the same blasphemeth the Lord: and that soule shall be cut off from among his people.

31 Because he hath despised the worde of the Lord, and hath broken his commaundement, that soule therefore shal be vtterly cut off, and his b sinne shalbe vpon him.

b That is, he shal suffer for his iniquitie.

32 And while the children of Israel were in the wildernesse, they found a man that gathered stickes vpon the Sabboth day.

33 And they that found him gathering stickes, brought him vnto Moses and Aaron, and vnto all the congregation.

34 And they put him in warde, seeing it was not declared what should be done to him.

35 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Let the man die, and let all the multitude stone him with stones without the hoste.

36 And all the multitude brought him without the hoste, and stoned him with stones, and hee died as the Lord commanded Moses.

37 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

38 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and bid *them that they make them fringes in ỹ borders of their garments thorowout their generations, and put vpon the fringe of the borders a riband of blewe silke.

Deut. 22. 12.

39 And the fringe shal be vnto you to looke vpon, that ye may remember all the commandements of the Lord, and do them: and that ye seeke not after your owne heart, or your own eies, after the which ye vse to go a whoring.

40 But ye shall remember rather, and do all my commaundements, and bee holy vnto your God.

41 I am the Lorde your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, for to bee your God: I am the Lord your God.

The xvi. Chapter.

30 The rebellion of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram, whom the earth swalowed vp quicke.

1 AND Corah the sonne of Israar, ỹ sonne of Caath, the sonne of Leui, went apart with Dathan and *Abiram the sonnes of Eliab, and On the sonne of Peleth, the sonne of Ruben:

Ecc. 45. 21.

2 And they rose vp before Moses, with certaine of the children of Israel, two hundred and fiftie, which were captaines of the multitude, famous in the congregation, and men of great renowme.

3 And they gathered themselues together against Moses and Aaron, and said vnto them, Ye take too much vpon you, seeing a all the multitude are holy euery one of them, and the Lorde is among them: Why lift you your selues vp aboue ỹ congregation of the Lord?

a All are alike holy, therefore none ought to be preferred aboue other: thus the wicked, as Anabaptists and such like, reason against Gods ordinance.

4 And when Moses heard it, he fell vpon his face,

5 And spake vnto Corah, & vnto all his companie, saying, To morowe the Lord wil shew who are his, who b is holy, and who ought to approche nigh vnto him: and whom he hath chosen, he will cause to come neere vnto him.

b Who is the high Priest, that he may cause him to come vnto him.

6 This do therefore: Take you ‖ firepannes, both Corah and all his companie, ‖ Or, censers.

7 And put fire therein, & put incense in them before the Lord to morow: And the man whom the Lord doeth choose, the same shal be holy: Ye take to much vpon you, ye sonnes of Leui.

8 And Moses said vnto Corah, Heare, I pray you ye sonnes of Leui.

9 Seemeth it but a small thing vnto you, that the God of Israel hath separated you frō the multitude of Israel, and brought you to him selfe, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the Lord, and to stand before the multitude, and to minister vnto them?

10 He hath taken thee to him, and all thy brethren the sonnes of Leui with thee: & seeke ye the office of the Priest also?

11 For which cause both thou and all thy companie are gathered together against ỹ Lord: And what is Aaron, that ye murmure against him?

12 And Moses sent, and called Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: which sayd, We will not come vp.

13 Is it a small thing that thou hast brought vs out of the lande that floweth with milke and honie, to kill vs in the wildernesse: except thou make thy selfe lord and ruler ouer vs also?

14 Moreouer, thou hast not brought vs vnto a land that floweth with milke and honie, neither giuen vs inheritance of fields and vineyards: Wilt thou c put out the eyes of these men? We will not come vp.

c Wilt thou make them that searched the land beleeue that they sawe not that which they sawe?

15 And Moses waxed very angry, and said vnto the Lord, Turne not thou vnto their offering: I haue not taken so much as an asse from them, neither haue I hurt any of them.

16 And Moses said vnto Corah, Be thou and all thy company before the Lord, both thou, they, and Aaron, to morowe.

17 And take euery man his censer, and put incense in them, and bring ye before the Lorde euery man his censer, two hundred and fiftie censers: thou also and Aaron, euery one his censer.

18 And they tooke euery man his censer, and put fire in them, and laid incense thereon, and stoode in the dooze of the tabernacle of ỹ congregation with Moses and Aaron.

19 And Corah gathered all the congregation against them, vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation: and the glozy of the Lord appeared vnto all the congregation.
20 And the Lozde spake vnto Moses & Aaron, saying,
21 Separate your selues frō among this congregation, that I may consume them at once.
22 And they fell vpon their faces, and sayd, O God, the God of spirites of all flesh, hath not one man sinned: Wilt thou bee wroth with all the multitude?
23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
24 Speake vnto the congregation, & say, Get you away from about the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram.
25 And Moses rose vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram: and the elders of Israel folowed him.
26 And hee spake vnto the congregation, saying, Depart, I pray you, from the tentes of these wicked men, & touch nothing of theirs, least ye perish in all their sinnes.
27 And so they gate them from the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, & Abiram, on euery side: and Dathan and Abiram came out, and stood in the dooze of their tents, with their wiues, their sonnes, and their litle children.
28 And Moses saide, Hereby ye shall knowe that the Lozde hath sent me to doe all these wozkes: for I haue not done them of mine owne minde, 29 If these men die the common death of all men, oz if they be visited after the visitation of all men, then the Lozd hath not sent me:
d That is, if the Lord do a thing not seene before.
30 But and if the Lozde make a d new thing, and the earth open her mouth, and swallow them vp, with all that they haue, and they goe downe quicke into the pit: then ye shall vnderstand that these men haue prouoked the Lord.
Deut. 11.6. nom. 27.3. psal. 105.17.
31 *And as soone as hee had made an ende of speaking all these wozdes, the ground cloue asunder that was vnder them:
32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swalowed them vp, and their houses, and all the men that were with Corah, & all their goods.
33 And they, and all that they had, went downe aliue into the pitte, and the earth closed vpon them: and they perished from among ỹ congregation.
34 And all Israel that were about them, fled at the crie of them: and they said, Lest the earth swalow vs vp also.
35 And there came out a fire from the Lord, and consumed the two hundred and fiftie men that offred incense.
36 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
37 Speake vnto Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the Priest, that he take vp the censers out of the burning, and scatter the fire heere & there, for they are halowed.
38 The censers of these sinners e against their owne soules: let them make of them broade plates for a couering of the altar: for they offred them before the Lord, and therefore they are halowed, and they shalbe a signe vnto the children of Israel.
e That haue destroied them selues by their owne sinnes, being the causers of their owne deaths.
39 And Eleazar the Priest tooke the brasen censers, which they that were burnt had offered, and made broad plates, for a f couering of the altar, f To be a remembrance vnto the children of Israel, of gods mightie hand against rebellion.
40 To be a remembrance vnto the children of Israel, that no stranger, which is not of the seede of Aaron, come neere to offer incense before the Lord, that he be not like vnto Corah and his companie, as the Lord said to him by the hand of Moses.
41 But on the morowe, all the multitude of the children of Israel murmured against Moses and Aaron, saying, Ye haue killed the people of the Lord.
42 And when the multitude was gathered against Moses and Aaron, they loked toward the tabernacle of the congregation: and behold, the cloud couered it, and the glozy of the Lord appeared.
43 And Moses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.
44 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
45 Get you from among this congregation, that I may consume them quickly. And they fell vpon their faces.
46 And Moses said vnto Aaron, Take a censer, and put fire therein out of the altar, and powre on incense, and go quickly vnto ỹ congregation, and make an atonement for them: for there is wrath gone out from the Lozde, and there is a plague begun.
47 And Aaron tooke as Moses commaunded him, and ran into the middes of the congregation: and behold, the plague was begun among the people, and he put on incense, and made an atonement for the people.
48 And when he stoode betweene the dead, and them that were aliue, the plague was stayed.
49 They that died in the plague, were fourteene thousand and seuē hundred, beside them that died about the conspiracie of Corah.
50 And Aaron went againe vnto Moses before the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was staied.

The xvii. Chapter.

9 Aarons rodde budded, and beareth blossomes, whereby his Priesthood is confirmed against the rebellious people.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and take of euery one of them a rodde, after after the houses of their fathers, of all their princes, according to the familie of their fathers, euen twelue rods: & write euery mans name vpon his rod.

3 And write Aarons name vpon the rod of Leui: for euery rod shall be for the head of the house of their fathers.

4 And put them in the tabernacle of the congregation before [the arke of] the testimonie, where I wil declare my selfe vnto you.

5 And ỹ mans rod whome I choose, shal blossome: and I will make cease from mee the grudgings of the children of Israel, whereby they grudge against you.

6 And Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, and all the princes gaue him a rod, one rod for euery prince according to their fathers houses, euen twelue rods: and the rod of Aaron was among their rods.

7 And Moses put the rods before the Lord in the tabernacle of witnesse.

8 And on the morowe Moses went into the tabernacle of witnesse, and behold the rod of Aaron for the house of Leui was budded, and brought forth buds, bare blossomes, and ripe almonds.

9 And Moses brought out all the rods from before the Lord, vnto all the children of Israel: and they looked vpon them, and tooke euery man his rod.

Heb.9.4. 10 And the Lord said vnto Moses, *Bring Aarons rod againe before the witnesse, to bee kept for a token to the rebellious children, & that their murmuring may cease from mee, and that they die not.

11 And Moses did as the Lorde commaunded him, so did he.

12 And the children of Israel spake vnto Moses, saying, Behold, we are wasted away, and perished, we all come to nought.

13 Whosoeuer commeth nigh, or approcheth to the tabernacle of the Lord, shall die: Shal we vtterly consume away, and die?

The xviii. Chapter.

1 The office of the Leuites. 8 The tithes and first fruites must be giuen them. 20 Aarons heritage.

1 AND the Lord said vnto Aaron, Thou and thy sonnes, and thy fathers house with thee, shall [a] beare the iniquitie of the Sanctuarie: and thou and thy sonnes with thee shall beare the iniquitie of your Priests office.

a That is, if ye trespasse in any thing concerning the ceremonies of the Sanctuarie or your office, ye shall be punished.

2 And thy brethren of the tribe of Leui, and of thy fathers household, thou shalt bring with thee, that they may be ioyned vnto thee, and minister vnto thee: but thou and thy sonnes with thee [shall minister] before the tabernacle of witnesse.

3 They shall keepe thy charge, the charge of all the tabernacle: onely let them not come nigh the vessels of the Sanctuarie and the altar, that they and ye also die not.

4 And they shalbe ioyned with thee, and kepe the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation, for all the seruice of the tabernacle: and let no stranger come nigh vnto you.

5 Therefore shall ye keepe the charge of the Sanctuarie, and the charge of the altar, that there fall no more wrath vpon the children of Israel.

6 Behold, I haue taken your brethren the Leuites from among the children of Israel, which as a gift of yours are giuen vnto the Lord, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.

7 Therefore shalt thou and thy sonnes with thee, keepe your Priests office for all things that pertaine vnto the altar, and within the vaile: and ye shall serue, for I haue giuen your Priestes office vnto you as a gift, and therefore the stranger that commeth nigh, must be slaine.

8 And the Lord spake vnto Aaron, Behold, I haue giuen thee the keeping of mine heaue offerings, of all the halowed things of ỹ children of Israel, [euen] vnto thee I haue giuen them for the anointing, and to thy sonnes for an ordinance for euer.

9 This shall be thine, of the most holy things [reserued] from the fire [of the altar:] all their sacrifices for all their meate offerings, sinne offerings, or trespasse offerings, which they bring vnto me, that shalbe most holy vnto thee, and to thy sonnes.

10 In the most holy place shalt thou eate it, and all that are males shall eate of it: let it be holy vnto thee.

11 And this also is thine: the heaue offerings of their gifts, throughout al the waue offrings of the children of Israel: I haue giuen them vnto thee, and thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: and all that are cleane in thy house shall eate of it.

12 All the [b] fat of the oile, and all the fat of the wine, and of the wheate, which they shal offer vnto the Lord for first fruites, the same haue I giuen vnto thee.

b That is, the chiefest and the best.

13 And whatsoeuer is first ripe in their lande, which they bring vnto the Lord, shalbe thine, and all that are cleane in thine house, shal eate of it.

14 All things separate from the common vse in Israel, shall be thine.

15 Al that breaketh the matrice in al flesh that men bring vnto the Lorde, whether it bee of men or beasts, shall be thine: Neuertheless, the first borne of man shalt thou redeeme, and the first borne of vncleane beastes shalt thou redeeme.

16 Those that are to bee redeemed, shalt thou redeeme, from the age of a moneth, according to thine estimation, * for the money of fiue

Num.3.17. exod.30.13.

sicles, after the sicle of the sanctuarie, which is twentie Gerahs.

17 But the first borne of a kowe, sheepe, and goate, shalt thou not redeeme, for they are holy: therefore thou shalt sprinckle their blood vpon the altar, and shalt burne their fat as a sacrifice made by fire for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

18 And the flesh of them is thine, as the waue brest, & the right shoulder, these are thine.

19 All the heaue offerings of holy thinges, which the children of Israel offer vnto the Lord, haue I giuen thee, and thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: let it bee a [e] salted couenant for euer before the Lord, both vnto thee, and to thy seede with thee.

e Like as salt doeth preserue flesh from corruption, so this couenant should be sure, stable, and incorruptible. Deut.18.2. eccle.44.3.

20 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron, Thou shalt haue no inheritance in their land, neither shalt thou haue any part among them: *I am thy part, and thine inheritance among ỹ children of Israel.

21 Behold, I haue giuen the children of Leui all the tenth in Israel to inherite, for the seruice which they serue in the tabernacle of the congregation.

22 Neither must the children of Israel henceforth come nigh the tabernacle of the congregation, least they beare sinne, and dye.

23 But the Leuites shall doe the seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, and beare their sinne: It shall be a law for euer in your generations, that among the children of Israel they possesse no inheritance.

24 But the tythes of the children of Israel, which they pay as an heaue offering vnto the Lorde, I haue giuen the Leuites to inherite: and therefore I haue sayd vnto them, Among the children of Israel ye shal possesse no inheritance.

25 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

26 Speake vnto the Leuites, and say vnto them, When ye take of the children of Israel the tythes which I haue giuen you of thē for your inheritance, yee shall take an heaue offering of that same for the Lorde, euen the tenth part of that tythe.

27 And this your heaue offering shalbe reckoned vnto you, as though it were of the corne of the barne, or as the fulnesse of the wine presse.

28 Of this maner yee shall therefore offer an heaue offering vnto ỹ Lord of all your tythes which ye receiue of the children of Israel, and ye shal giue thereof the Lords heaue offering to Aaron the Priest.

29 Of al your giftes ye shal offer all the Lords heaue offring, euen all the fat of the same, [to wit] the holy things thereof.

30 Therefore thou shalt say vnto them, When ye haue taken away the fatte of it from it, it shall bee counted vnto the Leuites, as if it were the increase of the corne floore, or the increase of the wine presse.

31 And yee shal eate it in all places, both ye and your housholdes: for it is your rewarde for your seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.

32 And ye shall beare no sinne by the reason of it, when yee haue offered from it the fat of it: neyther shall yee pollute the holy thinges of the children of Israel, lest ye dye.

The xix. Chapter.

2 Of the ashes of the redde kowe. The water of expiation is made to washe away diuers vncleannesse.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, saying,

2 This is the ordinance of the lawe, which the Lord hath commanded, saying, Speake vnto the children of Israel, that they bring thee a redde kowe without spot, and wherein is no blemish, and vpon which neuer came yoke.

3 And ye shal giue her vnto Eleazar ỹ Priest, that hee may bring her without the hoste, and cause her to be slayne before his face:

4 And let Eleazar the Priest take of her blood with his finger, and *sprinckle it directly before the Tabernacle of the congregation seuen times, Hebr.9.13.

5 And cause the kow to be burnt in his sight, with her skinne, flesh, and blood: & the dung of her shal he burne also.

6 And let the Priest take Cedar wood, and hysope, and skarlet [lace,] & cast it in the mides of the burning of the kowe.

7 Then let the Priest wash his clothes, and hee shall bathe his flesh in water, & then come into the host, and the Priest shall be vncleane vntill the Euen.

8 And he ỹ burneth her, shall wash his clothes in water, and bath his flesh in water, and bee vncleane vntill the Euen.

9 And a man that is cleane, shal gather vp the ashes of the kowe, and lay them without the host in a cleane place, and it shall bee kept for the multitude of the children of Israel for a water of [a] separation: it is a sinne offering.

10 Therefore he that gathereth ỹ ashes of the kowe, shall wash his clothes, and remaine vncleane vntil Euen: and it shalbe vnto the children of Israel, and vnto the stranger ỹ dwelleth among them, a statute for euer.

11 He that toucheth the dead body of any man, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.

12 And he shall purifie him selfe with this water the third day, and the seuenth day he shalbe cleane: but if hee purifie not him selfe the third day, then the seuenth day he shall not be cleane.

13 Whosoeuer toucheth the dead coarse of any man a Because they that were separated for their vncleannesse, were sprinckled therewith and made cleane, Chap.8. verse. 7. it is also called holy water, because it was ordeyned to an holy vse, Chap.5. verse. 17.

man that is dead, and purgeth not himselfe, defileth the Tabernacle of the Lord, and that soule shal be cut off from [b] Israel, because the water of separation was not sprinckled vpon him: he shall be therefore vncleane, his vncleannesse is yet vpon him.

[b] So that he should not be esteemed to be of the holy people, but as a polluted and excommunicated person.

14 This is the lawe of a man that dieth in a tent: All that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.

15 And all the vessels that be open, which haue no couering bound vpon them, shall be vncleane.

16 And whosoeuer toucheth one that is slaine with a sword in the fields, or a dead person, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue, shall be vncleane seuen dayes.

17 Therefore, for an vncleane person they shall take of the burnt ashes of the sinne offering, and running water shall bee put thereto in a vessell.

18 And let a cleane person take hysope, and dippe it in the water, and sprinckle it vpon the tent, and vpon all the vessels, and on the persons that were therein, and vpon him that touched a bone, or a slaine person, or a dead body, or a graue.

19 And the cleane person shall sprinckle vpon the vncleane the third day and the seuenth day: and the seuenth day he shall purifie him selfe, and wash his clothes, and bathe himselfe in water, and shall be cleane at Euen.

20 But the man that is vncleane, and purifieth not himselfe, the same soule shal be cut off frō among the congregation: because he hath defiled the sanctuarie of the Lord, and the water of separation hath not bene sprinckled vpon him, therefore shal he remaine vncleane.

21 And it shall be a perpetual lawe vnto them, that he that sprinckleth the water of separation, shall wash his clothes: and hee that toucheth the water of separation, shall bee vncleane vntill Euen.

22 And whatsoeuer the vncleane person toucheth, shalbe vncleane: & the soule that toucheth [the thing that was touched of the vncleane person] shall be vncleane vntil Euen.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Mary the sister of Moses and Aaron dieth. 12 Moses and Aaron shall not enter into the lande of promise.

1 AND the children of Israel came with the whole multitude into the desert of Zin, in the first moneth, and the people abode at Cades: and there died Mary, and was buried there.

2 But there was no water for the multitude: and they gathered themselues together against Moses and Aaron.

3 And the people chode with Moses, & spake, saying, Would God that wee had perished when our brethren died before the Lord.

4 *Why haue yee brought the congregation of the Lorde into this wildernesse, that both we and our cattell should die in it? Exod. 17.2.

5 Wherefore haue ye made vs to come out of Egypt, to bring vs to this euill place, which is no place of seede, nor of figs, nor vines, nor pomegranates, neither is there any water to drinke?

6 And Moses and Aaron went from the presence of the congregation, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and fell vpon their faces, and the glory of the Lorde appeared vnto them.

7 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

8 Take the rod, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the congregation together, and speake vnto the rocke before their eyes, and it shal giue forth his water, and thou shalt bring them water out of the rocke, to giue the company drinke, and their beasts also.

9 And Moses tooke the rodde from before the Lord, as he commanded him.

10 And Moses & Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rocke, and [Moses] said vnto them, *Heare ye rebels, must we fetch you water out of this rocke? Exod. 17.6. psal. 77.15.

11 And Moses lift vp his hand, and with his rod he smote the rocke two times, & the water came out abundantly, and the multitude dranke, and their beasts also.

12 And the Lorde spake vnto Moses and Aaron, *Because ye beleeued me not, to sanctifie me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therefore ye shall not bring this congregation into the land which I haue giuen them. Deut. 1.37.

13 This is the water of strife, because the children of Israel stroue with the Lord, and hee was sanctified in them.

14 And Moses sent messengers from Cades vnto ỳ king of Edom, thus saith thy brother Israel, Thou knowest all the trauaile that we haue had.

15 Our fathers went downe into Egypt, and we haue dwelt in Egypt a long tyme: & the Egyptians dealt euil with vs and our fathers.

16 And when we cried vnto the Lord, he heard our voyce, and sent an Angell, and hath fet vs out of Egypt: and behold, we are in Cades, in the vttermost citie of thy border.

17 Let vs passe, I pray thee, thorow thy countrey, but we will not goe thorowe the fieldes or vineyardes, neither will we drinke of the water of the fountaines: we will goe by the kings high way, and neither turne vnto the right hand nor to the left, vntill wee be past thy borders.

18 And Edom answered him, Thou shalt not goe by me, least I come out against thee with the sword.

19 The children of Israel said vnto him, We will goe by the beaten way: and if I and my cattell drinke of thy water, I will pay for it: I will but onely (without any harme) goe thorowe on my feete.

20 He answered, Thou shalt not goe thorowe. And Edom came out against him with much people, and with a mightie power.

21 And thus Edom denied to giue Israel passage thorowe his countrey: wherefore Israel turned away from him.

Nom.33.37. 22 *And the children of Israel departed from Cades, and came vnto mount Hor, with all the congregation.

23 And the Lord spake vnto Moses and Aaron in mount Hor, hard by the coast of the land of Edom, saying, 24 Aaron shalbe gathered vnto his people: for he shall not come into the land which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel, because ye disobeied my mouth at the water of strife.

Nom.33.38. 25 *Take Aaron and Eleazar his sonne, and bring them vp into mount Hor.

26 And cause Aaron to put off his garments, and put them vpon Eleazar his sonne: and Aaron shall be gathered vnto his people, and shall die there.

27 And Moses did as the Lord commanded: And they went vp into mount Hor in the sight of all the multitude.

28 And Moses tooke off Aarons clothes, & put them vpon Eleazar his sonne, & Aaron died there in the top of the mount: *& Moses and Eleazar came downe out of the moune.

Deut.10.6.

29 When all the multitude sawe that Aaron was dead, they mourned for Aaron thirtie dayes all the houshold of Israel.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Israel vanquisheth king Arad a Chanaanite. 6 The fierie serpents are sent to sting the murmuring people.

Nom.33.43. 1 AND *when king Arad the Chanaanite, which dwelt toward the South, heard tell that Israel came by the way that the spies had found out, he fought against Israel, and tooke some of them prisoners.

2 And Israel vowed a vowe vnto the Lord, and said, If thou wilt deliuer this people into my hand, I will vtterly destroy their cities.

3 And the Lord heard the voyce of Israel, and deliuered them the Chanaanites: & they destroied them and their cities, and called the name of the place Horma.

4 And they departed from mount Hor, by the way of the red sea, to compasse the land of Edom: and the soule of the people was sore grieued, because of the way.

5 And the people spake against God, and against Moses, Wherefore haue ye brought vs out of Egypte, for to die in the wildernesse? for here is neither bread nor water, and our soule loatheth this light bread.

Wisd.16.5. 1.Cor.10.9. 6 *Wherefore the Lord sent fierie serpents among the people, which stong them, & much people of Israel died.

7 Therefore the people came to Moses, and sayd, We haue sinned, for we haue spoken against the Lorde, and against thee: make intercession to the Lord, that he take away the serpents from vs.

8 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Make thee a ‖ fierie [a] serpent, and set it vp vpon a pole: that as many as are bitten, may looke vpon it, and liue.

‖ Or, brasen serpent.
a They were called fierie serpents, because they which were stong therewith, were enflamed with heat, that they died thereof.

9 And Moses made a serpent of brasse, and set it vpon a pole, and when a serpent had bitten any man, he beheld the serpent of brasse, and liued.

10 And the children of Israel departed thence, and pitched in Oboth.

11 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched at the heapes of Abarim, in the wildernesse, which is before Moab, on the East side.

12 And they remoued thence, and pitched vpon the riuer of Zared.

13 And they departed thence, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, which is in the wildernesse, and commeth out of the coasts of the Amorites: for *Arnon is the border of Moab, betweene Moab and the Amorites.

Iudg.11.13.

14 Wherefore it shal be spoken in the booke of the warres of the Lord, what thing he did in the red sea, and in the riuers of Arnon,

15 And at the streame of the riuers that goeth downe to the dwelling of Ar, and lieth vpon the border of Moab.

16 From thence [they returned] vnto Beer: the same is the well whereof the Lorde spake vnto Moses, Gather the people together, and I will giue them water.

17 Then Israel sang this song, Spring vp well, sing ye vnto it:

18 The princes digged this well, the captains of the people digged it with the lawe giuer, and with their staues, and from the wildernesse they went to Mathana:

19 And from Mathana, to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel, to Bamoth, 20 And from Bamoth of the valley that is in ṕ field of Moab, vnto the top of ‖ the hill that looketh toward Jesimon.

Deut.2.26. iudg.11.19.

22 Let me passe thorow thy land, we will not turne into the fieldes, or vineyardes, neither drinke of the waters of the well: but we will goe along by the kings high way, vntill we be past thy countrey.

23 But Sehon would giue Israel no licence to passe through his countrey: but gathered all his people together, and went out against Israel into the wildernesse: and he came to Jaza, and fought against Israel.

24 *And Israel smote him in the edge of the sword, and conquered his land from Arnon vnto Jaboc, vnto the childzen of Ammon: For the boyder of the childzē of Ammon was strong.

25 And Israel tooke all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amozites in Hesbon, and in all the townes that long thereto.

26 For Hesbon was the citie of Sehon the king of the Amozites, which fought before against the king of the Moabites, and tooke all his land out of his hand, vnto Arnon.

27 Wherefore, they that speake in prouerbes, say, Come to Hesbon, and let the citie of Sehon be built and repaired.

28 For there is a fire gone out of Hesbon, and a flame from the citie of Sehon, and hath consumed Ar in Moab, and the lordes of Bamoth in Arnon.

29 *Wo to thee, Moab, O people of [b] Chamos ye be vndone: he hath suffered his sonnes to be pursued, & his daughters to be in captiuitie vnto Sehon the king of the Amozites.

30 Their empire is lost from Hesbon vnto Dibon, and we made a wildernesse vnto Nopha, which reacheth vnto Medaba.

31 And thus Israel dwelt in the land of the Amozites.

32 And Moses sent to search out Jaezer, and they tooke the townes belonging thereto, & rooted out the Amozites that were therein.

33 *And they turned, and went vp toward Basan: and Og the king of Basan came out against them, he, and all his people, to fight at Edzai.

34 And the Lord said vnto Moses, Feare him not: for I haue deliuered him into thy hand, and all his people, and his land, & thou shalt do to him as thou didst vnto Sehon the king of the Amozites, which dwelt at Hesbon.

35 They smote him therefore, and his sonnes, and all his people, vntill there was nothing left him, and they conquered his land.

Deut. 3. 1. and 29. 3.

The xxii. Chapter.

5 King Balac sendeth twise for Balaam to curse the Israelites. 12 The Lord forbiddeth him to go. 21 The Angell rebuketh him. 28 And Balaams Asse speaketh.

1 AND the childzen of Israel departed, & pitched in the *fields of Moab, on the other side of Jozdane from Jericho.

Iosu. 24. 9.

2 And Balac the sonne of Ziphoz, sawe all that Israel had done to the Amozites.

3 And the Moabites were soze afraid of ỹ people, because they were many, and they were stricken with feare of the childzen of Israel.

4 And Moab sayde vnto the elders of Madian, Now shall this companie ‡ licke vp all that are round about vs, as an oxe licketh vp the grasse of the field. And Balac the sonne of Ziphoz, was king of the Moabites at that tyme.

‡ Heb. with licking to escape away.

5 *He sent messengers therefore vnto Balaam the sonne of Beoz, to Pethoz, which is by the riuer of the lande of the childzen of his folke, to call him, saying, Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and beholde, they couer the face of the earth, and dwell [a] ouer against me.

Iosu. 24. 9.

a Not farre from me, euen hard by me.

6 Come now therefore, I pray thee, and curse me this people, for they are too mighty for me, so it may be I shall be able to smite them, and to driue thē out of the land: For I wote that he whom thou blessest, is blessed, and hee whom thou cursest, is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Madian departed, hauing the [rewarde] of the soothsaying in their hande: And they came vnto Balaam, and told him the wordes of Balac.

8 He answered them, Tary here this night, and I will bring you word as the Lord shall say vnto me: And the lordes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came vnto Balaam, and said, What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam sayde vnto God, Balac the sonne of Ziphoz, king of Moab, hath sent vnto me, [saying,]

11 Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and couereth the face of the earth: come now therefore, and curse them for my sake, so it may be that I shalbe able to ouercome them in battell, and to driue them out.

12 And God said vnto Balaam, Goe not thou with them, neither curse the people: for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, & said vnto the lordes of Balac, Get you vnto your land, for the Lord will not [b] suffer me to goe with you.

b Balaam was so blinded with couetousnesse, that he was willing to goe, if God had not forbidden him.

14 And the lordes of Moab rose vp, and went vnto Balac, & said, Balaam would not come with vs.

15 And Balac sent againe a greater companie of lordes, and more honourable then they.

16 Which came to Balaam, & told him, Thus saith Balac the sonne of Ziphoz, Oh let nothing let thee, but come vnto me:

17 For I wil greatly promote thee vnto great honour, and wil do whatsoeuer thou saiest vnto me: come I pray thee, curse this people for my sake.

18 And *Balaam answered, and said vnto the seruants of Balac, If Balac would giue me his house full of siluer and gold, I can not go beyond the word of the Lord my God, to doe lesse or more:

Num. 24. 13.

c Because he tempted God contrary to his former commandement, his petition was granted, but it turned to his owne condemnation.

19 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, tary ye here this night, that I may wit [c] what the Lorde will say vnto me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and sayd vnto him, If the men come to call thee, rise vp, and go with them: but looke what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

21 And Balaam rose vp early, and sadled his Asse, and [d] went with the lordes of Moab.

d He went more for his hire and lucre sake, then for any affection he had to obey God, as after in the 35. verse.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because hee went: and the Angell of the Lord stood in the way to be against him, as hee rode vpon his Asse, and his two seruants were with him.

2. Pet. 2. 16.

23 *And when the Asse sawe the Angel of the Lord stand in the way, and hauing his sword drawen in his hand, the Asse turned aside out of the way, and went out into the field: And Balaam smote the Asse, to turne her into the way.

24 But the Angell of the Lord stood in a path betweene the vineyards, & there was a wall on the one side, and another on the other.

25 And when the Asse sawe the Angell of the Lorde, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, and crusht Balaams foote against the wall: and he smote her againe.

26 And the Angell of the Lorde went further, and stoode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne either to the right hand or to the left.

27 And when the Asse sawe the Angell of the Lorde, she fell downe vnder Balaam: and Balaam was wroth, and smote the Asse with a staffe.

28 And the Lord opened the mouth of the Asse, and she sayd vnto Balaam, What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smitten me now three times?

29 And Balaam sayd vnto the Asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I would also there were a sword in mine hand, for euen nowe would I kill thee.

30 And the Asse said vnto Balaam, Am not I thine Asse, which thou hast ridden vpon since the first time, vnto this day? Was I euer woont to doe so vnto thee? He said, Nay.

31 And the Lorde opened the eyes of Balaam, and he sawe the Angell of the Lord standing in the way, hauing his sword drawen in his hand: hee bowed himselfe therefore, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the Angel of the Lord sayd vnto him, Wherefore hast thou smitten thine Asse these three times? Beholde, I came out to withstand thee, because [thine heart] hath declined out of the way before me.

33 And the Asse sawe me, and turned from me now three times: or els if she had not turned from me, I had surely slaine thee, and saued her aliue.

34 Balaam sayd vnto the Angell of the Lorde, I haue sinned, for I wist not that thou stoodest in the way against me: Now therefore if it displease thee, I will turne home againe.

35 The Angell of the Lord said vnto Balaam, Go with the men: but what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. And so Balaam went with the lordes of Balac.

36 And when Balac heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meete him, vnto a citie of Moab, which is in the border of Arnon, in the vtmost coast.

37 And Balac said vnto Balaam, Did I not send for thee to call thee? and wherefore camest thou not vnto me? Am I not able in deed to promote thee vnto honour?

38 And Balaam made answere vnto Balac, Loe, I am come vnto thee: and can I nowe say any thing at all? The worde that God putteth in my mouth, that shall I speake.

39 And Balaam went with Balac, and they came vnto a citie of [e] streetes.

e So called, because it was full of people.

40 And Balac offered oxen and sheepe, and sent [thereof] to Balaam, and to the lordes that were with him.

41 And on the morow Balac tooke Balaam, & brought him vp into the high places of Baal, that thence hee might see the vtmost part of the people.

The xxiii. Chapter.

1 Balaam causeth seuen altars to be built. 5 God teacheth him what to answere. 8 Instead of cursing, he blesseth the Israelites.

6 And when he went againe vnto him, loe, he stood by his whole burnt sacrifice, he, and all the lordes of Moab.

7 And he tooke vp his parable, and said, Balac the king of Moab hath brought me from Mesopotamia, out of the mountains of the East, [saying,] Come, curse Jacob for my sake, come and defie Israel.

8 How shall I curse him, whom God hath not cursed? or how shall I defie him, whome the Lord hath not defied?

12 He anſwered and ſayde, Muſt I not take heede to ſpeake that which the Lorde hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balac ſayde vnto him, Come, I pray thee, with me, vnto another place, whence thou mayeſt ſee them, and thou ſhalt ſee but the vtmoſt part of them, & ſhalt not ſee them all: curſe them out of that place for my ſake.

17 And when he came to him, behold, he ſtoode by his whole burnt ſacrifice, and the lords of Moab with him. And Balac ſayd vnto him, What hath the Lord ſayd?

18 And he tooke vp his parable, and anſwered, Riſe vp Balac, and heare, and hearken vnto me, thou ſonne of Ziphor.

19 God is not a man, that he ſhould lye, neither the ſonne of man, that he ſhould repēt: ſhould he ſay, and not doe? or ſhould he ſpeake, and not make it good?

The xxiiii. Chapter.

3 Balaam prophecieth proſperouſly of the kingdome of Iſrael, and of the comming of Chriſt.

1 AND when Balaam ſawe that it pleaſed the Lord that he ſhould bleſſe Iſrael, he went not, as he did twiſe before, to ſeeke a for ſoothſaying: but ſet his face toward the wilderneſſe.

will I speake.

14 And now beholde, I goe vnto my people: Come therefore, and I will aduertise thee what this people shall doe to thy folke in the latter dayes.

15 And he tooke vp his parable, and said, Balaam the sonne of Beor hath said, the man whose eyes are open, hath said:

20 And when he looked on Amalec, he tooke vp his parable, and said, Amalec is the first of the nations, but his latter end shall perish vtterly.

21 And he looked on the Kenites, and tooke vp his parable, and said, Strong is thy dwelling place, and thou puttest thy nest in a rocke.

The xxvij. Chapter.

1 The lawe of the heritage of the daughters of Zalphaad. 16 Moses prayeth for a gouernour of the people, and Iosuah is appointed.

1 THen came the *daughters of Zalphaad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, of the kinred of Manasse, ỳ sonne of Joseph: whose names were, Mahela, Noa, Hagla, Melcha, and Thirza, Num.36.2. Iosu.17.3.
2 And stoode before Moses and Eleazar the Priest, and before the Lords, and all the multitude, by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, saying,
3 Our father died in the wildernesse, and was not in the companie of them that gathered them selues together against the Lord in the congregation of Corah: but [a] died in his owne sinne, and had no sonnes.
4 Wherefore then is the name of our father taken away from among his kinred, because he hath no sonne? Giue vnto vs therefore a possession among the [b] brethren of our father.
5 And Moses brought their [c] cause before the Lord.
6 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

a As all men die for that they are sinners, some reade, died for his sinne, and expound it thus: Not for any particular sinne that he had done, but for that generall sinne that the people of the Iewes had committed, in murmuring against Moses, for which they entred not into the land of promise.
b Brethren are here taken for kinsmen.
c That is, their matter to be iudged, to knowe what he should determine, as he did al waighty matters.

7 The 7 The daughters of Zalphaad speake right: thou shalt giue them a possession to inherite among their fathers brethren, and shalt turne the inheritance of their father vnto them.

8 And thou shalt speake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If a man die, & haue no sonne, ye shal turne his inheritance vnto his daughter.

9 If he haue no daughter, ye shall giue his inheritance vnto his brethren.

10 If he haue also no brethren, ye shal giue his inheritance vnto his fathers brethren.

11 And if his father haue no brethren, ye shall giue his inheritance vnto him that is next to him of his kinred, and he shall possesse it: And this shalbe vnto the children of Israel [d] a law of iudgement, as the Lord hath commanded Moses.

[d] Meaning, an ordinance to iudge by.

Deut. 33. 37.

12 *And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Get thee vp into this mount Abarim, and beholde the land which I haue giuen vnto the children of Israel:

‡ Hebr. And thou shalt see it.

13 And ‡ when thou hast seene it, thou shalt be [e] gathered vnto thy people also, as Aaron thy brother was gathered.

[e] Thou shalt die in the land of Moab.

14 For ye were disobedient vnto my mouth in the desert of Zin, in the strife of the congregation, neither did ye sanctifie me in the [f] waters before their eyes: that is, the water of strife in Cades, in the wildernesse of Zin.

[f] You did not exalt and magnifie my power and omnipotencie before the children of Israel, when they desired water.

15 And Moses spake vnto the Lord, saying,

16 Let the Lord God of the spirites of all flesh, set a man ouer the congregation, [g] To rule and gouerne them, to leade them forth to battaple, and to bring them backe.

17 Which may goe [g] out and in before them, and leade them out and in, that the congregation of the Lord be not as sheepe which haue no shepheard.

18 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Take thee Iosuah the sonne of Nun, a man in whom is the spirite, and put thine hands vpon him, 19 And set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the congregation: and giue him a charge in their sight.

[h] Of thy authoritie, or thy dignitie, that the people may haue him in the greater reuerence, and yeeld them selues more to his obedience.

20 And put thy [h] honour vpon him, that all the companie of the children of Israel may bee obedient.

[i] That is, as God doth instruct & lighten the heart of the priest, so the priest must declare & shew forth the will of God to others.

21 And he shall stand before Eleazar ỹ Priest, which shall aske counsell for him after the [i] iudgement of Urim before the Lord: And according vnto his word shall they goe out & in, both he, and all the children of Israel with him, and all the congregation.

22 And Moses did as the Lord commanded him: and he tooke Iosuah, and set him before Eleazar the Priest, and before all the congregation, 23 And put his hands vpon him, and gaue him a charge, as the Lord commanded through the hand of Moses.

The xxviii. Chapter.

2 What must be offered on euery feast day.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commande the children of Israel, and say vnto them, My offering, and my bread for my sacrifices, which are made by fire for a sweete sauour, shall ye obserue, to offer vnto me in their due season.

3 And thou shalt say vnto them, This is the offering made by fire, which ye shall offer vnto the Lord: two [a] lambes of a yeere old without spot day by day, for a continuall whole burnt offering.

[a] The Iewes do say, that by the beast that is sacrificed, the sinner is vnderstoode. For when the beast is led to be killed, the trespasser ought (say they) to thinke as though he for his offence were led vnto the same, and thus to confesse, O Lord, I am giltie of death, I haue deserued to bee stoned for this trespasse, and not this beast, or to be strangled for this transgression, or to be burnt for this crime. But these sacrifices do by shadowe signifie Christ the true lambe of God, who would afterward cleanse our sinnes, & pay the price for them. Your greeuous therfore should we acknowledge and confesse our sinnes to be, for the which no beast, but the innocent sonne of God hath dyed? For the father sparing vs, hath yelded his sonne vnto death.

4 One lambe shalt thou prepare in the morning, and the other at Euen,

5 And therto ỹ tenth part of an Epha of floure for a meate offering, mingled with ỹ fourth part of an Hin of beaten oyle.

6 It is a dayly whole burnt offering, such as was ordeyned in the mount Sinai for a sweete sauour, a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

7 And let the drinke offering of the same, be the fourth part of an Hin for one lambe, and in the holy place shalt thou commande ỹ wine to be powred vnto the Lord:

8 And the other lambe shalt thou offer at Euē, after the maner of the meate offering, and the drinke offering of the morning, a sacrifice made by fire shalt thou offer for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.

9 And on the Sabboth day, two lambes of a yeere olde without spot, and two tenth deales of floure for a meate offering mingled with oyle, and the drinke offering thereto.

10 This is the whole burnt offering of euery Sabboth, beside the dayly whole burnt offering, and his drinke offering.

11 And in the beginning of your moneths, ye shall offer a whole burnt offering vnto the Lord: two yong bullocks, and a Ramme, and seuen Lambes of a yeere olde without spot,

12 And three tenth deales of floure for a meate offering, mingled with oyle for one bullocke, and two tenth deales of floure for a meate offering, mingled with oyle for one Ramme:

13 And a tenth deale of floure mingled with oyle for a meate offering vnto one Lambe, for a whole burnt offering of a sweete sauour, & a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

14 And their drinke offerings shalbe halfe an Hin of wine vnto one bullocke, and the third part of an Hin of wine vnto a Ramme, and the fourth part of an Hin vnto a Lambe: This is the whole burnt offering of euery moneth, throughout the monethes of the yeere.

15 And one hee Goate for a sinne offering vnto the Lord shall be offered, besides the dayly whole burnt offering, & his drinke offering.

16 *And the fourteenth day of the first moneth, is the Passeouer of the Lord. Exod. 12. 18. Leuit. 23. 5.

17 And

17 And in the fifteenth day of the ſame moneth is the feaſt: ſeuen dayes long ſhall vnleauened bread be eaten.
18 In the firſt day ſhalbe an holy conuocation, ye ſhal do no maner of ſeruile worke therein.
19 But ye ſhall offer a ſacrifice made by fire for a whole burnt offering vnto the Lord, two yong bullockes, one ramme, & ſeuen lambes of a yeere olde, let them be without ſpot.
20 And let their meate offering be of floure mingled with oyle: three tenth deales alſo ſhall ye offer for a bullocke, and two tenth deales for a ramme,
21 One tenth deale ſhalt thou offer for euery lambe, of the ſeuen lambes,
22 And an hee Goate for a ſinne offering, to make an atonement for you.
23 Ye ſhall offer theſe beſide the whole burnt offering in the morning, which is a continual whole burnt ſacrifice.
24 After this maner ye ſhall offer throughout the ſeuen dayes, the fleſh of the ſacrifice made by fire for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lord: and it ſhalbe done beſide the dayly whole burnt offering, and his drinke offering.
25 And in the ſeuenth day ye ſhall haue an holy conuocation, [wherein] ye ſhall doe no ſeruile worke.
26 Alſo in the day of your firſt fruites when ye bring a new meate offering vnto the Lord, according to your [b] weekes, ye ſhall haue an holy conuocation, and ye ſhall do no ſeruile worke in it.

28 With their meate offerings of floure mingled with oyle, three tenth deales vnto a bullocke, two tenth deales vnto a ramme, 29 And one tenth deale vnto a lambe, throwout the ſeuen lambes,
30 And an hee Goate to make an atonement for you.
31 This ye ſhall doe, beſides the continuall whole burnt offering, and his meate offering (and they ſhalbe vnto you without ſpot) with their drinke offerings.

2 And ye ſhal offer a whole burnt offering for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lord, one yong bullocke, one ramme, and ſeuen lambes of a yeere olde without blemiſh:
3 And their meate offering ſhalbe made of floure, mingled with oyle, three [b] tenth deales vnto the bullocke, and two tenth deales vnto the ramme,
4 And one tenth deale vnto one lambe, throwout the ſeuen lambes:
5 And an hee Goate for a ſinne offering, to make an atonement for you:
6 Beſide the whole burnt offring of the [c] moneth, and his meate offering, and beſide the dayly whole burnt offering, and his meate offering, and the drinke offerings of the ſame, which muſt be done according vnto ỹ maner of them, for a ſauour of ſweeteneſſe, it is a ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord.

40 And Moses tolde the children of Israel all that the Lord commanded him.

The xxx. Chapter.

2 Of vowes, when they shal be kept, and when not.

1 AND Moses spake vnto the heads of the tribes, concerning the children of Israel, saying, This is the thing which the Lord hath commanded.
2 If a man vowe a vowe vnto the Lord, or sweare an othe to binde his soule: he shal not goe backe with his word, but shall fulfill all that is proceeded out of his mouth.
3 If a woman also vowe a vowe vnto ỹ Lord, and binde her selfe, being in her fathers house in the time of her youth:
4 And her father heare her vowe and bonde which she hath made vpon her soule, and hold his peace thereto: then all her vowes and bondes which she hath made vpon her soule, shall stand in effect.
5 But if her father disalowe her the same day that he heareth all her vowes & bondes which she hath made vpon her soule: they shall not be of value, and the Lord shall forgiue her, because her father [a] disalowed her. [a] Agreed not to her vowe.
6 If she had an husband when she vowed, or pronounced ought out of her lippes, wherewith she bound her soule:
7 And her husband heard it, and helde his peace thereat the same day he heard it: then her vowes shall stand, and her bondes wherewith she bound her soule, shall stand in effect.
8 And if her husband disalowe her the same day that he heard it, then he shall make her vowe which shee hath vpon her, and the opening of her lippes wherewith she bound her soule, of none effect, and the Lord shal forgiue her.
9 But euery vowe of a widowe, & of her that is diuorced, that they haue bound their soule withall, shal stand in effect with them.
10 If she vowed in her [b] husbands house, or bound her soule with an othe: [b] Her husbands liuing, or before she be diuorced.
11 And her husband heard it, and helde his peace concerning her, and disalowed her not: then all her vowes shall stand, and euery bond wherewith she bound her soule, shall stand.
12 But if her husband disanulled them ỹ same day that he heard them: then nothing that proceedeth out of her lippes in vowes and bondes wherewith she bound her soule, shall stand in effect: for her husband hath disanulled them, and the Lord shall forgiue her.

13 All

c Through mortification, by abſtinence or bodily exerciſe.

13 All vowes and othes that binde to c humble the ſoule, may her huſband ſtablish or breake.

d Not diſannulling her vowe the ſame day that he heareth it.

14 But if her huſband holde his peace from d one day to another, then hee ſtabliſheth all her vowes and bondes which ſhe had vpon her: he confirmeth them, becauſe he helde his peace concerning her the ſame day that he heard them.

e Any day after the firſt day that he heard them.

15 But e if he breake them, after that he hath heard them, he ſhall beare her ſinne him ſelfe.

15 And Moſes ſayd vnto them, Haue ye ſaued all the b women aliue?

b As who would ſay, ye ſhould haue left none aliue, Num.25.1.

16 *Beholde, theſe cauſed the childzen of Iſrael, thozowe the counſell of Balaam, to commit treſpaſſe againſt the Lozd in the buſineſſe of c Peoz, and there folowed a plague among the congregation of the Lozd.

c In honouring that idol.

17 Now therefoze ſlay all the men childzen, and kill the women that haue lyen with men fleſhly.

18 But all the women childzen that haue not lyen with men carnally, keepe aliue foz your ſelues.

19 And ye ſhall remaine without the hoſt ſeuen dayes, all that haue killed any perſon, & all that haue touched any dead bodie, and purifie both your ſelues and your priſoners the third day, and the ſeuenth:

20 And purifie all your rayments, and that is made of ſkinnes, and all worke of goates heare, and all things made of wood.

21 And Eleazar the Prieſt ſayd vnto the men of warre which went to the battel, This is the ordinance of the lawe which the Lozd commanded Moſes.

22 As foz golde, ſiluer, braſſe, and iron, tinne, and lead,

23 And all that may abide the fire, ye ſhall make it goe through the fire, and it ſhalbe cleane: neuertheleſſe, it ſhalbe purified with water of ſeparation: And all that ſuffereth not the fire, ye ſhall make goe thozowe the water:

24 And waſh your clothes the ſeuenth day, and ye ſhalbe cleane, and afterward come into the hoſt.

25 And the Lozd ſpake vnto Moſes, ſaying,

26 Take the ſumme of the pray, that was taken, both of the perſons & of the cattel, thou & Eleazar the Prieſt, and the chiefe fathers of the congregation:

27 And deuide ỹ pray into two parts, betweene them that tooke the warre vpon them & went out to battel, and all the congregation.

28 And take a tribute vnto the Lozd of the men of warre which went out to battel: one ſoule of fiue hundzed, both of the perſons, and of the beeſes, and of the aſſes, and of the ſheepe.

29 And ye ſhall take it of their halfe, and giue it vnto Eleazar the Prieſt, as an heaue offering of the Lozd.

30 And of the halfe of the childzen of Iſrael, thou ſhalt take one pozion of fiftie, of ỹ perſons, ſons, and of the beeues, of the aſſes, and of the ſheepe, and of all maner of beaſts, & giue them vnto the Leuites which waite vpō the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lord.

31 And Moſes and Eleazar the Prieſt, did as the Lord commanded Moſes.

32 And the bootie, & the reſt of the pray which the men of warre had caught, was ſixe hundred thouſand, and threeſcore & fifteene thouſand ſheepe,

33 And threeſcore & twelue thouſand of beeues,

34 And threeſcore and one thouſand aſſes,

35 And thirtie & two thouſande perſons in all, of women that had lyen by no man.

36 And the halfe, which was the part of them that went out to warre, was in number three hundred thouſand, and ſeuen and thirtie thouſand, and fiue hundred ſheepe.

d That is, that portion which the ſouldiers gaue to God.

37 And the [d] Lordes part of the ſheepe, was ſixe hundred and threeſcore and fifteene.

38 And the beeues were thirtie and ſixe thouſande, of which the Lordes part was threeſcore and twelue.

39 And the aſſes were thirtie thouſand and fiue hundred, of which the Lordes part was threeſcore and one.

e The virgins

40 And the [e] perſons were ſixteene thouſande, of which the Lords part was thirtie and two perſons.

41 And Moſes gaue the tribute, which was the Lordes heaue offering, vnto Eleazar the Prieſt, as the Lord commanded Moſes:

f Of that part of the ſpoyle which was allotted to thoſe that had not bene at warre.

42 And the other [f] halfe of the children of Iſrael, which Moſes deuided from the men of warre, 43 [That is to wit] the halfe that perteined vnto the congregation, was three hundred thouſand, and thirtie and ſeuen thouſande, and fiue hundred ſheepe:

44 And thirtie and ſixe thouſand beeues:

45 And thirtie thouſande aſſes, and fiue hundred,

46 And ſixteene thouſand perſons.

47 And Moſes tooke of the halfe that perteined vnto the [g] children of Iſrael, one portion of fiftie, both of the perſons and of the cattell, and gaue them vnto the Leuites which waited vpon the charge of the Tabernacle of the Lorde, as the Lord commanded Moſes.

g Thoſe that were no ſouldiers.

48 And the officers of thouſands of the hoſt, the captaines ouer the thouſands, & the captaines ouer the hundreds, came forth,

49 And ſayde vnto Moſes, Thy ſeruants haue taken the ſumme of the men of warre which are vnder our authoritie, and there lacketh not one man of vs:

50 We haue therefore brought a preſent vnto the Lord, what euery man found, of iewels of golde, bracelettes, chaynes, rings, earings, and ſpangles, to make an atonement for our ſoules before the Lord.

51 And Moſes and Eleazar the Prieſt tooke the golde of them, all the wrought iewels.

52 And all the golde of the heaue offering that they heaued vp to the Lorde, of the captaines ouer thouſandes and hundreds, was ſixteene thouſand, ſeuen hundred, and fiftie ſicles.

53 (For the men of warre had ſpoyled, euery man [h] for himſelfe.)

h Giuing no part to their captaines.

54 And Moſes and Eleazar the Prieſt tooke the gold of the captaines ouer the thouſandes and hundreds, and brought it into the Tabernacle of the congregation, for a [i] memoriall of the children of Iſrael before the Lord.

i That God might haue them in remembrance.

The xxxii. Chapter.

Moſes giueth to the Rubenites, Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manaſſes, their portion of their inheritance beyond Iordane.

1 THe children [a] of Ruben, and the childrē of Gad, had an exceeding great multitude of cattell: And when they ſaw the land of Iazer, and the lande of Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattell, a Ruben was [b] ſonne of Lea Iacobs wife, & Gad was ſonne to Zilpha her handmayde, Gen. 31.47.

2 The children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, came and ſpake vnto Moſes and Eleazar the Prieſt, and vnto the Lords of the congregation, ſaying,

3 The land of Ataroth and Dibon, Iazer, and Nemrah, Helbon and Elealeh, Sabam, and Nebo, and Beon, 4 Which countrey the Lord ſmote before the congregation of Iſrael, is a lande meete for cattell, and we thy ſeruants haue cattell.

5 Wherefore, ſayde they, if we haue founde grace in thy ſight, let this land be giuen vnto thy ſeruants to poſſeſſe, and bring vs not ouer Iordane.

6 And Moſes ſayde vnto the children of Gad and of Ruben, Shall your brethren goe to warre, and ſhal ye ſit here?

7 Wherefore diſcourage yee the heart of the children of Iſrael, that they ſhould not goe ouer into the lande which the Lord hath giuen them?

8 Thus did your fathers when I ſent them from Cades Barnea to ſee the land.

9 * For when they went vp euen vnto the riuer of Eſcol, and ſaw the land, they diſcouraged the heart of the children of Iſrael, that they ſhould not goe into the lande which the Lord had giuen them. Num. 13.24.

10 And the Lordes wrath was kindled the ſame time, and he ſware, ſaying, 11 * None of the men that came out of Egypt, from twentie yeeres olde and aboue, ſhall ſee the lande which I ſware vnto Abraham, Iſaac, and Iacob, becauſe they haue not wholly followed me, Num. 14.28.

12 Saue Caleb the ſonne of Iephunne the Kenezite, and Joſuah the ſonne of Nun: for they haue conſtantly followed the Lord.

13 And the Lord was very angry with Iſrael, and made them wander in the wildernesse fourtie yeeres, vntill all the generations that had done euill in the sight of the Lorde, were consumed.

14 And beholde, ye are risen vp in your fathers steade, as an increase of sinfull men, to augmẽt the fierce wrath of the Lord towarde Israel.

15 For if ye turne away from after him, he will yet againe leaue the people in the wildernes, [b] and ye shal destroy all this folke.

b Ye shalbe the cause that they shal perish.

16 And they went neere him, and said, We wil buylde sheepefoldes here for our sheepe, and for our cattell, and [walled] cities for our children:

17 But we our selues will goe ready armed before the children of Israel, vntyll wee haue brought them vnto [c] their place: and our children shal dwell in the fenced cities, because of the inhabiters of the land.

c Into the land of promise.

18 We will not returne vnto our houses, vntil the children of Israel haue inherited, euery man his inheritance:

19 Neither will we inherite with them on yonder side Iordane forward, because our inheritance is fallen to vs on this side Iordane Eastwarde.

20 And Moses sayd vnto them, * If ye will do this thing, and go harnessed [d] before the Lord to warre, Iosh.1.13.

d Before the Arke.

21 And wil goe all of you in harnesse ouer Iordane before the Lorde, vntill he haue cast out his [e] enemies from his sight, e The inhabitants of Chanaan.

22 And vntill the lande be subdued before the Lord: then ye shal returne, & be without sinne [f] before the Lorde, and before Israel, and this land shall be your possession before the Lorde.

f God will giue you the land that ye desire.

23 But if ye will not doe so, beholde, ye haue sinned against the Lorde: and be sure [g] your sinne will finde you out.

g You shal not go vnpunished for your sinne.

24 Nowe therefore, buylde cities for your children, and foldes for your sheepe, and doe that ye haue spoken.

25 The children of Gad, and the children of Ruben spake vnto Moses, saying, Thy seruants will do as my Lord commandeth.

26 Our children, our wiues, our sheepe, and our cattell, shall remayne here in the cities of Gilead:

27 But thy seruants will goe all harnessed for the warre, and vnto battel before the Lord, as my lorde sayth.

Iosh.4.12.

28 * And for their sakes Moses commaunded Eleazar the Priest, and Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel,

29 And Moses sayd vnto them, If the children of Gad, and the children of Ruben will goe with you ouer Iordane, all armed to fight before the Lorde, then when the land is subdued before you, ye shall giue them the land of Gilead to possesse:

30 But if they [h] will not goe ouer with you in harnesse, they shall haue their possessions among you in the land of Chanaan.

h Ouer Iordane.

31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Ruben answered, saying, As the Lorde hath sayd vnto thy seruants, so will we do:

32 We will goe harnessed before the Lorde into the lande of Chanaan, that the possession of our inheritance may be giuen vs on this side Iordane.

33 * And Moses gaue vnto the children of Gad, and to the children of Ruben, and vnto halfe the tribe of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, the kingdome of Sehon king of the [i] Amorites, and the kingdome of Og king of Basan, the land, with the cities thereof, in the coasts and cities of the countrey round about.

Deut.3.12; iosu.13.8.

i Those Amorites yt dwelt on this side Iordane. Some of them dwelt by Iordane, of whom mention is made, Iof.10.

34 And the children of Gad buylt Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 And Atroth, Sophan, Jaaser, and Jogbea,

36 Bethnimra, and Betharan, fenced cities: and they buylt foldes for the sheepe.

37 And the children of Ruben buylt Hesbon, Eleale, Kiriathaim, 38 Nebo, Baalmeon, and turned their names, and Sibama also: and gaue other names vnto the cities which they buylded.

39 * And the children of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, went to Gilead, and tooke it, & put out the Amorites that dwelt therein.

Gen.50.23.

40 And Moses gaue Gilead vnto Machir the sonne of Manasse, and he dwelt therein.

41 And Jair the sonne of Manasse, went and tooke the small townes thereof, and called them [k] Hauoth Jair.

k That is to say, the villages of Jair.

42 And Nobah went and tooke Kenath, and the townes longing thereto, and called it Nobah, after his owne name.

The xxxiiii. Chapter.

1 The coastes and borders of the land of promise. 17 Certaine men are assigned to deuide the land.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moses, saying,

2 Commande the childrẽ of Israel, and say vnto them, When ye come into the land of Chanaan, [a] this is the land that shall fall vnto your inheritance, [euen] the land of Chanaan, with their coastes.

a That is to say, this is the description of the land of Chanaan, which ye shal inherite. Iosu. 15.1.

3 *And your South quarter shall be from the wildernesse of Zin, along by the coast of Edom, so that your South quarter reache vpon the side of the [b] salt sea Eastward:

b Otherwise, the dead sea.

4 And fet a compasse from the South vp to Acrabim, and reache to Zin: And go out from the South to Cades Barnea, and go out also to Hazar Adar, and go along to Azmon:

5 And fet a compasse againe from Azmon vnto the [c] riuer of Egypt, and shall goe out at the sea.

c By which riuer some thinke Nilus to be meant: some others Rhinocorura, called Mediterraneum.

6 And let your West quarter be the great sea, let the same sea be your West coast.

7 And this shalbe your North quarter: ye shal compasse your border from the great sea, vnto [d] mount Hor.

d Hor, a litle hill, but not that whereon Aaron dyed.

8 And from mount Hor, ye shall describe your border till it come vnto Hemath, [e] the ende of the coast shalbe at Zedada.

9 And the coast shal reache out to Ziphron, and goe out at Hazar Enan: This shall be your North quarter.

10 And ye shal describe your East quarter from Hazar Enan to Sepham.

11 And the coast shal go downe from Sepham to Ribla, on the East side of Ain: And ỹ same border shall descende and goe out at the side of [e] Cenereth Eastward.

e Which is in the Gospel called the lake of Genezareth.

12 And then goe downe along by Iordane, and leaue at the salt sea: and this shalbe your land, with the coastes thereof round about.

13 And Moses commanded the childrẽ of Israel, saying, This is the land which ye shal inherite by lot, and which the Lord commanded to giue vnto nine tribes and an halfe.

14 For the tribe of the childrẽ of Ruben, according to the housholdes of their fathers, and the tribe of the childrẽ of Gad, according to their fathers housholds, and halfe the tribe of Manasse, haue receiued their inheritance.

15 Two tribes and an halfe haue receiued their inheritance on this side of Iordane, ouer against Iericho, Eastward.

16 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

17 * These are the names of the men which shall deuide the lande vnto you: Eleazar the Priest, and Iosuah the sonne of Nun. Iosu. 14.1.

18 And ye shal take also a [f] lorde of euery tribe, when ye deuide the land. f One of the chiefe men of euery tribe.

19 The names of the men are these: Of the tribe of Juda, Caleb the sonne of Iephune.

20 Of the tribe of the childrẽ of Simeon, Semuel the sonne of Amiud.

25 Of the tribe of the sonnes of Zabulõ, the lord Elisaphan the sonne of Pharnach.

26 Of the tribe of the childrẽ of Issachar, the lord Paltiel the sonne of Asan.

27 Of the tribe of the sonnes of Aser, the lorde Ahiud the sonne of Salomi.

28 Of the tribe of the childrẽ of Nephthali, the lord Pedael the sonne of Ammihud.

29 These are they whome the Lord commanded to deuide the inheritance vnto the childrẽ of Israel, in the land of Chanaan.

The xxxv. Chapter.

16 The law of manslaughter. 30 For one mans witnesse shall no man be condemned.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moses in the fieldes of Moab by Iordane, ouer against Iericho, saying,

2 Cõmand the childrẽ of Israel, that they giue vnto the Leuites of the inheritance of their possession, cities to dwell in: [f] ye shall giue also vnto the cities of the Leuites, suburbes, hard by their cities round about them. Iosu. 21.3.

3 The cities shal they haue to dwel in, and the suburbes for their cattell, and for their possessiõ, and all maner of beastes of theirs.

4 And the suburbes of the cities which ye shal giue vnto the Leuites, shall reache from the wall of the citie outward, a thousand cubites round about.

5 And ye shal measure without the citie of the East side, two thousande cubites: and of the South side, two thousand cubites: and of the West side, two thousande cubites: and of the North side, two thousand cubites also, and the citie shalbe in the middes, and these shalbe the suburbes of their cities.

6 * And from among the cities which ye shall giue vnto the Leuites, there shalbe sixe cities for refuge, which ye shall appoynt [to that intent] that he which killeth, may flee thither: And to them ye shall adde fourtie and two cities moe. Deut. 4.41. iosu. 20.2.

7 So that all the cities which ye shal giue the Leuites, Leuites, may be fourtie and eight, them [shall ye giue] with their suburbes.

8 And these cities which ye shall giue, shall be out of the possession of the children of Israel. They that haue many, shal giue many: but of them that haue fewe, ye shal take fewe. Euery one shall giue of his cities vnto ỹ Leuites, according to ỹ inheritance which he inheriteth.

9 And the Lord spake vnto Moses, saying,

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them, * Whē ye be come ouer Iordane, into the land of Chanaan, Deut. 19.2. Iosu. 20.2.

11 Ye shal appoynt you cities, to be cities of refuge for you: that he which slayeth a person vnawares, may flee thither.

12 And these cities shall be vnto you a refuge from the [a] auenger of blood: that he which killeth, die not, vntil he stand before the [b] congregation in iudgement.

a The next of kinne to the partie slayne, which ought to followe the suite.
b The Hebrues vnderstand by the congregation, the Senatours & chiefe iudges in the citie.

13 And of these cities which ye shall giue, sixe cities shal ye haue for refuge.

14 Ye shall giue three [c] on this side Iordane, & three in the land of Chanaan, which shalbe cities of refuge.

c In the possession of the Rubenites, Gadites, & the halfe tribe of Manasses.

15 And these sixe cities shalbe a refuge, both for the children of Israel, & for the stranger, & for him that dwelleth among you: that all they which kil any persō vnwares, may flee thither.

16 And if any man smite another with an instrument of yron, that he die, then is he a murderer, and the murderer shal die for it.

17 If he smite him with throwing a stone, that a man may die with, & if he die, he that smote him is a murderer: let the same murderer be slaine therefore.

18 Or if he smite him with an hand weapon of wood, that a man may die with, then if he die, he is a murderer: let the same murderer bee slayne therefore.

19 The [d] reuenger of blood himselfe shall slay the murderer: when he meeteth him, he shall slay him.

d He that is next of kin to him that is murdered.

20 *But if he thrust him of hate, or hurle at him by laying of wayte, that he die,

Deut. 19.11.

21 Or smite him with his hand of enmitie, that he die: he that smote him shal die the death, for he is a murderer: the reuēger of the blood shal slay the murderer, when he meeteth him.

22 But if he pushed him vnaduisedly, and not of hate, or cast vpon him any thing, and not in laying of wayte,

23 Or any maner of stone, that a man may die with, and sawe him not, and he caused it to fall vpon him, and he die, and was not his enemie, neither sought him any harme:

24 Then the congregation shal iudge betweene the slayer and the reuenger of blood, according to these lawes.

25 And the congregation shal deliuer the slayer out of the hand of the reuenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore him to the citie of his refuge whither he was fled: and he shal abide there vnto the death [e] of the high Priest, which was anoynted with the holy oyle.

e This was a figure of Christ by whose death our sinnes are pardoned.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of his citie of refuge, whither he was fledde:

27 And the reuenger of blood finde him without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reuenger of blood kill the slayer, he shalbe guyltlesse:

28 Because he should haue biddē in the towne of his refuge, vntill the death of the hygh Priest: and after the death of the high Priest, the slayer shoulde returne vnto the land of his possession.

29 So these things shalbe [f] a law of iudgement vnto you, throughout your generations in all your dwellings.

f That is, to iudge wilfull or casual murderers.

30 Who so killeth any person, the [iudge] shall put the murderer to death through witnesses: but one witnesse shall not testifie against any person, to cause him to die.

31 Moreouer, ye shall take no recompense for the life of the murderer which is worthie to die, but he shalbe put to death.

32 And yee shall take no recompence for him that is fledde to the citie of his refuge, that he should come againe and dwell in the land, before the death of the high Priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the lande which ye shall dwell in, for blood defileth the land: and the lande can not be cleansed of the blood that is shed therein, but by the blood of him that shed blood.

34 Defile not therefore the lande which yee shal inhabite, for I am in the middes thereof: [euen] I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel.

The xxxvi. Chapter.

1 An order for the marriage of the daughters of Zalphaad. 7 The inheritance coulde not be giuen from one tribe to another.

1 AND the chiefe fathers of the families of the children of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, of the kinred of the sonnes of Joseph, came forth, and spake before Moses, and before the Princes the chiefe fathers of the children of Israel,

2 And saide, * The Lorde commanded [a] my Lord to giue the land to inherite by lot to the children of Israel: and my lord was commanded by the Lord, to giue the inheritāce of Zalphaad our brother, vnto his daughters.

Num. 27.1. Iosu. 17.3.
a He meaneth Moses.

3 If they be marryed to any of the sonnes of [b] the other tribes of the childrē of Israel, then shal their inheritance be taken from the inheritance of our fathers, and shalbe put to the inheritance of the tribe which they are receiued into, and so shall it be taken from the lot of our inheritance.

b To any of another tribe then of Manasses.

4 And when the Iubilee of the children of Israel commeth, then shall their inheritance bee put vnto the inheritance of the tribe wherein to they are receyued, and so shall their inheritance be taken away from the inheritance of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moses commanded the children of Israel, according to the worde of the Lorde, saying, The tribe of the sonnes of Joseph hath [e] sayde well.

e For ỹ tribe could not haue continued, if their inheritance had bene taken from them. Tob. 1. 9.

6 This therefore doth the Lord command the daughters of Zalphaad, saying, * Let them be wiues to whom they themselues thinke best: onely to the familie of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

7 So shall not the inheritance of the children of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe: for euery one of the children of Israel shal ioyne himself to the inheritance of the tribe of his fathers.

8 And euery daughter that possesseth any inheritance [d] in any tribe of the children of Israel, shalbe wife vnto one of the kinred of the tribe of her father, that the children of Israel may enioy euery man ỹ inheritance of his father.

d Which shal be when there is no male childe to inherite.

9 Neither ought the inheritance to goe from one tribe to another: but euery one of ỹ tribes of the children of Israel, shall be ioyned to his owne inheritance.

10 And as the Lord commanded Moses, so did the daughters of Zalphaad:

11 For Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milcha, and Noa, the daughters of Zalphaad, were maryed vnto their fathers brothers sonnes.

12 They were wiues vnto the families of the sonnes of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, and so their inheritance remayned in the tribe of the kinred of their father.

13 These are the [e] commandements and lawes which the Lorde commanded by the hande of Moses, vnto the children of Israel in ỹ fieldes of Moab, by Iordane [toward] Iericho.

e That is, concerning the ceremoniall and iudiciall lawes

The ende of the fourth booke of Moses, called Numeri.

The fifth booke of Moses, called in the Hebrue Elle haddebarim, and in the Latine Deuteronomium.

The first Chapter.

Moses reproueth the people for their incredulitie.

1 THese bee the wordes which Moses spake vnto al Israel, on [a] the other side Iordane in the wildernesse, in the plaine ouer against the red sea, betweene Pharan and Thophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Dizahab.

a In the countrey of Moab: & this wildernesse was betweene the playne of Moab & the sea.

2 There are eleuen dayes iourney frō Horeb, by ỹ way of mount Seir, vnto Cades Barnea.

3 And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fourtieth yeere, that Moses spake vnto the children of Israel, according vnto all that the Lord had giuen him in commandement vnto them,

Num. 21. 24.

4 * After he had slayne Sehon the king of the Amorites, which dwelt in Hesbon, and Og king of Basan, which dwelt at Astaroth in Edrai.

5 On the other side Iordane in the lande of Moab, beganne Moses to declare this lawe, saying, b In the second yeere, & second moneth, Num. 10. 11.

6 The Lorde our God spake vnto vs in [b] Horeb, saying, Yee haue dwelt long ynough in this mount:

7 Turne you, and take your iourney, and goe to the mount of the Amorites, and vnto all the places nigh thereunto, both vnto the plaine, & hilles, and dales, to the South, to the sea side, to the land of Chanaan, & vnto Libanon, vnto the great riuer, the riuer Euphrates.

8 Beholde, I haue set the land before you: Go in and possesse the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, to giue vnto them, and to their seede after them.

9 And [c] I spake vnto you in the same time, saying, * I am not able to beare you my selfe alone:

c By the counsell of Jethro my father in lawe. Exod. 18. 18.

10 For the Lorde your God hath multiplyed you, so that you be this day as the starres of heauen in number.

11 (The Lorde God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many moe as ye are, and blesse you, as he hath promised you.)

12 * Howe can I my selfe alone [d] beare your cumbrance, your charge, and your strife that is [among you?]

Exod. 18. 18.

d Meaning, that Moses had an hard gouernance among them.

13 Bring you men of wisedome, and of vnderstāding, and expert according to your tribes, and I will make them rulers ouer you.

14 And ye answered me, & sayde, That which thou hast spoken, is good for vs to doe.

15 And so out of your tribes [c] I tooke the chiefe men of wisedome, and that were expert, and made them rulers ouer you, captaines ouer thousands, and captaines ouer hundreds, captaines ouer fifties, and captaines ouer tennes, and officers among your tribes.

c To signifie, that expert & knowen men in godlinesse ought to be taken to gouerne

16 And I charged your Iudges that same time, saying, * Heare the cause of your brethren, & iudge righteously betweene euery man & his brother, and the stranger that is with him.

Iosu. 7. 24.

17 * Ye

Leuit.19.15. Deu.24.23.

17 * Ye shall haue no respect of any person in iudgement, but you shall heare the small as well as the great: You shall not feare the face of any man, for the iudgement is Gods: And the cause that is too hard for you, referre it vnto me, and I wil heare it.

18 And I commanded you the same season, all the things which ye should doe.

19 And whē we departed from Horeb, we went through all that great & terrible wildernesse, as ye haue seene by the way of the mountaine of the Amorites, as the Lord our God cōmanded vs: and we came to Cades Barnea.

f So that it is to be imputed to themselues, that they enioyed not the inheritance sooner.

20 And f I said vnto you, Ye are come vnto the mountaine of the Amorites, which the Lorde our God doeth giue vnto vs.

21 Beholde, the Lord thy God hath set the land before thee: goe vp and possesse it, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath said vnto thee: Feare not, neither be discouraged.

22 And ye came vnto me euery one, and saide, We wil send men before vs, to searche vs out the lande, and to bring vs worde againe what way we must goe vp by, and vnto what cities we shal come.

Nom.13.4.

23 * And the saying pleased me well: & I tooke twelue men of you, of euery tribe one.

Nom.13.24.

g Otherwise, vnto the valley of grapes.

24 * Which departed, and went vp into that mountaine, and came vnto the g valley Escol, and searched it out,

25 And tooke of the fruite in their handes, and brought it vnto vs, and brought vs worde againe, and h said, It is a good land which the Lord our God doeth giue vs.

h To wit, Caleb & Iosuah.

26 Notwithstanding, ye would not goe vp, but were disobedient vnto the worde of the Lorde your God, 27 And murmured in your tentes, and sayde, Because the Lorde i hateth vs, therefore hath he brought vs out of the land of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs.

i Such was the Iewes vnthankfulnesse, that they coūted Gods speciall loue hatred.

28 Whither shal we go vp? Our brethren haue discouraged our heart, saying, The people is greater & taller then we, the cities are great, and walled vp to heauen, & moreouer, we haue seene the sonnes of the k Anakims there.

k That is, the race of the Giants, as in Num.13.23.

29 Then I said vnto you, Dread not, nor be afraide of them:

30 The Lorde your God which goeth before you, he shal fight for you, according to al that he did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes:

31 And in the wildernes, where thou hast seene howe that the Lorde thy God bare thee, as a man doeth beare his sonne, in all the way which ye haue gone by, vntill yee came vnto this place:

32 And yet in this thing ye did not beleeue the Lord your God.

Exod.13.21.

33 * He went in the way before you, to searche you out a place to pitche your tents in, in fire by night, that ye might see what way to goe, and in a cloude by day.

34 And the Lord heard ṕ voyce of your wordes, and was wroth, and sware, saying, 35 * There shall not one of these men, and of this frowarde generation, see that good lande which I sware to giue vnto your fathers: Nom.14.30.

36 Saue Caleb the sonne of Iephune, he shall see it, and to him will I giue the land that he hath troden vpon, and to his children, because he hath followed the Lord.

37 Also the Lorde was angry with me for your sakes, saying, * Thou also shalt not goe in thither. Nom.20.12.

38 But Iosuah the sonne of Nun, which l standeth before thee, he shal go in thither. Encourage him therefore: for he shal cause Israel to inherite the land.

l Ministreth vnto thee.

39 Moreouer, m your children, which ye sayde should be a pray, & your sonnes which in that day had no knowledge betweene good and euill, they shall goe in thither, and vnto them wil I giue it, and they shal enioy it.

m Which were vnder xx. yeres old, Nū.14.31.

40 But as for you, turne your face, & take your iourney into the wildernesse, by the way of the red sea.

41 * Then ye answered, and said vnto me, We haue sinned against the Lord, n we will go vp, and fight, according to all that the Lorde our God commanded vs. And when ye had girde on euery man his weapons of warre, ye were ready to goe vp into the hill.

Nom.14.40.

n This doeth declare what is the nature of man, which will doe that which God forbiddeth, & wil not do that which God commandeth.

42 And the Lord said vnto me, Say vnto them, Go not vp, neither fight, for o I am not amōg you: least ye fall before your enemies.

o Ye shewed p our strength standeth in Gods assistāce.

43 And I told you these things, and you would not heare, but disobeyed the word of the Lord, and went presumptuously vp into the hill.

44 And the Amorites which dwelt in that mountaine came out against you, and chased you as Bees vse to doe, and destroyed you in Seir, euen vnto Horma.

45 And ye came againe, and wept before the Lorde: but the Lorde p would not heare your voyce, nor hearken vnto you.

p The cause was, for that they lamented not their sinne, but for the losse of their brethren & so were hypocrites in their lamenting.

46 And so yee abode in Cades a long season, according vnto the time that yee remayned [before.]

The ii. Chapter.

1 A rehearsall of the benefites of God bestowed vpon his people. 9 Israel is forbidden to fight against the Edomites, Moabites, and Ammonites. 33 Sehon king of Hesbon is discomfited.

1 THen we turned our face, and tooke our iourney into the a wildernesse by the way of the red sea, as the Lorde spake vnto mee: and we compassed mount Seir a long time.

a The desert of Zin.

2 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying,

3 Ye haue compassed this mountaine long enough: turne you Northward.

4 And warne thou the people, saying, Ye shall goe through the [b] coast of your brethren the children of Esau, which dwell in Seir, and they shalbe afraid of you.

b At their returne thither: for before they were repelled by ꝑ Idumeans, as Num. 20.21. Gen.23.

5 Take ye good heede vnto your selues therefore: Ye shal not prouoke them, for I will not giue you of their lande, no not so much as a foote breadth, because I haue giuen mount Seir vnto Esau to possesse.

6 Ye shall buye meate of them for money to eate, and ye shal procure water of them for money to drinke:

7 For the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee in all the workes of thy hand, and [c] knoweth thy walking through this great wildernesse, and this fourtie yeres the Lord thy God hath bene with thee, so that thou hast lacked nothing.

c Knowing, is here taken for fauouring, as in many other places of Scripture.

8 And when we were departed from our brethren the children of Esau, which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the ‖ wildernesse, from Elath, & from Ezion gaber, we turned & went by the way of the wildernesse of Moab.

‖ Or, desart.

9 And the Lord said vnto me, Thou shalt not fight against the Moabites, neither prouoke them to battaile: For I will not giue thee of their lande to possesse, because I haue giuen Ar vnto the children of Lot to possesse.

10 The [d] Emims dwelt therein in times past, a people great, many, & tal, as the [e] Anakims,

d Giants: the word signifieth terrible men.

11 Which also were taken for Giantes, as the Anakims, whome the Moabits call Emims.

e Giantes which came of one Anak, Num.13.23.

12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before time, whome the children of Esau chased out, and destroyed them before them, & dwelt in their steade, as Israel did vnto the lande of his possession, which the Lord gaue them.

13 Nowe rise vp [saide I,] and get you ouer
the riuer Zared: and we went ouer the riuer Zared.

14 The space in which wee came from Cades
Barnea, vntill we were come ouer the riuer Zared, was thirtie and eight yeeres, vntill all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hoste, as the Lorde sware vnto them.

15 For in deede the hande of the Lorde was against them, to destroy them from among the [f] hoste, till they were consumed.

f That were of the age of twentie yeeres and vpward.

16 And so it came to passe, that all the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people.

17 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying,

18 Thou shalt go through Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:

19 And when thou commest nigh vnto the children of Ammon, thou shalt not lay siege vnto them, nor moue warre against them: for I wil not giue thee of the lande of the children of Ammon any possession, I haue giuen it vnto the children of Lot to possesse.

20 That also was taken for a land of Giantes, and Giants dwelt therein in olde time, whom the Ammonites call [g] Zamzummims, g Called Zamzummims, ꝑ is to say, wicked & abominable. But they couered their wickednesse with a godly name, calling themselues Rephaims, ꝑ is, phisitions, or preseruers, to cure & reforme vices.

21 A people that was great, many, and tall, as the Anakims: But the Lorde destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritance, and dwelt in their steade:

22 As hee did for the children of Esau which dwelt in Seir, for whom he destroyed the Horims before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their steade vnto this day.

h These are men of Capadocia, as some men say. Iosephus saieth, that this people is vnknowen.

23 And the Auims which dwelt in Hazarim, euen vnto Azza, the [h] Caphthorims which came out of Caphthor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their steade.

24 Rise ye vp therefore, and take your iourney ouer the riuer Arnon: Beholde, I haue giuen into thy hande Sehon the Ammorite, king of Hesbon, and his land, begin to possesse it, and prouoke him to battaile.

25 This day will I begin to send the feare and dread of thee vpon all nations that are vnder al the heauen, so that they which heare speake of thee, shall tremble and quake before thee.

26 * And so I sent messengers out of the wil- Num.21.21.
dernesse of Kedemoth, vnto Sehon king of Hesbon, with words of peace, saying,

27 Let me passe through thy land, I will goe along by the high way, I wil neither turne vnto the right hand, nor to the left.

28 Thou shalt sell mee meate for money, for to eate, & giue me water for mony, for to drinke:
Onely I will go through on my feete,

29 As the [i] children of Esau which dwell in mount Seir, and the Moabites which dwell in Ar, did vnto me, vntill I be come ouer Jordane, into the land which the Lorde our God giueth vs.

i Because Sehon could be moued neither with praises, nor requests, his destruction was most iust.

30 But Sehon the king of Hesbon would not let vs passe by him, for the Lord thy God hardened his spirit, and made his heart obstinate, because he would deliuer him into thy hande,
as it is come to passe this day.

31 And the Lorde sayde vnto me, * Beholde, I Amos.2.9.
haue begun to giue Sehon & his land before thee, begin to possesse and inherite his land.

32 Then both Sehon and all his people, came out against vs to fight at Jaza.

33 And the Lorde set him before vs, & we smote him, and his sonnes, and all his people.

34 And we tooke all his cities the same season, and slewe the men, women, and children of all the cities, and let nothing remayne,

35 Saue the cattell onely we caught vnto our selues, & the spoyle of ꝑ cities which we tooke.

36 From Aroer which is by the brynke of the riuer of Arnon, and from the citie that is in the riuer vnto Gilead, there was not one citie too strong for vs: the Lord our God deliuered all [k] vnto vs.

k Into our handes.

37 Onely vnto the land of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor vnto euery place of the

‖Or, foorde. the ‖ riuer Jabok, nor vnto the cities in the mountaines, nor vnto whatsoeuer the Lorde our God forbade vs.

The iij. Chapter.

Things that chaunced from the victorie of the two kings, Sehon and Og, vnto the institution of Iosuah in Moses steade.

1 THen we turned, and went vp the way to Basan: * and Og the King of Basan came out against vs, he and all his people, to fight at Edrai.

Numb. 21. 33. deut. 29. 7. *

2 And the Lord saide vnto me, Feare him not: for I will deliuer him, and all his people, and his land into thy hand, and thou shalt do vnto him, *as thou diddest vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon.

Numb. 21. 24. *

Numb. 21. 33. *

3 And so the Lorde our God deliuered into our handes Og also the king of Basan, and all his folke: and wee smote him vntill none was left him aliue.

4 And we tooke all his cities the same season, neither was there a citie which wee tooke not from them, threescore cities throughout the region of Argob, of the kingdome of Og in Basan.

5 All these cities also were made strong with high walles, gates, and barres, beside vnwalled townes a great many.

6 And we vtterly destroyed them, as wee did vnto Sehon King of Hesbon, bringing to nought all the cities, with men, women, and [a] childrẽ:

[a] As God commanded them.

7 But all the cattell, and the spoyle of the cities, we tooke for our selues.

8 And thus wee tooke the same season out of the hande of two kings of the Amorites, the land that was on the other side Jordane, from the riuer of Arnon, vnto mount Hermon:

9 (Which Hermon the Sidons cal Syrion: and the Amorites call it Senir.)

10 All the cities that lie in the plaine, and all Gilead, and all Basan, vnto Selcha, & Edrai, cities of the kingdome of Og in Basan:

11 For onely Og King of Basan remained of the remnant of the Giantes, whose bed was a bedde of [b] yron: And is it not yet at Rabbath among the children of Ammon? Nine cubites doeth the length thereof conteine, and foure cubites the breadth of it, after the cubite of a [c] man.

[b] The more terrible this Giant was, the more was Gods goodnes and power to be magnified for the cõquest.

[c] Of the common stature. Numb. 32. 33.

12 *And so wee conquered this lande the same time, from Aroer, which is by the riuer of Arnon, vnto halfe mount Gilead, and the rities thereof gaue I vnto the Rubenites, and Gadites.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Basan, of the kingdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe tribe of Manasse: euen all the region of Argob, with all Basan, which is called the lande of Giantes.

14 Jair the sonne of Manasse, tooke all the countrey of Argob, vnto the coastes of Gessuri, and Maachati, and called them after his owne name, Basan Hauoth Jair, [d] vnto this day.

[d] Till ꝑ time when this storp was written.

15 And I gaue Gilead vnto Machir.

16 And vnto the Rubenites and Gadites, I gaue Gilead, vnto the riuer of Arnon, halfe the valley, and beyonde, euen vnto the riuer [e] Jabok, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

[e] Which deuideth ꝑ Ammonites from the Amorites.

17 The [f] plaine also, and Jordane, and the coast thereof, from [g] Cenereth, vnto the sea which is in the plaine, euen the salt sea, vnder the spyings of the hill, Eastwarde.

[f] The desart.

[g] Called also Genezareth, or the sea of Galilee, or Tiberias.

18 And I cõmanded you the same time, saying, The Lorde your God hath giuen you this land to enioy it: Ye shall goe harnessed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are meete for the warre.

19 Your wiues onely, your children, and your cattell (for I know that ye haue much cattel) shall abide in your cities which I haue giuen you,

20 Until the Lorde haue giuen rest vnto your brethren, as well as vnto you, and vntill they also possesse the lande which the Lorde your God hath giuen them beyonde Jordane: and then shall yee returne againe euery man vnto his possession which I haue giuen you.

21 *And I commaunded Josuah him selfe the same time, saying, Thine eyes haue seene all that the Lord your God hath done vnto these two kings: so shall he doe vnto all kingdomes whither thou goest.

Numb. 27. 18. *

22 Ye shall not feare them: for the Lorde your God he shall fight for you.

23 And I besought the Lorde the same time, saying,

24 O Lorde God, thou hast begun to shewe thy seruant thy greatnesse, and thy mightie hand: for where is there a [h] God in heauen or in earth, that can do after thy workes, and like to thy power?

[h] He speaketh according to the common and corrupt speach of them which attribute that power to idoles & false goddes, which onely appertaineth vnto ꝑ true God.

25 I pray thee let me go ouer, and see the good lande that is beyonde Jordane, that goodly [i] mountaine, and Libanon.

[i] Of Moriah, or Sion, where the Temple was builded.

26 But the Lorde was angry with me for your sakes, and would not heare me: and the Lorde saide vnto me, Be content, speake no more vnto me of this matter.

27 Get thee vp into the toppe of ‖ the hill, and lift vp thine eyes Westwarde, Northwarde, Southwarde, and Eastwarde, and beholde it with thine eyes: for thou shalt not goe ouer this Jordane.

‖Or, Pisgah.

28 But charge Josuah, and encourage him, and bolden him: For hee shall goe before this people, and he shall diuide vnto them the land which thou shalt see.

29 And so wee abode in the valley ouer against the ‖ house of Peor.

‖Or, Church, or Temple.

The

The iiii. Chapter.

An exhortation to obserue the law without adding thereto, or diminishing. 9 We must teache the lawe to our children. 15 Wee ought to make no image whereby we might be induced to idolatrie.

1 NOw therefore hearken, O Israel, vnto the ordinances and lawes which I teach you, for to doe them, that so yee may liue, and goe in and possesse the land which the Lorde God of your fathers giueth you.

2 Ye shall put nothing vnto the worde which I command you, neither shall you take ought from it, that yee may [a] keepe the commandements of the Lorde your God, which I commande you.

a For the vnnecessarie traditions of men do hinder gods worde, and carry men from the trueth.

3 [b] Your eyes haue seene what the Lorde did against Baal Peor: for all the men that followed Baal Peor, the Lorde thy God hath destroyed from among you.

b He warneth them by Gods plagues shewed on other idolaters.

4 But ye that cleaue vnto the Lord your God, are aliue euery one of you this day.

5 Behold, I haue taught you ordinances and lawes, such as the Lord my God commanded me, that ye should do so in the land whither ye go to possesse it.

6 Keepe them therefore, and doe them, for that is [c] your wisedome and vnderstanding in the sight of the people, that they may heare all these ordinances, and saye, Surely it is a wise and vnderstanding people, it is a great nation.

c Gods wisedome standeth in faith, and in keeping of gods commandements.

7 For what other nation is so great, that goddes come so nigh vnto, as the Lorde our God is nigh vnto vs in al things as oft as we call vnto him?

8 Yea, and what nation is so great, that hath ordinances and lawes so righteous, as al this lawe which I set before you this day?

9 Take heede to thy selfe therefore, and keepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the things which thine eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thy heart all the dayes of thy life: but teach them thy sonnes, and thy sonnes sonnes.

10 Specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lorde thy God in Horeb, when the Lorde said vnto me, Gather me the people together, and I will make them heare my words, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they shall liue vpon the earth, and [ỳ] they may teach their children.

Exod. 19.18.

11 *Yee came and stoode also vnder the mountaine, and the mountaine [d] burnt with fire vnto the middes of heauen, and there was darkenesse, cloudes, and mist.

d The giuing of the lawe in dreadfull maner, declareth that God was auctour of it, and that no flesh coulde beare the rigor therof.

12 And the Lord spake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, and yee hearde the voyce of the wordes, but sawe no similitude, saue heard a voyce onely.

13 And hee declared vnto you his couenant which he commanded you to doe, [euen] ten commandements, which he wrote vpon two tables of stone.

14 And the Lord commanded me that same season, that I shoulde teach you ordinances and lawes, which ye ought to do in the land whither ye go to possesse it.

15 Take therefore good heed vnto your selues, as parteining vnto your soules, [e] (for ye sawe no maner of image in the day that the Lorde spake vnto you in Horeb out of the middes of the fire,)

e Meaning, that plagues hang ouer the that woulde make any image to represent God by.

16 Lest yee marre your selues, and make you a grauen image and picture of any maner of figure, whither it be the likenesse of man, or woman,

17 The likenesse of any maner of beast that is on the earth, or the likenesse of any maner feathered foule that fleeth in the ayre,

18 Or the likenesse of any maner worme that creepeth on the earth, or the likenesse of any maner fish that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 Yea, and lest thou lift vp thine eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne, the moone, and the starres, with all the hoste of heauen, shouldest be driuen to worship them, and serue them, and shouldest worshippe and serue the thinges, which the Lorde thy God hath made to serue all nations vnder ỳ whole heauen.

20 But the Lorde hath taken you, and brought you out of the [f] iron furnace, euen out of Egypt, to bee vnto him a people and an inheritance, as ye be this day.

f Most hard & cruel bondage

21 *Furthermore, the Lorde was angrie with me for your words, and sware that I shoulde not goe ouer Iordane, and that I shoulde not go in vnto that good land which the Lord thy God giueth thee for thine inheritance.

Deut. 1.37.

22 But I must die in this land, and shal not go ouer Iordane: but ye shal go ouer, and possesse that good land.

23 Take heede vnto your selues, that ye forget not the appoyntment of the Lorde your God which hee made with you, and that yee make you no grauen [g] image, or likenesse that the Lord thy God hath forbidden thee.

g To represent God, or to worship it. this so often forbidding of images declareth how detestable idolatrie is in gods sight: and also that God did foresee that the people would turne themselues to such wickednesse.

24 For the Lord thy God is a [h] consuming fire, and a [i] ielous God.

h To the that come not to him in reuerence & feare, but contrarywise resist him, Heb. 12.29.

i So that he will not suffer his honour to be giuen to any other.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and thy children beget children, and shalt haue remained long in the land, ye doe wickedly, & make any maner of grauen image, & worke euill in the sight of the Lord thy God, to prouoke him to anger:

26 I call heauen and earth to record against you this day, that yee shall shortly perish from off the land whereunto you go ouer Iordane to possesse it: Ye shal not prolong your dayes therein, but shall vtterly be destroyed:

27 And

27 And the Lorde shall scatter you among the people, and yee shall be left fewe in number among the nations whither the Lorde shall bring you.
28 And there yee shall serue goddes which are the worke of mens hand, wood & stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor eate, nor smell.
29 If from thence thou shalt seeke the Lord thy God, thou shalt finde him, if thou seeke him with all thy heart, and with all thy soule.
30 When thou art in tribulation, and when all these things that be here spoken of, are come vpon thee, euen in the latter dayes, if thou turne to the Lorde thy God, and shalt be obedient vnto his voyce, 31 (For the Lord thy God is a mercifull God) he will not forsake thee, neither destroy thee, nor forget the appoyntment of thy fathers, which he [k] sware vnto them.

k God confirmeth his promises by an othe, to the end we may be the more certified of the hope of our saluation.

32 For aske of the dayes that are past, which were before & since the day that God created man vpon the earth, and [aske] from the one side of heauen vnto ỹ other, if euer there came to passe such a great thing, or whether any such like thing hath bene heard as this.
33 Did euer any people heare the voyce of God speaking out of the middes of a fire, as thou hast heard, and yet liued?
34 Or hath God assayed to goe and take him a people from among nations, by temptations, by signes, by wonders, by warre, by a mightie hande, by a stretched out arme, and ‖ by great sightes, according to all that the Lorde your God did vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?

‖ Or, terrible.

35 Unto thee it was shewed, that thou mightest knowe that the Lord is God, and that there is none other but he.
36 Out of heauē he made thee heare his voyce, that he might instruct thee: and vpon earth he shewed thee his great fire, and thou hearedst his word out of the middest of the fire.
37 And because hee loued thy fathers, he chose their seede after them, * and brought thee out in his sight with his mightie power out of Egypt,

Exod. 13. 21.

38 To thrust out nations, great and mightier then thou art, before thee, and to bring thee in, and to giue thee their land to inheritance, as it is come to passe this day.
39 Understand therefore this day, and consider it in thine heart, that ỹ Lord he is God in heauen aboue, and vpō the earth beneath, neither is there any other.

l God promiseth rewarde to men: not for ỹ they deserue it, but to make them chearefull in well doing, & to shewe that they shall not serue him in vayne.

40 Thou shalt keepe therefore his ordinances and his commaundements, which I command thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and [l] that thou mayest prolong thy dayes vpon the earth, which the Lorde thy God giueth thee for euer.
41 Then Moses seuered three cities on the other side Iordane, towarde the Sunne rising:
42 That he should flee thither, which had killed his neighbour vnawares, and hated him not in times past, and therefore shoulde flee vnto one of the same cities, and liue:
43 * Namely Bezer in the wildernesse, in the playne countrey of the tribe of Ruben, and Ramoth in Gilead of the tribe of Gad, & Golan in Basan of the tribe of Manasse. Iosu. 20. 8.
44 And so this is the lawe which Moses set before the children of Israel:
45 These are [m] witnesses, statutes, and ordinances, which Moses told the children of Israel after they came out of Egypt, m The articles of the couenant that God made with them.

46 On the other side Iordane in the valley ouer against the house of Peor, in the lande of Sehon king of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon, whom Moses and the children of Israel smote, after they were come out of Egypt,
47 And possessed his land, and the land of Og king of Basan, two Kings of the Amorites, which were on the other side Iordane toward the Sunne rising,
48 From Aroer, which is by the banke of the riuer Arnon, vnto mount Sion, which is Hermon, 49 And all the plaine on the other side Iordane Eastward, euen vnto the [n] sea, which is in the plaine vnder the sydings of ‖ the hill.

n Namely the salt sea, or dead sea.

‖ Or, Pisgah.

The v. Chapter.

5 Moses is the meane betweene God and the people. 6 The lawe is repeated. 23 The people were afraide at Gods voyce. 29 The Lorde wisheth that the people would feare him. 32 They must neither decline to the right hand, nor left.

1 AND Moses called all Israel, and sayde vnto them, Heare, O Israel, the ordinances and lawes which I speake in your eares this day, that ye may learne them, and fulfill them in deede.
2 * The Lord our God made a couenant with vs in Horeb. Exod. 19. 5.
3 The [a] Lorde made not this couenant with our fathers, but with vs: but with vs which are all here aliue this day.

a With such strange wonders.

4 The Lorde talked with you [b] face to face, in the mount out of the middes of the fire:

b So clearely, that you could not doubte but that it was he. Exod. 33. 11.

5 And I stoode betweene the Lorde and you the same time, and shewed you the worde of the Lorde: for yee were afraide at the fight of the fire, and went not vp into the mount, and he saide, 6 [c] I am the Lorde thy God, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

c Conferre this Chapter with the 17. of Exodus.

7 Thou shalt haue none other goddes in my presence.
8 Thou shalt [d] make thee no grauen image, or any likenes of that which is in heauen aboue, d Namely to worship it, or to represent me by it.

or that is in earth beneath, or that is in the waters beneath the earth.

9 Thou shalt neither bowe thy selfe vnto thē, nor worship them: for *I the Lorde thy God am a ielous God, visiting the wickednesse of the fathers vpon the children, vnto the thirde and fourth generation among them that hate me:

Exod.34.7.

10 And shewe mercy vpon thousandes among them that loue me, and keepe my commandementes.

11 *Thou shalt not take the name of the Lord thy God in vaine: for the Lord will not holde him giltlesse that taketh his name in vaine.

Exod.20.7. Leuit.19.12.

12 Keepe the Sabboth day, that thou sanctifie it, as the Lorde *thy God hath commaunded thee.

Exod.20.8.

13 Sixe dayes thou shalt labour, and do al that thou hast to doe:

14 But the seuenth day is the *Sabboth of the Lord thy God: thou shalt not doe any worke, thou, nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy man seruant, nor thy mayde, nor thine Oxe, nor thine Asse, nor any of thy cattell, nor the stranger that is within thy gates: that thy man seruant, and thy mayde, may rest as well as thou.

Gene.2.2. Heb.4.4.

15 Remember that thou wast a seruant in the land of Egypt, and howe that the Lorde thy God brought thee out thence through a mightie hand, and a stretched out arme: For which cause the Lorde thy God commanded thee to keepe the Sabboth day.

16 *Honour thy c father and thy mother, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee, that thy dayes may be prolonged, and that it may goe wel with thee in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

Exod.20.12.

d He forbiddeth not onely the outwarde act, but also all rancor & cruelte & rage against our neighbour. Rom.7.7.

18 Thou shalt not commit adulterie.

19 Thou shalt not steale.

21 *Thou shalt not lust after thy neighbours wife, thou shalt not couet thy neighbours house, his fielde, his seruant, or his mayde, his Oxe, his Asse, or ought that thy neighbour hath.

Exod.20.17.

22 These wordes the Lord spake vnto all your multitude in the mount, out of the middes of the fire, of the cloude, and of the darkenesse, with a great voyce, and added no more [thereto,] and wrote them in two Tables of stone, and deliuered them vnto me.

23 And it came to passe, that when ye heard the voyce out of the middes of the darkenesse (for the mountaine did burne with fire) *then ye came vnto mee, with the captaines of your tribes, and your elders,

Exod.20.19.

24 And yee saide, Beholde, the Lorde our God hath shewed vs his glory and his greatnesse, and we haue heard his voyce out of the middes of the fire: wee haue seene this day that God doeth talke with man, and he yet liueth.

25 Nowe therefore why shoulde wee die? that this great fire should cōsume vs: If we heare the voyce of the Lorde our God any more, we shall die.

26 For what flesh hath it bene that euer hearde the voyce of the liuing God speaking out of the middes of the fire (as we haue done) and yet did liue?

27 Goe thou and heare all that the Lorde our God sayeth, and tell thou vnto vs all that the Lorde our God sayeth vnto thee, and we will heare it, and doe it.

28 And the Lord heard ỹ voyce of your words when ye spake vnto mee, and the Lorde sayde vnto me, I haue heard the voyce of the words of this people, which they haue spoken vnto thee: they haue well sayde all that they haue spoken.

29 Oh that there were such an heart in them, that they would feare mee, and keepe all my commandements alway, that it might go wel with them, and with their children for euer.

30 Goe, and say vnto them, Get you into your tentes againe:

31 But stand thou here by me, and I will tell thee all the commandements, ordinances, and lawes which thou shalt teach them, that they may doe them in the land which I giue them to possesse.

32 Take heede therefore, that ye do in deede as the Lorde your God hath commaunded you, and e turne not aside either to the right hand, or to the lefte.

e Ye shall neither put any thing to my word, nor take therefrom.

33 But walke in all the wayes which the Lord your God hath commanded you, that ye may liue, and that it may goe well with you, and that ye may prolong your dayes in the lande which ye shall possesse.

The vi. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to feare God, and keepe his commandements. 16 God ought not to be tempted.

1 THese are the commandements, ordinances, and lawes, which the Lorde your God commanded me to teache you, that ye might do them in the land whither ye goe to possesse it:

2 That thou mightest feare the Lorde thy God, and keepe all his ordinances & his commandements which I commaund thee, thou, and thy sonne, and thy sonnes sonne, all the dayes of thy life: that thy dayes may be prolonged.

3 Heare therefore, O Israel, and take heede that thou doe it, that it may goe well with thee, and that ye may increase mightilie, as the Lorde God of thy fathers hath promised thee, a land that f floweth with milke and honie.

f Which hath great store of all things pertayning to mans life.

4 *Heare,

Matth.22.37. mark.12.29. luke 10.27.

4 *Heare, O Israel, ỹ Lord our God is Lord onely.

5 And thou shalt loue the Lord thy God with all thine heart, and with al thy soule, and with all thy might.

Deut.11.18.

6 And these words which I commaunde thee this day, shalbe in thine *heart:

7 And thou shalt shew them vnto thy children, and shalt talke of them when thou art at home in thine house, and as thou walkest by the way, and when thou lyest downe, and when thou risest vp.

‖Or, signes of remembrance.

8 And thou shalt binde them for a signe vpon thine hande, and they shalbe as ‖ frontlets betweene thine eyes, b By these kindes of speache, he meaneth nothing but continuall meditation of the lawe.

9 And thou shalt write them vpon the [b] postes of thy house, and vpon thy gates.

10 And when the Lorde thy God hath brought thee into the land which he sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and shall giue to thee great and goodly cities, which thou buildedst not,

11 Houses full of all maner of goods, which thou filledst not, and welles digged, which thou diggedst not, vineyards and oliue trées, which thou plantedst not, and when thou hast eaten, and art full:

12 Then beware least thou forget the Lorde which brought thee out of the land of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

13 Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God, & serue him, and shalt sweare by his name.

14 See that yee walke not after strange gods, the gods of the nations which are about you:

15 (For the Lorde thy God is a ielous God among you) least the countenance of the Lord thy God bee moued to wrath against thee, and destroy thee from the face of the earth.

Matth.4.1. Exod.17.2. ‡Massah.

16 *Ye shall not tempt the Lorde your God, as *ye did in the place of ‡ temptation:

17 But you shal diligently keepe the commandements of the Lorde your God, and his testimonies, and his ordinances, which hee hath commanded thee.

18 And thou shalt doe that which is right and good in the sight of the Lorde: that thou mayest prosper, and that thou mayest goe in, and possesse that good land which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, 19 To cast out all thine enemies before thee, as the Lord hath sayde.

e We must not only serue God our selues during our life, but also endeuour that our children may doe the same after vs.

20 And [c] when thy sonne asketh thee in time to come, saying, What meaneth these testimonies, ordinances, and lawes, which the Lorde our God hath commanded you?

21 Then thou shalt say vnto thy sonne, Wee were Pharaos bondmen in Egypt, and the Lord brought vs out of Egypt with a mighty hand.

22 And the Lord shewed signes, and wonders, great and euill, vpon Egypt, vpon Pharao, and vpon all his household, before our eyes:

23 And brought vs out from thence, to bring vs in, and to giue vs the land which he sware vnto our fathers.

24 And hee hath commanded vs to do all these ordinances, and to feare the Lord our God, for our wealth, all the dayes of our life, as it is come to passe this day.

d No man can perfectly fulfill the law: therefore we must haue recourse to Christ by faith, in whom we are reputed for iust.

25 Moreouer, this shall be our [d] righteousnesse before the Lord our God, if we take heede, and keepe all these commandements, as hee hath commanded vs.

The vij. Chapter.

1 The Israelites may make no couenant with the Gentiles.

Deut.31.3.

1 WHen the *Lord thy God shal bring thee into the lande whither thou goest to possesse it, and hath cast out many nations before thee, the Hethites, the Gergesites, the Amorites, the Chanaanites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Iebusites, seuen nations, greater and mightier then thou:

Exod.23.32.

2 And when the Lorde thy God hath set them before thee, thou shalt smite them, and vtterly destroy them, * and make no couenant with them, nor haue compassion on them.

3 Thou shalt make no marriages with them: neither giue thy daughter vnto his sonne, nor take his daughter vnto thy sonne.

4 For they will deceiue thy sonne, that hee shoulde not followe mee, and they shall serue strange goddes: and then wil the wrath of the Lorde waxe hot against thee, and destroy thee suddenly.

a God wolde haue his seruice pure, without all superstition.

5 But thus ye shall deale with them, [a] Ye shal ouerthrowe their altars, and breake downe their pillars, and cut downe their groues, and burne their grauen images with fire.

Deut.14.2. and 26.18.

6 * For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God: the Lord thy God hath chosen thee to be a speciall people vnto himselfe, aboue all nations that are vpon the earth.

7 The Lorde did not set his loue vpon you, nor choose you because ye were mo in number then any people (for yee were the fewest of all people:)

8 But because the Lorde loued you, and because hee would keepe the othe which hee had sworne vnto your fathers, therefore hath the Lorde brought you out through a mighty hande, and deliuered you out of the house of bondage, from the hande of Pharao king of Egypt.

9 Understande therefore, that the Lorde thy God, he is God, and that a true God, which keepeth appoyntment and mercy vnto them that loue him, & keepe his commandements, throughout a thousand generations:

10 And rewardeth them that hate him to their [b] face, so that he bringeth them to nought, and

doeth not deferre the time, but rewardeth him that hateth him before his face.

11 Keepe thou therefore the commandements, and ordinances, & lawes, which I commande thee this day, that thou doe them.

12 If ye hearken vnto these lawes, and obserue and doe them: the Lorde thy [c]God also shall keepe vnto thee the couenant and the mercie which he sware vnto thy fathers.

c This couenant is grounded vpon his free grace: therefore in recompensing their obedience he hath respete to his mercie, and not to their merites.

13 He will loue thee, and blesse thee, and multiplie thee: he will also blesse the fruite of thy wombe, and the fruite of thy lande, thy corne, thy wine, and thine oyle, and the increase of thy kine, and the flockes of thy sheepe, in the land which he sware vnto thy fathers to giue thee.

14 Thou shalt bee blessed aboue all nations: there shall bee * neither man nor woman vnfruitfull among you, nor any of your cattell shall be barren.

Exod.23.26.

15 Moreouer, the Lorde will take away from thee all maner infirmities, and will put none of the euill diseases of Egypt (which thou knowest) vpon thee: but will send them vpon all them that hate thee.

16 Thou shalt consume all the nations which the Lorde thy God shall deliuer thee: thine eye shall haue no pitie vpon them, neyther shalt thou serue their goddes, for that shalbe thy decay.

17 If thou say in thine heart, These nations are moe then I, howe can I cast them out?

18 Thou shalt not feare them: but remember what the Lord thy God did vnto Pharao, and vnto all Egypt.

19 The great temptations which thine eyes sawe, and the signes, and wonders, and the mightie hande, and stretched out arme, whereby the Lord thy God brought thee out: so shal the Lord thy God do vnto al nations of whom thou art afraide.

20 Moreouer, the Lorde thy God will sende [d]Hornettes among them, vntill they that are left, and hide them selues from thee, be destroyed.

d There is not so small a creature which I will not arme to fight on thy side against them. Exod.23.23.Iosu. 24.11.

21 * Thou shalt not feare them: for the Lorde thy God is among you, a mightie God, and a terrible.

22 For the Lord thy God will put out these nations before thee by a litle and a litle: thou mayest not consume them at once, least the [e]beastes of the fielde increase vpon thee.

e So that it is your commoditie that God accomplisheth not his promise so soone as ye would wish.

23 But the Lorde thy God shall giue them before thee, and shall destroy them with a mightie destruction, vntill hee haue brought them to nought.

24 And hee shall deliuer their kings into thine hande, and thou shalt destroy their name from vnder heauen: There shall no man be able to stande before thee, vntill thou haue destroyed them.

25 The grauen images of their goddes shalt thou * burne with fire: and couet not the gold and siluer that is on thē, nor take it vnto thee, least thou bee [f]snared therein: for it is an abomination before the Lord thy God. 2.Mac.12.40.

f And be entised to idolatrie

26 Bring not therefore abomination into thine house, lest thou bee a cursed thing as it is: but vtterly defie it, and abhorre it, for it is a cursed thing.

The viii. Chapter.

Moses putteth the Israelites in remembrance of all the benefites which God bestowed vpon them, and the afflictions which God sent them in the wilderneſſe, 19 lest the forgetfulnes thereof should bring them to destruction.

1 ALl the commaundementes which I commaunde thee this day, shall yee keepe for to do them, that ye may liue, and multiplie, and goe in, and possesse the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers.

2 And thou shalt remember al the way which the Lord thy God led thee this fourtie yeeres in the wilderneſſe, for to humble thee, and to [a]proue thee, and to knowe what was in thine heart, whither thou wouldest keepe his commandements, or no.

a Which is declared in afflictiō, either by patience, or by grudging against Gods visitation.

3 He humbled thee, and suffered thee to hunger, and fedde thee with Manna, which neither thou nor thy fathers knew of: to make thee knowe that a man doeth * not liue by bread onely, but by euery [word] that proceedeth out of the mouth of the Lorde, doeth a man liue. Matth.4.4.Luke 4.5.

4 Thy rayment waxed not olde vpon thee, neyther did thy foote [b]swell these fourtie yeeres.

b As they that go barefooted.

5 * This also shalt thou cōsider in thine heart: that as a man chastiseth his sonne, so the Lord thy God chasteneth thee. Deut.26.3.

6 Therefore shalt thou keepe the commandements of the Lord thy God, that thou walke in his ways, and feare him.

7 For the Lorde thy God bringeth thee into a good lande, a lande in the which are riuers of water, and fountaines, and deapthes ỳ spring out of valleyes and hilles:

8 A land wherein is wheate and barley, vineyards, figgetrees, and pomegranates, a lande wherein is oyle Oliue, and honey:

9 A lande wherein thou shalt eate bread without scarcenesse, neither shalt thou lacke any thing: a lande whose stones [c]are iron, and out of whose hilles thou shalt digge brasse.

c Which haue mines of metall.

10 When thou hast eaten therefore, and filled thy selfe, thou shalt blesse the Lorde thy God, for the good land which he hath giuen thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lorde thy God, that thou wouldest not keepe his commaundementes, his lawes, and his ordinances, which I commande thee this day:

12 Yea,

12 Yea, and when thou hast eaten and filled thy selfe, and hast built goodly houses, and dwelt therein:
13 And when thy beastes & thy sheepe are wax-en many, and thy siluer and golde is multiplied, and all that thou hast is increased:
d Wealthe prosperitie maketh men proude, and forget God.
14 Then beware least thine d heart ryse, & thou forget the Lorde thy God which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and from the house of bondage:

terrible wildernesse, [wherein were] fierie serpents, scorpions, and drought without any he which giueth thee power to get f substãce, for to make good the promise which he sware vnto thy fathers, as appeareth this day.

f If all earthly goods come onely frõ God, much more heauenly. 19 And if thou forget the Lorde thy God, and walke after strange gods, and serue them, and worship them: I testifie vnto you this day, that ye shall surely perish.
g Denounce or protest. 20 As the nations which the Lord destroyed before your face, so yee shall perish, because yee woulde not bee obedient vnto the voyce of the Lord your God.

The ix. Chapter.

4 God is not good to them for their owne righteousnes, but for his owne sake. 17 The two tables are broken. 26 Moses prayeth for the people.

1 HEare, O Israel, thou passest ouer Jordane a this day, to goe in, & possesse nations greater & mightier then thy self, them, and hee shall bring them downe before thy face: So thou shalt cast them out, and bring them to nought quickly, as the Lorde hath said vnto thee.

4 Speake not thou in thine heart, after that the Lorde thy God hath cast them out before thee, saying, For my righteousnesse the Lord hath brought me in to possesse this lande: but for the wickednesse of these nations the Lord hath cast them out before thee.
5 It is not for thy righteousnesse sake, or for thy right heart, that thou goest to possesse their land: But for the wickednesse of these nations the Lorde thy God doeth cast them out before thee, to perfourme the worde which the Lorde thy God sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob.
6 Understande therefore, that it is not for thy righteousnesse sake, that the Lorde thy God doeth giue thee this good lande to possesse it, seeing thou art a c stifnecked people.

uokedst the Lord thy God to anger in the wil-the middes of fire, in the day when yee came together.

11 And when the fourtie dayes and fourtie nights were ended, the Lord gaue me the two tables of stone, the tables of the couenant.
12 And the Lorde saide vnto me, Arise, and get f Gods things are corrupt, when they depart from their obedience to God. thee downe quickly from hence, for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, haue f marred all: they are turned at once out of the way which I commanded them, & haue made them a molten image.
13 Furthermore, the Lorde spake vnto me, saying, I haue seene this people, and behold, it is a stifnecked people.
g Meaning, that Gods mens prayers doe stay Gods vengeance. 14 g Let me alone, that I may destroy them, and put out the name of them from vnder heaue, and I wil make of thee a mightie nation, and greater then they be.
15 And I turned me, and came downe from the hill, euen from the hill that burnt with fire, and the two tables of the couenant were in my handes.
16 And I looked, and beholde, yee had sinned against the Lord your God, and had made you a molten Calfe, and had turned at once out of the way which the Lorde had commanded you.
17 And I tooke the two tables, and cast them
h Moses by this of a good zeale, and yet of anp by passion. out of my two hands, and brake h them before your eyes.
18 And I fell downe flatte before the Lorde as at the first time, and fourtie dayes, and four-tie nightes, I dyd neyther eate bread, nor drinke

drinke water, because of all your sinnes which yee sinned, in doing wickedly in the sight of the Lord, in that ye prouoked him vnto wrath.

19 (For I was afraide, that for the wrath and fiercenesse wherewith the Lorde was moued against you, hee woulde haue destroyed you) But the Lord heard me at that time also.

20 The Lorde was very angry with Aaron also, to haue [i] destroyed him: and I made intercession for Aaron also the same time.

i This sheweth how dangerous a thing it is for rulers to suffer wickednesse to be committed.

21 And I tooke your sinne, the calfe which ye had made, and burnt him with fire, and stamped him, and grounde him very small, euen to dust: and I cast the dust therof into the brooke that descended out of the [k] mount.

k Horeb, or Sinai. Exod. 17.7. num. 11,16.

22 *Also at the burning place, at the place of tempting, and at the sepulchres of lust, ye prouoked the Lord to anger.

23 Likewise when the Lorde sent you from Cades Barnea, saying, Goe vp and possesse the lande which I haue giuen you, you rebelled against the worde of the Lorde your God, and neyther beleeued him, nor hearkened vnto his voyce.

24 You haue bene rebellious vnto the Lorde, since the day that I knewe you.

25 And I fell downe flatte before the Lorde fourtie dayes, and fourtie nightes, as I fell downe before: for the Lord sayde, he would destroy you.

26 I made intercession therfore vnto the Lord, and saide, O Lorde God, destroy not thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou hast deliuered through thy great goodnesse, & which thou hast brought out of Egypt through a mightie hande.

1 That is, thy promise made to them.

27 [l] Remember thy seruantes, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and looke not vnto the stubbernesse of this people, nor to their wickednesse and sinne:

Num. 14.16.

28 *Least the lande whence thou broughtest them, say, The Lorde is not able to bring them into the lande which he promised them, and because hee hated them, therefore hath hee carried them out, to slaye them in the wildernesse.

29 Beholde, they are thy people, and thine inheritance which thou broughtest out in thy mightie power, and in thy stretched out arme.

The x. Chapter.

1 The tables are renewed, and put into the Arke.

Exod. 34.1. Vers. 1001 wor.

1 IN the *same season the Lord said vnto me, Hewe thee two tables of stone, like vnto y first, and come vp vnto me into the mount, and make thee an Arke of wood.

h is a ellent Cedar, ient to action, .32.

2 And I will write in the tables the wordes that were in the first tables which thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the Arke.

3 And I made an Arke of [a] Sittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone like vnto the first, and went vp into the mountaine, hauing the two tables in mine hand.

4 And he wrote in the tables, according to the first writing, the ten commandements, which the Lord spake vnto you in the mount out of the middes of the fire, in the day when [b] you were gathered together: and the Lorde gaue them vnto me.

b When you came together to receiue the lawe at the mount Sinai.

5 And I departed, and came downe from the hill, and put the tables in the Arke which I had made, and there they be, as the Lord commanded me.

6 And the children of Israel tooke their iourney from Beroth, of the children of Jakan, to *Mosera, where [c] Aaron * died, and was buried, and Eleazar his sonne became Priest in his steade.

c Fourty yeres after the worshipping of the golden Calfe. Num. 20.28.

7 From thence they departed vnto Gudgodah, and from Gudgodah to Jethebah, a land which hath riuers of waters.

8 The same season the Lorde separated the tribe of Leui, to beare the Arke of the couenant of the Lord, & to stande before the Lord, and to minister vnto him, and to blesse in his name vnto this day.

d So God turned the curse of Jacob, Gene. 49. into blessing.

10 And I taried in the mount, as at the first time, fourtie dayes, and fourtie nights: & the Lord heard me at that time also, and the Lord would not destroy thee.

11 And the Lorde sayde vnto mee, Arise, and goe forth in the iourneys before the people, that they may goe in, and possesse the lande which I sware vnto their fathers, to giue vnto them.

12 And nowe Israel, what doeth the Lorde thy God require of thee, but to feare the Lord thy God, and to walke in all his wayes, to loue him, and to serue the Lorde thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soule:

13 That thou keepe the commaundementes of the Lorde, and his ordinances which I commaunde thee this day for thy wealth.

14 Beholde, heauen, and the heauen of heauens is the Lords thy God, and the earth, with all that therein is.

15 Notwithstanding, the Lorde had a delight in thy fathers, to loue them, and chose their seede after them, euen you aboue all nations, as thou seest this day.

16 [e] Circumcise therefore the foreskin of your heart, and be no more stifnecked.

e That is, let all your euill affections be cut off: he sheweth in these wordes the end of circumcisiõ, Jerem. 4.4. Galat. 2.6, rom. 2.11.

17 For the Lorde your God, is God of gods, and Lorde of lordes, a great God, a mightie, and a terrible, which regardeth * no mans person, nor taketh reward.

18 He doth right vnto the fatherles & widowe, and and loueth the stranger, to giue him foode and rayment.

19 Loue ye therefore the stranger also: for ye were strangers your selues in the lande of Egypt.

Deut.6.13. mat.4.10. luke 4.8.

20 * Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God, and him onely shalt thou serue, to him shalt thou cleaue, and sweare by his name.

Gen.46.27.

22 Thy *fathers wēt downe into Egypt with threescore and ten persons: and now the Lord thy God hath made thee, and multiplyed thee as the [f] starres of heauen.

[f] Yee alludeth to the promise made to Abraham.

The xj. Chapter.

1 An exhortation to loue God and alwayes to be mindfull of his lawes, and to keepe them.

1 THerefore thou shalt [a] loue the Lord thy God, and keepe his obseruances, his ordinances, his lawes, and his commaundements alway.

[a] Loue is the first poynt of the true keeping of ꝑ law.

2 Knowe you this day (for I speake not to your children which haue neyther knowen nor seene) the chastisment of the Lord your God, his greatnes, his mightie hand, and his stretched out arme,

3 His myracles and his actes which he did in the middes of Egypt, euen vnto Pharao the king of Egypt, and vnto all his lande:

4 And what he did vnto ꝑ host of Egypt, vnto their horses and charrets, how he brought the water of the red sea vpon them as they pursued you behinde, & how the Lord hath brought them to nought vnto this day:

5 And what he did vnto you in the wildernes, vntill ye came vnto this place:

Nu.16.31. psal.105.17.

6 And what hee did vnto * Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab the sonne of Rubē: howe the earth opened her mouth and swalowed them, with their housholdes, and their tentes, and all their substance that was ‖ in their possession in the middes of Israel.

‖Or, at their feete.

7 Doubtlesse, your eyes haue seene all the great actes of the Lord, which he did.

8 Therefore shall ye keepe all the commaundementes which I commaund you this day, that ye may be strong and goe in, and possesse the lande whither ye goe to possesse it:

9 And that ye may prolong your dayes in the lande which the Lorde sware vnto your fathers to giue vnto them, and to their seede, a lande that floweth with milke and hony.

10 For the land whither thou goest vp to possesse it, is not as the land of Egypt ꝑ ye came out off, where thou sowedst thy seede, & [b] wateredst it wᵗ thy feete, as a garden of herbes.

b As by ditches making gutters and pipes to conuey water out of Nilus: For they were wont to haue no raine in Egypt.

11 But the land whither ye go ouer to possesse it, is a land that hath hilles and valleyes, and drinketh water of the raine of heauen.

12 This land doth the Lorde thy God care for, and the eyes of the Lord thy God are alwaies vpon it, from the beginning of the yeere, vnto the ende of the yeere.

13 If you shall hearken therefore vnto my cōmandemēts which I command you this day, that ye loue the Lord your God, & serue him with all your heart, and with al your soule:

14 I also will giue raine vnto your lande in due season, the [c] first rayne and the latter, that thou mayest gather in thy corne, thy wine, & thine oyle.

c In the fyrst time.

15 And I will send grasse in thy fieldes for thy cattel, that thou maiest eate, and fill thy selfe.

16 But beware that your [d] heart deceiue you not, and yee turne aside, & serue strange gods, and worship them:

d By your falling to blinde deuotion, proceeding of your owne intentions.

17 And then the Lord, being wroth against you, shut vp the heauen, that there be no raine, and that your lande yeelde not her fruite, and lest yee perish quickly from off the good land which the Lord giueth you.

18 *Therefore shall ye put vp these my words in your heart, and in your soule, and binde them for a signe vpon your hande, that they may be as a ‖frontlet betweene your eyes.

Deut.6.6.

‖Or, signes of remembrance.

19 And ye shall teach them your children, that they may talke of them, when thou sittest in thine house, & when thou walkest by the way, when thou lyest downe, & whē thou rysest vp.

20 Yea, and thou shalt write them vpon ꝑ doore postes of thine house, and vpon thy gates:

21 That your dayes may bee multiplyed, and the dayes of your children, in the lande which the Lord sware vnto your fathers to giue thē, as long as the dayes of heauen last vpon the earth.

22 For if ye keepe all these commaundements which I commaund you, so that ye doe them: [namely,] that ye loue the Lord your God, & walke in all his waies, and cleaue vnto him:

23 Then wil the Lord cast out all these nations before you, and yee shalbe the heires of great nations, and of them that are mightier then your selues.

24 * All [e] the places whereon the soles of your feete shall treade, shalbe yours: from the wildernesse, and from Libanon, and from the ryuer Euphrates, vnto the vttermost sea, shall your [f] coast be.

Iosu.1.3.

e This was fulfilled in Dauid and Solomons raigne.

f He describeth the largenes of their kingdome when it flourished most.

25 There shal no man bee able to stande before you: for the Lord your God shal cast the feare and dread of you vpon all the land that ye shal tread vpon, as he hath saide vnto you.

26 Beholde, I set before you this day a blessing and a curse:

27 A blessing, if ye obey the commaundements of the Lord your God, which I commaunde you this day:

28 And a curse, if ye wil not obey the commandemētes of the Lord your God, but turne out of the way which I commaund you this day, to goe after strange goddes which ye haue not knowen.

g The very certainetie of doing well, is to folowe the word of God, and not the inuention of man. Deut. 27.13. iosu. 8.33.

29 When the Lord thy God therefore hath brought thee into ỹ land whither thou goest to possesse it, thou shalt *put the blessing vpon mount Garizim, and the curse vpon mount Ebal.

30 Are not these mountaines on the other side Iordane, on that part of the way where the sunne goeth downe, in the land of the Chanaanites, which dwell in the plaine ouer against Gilgal, beside the groue of Moreh?

31 For ye shall passe ouer Iordane, to goe in, & possesse the land which the Lord your God giueth you, & ye shall possesse it, & dwel therein.

32 Take heede therefore that ye do al the commandements and lawes which I set before you this day.

The xii. Chapter.

1 God commandeth the places of idolatrie to be destroyed. 5. 8. God will be serued as he doeth appoint, and not as man doeth fantasie.

1 THese are the ordinances and lawes, which ye shall obserue and doe, in the land which the Lord God of thy fathers giueth thee to possesse it, as long as ye liue vpon the earth.

2 Ye shall destroy all places, wherein the nations which ye shall possesse serued their goddes, vpon high mountaines, on hilles, & vnder euery greene tree.

a Wherin they made sacrifice to their false goddes.

3 You shall ouerthowe their altars, & breake their pillars, and burne their [a] groues with fire, and you shall hewe downe the grauen images of the goddes that they haue, & bring ỹ names of them to nought out of that place.

4 Ye shal not do so vnto the Lord your God:

2.Chro.7.12.

5 *But ye shall seeke the place which the Lord your God shall chuse out of all your tribes, to put his name there, & there to dwel, and thither thou shalt come:

6 And thither ye shall bring your whole burnt sacrifices, your offerings, your tithes, & heaue offerings of your hand, your vowes, your free will offerings, and the first borne of your kine, and of your sheepe.

b In the place where the arke is.

7 And there ye shall eate [b] before ỹ Lord your God, and ye shall reioyce in all that you put your hand vnto, both ye and your households, wherein the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

c He meaneth not that they now serued God after their owne inuentions, but that neuerthelesse they should serue him perfectly, in the land of Chanaan.

8 Ye shall not do after all [c] the things that we do here this day, euery man that seemeth him good in his owne eyes.

9 For ye are not yet come to rest, and to the inheritance which the Lord your God giueth you.

10 But when ye go ouer Iordane, and dwell in the land which the Lord your God hath giuen you to inherite, and when he hath giuen you rest from all your enemies round about, and shall dwell in safetie:

11 Then vnto the place which the Lord your God hath chosen to *put his name there, yee shall bring all that I commande you: your whole burnt sacrifices, your offerings, your tithes, the heaue offering of your hand, and al your speciall vowes which ye vowe vnto the Lord. 3.Reg.8.29.

12 And ye shall reioyce before the Lord your God, ye and your sonnes, and your daughters, your seruants and your maydens, and the Leuite that is within your gates, forasmuch as he hath no part nor inheritance with you.

13 Take heede that thou offer not thy whole burnt offerings in euery place that thou seest.

14 But in the place which the Lord shall chuse in one of thy tribes, there thou shalt offer thy whole burnt offerings, and there thou shalt doe all that I commande thee.

15 Notwithstanding, thou mayest kill and eate flesh in all thy ‖ cities, whatsoeuer thy soule lusteth after, [d] according to the blessing of the Lord thy God which he hath giuen thee: both the vncleane and the cleane may eate thereof, of the Roe bucke, and of the Hart.

‖ Or, gates.

d According to the ability that he hath giuen thee.

16 Onely ye shall not [e] eate ỹ blood, but powre it vpon the earth as water.

e This prohibition was made, that men might learne to abhorre cruelitie.

17 Thou mayest not eate within thy gates the tithe of thy corne, of thy wine, and of thy oyle, and the first borne of thy kine, and of thy sheepe, neither any of thy vowes which thou vowest, nor thy free will offerings, or heaue offering of thine hand:

18 But thou must eate them before the Lord thy God, in the place which ỹ Lord thy God hath chosen, thou, and thy sonne, and thy daughter, thy seruant, and thy mayde, and the Leuite that is within thy gates: and thou shalt reioyce before the Lord thy God, in all that thou puttest thine hand to.

19 Beware that thou forsake not the Leuite, as long as thou liuest vpon the earth.

20 If when the Lord thy God shall enlarge thy border, as he hath promised thee, thou say, I will eate flesh (because thy soule *longeth to eate flesh) thou mayest eate flesh whatsoeuer thy soule lusteth.

Gene.28.14. deut.19.9.

21 If the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen to put his name there, be too farre from thee, then thou shalt kill of thy oxen and of thy sheepe, which the Lord hath giuen thee, as I haue commanded thee, and thou shalt eate in thine owne citie ‖ whatsoeuer thy soule lusteth.

‖ Or, gates.

22 And as the Roe bucke and ỹ Hart is eaten, so thou shalt eate them: both the cleane and the vncleane shall eate of them.

23 But ‖ take heede that thou eate not the [f] blood: for the blood is the life, and thou mayest not eate the life with the flesh.

‖ Or, be strong.

f Thus he sayth, for that their life consisteth in their blood.

24 Thou

24 Thou shalt not eate it, but powre it vpon the earth as water.

25 Thou shalt not eate it, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee: but thou shalt doe that which is right in the sight of the Lord.

g Things consecrated to God, or that are appointed for sacrifice.

26 But thy holy g things which thou hast, and thy vowes, thou shalt take, and come vnto the place which the Lord hath chosen.

27 And thou shalt offer thy whole burnt offerings, both flesh and blood, vpon the altar of the Lord thy God: and the blood of thine offrings shalbe powred out vpon ỹ altar of the Lord thy God, and thou shalt eate the flesh.

28 Take heede, & heare all these words which I commande thee, that it may goe well with thee, and with thy children after thee for euer, if thou doest that which is good and right in the sight of the Lord thy God.

29 When the Lorde thy God shall destroy the natiõs before thee, whither thou goest to possesse them, and thou succeedest in their inheritance, and dwellest in their lande:

h By falling into their idolatrie and superstition.

30 Beware that thou bee not taken in h a snare after them, after that they be destroyed before thee, and that thou aske not after their gods, saying, As these nations serue their gods, I wil do so likewise.

31 Nay, thou shalt not do so vnto the Lorde thy God: for all abominations, and that which the Lorde hateth, the same haue they done vnto their gods.

i This declareth the extreme horror of idolatrie, by which the Paynims committed most vnnaturall cruelties. Deut. 4. 2. prou. 30. 6.

32 For they haue i burned both their sonnes & their daughters with fire before their gods. Therefore whatsoeuer I cõmaund you, take heede ye do it: and *put thou nought thereto, nor take ought therefrom.

The xiii. Chapter.

1. The false prophets, 5 and the inticers to idolatry, must be put to death.

1 IF there arise among you a prophet, or a dreamer of dreames, and giue thee a signe or a wonder,

2 And that signe or wonder which he hath sayd, come to passe, and then say, Let vs a goe after strange gods (which thou hast not knowen) and let vs serue them:

a He declareth who be the false prophets: euen those that would turne vs from God.

3 Hearken not thou vnto the wordes of that prophet or dreamer of dreames: For the Lord thy GOD proueth you, to know whether you loue ỹ Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soule.

4 Ye shall walke after the Lord your God, & feare him, keepe his commaundements, and hearken vnto his voyce, you shall serue him, & cleaue vnto him.

b After that he hath bene conuicted by witnesse, and had sentence of death pronounced on him by the iudge.

5 And that prophet or dreamer of dreames shal b dye (because he hath spoken to turne you away from the Lord your God, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out of the way which the Lorde thy God commaunded thee to walke in) and therefore thou shalt put the euill away from thee.

c Gods glory must be preferred before naturall affection.

6 If c thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, or thine owne sonne, or thy daughter, or the wife that lyeth in thy bosome, or thy friend, which is as thine owne soule vnto thee, entice thee secretly, saying, Let vs goe & serue strange gods, which thou hast not knowen, nor yet thy fathers:

7 And they bee any of the gods of the people which are round about you, whether they be nigh vnto thee, or farre off from thee, from the one ende of the earth vnto the other:

8 Thou shalt not consent vnto him, nor hearken vnto him, thine eyes shall not pitie him, neyther shalt thou haue compassion on him, nor keepe him secrete,

9 But *cause him to be slayne: d Thine hand shalbe first vpon him, to kill him, and then the handes of all the people.

Deut. 17. 7. d Thou shalt cast the first stone at him.

10 And thou shalt stone him with stones, that he dye: because hee hath gone about to thrust thee away from the Lorde thy God, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and from the house of bondage.

11 And all Israel shall heare and feare, and shal doe no more any such wickednesse as this is among you.

12 If thou shalt heare say in one of thy cities, which the Lorde thy God hath giuen thee to dwell in,

13 That certayne men, being the children ‖ of Belial, are gone out from among you, and haue moued the inhabiters of their citie, saying, Let vs go and serue strange gods, which ye haue not knowen:

‖ Or, wicked men

14 Then thou must seeke and make searche, and enquire diligently: and beholde, if it be true, and the thing of a suretie, that such abomination is wrought among you:

15 Then thou shalt smite the dwellers of that citie with the edge of the sworde, and destroy it vtterly, and all that is therein, and the very cattell thereof, with the edge of the sworde.

16 And gather al the spoyle of it into ỹ myddes of the streete thereof, and burne with fyre both the citie, and all the spoyle thereof euery whit, for e the Lord thy God: and it shalbe an heape for euer, and shall not be buylt againe.

e In the honour of God, shewing that God is honoured in destroying them that robbe him of his honour.

17 And f there shall cleaue nought of the banned thing in thine hand, that the Lorde may turne from the fiercenesse of his wrath, and shewe thee mercy, and haue compassion on thee, and multiply thee, as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers.

f Thou shalt saue no part of that spoyle.

18 Therefore shalt thou hearken vnto ỹ voyce of the Lorde thy God, to keepe all his commaundements which I commande thee this day, that thou doe that which is right in the eyes of the Lord thy God.

The xiiii. Chapter.

1 The maner of the Gentiles in mourning for the dead, may not be folowed. 4 What meates are cleane to be eaten, and what not.

Deut.7.6. and 26.18.

1 YE* are the children of the Lord your God: Ye shall not cut your selues, nor make you any baldnesse betweene your a eyes for the dead.

a As the Heathen did in mourning for the dead.

2 For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God, and the Lord hath chosen thee to be a seuerall people vnto him selfe, aboue all the nations that are vpon the earth.

3 Thou shalt eate no maner of abomination.

b Hereby was figured to the Iewes a spirituall pureness, euen in their meate and drinke. Leuit.11.2.

4 b These are the beasts which ye shall *eate of, oxen, sheepe, and goates,

5 Roe, Hart, and Bugle, wilde Goate, Unicorne, wilde Oxen, and Camoyse,

6 And all the beasts that cleaue the hoofe, and cleaueth the clift into two clawes, and chewe the cud, them ye shall eate.

7 Neuertheless, these ye shal not eate of them that chew cud, & of them that deuide & cleaue the hoofe, [onely] the Camel, the Hare, and the Conie: for they chewe the cud, but deuide not the hoofe, therefore they are vncleane vnto you.

8 And also the Swine, though he deuide the hoofe, yet he eheweth not cud, therefore is he vncleane vnto you: ye shall not eate of ẏ flesh of such, nor touch the dead carkeise of them.

9 These ye shall eate, of all that are in the waters: al that haue finnes & scales shal ye eate.

10 And whatsoeuer hath not finnes and scales, of that ye may not eate, but it is vncleane vnto you.

11 Of all cleane birdes ye shall eate.

12 But these are they of which ye shal not eate: the Eagle, the Goshauke, and the Ospray, 13 The Gleue, the Kite, and the Vulture, after their kinde.

14 And all kinde of Rauens.

15 The Estritch, the Nightcrowe, the Cuckowe, and the Sparowhauke, after their kinde.

16 The litle Owle, the great Owle, nor the Redshanke.

17 The Pelicane, the Swanne, nor the Cormorant.

18 The Storke, the Heron in his kinde, the Lapwing, the Backe.

19 And let euery creeping foule be vncleane vnto you, and not be eaten of.

20 But of all cleane foules ye may eate.

21 Ye shall eate of nothing that dieth alone: but thou shalt giue it vnto the stranger that is in thy ‖ citie, that he eate it, or thou mayest sel it vnto a stranger: For thou art an holy people vnto the Lord thy God. *Thou shalt not c seeth a Kid in his mothers milke.

‖ Or, gates. Exod.23.19. and 34.26.

c This figureth the forbidding of things tending to cruelty.

22 Thou shalt tithe al the increase of thy seede, that the field bringeth forth yere by yere.

23 And thou shalt eate before the Lord thy God in the place which he hath chosen, and where he hath put his name, the tithe of thy corne, and of thy wine, and of thine oyle, and the first borne of the kine, and of thy sheepe: that thou mayest learne to feare the Lord thy God alwayes.

24 If the way be too long for thee, so that thou art not able to carie it, and if the place be farre from thee, which the Lord thy God hath chosen to set his name there, & the Lord thy God hath blessed thee:

25 Then shalt thou make it in money, and take ‖ the money in thine hand, and goe vnto the place which the Lord thy God shall chuse.

‖ Or, binde vp.

26 And thou shalt bestowe that money for whatsoeuer thy soule lusteth after, for oxen, and sheepe, wine, and strong drinke, and for whatsoeuer thy soule desireth: and thou shalt eate there before the Lord thy God, and be merie, both thou, and thine household.

27 *And the Leuite that is within thy gates, shalt thou not forsake: for he hath neither part nor inheritance with thee.

Deut.12.19.

28 At the end of three yeeres thou shalt bring forth all the tithes of thine increase the same yeere, and lay it vp within thine owne gates.

29 And the Leuite which hath no part nor inheritance with thee, shal come, and the stranger, the fatherlesse, and the widowe, which are within thy gates, shall eate and be filled, that the Lord thy God may blesse thee, in all the workes of thine hand which thou doest.

1 The forgiuenesse of dettes in the seuenth yeere. 7 To helpe the poore is commended. 12 The freedome of seruants.

Leuit.25.2.

1 AT the terme of *seuen yeeres thou shalt make a freedome.

2 And this is the maner of the freedome, Whosoeuer a lendeth ought with his hand vnto his neighbour, may not aske againe (that which he hath lent) of his neighbour, or of his brother, because it is called the Lords free yeere:

a This is spoken in fauour of those detters that were poore, or not able to pay.

3 Yet of a stranger thou mayest call it home againe, but he that is thy brother, him shall thine hand remit.

4 In any wise there b shalbe no begger among you: for the Lord shall blesse thee in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee for an inheritance ‡:

b So that if the detter be riche, he may be forced to pay his det, this ordinance notwithstanding.

‡ To possesse it.

5 So that thou hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, to obserue and to doe all these commandements which I commande thee this day:

6 For the Lord thy God hath blessed thee, as he hath promised thee, and thou shalt lend vnto many nations, but thou thy selfe shalt not borowe: and thou shalt raigne ouer many nations, and they shall not raigne ouer thee.

7 If

7 If one of thy brethren among you be poore, within any of thy gates, in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee: thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut to thine hand frō thy poore brother:

Matth.5.42 luke.6.34. 8 But thou shalt * open thine hand vnto him, and lend him sufficient for his neede which he hath.

9 Beware that there be not a wicked thought in thine heart, that thou wouldest say, The seuenth yeere, the yeere of freedome is at hand: and therefore it grieueth thee to looke on thy poore brother, and giuest him nought, and he then crie vnto the Lord against thee, & it be sinne vnto thee.

10 Thou shalt giue him, and let it not grieue thine heart to giue vnto him: because that for this thing the Lord thy God shall blesse thee in all thy workes, and in all that thou puttest thine hand vnto.

Matth.2.11. c For a tryall of your charitie. 11 The land shall * neuer be without c poore: and therefore I commande thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hand vnto thy brother that is needie and poore in thy land.

Exod.21.2. iere.34.14. 12 If thy * brother an Hebrue sell him selfe to thee, or an Hebrue woman, and serue thee sixe yeeres, in the seuenth yeere thou shalt let him goe free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest him out free from thee, thou shalt not let him goe away emptie:

d To acknowledge gods benefites receiued by his labour. 14 But d shalt giue him liberally of thy sheepe, of thy corne, and of thy wine, and giue him of that wherewith the Lord thy God hath blessed thee.

15 And remember that thou wast a seruant in ẏ land of Egypt, & the Lord thy God deliuered thee thence: and therefore I commande thee this thing to day.

16 And if he say vnto thee, I will not goe away from thee, because he loueth thee, and thine house, and is well at ease with thee, 17 Then shalt thou take a naule, and naile his eare to the doore therewith, and let him bee thy seruant for euer, and vnto thy mayde seruant thou shalt do likewise.

18 And let it not grieue thine eye when thou letrest him goe out from thee, for he hath bene worth a double hyred seruant to thee in his seruice sixe yeeres: and the Lord thy God shall blesse thee in all that thou doest.

Exod.34.19. 19 * All the first males that come of thy cattel, and of thy sheepe, thou shalt halowe vnto the Lord thy God: thou shalt do no worke with the first borne bullocke, nor sheare the first borne of thy sheepe.

20 Thou shalt eate it before the Lord thy God yeere by yeere, in the place which the Lord shall chuse, both thou and thy household.

Leuit.22.21. eccle.35.14. 21 * If there be any blemish therein: as if it be lame, or blinde, or haue any other euilfauouredneſſe, thou shalt not offer it vnto the Lord thy God, 22 But shalt eate it within thine owne gates: the vncleane and cleane person shall eate it alike, as the Roe and the Hart.

23 Onely eate not the blood therof: but powre it vpon the ground as water.

The xvii. Chapter.

1 The punishment of the idolater. 15 The election of the king.

Leuit.22.22. a God must be serued with the perfitest & purest things.

1 THou shalt offer vnto the Lord thy God * no oxe nor sheepe wherin is [a] blemish, or any euilfauouredneesse: for that is an abomination vnto the Lord thy God.

b The fraitie of the offender, shal not excuse the offence.

2 If there be found among you within any of thy gates which the Lord thy God giueth thee, man or [b] woman that hath wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lord thy God, in transgressing his couenant:

c God refuseth all such seruice as he hath not commanded.

3 And gone and serued strange goddes, and worshipped them, as the Sunne, or Moone, or any of the host of heauen, [c] which I haue not commanded:

4 And it is tolde thee, and thou hast heard of it, then shalt thou enquire diligently: and if it be true, and the thing of a suretie, that such abomination is wrought in Israel:

5 Then shalt thou bring forth that man, or that woman (which haue cõmitted that wicked thing) vnto the gates, & shalt stone them with stones, till they die.

6 At the mouth of * two or three witnesses, shall he that is worthie of death, die: and at the mouth of one witnesse, let no man die. Mat.18.16.

7 The [d] hands of the witnesses shalbe first vpon him, to kill him, and afterward ỹ hands [e] of all the people: and thou shalt put the wicked away from thee.

d To shew that their witnesse was true.

e To declare that al must be of one accord to punish idolaters.

8 If there rise a matter too hard for thee in iudgement, betweene [f] blood and blood, betweene plea and plea, betweene plague and plague, and the matters come to strife within thy gates: then shalt thou arise, & get thee vp vnto the place which the Lord thy God hath chosen, f Crime and crime.

9 And come vnto the Priests the Leuites, and vnto the iudge that shalbe in those daies, and aske: and they shall shew thee the sentence of iudgement.

g Who shall pronounce sentence according as the Priest shal instruct him, agreeable to Gods word.

10 And thou must do according to that which they of that place (which the Lord hath chosen) shew thee, and thou shalt obserue to do according to all that they enkourme thee:

11 According to the sentence of the law which they tell thee, [h] shalt thou do: and bow not from that which they shew thee, neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

h That the controuersie may be the sooner ended.

12 And that man that will do presumptuously, and will not [i] hearken vnto the Priest (that standeth there before the Lord thy God to minister) or vnto the iudge, that man shall die, & thou shalt put away euil from Israel.

i As long as he is the true minister of God, and pronounceth agreeable to his word.

13 And all the people shall heare, and feare, and do no more presumptuously.

14 When thou art come vnto the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee, and enioyest it, and dwellest therein, and if thou shalt say, I will set a king ouer me, like as all the nations that are about me:

15 Then thou shalt make him king ouer thee, whome the Lord thy God shall chuse: One from among thy brethren shalt thou make king ouer thee, & thou mayest not set a stranger ouer thee, which is not of thy brethren.

16 But he shal not multiplie horses to himselfe, nor bring the people againe to [k] Egypt, to encrease the number of horses: for as much as the Lord hath said vnto you, Ye shall henceforth go no more againe that way.

k To reuenge such wrong as the Egyptians had done vnto them.

17 Also he ought not to ‖ multiplie wiues to him selfe, lest his heart turne [l] away: neither shal he gather him siluer & golde too much.

‖Or, take many wiues.

l From the lawes of God.

18 And when he is set vpon ỹ seate of his kingdome, he shall write him out a copie of this [m] law in a booke, before ỹ [n] Priests ỹ Leuites:

m That is, Deuteronomium.

n According to the copie which the Priests do kẽ.

19 And it shalbe with him, & he ought to reade therein all the dayes of his life, that he may learne to feare the Lord his God, and to keepe

all

all the wordes of this lawe, and these ordinances, for to do them:

20 And that his heart arise not aboue his brethren, and that he turne not from the commandement, to the right hand, or to the left: but that he may prolong his dayes in his kingdome, he and his children in the middes of Israel.

The xviii. Chapter.

1 The portion of the Leuites. 15 God will not leaue them without a true Prophet. 20 The false prophet shalbe slaine. 22 And how he may be knowen.

1 THe Priests, and the Leuites, and al the tribe of Leui, must haue no part nor inheritance with Israel, but *shall eate the offerings of the Lord made by fire, and his [a] inheritance.

Deut.10.9. 1.cor.9.13.

[a] The tithes were due to the Leuites. Num.18.20.

2 Therefore shall they haue no inheritance among their brethren, but the *Lord he is their inheritance, as he hath sayd vnto them.

3 And the Priests duetie of the people, and of them that offer, whether it be ore or sheepe, they must giue vnto the Priest [b] the shoulder, and the two cheekes, and the mawe.

[b] The right shoulder.

4 The first fruites also of thy corne, wine, and oyle, and the first of the fleece of thy sheepe, shalt thou giue him.

5 For the Lord thy God hath chosen him out of all thy tribes, to stand and to minister in ỹ name of the Lord, he, and his sonnes for euer.

6 If a Leuite come out of any of thy cities of all Israel, where he is a soiourner, and come [c] with all the lust of his heart vnto the place which the Lord hath chosen,

[c] To serue God with a good will.

7 He shal minister in the name of the Lord his God, as his other brethren the Leuites doe, which remaine there before the Lord.

8 And they shal haue like portions to eate, beside that which [d] commeth of the sale of his patrimonie.

[d] Besides that which they haue of their fathers goods, they shall liue of the offrings and first fruits as the other Leuites do.

9 When thou art come into the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee, thou shalt not learne to do after the abominations of those nations.

10 Let there not be found among you any one that maketh his sonne or his daughter to [e] go thorowe the fire, or that vseth witchcraft, or a regarder of times, or that regardeth ỹ flying of foules,

[e] Which thought the going betwene two fires to be a kind of purifying. Leuit.20,27.

11 *Or a sorcerer, or a charmer, or that counselleth with spirites, or a soothsayer, or that asketh counsayle of the dead.

12 For all that do such things, are abomination vnto the Lord: and because of these abominations, the Lord thy God doeth cast them out before thee.

13 Thou shalt be perfite therefore in the sight of the Lord thy God.

14 For these nations which thou shalt possesse, hearken vnto regarders of times, and vnto sorcerers: but the Lord thy God hath not suffered thee so to do.

15 *The Lord thy God will stirre vp vnto thee a Prophet among you of thy brethren, like vnto me, vnto him ye shall hearken. Iohn.1.45. actes.3.22.

16 According to all that thou desiredst of the Lord thy God in Horeb, in the day of the assemblie, when thou saydest, Let me *heare the voyce of my Lord God no more, nor see this great fire any more, that I die not. Exod.20.19.

17 And the Lord sayd vnto me, They haue wel spoken.

18 *I wil rayse them vp a Prophet from amõg their brethren, like vnto thee, and will put my wordes in his mouth, and he shall speake vnto them all that I shall commande him. Iohn.1.45.

19 And whosoeuer will not hearken vnto my wordes, which he shall speake in my name, [f] I wil require it of him.

[f] I will punish him for it.

20 But the prophet which shall presume to speake a word in my name, which I haue not commanded him to speake, or that speaketh in the name of strange gods, the same prophet shall die.

21 And if thou say in thine heart, How shall we know the word which the Lord hath not spoken?

22 When a prophet speaketh in the name of the Lord, [g] if the thing followe not, nor come to passe: that is the thing which the Lord hath not spoken, but the prophet hath spoken it presumptuously: thou shalt not therefore be afrayd of him.

[g] That is one sure token of a false prophet: of an other, mention is made before, Chap.13.

The xix. Chapter.

2 The townes of refuge. 16 The punishment of him that beareth false witnesse.

1 WHen ỹ Lord thy God hath rooted out the nations, whose land the Lord thy God giueth thee, & thou succeedest in their inheritance, & dwellest in their cities, and in their houses:

2 Thou shalt [a] separate* three cities for thee in the middes of the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to possesse it:

[a] Appoint three cities of refuge. Exod.21.13.

3 Thou shalt [b] prepare the way, and deuide the coastes of the land, which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherite, into three parts, that whosoeuer [c] committeth murder, may flee thither.

[b] Make it able to be trauailed without any let.

[c] That killeth one by chance, and not of set purpose.

4 For this cause must the slayer flee thither: that he may liue, who so killeth his neighbour ignorantly, and hated him not in time past:

5 And when a man goeth vnto the wood with his neighbour, to hew wood, and as his hand fetcheth a stroke with ỹ axe to cut downe the tree, the head slippeth from the helue, & smiteth his neighbour that he dieth: the same shal flee vnto one of the same cities, and liue:

6 Lest the auenger of the *blood folowe after the slayer while his heart is hot, and ouertake him, because the way is long, and slay him, & yet there is no cause [d] worthy of death in him,

Num.35.12.

[d] Or can not be iudged to death.

in as much as he hated him not in time past.

7 Wherefore I commaunde thee, saying, Thou shalt appoint out three cities for thee.

e When thou goest ouer Iordane.

8 And if ỹ Lord thy God e enlarge thy coastes (as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers) & giue thee all the land which he sayd he would giue vnto thy fathers:

Deut.12.20. gene.28.14.

9 Thou shalt * keepe all these commaundements to do them, which I commande thee this day, that thou loue thy Lord thy God, & walke in his wayes euer: and adde * three cities moe, for thee, beside these three,

Iosu.20.7.

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy land which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherite, and f so blood come vpon thee.

f That the death of the parties slayne, be imputed vnto thee.

11 But and if any man hate his neighbour, and lay awaite for him, and rise against him, and smite him that he die, and then fleeth vnto any of these cities:

g The officers or magistrates

12 The g elders of his citie shall send and fetch him thence, and deliuer him into the hands of the auenger of blood, that he may die.

h Wilful murder can not be pardoned without gods high displeasure. i By reuenging of the innocent blood. k Wherefore, of land bound: The very Paynims did iudge this to be a great offence.

13 h Thine eye shal not spare him, but thou shalt i put away innocent blood from Israel, that it may goe well with thee.

14 Thou shalt not remoue thy neighbours k marke, which they of olde time haue set in thine inheritance, that thou shalt inherite, in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee to enioy it.

15 One witnesse shall not rise against a man for any trespasse, or for any sinne, or for any fault that he offendeth in: but at the mouth of two witnesses, or of three witnesses, shall the matter be stablished.

16 If a false witnesse rise vp against a man to accuse him of trespasse:

17 Then both the men which striue together, shall stand l before the Lord, before ỹ Priests and the iudges which shalbe in those dayes:

l God is present, where his true ministers are.

18 And the iudges shall make diligent inquisition: and if the witnesse be found false, & that he hath giuen false witnesse against his brother:

Prou.19.5.

19 *Then shall ye doe vnto him, as he had thought to doe vnto his brother: and thou shalt put euil away from the middes of thee.

20 And other shall heare, and feare, and shall henceforth commit no more any such wickednesse among you.

Exod.21.24. Mat.5.38.

21 *And thine eye shall haue no compassion, but * life for life, eye for eye, tooth for tooth, hand for hand, foote for foote.

The xx. Chapter.

3 The exhortation of the Priest when the Israelites goe to battell. 10 Peace must first be proclaymed. 19 The trees that beare fruite must not be destroyed.

1 WHen thou goest out to battel against thine enemies, and seest horses and charets, & people more then thou, be not afraide of them: for the Lord thy God is with thee, which brought thee out of the land of Egypt.

2 And when ye are come nigh vnto battel, the priest shal come forth to speake vnto ỹ people,

3 And shall say vnto them, Heare, O Israel, you are come this day vnto battel against your enemies, let not your hearts faint, neither feare, nor be amazed, nor adread of them:

a Gods grace and power is euer readie to helpe you. Iudg.7.3. 1.mac.3.56.

4 For the Lord a your God goeth with you, to fight for you against your enemies, and to saue you.

b When any tooke possession of an house, he rendred thanks to God for that benefite. ‖ Or, eaten of the fruite. Leuit.19.9.

5 And let the officers speake vnto the people, saying, If * any man haue built a new house, and b haue not dedicate it: let him goe and returne to his house, lest he die in the battel, and another man dedicate it.

6 And if any man haue planted a vineyard, & haue not made ‖ it common: let * him go and returne againe vnto his house, lest he die in ỹ battel, and another make it common.

7 And if any man be betrothed vnto a wife, & haue not taken her, let him goe and returne againe vnto his house, lest he die in the battel, and another man take her.

Iudg 7.3.

8 And let the * officers speake further vnto the people, and say, If any man feare, and be faint hearted, let him goe and returne vnto his house, lest he make his brothers heart faint, as well as his.

9 And when the officers haue made an end of speaking vnto the people, they shall make captaines of the armie to gouerne the people.

10 When thou commest nigh vnto a citie to fight against it, offer them peace.

c If it alowe thy offer of peace.

11 And if they c answere thee againe peaceably, and open vnto thee, then let all the people that is found therein, be tributaries vnto thee, and serue thee.

12 And if they will make no peace with thee, but make warre against thee, thou shalt besiege it.

13 And when the Lord thy God hath deliuered it into thine hands, thou shalt smite all the males thereof with the edge of the sword.

14 But the women, and the children, and the cattell, and all that is in the citie, and all the spoyle thereof, shalt thou take vnto thy selfe, and eate the spoyle of thine enemies, which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee.

15 Thus shalt thou do vnto al the cities which are a great way off from thee, which are not of the cities of d these nations.

d Of the Chanaanites, &c.

16 But of the cities of these nations, which the Lord thy God shall giue thee to inherite, thou shalt saue aliue nothing that breatheth:

17 But shalt destroye them without redemption, namely, the Hethites, the Amorites, the Chanaanites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Iebusites, as the Lord thy God hath commanded thee:

18 That they teach you not to do after al their abominations, abominations, which they haue done vnto their gods, and so ye should sinne against the Lord your God.

‖ For it is but wood vpon the field, and no man, and can not come and be bulwarks against thee.

19 Whē thou hast besieged a citie a long time, and made warre against it, to take it, destroy not the trees thereof, that thou wouldst thrust an axe vnto them: but eate of them, and cut them not downe to further thee in thy siege: ‖ for the tree of the field [c] is mans life.

c That is, beareth fruit good for the sustenance of man. For he speaketh here of fruitful trees.

20 Onely those trees which thou knowest to be [f] vnfruitfull, those shalt thou destroy, and cut downe, and make bulwarkes against the citie that maketh warre with thee, vntill thou subdue it.

2 Then thine elders & thy iudges shall come forth, and measure vnto the cities that are round about him that is slaine:

3 And let the elders of that citie which is next vnto the slaine man, take out of the droue an Heifer that hath not bene put to labour, nor hath drawen in the yoke:

4 And let the elders of that citie bring [g] the Heifer vnto a [a] hard and rough valley, which is neither eared nor sowed, & strike off the Heifers necke there in the valley.

a That the slaying of the beast in a solitarie place, might strike into their mindes an horror of the fact or offence.

5 And the Priests the sonnes of Leui (whom the Lorde thy God hath chosen to minister, & [b] to blesse in the name of the Lord) shal come forth: and by their worde shall all strife and plague be tried.

b To make publique prayer.

6 And all the elders of the citie that come forth to the slaine man, shall washe their handes ouer the Heifer that is beheaded in the valley,

7 And shall answere, and say, Our handes haue not shed this blood, neither haue our eies seene it.

c This prayer the Priests vttered in the hearing of the people.

13 And put her raiment, that she was taken in, from her, and let her remaine in thine house, and [g] beweepe her father and her mother a moneth long: and after that shalt thou goe in vnto her, and [h] marrie her, and she shall be thy wife.

g As vtterly forsaking her country and kinred.

14 And if thou haue no fauour vnto her, then let her go whither she lusteth, and sell her not for money, nor ‖ make merchandize of her, because thou hast [i] humbled her.

16 Then when the time commeth that he deuideth his goods among his children, hee may not make the sonne of the beloued first borne, ‖ before the sonne of the hated, which is in deede the first borne:

‖ Or, as long as the sonne of the hated doth liue.

17 But he shall acknowledge the sonne of the hated for the first borne, and giue him [k] double portion of all that he hath: For he is the [l] first of his strength, and to him belongeth the right of the first borne.

k His part shall be as great as two of the others.

l That is, he was begotten in the flower of his fathers age.

18 If any man haue a sonne that is stubborne and disobedient, that he will not hearken vnto the voyce of his father, and voyce of his mother, and they haue chastened him, and he would not hearken vnto them:

19 Then shall his father and his mother take him, and bring him out vnto the elders of that citie, and vnto the gate of that same place,

20 And say vnto the elders of the citie, This our sonne is stubborne and disobedient, & will not hearken vnto our voyce, he is a rioter and a drunkard.

21 And [m] all the men of that citie shall stone him with stones vnto death: and thou shalt put euill away from thee, and all Israel shall heare, and feare.

m This declareth the greatnesse of the offence: For blasphemers and idolaters were put to no other death then this.

22 If a man haue committed a trespasse worthie of death, and is put to death for it, & thou hangest him [n] on tree:

n A gibbet or gallowes.

23 His body shall not remaine all night vpon the tree, but thou shalt burie him the same day, for the *curse of God is on him that is hanged: Defile not thou the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee to inherite.

The xxii. Chapter.

1 He commaundeth to haue care of our neighbours goods. 13 Of the wife not being found a virgin. 22 The punishment of adulterie.

1 THou shalt not see thy *brothers ore or sheepe goe astray, and withdrawe thy selfe from them: but shalt bring them againe vnto thy brother.

thine owne house, and it shall remaine with thee, vntill thy brother aske after them, and then deliuer him them againe.

3 In like maner shalt thou doe with his asse, & so shalt thou doe with his raiment: and with all lost things of thy brother, which hee hath lost, and thou hast found, shalt thou doe likewise, & thou mayest not hide it from him.

4 Thou shalt not see thy brothers asse or oxe fall downe by the way, and withdrawe thy selfe from them: but shalt helpe him to heaue them vp againe.

b This shewerth, that order is to be kept in naturall comelinesse for distinction of persons.

5 The woman shall not [b] weare that which pertaineth vnto the man, neither shall a man put on womans raiment: For all that do so, are abomination vnto the Lord thy God.

6 If thou chance vpon a birdes nest by the way, in whatsoeuer tree it be, or on ẏ ground, whether they bee yong or egges, and the damme sitting vpon the yong, or on ẏ egges, thou shalt [c] not take the damme with the yong:

c If cruelty may not be shewed to litle birdes, much lesse to man, whom God created like vnto himselfe.

7 But shalt in any wise let the damme goe, and take the yong to thee, that thou mayest prosper, and prolong thy dayes.

8 When thou buildest a new house, thou shalt make a battlement on the roofe, that thou lade not thine house with blood, if any man fall from thence.

d Meaning by this lawe, that they should stand to one truerth in singlenesse of heart.

9 Thou shalt not sowe thy vineyard with [d] diuers seedes: least the fruite of the seed which thou hast sowen, and the fruite of thy vineyard, be defiled.

10 Thou shalt not plowe with an oxe and an [e] asse together.

e For that match is not alike in strength, declaring that curtesie, humanitie, and charitie should be in man, not to ouermatch his neighbour. Nom. 15. 38.

11 Thou shalt not weare a garment made of wooll and linen together.

12 Thou shalt make thee *gardes vpon the foure quarters of thy vesture, wherewith thou couerest thy selfe.

13 If a man take a wife, and when he hath lien with her, hate her,

14 And lay shamefull things vnto her charge, and bring vp an euill name vpon her, and say, I tooke this wife, and when I came to her, I found her not a maide:

15 Then shall the father of the damosell, & the mother, bring foorth the tokens of the damosels virginitie, vnto the elders of the citie, in the gate,

16 And the damosels father shall say vnto the elders, I gaue my daughter vnto this man to wife, and he hateth her:

17 And loe, he laieth shamefull things vnto her charge, saying, I found not thy daughter a maide: and yet these are the tokens of my daughters virginitie. And they shall spread the vesture before the elders of the citie.

18 And the elders of that citie shall take that man, and chastise him, 19 And mearse him in an hundred sicles of siluer, & giue them vnto the [f] father of the damosel, because he hath brought vp an euill name vpon a maide of Israel: And she shall be his wife, & he may not put her away all his daies.

f The father receiueth recompence, because ẏ shame of the fact should haue lighted vpon him.

20 But and if the thing be of a suretie that the damosell be not found a virgin:

21 They shall bring the damosell to the doore of her fathers house, and the men of that citie shall stone her with stones to death, because she hath wrought follie in Israel, to play the whore in her fathers house: and so thou shalt put euill from among you.

22 If a man bee found *lying with a woman, that hath a wedded husband, they shall both die, both the man that lay with the wife, and also the wife: and so thou shalt put away euill from Israel. Leuit. 20. 10.

23 If a maide bee betrothed vnto an husband, and then a man finde her in the towne, and lie with her:

24 Ye shall bring them both out vnto the gates of the same citie, and shall stone them with stones to death: the damosell, because she cried not, being in the citie: and the man, because he hath [g] humbled his neighbours wife: and thou shalt put away euill from thee.

g Defiled.

25 But if a man finde a betrothed damosell in the field, and force her, and lie with her: then the man that lay with her, shall die alone.

26 But vnto the damosell thou shalt doe no harme, because there is in the damosell no cause of [h] death. For as when a man riseth against his neighbour, and slaieth him: euen [i] so is this matter.

h No sinne worthy of death.

i The maid is no more worthie of blame, then he that is assaulted, and murdered by an other, is guiltie of that murder.

27 For he found her in the fieldes, and the betrothed damosell cried, and there was no man to succour her.

28 If a man finde a maide that is not betrothed, and take her, and lie with her, and they be found,

29 Then the man that lay with her, shall *giue vnto the damosels father fiftie sicles of siluer, and she shalbe his wife, because he hath humbled her: and hee may not put her away all his dayes. Exod. 22. 16.

30 No man shall take his fathers wife, nor vnheale his fathers couering.

g He ſpeaketh this of the Hanims, which being cruelly vſed of their maſters, fled to the Iewes, and were turned to the true religion.

15 Thou ſhalt not deliuer vnto his maſter, g the ſeruant which is eſcaped from his maſter vnto thee:

16 He ſhal dwel with thee, [euen] among you, in what place he himſelfe liketh beſt, in one of thy cities where it is good for him: and thou ſhalt not vexe him.

17 There ſhall bee no whore of the daughters of Iſrael, nor whore keeper of the ſonnes of Iſrael.

h God will not be ſerued with things vnly gotten.

18 Thou ſhalt neither bring ỹ hire of a h whore, nor the price of a dogge into the houſe of the Lorde thy God in any maner of vowe: for both of them are abomination vnto the Lord thy God.

Exod.22.25. i Becauſe they were a hard hearted people, therefore was this libertie giuen them for a time.

Eccl.5.3. k We vowe vnto the Lord whē we vowe agreeable to his worde.

23 But that which is once gone out of thy lips, thou muſt l keepe, and doe according as thou haſt vowed vnto the Lord thy God of a free will, and as thou haſt ſpoken with thy mouth.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Diuorcement is permitted. 5 He that is newly married, is exempted from warre. 6 Mercy is to be ſhewed toward the poore detters.

Matt.5.31. mar.10.4.

1 WHen a man hath taken a * wife and married her, if ſhe finde no fauour in his eies, becauſe hee hath ſpied ſome vncleanneſſe in her:

a This was ſuffered, onely for preuenting a further miſchiefe.

a then let him write her a bill of diuorcement, and put it in her hand, and ſend her out of his houſe.

2 And when ſhe is departed out of his houſe, let her goe and be another mans wife.

3 And if the ſecond huſband hate her, let him write her alſo a letter of diuorcement, and put it in her hand, and ſend her out of his houſe: Or if the ſecond man die which tooke her to wife:

4 Her firſt man which ſent her away, may not take her againe to be his wife after that ſhe is defiled: For that is abomination in the ſight of the Lord, and b thou ſhalt not cauſe the land to ſinne, which the Lord thy God ſhall giue thee to inherite.

b Thou ſhalt not defile the land by thy ſinne.

5 When a man taketh a new wife, he ſhal not goe a warrefare, neither ſhall be charged with any buſineſſe: but ſhall bee free at home one yeere, and reioyce with his wife which hee hath taken.

c Vnder theſe he comprehendeth all inſtruments and tooles with the which a man getteth his liuing.

7 If any man be found ſtealing any of his brethren the children of Iſrael, and abuſeth him, or ſelleth him: the thiefe ſhall die, and thou ſhalt put euil away from the middes of thee.

8 Take heede to thy ſelfe as concerning the plague of leproſie, that thou obſerue diligently, and do according to all that the Prieſts the Leuites ſhall teache you: as I commaunded them, Num.12.10. 9 *Remember what the Lorde thy God did vnto Mary by the way, after that yee were come out of Egypt.

10 Whē thou doest lend thy brother any thing, d thou shalt not goe into his house to fetch a pledge from thence:

d As though thou wouldest choose thy pledge: but shalt accept that which he can conueniently spare.

11 But shalt stand without, and the man that borowed it of thee, shall bring the pledge out of the doores vnto thee.

12 Furthermore, if it bee a poore body, thou shalt not sleepe with his pledge:

13 But deliuer him the pledge againe when the sunne goeth downe, that he may sleepe in his owne raiment, and blesse thee: and it shall be e righteousnesse vnto thee before the Lord thy God.

e Though thy debter should be vnkind, yet God will recompēse thee.

14 Thou shalt not oppresse an hired f seruant that is needie and poore, whether he be of thy brethren, or of the strangers that are in thy land within thy gates:

f Thou shalt not withhold his wages from him.

15 But shalt giue him his hire the same day, & let not the sunne goe downe thereon, for he is needie, and therewith sustaineth his life: least he cry against thee vnto the Lord, and it bee sinne vnto thee.

4.Reg.14. ezech.18.20. 16 *The fathers shall not bee put to death for the children, nor the children for the fathers: but euery man shall bee put to death for his owne sinne.

17 Thou shalt not peruert the right of ỹ stranger, & nor of the fatherlesse, nor take a widowes raiment to pledge:

g God most earnestly forbiddeth this people, for that they were least regarded.

18 But remember that thou wast a seruant in Egypt, and how the Lord thy God deliuered thee thence: and therefore I commaund thee to do this thing.

Leuit.25.22. 19 *When thou cuttest downe thine haruest in thy field, and hast forgot a sheafe in the field, thou shalt not goe againe to fet it: But it shal be for the stranger, the fatherlesse, and the widowe: that the Lord thy God may blesse thee in all the workes of thine hand.

13 Thou shalt not haue in thy bag two maner of waights, a great and a small.

14 Neither shalt thou haue in thine house diuers measures, a great and a small.

15 But thou shalt haue a right & iust waight, and a perfect and a iust measure shalt thou haue: that thy dayes may be lengthened in ỹ land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.

3 And thou shalt come vnto the Priest that shalbe in those daies, & say vnto him, I knowledge this day vnto the Lord thy God, that I am come vnto the countrey which the Lorde sware vnto our fathers for to giue vs.

4 And the Priest shall take the basket out of thine hand, and set it downe before the altar of the Lord thy God.

5 And thou shalt answere and say before the Lord thy God, ‖ The Syrians went b about to destroy my father, and he went downe into Egypt, and so soiourned there with a fewe folke, and grewe there vnto a nation, great, mightie, and full of people.

6 And the Egyptians vexed vs, and troubled vs, and laded vs with most cruel bondage.

7 And when we cried vnto the Lorde God of our fathers, the Lord heard our voyce, & looked on our aduersitie, labour, and oppression.

8 And the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt in a mightie hand and a stretched out arme, and in great terriblenesse, and signes, and wonders.

d Thou shalt protest with a pure conscience hauing regard to God more then to man.

Deut.14.27.

Esai.63.15. baruc.12.16.

1 The promiſes to them that obey the commaundementes. 15 The threatenings to them that diſobey.

1 IF thou ſhalt *hearken diligently vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, and obſerue and doe all his commaundements which I commaund thee this day: the Lorde will ſet thee on high aboue all nations of the earth. Leuit. 26, 3.
2 And all theſe bleſſings ſhall come on thee, and ouertake thee, if thou ſhalt hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God.
3 Bleſſed ſhalt thou be in the citie, and bleſſed in the field.
4 Bleſſed ſhall be the fruite of thy body, and the fruite of thy ground, and the fruite of thy cattell, the ‖ increaſe of thy kine, & the flockes of thy ſheepe. ‖ Or, firſt borne.
5 Bleſſed ſhall be thy baſket and thy ſtore.
6 Bleſſed ſhalt thou bee when thou commeſt in, and bleſſed when thou a goeſt out. a All that thou doeſt, ſhall proſper well.
7 The Lorde ſhall giue ouer thine enemies that riſe againſt thee, that they may fall before thy face: they ſhal come out againſt thee one way, and flee before thee ſeuen wayes.
8 The Lord ſhall command the bleſſing vpon thee in thy ſtore houſes, and in all that thou ſetteſt thine hand vnto, & wil bleſſe thee in the land which the Lord thy God giueth thee.
9 The Lorde ſhall make thee an holy people vnto himſelfe, as he hath ſworne vnto thee: if thou ſhalt keepe the commandements of the Lord thy God, and walke in his wayes.
10 And all nations of the earth ſhall ſee, that the name of the b Lorde is called vpon ouer thee, and they ſhalbe afraid of thee. b For he will declare that he is thy God, & that thou art his choſen people.
11 And the Lord ſhall make thee plenteous in goods, in the fruite of thy body, in the fruite of thy cattell, and in the fruite of thy ground, in the land which the Lorde ſware vnto thy fathers to giue thee.
12 The Lord ſhall opē vnto thee his good treaſure, c the heauen to giue raine vnto thy land in due ſeaſon, and to bleſſe all the labours of thy hand: and thou ſhalt lend vnto many nations, but ſhalt not borowe thy ſelfe. c For nothing vpō earth can proſper, vnleſſe God by his heauenly bleſſing encreaſe and conſerue it.
13 And the Lord ſhall make thee chiefeſt, and not the loweſt, and thou ſhalt be aboue onely, and not beneath: if that thou hearken vnto the commaundements of the Lord thy God, which I commaund thee this day, to keepe, and to doe them:
14 And ſee that thou bow not aſide from any of theſe wordes which I commaund thee this day, either to the right hand, or to the left, that thou wouldeſt go after ſtrange gods, to ſerue them.
15 But and if thou * wilt not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, to keepe and to do all his commaundements and his ordinances Leuit. 26, 14. malach. 2, 2. baruch. 1, 20.

dinances which I command thee this day, all these curses shall come vpon thee, and ouertake thee.

16 Cursed shalt thou be in the citie, and cursed in the field.

17 Cursed shalbe thy basket and thy store.

18 Cursed shall bee the fruite of thy body, and the fruite of thy land, and the increase of thy kine, and the flockes of thy sheepe.

19 Cursed shalt thou bee when thou goest in, and cursed when thou goest out.

20 The Lord shall send vpon thee cursing, destruction, and rebuke, in all that thou settest thine hand to, and that thou doest, vntill he destroy thee, and bring thee to nought quickly, because of the wickednesse of thine inuentions, and because thou hast forsaken me.

21 The Lord shall make the pestilence cleaue vnto thee, vntil he haue consumed thee from off the land whither thou goest to enioy it.

22 The Lorde shall smite thee with swelling, with feuers, heate, burning, & with the sword, with blasting, and mildewe: and they shall follow thee vntill thou perish.

Leuit. 26. 19.

23 * And the heauē that is ouer thy head shalbe [d] brasse, and the earth that is vnder thee, shall be iron.

d Meaning, the heauen shalbe so hardened, that it shall giue no moisture.

24 The Lord shall turne the raine of thy lande vnto powder and dust, from heauen shall they come downe vpon thee, vntil thou be brought to nought.

25 And the Lord shall cause thee to fall before thine enemies: thou shalt come out one way against them, and flee seuen wayes before thē, and shalt bee scattered among all the kingdomes of the earth.

26 And thy carkeise shall bee meate vnto all maner of foules of the aire, & vnto the beastes of the earth, & no man shall fray them away.

27 The Lord will smite thee with the botch of Egypt, and the emerodes, scabbe, and itche, that thou mayest not be healed thereof.

28 And the Lorde shall smite thee with madnesse, and blindnesse, and dazing of heart.

29 Thou shalt grope at noone dayes, as the [e] blinde groeth in darkenesse, and shalt not prosper in thy wayes: Thou shalt be oppressed with wrong, and be polled euermore, and no man shall succour thee.

e Thou shalt not be able to vnderstand things that be plaine, for want of discretion.

30 Thou shalt be betrothed vnto a wife, and an other man shall lie with her: thou shalt build an house, and not dwell therein: thou shalt also plant a vineyard, and shalt * not gather the grapes.

Deut. 20. 6.

31 Thine ore shall be slaine before thine eyes, and thou shalt not eate thereof: thine asse shal be violently taken away before thy face, and shal not be restored to thee againe: thy sheepe shall be giuen vnto thine enemies, & no man shall rescue them.

32 Thy sonnes and thy daughters shall be giuen vnto an other nation, and thine eyes shal see it, and [f] daze vpon them all the day long: and there shall be no might in thine hand.

f Wishing that they may come frō their bondage.

33 The fruite of thy land, and all thy labours, shall a nation which thou knowest not, eate vp: and thou shalt continually suffer violēce, and be oppressed alway:

34 So that thou shalt bee cleane beside thy selfe, for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

35 The Lord shall smite thee in the knees and legs with a mischieuous botche that cannot be healed, from the sole of thy foote, vnto the top of thy head.

36 The [g] Lorde shall bring thee, and thy king which thou shalt set ouer thee, vnto a nation which neither thou nor thy fathers haue knowen, that there thou mayest serue strange gods, wood and stone.

g Gods wrath hath bene so: as for example, Manasses, Joachim, and Zedechias.

37 And thou shalt bee wondred at, spoken of, and iested at, among all nations whither the Lord shall cary thee.

38 * Thou shalt cary much seede out into the field, and shalt gather but litle in: for [h] grashoppers shall destroy it.

Mich. 6. 15. Agge. 1. 6.

39 Thou shalt plant a vineyard and dresse it, but shalt neither drinke of the wine, neither gather the grapes: for the wormes shall eate it.

40 Thou shalt haue Oliue trees thorowout all thy coastes, but shalt not anoint thy selfe with the oyle: for thine Oliues shall ‖ fall downe.

‖ Or, be shaken before they be ripe.

41 Thou shalt beget sonnes and daughters, but shalt not haue them: for they shal be caried away captiue.

42 All the trees and fruite of thy lande shall [h] ‖ wormes consume.

h Vnder this one sort, he comprehendeth all kinde of vermine, whereof some vse to consume the fruites of the earth, as for example, Grashoppers.

43 The stranger that is among you, shal clime aboue thee vp on high; and thou shalt come downe beneath alowe.

44 He shall lend thee, and thou shalt not lende him: he shalbe the head, and thou shalt be the taile.

45 Moreouer, all these curses shall come vpon thee, and shall follow thee, and ouertake thee, till thou bee destroyed: because thou hearkenedst not vnto the voice of the Lord thy God, to keepe his commaundements, and his ordinances which he commanded thee.

46 And they shall be vpon thee [i] for signes and wonders, and vpon thy seede for euer.

i Thou shalt be punished after such a sort, that thou shalt be constrained to confesse that Gods hand is vpon thee.

47 Because thou seruedst not the Lorde thy God with ioyfulnesse, and with a good heart, when thou hadst abundance of all things.

48 Therefore shalt thou serue thine enemie, which the Lord shall send vpon thee, in hunger, and thirst, in nakednesse, and in neede of all things: and hee shall put a [k] yoke of iron vpon thy necke, vntill he haue brought thee to nought.

k Shal handle thee marueilous rigorously and cruelly.

49 And

49 And the Lord shal bring a nation vpon thee from farre, and from the ende of the world, as swift as an Egle fleeth, a nation whose tongue thou shalt not vnderstand:

50 A nation of a shameles and cruell countenance, which shal not regard the person of the old, nor haue compassion on the yong:

51 The same shall eate the fruite of thy cattell, and the fruite of thy land, vntill he haue destroyed thee: & shall leaue thee neither corne, wine, nor oile, neither the increase of thy kine, nor the flockes of thy sheepe, vntill hee haue brought thee to nought:

52 And he shall keepe thee in, in all thy cities, vntil he haue cast downe thy high walles and strong holdes wherein thou trustedst, throwout all thy land: and he shall besiege thee in all thy cities throwout all thy land which the Lord thy God hath giuen thee.

53 And thou shalt eate the fruite of thine owne body, the flesh [l] of thy sonnes & of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath giuē thee, in that straightnesse & siege wherewith thine enemies shall inclose thee.

54 So that it shall grieue the man that is tender and exceeding delicate among you, to looke on his brother, and vpon his wife that lieth in his bosome, and on the remnant of his children which he hath yet left,

55 For feare of giuing vnto any of them of the flesh of his children, whom he shall eate: because he hath nothing left him in the straightnesse and siege, wherewith thine enemies shal besiege thee in all thy cities.

56 Yea, and the woman that is so tender and delicate, that she dare not aduenture to set the sole of her foote vpon the ground, for softnesse and tendernesse, shall be grieued to looke on her husband that lieth in her bosome, and on her sonne, and on her daughter,

57 And on her [m] afterbirth that is come out frō betweene her feete, and her children which she shall beare: For when all things lacke she shall eate them secretly, during the siege and straightnesse wherewith thine enemies shall besiege thee in thy cities.

58 If thou wilt not keepe & doe all the wordes of this lawe that are written in this booke, and feare this glorious and fearefull name, THE LORD THY GOD:

59 The Lord will send vnto thee and thy seede great plagues, and of long continuance, euill sicknesses, and of long durance, 60 Moreouer, he will bring vpon thee all the diseases of Egypt, and those which thou wast afraid of, shall cleaue vnto thee.

61 And all maner sicknesses, and all maner plagues which are not written in the booke of this lawe, will the Lord bring vpon thee, vntill he bring thee to nought.

62 And ye shall be left fewe in number, where

[l] This came to passe in Samaria, in the dayes of Eliseus the prophet, 4. Reg. 6. and in Jerusalem when it was besieged by the emperour Titus, fourtie & two yeres after Christ, Jerem. 4. 10. Baruch 2. 3.

[m] She shall be so beset with hunger, that she shall thinke it better eate her child he borne that she might eate it.

before ye were as the [n] starres of heauen in multitude: because thou wouldest not harken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God.

[n] He alludeth to the promise made to Abraham.

63 And it shall come to passe, that as the Lorde reioyced ouer you to do you good, and to multiplie you: so he will reioyce ouer you to destroy you, and to bring you to nought, and ye shalbe walked from off the land whither thou goest to enioy it.

64 And the Lorde shall scatter thee among all nations, from the one ende of the world vnto the other: and there thou shalt serue strange gods, which thou nor thy fathers haue known, euen wood and stone.

65 And among these nations thou shalt finde none ease, neither shall the [o] sole of thy foote haue rest: But the Lord shall giue thee there an vnquiet heart, and dazing eyes, and sorow of minde.

[o] Thou shalt be a vacabond.

66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee, and thou shalt feare both day and night, and shalt haue none assurance of thy life.

67 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were night: and at night thou shalt say, Would God it were morning, for feare of thine heart which thou shalt feare, and for the sight of thine eyes which thou shalt see.

68 And the Lorde shall bring thee into Egypt againe with [p] ships by the way which I said to thee, thou shalt see it no more againe: and there ye shall bee sold vnto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall buy you.

[p] Because they were vnthankfull to God for his miraculous deliuering of them by ꝑ parting asunder of the red sea.

The xxix. Chapter.

1 The people are exhorted to obserue the commandements. 10 The whole people from the highest to the lowest are comprehended vnder Gods couenant. 19 The punishment of him that flattereth himselfe in his wickednesse. 24 The cause of Gods wrath against his people.

1 THese are the wordes of the ‖ couenant which the Lorde commanded Moses to make with the children of Israel in the lande of Moab, beside the appointment which hee made with them in ‖ Horeb.

‖ Or, Articles.

‖ Or, mount Sinai, where the lawe was first giuen, fourtie yeeres before the making of this couenant, Exod. 19. 4.

2 And Moses called all Israel, and sayd vnto them, Ye haue * seene all that the Lorde did before your eyes in the lande of Egypt vnto Pharao, and vnto all his seruants, and vnto all his land,

3 The great ‖ temptations which thine eyes haue seene, those great myracles and wonders:

‖ Or, proofes.

4 And yet the Lorde hath not giuen you an heart to perceiue, and eyes to see, and eares to heare, vnto this day.

5 And I haue led you fourtie yeeres in the wilderneſſe: and your clothes are not waxed old vpon you, and thy shoe is not waxed old vpon thy foote.

a Made by mā: but Manna, the foode of angels, which serued them for bread and al other sustenāce. Nmm.21.33.

6 Ye haue eaten no a bread, nor drunke wine or strong drinke: that yee might knowe howe that I am the Lord your God.

7 * And ye came vnto this place: and Sehon the king of Hesbon, and Og the king of Basan, came out against vs vnto battell, and we smote them,

8 And tooke their lande, and gaue it for an inheritance vnto the Rubenites and Gadites, & to the halfe tribe of Manasse.

9 Keepe therefore the words of this couenant, and do them, that ye may vnderstand all that ye ought to doe.

b Who searcheth your hearts, & therefore ye may not dissemble with him.

10 Yee stande this day euery one of you before the b Lorde your God: your captaines, your tribes, your Elders, your officers, and all the men of Israel:

11 Your children also, your wiues, and the stranger that is in thine host, frō the hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water:

c Ye alludeth to an ancient ceremonie, by which they made a couenant, deuided a beast into two parts, and passing betweene the same, saide, So be he deuided that breaketh this couenant, Gen. 15.10.

12 That thou shouldest c goe into the couenant of the Lorde thy God, and into his othe which the Lorde thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 For to make thee a people vnto himselfe, & that he may bee vnto thee a God, as hee hath saide vnto thee, & as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob.

14 I make not this bonde and this othe with you onely:

15 But both with him that standeth here with vs this day before the Lorde our God, and also with him that is not d here with vs this day.

d Meaning them that were yet vnborne.

16 For yee knowe howe wee haue dwelt in the lande of Egypt, & how we came through the middest of the nations which ye passed by:

17 And ye haue seene their abominations, and their idols, wood, and stone, siluer and golde, which were among them.

18 Least there bee among you man or woman, kinred, or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the Lorde our God, to goe and serue ỹ gods of these nations: and least there be among you some e roote that beareth gall and wormewood.

e That is, sinne: the roote whereof must speedily be cut vp, least afterward the bitter fruite thereof doe choke the soule. ‖ Or flatter. ‖ Or, slake the thirst with drunkennesse.

19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this curse, he ‖ blesse him selfe in his heart, saying, I shall haue peace, I will walke in the meaning of mine owne heart: ‖ to put the drunken to the thirstie.

20 And so the Lorde will not consent to be mercifull vnto him, but then the wrath of the Lorde, and his ielousie shall smoke against that man, and all the curses that are written in this booke, shall light vpon him, and the Lord shall doe out his name from vnder heauen.

21 And the Lorde shall separate him vnto euill, out of all the tribes of Israel, according vnto all the curses of the couenant that are written in the booke of this lawe.

22 So that the generatiō to come of your children, that shal rise vp after you, & the stranger that shall come from a farre lande, shall say, when they see the plagues of that land, & the diseases wherewith the Lord hath smitten it,

23 (Howe all the lande is burnt vp with brimstone and salte, and that it is neyther sowen, nor beareth, nor any grasse groweth therein, like as in the place of the * ouerthrowing of Sodome, Gomorre, Adama, and Zeboim, which the Lord ouerthrewe in his wrath and anger) Gene.19.25.

24 Then shall all nations say, * Wherefore hath the Lorde done on this fashion vnto this land? O howe fierce is this great wrath? 3.Reg.9.8.Iere. 22.8.

25 And men shal say, Because they haue forsaken the couenant of the Lord God of their fathers, which he made vp thē when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

26 For they went and serued strange gods, and worshipped them, goddes which they knewe not, and ‖ which had giuen them nothing.

‖ Or, which had not giuen them a land to possesse.

27 And the wrath of ỹ Lorde waxed hot against this lande, to bring vpon it all the curses that are written in this booke.

28 And the Lorde cast them out of their lande, in anger, wrath, and great indignation, and cast them into a strange lande, as this day beareth witnesse.

f We condemneth curious searchers of things reserued to Gods secret knowledge, neglecting the things reuealed by god, as his lawe.

29 The f secretes of the Lorde our God are opened vnto vs, & to our children for euer, that we may do all the words of this lawe.

The xxx. Chapter.

1 Mercie shewed when they repent. 19 Life and death is set before them. 20 The Lord is their life which obey him.

1 WHen all these words are come vpon thee, the blessing and the curse, which I haue set before thee, thou shalt a turne vnto thine heart among all the nations whither the Lorde thy God hath driuen thee, a By bringing to minde both his fauour and his displeasure. Psalm.105.45.

2 And * come againe vnto the Lord thy God, and hearken vnto his voyce in al these things that I commande thee this day, thou, and thy children, with all thine heart, and with all thy soule:

b That is, will change his purpose, will reconcile himselfe to thee.

3 And the Lord thy God b will turne thy captiuitie, and haue compassion vpon thee, and will turne and fetch thee againe from all the nations among which the Lord thy God hath scattered thee.

4 Though thou wast cast vnto the extreme partes of heauen, from thence will the Lorde thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee.

5 And the Lord thy God will bring * thee into the land which thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt enioy it: and he will shewe thee kindnes, and multiplie thee aboue thy fathers. * Mach.1.50.

c Will cut away thy vngodly lusts and affections.

6 And the Lorde thy God will c circumcise thine heart, & the heart of thy seede, that thou mayest loue the Lorde thy God with all thine heart, and all thy soule, that thou mayest liue.
7 And the Lorde thy God will put all these curses vpon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, and that persecute thee.
8 But thou shalt turne and hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord, and doe all his commandements which I commande thee this day:
9 (And the Lord thy God will make thee plenteous in all the workes of thine hande, in the fruite of thy body, and in the fruite of thy cattell, & in the fruite of thy land, for thy wealth: For the Lorde will turne againe, and d reioyce ouer thee to doe thee good, as hee reioyced ouer thy fathers.

d Not that God is subiect to affections: but hereby is set forth his fauour towarde repentant sinners.

10 If thou hearken onely vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, to keepe his commandements and his ordinances which are written in the booke of this lawe, and if thou turne vnto the Lorde thy God, with all thine heart, and all thy soule:)
11 For the commandement which I command thee this day, is e not hidden from thee, neyther farre off.

e Some read, not separated from thee. Ye meanerh that the lawe is so plaine, þ none can pleade ignorance.

12 It is not in heauen, that thou needest to say, Who shal goe vp for vs to heauen, and bring it vnto vs, that we may heare it, and do it?
13 Neyther is it beyonde the f sea, that thou shouldest say, Who shall goe ouer the sea for vs, and bring it vnto vs, that we may heare it, and do it?

f By heauen and the sea, he meaneth places farre off.

14 But the worde is very nygh vnto thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thy heart, that thou doe it.
15 Behold, I haue set before thee this day life, and good, death, and euill:
16 For where as I commande thee this day to loue the Lord thy God, to walke in his waies, and to keepe his commandementes, his ordinances, and his lawes, [if thou so doe] thou shalt liue, and multiplie, & the Lorde thy God shal blesse thee in the land, whither thou goest to possesse it.
17 But if thine heart turne away, so that thou wilt not heare, but shalt go astray and worship strange gods, and serue them:
18 I pronounce vnto you this day, that ye shall surely perish, & that ye shall not prolong your dayes vpon the lande, whither thou passest ouer Iordane to go and possesse it.
19 I call heauen and earth to recorde this day against you, that I haue set before you life & death, blessing, and cursing: therefore g choose life, that both thou and thy seede may liue, g That is to say, shewe thy loue and obedience to God: which is not performed by our owne strength, but by Gods grace working in his elect.

20 That thou mayest loue the Lorde thy God, and be obedient to his voyce, and cleaue vnto him: For hee is thy life, and the length of thy dayes, that thou mayest dwell vpon the earth, which the Lorde sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, to giue them.

The xxxi. Chapter.

2. 7. Moses preparing himselfe to die, appointeth Iosuah to rule the people. 9 He giueth the law to the Leuites, that they should reade it to the people.

1 AND Moses went & spake these words vnto all Israel,
2 And sayde vnto them, I am an hundred and twentie yeeres olde this day, and can no more a go out and in: also the Lord hath sayde vnto me, Thou b shalt not go ouer this * Iordane.

a Can no longer performe the charge cõmitted vnto me.

b That is, into the lande of Chanaan: for Iordane in the coast of Moab, is the bounde of the lande of Chanaan.

Deut. 3.26.

3 The Lorde thy God he will goe ouer before thee, and hee will destroy these nations before thee, and thou shalt possesse them: and Iosuah shall goe before thee, as the Lord hath sayde.
4 And the Lorde shall doe vnto them, as hee did to Sehon and Og, kinges of the Amorites, and vnto the lande of them whom he destroyed.
5 And the Lorde shall giue them ouer c before your face, that yee may doe vnto them according vnto all the commandementes which I haue commanded you.

c Into your power.

6 Plucke vp your heartes therefore, and bee strong, dread not, nor be afraid of them, for the Lord thy God himselfe doeth go with thee, he shall not faile thee, nor forsake thee.
7 And Moses called vnto Iosuah, and sayde vnto him in the sight of all Israel, Be strong, and of good courage: for thou must goe with this people vnto the lande which the Lorde hath sworne vnto their fathers to giue them, and thou shalt giue it them to inherite.
8 And the Lorde he doeth goe before thee, he shall be with thee, he shall not fayle thee, neyther forsake thee: feare not therefore, nor bee discomfited.
9 And d Moses wrote this lawe, and deliuered it vnto the Priestes the sonnes of Leui, which bare the Arke of the Testament of the Lord, and vnto all the Elders of Israel.

d Before Moses time, the doctrine which conteined the maner of seruing God was not put in writing, but onely deliuered by words of mouth, by the fathers to the children frõ one generatiõ to another.

10 And Moses commaunded them, saying, Euery e seuenth yeere, in the solemnitie of the free yeere, in the feast of Tabernacles, 11 When all Israel is come to appeare before the Lord thy God, in the place which he hath chosen: thou shalt reade this lawe before all Israel, that they may heare it.
12 Gather the people together, men, women, and children, and the stranger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, & learne, and feare the Lorde your God, and keepe and obserue all the wordes of this lawe, 13 And that their children which ‖ knowe f nothing, may heare, and learne to feare the Lorde your God, as long as yee liue in the land whither ye goe ouer Iordane to possesse it.

e Notwithstanding this solemne reading of þ lawe at the ende of euery seuen yeres, they had in the meane time ordinarie exercises in the same.

‖ Or, knewe it not.

f Which were vnborne at the giuing of the lawe.

14 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moses, Beholde, the dayes are come that thou must die: call Iosuah therefore, and stande yee in the tabernacle of the congregation, that I may giue him a charge. And Moses and Iosuah went and stoode in the tabernacle of the congregation.

15 And the Lorde appeared in the tabernacle, in the pillar of the cloude: and the pillar of the cloude stoode ouer the doore of the tabernacle.

16 And the Lorde saide vnto Moses, Beholde, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, & this people will ryse vp, and goe g a whoring after strange gods of the lande whither they goe, and will forsake me, and breake the appoyntment which I haue made with them.

g Forsaking God, to whom they had plight their troth, as to their spouse.

17 And then my wrath will waxe hote against them in that day, and I will forsake them, and will h hide my face from them, and they shall be consumed, and many aduersitie and tribulation shall come vpon them, so ỹ then they will say, Are not these troubles come vpon me, because God is not with me?

h I will turne my face from them, as it is said that God sheweth vs his countenance when he doth fauour vs.

18 And I also will surely hide away my face in that day, for al the euils sake which they shall haue wrought, in that they are turned vnto strange gods.

19 Nowe therefore, write ye this song for you, and teache it the children of Israel, and put it in their mouthes, that this song may bee my witnesse against the children of Israel.

20 For I will bring them into the lande which I sware vnto their fathers, that floweth with milke and honey: and they shall eate, and fill thẽ selues, and ware fat, & turne vnto strange gods, and serue them, and blaspheme me, and breake my couenant.

21 And when much mischiefe and tribulation is come vpon them, this song shall i answere them as a witnesse: For it shall not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their seede, for I knowe their imagination, which they goe about euen nowe, before I haue brought them into the land which I sware.

i Shall testifie to them that are thus plaged for departing from me.

22 Moses therefore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And hee gaue Iosuah the sonne of Nun a charge, and sayde, Be bolde and strong: for thou shalt bring the children of Israel into the land which I sware vnto them: and I will be with thee.

24 And when Moses had made an ende of writing the wordes of this lawe in a booke, vntil he had finished them,

25 Moses commaunded the Leuites which bare the Arke of the couenant of the Lorde, saying, k To declare the maiestie of the doctrine cõteined therein, as proceeding frõ God.

26 Take yee the booke of this lawe, and put it in the k side of the Arke of the couenant of the Lorde your God, that it may be there for a witnesse against thee.

27 For I knowe thy rebellion, and thy stiffe necke: while I am yet aliue with you this day, ye haue bene disobedient vnto the Lorde, and howe much more after my death?

28 Gather vnto me all ỹ Elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speake these words in their eares, and call heaue̅ and earth to recorde against them.

29 For I am sure, that after my death yee will vtterly bee corrupt, and turne from the way which I haue commanded you: and tribulation will come vpon you in the latter dayes, because yee shall haue wrought wickednesse in the sight of ỹ Lord, to prouoke him thorow l the workes of your hands.

l By worshipping images, which your handes haue made.

30 And Moses spake in the eares of all the congregation of Israel the wordes of this song, vntill he had ended them.

The xxxii. Chapter.

7 The song of Moses concerning Gods benefites towarde the people. 48 God forwarneth Moses of his death.

1 HEare, O yee a heauens, and I shall speake, & let the earth heare the wordes of my mouth.

a As witnesses of the vnthankefulnesse of this most insensible people.

2 My doctrine shall drop as doeth the rayne: and my speach shall flowe as doeth the dewe, as the showre vpon the herbes, and as the droppes vpon the grasse.

3 For I will publish the name of the Lord, ascribe ye honour vnto our God.

4 Perfect is the worke of the most mightie ‡ God, for all his wayes are iudgement: he is a God of trueth, without wickednesse, righteous and iust is he.

‡ Hebr. rocke. This declareth Gods strength and stedfastnesse in his promises.

5 Frowardly haue b they done against him by their c vices, not being his owne children, but a wicked and frowarde generation.

b The Israelites.

c Some reade, spot, meaning therebp, their affections: which made them turne away from God.

6 Doe ye so reward the Lord, O thou foolish nation, and vnwise? Is not he thy father that hath bought thee? Hath hee not made thee, and ordeined thee?

7 Remember the dayes of the worlde that is past, consider the yeeres of so many generations: Aske thy father, and hee will shewe thee, thy Elders, and they will tell thee.

8 When the most Highest deuided to the nations their inheritance, and when he separated the sonnes of Adam, he put the borders of the nations, according to the number of the children of Israel:

9 For the Lords part is his people, and Iacob is the portion of his inheritance.

10 Hee founde him in a desart lande, in a voyde ground, and in a ‡ roaring wildernesse: he led him about, he gaue him vnderstanding, & kept him as the apple of his eye.

‡ Full of wilde beastes.

11 As an Egle that stirreth vp her nest, and flittereth ouer her yong, and spreadeth her wings, taketh them, and beareth them on her wings:

12 The Lorde alone was his guide, and there was no strange God with him.
13 Hee caried him vp to the high places of the earth, that hee might eate the increase of the fieldes, and hee fedde him with honey out of the rocke, and with oyle out of the most hard stone:
14 With butter of kine, and milke of the sheepe, with fat of the lambes, and fat of rammes, and hee goates, with the fat of the most plenteous wheate, and that thou mightest drinke the most pure blood of the grape.
15 But hee that was vpright, when he waxed fat, ‡ spurned with his heele: Thou art well fedde, thou art growen thicke, thou art laden with fatnesse: And hee forsooke God his maker, and regarded not the God of his saluation.
16 They prouoked him to anger with strange goddes, with abominations prouoked they him.
17 They offered vnto deuils, and not to God: to gods whom they knewe not, to newe gods that came newely vp, whom their fathers feared not.
18 Of God that begate thee thou art vnmindefull, and hast forgotten God that made thee.
19 The Lord therefore sawe it, and was angry: because of the prouoking of his sonnes [d] and his daughters.
20 And he sayd, I wil hide my face from them, and will see what their ende shall be: For they are a very frowarde generation, children in whom is no faith.
21 They haue angred me with that which is no god, and prouoked mee with their vanities: And * I also will prouoke them with those which are no people, I will anger them with a foolish nation.
22 For fire is kindled in my wrath, and burneth vnto the bottome of hel, and hath consumed the earth with her increase, and set a fire the bottomes of the mountaines.
23 I will heape mischiefes vpon them, & will destroy them with mine arrowes.
24 They shall be ‖ burnt with hunger, and consumed with heate, and with bitter destruction: I will also sende the teeth of beastes vpon them, with the ‖ furiousnesse of serpents in the dust.
25 Outwardly shall the swoorde robbe them of their children, and in the chamber feare, both yong men, and yong women, and the sucklinges, with the men of graye heads.
26 I haue sayde, I will scatter them abroade, and make the remembrance of them to cease from among men:
27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemie, least their aduersaries shoulde [e] waxe proud, and least they shoulde say, Our high hande hath done all this, and not the Lord.
28 For it is a nation voyd of counsayle, neither is there any vnderstanding in them.
29 O that they were wise, and vnderstood this, that they would consider their latter ende.
30 Howe should one chase a thousand, and two put ten thousande to flight, except their ‖ maker had solde them, and except the Lorde had ‖ shut them vp?
31 For their god is not as our ‖ God: our enemies also themselues are iudges.
32 For their vine is of the vineyarde of Sodome, and of the fieldes of Gomorra: their grapes are grapes of gall, and their clusters be bitter.
33 Their wine is the poyson of dragons, and the cruell gall of aspes.
34 Is not [f] this layde in store with mee, & sealed vp among my treasures?
35 * Vengeance is mine, and I will reward, their foote shal slide in due time: for the day of their destruction is at hande, and the thinges that shall come vpon them, make haste.
36 For the Lorde shall iudge his people, and haue compassion on his seruantes, when he seeth that their power is gone, and that they be in a maner shut vp, or brought to nought and forsaken.
37 And when it shall be sayde, Where are their gods, their ‖ god in whom they trusted?
38 The fat of whose sacrifices they did eate, and dranke the wine of their drinke offerings: let them rise vp and helpe you, and bee your protection.
39 See nowe howe that I, I am God, and there is none but I: * I kill, and will make aliue: I wound, and wil heale: neither is there any that can deliuer out of my hand.
40 For I will lift vp my hande to heauen, and will say, I liue euer.
41 If I whet the edge of my swoorde, and mine hande take holde to doe iustice, I will recompence vengeance on mine enemies, and will reward them that hate me.
42 I will make mine arrowes drunke with blood, and my swoorde shall deuoure flesh, and that for the blood of the slayne, and for their captiuitie, since the captiuitie of the wrath of the enemie.
43 ‖ Ye nations * prayse his people, for he will auenge the blood of his seruantes, and will auenge him of his aduersaries, and wil be mercifull vnto his land, and to his people.
44 And Moses came and spake all the words of this song in the eares of the people, hee, and Iosuah the sonne of Nun.
45 And Moses made an ende of speaking all these words to all the people of Israel, 47 And let it not be a vaine word vnto you: for in it is your life, & through this word ye shall prolong your dayes in the land whither ye go ouer Iordane to possesse it.

Num.27.12. 48 *And the Lord spake vnto Moses the same day, saying,

49 Get thee vp into this mountaine Abarim, vnto mount Nebo, which is in the lande of Moab, ouer against Iericho, and behold the lande of Chanaan which I giue vnto the children of Israel to possesse:

52 Thou shalt therfore see the land before thee, and shalt not goe thither vnto the land which I giue the children of Israel.

The xxxiii. Chapter.

26 There is no god like vnto the God of Israel. 29 Nor any people like vnto his.

1 THis is the blessing wherewith Moses the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death, and sayde, a Here Moses bringeth the people in mind of the glorious reuealing of þ lawe.

2 The [a] Lord came from Sinai, and rose vp from Seir vnto them, and appeared from mount Pharan, and he came with tenne thousande of saintes, and in his right hande a lawe of fire for them.

b The children of Israel. 3 And he loued the people, all [b] his saints also are in thy hands: they sate downe at thy feete, to receiue thy words.

e To continue among vs frō age to age. 4 Moses gaue vs a lawe for [c] an inheritance of the congregation of Iacob:

5 And hee was in Israel [as] king, when the heads of the people, and the tribes of Israel, were gathered together.

6 Let Ruben liue, and not die, and bee fewe in number.

7 This is the [blessing] of Iuda: and he said, Heare Lord the voyce of Iuda, and bring d him vnto his people: his hands shalbe good ynough for him, if thou helpe him against his enemies.

d That is, to be ruler, or chiefe ouer his people.

‡Heb. Thummim and Vrim. 8 And vnto Leui hee saide, ‡ Right and light shalbe with thee, and with euery one that is godly in thee: thou diddest proue him also in thee, thou diddest proue him also in the temptation, and striuedst with him at the waters of strife.

e That more esteemed the seruing of god: then the loue of his parents and familie. 9 Hee that hath sayde [e] vnto his father and to his mother, (I haue not seene him) and hee that knewe not his brethren, nor knewe his owne children: those are they that haue obserued thy word, and shall keepe thy couenant.

‖Or, substance. 11 Blesse Lord his first ‖fruites, and accept the worke of his handes, smite the loynes of them that rise against him, and of them that hate him, that they rise not againe.

12 And of Beniamin he saide, The beloued of the Lord shall dwell in safetie by him, and the Lord shall couer him all the day long, and he shall dwell betweene his shoulders.

‖Or, sweetenesse of heauen: meaning the sweete dewes & rayne that come from heauen: Looke Gen.49. 13 And of Ioseph he saide, Blessed of the Lord is his land ‖ for the fruits of heauen, through the deawe and springes that lie beneath,

14 And for the sweete fruites of the increase of the Sunne, and ripe fruites of the Moone:

15 For the first fruites of the principall mountaines, and for the fruites that the hilles bring forth for euer:

16 And for the fruites of the earth, and fulnesse thereof: and for the good will of [f] him that dwelt in the bush, shall the blessing come vpon the head of Ioseph, and vpon the top of the head of him that was separated from among his brethren.

f Which was God that appeared to Moses in a bush.

17 His glory is like the first borne Ore, and his hornes are as the hornes of an Unicorne, and with them he shall tosse the nations together vnto the endes of the worlde: These are also ten thousands of Ephraim, and þ thousandes of Manasses.

18 And vnto Zabulon he sayde, Reioyce Zabulon in thy going out, and thou Issachar in thy tents.

19 They shall call the people vnto the hill, and there they shall offer offeringes of righteousnesse: for they shall sucke of the abundance of the sea, and of treasure hid in the sand.

g Meaning, that this tribe should be victorious. 20 And vnto Gad he sayde, Blessed bee he that enlarged Gad: he dwelleth as [g] a Lion that catcheth for a pray the arme with the head.

h That is, which God the lawgiuer had reserued for the Gadites. 21 He looked to himselfe at the beginning, because there was a portion of the [h] lawegiuer hid, and he came with the heads of the people, and executed the righteousnesse of the Lord, and his iudgements with Israel.

i That is, shall be strong ynough to defend himselfe, as appeared by Samson. 22 And vnto Dan hee saide, Dan [i] is a Lions whelpe, he shall leape from Basan.

23 And vnto Nephthali he sayde, O Nephthali, satisfied with Gods fauour, and full with the blessing of the Lord, possesse thou þ West and the South.

24 And to Aser hee saide, Aser shall bee blessed with children, he shall be acceptable vnto his brethren, and shall dippe his foote in oyle.

25 Thy shooes shall bee iron and brasse, and thy strength shall continue as long as thou liuest.

26 There is none like vnto the God of Israel, which though he sit vpon the heauen, [as vpon an horse] yet is he thine helper, whose glory is in the ‖ celestiall places.

‖ Or, cloudes.

27 The eternall God is thy refuge, and vnder the armes of the euerlasting God shalt thou liue: hee shall cast out the enemie before thee, and say, Destroy them.

Ierem. 23. 6.

28 Israel then shal * dwell in safetie, and alone, and the fountaine of Jacob shall bee vpon a lande of corne and wine, and his heauens shall drop the deawe.

29 Happie art thou, O Israel, who is like vnto thee, O people, that art saued in the Lorde, which is the shielde of thy helpe, and sword of thy glory: thine enemies haue lost their strength to thee warde, and thou shalt treade vpon their high places.

9 And Josuah the sonne of Nun was full of the spirit of wisedome, for Moses had put his handes vpon him, and the children of Israel were obedient vnto him, and did as the Lorde commanded Moses.

The ende of the fifth booke of Moses, called in the Hebrewe Elle haddebarim, and in the Latine Deuteronomium.

The

The booke of Iosuah, vvhom the Hebrewes call Fehosua.

The first Chapter.

3 The Lorde encourageth Iosuah to inuade the lande of promise. 5 The Lorde promiseth to assist Iosuah, if he obey his worde. 11 Iosuah commaundeth the people to prepare them selues to passe ouer Iordane, 12 and exhorteth the Rubenites to execute their charge.

1 After the [a] death of Moses the seruant of the Lorde, it came to passe, ẏ the Lorde spake vnto Iosuah ẏ sonne of Nun, Moses [b] minister, saying,

2 Moses my seruant is dead: nowe therefore arise, goe ouer this Iordane, thou and all this people, vnto the lande the which I to thē the children of Israel do [c] giue.

3 All the places that the soles of your feete shall treade vpon, haue I giuen you, as I said vnto Moses.

4 From the [d] wildernesse and this Libanon, vnto the great riuer ‖ Euphrates, all the land of the [e] Hethites, euen vnto the [f] great sea, toward the going downe of the Sunne, shalbe your coast.

5 There shall not a man be able to withstande thee al the daies of thy life: for as I was with Moses, so will I bee with thee, and will not fayle thee, nor forsake thee.

6 Be strong therefore and bolde: for vnto this people shalt thou diuide the lande for inheritance, which I sware vnto their fathers to giue them.

7 Onely bee thou strong, and of a stoute courage, that thou mayest obserue and doe according to all the lawe which Moses my seruant commanded thee: turne from the same neyther to the righe hande, nor to the left, that thou mayest doe wisely in all that thou takest in hand.

8 Let not the booke of this Law depart out of thy mouth, [g] but occupie thy minde therein day and night, that thou mayest obserue and do according to all that is written therein: for then shalt thou make thy way [h] prosperous, and then thou shalt doe wisely.

9 Haue not I commanded thee, that thou shouldest be strong and hardie, and not feare nor bee faint hearted: for I the Lorde thy God am with thee, whither so euer thou goest.

10 Then Iosuah commanded the officers of the people, saying,

11 Goe through the middes of the host, and commande the people, saying, Prepare your victuals: for after [i] three dayes ye shall passe ouer this Iordane, to goe in, and enioy the land which the Lord your God giueth you to possesse it.

12 And vnto the Rubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manasses, spake Iosuah, saying, 13 *Remember the word which Moses the seruant of the Lorde cōmanded you, saying, The Lord your God hath giuen you rest, and hath giuen you this [k] land.

14 Your wiues, your children, and your cattel, shall remaine in the lande which Moses gaue you on [l] this side Iordane: but ye shall goe before your brethren armed, all that be men of warre, and helpe them:

15 Until the Lorde haue giuen your brethren rest, as hee hath you, and vntill they also haue obteined the lande which the Lord your God giueth them: and then shall yee returne vnto the land of your possession, and enioy it, which [lande] Moses the Lordes seruant gaue you on this side Iordane towarde the Sunne rising.

16 And they answered Iosuah, saying, All that thou hast commaunded vs, wee will doe, and whither so euer thou sendest vs, wee will go.

17 According as wee obeyed Moses in all thinges, so will wee obey thee: onely the Lorde thy God bee with thee, as he was with Moses.

The ii. Chapter.

9 Rahab acknowledgeth the God of Israel to be the highest God.

1 AND Iosuah the sonne of Nun, sent out of [a] Sittim two men, to spie secretely, saying, Goe, and viewe the lande, and also Iericho. And they went, and came into an ‖ harlots house, named Rahab, and lodged there.

a Which place was in the plaine of Moab, neare vnto Iordane.
‖ Or, tauerners house, or hostice

2 And it was tolde the king of Iericho, saying, Beholde, there came men in hither to night of the children of Israel, to spie out the countrey.

3 And the king of Iericho sent vnto Rahab, saying, [b] Bring foorth the men that are come to thee, and which are entred into thine house: for they be come to search out al ỹ land.

b Though the wicked see the hande of God vpon them, yet they repent not, but seeke how they may by their power resist his meanes.

4 And the woman tooke the two men, and hid them, and sayde thus, In deede there came men vnto mee, but I [c] wist not whence they were.

c Albeit Rahab sped for a good intent: yet in that she sped she did amisse. For as Paul saith, we must not doe euil, that good may come of it. For ayther act in hiding gods people came of faith, and is praised, Heb. 11.31. and Iames 2.2: so her life came of the feare and weakenesse of the flesh, and therefore not to be followed.

5 And about the time of the shutting of the gate, when it was darke, ỹ men went out, whither the men went, I wote not: followe ye after them quickly, for ye shall ouertake them.

6 But she had brought them vp to the roofe of the house, & hid them with the stalkes of flaxe which she had lying abroade vpon the roofe.

7 And the men pursued after them the way to Iordane, vnto the fourds: and as soone as they which pursued after them were gone out, they shut the gate.

8 And or euer they were a sleepe, she came vp vnto them vpon the roofe,

9 And sayde vnto the men, I knowe that the Lord hath giuen you the lande, for the feare of you is fallen vpon vs, and the inhabitantes of the land faint at the presence of you:

10 For we haue heard howe the Lorde dried vp the water of the red sea before you, when you came out of Egypt, and what you did vnto the two kings of the Amorites that were on the other side of Iordane, Sehon and Og, whom ye vtterly destroyed.

11 And as soone as we had heard these things, our hearts did ‖ faint, and there remayned no more ‖ courage in any man at the presence of you: for the [d] Lord your God, he is the God in heauen aboue, and in earth beneath.

‖ Or, melt.
‖ Or, spirit.

d God is no respecter of persons: for here is a daughter of Abraha by faith and worthie confession founde among ỹ Gentiles, yea in the wicked citie of Iericho.

12 Nowe therefore, I pray you, sweare vnto mee by the Lorde, that as I haue shewed you mercie, ye shall also shewe mercy vnto my fathers house, and giue me a true token:

13 And that yee shall saue aliue both my father and my mother, my brethren and my sisters, and al that they haue, and that ye shall deliuer our ‖ soules from death.

‖ Or, liues.

14 And the men answered her, [e] Our liues for you to dye, if yee vtter not this our businesse. And when the Lorde hath giuen vs the land, we wil deale mercifully and truely with thee.

e We warrant you on paine of our liues.

15 And then shee let them downe by a coarde through a windowe: for her house was vpon the towne wall, and she dwelt vpon the towne wall.

16 And shee saide vnto them, Get you into the [f] mountaine, least the pursuers meete you, and hide your selues there three daies, vntil ỹ pursuers be returned, and then shall ye goe your owne way.

f Which was neere vnto the citie.

17 And the men saide vnto her, [g] Wee will bee blamelesse of this thy othe which thou hast made vs sweare:

g That is, we shalbe discharged of our oth, if thou doest not performe this condition that followeth: For so & none otherwise shall we be able to saue thee and thine.

18 Beholde, when we come into the lande, thou shalt binde this coarde of redde threede in the window which thou diddest let vs downe by: and thou shalt bring thy father & thy mother, thy brethren, and all thy fathers household, into thine house.

19 And then whosoeuer doeth goe out at the doores of thy house into the streete, [h] his blood shalbe vpon his owne head, & we will be guiltelesse: & whosoeuer shalbe with thee in ỹ house, his blood shall bee on our head, if any mans hand touch him.

h He shall be giltie of his owne death.

20 And if thou vtter these our words, we will bee quite of thy othe which thou hast made vs sweare.

21 And she saide, According vnto your wordes, so be it. And she sent them away, and they departed: and shee bounde the ‖ red coarde in the windowe.

‖ Or, scarlet coloured.

22 And they departed, & came into the mountaine, and there abode three dayes, vntil ỹ pursuers were returned: And ỹ pursuers sought them throughout all the way, but found them not.

23 And the two men returned, and descended from the mountaine, and passed [i] ouer, & came to Iosuah the sonne of Nun, and tolde him all that came vnto them.

i To wit, the riuer Iordane.

24 And they said vnto Iosuah, Truely ỹ Lorde hath deliuered into our hands al the land, and all the inhabitants of the countrey faint at the presence of vs.

2 And after [b] three dayes, the officers went throughout the host, b Which time was giuen thē, for to prepare them victuals, as it appeareth, Chap. 11.

3 And commanded the people, saying, When ye see ỹ Arke of the couenant of the Lord your God,

4 So yet that there shall be a space betweene you & it, about ‖ two thousand cubits by measure: and ye shal not come nigh vnto it, that ye may knowe the way by which ye must go: for ye haue not gone this way in times past.

‖ Or, a mile.

5 And Iosuah sayd vnto the people, Sanctifie your selues: for to morowe the Lord shall doe wonders among you.

6 And Iosuah spake vnto the Priests, saying, Take vp the arke of the couenant, & go ouer before the people. And they tooke vp the arke of the couenant, and went before the people.

7 And the Lord sayde vnto Iosuah, This day wil I beginne to magnifie thee in the sight of all Israel, that they may knowe how that as I was with Moses, so will I be with thee.

8 And thou shalt commande the Priestes that beare the arke of the couenant, saying, When ye are come to the edge of the waters of Iordane, ye shal stand still in [c] Iordane.

c Euen in the chanel where the streame had runne, as verse 13.

9 And Iosuah said vnto the children of Israel, Come hither, and heare the wordes of the Lord your God.

d By this miracle in deuidyng the water

10 And Iosuah sayde, [d] Hereby ye shall knowe that the liuing God is among you, & that he wil without fayle cast out before you the Chanaanites, and the Hethites, the Heuites, the Pherezites, the Gergesites, the Amorites, and the Iebusites.

11 Beholde, the arke of the couenant of the Lorde of all the worlde, goeth before you into Iordane.

e Which should set vp twelue stones in remembrance of the benefite.

12 Now therfore take from amõg you [e] twelue men out of the tribes of Israel, out of euery tribe a man.

13 And as soone as the soles of the feete of the Priests, that beare the arke of the Lord the gouernour of all the world, treade in the waters of Iordane, the waters of Iordane shall be deuided: and the waters that come from aboue, shal stand still vpon an heape.

14 And so when the people were departed from their tentes to go ouer Iordane, the Priestes bearing the arke of the [f] couenant, went before the people.

f So called, because in it was layde vp the tables wherein the couenãt of the Lorde was written, that is, the tenne commandements.

15 And as soone as they that bare the arke, came vnto Iordane, & the feete of the Priestes that bare the arke were dipped in the brimme of the water (for Iordane vseth to fil all his [g] bankes all the time of haruest.)

g In that ripe soyle the sunne hasteth harnest, & melteth the snow in the hilles, whereby Iordan then swelleth, & so this miracle is the greater.

16 The waters also that came downe from aboue, did rise vp vpon an heape, and departed farre from the citie of Adam, that was beside Zarthan: and the waters that were beneath toward the sea of the wildernesse, [euen] the salt sea, fayled, and were cut off: and the people went right ouer against Iericho.

17 And the Priests that bare the arke of the couenant of ỹ Lord, stoode drie within Iordane, ready [h] prepared, and all the Israelites went ouer thorow the dry, vntil all the people were gone cleane ouer through Iordane.

h Either tarying til the people were past: or as some reade, faire, as though they had bene vpon the dry land.

The iiii. Chapter.

1 Twelue stones out of the chanel be erected for a signe of the drying of Iordane.

1 AND so when the people were al gone ouer Iordane, the Lorde spake vnto Iosuah, saying,

2 Take you twelue men out of the people, out of euery tribe a man:

3 And command you them, saying, Take you hence out of the middes of Iordane, out of the place where the Priestes feete stoode in a readinesse, twelue stones, which ye shall take away with you, & leaue them in the [a] lodging where you shal lodge this night.

a Meaning, ỹ place where they should campe.

4 Then Iosuah called the twelue men, whom he had prepared of the children of Israel, out of euery tribe a man:

5 And Iosuah sayde vnto them, Get you before the arke of the Lorde your God, thorowe the middes of Iordane, and take vp euery man of you a stone vpon his shoulder, according vnto the number of the tribes of the children of Israel:

6 That this may bee a signe among you, that when your [b] children aske their fathers in time to come, saying, What [meane] these stones with you?

b God commaundeth that not onely we our selues profit by his wonderful workes, but that also our posteritie may learne the cause thereof, and glorifie his name.

7 Ye may answere them, howe that the waters of Iordane were deuided at the presence of the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, (for whẽ it went ouer Iordane, the waters of Iordane were deuided) & these stones are become a memorial vnto ỹ children of Israel for euer.

8 And the children of Israel did euen so as Iosuah commanded, and tooke vp twelue stones out of the middes of Iordane, as the Lorde said vnto Iosuah, according to the number of the tribes of the children of Israel, & carryed them away with them vnto the place where they lodged, and layde them downe there.

9 And Iosuah set vp twelue [c] stones in the middes of Iordane, in the place where the feete of the Priestes which bare the arke of the testament stoode: and there haue they continued vnto this day.

c Besides the twelue stones which were carried vp the tribes, and set vp in Gilgal.

10 For the Priests which bare the arke, stoode in the middes of Iordane, vntill all was finished that the Lord commanded Iosuah to say vnto the people, according to all that Moses charged Iosuah: And the people hasted, and went ouer.

11 And when all the people were cleane passed ouer, the arke of the Lord went ouer also, and the Priestes [d] before the people.

d The arke & the Priestes which came ouer after the people, bring ouer, went before ỹ people as Iosuah had appointed. Chap. 3. Num. 33. 29.

12 * And the children of Ruben, & the children of Gad, and halfe the tribe of Manasses, went before the children of Israel armed, as Moses charged them.

13 Euen

13 Euen fourtie thousand prepared for warre, went before the [c] Lorde vnto battell, through the playne of Iericho.

c That is, before the arke.

14 That day the Lord magnified Iosuah in the sight of all Israel, & they ‖ feared him, as they feared Moses all the dayes of his life.

‖ Or, reuerenced him.

15 And the Lord spake vnto Iosuah, saying,

16 Commande the Priests that beare the [f] arke of the testimonie, to come vp out of Iordane.

f Wherein was the rod of Aaron, and Manna, witnesses of gods wonderfull workes, & also the tables testifying Gods will.

17 Iosuah therefore commanded the Priestes, saying, Come ye vp out of Iordane.

18 And when the Priestes that bare the arke of the couenant of the Lord, were come vp out of the middes of Iordane, and as soone as the soles of the Priestes feete were set on the dry lande, the waters of Iordane returned vnto their place, and flowed ouer all their bankes, as they did before.

19 And the people came vp out of Iordane the tenth [day] of the [g] first moneth, and pitched in Gilgal, in the East border of the citie Iericho.

g Called Abib or Nisan, containing part of March, & part of April, which was from the beginning of the worlde. 2492. & before the birth of Christ, 1467.

20 And the twelue stones which they tooke out of Iordane, did Iosuah pitch in Gilgal.

21 And he spake vnto the children of Israel, saying, If your children aske their fathers in time to come, and say, What [meane] these stones?

22 Ye shal shewe your children, and say, Israel came ouer this Iordane on drye land.

23 For the Lorde your God dryed vp the waters of Iordane before you, vntill yee were gone ouer, as the Lorde your God did the red sea, which he dryed vp before vs, till wee were gone ouer:

24 That all the people of the [h] worlde may knowe the hand of the Lorde howe mightie it is, and that ye might feare the Lord your God for euer.

h The wonderfull workes of God in the wicked, worke a cause of further condemnation: but in the godly, an occasion to praise & feare him.

The v. Chapter.

2 Of the second circumcision vnder Iosuah, and wherefore it was. 12 Manna faileth, & becommeth scarse.

1 AND when all the kings of the [a] Amorites which are beyonde Iordane Westwarde, and all the kings of the Chanaanites which were by the sea, heard how the Lord had dryed vp the waters of Iordane before the children of Israel, vntil they were gone ouer, their hearts fainted for feare, and there was no ‖ spirite in them any more, for the presence of the children of Israel.

a The Amorites were on both sides Iordan: wherefore of two kings were slayne already on ꝑ side toward Moab ‖ Or, courage.

2 That same time the Lord said vnto Iosuah, Make thee sharpe knines, and go to [b] againe, and circumcise the children of Israel the second time.

b For now they had left it off about 40. yeeres.

3 And Iosuah made him sharpe knines, and circumcised the children of Israel in the [c] hill of the foreskinnes.

c Gilgal was so called, because there they were there circumcised.

4 And this is the cause why Iosuah circumcised all the people, euen the males that came out of Egypt: because that all the men of warre dyed in the wildernes by the way, after they came out of Egypt.

5 For all the people that came out, were circumcised: but all the people that were borne in the wildernesse, by the way, after they came out of Egypt, were not [d] circumcised.

d They could not do it without danger, in that troublesome vncertaine state they were in, in their iourney.

6 For the children of Israel walked fourtie yeeres in the wildernesse, till all the people of the men of warre that came out of Egypt were consumed, because they hearkened not vnto the voyce of the Lorde: vnto whome the * Lorde sware that he would not shewe them the land which the Lorde sware vnto their fathers that he would giue vs, euen a lande that floweth with milke and honie.

Num. 14. 28.

7 And their children, whom he set vp in their steade, them Iosuah circumcised, for they were vncircumcised: because they circumcised them not by the way.

8 And when they had circumcised all the people, they abode in their places in the campe, till they were whole.

9 And the Lord sayde vnto Iosuah, This day haue I taken away the [e] shame of Egypt frō you: Wherefore the name of the same place is called Gilgal, vnto this day.

e Before they were like to ꝺ vncircumcised Egyptians: whom though they serued, yet they disdained, & iudged them prophane and shameful.

10 And the children of Israel abode in Gilgal, and held the feast of Passeouer, the fourteenth day of the [f] moneth at Euen, in the playne of Iericho.

f The first moneth afore spoken of, Chap. 4. 19.

11 And they did eate of the corne of the land on the morow after the Passeouer, sweete cakes, and parched corne, in the selfe same day.

12 For the Manna ceassed on the morow after they had begunne to eate of the corne of the land, neither had the children of Israel Manna any more, but did eate of the fruite of the land of Chanaan that yeere.

13 And when Iosuah was nigh to Iericho, he lift vp his eyes, and looked: and beholde, there stoode a man against him, hauing a sworde drawen in his hande: and Iosuah went vnto him, and sayd vnto him, Art thou on our side, or on our aduersaries?

14 And he sayde, Nay, but as a captaine of the host of the Lord am I now come. And Iosuah fel on his face to the earth, and did [g] worship, and sayd vnto him, What sayth my Lord vnto his seruant?

g In that Iosuah worshippeth him, he acknowledgeth him to be God: & in that that he calleth himselfe the Lordes captaine, he declareth himselfe to be Christ.

15 And the captaine of the Lordes host sayd vnto Iosuah, Do thy shoe [h] off thy foote, for the place whereon thou standest, is holy. And Iosuah did so.

h That is, giue ouer thy clayme of thy selfe, and of thy affections.

The vi. Chapter.

1 God giueth the citie of Iericho vnto Iosuah. 20 Iericho is taken. 22 Rahab is saued. 26 The buylder againe of Iericho is cursed.

1 AND Iericho was shut vp and closed, because of the children of Israel, neyther might any man go out or in.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah, Beholde, I haue giuen into thine hande Iericho, cho, and the king thereof, and the strong men of warre.

3 And ye shal compasse all the citie, all ye that be men of warre, and go round about it once: and so shall you do sixe dayes.

4 And seuen Priestes shall beare before the arke seuen trumpets of [a] rammes hornes: and the seuenth day ye shall compasse the citie seuen times, and the Priestes shall blowe with the trumpets.

a The conquest might not be assigned to mans power, but to the mercie of God, which with most weake things can ouercome that which seemeth most strong.

5 And when they make a long blast with the rammes horne, and ye heare the sounde of the horne, all the people shall shoute with a great shoute: and then shall the wall of the citie fall downe, and the people shall ascende vp euery man straight before him.

6 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun called the Priests, and said vnto them, Take vp the arke of the couenant, and let seuen Priestes beare seuen trumpets of rammes hornes before the arke of the Lord.

b That is chiefly meant by the Rubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manasses.

7 And he sayde vnto the people, [b] Go and compasse the citie, and let him that is harnessed go before the arke of the Lord.

8 And when Iosuah had spoken vnto the people, the seuen Priestes bare the seuen trumpets of rammes hornes, and went forth before the arke of the Lord, and blew with the trumpets: and the arke of the couenant of the Lord followed them.

9 And the men of armes went before ỳ Priests that blew with the trumpets: and the [c] gathering host came after the arke as they went, & blewe with trumpets.

c Meaning the rereward, wherein was the standerd of the tribe of Dan, Num. 10

10 And Iosuah had commaunded the people, saying, Ye shal not shoute, nor make any noise with your voyce, neyther shal any worde proceede out of your mouth, vntill the day I bid you shewte, then shal ye shewte.

11 And so the arke of the Lorde compassed the citie, and went about it [d] once: and they returned into the host, and lodged there.

d For that day.

12 And Iosuah rose earely in the morning, and the Priestes tooke vp the arke of the Lord.

13 And seuen Priestes bare seuen trumpets of rammes hornes, and went before the arke of the Lord, & going, blewe with the trumpets: and the men of armes went before them, but the [e] gathering host came after the arke of the Lord, which went before with the blowing of the trumpets.

e The tribe of Dan was so called, because it marched last, & gathered vp whatsoeuer was left of others.

14 And the second day they compassed the citie once, and returned againe into the host: and so they did sixe dayes.

15 And when the seuenth day came, they rose earely with the dawning of the day, and compassed the citie after the same maner [f] seuen times: onely that day they compassed the citie seuen times.

f Beside euery day once for the space of sixe dayes.

16 And at the seuenth time, when the Priestes blewe with the trumpets, Iosuah sayde vnto the people, Showte, for the Lord hath giuen you the citie.

17 And the citie shall be [g] accursed, and all that are therein, vnto the Lorde: onely Rahab the harlot shall liue, and all that are with her in the house, because shee hid the messengers that we sent.

g Condemned vtterly to be destroyed.

18 And in any wise be ye ware of the accursed things, lest ye make your selues accursed, and take of the accursed things, and make the host of Israel accursed, and trouble it.

19 But all the siluer, golde, vessels of brasse and yron, shalbe [h] consecrated vnto the Lorde, and all shal come into his treasurie.

h Man & beast being destroyed, and all other things that could not by fire be molten and transfourmed, al metals are so reserued to the Lordes vse, that they should neuer be conuerted to any priuate vse.

20 And the people shewted, and blewe with trumpets: & when the people heard the sound of the trumpe, they shewted with a great shewte, and the wall fell downe flatte, so that the people went vp into the citie, euery man straight before him, and tooke the citie:

21 And they vtterly destroyed all that was in the citie, both man and woman, yong and old, oxe, sheepe, and asse, with the edge of the swoorde.

22 But Iosuah had sayde vnto the two men that had spyed out the countrey, Goe into the harlots house, & bring out thence the woman and all that she hath, as ye sware vnto her.

23 And the yong men that were spies, went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father & mother, and her brethren, and all that she had: and they brought out all her kinred, and put them [i] without the host of Israel.

i For it was not lawfull for strangers to dwell among the Israelites, tyl they were instructed in the lawe, and purified.

24 And they burnt the citie with fire, and all that was therein: onely the siluer & the golde, the vessels of brasse and yron, they put into the treasurie of the [k] house of the Lorde.

k Meaning the tabernacle.

25 And Iosuah saued Rahab the harlot, and her fathers household, and all that she had: and [l] shee dwelt in Israel euen vnto this day, because shee hid the messengers which Iosuah sent to spie out Iericho.

l For she was married to Salmō prince of the tribe of Iuda, Matt. 1. 3. Reg. 16. 34.

26 * And Iosuah sware at that time, saying, Cursed be the man before the Lorde, that ryseth vp and buyldeth this citie Iericho: hee shall lay the [m] foundation thereof in his eldest sonne, and in his yongest sonne shall he set vp the gates of it.

m He shall builde it to the destruction of all his stocke, which thing was fulfilled in Hiel of Bethel, as 1. king. 6.

27 And so the Lorde was with Iosuah, and his fame was noysed throughout all landes.

The vii. Chapter.

1 Achan vsurpeth of the Church iewels. 2 Ai is searched. 21 What things Achan had conueyed of those which ought to haue bene burnt.

1 BVt yet the children of Israel trespassed in the [a] cursed thing: for Achan the sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zareth, of the tribe of Iuda, tooke of the cursed thing: and the wrath of the Lorde waxed hotte against the children of Israel.

a By taking that which was commanded to be destroyed.

2 And

b There was two Ais: One Ai of þ Amorites, which was the greater, and is here described: the other of the Ammonites, Jerem. 49.

2 And Josuah sent men from Jericho to [b] Ai, which is beside Bethauen, on the East side of Bethel, and spake vnto them, saying, Get you vp, and view the countrey. And the men went vp, and viewed Ai,

3 And returned to Josuah, and said vnto him, Let not all the people go vp: but let as it were two or three thousand men go vp, & smite Ai: and make not all the people to labour thither, for they are but fewe.

4 And so there went vp thither of the people about three thousand men, and they fledde before the men of Ai.

c God would by this ouerthowe make the more earnest to searche out & punish the sinne committed.

5 And the men of Ai [c] smote of them vpõ thirtie & sixe men: for they chased them from before the gate, euen vnto Sebarim, and smote them in the going downe: Wherefore the hearts of the people for feare melted away like water.

d It was the gesture of mourners, and of such as sorrowed in miserable cases þ seemed to tend to the reproche of Gods name

6 And Josuah [d] rent his clothes, and fel to the earth vpon his face, before the arke of þ Lord, vntill the Euentide, he and the elders of Israel, and put earth vpon their heads.

7 And Josuah sayde, Alas, O Lorde God, wherefore hast thou brought this people ouer Jordane, to deliuer vs into the hand of the Amorites, and to destroy vs? Would to God we had bene content, and dwelt on the other [e] side Jordane.

e Josuah here is ready to distrust the manifest promise of God, which declareth that there is no stay in man without the continuall assistace of God.

8 Oh Lord, what shal I say, when Israel turneth their backes before their enemies?

9 Surely the Chanaanites, and all the inhabitants of the lande, shall heare of it, and shall conspire against vs, and destroy the name of vs out of the earth: and what wilt thou do vnto thy mightie Name?

10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Josuah, Get thee vp, wherefore lyest thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, & they haue transgressed my couenant which I commanded them: for they haue taken of the cursed things, and haue also stollen, and dissembled also, and put them vnto their owne stuffe.

12 And therefore is it that the children of Israel can not stand before their enemies, but shal turne their backes before their enemies, because they be accursed: neither wil I be with you any more, except ye [f] destroy the accursed from among you.

f To suffer wickednesse vnpunished, is to refuse God willingly.

13 Vp, and sanctifie the people, and say, Sanctifie your selues against to morow, for so sayd the Lorde God of Israel, There is a ‖ damned thing among you, O Israel: & therfore ye can not stand against your enemies, vntill ye haue put the damned [g] thing frõ among you.

‖ Or, accursed.

g Meaning, the man that tooke of the thing forbidde.

14 To morowe morning therefore ye shall be brought, according to your tribes: & the tribe which þ Lord [h] taketh, * shall come according to the kinreds thereof, & the kinred which the Lorde shall finde guiltie, shall come by housholdes: & the household which the Lord shal finde faultie, shal come man by man.

h The maner of taking, as some iudge, was by Vrim & Thummim, other say, it was by lottes, Num. 27, 21.

15 And he that is found with ý accursed thing, shalbe burnt with fire, he, and all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the couenant of the Lord, and wrought folly in Israel.

16 And so Josuah rose vp early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes, and the tribe of Juda was caught.

17 And he brought the kinreds of Juda, & tooke the kinred of the Zarehites: and he brought the kinred of the Zarehites, man by man, and Zabdi was caught.

18 And he brought his household, man by man, and Achan the sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, the sonne of Zared, of the tribe of Juda, was caught.

19 And Josuah saide vnto Achan, My sonne, I beseeche thee giue glory to the Lorde God of Israel, & [i] make confession vnto him, & shewe me what thou hast done, hide it not from me.

i God is glorified when the trueth is confessed.

20 And Achan answered Josuah, and sayd, Of a trueth I haue sinned against the Lord God of Israel, and thus and thus haue I done.

21 I sawe among the spoyles, a goodly Babylonish garment, and two hundred sicles of siluer, & a tongue of gold of fiftie sicles waight, and I coueted them, & tooke them, & beholde, they lye hid in the earth in the middes of my tent, and the siluer is thereunder.

22 And so Josuah sent messengers, which whē they ranne vnto his tent, beholde, they were hid in his tent, and the siluer thereunder.

23 Therefore they tooke them out of the middest of his tent, and brought them vnto Josuah, and vnto all the children of Israel, & layde them out [k] before the Lord.

k That is, before the arke of the Lord.

24 And Josuah tooke Achan the sonne of Zareth, and the siluer, and the garment, and the ‖ tongue of gold, and his sonnes, & his daughters, & his oxen, and his asses, his sheepe, his tent, and all that he had, and all Israel with him, brought them vnto the valley of Achor.

‖ Some reade, wedge, others, a plate, & some, a rodde.

25 And Josuah sayd, [l] In as much as thou hast troubled vs, the Lorde shall trouble thee this day. And all Israel stoned him with stones, and burned them with fire, and ouerwhelmed them with stones.

l What sharpe iudgement & grieuous punishment they ought to haue, that by wickednesse draw Gods wrath vpon the multitude.

26 And they cast vpon him a great heape of stones vnto this day: and so the Lorde turned from the wrath of his indignation. And the name of the place is called, The valley of [m] Achor vnto this day.

m That is, the valley of trouble.

The viii. Chapter.

3 The siege, 19 and winning of Ai. 29 The king thereof is hanged. 30 Iosuah setteth vp an altar. 32 He writeth the lawe vpon stones, 35 and readeth it to all people.

1 AND the Lord sayd vnto Josuah, Feare not, neither be thou faint hearted: take all the men of warre with thee, and vp, and get thee to Ai: Beholde, I haue giuen giuen into thy hande the king of Ai, and his people, his citie, and his land:

2 And thou ſhalt do to Ai and her king, as thou diddeſt vnto Iericho, and her king: Neuertheleſſe, the ſpoyle and cattel thereof ſhal ye take vnto your ſelues: * Thou ſhalt lye in wayte againſt the citie, on the [a] backſide thereof.

Iosu. 7. 20.

[a] Meaning, on the Weſt ſide, as verſe 9.

3 And ſo Joſuah aroſe, & all the men of warre, to goe vp againſt Ai: and Joſuah choſe out thirtie thouſand ſtrong men, and valiant, and ſent them away by night:

4 And he commanded them, ſaying, Beholde, ye ſhall lye in wayte againſt the towne on the [b] backſide thereof: go not very farre from the citie, but be all ready:

[b] God would not deſtroy Ai by miracle, as he did Iericho, to the intent that other nations might feare his power & policie of his people.

5 And I, and all the people that are with me, will approche vnto the citie: And when they come out againſt vs, as they did at the firſt time, then will we flee before them:

6 For they wil come out after vs, till we haue brought them out of the citie, for they wil ſay, They flee before vs as at the firſt time: and we will flee before them.

7 Ye in the meane time ſhall ye riſe vp frō lying in wayte, and deſtroy the citie: for the Lorde your God will deliuer it into your hand.

8 And when ye haue taken the citie, ye ſhal ſet it on fire: according to the commandement of the Lorde ſhall ye doe. Beholde, I haue charged you.

9 Joſuah therfore ſent them forth, & they went to lye in wayte, and abode betweene Bethel & Ai, on the weſtſide of the citie of Ai: but Joſuah lodged that [c] night among the people.

[c] That is, with the reſt of the armie.

10 And Joſuah roſe vp earely in the morning, and [d] numbred the people, and went vp, he, and the Elders of Iſrael, before the people, againſt Ai.

[d] That is, muſtred them, and ſet them in aray.

11 And all the men of warre that were with him, went vp, and drewe nigh, & came againſt the citie, & pitched on the North ſide of Ai: & there was a valley betweene them and Ai.

12 And he tooke vpon a fiue thouſand men, and [e] ſet them to lye in wayte, betweene Bethel, & Ai, on the Weſt ſide of the citie.

[e] He ſet theſe fewe, that the other which lay in ambuſh, might not be diſcouered.

13 And the people ſet all the hoſte that was on the North ſide, againſt the citie, and the lyers in wayte on the Weſt, againſt the citie: and Joſuah walked the ſame night in the middes of the valley.

14 And when the king of Ai ſawe it, they haſted, & roſe vp earely, and the men of the citie went out againſt Iſrael to battell, he, and all his people, at a time appoynted, euen before the playne, and wiſt not that there were lyers in wayte againſt him on the backeſide of the citie.

15 And Joſuah and all Iſrael, [f] as beaten before them, fled by the way of the wilderneſſe.

[f] As they which faigned themſelues to flee for feare.

16 And all the people of the towne were called together to followe after them: and they followed after Joſuah, and were drawen away from the citie.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai, and in Bethel, that went not out after Iſrael: & they left the citie open, and followed after Iſrael.

18 And the Lord ſaid vnto Joſuah, [g] Stretche out the ſpeare that is in thine hande, towarde Ai, for I will giue it into thine hand. And Joſuah ſtretched out the ſpeare that he had in his hand, toward the citie:

[g] Or, lift vp the banner, to ſignifie when they ſhall inuade the citie.

19 And the lyers in wayte aroſe quickly out of their place, and ranne as ſoone as Joſuah had ſtretched out his hande: and they entred into the citie, and tooke it, and haſted, and ſet the citie on fire.

20 And when the men of Ai looked behinde them, they ſawe the ſmoke of the citie aſcend vp to heauen, and they had no ‖ place to flee, either this way or that: and the people that fled to the wilderneſſe, turned backe againe vpon the followers.

‖ Or, power.

21 And when Joſuah and all Iſrael ſawe that the lyers in waite had taken the citie, and that the ſmoke of it aſcended, they turned againe, and ſlew the men of Ai.

22 And the other iſſued out of the citie againſt them, and ſo were they in the middeſt of Iſrael: for theſe were on the one ſide of them, and the reſt on the other ſide, and they layde vpon them, ſo that they let none of the eſcape nor remaine:

23 And the king of Ai they tooke aliue, and brought him to Joſuah.

24 And when Iſrael had made an ende of ſlaying all the inhabitantes of Ai, in the fielde of the wilderneſſe where they chaſed them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the ſworde, vntill they were waſted, all the Iſraelites returned vnto Ai, and [h] ſmote it with the edge of the ſworde.

[h] For the burning of the citie was not to deſtroy it, for then ſhould take the ſpoyle thereof for a praye: but was to ſignifie to Joſuah, that they were entred.

25 And all that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelue thouſande, euen all the men of Ai. [i]

26 For Joſuah plucked not his hande backe againe, which he ſtretched out vpon the ſpeare, vntill he had vtterly deſtroyed all the inhabiters of Ai.

27 Onely the cattell, and the ſpoyle of the citie, Iſrael tooke vnto themſelues, according vnto the worde of the Lorde, which he commanded Joſuah.

28 And Joſuah ſet Ai on fire, and made it an heape for [i] euer, & a wilderneſſe vnto this day.

[i] That it could neuer be buylt againe.

29 And the king of Ai he hanged on a tree vntil Euen: and as ſoone as the ſunne was downe, Joſuah commaunded that [k] they ſhoulde take the carkeiſe downe off the tree, and caſt it at the entring of the gate of the citie, & lay thereon a great heape of ſtones [that remayneth] vnto this day.

[k] According as it was commanded by the lawe.

30 Then Joſuah buylt an altar vnto the Lorde

God

God of Israel in mount Ebal,

31 As Moses the seruant of the Lord commanded the children of Israel, & as it is * witten in the booke of the law of Moses, an altar of whole stones, ouer which no man hath lift vp an yron: and they sacrificed thereon whole burnt sacrifices vnto the Lorde, and offered peace offerings.

Exod.20.25. deut.27.5.

32 And he wrote there vpon the stones a [1] rehearsal of the * law of Moses, and wrote it in the presence of the children of Israel.

1 That is, the summe of the lawe, which summe is conteined in the ten commandements. Deut.27.2.

33 And all Israel, and the elders thereof, and their Officers, and Iudges, stoode part on this side the arke, and part on that side, before the Priestes that were Leuites, which bare the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, as well the stranger, as they that were borne among them: halfe of them ouer against mount Garizim, and halfe of them ouer against mount Ebal, as Moses the seruant of the Lorde had commanded before, that he shoulde blesse the people of Israel.

34 Afterwarde he read all the wordes of the lawe, the blessings and cursings, according to all that is witten in the booke of the lawe.

35 And there was not one word of all that Moses commaunded, which Iosuah read not before all the congregation of Israel, as wel the [m] women and children, as the strangers that were conuersant among them.

m So neither yong, nor olde, man nor woman, were exempted from hearing the worde of the Lord, Deut.31.10.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Certaine kings are gathered against Iosuah. 3 The Gabaonites do guylefully require peace of Iosuah. 21 The Gabaonites are made ministers in cutting wood, and bearing of water.

1 AND when all the kings that dwell [a] beyond Iordane in the hilles and valleyes, and along by all the coastes of the [b] great sea ouer against Libanon, [namely] the Hethites, ỹ Amorites, the Chanaanites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Iebusites, heard thereof:

a In respect of the playne of Moab.
b Called Mediterraneum.

2 They gathered themselues together to fight against Iosuah, and against Israel, ‡ with one accord.

‡ One mouth.

3 And the inhabiters of Gibeon heard what Iosuah had done vnto Iericho, and to Ai,

4 And they did worke wilily, and went and made themselues embassadours, & tooke olde sackes vpon their asses, and wine bottels old, both rent and [c] bound vp:

c Because they were all worne.

5 And old clowted shoes vpon their feete, and their raiment was olde: and all their prouision of bread was dryed vp, and whored.

6 And they came vnto Iosuah into the host to Gilgal, and sayd vnto him, and to all the men of Israel, We be come from a farre countrey: and now make ye agreement with vs.

7 And the men of Israel sayde vnto the [d] Heuite, It may be thou dwellest among vs, and then how can I make peace with thee?

d For the Gabaonites & the Heuites were all one people.

8 And they sayd vnto Iosuah, We are thy seruants. And Iosuah sayde vnto them againe, What are ye, and whence come ye?

9 They answered him, From a very farre countrey thy seruants are come, for the name [e] of the Lord thy God: For we haue heard the fame of him, and all that he did in Egypt, e Euen the idolaters for feare of death will pretend to honour the true God, and receiue his religion.

10 And all that he did to the two kings of the Amorites that were beyond Iordane, Sehon king of Hesbon, & Og king of Basan, which were at Astaroth.

Num.21.24.

11 Wherefore our Elders, and all the inhabiters of our country, spake to vs, saying, Take victuals ‡ with you to serue by the way, and go meete them, and say vnto them, We are your seruants: and nowe make ye a couenant of peace with vs.

‡ In your hand.

12 This [f] our foode of breade we tooke with vs, out of our houses whot, the day we departed to come vnto you: but now behold, it is dryed vp, and whored.

f The wicked lacke no art, nor spare no lyes to set forth their policie, when they deceiue the seruants of God.

13 And these bottels of wine which wee filled, were newe, and see they be rent: and these our garments and shoes are worne for oldnesse, by the reason of the exceeding long iourney.

14 And the men tooke of their [g] victuals, and counselled not with the mouth of the Lorde.

g As some write, to try the oldnesse, & what taste it had being so olde: some others say, it was to cõfirme the league, according to the maner that they did eate of their victuals. 2.Reg.21.2.

15 * And Iosuah made peace with them, and made a couenant with them, that they should be suffered to liue: and the princes of the congregation sware vnto them.

16 But at the end of three dayes, after they had made a league with them, they heard that they were their neighbours, and that they dwelt among them.

17 And the childrẽ of Israel tooke their [h] iourney, and came vnto their cities the third day: and their cities were Gibeon, and Caphira, Beroth, and Kiriath-iarim.

h From Gilgal.

18 And the children of Israel slewe them not, because the princes of the congregation had sworne vnto them by the Lord God of Israel: And all the multitude murmured against the princes.

19 But all the princes sayde vnto all the congregation, Wee haue sworne vnto them by the Lord God of Israel: and therfore we may not hurt them.

20 But this we will doe to them, We will let them liue, least wrath be vpon vs, because of the othe which we sware vnto them.

21 And the princes sayd vnto them againe, Let them liue, and hewe wood, and drawe water vnto all the cougregation, [and they did] as the princes sayd vnto them.

22 And Iosuah called for them, and talked with them, and sayd, Wherefore haue ye beguyled vs, saying, We dwell farre from you, when ye dwell among vs?

23 And nowe are ye cursed, and there shall not cease to be of you bondemen, and hewers of wood, wood, and drawers of water, for the [i] house of my God.

i which was the tabernacle vnto the time of Solomon, & after that, the temple at Hierusalem.

24 And they answered Iosuah, and sayde, It was tolde thy seruantes howe that the Lorde thy God had commaunded his seruant Moses to giue you all the lande, and to destroy all the inhabitours thereof out of your sight, and therefore we were exceeding sore afrayde for our liues at the presence of you, and haue done this thing.

25 And beholde, we are in thine hand: as it seemeth good and right in thine eyes to do vnto vs, so doe.

26 And euen so did he vnto them, and rid them out of the hande of the children of Israel, that they slew them not.

27 And Iosuah made them that same day hewers of wood, and drawers of water for the congregation, and for the [k] altar of God vnto this day, in the place which he should choose.

k That is, for the sacrifices.

The x. Chapter.

1 Fiue kings make warre against Gibeon, whom Iosuah discomfiteth. 12 The sunne standeth still at Iosuahs prayer. 26 The fiue kings are hanged.

1 NOwe when Adonizedec king of Hierusalem, had heard howe Iosuah had taken * Ai, and had destroyed it (and how that as he had done to Iericho & her king, euen so he had done to Ai & her king) and how the inhabiters of * Gibeon had made peace with Israel, and were among them,

Iosu. 6. 15.

Iosh. 8. 3.

2 They feared exceedingly, for Gibeon was a great citie, as any citie of the kingdome, and was greater then Ai, and all the men thereof were very mightie.

3 Wherefore [a] Adonizedec king of Hierusalem, sent vnto Hoham king of Hebron, and vnto Pira king of Iarmuth, and vnto Iaphia king of Lachis, and vnto Dabir king of Eglon, saying, a That is, Lord of iustice, so tyrants take to themselues glorious names, when in deede they be very enemies against God & all iustice.

4 Come vp vnto me, and helpe mee, that we may smite Gibeon: for they haue made peace with Iosuah, & with the children of Israel.

5 Therefore the fiue kings of the Amorites, the king of Hierusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Iarmuth, the king of Lachis, and the king of Eglon, gathered themselues together, and went vp, they with all their hostes, & besieged Gibeon, and made warre against it.

b As soone as thou makest a league with the childre of God by regeneration, thou shalt be sure to haue the wicked children of the world in thy toppe.

6 And the men of Gibeon sent vnto Iosuah to the host in Gilgal, saying, Withdraw not thy hand from thy seruants, come vp to vs quickly, and saue vs, and helpe vs: for all the kings of the Amorites which dwell in the mountaines, are gathered together [b] against vs.

c Lest Iosuah should haue thought that God had sent this great power against him for his league with the Gibeonites, the Lord here doeth strengthen him.

7 And so Iosuah ascended from Gilgal, he, and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

8 And the Lord sayd vnto Iosuah, [c] Feare thē not: for I haue deliuered them into thine hād, neither shal any of them stand against thee, 9 Iosuah therefore came vnto them suddenly, and went vp from Gilgal all night.

10 And the Lorde troubled them before Israel, and slewe them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Bethoron, and smote them to Azeka and Makeda.

11 And as they fled from before Israel, & were in the going downe to Bethoron, the Lorde cast downe great stones from heauen vpon thē vntil Azeka, & they dyed: there were mo dead with hayle [d] stones, then they were whom the children of Israel slew with the sworde.

d All kinde of creatures shall destroy the wicked when the Lord of hostes will haue it so.

12 Then spake Iosuah to the Lorde, in the day when the Lord deliuered the Amorites before the children of Israel, & he sayd in the sight of Israel, * Sunne, stand thou still vpō Gibeon, and thou Moone in the valley of Aialon.

Esa. 28. 21. eccle. 46. 5.

13 And the Sunne abode, & the Moone stoode still, vntil the people had auenged themselues vpon their enemies. Is not this written in the booke of the righteous? So the Sunne abode in the middest of heauen, and hasted not to go downe by the space of a whole day.

14 And there was no day like that before it, or after it, that the Lorde heard the voyce of a man: for the Lord [e] fought for Israel.

e By taking away the enemies hearts, & destroying them with haylestones.

15 And Iosuah returned, and all Israel with him, vnto the campe to Gilgal.

16 But the fiue kings fledde, and were hid in a caue at Makeda.

17 And it was tolde Iosuah, saying, The fiue kings are founde hid in a caue, which is at Makeda.

18 And Iosuah sayde, Roule great stones vpon the mouth of the caue, and set men by it, for to keepe it:

19 And stand ye not still, but folowe after your enemies, and smite all the hindmost, and suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the Lorde your God hath deliuered them into your hande.

20 And when Iosuah and the children of Israel had made an ende of slaying them with an exceeding great slaughter, til they were wasted: the rest that remayned of them, entred into walled cities.

21 And all the people returned to the hoste to Iosuah at Makeda in peace, neyther did any man moue his tongue against the children of Israel.

22 Then sayd Iosuah, Open the mouth of the caue, and bring out those fiue kings vnto me out of the caue.

23 And they did so, & brought those fiue kinges vnto him out of the caue, [euen] the king of Hierusalem, the kyng of Hebron, the king of Iarmuth, the king of Lachis, and the king of Eglon.

24 And whē they brought out those fiue kings vnto Iosuah, Iosuah called for all the men of Israel, Israel, and sayd vnto the chiefe of the men of warre which went with him, Come neere, & put your feete vpō the [f] necks of these kings. And they came neere, and put their feete vpon the neckes of them.

f By this, Iosuah woulde encourage his captaines, and signifie vnto them what victorie they should looke for of the rest of their enemies, seeing kings are thus vp them serued

25 And Iosuah sayde vnto them, Ye shall not feare, nor be faynt hearted, but be strong, and plucke vp your hearts: for thus shall the Lord do to al your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And then Iosuah smote them, & slew them, and hanged them on fiue trees: and they hanged still vpon the trees, vntill the euening.

27 And at the going downe of the Sunne, Iosuah gaue commaundement, and they tooke them downe off the trees, and cast them into the caue wherein they had bene hid, and layde great stones in the caues mouth [which remaine] vntill this day.

28 And that same day, Iosuah tooke Makeda, and smote it with the edge of the sworde, and the king therof also destroyed he vtterly, with ‖ all the soules that were therein, and let none remaine: and he did to the king of Makeda, as he did * vnto the king of Iericho.

‖ Or, euery person.

Iosu. 6, 21.

29 Then Iosuah went from Makeda, and all Israel with him, vnto Libna, and fought against Libna.

30 And the Lord deliuered it and the king therof, into the hande of Israel: and he smote it with the edge of the sworde, and all the ‖ soules that were therein: He let none remayne in it, but did vnto the king thereof, as he did vnto the king of Iericho.

‖ Or, persons.

31 And Iosuah departed from Libna, and all Israel with him, vnto Lachis, and besieged it, and assaulted it.

32 And the Lorde deliuered Lachis into the hand of Israel, which tooke it the second day, and smote it with the edge of the sworde, & all the soules that were therein, doing according to all, as he had done to the citie of Libna.

33 Then Horam king of Geser, came vp to helpe Lachis: and Iosuah smote him and his people, vntill none remained of him.

34 And from Lachis, Iosuah departed vnto Eglon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged it, and assaulted it, 35 And tooke it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the sworde, and all the soules that were therein he vtterly destroyed ỹ same day, according to all that he had done to Lachis.

36 And Iosuah departed vp from Eglon, and all Israel with him, vnto Hebron, and they fought against it.

37 And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the sword, & the king thereof, and all the townes that pertained to it, and all the soules that were therein, & he left none remayning, but did according to all as he had done to Eglon, and destroyed it vtterly, and all the soules that were therein.

38 And Iosuah returned, and all Israel with him to Dabir, and fought against it.

39 And when he had taken it, and the king thereof, and all the townes that pertayned thereto, they smote them with the edge of the sworde, and vtterly destroyed all the soules that were therein, neither let he any remaine: euen as he did to Hebron, so he did to Dabir, and the king therof, as he had done also to Libna, and her king.

40 Iosuah therfore smote all the hill countries, and the South countreys, and the valleys, and the downes, and all their kings, and let none remayne of them, but vtterly destroyed all that breathed, as the Lorde God of Israel commanded.

41 And Iosuah smote them from Cades Barnea, vnto Asah, and al the countrey of Gosen, [euen] vnto Gibeon.

42 And all these kings and their lande did Iosuah take at [g] one time: because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel.

g In one battaile.

43 And Iosuah and all Israel returned vnto the host that was in [h] Gilgal.

h Where the arke was, there to giue thanks for their victorie.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Certaine kings are gathered against Iosuah. 6 God deliuereth all the kings vnto Iosuah, which had conspired against him.

1 AND when Iabin king of Hazor had heard those things, [a] he sent to Iobab king of Madon, & to the king of Simron, and to the king of Achsaph, a The Gibeonites at the appearing of Gods mightie hand for Israel, yeelded to Gods decree, & sought saluation in the same: but these wicked, the more the mightie hand of God appeareth, the more they rage against it.

2 And vnto the kings that were by the North, in the mountaynes and playnes towarde the South side of [b] Cineroth, and in the lowe countreys, and in the borders of Dor, Westwarde:

b The Euangelists call it a lake of Genezareth, the sea of Galilee, and the sea of Tiberias.

3 And vnto the Chanaanites both by East & West, and vnto the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, and Iebusites in the mountaines, and vnto the Heuites that [c] were vnder Hermon in the lande of Mispah.

c And by another naine, Sion, but not Sion in Hierusalem, as Deut. 4. 48.

4 And they came out, and all their hostes with them, a multitude of folke, euen as the sande that is on the sea shore, in a great number, with horses and charets exceeding many.

5 And all these kings met together, and came & pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

6 And the Lord sayde vnto Iosuah, Be not afrayde at the presence of them: for to morowe about this time will I deliuer them all slayne before Israel: thou shalt hough their horses, and burne their charets with fire.

7 And so Iosuah came, & all the men of warre with him, against them, by the waters of Merom, and suddenly fell vpon them.

8 And the Lord deliuered them into the hande of Israel, and they smote them, & chased them vnto great Sidon, and vnto [d] Misrephothmaim, & vnto the valley of Mispah, which is Eastward:

d Which signifieth hot waters, or according to some, bryne pittes.

Eaſtward: and ſmote them, vntill they had none remaining of them.

9 And Joſuah did vnto them as the Lord bade him: he houghed their horſes, & burnt their charets with fire.

10 And Joſuah at that time turned backe, and tooke Hazor, and ſmote the king thereof with the ſword: and Hazor beforetyme was the head of all thoſe kingdoms.

e Both men, women, and children.

11 And they ſmote all the [e] ſoules that were therein with the edge of the ſworde, vtterly deſtroying all, & nothing that breathed was let remaine: and he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of thoſe kings, and all the kings of them, did Joſuah take, & ſmote them with the edge of the ſworde, and vtterly deſtroyed them, * as Moſes the ſeruaunt of the Lord commanded.

Num. 33.52. deut. 7.2.

13 But Iſrael burnt none of the cities ♄ ſtoode ſtill in their [f] ſtrength, ſaue Hazor onely that Joſuah burnt.

f Which were ſtrong by ſituation, & not hurt by warre.

14 And all the ſpoile of the ſaid cities, & the cattel, the children of Iſrael caught vnto them ſelues: but [g] euery man they ſmote with the edge of the ſword, vntill they had deſtroyed them, neither left they ought that had breath.

g That is, man, woman, and child.

15 * As the Lord commaunded Moſes his ſeruant, ſo * did Moſes commaund Joſuah, and euen ſo did Joſuah, ſo that hee minished no worde of all that the Lorde commaunded Moſes.

Exo. 34.11. Deut. 7.2.

16 And ſo Joſuah tooke all that land of the hils, and all the South countrey, and all the land of Goſen, and the lowe countrey, & the plaine, and the [h] mountaine of Iſrael, and the lowe countrey of the ſame:

h Which is, Samaria.

17 Euen from the mount [i] Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, vnto ‡ Baal Gad, in the valley of Libanon, vnder mount Hermon: and all the kings of the ſame he tooke, and ſmote them, and ſlew them.

18 Joſuah made warre long time with thoſe kings.

19 Neither was there any citie that made peace with the children of Iſrael, ſaue thoſe Hethites that inhabited Gibeon, and therefore all other they tooke with battaile:

k That is, he gaue them ouer to themſelues, & therefore they could not but rebell againſt God, and ſeeke their owne deſtruction.

20 For it came of the Lord, which did [k] harden their hearts, that they ſhould come againſt Iſrael in battell, and that they ſhould deſtroy them vtterly, and ſhew them no mercy: but to bring them to nought, as the Lord commanded Moſes.

21 And that ſame ſeaſon came Joſuah, and deſtroyed the Anakims out of the mountaines, as out of Hebron, Dabir, Anab, and out of all the mountaines of Juda, and out of all the mountains of Iſrael: And Joſuah deſtroyed them vtterly, with their cities.

22 There was not one Anakim left in the land of the childrē of Iſrael: onely in Azzah, Gath, and Aſdod, there remained of them.

23 And Joſuah tooke the whole land, according to all that the Lord ſaid vnto Moſes, and Joſuah gaue it for a poſſeſſion vnto Iſrael, according to their partes and tribes: and the land reſted from warre.

The xiiii. Chapter.

1 The land of Chanaan was deuided among the nine tribes and the halfe. 6 Caleb requireth the heritage that was promised him. 13 Hebron was giuen him.

1 AND these are the countries which the children of Israel inherited in ỳ land of Chanaan, which Eleazar the priest, and Iosuah the sonne of Nun, & the ancient heads of the tribes of the children of Israel distributed to them:

Num.34.54.

2 By lot they receiued their possessions, * as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moses, to giue vnto the nine tribes, & vnto the halfe tribe.

3 For Moses had giuẽ inheritance vnto [a] two tribes and an halfe on the other side Iordane: but vnto the Leuites he gaue none inheritãce among them.

a The Rubenites, the Gadites, & halfe the tribe of Manasses.

4 For the childrẽ of Ioseph were two tribes, Manasses and Ephraim: and therefore they gaue no part vnto ỳ Leuites in the land, saue cities to dwell in, with the suburbes of the same for their beasts and cattell.

5 As the Lord commaunded Moses, euen so the children of Israel did when they deuided the land.

6 And the children of Iuda came vnto Iosuah in Gilgal: and Caleb the sonne of Iephune the Kenesite, sayde vnto him, Thou wotest what the Lord sayd vnto Moses the man of God about [b] me and thee in Cades Barnea.

b Which was, that they two onely should enter into the land, Num.14.

7 Fourtie yeeres old was I when Moses the seruant of ỳ Lord sent mee from Cades Barnea, to espie out the land, and I brought him word againe as it was in mine heart.

8 Neuertheless, my [c] brethren that went vp with me, discouraged the heart of the people: and I followed the Lord my God.

c That is, the other spies that were sent with him.

9 And Moses sware the same day, saying, The lande whereon thy feete haue troden, shall bee thine inheritance, and thy childrens for euer, because thou hast followed the Lord my God.

10 And behold, the Lord hath kept me aliue as he said, this fourtie and fiue yeeres, euen since the Lord spake this word vnto Moses, while the children of Israel wandered in the wildernesse: and nowe lo, I am this day foure score and fiue yeeres olde, 11 And yet am as strong at this time, as I was when Moses sent me: looke how strong I was then, so strong am I nowe, either for warre, or for ‡gouernment.

‡ To go out, and come in.

12 Nowe therefore giue mee this mountaine, whereof the Lord spake in that day, (for thou heardst in that day how the ‖Anakims were there, and the cities great and walled) [d] if the Lord will be with me, and I shall be able to driue them out, as the Lord sayd.

‖ Or, giants.

d This he spake of mastie, and not of doubting.

13 And Iosuah * blessed him, and gaue vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephune Hebron to inherite.

1.Mac.2.56.

14 And Hebron therefore became the inheritance of Caleb the sonne of Iephune the Kenesite, vnto this day: because he folowed constantly the Lord God of Israel.

15 And the name of Hebron was called in olde tyme Kiriath-Arba, which [Arba] was a great man among the Anakims: & the land ceased from warre.

The xv. Chapter.

1 The lot of the children of Iuda, and the names of the cities and villages of the same. 13 Calebs portion. 19 The request of Achsah.

1 THis was the lot of the tribe of the children of Iuda by their kinreds, euen to the border of Edom in the wildernesse of Zin Southward, euen from the vttermost part of the South coast.

2 And their South coast was from the brinke of the salt sea, from a [a] rocke that leaneth Southward.

a The Hebrews word signifieth Tongue, whereby is meant either the arme of the sea that commeth into the land, or a rocke or cape that goeth into the sea.

3 And it went out to the Southside, toward the going vp to Maale-acrabim, and went along to Zin, and ascended vp on the South side vnto Cades barnea: and went along to Hesron, and went vp to Adar, and fet a compasse to Karcaa.

4 From thence went it along to Azmon, and reached vnto the riuer of Egypt, and the end of that coast was on the West side: this is [b] their South coast.

5 Their East coast is the salt sea, euen vnto the end of [c] Iordane: and their border in the North quarter, was from the rocke ‖ of the sea, and from the ende of Iordane.

6 And the same border went vp to Bethhagla, and went along by the North side of Beth-arabah, & vp from thence to the stone of [d] Bohen the sonne of Ruben.

7 And agayne the same border went vp to Debir, from the valley of Achor, & so Northward, turning toward Gilgal, that lyeth before the goyng vp to Adummim, which is of the South side of the riuer: and the same border went vp to the waters of the fountaine of the Sunne, and ended at the well of Rogel.

8 And then went vp to the valley of ỹ Sunne of Hennom, euen vnto the South side of Iebusi, the same is Hierusalem: and then went vp to the top of the hill that lieth before the valley of Hennom Westward, and by the ende of the valley of the giants Northward.

9 And then it compasseth from the top of the hill vnto the fountaine of the water of Nephthoah, and goeth out of the cities of mounte Ephron, and draweth to Baala, which is [e] Kariathiarim.

10 And then it compasseth from Baala Westward vnto mount Seir, & then goeth along vnto the side of mount Iarim, which is Chesalon on the North side, & commeth downe to Bethsames, and goeth to Thimnah.

11 And goeth out againe vnto the side of Akaron Northward: and then draweth to Secron, and goeth along to mount Bala, and stretcheth vnto Iabneel: and the ends of the coasts leaue at the ‖ West sea.

12 And the West border was the great sea, and the same coast was the coast of the children of Iuda round about, in their kinreds.

13 And vnto Caleb the sonne of Iephune, did Iosuah giue a part among the children of Iuda, according to the mouth of the Lord, euen Kiriatharba of the father of Enac, which citie is Ebron.

14 * And Caleb [f] droue thence the three sonnes of Enac, Sesai, and Ahiman, and Thalmai [which were] the sonnes of Enac.

15 And he went vp thence to the inhabiters of Dabir: and the name of Dabir in the olde tyme was [g] Kiriath Sepher.

16 And Caleb said, Hee that smiteth Kiriath Sepher, & taketh it, to him will I giue Achsah my daughter to wife.

17 And Othniel the sonne of Kenes, the ‖ brother of Caleb, tooke it: and he gaue him Achsah his daughter to wife.

18 And as she went in vnto him, she mooued him to aske of her father a field, and [h] she alighted off her asse, and Caleb said vnto her, What aileth thee?

19 Who answered, Giue mee a ‖ blessing, for thou hast giuen me a South land, giue me also springs of water. And he gaue her springs of water both aboue and beneath.

20 This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Iuda by their kinreds.

21 And the vttermost cities of the tribe of the children of Iuda towarde the coastes of Edom Southwarde, were Kabzeel, Eder, and Iagur, 22 Kinah, Dimonah, and Adadah,

23 Kedez, Hazor, and Gethnan,

The xvi. Chapter.

1 The lot or part of Ephraim. 10 The Chanaanites dwelled among them.

1 AND the lot of the children of Joseph fel from Iordane by Jericho, vnto the water of Jericho Eastward, and to the wildernesse that goeth vp from Jericho thorowout mount Bethel:
2 And goeth out from [a] Bethel to Luz, & runneth along vnto ỹ borders of Archi Ataroth:
3 And goeth downe againe Westward, euen to the coast of Japhleti, and vnto the coast of Beth-horon the nether, and to Gazer, and the endes of their coastes leaue at the West sea.
4 And so the children of Joseph, Manasses, & Ephraim, tooke their inheritance:
5 And the borders of the children of Ephraim was by their kinreds. Their border on the East side was Ataroth Adar, euē vnto Beth-horon the vpper:
6 And went out Westward to Machmathath on the Northside, and returneth Eastward vnto Thaanath Silo, and past it on the East side vnto Janoah,
7 And went downe from Janoah to Atharoth and Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Iordane.
8 And their border went from Thaphuah Westward vnto the riuer Kanath, and the endes were the West sea: This is the inheritance of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their kinreds.
9 And the separate cities for the children of Ephraim were among the inheritance of the children of Manasses, euen the cities, with their villages.
10 And they dyde not out the Chanaanites that dwelt in Gazar: but the Chanaanites dwelt among the Ephraites vnto this day, and serue vnder tribute.

a Luz is thought to be a citie at the end of mount Bethel, which is also named Bethel, Gen. 28. and so Bethel is both the name of a citie, and of a mount.

The xvii. Chapter.

1 The portion of the halfe tribe of Manasse. 3 A portion is giuen to the daughters of Zalphaad.

1 THis was the lot of the tribe of * Manasses, which was the eldest sonne of Joseph, to wit, of Machir, the eldest sonne of Manasses, which was the father of Gilead: (now because he was a man of warre) he had Gilead and Balan. * Gen. 46. 14
2 * This is the possession of the [a] rest of the children of Manasses by their kinredes, [namely] of the children of Abiezer, the children of Helek, the children of Ariel, the children of Sechem, the children of Hepher, the children of Semida: for these were the male children of Manasses, the sonne of Joseph by their kinreds. * Num. 26. 29. a For the other halfe tribe had their portion beyond Jordan, Num. 32.
3 * But Zalphaad the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Gilead, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasses, had no sonnes, but daughters: whose names are these, Mahala, Noa, Hagla, Melcha, and Thirsa: * Num. 27. 7. and 36. 2.
4 Which came before Eleazar the Priest, and before Josuah the sonne of Nun, and before the Lordes, saying, The Lord commaunded Moses to giue vs an inheritance among our [b] brethren: and therefore according to ỹ commandement of the Lord, he gaue them an inheritance among the brethren of their father. b Among the of our tribe.
5 And there fell ten portions to Manasses, beside the land of Gilead & Balan, which were on the other side Iordane,
6 Because the daughters of Manasses did inherite among his sonnes: and Manasses other sonnes had the land of Gilead.
7 And the coast of Manasses was from Aser to Machmathath, that lieth before Sichem, and went along on the right hand, euen vnto the inhabitants of En-taphuah.
8 And the land of Thaphuah belonged to Manasses: which [c] Thaphuah is beside the border of Manasses, beside the border of the children of Ephraim. c Meaning the citie it selfe.
9 And the coast descended vnto the ‖ riuer Canah Southward, euen to the riuer: these cities of Ephraim are among the cities of Manasses: the coast of Manasses went also on the North side to the riuer, and the endes of it goe out at the sea: ‖ Or, brooke of reedes.
10 So that the South pertained to Ephraim, and the North to Manasses, and the sea is his border, & they met together in [d] Aser Northward, and in Issachar Eastward. d In the tribe of Aser and the tribe of Issachar.
11 And Manasses had in Issachar and in Aser, Beth sean and her townes, Ibleam and her townes, and the inhabiters of Dor, with the townes pertaining to the same, and the inhabiters of Endor, with the townes of the same, and the inhabiters of Thaanach with her townes, and the inhabiters of Mageddo with the townes of the same, euen three countries.

c For at the first they were not courragious, and after agreed with them on condition contraris to Gods commandement.

12 Yet the children of Manasses could c not ouercome those cities, but the Chanaanites presumed to dwel in the same land.

13 Neuertheless, as soone as the children of Israel were waxed strong, they put the Chanaanites vnder tribute, but expelled them not.

14 And the children of Ioseph spake vnto Iosuah, saying, Why hast thou giuen me but one lot and one portion to inherite, seeing I am a great people, and forasmuch as the Lord hath blessed me hitherto?

f According to my father Iacobs prophecie, Gen. 48.

15 And Iosuah answered them, If thou bee much people, then get thee vp to the wood [countrey,] and prepare for thy selfe there in the land of the Pherezites and g of the Giantes, if mount Ephraim be too narrowe for thee.

g If this mount be not large enough, why dost not thou get more by destroying gods enemies as he hath commanded?

16 And the children of Ioseph sayd, The hill is not enough for vs: f all the Chanaanites that dwell in the lowe countrey haue charets of iron, and so haue they that inhabite Beth sean and the townes of the same, and they also that dwell in the valley of Iezrael.

17 And Iosuah said vnto the house of Ioseph, Ephraim, and Manasses, Ye be much people, and haue great power, and shall not therefore haue one lot:

18 Therefore the hill shal be yours, and ye shal cut downe the wood that is in it: f the endes of it shall be yours, if ye cast out the Chanaanites, which haue iron charets, and are very strong.

The xviii. Chapter.

1 The tabernacle is set in Silo. 4 Certaine are sent to deuide the land to the other seuen tribes. 11 The lot of the children of Beniamin.

1 AND the whole congregation of ỹ children of Israel came together at Silo, and set vp the a tabernacle of the congregation there, after the land was in subiection before them.

a Which had continued at Gilgal euer since they came to the land till nowe.

2 And there remained among the children of Israel b seuen tribes, which had not yet receiued their inheritance.

b That is, Beniamin, Simeon, Zabulon, Issachar, Aser, Nephthali, and Dan.

3 And Iosuah sayd vnto the children of Israel, How long are ye so slacke to come and possesse the land which the Lord God of your fathers hath giuen you?

4 Giue out from among you for euery tribe three men, that I may send them: f that they may rise, and walke thorow the land, f distribute it according to the c inheritance thereof, and come againe vnto me.

c That is, into seuen partes, to euery tribe one.

5 And let them deuide it vnto them into seuen partes: and Iuda shall abide in their coast on the South, and the house of Ioseph shal stand in their coastes on the North.

6 Describe ye the land therefore into seuen partes, f bring the description hither to me: and I shall cast lottes for you here before the d Lord our God.

d That is, before the arke of the Lord.

7 But the Leuites haue no part among you, for the e priesthood of the Lord is their inheritance: and Gad and Ruben, and halfe ỹ tribe of Manasses, haue receiued their inheritance beyond Iordane Eastward, which Moses the seruant of the Lord gaue them.

e That is, tithes, sacrifices and offerings, Iosh. 13. and 14.

8 And the men arose, and went their way: f Iosuah charged them that went to describe the land, saying, Depart, and goe thorow the land, and f describe it: and come againe to me, that I may here cast lottes for you before the Lord in Silo.

f By writing the names of euery country and citie.

9 And the men departed, and walked thorowe the land, and described it by cities, into seuen partes, in a booke, and returned to Iosuah into the hoste at Silo.

10 And Iosuah cast g lots for them in Silo before the Lord: and there Iosuah deuided the land vnto the children of Israel, to eche their portion.

g To auoide dissention, and that euery man should be content with Gods appointment.

11 And the lot of the tribe of the children of Beniamin came vp, according to their kinreds, and the coast of their lot came betweene the children of Iuda, and the children of Ioseph.

12 And their North coast was from Iordane, and went vp to the side of Iericho on the North side, and went vp thorowe the mountaines Westward, and they ended at the wildernesse of Beth-auen, 13 And went from thence toward Luz, euen to the South side of Luz (the same is h Bethel) and descended againe to Ataroth-Adar, vnto the hill that lieth on the South side of the nether Bethoron.

h Which was in the tribe of Ephraim: an other Bethel was in the tribe of Beniamin.

14 And the coast turneth thence, and compasseth the corner of the sea Southward, euen from the hill that lieth before Beth-horon Southward: and goeth out at Kiriath-baal (which is Kiriath-iarim) a citie of ỹ children of Iuda: This is the West quarter.

1 AND the ſecond lot came out to Simeon, euen for the tribe of the children of Simeon by their kinreds: and their inheritance was in the [a]middes of the inheritance of the children of Iuda.
2 And they had in their inheritance, Beer-ſabe, Sabe, and Moladah,
3 Hazarſuall, Balab, and Azem,

9 Out of the lot of the children of Iuda came the inheritance of the children of Simeon: for the part of the children of Iuda was [b]too much for them, and therefore the children of Simeon had their inheritance in the inheritance of them.
10 And the third lot aroſe for the children of Zabulon thorowout their kinreds: and the coaſts of their inheritance came to Sarid.

1 AND then came the principall fathers of the Leuites vnto Eleazar the priest, and vnto Iosuah the sonne of Nun, & vnto the ancient fathers that were ouer the tribes of the children of Israel,

2 * And spake vnto them at Silo in the land of Chanaan, saying, The Lord commaunded by Moses to giue vs cities to dwell in, with the suburbes thereof for our cattell.

Num. 35. 2.

3 And the childrē of Israel gaue vnto the Leuites out of their inheritance, at the bidding of the Lord, these cities following, with their suburbes.

4 And the lot came out for the kinrede of the [a] Caathites: the childrē of Aaron the Priest, which were of the Leuites, had giuē them by lot out of the tribe of Juda, out of the tribe of

5 And the reſt of the children of Caath had by lot out of the kinreds of the tribe of Ephraim, out of the tribe of Dan, and out of the halfe tribe of Manaſſes, ten cities.

6 And the children of Gerſon had by lot out of the kinreds of the tribe of Iſſachar, and out of the tribe of Aſer, & out of ỹ tribe of Nephthali, and out of the other halfe tribe of Manaſſes in Baſan, thirteene cities.

7 And the children of Merari by their kinreds, had out of the tribe of Ruben, and out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zabulon, twelue cities.

8 And the children of Iſrael gaue by lot vnto the Leuites theſe cities with their ſuburbes, as the Lord commanded by the hand of Moſes.

9 And they gaue out of the tribe of the children of Iuda, and out of the tribe of the children of Simeon, theſe cities by name,

10 Which the children of Aaron, being of the kinreds of the Caathites, and of the children of Leui, obteined: (for theirs was ỹ firſt lot.)

11 And they gaue them Kiriath-arba of the father of Enac (which is Hebron) in the hill countrey of Iuda, with the [b] ſuburbes of the ſame round about it.

13 And thus they gaue to the children of Aaron the Prieſt, a citie, to the which the ſlayer might flee, euen Hebron with her ſuburbes, and Libna with her ſuburbes,

14 And Iathir with her ſuburbes, and Eſthemoa with her ſuburbes:

15 Holon with her ſuburbes, Dabir with her ſuburbes:

16 Ain with her ſuburbes, Iuttah with her ſuburbes, Bethſames with her ſuburbes: nine cities, out of thoſe two tribes.

17 And out of the tribe of Beniamin, they gaue Gibeon with her ſuburbes, Gabac with her ſuburbes, 18 Anatoth with her ſuburbes, Almon with her ſuburbes, foure cities.

19 All theſe cities of the children of Aaron Prieſts, were thirteene cities with their ſuburbes.

20 And the kinreds of the children of Caath that were Leuites, that is to ſay, the [c] other children of Caath, had cities giuen them for their lot out of the tribe of Ephraim.

[c] That is, that were no prieſts, but Leuites onely.

21 For they gaue them the citie that the ſlear might flee vnto, Sichem with her ſuburbes in mount Ephraim, and Gazer with her ſuburbes, 22 And Cibzaim with her ſuburbes, and Bethhoron with her ſuburbes, foure cities.

[d] Which dwelled in Chanaan.

26 All the cities for the other kinreds of the children of Caath, were ten, with their ſuburbes.

27 And vnto the children of Gerſon, which were of the kinreds of the Leuites, they gaue out of the other halfe tribe of Manaſſes, the cities of refuge for the ſlear, Golan in Baſan with her ſuburbes, and Beeſtherah with her ſuburbes, two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Iſſachar, Kiſion with her ſuburbes, & Dabareh with her ſuburbes:

30 And out of the tribe of Aſer, Miſal with her ſuburbes, Abdon with her ſuburbes, 32 And out of the tribe of Nephthali, the citie for the ſlear to flee vnto, Kedes in Galilee with her ſuburbes, Hamothdor with her ſuburbes, and Carthan with her ſuburbes, three cities.

33 All the cities of the Gerſonites throughout their kinreds, were thirteene cities with their ſuburbes.

34 And vnto the other kinreds of the children of Merari [e] the reſt of the Leuites, they gaue out of the tribe of Zabulon, Iecnam with her ſuburbes, & Cartha with her ſuburbes, [e] The families of Caath and Gerſon, already ſpoken of, remaineth only Merari, of which being the youngeſt, came 4 other families of Leuites, and are here therefore called the reſt.

38 And out of the tribe of Gad, they gaue the citie for the ſlear to flee vnto, Ramoth in Gilead with her ſuburbes, and Mahanaim with her ſuburbes, [f] Bezer & Ramoth, were the cities of refuge, vnder the Merarites and beyond Iordane.

39 Heſbon with her ſuburbes, and Iaſer with her ſuburbes, foure cities in all.

40 So that all the cities of the children of Merari throughout their kinreds, which were the reſt of the kinreds of the Leuites, were by their lot twelue cities.

41 And all the cities that the Leuites had [g] among the poſſeſſion of the children of Iſrael, were fourtie and eight, with their ſuburbes.

[g] That Iacobs prophecie might be fulfilled, and Gods prouidence performed: that is, that no part of Iſrael ſhould want their teachers of Gods lawe.

42 And theſe cities lay euery one ſeuerally, hauing their ſuburbes round about them throwout all the ſaid cities.

43 And the Lord gaue vnto Iſrael all the land which he ſware to giue vnto their fathers: and they conquered it, and dwelt therein.

44 And

44 And the Lord gaue them rest round about, according to all that he sware vnto their fathers, & there stoode not a man of al their enemies before them: the Lord also deliuered all their enemies into their hands.

45 There escaped nothing of al ỹ good things which the Lord had sayd vnto the house of Israel, but all came to passe.

The xxii. Chapter.

1 Ruben, Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses are sent againe to their possessions.

1 THen [a] Iosuah called the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manasses,

2 And sayd vnto them, Ye haue kept all that Moses the seruant of the Lord [b] commanded you, and haue obeyed my voyce in all that I commanded you.

3 Ye haue not left your brethren of a long season vnto this day, but haue kept the commandement of the Lord your God.

4 And now that the Lord hath giuen rest vnto your brethren, as he promised them, therefore returne ye, and goe vnto your tents, and vnto the land of your possession, * which Moses the seruant of the Lord gaue you on the other side Iordane.

5 But in any wise take diligent heede, to doe the commandement and [c] lawe, which Moses the seruant of the Lord charged you, that ye loue the Lord your God, and walke in all his wayes, and keepe his commandements, and cleaue vnto him, and serue him with all your hearts, and all your soules.

6 And so Iosuah [d] blessed them, and sent them away: and they went vnto their tents.

7 Vnto the one halfe of the tribe of Manasses Moses gaue [possession] in Basan: and vnto the other halfe thereof gaue Iosuah among their brethren on this side Iordane Westward. And Iosuah sent them away also vnto their tents, and blessed them,

8 And sayd vnto them, Returne with much riches vnto your tents, and with a great multitude of cattell, with siluer and golde, with brasse, and iron, and with much rayment: and deuide the spoyle of your enemies with your [e] brethren.

9 And the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses, returned, and departed from the children of Israel out of Silo, which is in the land of Chanaan, to goe vnto the countrey of Gilead, to ỹ land of their possessiõ, which they had obteined according to the word of the Lorde by the hand of Moses.

10 And when they came vnto the borders of Iordane, that are in the lande of Chanaan, there the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses built [f] there an altar by Iordane, and that a great altar to see to.

11 When the childrẽ of Israel heard say, Behold the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses, haue built an altar in the forefront of the land of Chanaan, in the borders of Iordan, at the passage of the children of Israel:

12 When the children of Israel hearde of it, the whole congregation of the children of Israel, gathered them together at Silo, to make [g] battaile against them.

13 And the children of Israel sent vnto the children of Ruben, and to the childrẽ of Gad, and to the halfe tribe of Manasses, into the lande of Gilead, Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar the priest.

14 And with him ten lordes, of euery chiefe house a lord, throughout all the tribes of Israel, which were heads of their fathers householdes, among the ‖ thousandes of Israel.

15 And they went vnto the children of Ruben, and to the children of Gad, and to the children of the halfe tribe of Manasses, vnto the land of Gilead, & they spake with them, saying, 16 Thus saith the whole congregation of the Lorde, What transgression is this that ye haue transgressed against the God of Israel, to turne away this day from the Lord, in that ye haue builded you an altar for to rebel this day against the Lord?

17 * Is the wicked deede of Peor too litle for vs, whereof we are yet not [h] cleansed vnto this day: and there was a plague in the congregation of the Lord?

18 Ye also are turned away this day from the Lord: and seeing ye rebell to day against the Lord, it will come to passe that to morowe he shalbe wroth with all the congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstanding, if ye thinke that the lande of your possession is [i] vncleane, then come ouer vnto the lande of the possession of the Lord, wherein ỹ Lordes tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among vs: but [k] rebell not against the Lord, nor rebell against vs, to builde you any other altar, saue the altar of the Lorde our God.

20 Did not Achan the sonne of Zareth trespasse grieuously in the accursed thing, and wrath fell on all the congregation of Israel? and this man [l] perished not alone in his wickednesse.

21 Then the children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses, answered, and saide vnto the heades ouer the thousandes of Israel,

22 The Lorde God of Gods, the Lord God of Gods knoweth, & all Israel shall know, if it be to rebell or to transgresse against the Lord, then spare vs not this day,

Num. 22.5. 9 Then Balac the sonne of Ziphor king of Moab, arose, and warred against Israel, and sent and called Balaam the sonne of Beor for to curse you:

10 But I would not hearken vnto Balaam, and therefore he rather blessed you: and so I deliuered you out of his hand.

11 And ye went ouer Iordane, and came vnto Iericho: and the c men of Iericho fought against you, the Amorites, Pherezites, Chanaanites, Hethites, Gergesites, Heuites, and Iebusites, and I deliuered them into your hand.

c Not in open fielde, but by defending of their cities, as Iosue. 3.14.

12 *And I sent hornets before you, which cast them out of your sight, euen the two kings of ỹ Amorites: but not with your owne sword, or with your owne bowe. Deu. 7.20.

13 And I haue giuen you a lande in which ye did not labour, and cities which ye built not, and which ye dwell in: vineyardes also, and Oliue trees which ye planted not, & whereof ye doe eate.

14 Now therefore, f feare the Lorde, and serue him in perfectnesse and trueth, and put away the goddes which your fathers serued on the other side of the flood, and in Egypt, and serue ye the Lord.

f This is the true vse of gods benefits, to learne thereby to feare and serue him.

15 And if it ‡ seeme euill vnto you to serue the Lorde, then choose you this day whom you will serue, whether the goddes which your fathers serued (that were on the other side of the flood) either the goddes of the Amorites, in whose lande ye dwell: as for me and my house, g we will serue the Lord.

‡Yeh. Euill in your sight.

g This teacheth vs, that if al the world would go frō God, yet euery one of vs particularly is bound to cleaue vnto him.

16 The people answered and saide, God forbid that we should forsake the Lord, and serue strange goddes.

17 For the Lord our God, he it is that brought vs and our fathers out of the land of Egypt, and from the house of bondage, and which did those great myracles in our sight, and preserued vs in al the way ỹ we went, and among all the people which we came through.

18 And the Lorde did cast out before vs all the people, euen the Amorites which dwelt in the land, & therefore will we also serue the Lorde, for he is h our God.

19 And Iosuah said vnto the people, Ye i can not serue the Lord: for he is an holy God, and a ielous God, and can not beare your iniquitie and sinne.

h Whom we knowledge our selues bound to serue.
i Except ye cast away your idols.

20 If ye forsake the Lorde, and serue strange gods, he will turne, and doe you euill, & consume you, after that he hath done you good.

21 And the people said vnto Iosuah, Nay, but we will serue the Lord.

22 And Iosuah saide vnto the people, Ye are witnesses k against your selues, that ye haue chosen you the Lorde to serue him. And they said, We are witnesses.

k In this your confession of Gods benefites, and promise made to serue him, if hereafter ye do the contrary.

23 Then put away [said he] the l strange gods which are among you, and bowe your hartes vnto the Lord God of Israel.

l Which you haue found & carried away frō the spoiles of the cities that you haue wonne.

24 The people said vnto Iosuah, The Lorde our God will we serue, and his voyce will we obey.

25 And

m By ioyning God and the people together, & repeated the promises and threatnings out of the lawe.

25 And so Iosuah m made a couenant with the people the same day, and set an ordinance and lawe before them in Sichem.

26 And Iosuah wrote these wordes in the booke of the lawe of God, and tooke a great stone, and pitched it on an ende in the saide place, vnder an Oke that was in the sanctuarie of the Lord.

n Rather then mans dissimulation should not be punished, the dumb creatures shall crie for vengeance.

27 And Iosuah said vnto all the people, Behold, this stone shalbe a witnesse vnto vs, for n it hath heard all the wordes of the Lorde which he spake vnto vs, it shalbe therefore a witnesse vnto you, least ye denie your God.

28 And so Iosuah let the people depart, euery man vnto his inheritance.

29 And after these things, Iosuah the sonne of Nun the seruant of the Lorde, dyed, being an hundred and ten yeeres olde.

30 And they buryed him in the border of his inheritance in Thamnah Serah, which is in mount Ephraim, on the North side of the hill of Gaas.

o Such are the people commonly as the rulers are.

31 And Israel serued the Lord o all the dayes of Iosuah, and all the dayes of the elders that ouerliued Iosuah, and which had knowen all the workes of the Lorde that he had done for Israel.

p They buried Iosephes bones, partly to performe their promise, Gen. 50. 25. & partly for a remembrance of Gods holy promises concerning ꝑ land of promise, and not to be abused, as the sepulchres and reliques in these our latter dayes haue beene.

32 And the bones of Ioseph, which the children of Israel brought out of Egypt, p buryed they in Sichem, in a parcell of ground which Iacob bought of the sonnes of Hemor the father of Sichem, for an hundred pieces of siluer, and it became the inheritance of the children of Ioseph.

33 And Eleazar the sonne of Aaron dyed, whom they buried in a hill that perteined to Phinehes his sonne, which [hill] was giuen him in mount Ephraim.

1 AFter the death of Iosuah, it came to passe that the children of Israel a asked the Lorde, saying, Who shall goe vp for vs against the Chanaanites, to fight first against them?

2 And the Lorde saide, Iuda shall goe vp: behold, I haue deliuered the land into his hands.

b Whose inheritance was scattered among the tribe of Iuda, according to Iacobs prophesie, Gene. 49. Iosue. 19.

3 And Iuda said vnto Simeon his b brother, Come vp with me in my lot, that we may fight against the Chanaanites, and I lykewise will goe with thee into thy c lot. And so Simeon went with him.

c As if I were one of the inhabitours of the land that came to thee by lot.

4 And Iuda went vp, and the Lorde deliuered the Chanaanites & Pherezites into their handes: and they slue of them in Bezek ten thousand men.

7 And Adoni-bezek said, Threescore and ten kings, hauing their thumbes and great toes cut off, gathered their meate vnder my table: as I haue done, so God hath done to me againe. And they brought him to Hierusalem, and there he dyed.

The ii. Chapter.

1 The Angel rebuketh the people, becauſe they had made peace with the Chanaanites. 22 The cauſe is ſhewed why God ſuffered idolaters to remaine among them.

1 AND the [a] Angel of the Lorde came vp from Gilgal to Bochim, and ſaide, I made you to goe out of Egypt, & haue brought you vnto the lande which I ſware vnto your fathers, and I ſaid, I will neuer breake my couenant that I made with you.

3 Wherefore, I haue likewiſe determined, that I will not caſt them out before you: but they ſhalbe as thornes vnto you, and their goddes ſhalbe a ſnare vnto you.

4 And when the Angel of the Lorde ſpake theſe wordes vnto all the children of Iſrael, the people cried out, and wept:

20 And the wrath of the Lorde was moued against Israel, and he said, Because this people hath transgressed my couenant which I commanded their fathers, and haue not hearkened vnto my voyce:

21 I will henceforth not cast out before them one man of the nations which Iosuah left when he dyed:

h Outward enemies & false prophets are a triall to proue our faith. 22 That through them I may h proue Israel, whether they will keepe the way of the Lord, and walke therein as their fathers did, or not.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The Chanaanites were left to trie Israel. 9 Othoniel deliuereth Israel. 21 Ahud killeth king Eglon. 23 Samgar killeth the Philistines.

1 THese are the nations * which the Lord left, ye he might proue Israel by them: [that is to say] (as many of Israel as had not knowē a ye warres of Chanaan: * 1. Reg. 12, 9.

a Which warres were obteined by the hande of God, and not by the power of man.

3 Of those who he left, there were fiue lordes of the Philistines, and all the Chanaanites, & the Sidonites, and the Heuites that dwelt in mount Libanon, from mount Baal Hermon, vnto the comming into Hamath.

4 Those remained to proue Israel by, and to wit whether they woulde hearken vnto the commaundementes of the Lorde which he commaunded their fathers by the hande of Moses.

5 And the children of Israel dwelt among the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites,

6 And tooke ye daughters of them to be b their wiues, and gaue their owne daughters to their sonnes, and serued their gods.

c Trees or woods erected for idolatrie.

8 Therefore the Lord was angry with Israel, and he solde them into the handes of Chusan Risathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel serued Chusan Risathaim eight yeeres.

9 And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, the Lorde stirred vp a sauiour to the children of Israel, and saued them, [one] Othoniel the sonne of Kenes, Calebs younger brother.

12 And the children of Israel agayne committed wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde: and the Lord f strengthened Eglon the king of the Moabites, against the children of Israel, because they had committed wickednesse before the Lord.

f Wing him as a rod to punish ye children of Israel for their wickednesse.

13 And this [Eglon] gathered vnto him the children of Ammon, and the Amalekites, and went and smote Israel, and possessed the citie of Palme trees.

14 And

14 And so the chyldren of Israel serued Eglon the king of Moab eighteene yeeres.
15 But when they cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde stirred them vp a sauiour, Ahud, the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Gemini, a man lame of his ‖ right hand: and by whom the chyldren of Israel sent a present vnto Eglon the king of Moab.
‖ Or, left handed.
16 But Ahud made him a dagger with two edges, of a cubite length, and he did gyrde it vnto his raiment, vpon his right thigh, 17 And carried the present vnto Eglon ỹ king of Moab: and Eglon was a very fat man.
18 And when he had presented the present, he sent the people that bare it, away.
19 But he himselfe turned againe from ỹ place of grauen images that was by Gilgal, and said, I haue a secrete errande vnto thee, O king. Which saide, Keepe silence. And all that stoode before him, went out from him.
20 And Ahud came vnto him, and in a sommer parler which he had, sate he himselfe alone: And Ahud saide, I haue a message vnto thee from God. And he arose out of his seate.
21 And Ahud put forth his left hand, and tooke the dagger from his right thigh, and thrust it into his belly.
22 And the haft went in after the blade: and the fat closed the haft, so that he myght not drawe the dagger out of his belly, but the dirt came out.
23 Then Ahud gate him out into the porch, and shut the doores of the parler vpō him, and locked them.
24 When he was gone out, his seruants came: and when they sawe that the doores of ỹ parler were locked, they saide, Surely he ‡ couereth his feete in his sommer chamber.
‡ He doth his easement.
25 And they tarryed till they were ashamed: and seeing he opened not the doores of the parler, they tooke a key, and opened them: and behold, their lorde was fallen downe dead on the earth.
26 And Ahud escaped while they tarried, and was gone beyond, to the place of the grauen images, and escaped vnto Seirath.
27 And when he was come, he blewe a trumpet in mount Ephraim, and the chyldren of Israel went downe with him from the hill, and he went before them.
28 And he saide vnto them, Followe me: for the Lorde hath deliuered your enemies the Moabites into your hand. And they descended after him, and ‖ tooke the passages of Iordane toward Moab, and sufferet not a man to passe ouer.
‖ That is, strong and instie.
29 And they slue of the Moabites the same time about ten thousand men, which were all ‖ fat, and men of warre, and there escaped not a man.
30 So Moab was subdued that day vnder the hand of Israel, and the land had rest foure score yeeres.
31 After him was Samgar the sonne of Anath, which slue of the Philistines sixe hundred men with an Oxe goade, and deliuered Israel also.

The iiii. Chapter.

4 Debora iudgeth Israel, and exhorteth Barac to deliuer the people. 16 Sisera fleeth, 17 and is killed by Iael.

1 AND the chyldrē of Israel began againe to doe wickedly in the sight of ỹ Lord, when Ahud was dead.
2 And the Lord sold them into the hand of [a] Iabin king of Chanaan, that reigned in [b] Hazor, whose captaine of warre was called Sisera, which dwelt in Haroseth of the Gentiles.
a This was one of the posteritie of Iabin, whom Iosuah slue, Iol. 11. now hauing recouered strength to reuenge.
b Which was by Iosuah destroied: but after recouered and builded by the enemies.
3 And the chyldren of Israel cryed vnto the Lorde, for he had nine hundred charettes of iron: and twentie yeeres he troubled the chyldren of Israel very sore.
4 And Debora a prophetisse, the wife of Lapidoth, iudged Israel the same time.
5 And the same Debora dwelt vnder a palme tree, betweene Ramath and Bethel, in mount Ephraim: and the chyldren of Israel came vp to her for iudgement.
6 And she sent and called Barac the sonne of Abinoam, out of Kedes Nephthali, and saide vnto him, Hath not the Lorde God of Israel [c] commanded, saying, Goe, and drawe toward mount Thabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the chyldren of Nephthali, and of the chyldren of Zabulon?
c It should appeare that she had done this message vnto him afore, and now calleth vpon him for ỹ same afore ỹ whole multitude.
7 And I will bring vnto thee to the ‡ riuer Kison, Sisera, the captaine of Iabins armie, with his charettes, and his people, and will deliuer him into thine handes.

8 And Barac saide vnto her, [d] If thou wilt goe with me, I will goe: but and if thou wilt not come with me, I will not goe.
d Although his faith nowe at the first be weake, & therfore desireth the presence of ỹ prophetisse: yet after, it became so strōg, that it is commended by ỹ testimonie of the holy ghost, ‡ Heb. Wear afoote.
9 She saide, I will surely goe with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shall not be for thine honour: for the Lord shall deliuer Sisera into the hand of a woman. And Debora arose, and went with Barac to Kedes.
10 And Barac called Zabulon and Nephthali to Kedes, and ‡ led after him ten thousande men: and Debora went with him.
11 But Haber the Kenite, which was of the ‡ chyldren of Hobab, the father in lawe of Moses, remooued from the Kenites, and pitched his tent [e] vnto the plaine of Zaanaim, which is by Kedes.
‡ Heb. Posteritie.
e This large roome that he occupieth, argueth his substance to be great, which should seeme to be the cause why he departed from the other Kenites.
12 And they shewed Sisera, that Barac the sonne of Abinoam was gone vp to mount Thabor.
13 And Sisera gathered together all his charets, euen nine hundred charets of iron, & all the people that were with him, frō Haroseth of the Gentiles, vnto the riuer of Kison.

of

14 And Debora sayde vnto Barac, Vp, for this is the day in which the Lorde hath deliuered Sisera into thine hand: is not the Lord gone out before thee? And so Barac went downe from mount Thabor, and ten thousande men after him.

Psal.83.10. 15 * But the Lorde destroyed Sisera and all his charets, and all his host, with the edge of the sworde, before Barac: so that Sisera lighted downe off his charet, and fled away on his feete.

16 But Barac followed after the charets, and after the host, vnto Haroseth of the Gentiles, and all the host of Sisera fel vpon the edge of the sworde, and there was not a man left.

f Ye was of the familie of Jethro Moses father in lawe, & his ancetors ioyned themselues to Israel in the true worshipping of God.

17 Howbeit, Sisera fled away on his feete, to the tent of Iael the wife of f Haber the Kenite (for there was peace betweene Jabin the king of Hazor, and the houshold of Haber the Kenite.)

18 And Iael went out to meete Sisera, & sayd vnto him, Turne in, my lord, turne in to mee, feare not. And when he had turned in vnto her into her tent, she couered him with a mantell.

19 And he sayd vnto her, Giue me, I pray thee, a litle water to drinke, for I am thirstie. And shee opened a bottell of milke, and gaue him drinke, and couered him.

20 And againe he sayde vnto her, Stand in the doore of the tent: and when any man doeth come and enquire of thee whether there be any man here, thou shalt say, Nay.

21 Then Iael Habers wife, tooke a nayle of the tent, and an hammer in her hande, and went softly vnto him, and smote the nayle into the temples of his head, and fastened it into the ground: (for he slumbred sore, and was wearie) and so he dyed.

22 And beholde, as Barac followed after Sisera, Iael came out to meete him, and sayd vnto him, Come, and I will shewe thee the man whome thou seekest. And when he came into her tent, beholde, g Sisera lay dead, and the nayle was in his temples.

g So he saw that a woman had the honor, as Debora prophecied, verse 6.

23 And so God brought Jabin the king of Chanaan into subiection that day, before the children of Israel.

‡Heb. went and was strong. 24 And the hand of the children of Israel ‡ prospered, and preuayled against Jabin the king of Chanaan, vntil they had destroyed Jabin king of Chanaan.

a To wit, the two tribes of Nephthali and Zabulon.

3 Heare, O ye kings, hearken, O ye princes: I, euen I will sing vnto the Lord, I wil sing prayse to the Lord God of Israel.

4 Lord, when thou wentest out of Seir, when thou departedst out of the fielde of Edom, the earth trembled, and the heauens rayned, the cloudes also dropped water:

5 The mountaines melted before the Lorde, euen as did Sinai before the Lorde God of Israel.

6 In the dayes of Samgar the sonne of Anath, in the dayes of Iael, the high wayes were b vnoccupied, and the trauaylers walked thorow bye wayes.

b For feare of the enemies.

7 The inhabitants of the townes were gone, they were gone in Israel, vntill I Debora came vp, which came vp a c mother in Israel.

c Because she vsed the auctoritie & power that God gaue her, for the wealth of her people, & not to suppresse them after the maner of tyrants.

8 They chose newe gods, and then had they the enemie in the gates: was there a shielde or speare seene among fourtie thousande of Israel?

9 My heart loueth the gouernours of Israel, and them that are willing among the people: O prayse ye the Lorde.

d Magistrates that whose hearts were hindred in the executing of their office, & marchats that then durst not iourney from citie to citie.

10 Speake d ye that ride on fayre Asses, ye that dwell by e Midian, and that walke by the wayes.

e A certaine place, much oppressed with the enemies, or a place vsed for marchandise, to the which for feare of the enemies there was also no resort.

11 For the noyse of the Archers among the f waters of water cressets, there shall they speake of the righteousnesse of the Lorde, his righteousnesse in his vnfenced townes in Israel: then shall the people of the Lorde goe downe to the gates.

f Whom the enemies of late vsed to skirmish vpon, & to endanger.

12 Vp Debora, vp: get thee vp, and sing a song: arise Barac, & leade thy captiuitie captiue, thou sonne of Abinoam.

13 Then shal they that remaine, haue dominion of the prowdest of the people: the Lorde hath giuen me dominion ouer the mightie.

14 Out of Ephraim was there a roote of them against Amalek, and after thee Benjamin among thy people: Out of Machir came rulers, and out of Zabulon they that handle the penne of i the writer.

g In this reckoning vp of the instruments of this victorie, she beginneth with her selfe, as a roote of Ephraim, and called Amalek, Benjamin, Machir, Zabulon, Issachar, Naphthali, Reuben, Gilead, Dan, Aser, because that some of the Beniamites ioyned themselues to Debora, and vnlike that the prophecieth here of the ruine of Sisera against Amalek, whereof i Esth. the learned may peruse some, k That marueile they came not out Jordane to helpe them. l Midst not came to helpe, and therefore thou Ruben canst haue no excuse. m That want nothing, but loue all.

15 And of Issachar there were princes with Debora, and Issachar, and also Barac he was sent on foote into the valley: for the diuisions of Ruben, [were] great k thoughtes of heart.

16 Why abodest thou among the sheepefoldes, to heare the bleatings of the flockes? for the diuisions of Ruben were great thoughtes of heart.

17 Gilead abode beyonde Jordane: and why doeth Dan remayne in shippes? Aser continued on the sea shore, and stayed in his decayed places.

18 [But] the people of Zabulon haue ieoparde their liues vnto the death, like as did Nephthali in the high places of the fielde.

19 The kings came & fought, then fought the kings of Chanaan in Thanach by the waters of Megiddo, and l wanne no money.

n Gods will was, that they should be holpen to ouercome their aduersaries, not by their owne power, but by power from heauen, & from the starres.

20 They fought from heauē, n euen the starres in their courses fought against Sisara.
21 The riuer of Kison swept them away, that ancient riuer, the riuer Kison: O my soule, thou hast marched valiantly.
22 Then were the horse hooues smitten asunder, by the meanes of the prauncings that their mightie men made.
23 Curse ye the tribe of Meros (sayd the angel of the Lord) curse the inhabitants thereof: because they came not to helpe the Lord, to help the Lorde against the mightie.
24 Iael the wife of Haber the Kenite, shall be blessed aboue other women, blessed shal she be aboue other women in the tent.
25 He asked water, and she gaue him milke, she brought forth butter in a lordly dish.
26 She put her hand to the naile, and her right hand to the Smithes hammer: with the hammer smote shee Sisara, and smote his head, wounded him, and pearced his temples.
27 He bowed him downe at her feete, hee fell downe, and lay still at her feete, he bowed him selfe, and fell: and when he had sunke downe, he lay there destroyed.
28 The mother of Sisara looked out at a windowe, and cryed thorowe the latteise, Why is his charet so long a comming? Why tary the wheeles of his charrets?
29 All the wise ladyes answered her, yea and her owne wordes answered her selfe, 30 Surely they haue founde, they deuide the spoyles, euery man hath a damsel or two: Sisara hath a pray of diuers coloured garments, euen a pray of rayment dyed with sundry colours, and that are made of needle worke: rayment of diuers colours, and of needle worke on both sides, which is meete for him that is chiefe in distributing of the spoyles.
31 So perish all thine enemies, O Lorde: but they that loue him, let them be as the sunne when he ariseth in his might. And the lande had rest fourtie yeeres.

o That is, grow more & more in strength and power to vanquish their enemies.

The vi. Chapter.

1 Israel is oppressed of the Madianites for their wickednesse. 14 Gedeon is sent to be their deliuerer. 37 He asked a signe.

1 AND the children of Israel committed a wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde: and the Lord deliuered them into b the handes of Madian seuen yeeres.
2 And the hand of Madian preuayled against Israel: and c because of the Madianites, the children of Israel made them dennes in the mountaines, and caues, and strong holdes.
3 And when Israel had sowen, then came vp the Madianites, the Amalekites, and they of the East, and came vp against them,
4 And pitched their tentes against them, and destroyed the increase of the earth, tyll thou come vnto Azah, & left no sustenance for Israel, neither sheepe, ore, nor asse:
5 For they went vp, they and their cattell, and came with their tentes, as a multitude of Grashoppers, so that both they and also their camels were without number: and they entred into the land to destroy it.
6 And so was Israel exceedingly impouerished d in the sight of the Madianites, ‡ and cryed vnto the Lord.
7 And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lord, because of the Madianites,
8 The Lord sent vnto them a Prophet, which sayde vnto them, Thus sayth the Lord God of Israel, I fet you from Egypt, and brought you out of the house of bondage,
9 And I ryd you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and cast them out before you, and gaue you their land:
10 And I sayd vnto you, I [am] the Lord your God, feare not the gods of the Amorites in whose land you dwel: But you haue not obeyed my voyce.
11 And the angel of the Lorde came, & sate vnder an Oke which was in Ephrah, that pertayned vnto Joas the father of the Ezrites: and his sonne Gedeon threshed wheate by the winepresse, to hide it from the Madianites.
12 And the angel of the Lorde appeared vnto him, and sayde vnto him, The Lorde is with thee thou mightie man.
13 And Gedeon answered him, e Oh my Lord, if the Lorde be with vs, why is all this come vpon vs: Yea, and where be all his miracles which our fathers tolde vs of, and sayd, Did not the Lord bring vs out of Egypt: but now the Lorde hath forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into the handes of the Madianites.
14 And the f Lord looked vpon him, and sayde, Go hence in this thy might, & thou shalt deliuer Israel out of the handes of the Madianites: haue not I sent thee?
15 And he answered him, Oh Lord, wherewith shal I saue Israel? behold, my kinred is ‖ poore in Manasses, & I am lest in my fathers house.
16 The Lorde sayde vnto him, I will be with thee, and thou shalt smite the Madianites as they were but one man.
17 And he answered him, Oh, if I haue founde grace in thy sight, then shew me a h signe, that it is thou that talkest with me:
18 Depart not hence, I pray thee, vntil I come vnto thee, and till I bring mine offering, and haue set it before thee. And he sayd, I will tarie vntill thou come againe.
19 And Gedeon went in, & made ready a kidde, and sweete cakes of an i Epha of floure, and put it with the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a potte, and brought it out vnto him vnder the Oke, and presented it.
20 And the Angell of God sayde vnto him, Take a Specially idolatrie, as hereafter appeareth.

b That is, the power or strength.
c That is, for feare of the Madianites.

d That is, by the Madianites.
‡ The children of Israel.

e Affliction assaulteth faith, and at the first shew argueth Gods absence to destruction, but constant faith shal finde it Gods messenger to repentance and saluation.
f The angel is called the Lorde, for that he was the Lords messenger: or rather it was Christ the Lord himselfe that did appeare.
g Which now thou receiuest of me.
‖ Or, the least.

h Gedeon to be assured it was Gods message, & not illusion of a spirite, requireth a signe: But Gods worde once confirmed by signes, is to be beleeued without signe.
i A measure of dry things, conteining about three pecks.

Take the flesh and the sweete cakes, and laye them vpon this rocke, & powre out the broth. And he did so.

21 Then the angell of the Lorde put forth the ende of the staffe that he held in his hand, and touched the flesh and the sweete cakes, and there rose vp fire out of the rocke, & consumed the flesh and the sweete cakes: but the angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.

22 And when Gedeon perceiued that it was an angel of the Lorde, he sayde, Alas, O Lorde God, haue I therefore seene an angell of the Lord face to face, [that I should die?]

23 And the Lord sayd vnto him, Peace be vnto thee, feare not, thou shalt not dye.

24 Then Gedeon made an altar there vnto the Lord, and called it, The Lord of peace. And vnto this day it is yet in Ephrath, that pertaineth vnto the father of the Esrites.

25 And the same night the Lord sayd vnto him, Take thy fathers yong bullocke, and another bullocke of seuen yeeres old, and [k] destroy the altar of Baal that thy father hath, & cut downe the groue that is by it:

k First idolatrie is to be destroyed, and true religion restored: and then the deliuerie of the people, or ciuil gouernance of the same to be taken in hand.

26 And make an altar vnto the Lorde thy God vpon the toppe of this rocke, in a conuenient place, and take the second bullocke, and offer whole burnt sacrifices vpon the wood of the groue which thou shalt cut downe.

27 Then Gedeon tooke ten men of his seruãts, and did as the Lorde bade him: but because he feared to do it by day, for his fathers houshold, and the men of the citie, he did it by night.

28 And when the men of the citie arose earely in the morning, behold the altar of Baal was broken, and the groue cut downe that was by it, and the [l] seconde bullocke offered vpon the altar that was made.

l Which was of seuen yeres fedding, & kept to be offered to Baal.

29 And they sayde one to another, Who hath done this thing? And when they enquired and asked, they sayde, Gedeon the sonne of Joas hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the citie sayde vnto Joas, Bring out thy sonne, that he may dye: because he hath destroyed the altar of Baal, and cut downe the groue that was by it.

31 And Joas sayd vnto all that stoode by him, Will ye pleade [m] Baals cause? or will ye saue him? He that will contend for him, let him die per the morning: If he be a God, let him pleade for himselfe, against him that hath cast downe his altar.

m Thus we ought to iustifie them that are zealous in Gods cause, though all the multitude be against vs.

32 And from that day was Gedeon called Jerobaal: because his father had sayd, Let Baal pleade for himselfe, because he hath broken downe his altar.

33 All the Madianites therefore, and the Amalekites, and they of the East, were gathered together, and went, and pitched in the valley of Jezrael.

34 But the spirite of the Lord ‡ came vpon Gedeon, and he blewe a trumpet, and [n] Abiezer was ioyned with him.

‡ Heb. clad Gedeon.

n That is, the familie of Abiezer.

35 And he sent messengers throughout all Manasses, which also was ioyned with him, and he sent messengers vnto Azar, Zabulon, and Naphthali, and they came to meete them.

36 And Gedeon sayde vnto them, If thou wilt [o] saue Israel by mine hand, as thou hast sayd, o This request proceeded not of infidelitie, but that he might be confirmed in his vocation.

37 Beholde, I will put a fleece of wooll in the threshing place: and if the dewe come on the fleece onely, and it be drie vpon all the earth beside, then shall I be sure that thou wilt saue Israel by my hand, as thou saydest.

38 And it came so to passe: for he rose vp early on the morow, and thrust the fleece together, and wrong the dewe thereout, and filled a bowle of water.

39 * And Gedeon sayde againe vnto God, Be not angry with mee that I speake once more, for I wil proue once againe by the fleece. Let it be dry onely vpon the fleece, and dewe vpon all the grounde. Gen.18.32.

40 And God did so that same night: for it was drie vpon the fleece onely, and there was dewe on all the ground.

The vii. Chapter.

1 The Lorde commaundeth Gedeon to sende away a great part of his companie. 22 The Madianites are discomfited by a wonderous sort. 25 Oreb and Zeb are slayne.

1 THen Jerobaal (who is Gedeon) and all the people that were with him, rose vp early, and pitched beside the wel of Harad: so that the host of the Madianites were on the North side of them by the hill of Moreh, in the valley.

2 And the Lord sayde vnto Gedeon, The people that are with thee, are too many for me to giue the Madianites into their handes, least Israel make their [a] vaunt against me, and say, Mine owne hand hath saued me.

a God will not that any creature despoile him of his glorie. Deut.20.5. 1.mac.3.56.

3 Nowe therefore make a proclamation in the eares of the people, & say, * If any man dread or be afrayde, let him returne and depart early from mount Gilead: and there returned of the people twentie and two thousande, and there abode ten thousand.

4 And the Lord sayde vnto Gedeon, The people are yet too many: bring them downe vnto the water, & I will trie them vnto thee there: and of whome I say vnto thee, This shall go with thee: the same shal goe with thee. And of whom so euer I say vnto thee, This shall not goe with thee: the same shall not goe.

5 So he brought downe the people vnto the water: and the Lorde sayde vnto Gedeon, As many as lappe the watet with their tongues as a dogge lappeth, them put by themselues, and [so do] them that kneele downe vpon their knees [b] to drinke.

b They shall depart as vnmeete for this enterprise.

6 And ỹ number of them that put their hands to their mouthes & lapped, were three hundred men: but al the remnant of the people kneeled downe vpon their knees to drinke water.

7 And the Lord sayde vnto Gedeon, By these three hundred men that [c] lapped, will I saue you, and deliuer the Madianites into thine hande, and let all the [d] other people goe euery man vnto his place.

8 They therefore of the people tooke victuals with them, and their trumpets: and he sent all the rest of Israel, euery man vnto his tent, & reteined those three hundred men: and the host of Madian was beneath him in a valley.

9 And the same night the Lord sayd vnto him, Arise, get thee downe vnto the host, for I haue deliuered it into thine hand.

10 But if thou feare to go downe, then go thou and Phara thy ladde downe to the host.

11 And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shal thine handes be strong to go downe vnto the host. Then went he downe, and Phara his ladde, vnto the outside of the men of armes that were in the host.

12 And the Madianites, the Amalekites, and all they of the East, lay along in the valley like a multitude of grasshoppers, and their camels were without number, as the sande by the sea side in multitude.

13 And when Gedeon was come, behold, there was a man that told a dreame vnto his neighbour, and sayd, Beholde, I dreamed a dreame, and mee thought that a cake of barley bread tumbled into the hoste of Madian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and ouerturned it, that the tent lay along.

14 And his felowe answered, and sayde, This is nothing els saue the sworde of Gedeon the sonne of Joas, a man of Israel: for into his hand hath God deliuered Madian & all ỹ host.

15 When Gedeon heard the telling of the dreame, and the interpretation of the same, he worshipped, & returned into the host of Israel, and sayd, Vp: for the Lorde hath deliuered into your hand the host of Madian.

16 And he deuided the three hundred men into three companies, and gaue euery man a trumpet in his hande, with emptie pitchers, and [c] ‖ lampes therein,

17 And sayde vnto them, Looke on me, and doe likewise: that when I come to the side of the host, euen as I do, so do you.

18 When I blowe with a trumpet, and all that are with me, blowe ye with trumpets also on euery side of the host, and say, For the Lorde, and for Gedeon.

19 So Gedeon and the hundred men that were with him, came vnto the outside of the host, in the beginning of the middle watche, and raysed vp the watchmen: and they blewe with their trumpettes, and brake the pitchers that were in their handes.

20 And the three companies blewe with trumpets, and brake the pitchers, and helde the lampes in their left handes, and the trumpets in their right, to blow withall: and they cried, The sworde of the Lord, and of Gedeon.

21 And they stoode still euery man in his place round about the host: and all the host ‖ ranne, and cryed, and fledde.

22 And the three hundred blew with trumpets, * and the Lord sent euery mans sworde vpon his [f] neyghbour throughout all the host: and the host fled to Bethhasitah, to Zererath, and to the edge of the playne of Meholah vnto Tabbath.

23 And the men of Israel, being gathered together out of Nephthali, of Aser, and of all Manasses, folowed after the Madianites.

24 And Gedeon sent messengers vnto all mout Ephraim, saying, Come downe against the Madianites, and take before them the [g] waters vnto Bethbarath, and to Jordane. Then all the men of Ephraim gathered together, and tooke the waters vnto Bethbarath, and to Jordane.

25 *And they tooke two princes of the Madianites, Oreb and Zeb: and slew Oreb vpon the rocke Oreb, & Zeb at the [h] winepresse of Zeb, and followed after Madian: and brought the heades of Oreb and Zeb to Gedeon on the other side Jordane.

The viii. Chapter.

1 Ephraim murmureth against Gedeon. 27 He maketh an Ephod: which was the cause of idolatrie. 30 Of Gedeons sonnes, and of his death.

1 AND the men of Ephraim sayde vnto him, Why hast thou serued vs thus, that thou calledst vs not when thou wentest to fight with the Madianites? And they chode with him sharpely.

2 And he sayd vnto them, What deede haue I done like vnto [a] yours? Is not the [b] gleaning of the grapes of Ephraim, better then the vintage of Abiezer?

3 God hath deliuered into your handes the lordes of Madian Oreb & Zeb: and what was I able to doe like as you haue done? and then they left off their anger from him, when hee had sayd that.

4 And Gedeon came to Jordane, to passe ouer, he and the three hundred men that were with him, weary, and yet folowed the [chase.]

5 And he said vnto the men of [c] Sucoth, Giue, I pray you, cakes of bread vnto the people that folowe me, for they be faintie, that I may followe after Zebah and Zalmana kings of Madian.

6 And the lordes of Sucoth sayde, Are the handes of Zebah and Zalmana nowe in thine [d] handes, that we should giue bread vnto thine armie?

7 Gedeon sayd, Therfore when the Lord hath deliuered

[c] Drinke water, by putting their hands to their mouthes, and by lapping.

[d] Which were in number, & parted at two times, thirtie and one thousand, & seuen hundred.

8 And he went vp thence to Phanuel, & spake vnto them likewise: and the men of Phanuel answered him, as did the men of Sucoth.

9 And he sayde also vnto the men of Phanuel, When I come againe [e] in peace, I wil breake downe this towre.

e Yaning gotten the victorie

10 Zebah and Zalmana were in Carcor, & their hostes with them, vpon a fifteene thousande men, which were all that were left of all the hostes of them of the East: for there was slaine an hundred and twentie thousande men that drewe swords.

Osee.10.14.

11 * And Gedeon went through them that dwelt in tabernacles on the East side of Nobah, and Jegbahah, and smote the host: for the host did cast no perils.

12 And when Zebah and Zalmana fledde, he followed after them, and tooke the two kings of Madian, Zebah and Zalmana, and discomfited all the host.

13 And Gedeon the sonne of Joas, returned from battell afore the sunne was vp,

14 And caught a ladde of the men of Sucoth, and enquired of him: and he wrote him of the lordes and elders of Sucoth threescore and seuenteene men.

15 And he came vnto the men of Sucoth, and sayd, Behold Zebah and Zalmana, with which ye did cast mee in the teeth, saying, Are the hands of Zebah and Zalmana already in thine hand, that we should giue bread vnto thy faintie men?

16 And hee tooke the elders of the citie, and thornes of the wildernesse, and briers, & did teare the men of Sucoth with them.

17 And he brake downe the towre of Phanuel, and slew the men of the citie.

18 And then sayde he vnto Zebah and Zalmana, What maner of men were they whome ye slewe at Thabor? And they answered, The likenesse of thee and them is all one, euen after the fashion of the children of a king.

19 And he sayde, They were my brethren, euen my [f] mothers children: as truely as the Lorde liueth, if ye had saued their liues, I would not slay you.

f Euen nature forceth me to reuenge their deaths.

20 And he sayde vnto Jether his eldest sonne, Up, and slay them. But the ladde drewe not his swoorde: for he feared, because he was yet yong.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmana sayde, Rise thou, and fall vpon vs: for as [g] the man is, so is his strength. And Gedeon arose, and slewe Zebah and Zalmana, and tooke away the ornaments that were on their camels neckes.

g Weaning. y they would be rid out of their paine at once: or that they thought it dishonour to be put to death by a boy.

22 Then the men of Israel sayd vnto Gedeon, Reigne thou ouer vs, both thou, thy sonne, & thy [h] sonnes sonne, for thou hast deliuered vs out of the hand of Madian.

h That is, thy posteritie.

23 And Gedeon sayde vnto them, I will not reigne ouer you, neither shal my childe reigne ouer you: but the Lorde shall [i] reigne ouer you.

i By such one as he shall choose, according to the sentence of his holy word, to rule & to maintaine his true religion.

24 And againe Gedeon sayde vnto them, I would desire a request of you, that you would giue mee euery man the earings of his pray. For they had golden earings, because they were Ismaelites.

25 And they answered, We will giue them. And they spred a mantell, & did cast therein euery man the earings of his pray.

26 And the weight of the golden earinges that he required, was a thousande & seuen hundred sicles of golde, beside chaines and iewels, and purple rayment that was on the kings of Madian, and beside the chaynes that were about their camels neckes.

27 And Gedeon made an [k] Ephod thereof, and put it in his citie Ephah: And al Israel went a whoring after it in the same place, which thing became a ruine vnto Gedeon, and to his house.

k To be a testimonie of this victorie: but afterward abused to idolatrie.

28 Thus was Madian brought low before the children of Israel, so that they lifted vp their heads no more: & the countrey was in quietnesse fourtie yeeres in the dayes of Gedeon.

29 And Jerobaal the sonne of Joas, went and dwelt in his owne house.

30 And Gedeon had threescore & tenne sonnes of his body begotten: for he had many wiues.

31 And his cõcubine that was in Sichem bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.

32 And Gedeon the sonne of Joas dyed in a good age, and was buryed in the sepulchre of Joas his father in Ephrah, that pertained vnto the father of the Esrites.

33 But assoone as Gedeon was dead, the children of Israel turned away, and went a whoring after Baalim, and made a couenant with Baal to be their god.

34 And the children of Israel thought not on the Lord their God, which had deliuered them out of the handes of all their enemies on euery side.

35 Neyther [l] shewed they mercie on the house of Jerobaal, [otherwise called] Gedeõ, according to all the goodnesse which he had shewed vnto Israel.

l An Hebrewe phrase, wherby is meant that they were neither thankfull, nor kinde, nor louing, nor beneficiall to ỹ children of Jerobaal.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Abimelech vsurpeth the kingdome, and putteth his brethren to death. 7 Ioatham propoſeth a parable.

1 ABimelech the sonne of Jerobaal, went to Sichem, vnto his mothers brethrẽ, and communed with them, and with al the kinred of the house of his mothers father, saying,

2 Say, I pray you, in the eares of all the men of Sichem, Whether is better for you, that all the sonnes of Ierobaal (which are threescore and ten persons) reigne ouer you, either that one reigne ouer you? Remember that I am of your bone, and of your flesh.

3 And his mothers brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Sichem, all these wordes, and their hearts were moued to followe Abimelech: for they sayde, He is our brother.

4 And they gaue him threescore and ten pieces of siluer, out of the house of Baal Berith, wherewith Abimelech hired vayne and light persons, which went with him.

5 And he went vnto his fathers house at Ephrah, and [a] slewe his brethren the sonnes of Ierobaal, being threescore and ten persons, vpon one stone: notwithstanding, yet Ioatham the yongest sonne of Ierobaal escaped, for he hid himselfe.

a The desire of soueraintie where it reigneth, sheddeth the innocent blood that is found in his way, as a woulfe deuoureth lambes, 2. Chro. 21. 4.

6 And all the men of Sichem gathered together, and all the house of Mello, and came, & made Abimelech king, in the playne where the stone was in Sichem.

7 And when they told it to Ioatham, he went and stoode in the toppe of mount Garizim, & lift vp his voyce, & cryed, and sayd vnto them, Hearken vnto me, you men of Sichem, that God may hearken vnto you.

b In this parable he setteth before their eyes their folly & vngratitude in choosing a king: and with threatning telleth them what reward both they and their king shal haue.

8 [b] The trees went forth to anoynt a king ouer them, & sayde vnto the Oliue tree, Reigne thou ouer vs.

9 But the Oliue tree said vnto them, Should I leaue my fatnesse, wherewith by me they honour [c] God and man, and go to be promoted ouer the trees?

c He alludeth to the vse of oyle in sacrifices, lampes, & vnction of prophets, priestes and kings.

10 And the trees sayd to the Figge tree, Come thou, and be king ouer vs.

11 The Figge tree answered them, Should I forsake my sweetenesse, & my good fruite, and go to be promoted ouer the trees?

12 Then sayde the trees vnto the Vine, Come thou, and be king ouer vs.

d Because wine was appointed by the lawe to be a drinke offring for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord, as Num. 15.

13 The Vine sayd vnto them, Should I leaue my wine, whereby I cheare both [d] God and man, and go to be promoted ouer the trees?

14 Then sayde all the trees vnto the Bryer, Come thou, and reigne ouer vs.

15 And the Bryer sayde vnto the trees, If it be true that ye will anoynt mee king ouer you, then come, and put your trust vnder my shadowe: if no, the [e] fire come out of the Bryer, and waste the Cedar trees of Libanon.

e Abimelech shal destroy the nobles of Sichem.

16 Nowe therefore, if ye doe truely and vncorruptly to make Abimelech king, & if ye haue dealt well with Ierobaal and his house, and haue done vnto him according to the deseruing of his handes:

17 (For euen my father fought for you, and aduentured his life, and rid you out of the hande of Madian:

18 And ye are risen vp against my fathers house this day, and haue slayne his children, being threescore and tenne persons, vpon one stone, and haue made Abimelech, the sonne of his mayde seruãt, king ouer the men of Sichem, because he is your brother:)

19 If ye then haue dealt truely and purely with Ierobaal, and with his house this day, then reioyce ye with Abimelech, and let him reioyce with you.

20 But if you haue not dealt truely, then let a fire come out of Abimelech, and consume the men of Sichem, and the house of Mello: and let there come out a fire from among the men of Sichem, and out of the house of Mello, and consume Abimelech.

21 And Ioatham ranne away, and fledde, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for feare of Abimelech his brother.

22 When Abimelech had reigned three yeeres ouer Israel,

23 God [f] sent an euill spirite betweene Abimelech and the men of Sichem: and the citizens of Sichem brake their promise to Abimelech:

f Because the people consented with the king in shedding innocent blood, therefore God destroyed both the one and the other.

24 That the wickednesse done to the threescore & ten sonnes of Ierobaal, might come on him, and that God might laye the blood of them vnto Abimelech their brother which slewe them, & vpon the other men of Sichem which ayded him in the killing of his brethren.

25 And the citizens of Sichem set men to laye awayte for him in the top of the mountaines, which men robbed all that came along the way by them: and it was tolde Abimelech.

26 And Gaal the sonne of Obed came with his brethren, & they gate them to Sichem: & the men of Sichem put their confidence in him.

27 And they went out into the fieldes, and gathered in their grapes, and trode them, and made merrie, and went into the house of their god, and did eate and drinke, and cursed Abimelech.

28 And Gaal the sonne of Obed sayde, What is Abimelech? and what is Sichem, that we should serue him? Is he not the sonne of Ierobaal? and Zebul is his officer? serue such as come of Hemor ꝑ father of Sichem: for what reason is it that we should serue him?

29 Woulde God this people were vnder my hande, then would I take Abimelech out of the way. And he spake against Abimelech, Make thine host greater, and go out.

30 And when Zebul the ruler of the citie, heard the wordes of Gaal the sonne of Obed, he was wroth, 31 And sent messengers vnto Abimelech priuily, saying, Beholde, Gaal the sonne of Obed, and his brethren, be come to Sichem, and beholde, they fortifie the citie against thee.

32 Nowe therefore, vp by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lye in wayte in the fielde.

33 And

33 And rise earely in the morning as soone as the sunne is vp, and fall vpon the citie: And if he and the people that is with him come out against thee, doe to him what thine handes shalbe able.
34 And Abimelech rose vp, and all the people that were with him by night, and they layde awayte against Sichem in foure companies.
35 And Gaal the sonne of Obed went out, and stoode in the entring of the gate of the citie: & Abimelech rose vp, and the folke that were with him, from lying in wayte.
36 And when Gaal saw the people, he sayde to Zebul, Beholde, there come people downe frō the toppe of the mountaines. And Zebul sayd vnto him, g The shadowe of the hilles seeme men vnto thee.
37 And Gaal answered againe, and sayd, See, there come folke downe by the middle of the lande, and another companie come along by the playne of the charmers.
38 Then said Zebul vnto him, Where is nowe thy mouth that sayde, What felow is Abimelech, that we should serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despised? Go out nowe, and fight with them.
39 And Gaal went out before the citizens of Sichem, and fought with Abimelech.
40 And Abimelech chased him, that he fled before him, and many were ouerthrowen and wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.
41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal and his brethren, that they should not dwell in Sichem.
42 And on the morow the people went out into the fielde, and they tolde Abimelech.
43 And he tooke the people, and deuided them into three companies, and layde awayte in the fielde, and looked, and behold, the people were come out of the citie, and he ran vpon them, and smote them.
44 And Abimelech, & the companies that were with him, rushed forwarde, and stoode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other companies ranne vpon al the people that were in the fieldes, and slewe them.
45 And when Abimelech had fought against the citie all that day, he tooke it, and slewe the people that was therein, and destroyed the citie, and sowed h salt in it.
46 And when all the men of the towre of Sichem heard that, they entred into an holde of the house of the god i Berith.
47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of ỹ towre of Sichē were gathered together.
48 And Abimelech gate him to moūt Zelmon, both he and all the people that were with him, and tooke axes with him, and cut downe bowes of trees, and tooke them, & bare them on his shoulder, and sayd vnto the folke that were with him, What ye haue seene me doe, speede your selues, and do likewise as I haue done.
49 And all the men that were among the people cut downe bowes, and followed Abimelech, and put them into the holde, and set the holde a fire by them: so that all the men of the towre of Sichem dyed also, vpon a thousand men and women.
50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, and besieged it, and tooke it.
51 But there was a strong towre within the citie, and thither ranne all the men and women, and all the chiefe that were in the citie, and shut it to them, and gate them vp to the toppe of the towre.
52 And Abimelech came vnto the towre, and fought against it, & went hard vnto the doore of the towre, to set it on fire.
53 * And a certaine woman cast a piece of a milstone vpon his head, and all to brake his brayne panne. 2.King.11.21.
54 Then Abimelech called hastily vnto ỹ yong man that bare his harnesse, and said vnto him, Drawe thy sworde, and slay me, that men say not of me, A woman slewe him: and his ladde thrust him through, and he dyed.
55 And when the men of Israel sawe that Abimelech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne house.
56 Thus God rendred the wickednesse of Abimelech which he did vnto his father, in slaying his seuentie brethren.
57 And thereto all the wickednesse of the men of Sichem, did God bring vpon their heads: and vpon them came the k curse of Ioatham the sonne of Ierobaal.

g By these wordes he mocked Gaal for the bragge he made afore against Abimelech.
h That it should be vnfruitfull & neuer serue to any vse.
i That is, of Baal Berith: as afore, Chap.8.
k What strength the curse of holy men oppressed with wrong hath to bring the vengeance of God vpon the oppressors, may appeare by this, and likewise by Eliseus the Prophet.

The x. Chapter.

Thola dyeth. 5 Iair also dyeth. 7 The Israelites are punished for their sinnes. 10 They cry vnto God, 16 and he hath pitie on them.

1 AFter Abimelech, there arose to defende Israel, Thola the sonne of Phuah, the sonne of Dodo, a mā of Issachar, which dwelt in Samir in mount Ephraim.
2 And he ‖ iudged Israel twentie and three yeres, and dyed, and was buryed in Samir. ‖ Or, gouerned.
3 And after him arose Iair a Gileadite, and iudged Israel twentie and two yeeres.
4 And he had thirtie sonnes, that rode on a thirtie asse coltes, & they had thirtie cities, which are called b Hauoth Iair vnto this day, and are in the land of Gilead.
5 And Iair dyed, and was buried in Camon.
6 And the children of Israel wrought wickednesse yet againe in the sight of the Lorde, and serued Baalim and Astaroth, and the gods of ‖ Syria, the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsooke the Lord, and serued not him. ‖ Or, Aram.
7 And the Lorde was wroth with Israel, and a That was the vse of men of great auctoritie & honour.

b Of ỹ townes of Iair, Deu.3.

‖Or, deliuered.

‖ he solde them into the handes of the Philistines, and into the handes of the children of Ammon.

8 Which from that yeere forth, vexed and oppressed the children of Israel eighteene yeres, c all that were on the other side Iordane, in the land of the Amorites, which is in Gilead.

c That is, the Rubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manasses.

9 Moreouer, the children of Ammon went ouer Iordane, to fight against Iuda, Beniamin, and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was sore cumbred.

10 And the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lorde, saying, We haue sinned against thee, for we haue forsaken our owne God, and haue serued Baalim.

d By stirring them vp some Prophete, as Chap. 6.

11 And the Lorde d sayde vnto the children of Israel, Did not I rid you from the Egyptians, and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Sidonites also, & the Amalekites, and the Maonites did oppresse you, and ye cryed to me, & I deliuered you out of their handes.

13 And for all that ye haue forsaken mee, and serued strãge gods: wherfore I wil helpe you no more.

14 Goe, and cry vnto the gods which ye haue chosen, and let them saue you in the time of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel sayde vnto the Lord, We haue sinned, do thou vnto vs whatsoeuer pleaseth thee, deliuer vs onely, we pray thee, e this day.

e That is, from this present danger.

16 And they put away the strange gods from them, and serued the Lorde: and his soule had pitie on the miserie of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon gathered together, and pitched in Gilead: and the children of Israel gathered them together, and pitched in Mispah.

Iud. 11, 6.

18 *And the people and lordes of Gilead sayde eche to other, Whosoeuer will begin the battel against the children of Ammon, the same shalbe head ouer al the inhabitants of Gilead.

The xi. Chapter.

2 Iephthah being chased away by his brethren, was after made captaine ouer Israel. 30 He maketh a rash vowe. 32 He vanquisheth the Ammonites, 39 and sacrificeth his daughter according to his vowe.

1 AND there was one Iephthah a Gileadite, a strong man, the sonne of an ‖ harlot.

‖Or, vitayler.

And Gilead begate Iephthah: and 2 Gileads wife bare him sonnes, which when they were come to age, thrust out Iephthah, and sayd vnto him, Thou shalt not inherite in our fathers house, for thou art the sonne of a a strange woman.

a Neuer receiued to the priuiledge of a wife.

3 Then Iephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the lande of b Tob: & there gathered idle men to Iephthah, & c went out with him.

b That was the name of the owner of the land.

c To make inuasions vpõ the enemies of the people of God, & to line of the spoyles.

4 And in processe of time, the children of Ammon made warre against Israel.

5 And when the children of Ammon fought thus against Israel, ỹ elders of Gilead went to fetche Iephthah out of the land of Tob,

6 And sayd vnto him, Come, and d be our captaine, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

d God can bring the caste away to haue rule ouer his oppressors: let no man therefore exalt him selfe, & despise any man of Gods creation

7 Iephthah answered the Elders of Gilead, Did not ye hate me, and expell mee out of my fathers house? howe then come you vnto mee now in time of your tribulation?

8 And the elders of Gilead sayde vnto Iephthah, Therefore we turne againe to thee now, that thou mayest goe with vs, & fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head ouer all the inhabitants of Gilead.

9 And Iephthah sayde vnto the elders of Gilead, If ye bring mee home againe to fight against the childrẽ of Ammon, then if the Lord deliuer them before me, shal I be your head?

10 And the elders of Gilead sayd to Iephthah, The Lord be ‡ witnesse betweene vs, if we do not according to thy wordes.

‡ Heb. be the hearer.

11 Then Iephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and the people made him head & captaine ouer them: and Iephthah rehearsed all his wordes before the Lord in Mispah.

12 And Iephthah sent messengers vnto ỹ king of the children of Ammon, saying, What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me to fight in my land?

13 The king of the children of Ammon answered vnto the messengers of Iephthah, * Because Israel tooke away my lande when they came out of Egypt, euen from Arnon vnto Iabok, & vnto Iordane: now therefore restore those landes againe ‡ with faire meanes.

Num. 21, 13.

‡ Heb. In peace.

14 And Iephthah sent messengers againe vnto the king of the children of Ammon:

15 And sayde vnto him, Thus sayth Iephthah, Israel tooke not away the land of Moab, nor the lande of the children of Ammon:

16 But when Israel came vp from Egypt, and walked through the wildernesse vnto the red sea, they came to Cades:

17 *And Israel sent messengers vnto the king of Edom, saying, Let mee, I pray thee, goe through thy lande. But the king of Edom woulde not agree thereto: And in like maner they sent vnto the king of Moab, but he would not consent: And Israel abode still in Cades.

Num. 20, 14.

18 And then they went along through the wildernesse, & compassed the land of Edom, & the land of Moab, & came along by the Eastside of ỹ land of Moab, & pitched on the other side of Arnon, * & would not come within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

Num. 21, 13.

19 And then Israel sent messengers vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, & king of Hesbon, and sayd vnto him, Let vs passe, we pray thee, through thy land, vnto our owne country.

20 But

20 But Sehon consented not to Israel, that he shoulde goe thorowe his coast: but gathered al his people together, and pitched in Jasa, and fought with Israel.
21 And the Lorde God of Israel deliuered Se-hon and all his folke into the hands of Israel, Deut.2,36. * and they smote them: so Israel smote them, and possessed all the land of the Amorites, the inhabitants of that countrey.
22 And they possessed all the coastes of the A-morites, from Arnon vnto Jabok, and from the wildernesse vnto Jordane.
23 So nowe seeing the Lorde God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, shouldest thou possesse it?
24 Nay, but what people Camos thy god driueth out, ye lande possesse thou: Euen so, what-e Ye woulde thinke that you had good right to that land, that you beleeued your bayne god shoulde giue you: howe much more haue we good right to that land, that the true liuing lord our God hath giuen vs? soeuer nation e the Lord our God expelleth before vs, that land ought we to enioy.
25 And art thou better then Balac the sonne of Zephor king of Moab? Did he not striue with Israel, and fight against them, 26 All the while Israel dwelt in Hesbon, and her townes, in Aroer, and her townes, and in al the cities that be along by the coasts of Ar-non, three hundred yeeres? Why did yee not recouer them in all that space?
27 Wherefore, I haue not sinned against thee, but thou doest me wrong to warre against me:
the Lord therefore which is a iudge, be iudge this day betweene the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon.
28 Howbeit, the king of the childre of Ammon hearkened not vnto the wordes of Iephthah which he sent him.
f Enduing him with strength, might, corage, and warlike power. 29 Then f the Spirite of the Lorde came vp-on Iephthah, and he passed ouer to Gilead, and to Manasses, and came to Mispah, that lieth in Gilead, and from thence vnto the children of Ammon.
g As the apostle commendeth Iephthah for his worthy enterprise in deliuering ye people, Heb. 11. 32. so by his rash vowe & wicked performance of the same, his victory was defaced: & so it may appeare, ye the sinnes of the godly doe not vtterly extinguish their faith. 30 And Iephthah g vowed a vowe vnto ye Lord, and sayd, If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammon into my handes, 31 Then that thing that commeth out of the doores of my house against me, when I come in peace from the children of Ammon, shall be the Lordes, and I will offer it vp for a whole burnt offering.
32 And so Iephthah went vnto the children of Ammon, to fight against them, and the Lorde deliuered them into his hands.
33 And hee smote them from Aroer, till thou come to Minnith, euen twentie cities, and so forth to the plaine of the vineyardes, with an exceeding great slaughter: and thus the children of Ammon were brought vnder before the children of Israel.
34 When Iephthah came to Mispah vnto his house, see, his daughter came out against him with h tymbrels and daunces, which was h According, to the maner after the victory. his onely childe: so that beside her, he had neither sonne nor daughter.
35 And when he sawe her, he i rent his clothes, i The common behauiour of such as doe sorrow or mourne for any. and sayde, Alas, my daughter, thou hast brought me lowe, and art one of them that troubleth mee: for I haue opened my mouth vnto the Lord, and can not go backe.
36 And shee sayde vnto him, My father, if thou haue opened thy mouth vnto the Lorde, then do with me according to it that proceeded out of thy mouth: for as much as the Lorde hath auenged thee of thine enemies the children of Ammon.
37 And she said vnto her father, Do thus much for mee: Let mee alone two moneths, that I may k goe to the mountaines and bewaile my virginitie, I, and my fellowes.
k For it was counted as a shame in Israel to die without children. 38 And he sayd, Go. And he sent her away two moneths, and so shee went with her companions, and lamented her maidenhead vpon the mountaines.
39 And after the ende of two moneths, she turned againe vnto her father, which dyd with her according to his vowe which he had vowed, and shee had knowen no man: and it grewe to a custome in Israel.
40 The daughters of Israel came yere by yere, to lament the daughter of Iephthah the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yere.

The xii. Chapter.

6 Iephthah killeth two & fourtie thousand Ephraimites.
8 After Iephthah succedeth Ibzan, 11 Elon, 13 and Abdon.

1 AND the men of Ephraim gathered the selues together, and went a Northward, & sayde vnto Iephthah, Wherefore wentest thou to fight b against the children of Ammon, and diddest not call vs to go with thee? We will therefore burne thine house vpon thee with fire.
a After they had passed Jordane.
b Thus ambition enuieth Gods worke in others, as they did also against Gedeon, Chap. 8.
2 And Iephthah sayde vnto them, I and my people were at great strife with the children of Ammon: and when I called you, ye deliue-red me not out of their hands.
3 And when I sawe that yee deliuered mee not, c I put my life in my handes, and went vpon the children of Ammon, and the Lorde deliuered them into my handes: Wherefore then are yee come vpon mee nowe, to fight against me?
c That is, I ventred my life. 4 Iephthah therefore gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with the E-phraites: and the men of Gilead smote the E-phraites, because they sayde, Yee Gileadites are but runnagates of Ephraim, among the Ephraites, and the Manassites.
5 Moreouer, the men of Gilead tooke the passages of Jordane before the Ephraites:
and when those Ephraites that were escaped, sayde, Let me goe ouer: then the men of Gilead said vnto him, Art thou an Ephraite? If he sayd, Nay:

6 Then

d Which signified an eare of corne, or the fal of waters.

6 Then said they vnto him, Then say, [d]Shibboleth. And he saide, Sibboleth: for he could not so pronounce. And then they tooke him, and slew him at the passages of Iordane: and there were ouerthrowen at that time of the Ephraites, fourtie and two thousand.

7 And Iephthah iudged Israel sixe yeeres, then died Iephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in [one of] the cities of Gilead.

8 After this man, iudged Israel one Ibzan of Bethlehem.

9 And he had thirtie sonnes and thirtie daughters, whō he sent out, & tooke in thirty daughters from abroade for his sonnes. And when e Which of some is supposed to be Booz the husband of Ruth.

Ibzan [e] had iudged Israel seuen yeeres,

10 He died, and was buried at Bethlehem.

11 After him, Elon, a Zabulonite, iudged Israel tenne yeeres.

12 And Elon the Zabulonite died, and was buried in Aialon, in the countrey of Zabulon.

13 After him, Abdon, the sonne of Hellel, a Pharathonite, iudged Israel.

‡Sonnes sonnes.

14 And he had fourtie sonnes, and thirtie ‡ nephewes, that rode on threescore and ten Asse coltes: and when Abdon the sonne of Hellel the Pharathonite, had iudged Israel eyght yeeres, 15 He died, and was buried in Pharathon in the land of Ephraim, in ỳ mount of the Amalekites.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 Israel for their wickednesse is oppressed of the Philistines. 3 The angel appeareth to Manoahs wife. 16 The Angel cōmanded him to sacrifice vnto the Lord. 24 The birth of Samson.

‡Added to commit. Iude 2, 3, 4, 6, & 10.

1 AND the children of Israel ‡ began againe to *commit wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and the Lorde deliuered them into the hands of the Philistines fourtie yeeres.

2 And there was a man in Zaraah, of ỳ kinred of Dan, named Manoah, whose wife was barren, and bare not.

Num 6.2. 1. sam. 1.11.

3 *And the angel of the Lorde appeared vnto the woman, and said vnto her, Beholde, nowe thou art barren, and beareste not: but thou shalt conceiue and beare a sonne.

4 And now therefore beware that thou drinke no wine, nor strong drinke, neither eate any vncleane thing:

5 For loe, thou shalt conceiue & beare a sonne, and there may no rasor come on his head, for the lad shalbe [a] a Nazarite vnto God from his birth: and he shall begin to saue Israel out of the hands of the Philistines.

a Meaning, he shoulde haue a peculiar calling to serue God in, separate from the common order of men.

6 Then the wife came, and tolde her husband, saying, A man of God came vnto me, and the fashion of him was like the fashion of an Angel of God, exceeding ‖fearefull: but I asked him not whence he was, neither tolde hee me his name:

‖Or, wonderfull.

7 But sayde vnto me, Beholde, thou shalt bee with childe, and beare a sonne, and nowe drinke no wine nor strong drinke, neyther eate any vncleane thing: for the lad shall bee a Nazarite to God from his birth, to the day of his death.

8 Then Manoah made intercession to ỳ Lord, and saide, I pray thee my Lord, let the man of God which thou sendedst, come againe vnto vs, and teach vs what we shall do vnto the lad when he is borne.

9 And God heard the voyce of Manoah, and the angel of God came againe vnto the wife as she sate in the fielde: But Manoah her husband was not with her.

10 And the wife made haste, and ranne and shewed her husband, and said vnto him, Behold, the man appeared vnto mee, that came vnto me [b] to day.

b It seemeth that the angel appeared twise in one day.

11 And Manoah arose, and went after his wife, and came to the [c] man, and sayde vnto him, Art thou the man that spakest vnto the woman? And he saide, I am.

c Whom he thought to be a man, but was in deede an angel.

12 Manoah sayd, Nowe let thy saying come to passe: Howe shall we order the childe, and doe vnto him?

13 And the angel of the Lord said vnto Manoah, The woman must abstaine from all that I sayd vnto her:

14 Shee may eate of nothing that commeth of the vine tree, nor drink wine or strong drinke, nor eate any [d] vncleane thing: but must obserue all that I bade her.

d That is, any thing that is forbidden by the lawe.

15 Manoah saide vnto the angel of the Lord, I pray thee, let vs reteine thee, vntill wee haue made ready a kyd before thee.

16 And the angel of the Lord said vnto Manoah, Though thou make me abide, I will not eate of thy bread: & if thou wilt offer a whole burnt offering, thou must offer it vnto the [e] Lorde: For Manoah wist not that it was an angel of the Lord.

e He sheweth that he sought not his owne honour, but the honour of God, whose messenger he was.

17 And Manoah sayde againe vnto the angel of the Lorde, What is thy name, that when thy saying is come to passe, we may doe thee worship?

18 And the angel of the Lorde sayde vnto him, Why askest thou thus after my name, which is ‖secrete?

‖Or, wonderfull

19 And so Manoah tooke a kid, with a meate offering, and offered it vpon a rocke vnto the Lord: and the [angel] did ‖ wonderously, Manoah and his wife looking vpon.

‖Or, marueilous

20 [f] And when the flame came vp towarde heauen from the altar, the angel of the Lorde ascended vp in the flame of the altar: and Manoah and his wife looked vpon it, and fell on their faces to the ground.

f For God sent fire from heauen to cōsume their sacrifice, to confirme their faith in his promise.

21 (But the angel of the Lord did no more appeare vnto Manoah and his wife:) and then Manoah knewe that it was an angel of the Lorde, Loꝛde,

22 And ſaid vnto his wife, We ſhall ſurely die, becauſe we haue ſeene God.
23 But his wife ſayde vnto him, If the Loꝛde woulde kill vs, he woulde not haue ſ receiued a whole burnt offering, and a meate offering of our handes, neyther would he haue ſhewed vs all theſe thinges, noꝛ woulde nowe haue tolde vs any ſuch.
24 And the wife bare a ſonne, and called his name Samſon: and the lad grewe, and the Loꝛd bleſſed him.
25 And the ſpirit of the Loꝛd began to ‖ ſtrengthen him in the hoſt of Dan, betweene Zaraah and Eſthaol.

ſ These graces that we haue receiued of God, and his accepting of our obedience, are ſure tokens of his loue towarꝺ vs, ſo ꝓ nothing can hurt vs.

‖ Or, to come vpon him at times.

The xiiii. Chapter.

2 Samſon deſireth to haue a wife of the Philiſtines. 6 He killeth a Lion. 12 He propoundeth a riddle. 19 He killeth thirtie. 20 His wife forſaketh him, and taketh another.

1 SAmſon went doꝛwne to Thamnah, and ſawe a woman in Thamnah, of ꝯ daughteꝛs of the Philiſtines:
2 And he came vp, and tolde his father & his mother, and ſayde, I haue ſeene a woman in Thamnah, of the daughteꝛs of the Philiſtines: and nowe ‡ giue me heꝛ to wife.
3 Then his father and mother ſayd vnto him, a Is there neuer a woman among the daughteꝛs of thy bꝛethꝛen, and among all my people, but that thou muſt goe and take a wife of the vncircumciſed Philiſtines? And Samſon ſaide vnto his father, Giue mee this woman, foꝛ ſhe pleaſeth me well.
4 But his father and mother b wiſt not that it was the Loꝛdes doing, and that hee ſought an occaſion againſt the Philiſtines: foꝛ at that time the Philiſtines reigned ouer Iſrael.
5 Then went Samſon, and his father, and his mother, doꝛwne to Thamnah, and came to the vineyardes of Thamnah: and beholde, a yong Lion roared vpon him.
6 And the ſpirite of the Loꝛde c came vpon him, and he tare him, as hee woulde haue rent a Kid, and yet had nothing in his hande: neyther tolde his father and mother what he had done.
7 And hee went doꝛwne, and talked with the woman, which ſeemed welfauoured in ꝯ ſight of Samſon.
8 And within a ſhoꝛt ſpace after, as hee went thither againe to take heꝛ to wife, hee turned out of the way to ſee the carkeiſe of the Lion: and behold, there was a ſwarme of Bees and hony in the carkeiſe of the Lion.
9 And he tooke thereof in his hands, and went eating, and came to his father and mother, and gaue them alſo, and they did eate: but hee tolde not them that he had taken the hony out of the carkeiſe of the Lion.

‡ Take her for me to wife.

a They ſpeake in defence of Gods lawe that foꝛbiddeth mariage with ſtrangers, Deut. 7.

b At the firſt: but is like they had vnderſtanding of Gods will afoꝛe they did conſent.

c Whereby he had ſtrength & boldneſſe.

10 And ſo his father went doꝛwne vnto the woman, and Samſon made there a d feaſt: foꝛ ſo vſed the yong men to doe.
11 And when they ſaw him, they bought thirtie companions to be with him.
12 And Samſon ſaide vnto them, I will nowe put foꝛth a riddle vnto you, and if you can declare it me within ſeuen daies of the feaſt, and finde it out, I will giue you thirtie e ſheetes, and thirtie change of garments:
13 But & if you can not declare it me, then ſhal ye giue me thirtie ſheetes, and thirtie change of f garments. And they anſwered him, Put foꝛth thy riddle, that we may heare it.
14 And he ſaid vnto thē, Out of the eater came meate, and out of the ſtrong came ſweetenes. And they coulde not in thꝛee dayes expounde the riddle.
15 And when the g ſeuenth day was come, they ſaide vnto Samſons wife, Entice thine huſbande, that he may declare vs the riddle, leaſt wee burne thee and thy fathers houſe with fire: Haue yee called vs hyther, to make vs beggers? is it not ſo?
16 And Samſons wife wept beforꝺ him, and ſayde, Surely thou hateſt mee, and loueſt me not: foꝛ thou haſt put foꝛth a riddle vnto the children of my folke, and haſt not tolde it me. And hee ſayde vnto heꝛ, Beholde, I haue not tolde it my father and my mother, and ſhall I tell it thee?
17 And Samſons wife wept beforꝺ him ſeuen dayes while the feaſt laſted: and the ſeuenth day hee tolde heꝛ, becauſe ſhe lay ſo ſoꝛe vpon him: and ſhe tolde the riddle to the children of heꝛ folke.
18 And the men of the citie ſayde vnto him the ſeuenth day beforꝺe the Sunne went doꝛwne, What is ſweeter then hony? and what is ſtronger then a Lion? Then ſayde hee vnto them, If ye had not plowed with my h heyffer, ye had not found out my riddle.
19 And the ſpirit of the Loꝛde came vpon him, and hee went doꝛwne to i Aſcalon, and ſlewe thirtie men of them, and ſpoyled them, & gaue change of garments vnto thē which expounded the riddle: and he was wroth, and went vp to his fathers houſe.
20 But Samſons wife was giuen to one of his companions that he had taken vnto him.

d At his mariage.

The xv. Chapter.

4 Samſon tyeth firebrandes to the foxes tayles. 6 The Philiſtines burnt his father in lawe and his wife. 19 Out of a great tooth in the iawe, God giueth him water.

1 BUt within a while after, in the time of wheate harueſt, Samſon viſited his wife with a Kid, ſaying, I wil a go in to my wife into the chamber. But her father would not ſuffer him to goe in.
2 And her father ſayde, I thought that thou haddeſt a That is, I will vſe her as my wife.

hadest hated her, and therefore gaue I her to thy companion: is not her yonger sister fayrer then she? Take her, I pray thee, in steade of the other.

3 Samson saide vnto him, Nowe am I more [b] blameles then the Philistines, and therfore I will doe them displeasure.

b By reason of this iniurie.

4 And Samson went out, and caught three hundred foxes, and tooke firebrands, and turned them tayle to tayle, and put a firebrand in the middes betweene two tayles.

5 And when hee had set the brandes on fire, he sent them out into the standing corne of the Philistines, & burnt vp both the reaped corne, and also the standing, with the vineyardes and Oliues.

6 Then the Philistines sayde, Who hath done this? and they answered, Samson the sonne in law of the Thamnite, because he had taken his wife, and giuen her to his companion. And the Philistines came vp, & [c] burnt her and her father with fire.

c This correction & punishment was not vsed in time, & nowe is done to be reuenged for their corne, and not for executing of iustice.

7 And Samson sayde vnto them, Though ye haue done this, yet will I bee auenged of you, and then I will cease.

8 And hee smote them ‖ legge and thigh with a mightie plague, and thē he went and dwelt in the top of the rocke Etam.

‖ Or, horsemen, and footemen.

9 Then the Philistines came vp, and pitched in Iuda, and camped in Lehi.

10 And the men of Iuda saide, Why are yee come vp vnto vs? They answered, To binde Samson are we come vp, and to doe to him, as he hath done to vs.

11 Then three thousand men of Iuda went to the top of the rocke Etam, and sayd to Samson, Wotest thou not that the Philistines are rulers ouer vs? Wherefore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? Hee answered them, As they did vnto me, so haue I done vnto them.

12 And they saide vnto him againe, Wee are come to binde thee, and to deliuer thee into the hande of the Philistines. And Samson sayde vnto them, Sweare vnto mee, that yee shall not fall vpon me your selues.

13 They answered him, saying, No: but wee will binde thee, and [d] deliuer thee vnto their handes: but wee will not kill thee. And they bound him with two newe cordes, & brought him from the rocke.

d Whom God had appointed to be their deliuerer from ỹ yoke of the Philistines.

14 And when he came to Lehi, the Philistines shouted against him: and the spirite of the Lord came vpon him, and the cordes that were vpon his armes became as flaxe that was burnt with fire, for the bandes loosed from off his hands.

15 And he found a [e] newe iawe bone of an Asse, and put forth his hand, and caught it, and slue a thousand men therewith.

e That is, of an Asse lately dead.

16 And Samson sayde, With the iawe of an Asse, heapes vpon heapes, with the iawe of an Asse haue I slayne a thousande men.

17 And wen he had left speaking, he cast away the iawe bone out of his hande, and called the place [f] Ramath Lehi.

f That is, the lifting vp of the iawe.

18 And he was sore a thirst, and [g] called on the Lorde, and sayde, Thou hast giuen this great victory into the hand of thy seruant: and now I must die for thirst, and fall into the handes of the vncircumcised.

g Whereby it appeareth that hee did these things in faith, Heb. 11. and so with a true zeale to glorifie God, and deliuer his countrey.

19 But God brake a great tooth that was in the iawe, and there came water thereout, and when he had dronke, his spirite came againe, and hee was refreshed: wherefore the name thereof was called vnto this day, The well of the caller on: which came of the iawe.

20 And he iudged Israel in the dayes of ỹ Philistines, twentie yeres.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 Samson carieth away the gates of Azzah. 18 He was deceiued by Dalila. 33 He pulleth downe the house vpon the Philistines, and dieth with them.

1 THen went Samson to Azzah, and sawe there an ‖ harlot, and went in vnto her.

‖ Or, victualer.

2 And it was tolde the Azzathites, saying, Samson is come hither. And they went about, and layde wayte for him there all night in the gate of the citie, and were still all the night, saying, In the morning whē it is day, we shall kill him.

3 And Samson tooke his rest till midnight, and arose at midnight, and tooke the doores of the gate of the citie, and the two postes, and rent them off, with the barre and all, and put them vpon his shoulders, and caried them vp to the top of an hill that is before Hebron.

4 And after this, he loued a woman by the ‖ riuer of Sorek, whose name was Dalila.

‖ Or, playne.

5 Unto whome came the lordes of the Philistines, and sayde vnto her, [a] Perswade him, and see wherein his great strength lyeth, and by what meanes we may ouercome him, that we may binde him, and punish him: and euery one of vs shall giue thee eleuen hundred siluerlings.

a Entice him by fayre meanes to tell wherein his strength consisteth.

6 And Dalila sayde to Samson, Oh tell mee where thy great strength lieth, and how thou mightest be bound, and brought vnder.

7 Samson answered vnto her, If they binde me with seuen greene withs that were neuer dryed, I shall be weake, and be as an other man.

8 And then ỹ lords of the Philistines brought her seuen withs that were yet greene, and neuer dried, and she bound him therewith.

9 (Notwithstanding, shee had men lying in waite with her in the chamber:) and she saide vnto him, The Philistines bee vpon thee, Samson. And immediately he brake ỹ cordes, as a string of towe breaketh when it feeleth the fire: and so his strength was not knowen.

10 And

10 And Dalila saide vnto Samson, See, thou hast mocked me, & told me lies: now therefore b Though her falsehood tended to make him lose his life, yet his affection so blinded him, that he could not beware.
b tell me wherewith thou mightest be bound.
11 He answered her, If they binde me with new ropes ẏ neuer were occupied, I shalbe weake, and be as another man.
12 Dalila therefore tooke newe ropes, and bounde him therewith, and sayde vnto him, The Philistines be vpō thee, Samson, (And there were liers in waite in the chamber.) And hee brake them from his armes, as they had bene but a threade.
13 And Dalila sayde vnto Samson, Hitherto thou hast beguiled me, and tolde mee lies: yet tell me howe thou mightest be bound. He said vnto her, If thou plattest the seuen lockes of my head with the threades of the wooffe.
14 And shee fastened it with a pinne, and sayde vnto him, The Philistines bee vpon thee, Samson. And hee awaked out of his sleepe, and went away with the pinne of the web, and the wooffe.
15 And she sayde vnto him againe, Howe canst thou say, I loue thee, when thine heart is not with mee? Thou hast mocked me these three times, & hast not tolde me wherein thy great strength lyeth.
16 And as shee lay vpon him with her woordes, continually vexing of him, his soule was encumbred euen vnto the death.
17 And so he tolde her all his heart, and sayde vnto her, There neuer came rasor vpon mine head, for I haue bene a Nazarite vnto God from my mothers wombe: therefore when I am shauen, my strength will go from me, and I shall waxe weake, and be like all [other] men.
18 And when Dalila sawe that hee had tolde her all his heart, shee sent and called for the lordes of the Philistines, saying, Come vp yet this once, for hee hath shewed me all his heart. Then the lordes of the Philistines came vp vnto her, and brought the money in their hands.
19 And she made him sleepe vpon her knees, & shee sent for a man, and he did shaue off the seuen lockes of his head, & began to vexe him, and his strength c was gone from him.
c Not for the losse of his heare, but for the contempt of the ordinace of God.
20 And she said, The Philistines be vpon thee, Samson. And he awoke out of his sleepe, and sayde, I will goe out nowe as at other times before, & shake my selfe. And he wist not that the Lord was departed from him.
21 But the Philistines tooke him, and put out his eyes, and brought him downe to Azzah, & bound him with fetters of brasse, and hee did grinde in the prison house.
d And so did his strength vp his repentance, prayer, and reconciliation to God.
22 Howbeit, the heare of his head beganne d to growe againe after that he was shauen.
23 Then the lordes of the Philistines gathered them together, for to offer a solemne offering vnto Dagon their god, & to reioyce: for they sayde, Our God hath deliuered Samson our enemie into our hands.
24 And when the people sawe him, they praysed their god: for they sayde, Our god hath deliuered into our handes our enemie, and destroyer of our countrey, which slewe many of vs.
25 And when their hearts were mery, they said, Sende for Samson, that hee may make vs ‖ laugh. And they fet Samson out of the prison house, and he played before them, and they set him betweene the pillars.
‖ Or, pastime.
26 And Samson said vnto the lad that led him by the hand, Set me that I may touch the pillars that the house standeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.
27 And the house was full of men and women, and there were all ẏ lordes of the Philistines: and there were vpon the roofe a three thousande men and women, that beheld while Samson ‖ played.
‖ Or, was mocked
28 And Samson called vnto the Lord, and said, O Lorde God, I pray thee; thinke vpon me, and strengthē me, I beseech thee, at this time onely, O God, that I may ‡ be at once auenged of the Philistines for my two eyes.
‡ Take one vengeance.
29 And Samson caught ẏ two middle pillars on which the house stood, and on which it was borne vp, the one in his right hande, and the other in his left.
30 And Samson sayd, My e soule shall die with the Philistines, and bowed him with all his might, and the house fell vpon the lordes, and vpon all the people that were therein: and so the dead which he slew at his death, were moe then they which he slewe in his life.
e He speaketh this not of any despaire: but of a feruent zeale he had to reuenge Gods enemies.
31 And then his brethren, and all the house of his father, came downe, and tooke him vp, and brought him, and buried him betweene Zarah and Eshaol, in the burying place of Manoah his father: and hee iudged Israel twentie yeeres.

The xvii. Chapter.

3 Micahs mother, according to her vow, made her sonne two idoles.

1 THere was a man of mount Ephraim, named Micah.
2 And hee sayde vnto his mother, The eleuen hundred ‖ siluerlings that were taken from thee; about which thou cursedst, and spakest it in mine eares, behold, the siluer is with me, I tooke it away. And his mother sayd, Blessed be thou, my sonne, in the Lord.
‖ Or, scles of siluer.
3 And when hee had restored the eleuen hundred siluerlinges to his mother, his mother sayde, I had dedicated the siluer vnto the Lorde of mine hande, for thee, my sonne, that thou shouldest make a grauen and moulten f image: nowe therefore I will giue it thee againe.
f Contrary to the commandement of God, and true religion.

4 And

4 And when hee restored the money vnto his mother, his mother tooke two hundred siluerlings, and gaue them to the ‖ Founder, which made thereof a grauen and moulten image, and it was in the house of Micah.

‖ Or, image maker.

5 And the man Micah had a gods house, and made an [b] Ephod, and [c] Theraphim, and ‡ cõsecrated one of his sonnes, which became his Priest.

b Properlye it is the vpper lynen garment of the Priestes, albeit, in this place, by the Ephod is ment all kinde of garments belonging to a Priest.

c It is thought to be an image made to the shape & figure of a man, & also to signifie all other instrumẽts belõging to their false religion.

‡ Filled the hande.

6 In those daies there was no king in Israel, but euery man did that which was good in his owne eyes.

7 And there was a yong man out of Bethlehem Juda, of the kinred of Juda, which yong man was a Leuite, and soiourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the citie of Bethlehem Juda, to go dwell where he could finde [a conuenient place:] and hee came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, as he iourneyed.

9 And Micah saide vnto him, Whence commest thou? The Leuite answered him, I am of Bethlehem Juda, and goe to dwell where I may finde [a place.]

10 And Micah sayde againe vnto him, Dwell with me, and bee vnto me a father & a Priest, and I will giue thee ten siluerlings by yeere, two garments, and thy meate and drinke. So the Leuite went in.

d For the deuyls sake altogether against Gods lawe.

11 And the Leuite was [d] content to dwell with the man, & was vnto him as one of his owne sonnes.

e When men in religion wander beside gods worde, they think they please god, when in deede they offend him most grieuously.

12 And Micah consecrated the Leuite, and the yong man became his Priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then said Micah, Nowe I am sure that the Lord will be [e] good vnto mee, seeing I haue a Leuite to my Priest.

The xviii. Chapter.

2 The children of Dan sende men to searche the lande. 11 Then come the sixe hundred and take the goddes and the Priest of Micah away. 27 They destroy Lais.

a So that it was no marueil that religion was corrupt, and all thinges out of order, seeing there was no magistrate to punish offenders.

1 IN those dayes there was [a] no king in Israel, and in those dayes the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritance to dwell in: for vnto that time al their inheritance had not fallen vnto them among the tribes of Israel.

2 And the childrẽ of Dan sent of their kinred, fiue actiue men in feates of warre, out of their coastes, euen out of Zaraah, and Esthaol, to viewe the land, and search it out, and sayde vnto them, Goe, and search out ỹ land. Which when they came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

b That is, they knewe him by his speach.

3 And when they were in the house of Micah, they knewe [b] the voyce of the yong man the Leuite: and when they turned in thither, they sayde vnto him, Who brought thee hither? What makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he answered them, Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hyred mee, and I am become his Priest.

5 And they sayde vnto him againe, Aske counsell nowe of God, that wee may knowe whither the way which we goe, shall bee prosperous, or no.

6 And the Priest sayde vnto them, [c] Goe in peace, for the Lorde guideth your way which ye goe.

c Thus God will send to such as loue not the trueth, strong delusiõ, whereby they are confirmed in their errour, to their destruction.

7 Then the fiue men departed, and came to Lais, and sawe the people that were therein, howe they dwelt careless, after the maner of the Sidons, still, and without casting of perils, and that no man ‡ made any trouble in the lande, or vsurped any dominion: but were farre from the Sidons, and had no businesse with other men.

‡ Made them ashamed.

8 And they came againe vnto their brethren, to Zaraah, and Esthaol, and their brethrẽ saide vnto them, What haue ye done?

9 And they answered, Arise, that we may goe vp against them: for we haue seene the lande, surely a very good one: and doe ye sit still? Be not slouthfull to goe and enter, to possesse the lande.

10 If ye will goe, yee shall come vnto a people that casteth no perils, and it is a very large countrey, which God hath giuen into your hands, it is also a place which doeth lacke nothing that is in the world.

11 And there departed thence of the kinred of the Danites, out of Zaraah, and Esthaol, sixe hundred men, appointed with instruments of warre.

12 And they went vp, and pitched in Kiriath-iarim, which is in Juda: Wherefore they called the place ‖ Mahaneh-dan, vnto this day, & it is on the backeside of Kiriath-iarim.

‖ Or, the tentes of Dan.

13 And they went thence vnto mount Ephraim, and came vnto the house of Micah.

14 Then answered the fiue men that went to spie out the countrey of Lais, and sayde vnto their brethren, Wote yee not that there is in these houses an Ephod, Theraphim, and a grauen and a molten image? Nowe therefore, [d] consider what ye haue to doe.

d For it were expedient that we should take them away to our owne vse.

15 And they turned thitherwarde, and came to the house of the yong man the Leuite, euen vnto the house of Micah, & saluted him peaceably.

16 And the sixe hundred men girded with weapons of warre, which were of the children of Dan, stood by the entring of the gate.

17 And the fiue men that went to spie out the lande, went in thither, and [e] tooke the grauen image, and the Ephod, Theraphim, and the molten image: (and the Priest stoode in the entring of the gate, with the sixe hundred men that were appointed with weapons of warre,) e Such is their blindnesse, that they beleeue that these idols which by robberye and violence they take away, may helpe them.

18 While

18 While the other went into Micahs house, and set the carued image, the Ephod, Theraphim, and the moulten image: then sayde the Priest vnto them, What doe ye?

19 They answered him, Holde thy peace, lay thine hande vpon thy mouth, and come with vs to be our father and Priest: Is it better for thee to be a priest vnto the house of one man, then to be a Priest vnto a tribe or kinred in Israel?

f For he regarded neither Gods honour, nor his owne honestie: but all his care was for his liuing and promotion.

20 And the Priestes heart f was glad, and tooke the Ephod, and Theraphim, and the grauen image, and went g in the middest of the people.

g With his idols, imitating the maner of the cariage of the arke of the Lord.

21 And they turned, and departed, and put the children, the cattell, and their other substance before them.

22 And when they were a good way from the house of Micah, the men that were in the houses neare to Micahs house, gathered together, and followed after the children of Dan, 23 And called vnto them: and they turned their faces, & saide vnto Micah, What ayleth thee, that thou makest an outcrye?

24 And hee sayde, Yee haue taken away my goddes which I made, and also the Priest, and go your wayes: and h what haue I more? Howe then saye yee vnto mee, What ayleth thee?

h The idolater may loose his god and ioy: but the worshipper of the true liuing God can neuer be so serued.

25 And the children of Dan sayde vnto him, Let not thy voyce bee heard among vs, least ‡ angrie fellowes runne vpon thee, and thou loose thy life, with the liues of all thine household.

‡ Who haue their hearts bitter.

26 And the children of Dan went their way: & whē Micah saw that they were too strong for him, he turned, & went backe vnto his house.

i Meaning idols, with that appertaineth to the same.

27 And they tooke the i thinges which Micah had made, and the Priest which he had, and came vnto Lais, vnto a people that were at rest, and without mistrust, and smote them with the edge of the sworde, and burnt the citie with fire.

‖ Or, deliuer thē.

28 And there was no man to ‖ helpe, because k Lais was farre from Sidon, and they had no medling with any other man: and it was in the valley that lyeth by Bethrehob.

k Which afterward was called Cæsarea Philippi.

Ios. 19. 47.

29 * And they builte them there a citie, & dwelt therein, and called it Dan, after the name of Dan their father, which was borne vnto Israel: how be it, the name of the citie was Lais at the beginning.

30 And the children of Dan set them vp the grauen image: and Jonathan the sonne of Gersom, the sonne of Manasses, & his sonnes, were the Priestes in the tribe of Dan, vntill the day of the l captiuitie of the land.

l That is, till the arke was taken by the Philistines, 1. Sam. 5.

31 And they set thē vp the carued image, which Micah made, all the while that the house of God was in Silo.

The xix. Chapter.

1 Of the Leuite whose wife was villanously killed in Gibea. 29 The Leuite cutteth her in twelue pieces, and sendeth them to the twelue tribes.

1 ALso in those dayes, when there was no king in Israel, a certaine Leuite sojourning on the side of mount Ephraim, tooke to wife a a concubine out of Bethlehem Juda:

a This difference was betwixt the wife and the concubine, that the wife was take with certaine solemnities of marriage, & her children did inherite. The cōcubine had no solemnities in marriage, neither dyd her children inherite, but a portion of goods or money was giuen them.

2 And his concubine played ‡ whoore by him, and went away from him vnto her fathers house to Bethlehem Juda, and there continued foure moneths.

‡ To her heart.

3 And her husbande arose, and went after her, to speake ‡ friendly vnto her, and to bring her againe, hauing his lad with him, and a couple of Asses: and shee brought him vnto her fathers house, and when the father of the damsell sawe him, hee reioyced of his comming.

4 And his father in lawe, the damsels father, reteined him, and hee abode with him three dayes: and so they did eate and drinke, and lodged there.

5 The fourth day, when they arose earely in the morning, the man stood vp to depart: and ‡ damsels father sayde vnto his sonne in lawe, ‖ Comfort thine heart with a morsel of bread, and then goe your way.

‖ Or, strengthen.

6 And they sate downe, and did eate and drinke both of them together: and the damsels father sayde vnto the man, Be content, I pray thee, and tary all night, and let thine heart be mery.

7 And when the man stoode ready to depart, his father in lawe ‖ compelled him: therefore he returned, and taried all night there.

‖ Or, was earnest vpon him.

8 And he rose vp early the fifth day to depart, and the damsels father sayde, Comfort thine b heart, I pray thee. And they taried vntill after midday: and they did eate both of them together.

b Meaning, that he should eate and drink, and so refresh himselfe.

9 And when the man arose to depart with his concubine, and his lad, his father in lawe, the damsels father, sayd vnto him, Beholde, nowe the day goeth fast away, and ‡ draweth towarde Euen, I pray you tary all night: beholde, ‖ the Sunne goeth to rest, lodge here, that thine heart may be mery: and to morowe get you early vpon your way, that thou mayest get thee to thy c tent.

‡ Is weake.

‖ Or, the day lodgeth.

c That is, to thine owne where he dwelt.

10 Neuertheless, the man would not tary, but arose, and departed, and came as farre as Jebus (which is Hierusalē) and his two Asses laden, and his concubine with him.

11 And when they were fast by Jebus, the day was sore spent, and the yong man sayde vnto his master, Come, I pray thee, & let vs turne in into this citie of the Jebusites, and lodge all night there.

12 His master answered him, Wee will not turne

turne into a [d] strange citie, that are not of the childzen of Israel, we will go forth to Gibea.

13 And he said vnto his lad, Goe forwarde, and let vs drawe neere to one of these places to lodge all night, eyther in Gibea, or in Rama.

14 And they went forward vpon their way, and the Sunne went downe vpon them when they were fast by Gibea, which belongeth to them of Beniamin.

15 And they turned thitherwarde, to go in and lodge all night in Gibea: and when he came, he sate him downe in a streete of the citie, for there was no man that ‖ tooke them into his house to lodging.

16 And beholde, there came an olde man from his worke out of the field at Euen, which was also of mount Ephraim, and dwelt as a stranger in Gibea: but the men of the place were the childzen of [e] Iemini.

17 And when hee had lift vp his eyes, hee sawe a wayfaring man in the streete of the citie: & the olde man sayde, Whither goest thou? and whence commest thou?

18 He answered him, We come from Bethlehem Juda, toward the side of mount Ephraim, from thence am I: and I went to Bethlehem Juda, and goe nowe to the [f] house of the Lorde, and there is no man that receiueth me to house.

19 We haue straw & prouender for our Asses, and bread and wine for me & thy handmaide, and for the lad that is with thy seruant: and we lacke nothing.

20 The olde man sayde, ‖ Peace bee with thee, all that thou lackest, shalt thou finde with me: onely abide not in the streete [all night.]

21 And so he brought him into his house, and gaue fodder vnto the Asses: and they washed their feete, and did eate and drinke.

22 And as they were making their hearts merry, beholde, the men of the citie which were ‡ wicked, beset the house rounde about, and thrust at the doore, and spake to the man of the house, the olde man, saying, Bring foorth the man that came into thine house, that we may [g] know him.

23 And this man, the maister of the house, went out, and said vnto thē, Oh, nay my brethrē, do not so wickedly, seeing that this man is come into mine house, do not so vnmeete a thing.

24 Behold, here is my daughter a mayden, and this mans concubine, them I will bring out nowe vnto you, and [h] humble them, and doe with them what seemeth you good: but vnto this man do not so abominable a thing.

25 But the men would not hearken to him: and the man tooke his cōcubine, and brought her out vnto thē, which knewe her, & abused her all the night vnto the morning: and when the day began to spring, they let her goe.

26 And then came the woman in the dawning of the day, and fell [i] downe at the doore of the mans house where her ‖ lorde was, till it was day.

27 And her lorde arose vp in the morning, and opened the doores of the house, and went out to go his way: and behold, the woman his cōcubine laye along before ẏ doore of the house, and her hands vpon the threshold.

28 And he sayde vnto her, Vp, and let vs be going. But shee answered not: then the man tooke her vp vpon an Asse, and stood vp, and gate him vnto his [k] place.

29 And when he was come into his house, hee tooke a knife, and caught his concubine, and deuided her in pieces with the bones into twelue parts, and sent her into all quarters of Israel.

30 And all that sawe it, sayde, There was no such deede done or seene since the childzen of Israel came out of Egypt vnto this day: cōsider the matter, take aduisemēt, and say your mindes.

The xx. Chapter.

1 The Israelites assemble in Mispah, to whom the Leuite declareth his wrong. 13 They sende for them that did the villanie.

1 THen all * the childzen of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as [a] one man, euen from Dan to Beer-seba, with the lande of Gilead, vnto the Lorde in Mispah.

2 And there assembled the ‡ chiefe of all the people, [and] of all the tribes of Israel, in the congregation of the people of God, foure hundzed thousande footemen that drewe swordes.

3 (Nowe the childzen of Beniamin heard that the childzen of Israel were gone vp to Mispah.) Then [b] sayde the childzen of Israel, Tell vs howe this wickednesse is committed?

4 And the Leuite, the womans husband that was slayne, answered and sayde, I came into Gibea that is in Beniamin, with my concubine to lodge all night.

5 And the men of Gibea rose against me, and beset the house round about vpō me by night, and thought to haue slayne me: and my concubine haue they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I tooke my concubine, and cut her in pieces, and sent her throughout all the countrey of the inheritance of Israel: for they haue committed abomination and villany in Israel.

7 Beholde, yee are all childzen of Israel, giue your aduice and counsell herein.

8 And al the people arose as one man, saying, There shall not a man of vs goe to his tent, neither turne into his [c] house,

9 But this shal be it that we will do to Gibea, [we will go vp] by lot against it:

10 And

[d] In the time of Iosuah the childzen of Israel had wōne this citie: but since was recouered and inhabited by the enemies.

‖ Or, gathered them.

[e] That is, of the tribe of Beniamin.

[f] To Shiloh or Mispah, where the arke was.

‖ Or, be of good comfort.

[g] Men of Belial: that is, giuen to all wickednes.

[g] Howe horrible were these men giuē ouer to a reprobate minde, whom neither the feare of God, nor regarde of honestie or shame could refrayne from open abomination.

[h] That is, abuse them.

[i] Dead.

‖ Or, husband.

[k] Meaning, home to mount Ephraim.

* Osee. 10. 9.

[a] That is, all with one consent.

‡ Heb. corners.

[b] To the Leuite.

[c] Before we haue reuenged this wickednesse.

10 And we will take ten men of the hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, & an hundred of the thousand, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch victuall for the people, that they may doe when they come to Gibea Beniamin, according to all the abomination that they haue wrought in Israel.

11 And so all the men of Israel gathered together against the citie, knit together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men through all the tribe of Beniamin, saying, What wickednesse is this that is committed among you?

13 Nowe therefore deliuer vs the men, those children of Belial which are in Gibea, that we may slay them, and put [d] away euill from Israel.

d By punishing the wicked doers according to their deserts.

14 But the children of Beniamin would [c] not hearken vnto the voyce of their brethren the children of Israel: but the children of Beniamin gathered themselues together out of the cities, vnto Gibea, to come out and fight against the children of Israel.

e Therein making themselues guiltie of the wickednesse committed, & therefore iustly partakers of the punishment, Judg. 3. 15.

15 And the children of Beniamin were numbred at that time out of the cities, twentie and fiue thousand men that drewe swordes, beside the inhabitantes of Gibea, which were numbred seuen hundred chosen men.

16 And among all these folke, were seuen hundred chosen mē, being left handed, which euerie one could sling stones at an heare breadth, and not misse.

17 And the children of Israel beside Beniamin, were numbred foure hundred thousande men that drewe swordes, and were all men of warre.

18 And the children of Israel arose, and went vp to [f] the house of God, and asked of God, saying, [g] Which of vs shall goe vp first to the battell against the children of Beniamin? And the Lord said, Iuda shall begin.

f That is, the tabernacle wherein the arke of God was, which then was in Silo.

g They presume so much of their nūber and strength, that they aske no counsell of God for the victorie: they finde therefore ill successe thereafter.

19 And the children of Israel stoode vp earely, and camped against Gibea.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battell against Beniamin, and the men of Israel put themselues in aray to fight against them beside Gibea.

21 And the children of Beniamin came out of Gibea, and destroyed downe to the ground of the Israelites that day twenty and two thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel plucked vp their hearts, and set their battell againe in aray, in the same place where they did the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went vp, and wept before the Lord vnto Euen, and asked of the Lorde, saying, Shall we goe againe to battell against the children of Beniamin our brethren? And the Lorde saide, Goe vp against them.)

24 And the children of Israel came neare, against the children of Beniamin, the seconde day.

25 And the childrē of Beniamin went against them out of Gibea the second day, & destroyed to the earth of the children of Israel once againe eighteene thousande men, that drewe swordes euery man of them.

26 Then all the children of Israel, and all the people went vp, and came vnto the house of God, and wept, & sate there before the Lorde, and fasted the same day vnto Euen, and offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings, before the Lorde.

27 And the children of Israel asked the Lorde, (for there was the arke of the appointment of God in those dayes:

28 And Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar the sonne of Aaron [h] stoode before it at that time) saying, Shall I get me vp to goe out any more to battell against the children of Beniamin my brethren, or shall I ceasse? The Lord saide, Goe vp: for to morowe I will deliuer them into your handes.

h That is, ordred in the priests office.

29 And Israel set liers in waite rounde about Gibea.

30 And the children of Israel went vp against the children of Beniamin the third time, and put themselues in aray against Gibea, as twise before.

31 And the children of Beniamin came out against the people, and [i] were drawen away from the citie, and they began to smite of the people dead as twise before, by two high wayes in the fielde (of which one goeth vp to the house God, and the other to Gibea) vpon a thirtie men of Israel.

i By the policie of the children of Israel.

32 And the children of Beniamin saide, They are fallen before vs as at the first. But ẏ children of Israel said, Let vs flee, & plucke them away from the citie, vnto the high wayes.

33 And all the mē of Israel rose vp out of their place, and put themselues in aray at Baal Thamar: & likewise the liers in waite of Israel came forth out of their places, euen out of the medowes that were about Gibea, 34 And came against Gibea ten thousand chosen men, out of all Israel, and there was a sore battell: but [k] they wist not that [l] euil was neere them.

k To wit, the Beniamites.

l They knewe not that gods iudgemēt was at hande to destroy them.

35 And the Lorde plagued Beniamin before Israel, and the children of Israel destroyed of the Beniamites the same day twentie and fiue thousande, and an hundred men, that drewe swordes euery one of them.

36 And the children of Beniamin saw that they were stricken downe: for the men of Israel [m] gaue place to the Beniamites, because they trusted vnto the liers in waite which they had laide beside Gibea.

m Ment ẏ to draw them after.

37 And the lyers in waite hasted, & brake forth against Gibea, and the embushment ‖ drewe themselues along, and smote all the citie with the edge of the swoorde.

‖ Or, made a long sound with a trumpet.

38 And the men of Israel had appointed a certaine time with the liers in waite, that they should make a great flame [and] smoke rise vp out of the citie.

39 And when the men of Israel retired in the battell, Beniamin began [n] to smite dead of the children of Israel about thirtie persons, and said, Surely they are stricken downe before vs, as in the first battell.

n Being encouraged by the two former victories.

40 But when there began to arise out of the citie a flame, as a pillar of smoke, the Beniamites looked backe, and beholde the flame of the whole citie began to ascende vp to heauen.

41 When the men of Israel also turned [o] againe, the men of Beniamin were abashed, for they sawe that euill approched them:

o To withstand their enemies.

42 And therefore they turned their backes before the men of Israel, vnto the way that leadeth to the wildernesse, but the battell ouertooke them: and beside that, they which came out of the citie, destroyed them [p] in the middle of them.

p For they had compassed them rounde about.

43 And thus they compassed the Beniamites about, and chased them ‖ diligently, and ouerran them, euen ouer against Gibea on the East side.

‖ Or, from their rest.

44 And there were slaine of Beniamin eighteene thousande men, which were men of warre.

45 And they turned and fledde to the wildernesseward, and vnto the rocke of Rimmon: and they [q] gleaned by the way of the rest of them fiue thousand men: and pursued after them vntill they came to Gidom, and slue two thousand men of them.

q They slue them here and there, as they founde them scattered abroade.

46 So that all that were slaine that same day of Beniamin [r] were twentie and fiue thousand men that drewe swoordes, which were all men of warre.

r Besides eleuen hundred that had bene slaine in the former battailes.

47 Onely sixe hundred men turned and fled to the wildernesse vnto the rocke of Rimmon, and abode in the rocke of Rimmon foure monethes.

48 And the men of Israel turned backe againe vnto the children of Beniamin, and smote them with the edge of the swoorde in the cities, both man and beast, and all that came to hand, and set on fire all the [s] cities that they could come by.

s Of they belonged to the Beniamites.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 The Israelites sweare that they will not marrie their daughters to the Beniamites. 10 They slay them of Iabes Gilead, and giue their virgins to the Beniamites. 21 The Beniamites take the daughters of Silo.

1 AND the men of Israel [a] sware in Mispah, saying, There shall none of vs giue his daughter vnto any of Beniamin to wife.

a This of the came of rashnesse, for after they brake it by a subtill deuice, as vers. 14

2 And the people came to the house of God, and abode there til Euen, before God, and lift vp their voyces, and wept sore,

3 And saide, O Lorde God of Israel, why is this come to passe in Israel, that there should be this day one tribe lacking in Israel?

4 And on the morow ỹ people rose vp betime, and made there an [b] altar, and offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings.

b That they might consult with the Lord, and giue God thanks for the victorie.

5 And the children of Israel saide, Who is he among all the tribes of Israel, that came not vp with the congregation vnto the Lord? for they had made a great othe concerning him that came not vp to the Lord to Mispah, saying, He shall surely die.

6 And the childrē of Israel [c] had pitie on Beniamin their brethren, and saide, There is one tribe cut off from Israel this day:

c Or, repented that they had destroyed their brethren.

7 What shall we doe vnto the remnant of them, that they may haue wiues? We haue swoorne by the Lorde, that we will not giue them of our daughters to wiues.

8 And they saide, Is there any of the tribes of Israel that [d] came not vp to Mispah to the Lord? And behold, there came none of Iabes Gilead vnto the host and congregation.

d Condemning them to be fautours of vice, which would not put their hand to punish it.

9 For the people were viewed, and behold, there were none of the inhabitantes of Iabes Gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelue thousand men of the ‡ strongest, & commanded them, saying, Goe, and smite the inhabitants of Iabes Gilead with the edge of the swoord, both women and children.

‡ Heb. children of strength.

11 And this is it that ye shall doe, Ye shall vterly destroy all the males, and all the women that haue lien by men.

12 And they founde among the inhabitants of Iabes Gilead foure hundred damsels virgins, that had knowen no man, by lying with any male: and they brought them vnto the host to Silo, which is in the land of Chanaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent, and [e] spake with the children of Beniamin that were in the rocke of Rimmon, & called peaceably vnto them.

e By ambassadours sent to them about foure monethes after the discomfiture.

14 And Beniamin came againe at that time, & they gaue them wiues, which they had saued aliue of the women of Iabes Gilead: but they [f] sufficed them not.

f For there lacked two hundred.

15 And the people were sorie for Beniamin, because that the Lord had made a breache in the tribes of Israel.

16 And then the elders of the congregation saide, What shall we doe to the remnant of them, to get them wiues? seeing all the women of Beniamin are destroyed.

17 And

g Beniamin must be reserued to haue þ twelfe portion of the inheritance of Iacob.

17 And they saide, There must be g an inheritance for them that be escaped of Beniamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.
18 Howbeit, we may not giue them wiues of our daughters. For the children of Israel had sworne, saying, Cursed be he that giueth a wife to Beniamin.
19 Then they saide, Beholde, there is a feast of the Lorde yeerely in Silo, which is on the North side of Bethel, and on the East side of the way that goeth from Bethel to Sichem, and South from Libanon.
20 Therefore they commanded the children of Beniamin, saying, Goe, and lie in waite in the vineyardes.
21 And when ye see that the daughters of Silo come out to daunce in daunces, then come ye out of the vineyardes, and catch you euery man a wife of the daughters of Silo, and goe to the land of Beniamin.
22 And when their fathers or brethren come vnto vs to complaine, we will say vnto them, Haue pitie on vs for their sakes: because we reserued not to euche man his wife in time of warre, and that ye haue not giuen vnto them hitherto, the fault is yours.
23 And the children of Beniamin did euen so, & tooke them wiues according to the number of them þ daunced, whom they caught: & they went and returned vnto their inheritance, and repayred the cities, and dwelt in them.
24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that time, & went euery man to his tribe, and to his kinred, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritance.
25 In those dayes there was no king in Israel: but euery man did that which seemed right in his owne eyes.

The ende of the Booke of Iudges.

The Booke of Ruth.

The first Chapter.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wife and children into the land of Moab. 3 He and his sonnes die. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Bethlehem.

1 IT came to passe, that when the iudges ‡ ruled, there fell a dearth in the [a] lande, and a [certaine] mã of Bethlehem [b] Iuda, went for to soiourne in the countrey of Moab, he and his wife, and his two sonnes.

‡ Heb. iudged.
a That is, the land of Chanaan.
b In the tribe of Iuda: for there was another Bethlehem in the tribe of Zabulon.

2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wife Naomi, and the names of his two sonnes were Mahlon, and Chilion, Ephraites, out of Bethlehem Iuda: and when they came into the land of Moab, they continued there.
3 And Elimelech Naomies husband died, and she remained with her two sonnes:
4 Which tooke them wiues [c] of the Moabites: the ones name was Orpha, and the others Ruth: and they dwelled there about ten yeeres.

c By this wonderfull prouidence of God, Ruth became one of Gods household, of whom Christ came.

5 And Mahlon and Chilion died also both of them, and the woman was left [destitute] of her two sonnes, and of her husband.
6 Then she arose with her daughters in lawe, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for she had heard say in the countrey of Moab, how that the Lord had visited his people, and giuen them bread.
7 Wherefore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in law with her: and they went on their way to returne vnto the land of Iuda.
8 And Naomi saide vnto her two daughters in lawe, Goe and returne [d] eche of you vnto your mothers house: and the Lorde deale as kindly with you, as ye haue dealt with the dead, and with me:

d Hereby it appeareth þ Naomi by dwelling among idolatours, was waxen colde in the true zeale of God, which rather had respect to the ease of the bodie, then to the comfort of the soule.

9 And the Lorde graunt you, that you may finde rest either of you in þ house of her [e] husband. And when she kissed them, they lift vp their voyce and wept,
10 And said vnto her, Surely we will returne with thee vnto thy folke.
11 And Naomi said, Turne againe my daughters: for what cause will you goe with me? Are there any moe children in my wombe to be your husbandes?

e She wisheth them neither riches, wealth nor gift of sole life: but matrimonie agreeable to Gods institution.

12 Turne againe my daughters, goe your way, for I am too olde to haue an husbande: and if I saide, I haue hope, if I tooke a man also this night, yea and though I had already borne sonnes:
13 Would ye tarrie for them till they were of age? or would ye for them so long refraine from taking of husbandes? not so my daughters: for it grieueth me ‖ much for your sakes, that the hand of the Lorde is gone out [f] against me.

‖ Or, more then you.
f By taking away my two sonnes, that were your husbandes.

14 And they lift vp their voyces, and wept againe: and Orpha [g] kissed her mother in law, but Ruth abode still by her.
15 And Naomi said, See, thy sister in lawe is gone backe againe vnto her people, and vnto her gods: returne thou after her.
16 And Ruth answered, Entreate me not to leaue thee, and to returne from thee: for whither thou goest, I will goe also, and where g Taking her leaue and departing.

thou dwelleſt, there I will dwell: thy people ſhalbe my people, and thy God my God:

17 Where thou dyeſt, there will I die, and there will I be buried: the Lord doe ſo to me and more alſo, if ought but death depart thee and me.

18 When ſhe ſawe that ſhe was ſtedfaſtly minded to goe with her, ſhe left ſpeaking vnto her.

19 And ſo they went both, vntill they came to Bethlehem: And when they were come to Bethlehem, it was [i] noiſed of them through all the citie, & they ſaid, Is not this Naomi?

20 And ſhe anſwered them, Call me not ‖ Naomi, but call me ‖ Mara: for the almightie hath made me very bitter.

21 I went out full, and the Lord hath brought me home againe emptie: Why then call ye me Naomi, ſeeing the Lorde hath humbled me, and the almightie hath brought me vnto aduerſitie?

22 And ſo Naomi with Ruth the Moabiteſſe her daughter in lawe, returned out of ꝑ countrey of Moab, and came to Bethlehem, in the beginning of [k] barley harueſt.

i Whereby it appeareth that ſhe was of a great familie, and of great reputation.
‖ Or, beautifull ‖ Or, bitter.
k Which was in the moneth Niſan, that conteineth part of March and part of Aprill.

The ii. Chapter.

1 Ruth gathereth corne in the fieldes of Booz. 15 The gentleneſſe of Booz toward her.

1 AND Naomis huſband had a [a] kinſmã, a man of power and wealth, [which was] of the kinred of Elimelech, named Booz.

2 And Ruth the Moabiteſſe ſaid vnto Naomi, Let me nowe goe to the fielde, and gather eares of corne after any man, in whoſe ſight I finde grace. And ſhe ſaid vnto her, Goe, my daughter.

3 And ſhe went, and came to the fielde, and gathered after the reapers: and ſo it was, that the ſame fielde perteined vnto Booz, which was of the kinred of Elimelech.

4 And beholde, Booz came from Bethlehem, and ſaid vnto the reapers, The Lord be with you. And they anſwered him, The Lorde bleſſe thee.

5 Then ſaide Booz vnto his young ‖ man ‖ that ſtoode by the Reapers, Whoſe damoſell is this?

6 And the young man that ſtoode by the reapers anſwered and ſaide, It is the Moabitiſh damoſell that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab.

7 And ſhe ſaide vnto vs, I pray you let me gleane & gather after the reapers amongſt the ſheaues: and ſo ſhe came, and hath continued euen from the morning vntill now, ſaue that ſhe tarried a litle in the houſe.

8 Then ſaide Booz vnto Ruth, Heareſt thou, my daughter? Goe to no other fielde to gather, neither goe from hence, but abide here by my maidens.

9 Let [b] thine eyes be on the fielde that they doe reape, and goe thou after the [maydens:] Haue I not charged the young mẽ, that they ſhall doe thee no hurt? Moreouer, when thou art a thirſt, goe vnto the veſſels, and drinke of that, [c] which the laddes haue drawen.

10 Then ſhe fell on her face, and bowed her ſelfe to the ground, and ſaid vnto him, How is it that I haue found grace in thine eyes, and that thou ſhouldeſt knowe me, ſeeing I am a [d] ſtranger?

11 And Booz anſwered, and ſaide vnto her, All is told and ſhewed me that thou haſt done vnto thy mother in lawe ſince the death of thine huſband: howe thou haſt left thy father and thy mother, and the lande where thou waſt borne, and art come vnto a people, which thou knoweſt not in time paſſed.

12 The Lorde quite thy worke, & a full reward be giuen thee of the Lord God of Iſrael, vnder whoſe [e] wings thou art come to truſt.

13 Then ſhe ſaide, Let me finde fauour in thy ſight, my lorde, thou that haſt comforted me, & ſpoken ‡comfortably vnto thy maide, which yet am not like vnto one of thy maidens.

14 Booz ſaide vnto her againe, At the meale time come thou hither, and eate of the bread, and dip thy morſell in the vineger. And ſhe ſate beſide the reapers: and he reached her parched corne, and ſhe did eate, and was ſufficed, and left [f] part.

15 And when ſhe was riſen vp, to gather, Booz commaunded his young men, ſaying, Let her gather euen among the ſheaues, and [g] rebuke her not.

16 And leaue her ſome of the ſheaues for the nonce, and let it lie, that ſhe may gather it vp, and rebuke her not.

17 And ſo ſhe gathered in the field vntil Euen, and threſhed that ſhe had gathered: & it was in meaſure vpon an Epha of barley.

18 And ſhe tooke it vp, and went into the citie: and when her mother in lawe had ſeene what ſhe had gathered, ſhe plucked out alſo, and gaue to her that ſhe had reſerued, when ſhe had eaten ynough.

19 And her mother in lawe ſayde vnto her, Where haſt thou gathered to day? and where wroughteſt thou? bleſſed be he that knewe thee. And ſhe ſhewed her mother in law, how ſhe had wrought with him, and ſaide, The mans name, with whom I wrought to day, is Booz.

20 And Naomi ſaid vnto her daughter in law, Bleſſed be he of the Lorde, for he ceaſſeth not to doe good to the liuing and to the [h] dead. And Naomi ſaide againe vnto her, The man is nigh vnto vs, and of our affinitie.

21 And Ruth the Moabiteſſe ſaide, He ſaid vnto me alſo, Thou ſhalt be with my yong mẽ, vntill they haue ended all my harueſt.

22 And

a By the prouidence of God, which ſhould ſtirre vp ſeede to Elimelech, being dead, according to ꝑ law.
b That is, marke what fielde they doe reape.
c That is, of the water that they haue drawen.

f Which ſhe brought home to her mother in lawe.
g By forbydding her.
h They are ſaide to doe good to the dead, which doe good to their friends, being aliue, for their ſakes.

22 And Naomi anſwered vnto Ruth her daughter in lawe, It is beſt my daughter, that thou goe out with his maidens, that they come not againſt thee in any other fielde.

23 And ſo ſhe kept her by the maidens of Booz to gather, vnto the end of barley haruеſt, and of wheate haruеſt alſo, and dwelt with her mother in lawe.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Naomi giueth Ruth counſell. 8 She ſleepeth at Booz feete. 12 He acknowlegeth himſelfe to be her kinſman.

1 THen Naomi her mother in lawe ſaide vnto her, My daughter, ſhall I not ſeeke [a] reſt for thee, that thou mayeſt proſper?

a Meaning, that ſhe would prouide her of an huſband, with whom ſhe might liue quietly.

2 And is not Booz our kinſman, with whoſe maidens thou walt? Behold, he winnoweth barley to night in the threaſhing ‖ floore.

‖ Or, in the barne.

3 Waſhe thy ſelfe therefore, and annoint thee, and put thy rayment vpon thee, and get thee downe to the floore: but let not the man knowe of thee, vntill he haue left eating and drinking.

4 And when he goeth to ſleepe, marke the place, where he layeth him downe, and then goe, & lift vp the clothes, that are on his feete, and lay thee downe there: and he ſhall tell thee what thou ſhalt doe.

5 And ſhe anſwered her, All that thou biddeſt me, I will doe.

6 And ſhe went downe vnto the floore, and did according to all that her mother in lawe bade her.

7 And when Booz had eaten and drunke, and cheared his heart, he went to lye downe at the ende of the heape of corne: and ſhe came ſoftly, and lifted vp the clothes of his feete, and laide her downe.

8 And at midnight, the man was afraide, and caught holde: and beholde, a woman lay at his feete.

9 And he ſaide, What art thou? She anſwered, I am Ruth thine handmaide: Spreade the wing of thy [garment] ouer thine handmaide, for thou art the kinſman.

10 He ſaide, Bleſſed be thou in the Lorde, my daughter: for thou haſt ſhewed more goodneſſe in the latter ende, then at the beginning, in as much as thou followedſt not young men, whether they were poore, or riche.

11 And now my daughter, feare not, I will doe to thee all that thou requireſt: for all the citie of my people doeth knowe, that thou art a woman of vertue.

12 And it is true, that I am of thy next kinne: howbeit there is one nigher then I.

b That is, if he will take her to be his wife, by the title of affinitie, or according to Gods lawe.

13 Tarrie this night, and when morning is come, if he will [b] perfourme the part of a kinſman vnto thee, it is good, let him doe the kinſmans part: but if he wil not doe the kinſmans part, then will I doe the duetie of a kinſman, as the Lorde liueth: ſleepe vntill the morning.

14 And ſhe lay at his feete vntill the morning: and ſhe aroſe vp before one could knowe another. And he ſaid, Let no man knowe, that there came any woman into the floore.

15 And he ſaid againe, Bring the mantle that thou haſt vpon thee, & hold it. And when ſhe helde it, he mette in ſix meaſures of barley, & laid it on her: And ſhe gate her into the citie.

16 And when ſhe came in to her mother in law, ſhe ſaid, Who art thou, my daughter? And ſhe told her all that the man had done to her, 17 And ſaide, Theſe ſixe meaſures of barley gaue he me, and ſaid, Thou ſhalt not come emptie vnto thy mother in lawe.

18 Then ſaide ſhe, My daughter, ſit ſtill vntill thou know, how the matter will fall: for the man will not be in reſt, vntill he haue finiſhed the thing this ſame day.

The ende of the Booke of Ruth.

¶ The first Booke of Samuel, otherwise called the first Booke of the Kings.

The first Chapter.

1 The genealogie of Elkana the father of Samuel. 2 His two wiues. 11 Hanna was barren, and prayed to the Lorde. 15 Her answere to Eli. 20 Samuel is borne. 24 She doeth dedicate him to the Lorde.

1 THere was a man of one of the two a Ramathaim Zophim, of mount Ephraim, named Elkana, the sonne of Jeroham, the sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Thohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite,
2 Which had b two wiues, the one called Hanna, and the other Phenenna: and Phenenna had children, but Hanna had no children.
3 And this man went vp out of his citie euerie yeere, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the Lorde of hostes in Silo, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehes, the Lordes priestes.
4 And it fell on a day, that Elkana offered, and gaue to Phenenna his wife, and to all her sonnes and daughters, portions.
5 But vnto Hanna he gaue a c worthie portion: for he loued Hanna, and the Lorde had made her barren.
6 And her enemie [Phenenna] vexed her sore, forasmuch as she vpbrayded her, because the Lord had made her barren.
7 (And so did he yeere by yeere) and as oft as she went vp to the house of the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept, and did not eate.
8 Then said Elkana her husband to her, Hanna, why weepest thou? and why eatest thou not? and why is thy heart troubled? Am not I better to thee, then ten d sonnes?
9 So Hanna rose vp after that they had eaten and dronken in Silo. (And Eli the priest sate vpon a stoole by one of the postes of the temple of the Lorde.)
10 And she was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lorde, and wept sore,
11 And vowed a vowe, and saide, O Lorde of hostes, if thou wilt looke on the trouble of thine handmaide, and remember me, and not forget thine handmaide, but giue vnto thine handmaide a man childe, I will giue him vnto the Lord all the dayes of his life, and there shall no rasor come vpon his head.
12 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.
13 For Hanna spake in her heart, and her lippes did but moue onely, but her voyce was not heard: and therefore Eli thought she had bene dronken.
14 And Eli saide vnto her, Howe long wilt thou be dronken? Put away from thee ‖ the wine a There were two Ramathes, so that in this citie in mount Ephraim were Zophim, that is, the learned men and prophetes.

15 Hanna answered, and said, Not so, my lorde: I am a woman of a ‡ sorowfull heart, I haue drunke neither wine nor strong drinke, but haue powred out my soule before the Lord.

16 Count not thine handmaide ‖ for a wicked woman: for out of the abundance of my heauinesse and griefe, haue I spoken hitherto.

17 Eli answered her againe, and saide, Goe in peace: the God of Israel graunt thee thy petition, that thou hast asked of him.

18 She sayde, Let thine handmayde finde [c] grace in thy sight. And so the woman went her way, and did eate, and looked no more sadde.

19 And they rose vp earely, and worshipped before the Lorde, and then returned, and came to their house to Ramath: and when Elkana knewe Hanna his wife, the Lorde [f] remembred her.

20 For in processe of time it came to passe, that she conceiued, and bare a sonne, and called his name Samuel, [saying,] Because I haue asked him of the Lorde.

21 And the man [g] Elkana, and all his house, went vp to offer vnto the Lord the yeerely sacrifice, and also his vowe.

22 Neuertheless, Hanna went not vp, but saide vnto her husband, I will tarie vntill the ladde be weaned, and then I will bring him, that he may appeare before the Lorde, & there abide for euer.

23 Elkana her husbande answered her, Doe what seemeth thee best, tarrie at home vntill thou haue weaned him, & I beseech the Lorde to make good [h] his saying. And so the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke, vntill she weaned him.

24 And when she had weaned him, she tooke him with her, with three bullockes, and an Epha of flowre, and a bottell of wine, and brought him vnto the house of the Lorde in Silo, and the childe was ‡ young.

25 And they slue a bullocke, and brought in the ladde to Eli.

26 And she said, Oh my lorde, as thy [i] soule liueth, my lord, I am the woman, that stoode before thee here praying vnto the Lord.

27 For this ladde I prayed, and the Lord hath giuen me my desire, which I asked of him:

28 And therefore I haue giuē him vnto ỹ Lord, as long as he liueth he shalbe giuen to the Lord. And he [k] worshipped the Lord there.

19 Moreouer, his mother made him a little coate, & brought it to him from yeere to yeere, when she came vp with her husband to offer the yeerely sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkana and his wife, and said, The Lord giue thee seede of this wom̃, for the [o] petition that she asked of the Lorde. And they went vnto their owne home.

21 And the Lord visited Hanna, so that she conceiued, and bare three sonnes, and two daughters: and the childe Samuel grewe [p] before the Lorde.

22 Eli was verie olde, and heard all that his sonnes did vnto Israel, & how they lay with the women that waited at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he saide vnto them, Why doe ye such things? For of all these people I heare euill reportes of you.

24 Oh, nay my sonnes: for it is no good report that I heare, how that ye make ỹ Lordes people to trespasse.

25 If one man sinne against another, the iudge shall iudge it: but if a man sinne against the Lorde, who will be his [q] dayesman? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not vnto the voyce of their father, because the Lord would slay them.

26 (The childe Samuel profited, and grewe, and was in fauour both with the Lorde, and also with men.)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and said vnto him, Thus saith the Lord, Did not I plainely appeare vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaos house?

28 And I [r] chose him out of all the tribes of Israel, to be my priest, for to offer vpon mine altar, and to burne incense, and to weare an Ephod before me: and I gaue vnto the house of thy father, all the offerings made by fire of the children of Israel.

29 Wherefore [s] treade ye downe my sacrifice, & mine offerings which I [t] commanded in the tabernacle, and honourest thy children aboue me, to make your selues fat of the first fruites of all the offerings of Israel my people?

30 *Wherefore the Lord God of Israel saith, I saide, that thy house, and the house of thy father, shoulde [u] walke before me for euer: but nowe the Lorde saith, That thing be farre from me: for them that worship me, I will worship: and they that despise me, shall come to shame.

31 Beholde, the dayes come, that I will cut off thine [x] arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an olde man in thine house.

32 And thou shalt see thine enemie in the habitation [of the Lorde] and in all the wealth which [God] shall giue Israel, and there shall not be an olde man in thine house for euer.

33 Neuertheless, I will not destroy euery one that commeth of thee, from mine altar, to make thine eyes to faile, and to make thine heart sorowfull: and all they that be multiplied in thine house, shal die [y] [when they be] men.

34 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, that shall come vpon thy two sonnes, Hophni, & Phinches: euen in one day they shall die both.

35 And I will stirre me vp a [z] faithfull priest, that shall doe according to my heart & minde, and I will builde him a sure house, and he shall walke before mine annointed for euer.

36 And al that are left in thine house, shal come and crouche to him for a peece of siluer and a morsel of bread, and shall say, Put me (I pray thee) in one office or other among the priests, that I may eate a morsell of bread.

The iii. Chapter.

1 There was no manifest vision in the time of Eli. 4 The Lord calleth Samuel three times, 11 And sheweth what shal come vpon Eli, and his house. 18 The same thing declareth Samuel to Eli.

1 AND the childe Samuel ministred vnto the Lord before Eli, & the word of the Lorde was [a] precious in those dayes, neither was there any open vision.

2 And as at that time Eli lay in his [b] place, his eyes began to waxe dimme, that he could not see.

3 And yer the lampe of God went out, Samuel laide him downe to sleepe in the temple of the Lord, where the arke of God was.

4 And the Lorde called Samuel. And he answered, I am here.

5 And he ran vnto Eli, and saide, Here am I, for thou calledst me. And he saide, I called thee not, goe againe and sleepe. And he went, and laide him downe to sleepe.

6 And the Lord called once againe, Samuel. And Samuel arose, and went to Eli, and saide, I am here, for thou diddest call me. And he answered, I called thee not, my sonne, goe againe and sleepe.

7 Samuel [c] knewe not yet the Lorde, neither was the worde of the Lorde yet opened vnto him.

8 And the Lorde went to, and called Samuel the thirde time. And he arose, and went to Eli, and saide, I am here, for thou hast called me. And Eli perceiued that the Lord had called the childe.

The iiii. Chapter.

10 The arke of the Lord is taken. 11 Eli and his children die.

1 AND Samuel spake vnto all Israel: and Israel [a] went out against the Philistines to battell, and pitched beside the ‖ Eben-ezer: and the Philistines pitched in Apher, a From the departure of the Israelites out of Egypt, vnto this time of Samuel, are about 390. yeeres.

‖ Or, stone of helpe.

2 And put themselues in aray against Israel: and when they ioyned the battell, Israel was smitten downe before the Philistines: & the Philistines slew of the armie in the field about foure thousand men.

b Samuel, as it is of some affirmed, consulted with the Lorde before this was taken in hand: and for that cause they aske this question.

3 And when the people were come into their tentes, the elders of Israel said, [b] Wherefore hath the Lord cast vs downe this day before the Philistines? let vs fetch the arke of the appointment of the Lorde out of Silo vnto vs, that when it commeth among vs, it may saue vs out of the hand of our enemies.

4 And so the people went to Silo, & fet from thence the arke of the appointment of ỹ Lord of hostes, which dwelleth betweene the Cherubims: and there were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehes, with the arke of the appointment of God.

c This he sayth, because of the mercy seate that was betweene the Cherubins.

5 And when the arke of the appointment of the Lord came into the host, all Israel showted a mightie showte, so that the earth rang againe.

6 And when the Philistines heard the noise of the showte, they said, What meaneth ỹ sound of this mighty showte in the hoste of the Hebrewes? And they vnderstood how that the arke of the Lord was come into the hoste.

7 And the Philistines were afraid, and sayd, God is come into the hoste. And they said againe, [d] Wo vnto vs: for it was neuer so before this.

d Before we fought against men: and now God is come to fight against vs.

8 Wo vnto vs: who shal deliuer vs out of the hand of these mighty gods? these are ỹ gods that smote the Egyptiãs with many plagues in the [e] wildernesse.

e For in the red sea in the wildernes, the Egyptians were destroyed: which was the last of all his plagues.

9 Be strong, and quite your selues like men, O ye Philistines, that ye be not seruants vnto the Hebrewes, as they haue bene to you: be of a manly courage therefore, and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fled euery man into his tent: & there was an exceeding great slaughter, for there were ouerthrowē of Israel [f] thirtie thousand footemen.

f This ouerthrow was not for lacke of sufficient number of men, but for lacke of Gods fauour.

11 And the arke of God was taken, and ỹ two sonnes of Eli, Hophni, and Phinehes, were dead.

12 And there ranne a man of Beniamin out of the armie, & came to Silo the same day with his clothes rent, and earth vpon his head.

g The common gesture of such as fell to calamitie, for sorowe, or heauinesse.

13 And when hee came, loe, Eli sate vpon a stoole by the way side, waiting: for his heart feared for the [h] arke of God. And when the man came into the citie, and told it, all the citie cried.

h Lest it should be taken of ỹ enemies.

14 And when Eli heard the noise of the crying, he sayde, What meaneth this noyse of the tumult? And the man came in hastily, and told Eli.

15 Eli was ninetie and eight yeeres old, & his sight failed him, that he could not see.

16 And the man said vnto Eli, I am he, that came out of the armie, and fled this day out of the hoste. And he said, What thing is done, my sonne?

17 The messenger answered, and said, Israel is fled before the Philistines, & there hath bene a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sonnes, Hophni, and Phinehes, are dead, and the arke of God is taken.

18 And when he made mention of the arke of God, Eli fell from his stoole backeward by the the side of the gate, and his [i] necke brake, and he died: for he was an old man, & heauie, and ‖ iudged Israel fourtie yeeres.

19 And his daughter in lawe Phinehes wife was with childe, and nigh ‖ the birth: and when she heard the tidings that the arke of God was taken, and that her father in lawe and her husband were dead, she bowed her selfe, and trauelled, for her paines came vpon her.

20 And about the tyme of her death, the women that stood about her, said vnto her, Feare not, for thou hast borne a sonne. But she answered not, nor regarded it.

21 And she named the child [k] Ichabod, saying, The glory is departed from Israel, (because the arke of God was taken, and because of her father in lawe and her husband.)

22 And she said againe, The glory is gone from Israel: for the arke of God is taken.

i If he had corrected his sonnes, and removed wickednesse from the tabernacle of the Lord, he and all Israel had escaped this horrible plague.

The v. Chapter.

2 The Philistines bring the arke into the house of Dagon. 6 The men of Asdod are plagued. 8 The arke is caried into Gath, and after to Acaron.

1 AND the Philistines tooke the arke of God, and caried it from Eben-ezer vnto Asdod.

2 Yea the Philistines tooke the arke of God, and brought it into the house of Dagon, and set it by [a] Dagon.

3 And when they of Asdod were vp the next day in the morning, behold, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the earth before the arke of the Lord: and they tooke Dagon, and set him in his place againe.

4 And when they were come early in the next morning, behold, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the ground, before the arke of ỹ Lord, and his head, and his two hands were cut off vpon the threshold, that onely the stumpe of Dagon was left to him.

5 And therefore is it, that neither the priests of Dagon, nor any man that commeth into Dagons house, [b] treadeth on the threshold of Dagon in Asdod, vnto this day.

6 But the hand of the Lord was heauie vpon them of Asdod, and hee destroyed them, and *smote them with Emerodes, both Asdod, and all the coastes thereof.

7 And when the men of Asdod, sawe that it was so, they said, The arke of the God of Israel shal not abide here with vs: for his hand is sore vpon vs, and vpon [c] Dagon our god.

8 They sent therefore, and gathered all the lordes of the Philistines vnto them, and said, What shall we doe with the arke of the God of Israel? They answered, Let the arke of the God of Israel be caried about vnto Gath. And they caried the arke of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had caried it about, the hand of the Lord was against the citie with a very great destruction: and hee smote the men of the citie both small and great, and they had Emerodes in their secret partes.

10 Therefore they sent the arke of God to Acaron: and as soone as the arke of God came to Acaron, the Acaronites cried out, saying, They haue brought the arke of the God of Israel to vs, to slay vs, and our people.

11 And so they sent, and gathered together all the lordes of the Philistines, and sayd, Send [d] away the arke of the God of Israel, to go againe to his owne place, that it slay vs not, & our people. For there was a destruction and death throughout all the citie: and the hand of God was exceeding sore there.

12 And the men that died not, were smitten with the Emerodes: and the cry of the citie went vp to heauen.

a Which was their chiefe idol, and from the nauell downeward like a fish, and vpward like a man.

b Proceeding from one superstition to another.

Psal. 77. 66.

c This is a lamentable blindnesse: they cleaue still to that idoll which lieth vpon the ground like a blocke, and is not able to helpe, neither them, nor it selfe.

d Affliction worketh not like effect in the wicked and in the godly: in the one grudge & desperation, in the other repentance & reconciliation.

The vi. Chapter.

17 The Philistines offer golden Emerodes. 19 The men of Bethsames are stricken for looking into the arke.

1 AND the arke of the Lorde was in the countrey of the Philistines seuen moneths.

2 And the Philistines called for the priests & the soothsaiers, saying, What shall we doe with the arke of the Lorde? Tell vs wherewith we shall send it home againe.

3 They said, If you send away the arke of the God of Israel, send it not emptie: but reward it with a sinne [a] offering: and then ye shal be whole, and it shall be knowen to you, why his hand departeth not from you.

4 Then said they, And what shall be the sinne offering, which wee shall reward him with? They answered, Fiue golden Emerodes, and fiue golden Mice, according to the number of the princes of the Philistines: For one plague was on you all, and on your princes.

5 Wherefore ye shall make images like to your Emerodes, & images like to your Mice, that corrupt the land, and ye shall giue glory vnto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from off you, and from off your [b] gods, and from off your land.

6 Wherefore doe ye harden your hearts, * as the Egyptians and Pharao hardened their hearts? Which when he wrought wonderfully among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therefore, make a new cart, and take two milche kine, on whom there hath come no yoke, and tie the kine to the cart, and bring the calues home from them.

8 And take the arke of the Lord, and lay it vpon the cart, and put the iewels of gold, which ye reward him with for a sinne offering, in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it away, that it may goe.

9 And if ye see that hee goeth vp by the way of a For that you haue presumed to carp it away from Israel.

of his owne coast to Bethsames, then it is he that did vs this great euill: If no, wee shall know then, that it is not his hand that smote vs, but it was a [c] chaunce that happened vs.

[c] The wicked attribute almost al things to fortune and chance: where as in deede there is nothing done without Gods prouidence & decree.

10 And the men did euen so: and tooke two Kine that gaue milke, and tied them to the cart, and kept the calues at home.

11 And they laied the arke of the Lord vpon the cart, and the coffer, with the mice of gold, and with the images of their Emerodes.

12 And the Kine tooke the straight way to Bethsames, and went on the straight way: & as they went, they lowed, and turned neither to the right hand, nor to the left: & the princes of the Philistines went after them, vnto the [d] borders of Bethsames.

[d] For the triall of the matter.

13 And they of Bethsames were reaping their wheate haruest in the valley: and they lifted vp their eyes, and spied the arke, and reioyced when they sawe it.

14 And the cart came into the field of one Iehosua, a Bethsamite, and stoode still there. There was also a great stone: & [e] they claue the wood of the cart, and offered the Kine a burnt offering vnto the Lord.

[e] To wit, the men of Bethsames, which were Israelites.

15 And the Leuites tooke downe the arke of the Lorde, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the [f] iewels of golde were, and put them on the great stone: and the men of Bethsames sacrificed whole burnt sacrifice, and offered offerings the same day vnto the Lord.

[f] Meaning, the golden Emerodes, and the golden Mice.

16 And when the fiue princes of the Philistines had seene it, they returned to Acaron the same day.

17 And these are the golden Emerodes which the Philistines gaue for a sinne offering to the Lorde, [g] for Asdod, one, for Gaza, one, for Ascalon, one, for Gath, one, and for Acaron, one,

[g] These were the fiue principall cities of the Philistines, which were not all conquered vnto the time of Dauid.

18 And golden mice, according to the number of all the cities of ỳ Philistines, [belonging] to the fiue lordes, both of walled townes and of townes vnwalled, vnto the great [stone] ‖ of Abel, whereon they set downe the arke of the Lord, vnto this day, in the field of Iehosua the Bethsamite.

‖ Or, plaine.

19 And he smote of the men of Bethsames, because they had [h] looked in the arke of ỳ Lorde, and he slew among the people fiftie thousand, and threescore and ten men: and the people lamẽted, because the Lord had slaine the people with so great a slaughter.

[h] For it was not lawfull to any other to touch or to see into it, saue only to Aaron & his sonnes.

20 Wherefore the men of Bethsames sayde, Who is able to stand before this holy Lorde God: and [i] to whom shall he go from vs?

[i] For what people will receiue it, to be thus plagued by the receiuing thereof?

21 And they sent messengers to the inhabiters of Kiriath-iarim, saying, The Philistines haue brought againe the arke of the Lorde, come ye downe, and fet it vp to you.

The vii. Chapter.

1 The arke is brought to Kiriath-iarim. 3 Samuel exhorteth the people to forsake their sinne, and turne to the Lord. 10 The Philistines fight against Israel, and are ouercome. 16 Samuel iudgeth Israel.

1 AND so the mẽ of [a] Kiriath-iarim came, and fet vp the arke of the Lorde, and brought it into the house of Aminadab in the hill, and sanctified Eleazar his sonne, to keepe the arke of the Lord.

[a] A citie in the tribe of Iuda, called Kiriath-baal, Ios. 15.

2 And while the arke abode in Kiriath-iarim, the time was long, for it was twentie yeeres: and all the house of Israel [b] lamented after the Lord.

[b] Repented them of their sinnes, and sought after the Lord.

3 And Samuel spake vnto all the house of Israel, saying, If ye be come againe vnto the Lord with all your hearts, then put away the strange gods & Astharoth from among you, and prepare your hearts vnto the Lord, *and serue him onely: for he shal rid you out of the hand of the Philistines.

* Deut. 6. 4 mat. 4. 10.

4 Then the children of Israel did put away Baalim and Astharoth, and serued the Lord onely.

5 And Samuel sayde, Gather all Israel to [c] Mispah, and I will pray for you vnto the Lorde.

[c] For Silo was now desolate, because the Philistines had taken thence ỳ arke.

6 And they gathered together to Mispah, and [d] drewe water, and powred it out before the Lorde, and fasted the same day, and sayde there, We haue sinned against the Lord. And Samuel iudged the children of Israel in Mispah.

[d] After the exposition of some of the learned, it meaneth that they wept sore for the Lord.

7 When the Philistines heard that the children of Israel were gathered together to Mispah, the princes of the Philistines went vp against Israel: and when the children of Israel heard that, they were afraid of the Philistines.

8 And the children of Israel said to Samuel, [e] Cease not to cry vnto the Lord our God for vs, that he may saue vs out of the hand of the Philistines.

[e] Now they haue learned not to trust in themselues, but in God: & to seeke helpe not at ỳ arke, but at his hand alone.

9 And Samuel tooke a sucking lambe, & offred it all together for a whole burnt offering vnto the Lord, and cried vnto the Lord for Israel, and the Lord heard him.

10 And as Samuel offered the whole burnt offering, the Philistines came to fight against Israel: but the Lorde thundred a great thunder the same day among the Philistines, and †scattered them, that they were slaine before Israel.

† Feared.

11 *And the men of Israel went out of Mispah, and pursued the Philistines, and smote them, vntill [they came] vnder Bethcar.

* Eccle. 46. 21.

12 And then Samuel tooke a stone, and pitched it betweene Mispah and [f] Sen, and called the name thereof †Eben-ezer, saying, Hitherto hath the Lord helped vs.

[f] Which was euen vnder the same rocke where Saul abode in Mispah.

† The stone of helpe.

13 And so the Philistines were brought vnder, and and they came no more into the coast of Israel: and the hand of the Lord was against the Philistines all the dayes of Samuel.

14 The cities which also the Philistines had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel, euen from Acaron to Gath, and the coastes of the same did Israel deliuer out of the handes of the Philistines: and there was peace betweene Israel and the [g] Amorites.

g Meaning the Philistines.

15 Samuel iudged Israel all the dayes of his life,

16 And went about yeere by yeere to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mispah, and iudged Israel in all those places, 17 And came againe to Rama: for there was his house, and there he iudged Israel [also] and there he built an [h] altar vnto the Lord.

h Which was not contrary to the law: for as yet a certaine place was not appointed.

The viii. Chapter.

1 Samuel maketh his sonnes iudges ouer Israel, who follow not his steps. 5 The Israelites aske a king.

1 When Samuel was old, he [a] made his sonnes iudges ouer Israel.

a Because he was not able to trauell, and take the paines in his old age.

2 The name of his eldest sonne was [b] Joel, and the name of the second, Abia, & they were iudges in Beer-seba.

b Who was also called Vashni.

3 And his sonnes [c] walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, and tooke bribes, and peruerted the right.

c That is, they obserued not the iustice, equitie, vprightnesse, and godlinesse of their father.

4 Then al the Elders of Israel gathered thē together, and came to Samuel vnto Rama,

5 And said vnto him, Beholde, thou art olde, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: now *therefore make vs a king to iudge vs, as all other nations [haue.]

Ode 9.14. ads 13.21.

6 But the thing displeased Samuel, when they sayde, Giue vs a king to iudge vs: and Samuel prayed vnto the Lord.

7 And the Lorde sayde vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in all that they say vnto thee: for they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast mee away, that I shoulde not reigne ouer them.

8 And as they haue euer done since I brought them out of Egypt, vnto this day, and haue forsaken mee, and serued other gods: euen so doe they vnto thee.

9 Nowe therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit yet testifie vnto them, and shewe them the maner of the king that shall reigne ouer them.

10 And Samuel tolde all the woordes of the Lorde vnto the people that asked a king of him:

11 And sayde, This shall be [d] the maner of the king that shall reigne ouer you: He will take your sonnes, and put them to his charets, and make his horsemen of them, to runne before his charet, d Except it be of such kings as shall haue the feare of God before their eyes, and will follow his statutes and lawes, as Dauid, Salomon, Ezechias, and Iosias.

12 And will make him of them captaines ouer thousands, and ouer fifties, and will set them to eare his grounde, and to gather in his harueste, and to make instrumentes of warre, and things that serue for his charets.

13 And he will take your daughters, and make them Apoticaries, Cookes, and Bakers.

14 And he shal take your fields, and your vineyardes, and your best Oliue trees, and giue them to his seruants.

15 And he shall take the tenth of your seed, and of your vineyardes, & giue to his Eunuches, and to his seruants.

16 And hee shall take your men seruantes, and mayde seruantes, yong men, and the chiefe of your Asses, and put them to his worke.

17 And hee shall take the tenth of your sheepe, and ye shalbe his seruants.

18 And yee shall crye out at that time, because of your king which yee shall haue chosen you, and the Lorde will [e] not heare you at that day.

e Because you repent not for your sinnes.

19 Neuertheless, the people woulde not heare the voyce of Samuel, but did say, Nay, not so: but there shall be a king ouer vs, 20 That we may bee like other nations, & that our king may iudge vs, and go out before vs, and fight our battels.

21 Therefore when Samuel heard al ỹ woyds of the people, hee rehearsed them in the eares of the Lord.

22 And the Lord said to Samuel, Hearken vnto their voyce, and make them a king. And Samuel said vnto the men of Israel, Go euery man vnto his citie.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Saul seeking his fathers asses, by the counsell of his seruant goeth to Samuel. 9 The Prophets called Seers.

1 There was a man of Beniamin, named Cis, the sonne of [a] Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, the sonne of Bechorah, ỹ sonne of Aphiah, the sonne of a man that was a Jeminite, [b] mightie in power.

a This Abiel in the 2. Chr. 8. is called Ner.

b That is, both valiant and rich.

2 And the same had a sonne called Saul, a goodly yong man, and a fayre: so that among the children of Israel there was none goodlier thē he: from the shoulders vpward, he was higher then all the other people.

3 And the asses of this Cis, Sauls father, were lost, and Cis sayde to Saul his sonne, Take one of the lads with thee, and arise, goe and [c] seeke the asses.

c All these circumstances were meanes to serue vnto Gods prouidence, whereby Saul was made king.

4 And he went through mount Ephraim, and passed through the lande of Salisa, but they founde them not: then they went through the land of Salim, and there they were not: whē they went also through the laude of Jemini, they found them not.

5 At the last, when they were come to the land of [d] Zuph, Saul sayd to his lad that was with him, Come, let vs returne, least my father leaue caring for the asses, & take thought for vs.

d Where was Ramath Zophim the citie of Samuel.

6 He sayde vnto him, Beholde, there is in this citie

citie a man of God, and he is an honourable mã, all that he saith, commeth surely to passe: Nowe then let vs goe thither, if so he can shew vs what way we may goe.

7 Then saide Saul to his lad, If we will goe, what shall we bring the man? for the ‖ bread is spent in our vesselles, and there is no other present to bring the man of God: what haue we?

‖ Or, victuals.

8 And the lad answered Saul againe, & saide, Beholde, I haue founde about me the fourth part of a [e] sicle of siluer, that will I giue the man of God, to tell vs our way.

e Which is, about fiue pence, Gen. 23.15.

9 (Before time in Israel, when a man went to seeke an answere of God, thus wise he spake, Come, and let vs goe to the [f] Seer: for he that is nowe called a prophet, was in the olde time called a Seer.)

f Because he saw Gods will reuealed vnto him by his diuine spirit, and for þ he foresaw things to come.

10 Then saide Saul to his lad, Well saide of thee, come, let vs goe. And so they went vnto the citie where the man of God was:

11 And as they went their way vp the hill to the citie, they mette with damosels that came out to drawe water, and said vnto them, Is there here a Seer?

12 And the maidens answered them, and saide, Yea, beholde he is before you, make haste nowe: for he came this day to the citie, for there is an [g] offering of the people this day in the high place.

g That is, a feast after the offering.

13 When ye be come into the citie, ye shall finde him straightway ere he goe vp to the high place to eate: for the people will not eate vntill he come, because he doth [h] blesse the offering, and then eate they that be bidden to the feast: Now therefore, get you vp, for this day shall ye finde him.

h That is, giue thankes, and distribute the meate according to the custome.

14 And they went vp into the citie: and when they were come into the middes of the citie, behold, * Samuel came out against them, for to goe vp to the high place.

1. Reg. 15.1.

15 * But the Lorde had told Samuel in his eare a day before Saul came, saying,

Acts, 13.21.

16 To morowe this time I will send thee a man out of the lande of Beniamin, him shalt thou anoynt to be captaine ouer my people Israel, that he may saue my people out of the handes of the Philistines: for I haue looked [i] vpon my people, and their [k] crie is come vnto me.

i That is, vpon þ affliction and oppression of my people. k Wherein they seeke help and deliuerance at me.

17 When Samuel therefore sawe Saul, the Lorde answered him, See, this is the man whō I spake to thee of, this same shal raigne ouer my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the mids of the gate, and saide, Tell me, I pray thee, where the Seers house is?

19 Samuel answered Saul, and saide, I am the Seer: goe vp before me vnto the high place, for ye shall eate with me to day, and to morowe I will let thee goe, and will tell thee all that is in thine [l] heart.

l That is, that thou desirest to knowe.

20 And as for thine Asses that were lost three dayes agoe, care not for them, for they are founde: And [m] whose shall the beautifull things of Israel be? belong they not to thee, and vnto all thy fathers house?

m Whō God hath chosen to be their king.

21 But Saul answered, and saide, Am not I the sonne of Iemini, of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my kinred is the least of all the kinreds of the tribe of Beniamin? Wherefore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel tooke Saul and his ladde, and brought them into the [n] parlar, and made them sitte in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, which were vpon a thirtie persons.

n Where the feast was.

23 And Samuel saide vnto the Cooke, Bring forth the portion which I gaue thee, and of which I said vnto thee, Keepe it with thee.

24 And the Cooke tooke vp the shoulder, and that which was [o] vpon it, & set it before Saul, and Samuel saide, Beholde, that which is left, put it before thee, and eate: for hitherto hath it bene kept for thee, saying, Also I [p] called the people. And so Saul did eate with Samuel that day.

o That is, the shoulder with the breast, which þ priest had for his portion in all peace offerings, Leuit. 10. p That by þ assembling of the people, and by the meate prepared for thee, thou mightest vnderstand that I knew of thy comming.

25 And when they were come downe from the high place into the citie, Samuel communed with Saul vpon the [q] toppe of the house.

q For after the manner it was flat, that men might walke together vpon it.

26 And when they arose early about the spring of the day, Samuel called Saul vpon the toppe of the house, saying, Up, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he and Samuel.

27 And when they were come almost out of the towne, Samuel saide to Saul, Bid the ladde goe before vs (and he went before) but stande thou still a while, that I may shewe thee the [r] word of God.

r That is, Gods commandement as concerning thee.

The x. Chapter.

6 Saul is anointed king by Samuel. 19 Samuel assembleth the people, and sheweth them their sinnes.

1 AND then Samuel tooke a vessell of [a] oyle, and powred it vpon his head, and kissed him, and saide, * Hath not the Lord anointed thee to be captaine ouer his inheritance?

a Here beginneth the vse of anointing of kings with oyle by Gods commandement. 2 By the which oyle is signified the gifts of the holy Ghost, which were necessarie for them þ should rule. Osee. 9.15.

2 When thou art departed from me this day, thou shalt finde two men by [b] Rahels sepulchre in the border of Beniamin, euen at Zelzah: and they will say vnto thee, The Asses which thou wentest to seeke, are founde: and loe, thy father hath left the care of the Asses, and sorroweth for you, saying, What shall I doe for my sonne?

5 After that shalt thou come to the d hill of God, where is the garison of the Philistines: and when thou art come thither to the citie, thou shalt meete a company of prophets comming downe from the high place, with a psalter, a timbrel, a pipe, and a harpe before them, and they shall prophecie.

6 And the spirite of the Lord will come vpon thee also, and thou shalt prophecie with them, and shalt be turned into another man.

7 Therefore when these signes are come vnto thee, doe what thou hast to doe, for God is with thee.

10 And when they came thither to the hill, behold, the company of the prophets met him, and the spirit of God came vpon him, and he f prophecied among them.

f That is, he praised God together with them, and did sing songes to the lord and maker.

11 And all that knew him before, when they sawe that he prophecied among the prophets, they said eche to other, What is this that is come vnto the sonne of Cis? Is Saul also among the prophets?

g Meaning, that prophecie commeth not by succession: but is giuen to whom it pleaseth God.

12 And one of the same place answered & said, Who is their g father? And thereof came the prouerbe, What, is Saul also among ỹ h prophets?

h Noting thereby, him that commeth from low degree suddenly to power.

13 And when hee had made an ende of prophecying, he came to the high place.

14 And Sauls vncle said vnto him, and to his lad, Whither went ye? He said, To seeke the asses: and when we sawe that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Sauls vncle said, Tel me, I pray thee, what Samuel said vnto you?

16 Saul sayde vnto his vncle, Hee tolde vs plainely that the asses were found. But of the kingdome whereof Samuel spake, tolde he him not.

17 And Samuel called the people together vnto the Lord, to Mispah, 18 And said vnto the children of Israel, Thus said the Lord God of Israel, I brought Israel out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out the hands of all kingdoms that troubled you.

19 And ye haue this day cast away your God, who onely deliuereth you out of all your aduersities and tribulations: and ye haue sayd vnto him, No, but make a king ouer vs. Now therefore, stand ye before the Lorde by your tribes, and by your thousands.

20 And when Samuel had assembled together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Beniamin was i taken.

i That is, by casting of lots.

21 When he had assembled together the tribe of Beniamin by their kinreds, the kinred of Matri was caught, and at the last, Saul the sonne of Cis was caught: and when they sought him, he could not be found.

22 Therefore they asked the Lorde further, if the man should yet come thither? And the Lord answered, Beholde, k he hath hid himselfe among the stuffe.

k As though he were vnworthy, and vnwilling.

23 And they ranne and fet him thence, & when he stood among the people, hee was higher then any of the people, from the shoulders vpward.

24 And Samuel said to all the people, See ye not him whom the Lorde hath chosen, & how there is none like him among all the people? And all the people shouted, and said, *God ‡ saue the king.

3. Reg. 1. 25. ‡ Heb. Let the king liue.

25 Then Samuel tolde the people the l duetie of the kingdome, and wrote it in a booke, and laid it vp before the Lord, and sent all the people away, euery man to his house.

l As it is written, Deut. 17.

26 And Saul also went home to Gibea, and there followed him a bande of men, whose hearts God had touched.

27 But the children of Belial sayde, Howe shall he saue vs? And they despised him, and brought him no presents: and he m helde his tongue.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Nahas the Ammonite warreth against Iabes Gilead, who asketh helpe of the Israelites. 6 Saul promiseth helpe. 11 The Ammonites are slaine. 14 The kingdome is renewed.

1 THen a Nahas the Ammonite came vp, and besieged Iabes in Gilead: and all the men of Iabes said vnto Nahas, Make a couenant with vs, & we will be thy seruants.

a For feare of whom Israel asked a king, as chap. 12. 12.

2 And Nahas the Ammonite answered them, In this will I make a couenant with you, if I may b thrust out all your right eyes, and bring that shame vpon all Israel.

b No reasonable condition can satisfie a tyrant, and therefore Gods wrath is not farre from him.

3 To whom the elders of Iabes said, Giue vs seuen dayes respite, that we may send messengers vnto all the coasts of Israel: & then if there be no man to deliuer vs, we will come out to thee.

4 Then came the messengers to Gibea of Saul, and tolde this tidings in the eares of the people: & all the people lift vp their voyces, and wept.

5 And behold, Saul came folowing the cattel out of the field, and Saul sayd, What ayleth this people that they weepe? And they tolde him him the tidings of the men of Jabes.

e God gaue him the spirit of strength and courage to go against this tyrant.

6 And the spirit of God e came vpon Saul, when he heard those tidings, and he was exceeding angrie,

7 And tooke a yoke of Oxen, and hewed them in pieces, and sent them throughout all the coasts of Israel by the hands of messengers, saying, Whosoeuer commeth not forth after d Saul and after Samuel, so shall his oxen be serued. And the feare of the Lorde fell on the people, and they came out ‡ with one consent.

d He ioyneth Samuel with him for more authoritie, for he himselfe was not yet approoued of all.

‡ Heb. as one man.

8 And when he numbred them in Bezek, the children of Israel were three hundred thousand men, and the men of Juda thirtie thousand.

e Meaning Saul and Samuel.

9 And e they saide vnto the messengers that came, So say vnto the men of Jabes in Gilead, To morowe by that time the sunne be hote, ye shall haue helpe. And the messengers came, & shewed it to the men of Jabes, which were glad.

10 Therefore the men of Jabes said, To morow we will come f out vnto you, and ye shall do with vs all that pleaseth you.

f That is, to the Ammonites, dissembling that they had hope of aide.

11 And on the morow Saul put the people in three partes, and they came in vpon the hoste in the morning watch, and slew the Ammonites vntil the heate of the day: and they that remained, were scattered, so that two of them were not left together.

g By this victorie, the Lord wonne the hearts of the people to Saul.

12 And the people said vnto Samuel, g Who is he that said, Shall Saul raigne ouer vs? bring those men, that we may slay them.

h Ye would begin his kingdome with clemencie, as a vertuous meete for a prince.

13 And Saul said, There shall no man h die this day: for to day the Lorde hath saued Israel.

14 Then said Samuel vnto the people, Come, that wee may goe to Gilgal, and renew the kingdome there.

i In signe of thanksgiuing for victorie.

15 And all the people went to Gilgal, & made Saul king there before the Lorde in Gilgal, and there they offered i peace offrings before the Lorde: and there Saul and all the men of Israel reioyced exceedingly.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Samuel declaring to the people his integritie, reproueth their ingratitude.

a I haue granted your petition.

1 AND Samuel said vnto all Israel, Beholde, I haue a hearkened vnto your voyce in all that ye said vnto me, and haue made a king ouer you:

b To gouerne you in peace and warre, Eccles. 46.22. Eccl. 46.22.

2 Nowe therefore your king walketh before b you: and I am olde and gray headed, & behold my sonnes are with you: and I haue walked before you from my childhood vnto this day.

c That is, Saul.

d God would that this confession should be a paterne for all them that haue any office.

3 Beholde here I am, *beare record of me before the Lorde, and before his c annointed: d Whose oxe haue I taken? or whose asse haue I taken? whom haue I done wrong to? whom haue I hurt? or of whose hand haue I receiued any bribe to blinde mine eies therewith? and I will restore it you.

4 They said, Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hurt vs, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hand.

5 He said vnto them againe, The Lord is witnesse against you, and his anointed is witnesse this day, that ye haue found nought in my handes. And they answered, He is witnesse.

6 And Samuel said vnto the people, It is the Lorde that e made Moses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the land of Egypt.

e That is, exalted them, & endued them with his spirite to deliuer you.

7 Now therefore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lord, according to all the ‖ righteousnesses of the Lorde, which he shewed both you and your fathers.

‖ Or, benefites.

8 *After that Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cried vnto the Lord, ¶ Lord sent Moses and Aaron, which brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwell in this place.

Gen. 46.5.

9 *And when they forgate the Lorde their God, he sold them into the hand of Sisara f captaine of the hoste of Hazor, and into the hand of the Philistines, and into the hand of the king of Moab, and they fought against them.

Iudg. 4.2.

f That is, captaine of Iabins hoste, king of Hazor.

10 And they cried vnto the Lord, and said, We haue sinned, because wee haue forsaken the Lord, and haue serued Baalim and Astaroth: now therefore deliuer vs out of the handes of our enemies, and we will serue thee.

11 And the Lord sent Jerobaal, g Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and deliuered you out of the hands of your enemies on euery side, and ye dwelled safe.

g That is, Samson.

12 And for all that, when you sawe that Nahas the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye said vnto me, Not so, but a king shall raigne ouer vs, when yet the Lord your God was your king.

13 Now therefore, beholde the king whom ye haue chosen, and whom ye haue desired: loe, the Lord hath set a king ouer you.

14 If ye will feare the Lord, and serue him, and heare his voyce, and not disobey the worde of the Lorde, both ye and the king that raigneth ouer you, shall h follow the Lorde your God.

h Ye shall be preserued as they that follow the Lords will.

15 If ye will not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde, but disobey the Lordes mouth, then shall the hand of the Lord bee vpon you, and on i your fathers.

i That is, your gouernours.

16 Nowe also stande, and see this great thing which the Lorde will doe before your eies.

17 Is it not now wheate haruest? I will call vnto the Lord, and he shall send thunder and raine, raine, that ye may perceiue, and see how that your wickednesse is [k] great which yee haue done in the sight of the Lord in asking you a king.

k In that you haue forsaken him who hath all power in his hand, for a mortall man.

18 And so Samuel called vnto the Lorde, and the Lord sent thunder & raine the same day: and all the people feared the Lord & Samuel exceedingly.

19 And all the people said vnto Samuel, Pray for thy seruants vnto the Lord thy God, that we die not: for we haue sinned in asking vs a king, beside all our [other] sinnes.

20 And Samuel said vnto the people, Feare not: (ye haue in deede done all this wickednesse, yet [l] depart not from following of the Lorde, but serue the Lorde with all your hearts:

l For with the Lord there is mercy and forgiuenesse of sinnes in store, for such as will repent.

21 Neither turne ye away, for [then ye goe] after vayne things, which are not able to profite you, nor deliuer you, for they are but vanitie.)

22 For the Lorde will not forsake his people, because of his great names sake: because it hath pleased the Lorde to make you [m] his people.

m Of his free mercy, and not of your merites, & therefore he will not forsake you.

23 Moreouer, God forbid that I should sinne against the Lord, and cease praying for you: but I will shew you the good and right way.

24 Therefore feare you the Lord, & serue him in the trueth, and with all your [n] hearts: and consider how great things hee hath done for you.

n Vnfainedly, and without hypocrisie.

25 But if ye do wickedly, then shall ye perish, both ye, and your king.

The xiii. Chapter.

3 And Jonathan smote the garison of the Philistines that was in the [b] hill, and it came to the Philistines eares: and Saul blew the [c] trumpet throwout all the land, saying, Let the Hebrewes heare.

c That euery man should prepare him self to warre.

4 And all Israel heard say, how that Saul had destroyed a garison of the Philistines, wherefore Israel was had in abomination with the Philistines: And the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 The Philistines also gathered themselues together, to fight with Israel, thirtie thousand charets, and sixe thousand horsemen, with other people like the sand by ẏ sea side in multitude, and came vp, and pitched in Michmas, Eastward from [d] Bethauen.

d Which is Bethel, and of the prophets called Bethauen, because of the idolatrie committed there.

6 And when the men of Israel sawe it, they were in a straite (for the people were in a distresse) & the people hid themselues in caues, and in holdes, and in rockes, and in high places, and in pits.

7 And some of the Hebrewes went ouer Jordane, to goe vnto the land of [e] Gad and Gilead: and Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people being afraid, followed him.

e Where the two tribes and the halfe remained.

8 And hee taried seuen dayes, euen vnto the time that Samuel had appointed: but Samuel came not to Gilgal, and the people were therefore [f] scattered from him.

f Thinking that ẏ absence of the prophet was a signe that they should loose the victorie.

9 And Saul said, Bring a whole burnt sacrifice to me, and peace offerings. And he offred a whole burnt sacrifice.

10 And as soone as he had made an ende of offering the whole burnt sacrifice, behold, Samuel came, and Saul went against him to [‡] salute him.

‡ Heb. bleſſe him.

11 And Samuel said, What hast thou done? Saul said, Because I [g] sawe that the people scattered from me, and that thou camest not within the daies appointed, and that the Philistines gathered themselues together to Michmas:

g Though these causes seeme sufficient in mans iudgement, yet because they had not the word of God, they turned to his owne destruction.

12 Therefore said I, The Philistines shal come downe now vpon me to Gilgal, and I haue not made supplication vnto the Lord: I was bold therefore, and offered a whole burnt offering.

13 And Samuel said to Saul, Thou art become a foole, thou hast not kept the commandement of the Lord thy [h] God, which he commanded thee: for at this tyme would ẏ Lord haue stablished thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer.

h Who willed thee to obey him, and rest vpon his word.

14 *But now thy kingdome shall not continue: the Lord hath sought him a [i] man after his owne heart, and the Lord hath commaunded him to be captaine ouer his people, because thou hast not kept that which the Lord commanded thee.

Ac.13.22.
i That is, Dauid.

15 And Samuel arose, and gate him vp from Gilgal [k] in Gibea of Beniamin, and Saul numbred the people that were found with him, & they were about a sixe hundred men.

k And went to his citie Ramath.

16 And Saul and Jonathan his sonne, and the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibea of Beniamin: but the Philistines pitched in Michmas.

17 And there came out of the hoste of the Philistines, three companies, to destroy: one company turned vnto the way that leadeth to Ophra, vnto the land of Saul:

18 And another company turned the way to Bethoron: and the third companie turned to the way of the coast that is seene aboue the valley of Zeboim toward the wildernesse.

19 There was no Smith founde throwout all the land of Israel: for the Philistines said, Least the Hebrewes make them swordes or speares.

20 But all the Israelites went downe to the Philistines, to mende euery man his share, his mattocke, his axe, and weeding hooke.

21 Yet they had a file for the shares, for ỹ mattockes, for the pickforkes, and for the axes, and for to sharpen the goades.

22 And so in time of battell there was neither [1] sword nor speare founde in the hands of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: but with Saul & Jonathan his sonne was there found.

23 And ỹ garison of the Philistines came out, to go ouer vnto Michmas.

[1] To declare that the victorie came onelp of God.

The xiiii. Chapter.

14 Ionathan and his harnesse bearer put the Philistines to flight.

1 THen on a time Jonathan the sonne of Saul sayde vnto his yong man that bare his harnesse, [a] Come, and let vs goe ouer to the Philistines garison, that are yonder on the other side: and he tolde not his father.

[a] This fact of Jonathan is singular, and done in faith by the instinction of Gods spirit, & therefore not to be followed by the discipline of warre, 1. King. 4.

2 And Saul taried in the vttermost part of Gibea, vnder a Pomegranate tree, which is in Migron: and the people that were with him, were vpon a sixe hundred men.

2. Sam. 4. 29.

3 *And Ahia the sonne of Ahitob Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinehes the sonne of Eli, was the Lordes Priestes [b] in Silo, and weare an Ephaod: & the people wist not that Jonathan was gone.

[b] For the priesthode was not yet taken away from ỹ house of Eli: but continued vntill the time of Xadok.

4 And in the middes of the passage, by which Jonathan sought to goe ouer vnto the Philistines garison, there was a sharpe rocke on the one side, and a sharpe rocke on the other side: the one called Bozez, and the other Senes:

5 The forefront of the one leaned Northward toward Michmas, and the other was Southward toward Gibea.

6 And Jonathan sayde to the yong man that bare his harnesse, Come, and let vs goe ouer vnto the garison of these vncircumcised, it may be that the Lord wil worke with vs: *for it is ‖ no hardnesse with the Lorde to saue eyther in many or in fewe.

2. Chro. 14. 11. ‖ Or, none can let the Lord.

7 And his harnesse bearer saide vnto him, Do all that is in thine heart: go where it pleaseth thee, beholde, I am with thee as thine heart lusteth.

8 Then sayde Jonathan, Behold, we goe ouer vnto these men, and shall shewe our selues vnto them.

[c] This he learned neither at diuiners, nor soothsayers: but at the spirit of God, confirming his faith by signes prescribed by the same spirit.

9 If they say on this wise to vs, Tary vntill we come to you: then we wil stand still in our place, and not go vp vnto them.

10 And if they say, Come vp vnto vs: then we will goe vp, for the Lorde hath [c] deliuered them into our hands: and this shall be a signe vnto vs.

11 And they both shewed them selues vnto the garison of the Philistines: and ỹ Philistines sayde, See, the Hebrewes come out of the [d] holes where they had hid themselues in.

[d] This they spake cõtemptuously, and by derision.

12 And the men of the garison answered Jonathan and his harnesse bearer, and saide, Come vp to vs, and we will shew you a thing. And Jonathã said vnto his harnesse bearer, Come vp after me, for the Lord hath deliuered them into the hand of Israel.

13 And Jonathan climed vp vpon [e] hands and feete, and his harnesse bearer after him: and they fell before Jonathan, and his harnesse beater slewe them after him.

[e] Because of the sharpenesse of the rocke where they did clime vp.

14 And that first slaughter which Jonathan & his harnesse bearer made, was vpon a twenty men, within the compasse as it were about an halfe acre of lande, which two [oxen plowe.]

15 And there was a feare in the host in the fielde, and among all the people: insomuch that they ỹ were gone out of ỹ garison to rob, were afraide also, and the [f] earth trembled for the feare that was sent of God.

[f] It is an hyperbolicall speach, whereby is signified that the feare which God sent vpon the host of the Philistines, was exceeding great.

16 And the watchmen of Saul in Gibea Beniamin sawe: and beholde, the multitude were discomfited, and were smitten as they went.

17 Then sayde Saul vnto the people that was with him, Search and see who is gone away from vs. And when they had numbred, beholde, Jonathan and his harnesse bearer were not there.

18 And Saul said vnto Ahia, Bring hither the [g] Arke of God. (For the Arke of God was at that time with the children of Israel.)

[g] By which is meant the Ephod, which was set by with the Arke, which the Priest should put on to aske counsell, and to tell of things to come. Num. 27.

19 And while Saul talked vnto the Priest, the noyse that was in the host of the Philistines spredde farther abroad, and encreased: And ▷ Saul said vnto the Priest, [h] Withdraw thine hand.

[h] Let the Ephod alone, for I haue no leasure nowe to aske counsel of God, Judg. 1.

20 And Saul ioyned him selfe vnto all the people that were with him, and they came to the battell, and behold, euery mans sword was against his fellowe, and there was a very great discomfiture.

21 Moreouer, the Hebrewes that were with the Philistines before that time, and were come with them into all partes of the host, turned to bee with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 And all the men of Israel also which had hid them selues in mount Ephraim, as soone as they heard howe that the Philistines were fledde, they followed after them in the battell.

[i] Such was his hypocrisie and arrogancie, that he thought to attribute to his policie, that which God had giuen by the hand of Jonathas.

23 And so the Lorde saued Israel that day: and the battell continued vnto Bethauen.

24 And when the men of Israel were kept downe with hunger that day, Saul charged the people with an othe, saying, [i] Cursed bee the man that eateth any food vntill night, till I be auenged of mine enemies. And so none of the people tasted any sustenance.

25 And al they of ẏ land came to a wood, where hony lay vpon the ground.

26 And the people came into the wood, and beholde, the hony dropped, and no man moued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared ẏ [k] othe.

k That is, the curse appointed of Saul, & the punishmẽt for breaking the othe.

27 But Ionathan heard not when his father charged the people with the othe, wherefore he put forth the end of the rod that was in his hande, and dipt it on an hony combe, and put his hand to his mouth, and his [l] eyes receiued sight.

l Which afore were dimme, for wearinesse and hunger.

28 Then answered one of the people, and sayd, Thy father made the people to sweare, saying, Cursed bee the man that eateth any sustenance this daye: And the people were ‖faint.

‖Or, wearie.

29 Then sayde Ionathan, My father hath [m] troubled the land: see howe mine eyes haue receiued sight, because I tasted a litle of this hony:

m By making this cruel law.

30 Howe much more then to day, if the people had eaten of the spoyle of their enemies which they founde? And had there not bene then a much greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day from Michmas to Aialon: & the people were exceeding faynt.

32 And the people gate them to the spoyle, and tooke sheepe, oxen, and calues, and slew them on the grounde, and the people did eate them with the blood.

33 Then men tolde Saul, saying, Beholde, the people sinne against the Lorde, in that they eate with the blood. And hee sayde, *Ye haue trespassed: rowle a [n] great stone vnto me this day.

Leuit. 3. 16. deut. 12. 16.

n That the blood of the beastes which shalde slayne, may be spilled out vpon it.

34 And Saul saide againe, Goe abroad among the people, and bid them bring me euery man his oxe, and euery man his sheepe, and slay thē here, and eate, and sinne not against the Lorde in eating with the blood. And the people brought euery man his oxe in his hande that night, and slewe them there.

35 And Saul made an altar vnto the Lorde: and that was the ‖first altar that he made vnto the Lord.

‖Or, of that stone he beganne to builde an altar.

36 And Saul saide, Let vs go downe after the Philistines by night, and spoyle them vntill it be day in the morning, and let vs not leaue one man of them. And they sayd, Doe what so euer thou thinkest best. Then sayd the Priest, Let vs [o] come hither vnto God.

o To aske counsell of him.

37 And Saul asked of God, Shal I go downe after the Philistines? Wilt thou deliuer thē into the hands of Israel? But hee answered him not at that time.

38 And Saul sayde, Let all the ‡chiefe of the people come hither, & know and see by whom this sinne is done this day.

‡Heb. corner.

39 For as the Lorde liueth, which saued Israel, though it bee in Ionathan my sonne, hee shall dye the death. But there was no man among all the people that answered him.

40 Then sayd he vnto all Israel, Be ye on one side, and I and Ionathan my sonne wil be on the other side. And the people said vnto Saul, What thou thinkest best, that doe.

41 Therefore Saul sayde vnto the Lorde God of Israel, Giue a [p] perfect lot. And Saul and Ionathan were caught: but the people scaped free.

p That is, cause the lot to fal on him that hath broken the othe.

42 And Saul sayde, Cast lot betweene me and Ionathan my sonne. And Ionathan was caught.

43 Then Saul sayde to Ionathan, Tell mee what thou hast done. And Ionathan then told him, and sayde, I tasted a litle hony with the end of the rod that was in mine hand, and loe, I [q] must die.

q For so small a matter, not considering what great saluation God hath wrought by me this day.

44 Saul answered, God do so, and more also to me, thou shalt die the death, Ionathan.

45 And the people sayd vnto Saul, Shall Ionathan dye, which hath so mightily deliuered Israel? [r] God forbid: as the Lord liueth, there shal not one heare of his head fal to ẏ ground: for hee hath wrought with God this day. And so the people deliuered Ionathan, that hee dyed not.

r The people thought it their duetie to rescue him by whom they had receiued so great a benefite, who of ignorance had but broken a rash lawe.

46 And then Saul departed vp from folowing the Philistines: and the Philistines went to their owne place.

47 And so Saul helde the kingdome ouer Israel, and fought against all his enemies on euery side, against Moab, against the children of Ammon, against Edom, against the kings of Zoba, and against the Philistines: and whither soeuer he turned himselfe, he put them to the worst.

48 And hee gathered his host together, & smote the [s] Amalekites, & rid Israel out of ẏ handes of them that spoyled them.

s As the Lord had commanded.

49 The sonnes of Saul were, Ionathan, [t] Iesui, and Melchisua, and his two daughters were thus named, the elder was called Merob, and the yonger [u] Michol.

t Called also Abinadab, Chap. 31.

u Which was the wife of Dauid, Chap. 18.

50 And the name of Sauls wife was Ahinoa, the daughter of Ahimaaz, and the name of his chiefe captaine, was Abner, the sonne of Ner, Sauls vncle.

51 And Cis was Sauls father: and Ner the father of Abner was the sonne of Abiel.

52 And there was sore warre against the Philistines all the dayes of Saul: and [x] whome so euer Saul sawe to bee a strong man, and meete for the warre, hee tooke him vnto him.

x As Samuel had foretolde, Chap. 8.

The

The xv. Chapter.

3 Saul is commanded to slay Amalek. 9 Hee spareth Agag and the best thinges. 19 Samuel reproueth him.

1 SAmuel also sayde vnto Saul, The Lord sent me to anoynt thee to bee king ouer his people, ouer Israel: nowe therefore [a]hearken thou vnto the voice of ỹ words of the Lord.

a Because he hath preferred thee to this honour, thou art bound to obey him. Exod.17.8.

2 Thus sayth the Lord of hostes, I remember that which Amalek did to Israel, *how they layde waite for them in the way as they came vp from Egypt.

3 Nowe therefore goe, and smite Amalek, and destroy yee all that pertaineth vnto them, and haue no compassion on them, [b]slay both man and woman, infant and suckling, Oxe and Sheepe, Camel and Asse.

b That this might be an example of gods vengeance against them that deale cruelly with his people.

4 And Saul gathered the people together, and numbred them in Telaim, two hundred thousande footemen, and tenne thousand men of Juda.

5 And Saul came vnto a citie of Amalek, and ‖ set watche in the brooke.

‖ Or, fought in the valley.

6 And Saul sayd vnto the [c]Kenites, Goe, and depart, and get you downe from among the Amalekites, least I destroy you with them: for yee shewed [d]mercie to all the children of Israel when they came out of Egypt. And so the Kenites departed from among the Amalekites.

c Which were the posteritie of Jethro, Moses father in lawe.
d Jethro reioyced for the prosperous successe of Israel, and gaue them good counsell.

7 And Saul smote the Amalekites from Heuila, as thou commest to Sur, that lyeth before Egypt,

8 And tooke Agag ỹ king of the Amalekites aliue, and vtterly destroyed all the people with the edge of the sword.

e Against the commandement of God by Samuel.

9 But Saul and the people spared [e]Agag, the better Sheepe, and the fatter Oxen, and the Lambes, and all that was good, and would not destroy them: but all that was foule and nought worth, that they destroyed vtterly.

10 Then came the word of the Lord vnto Samuel, saying, f God in his eternall counsel neuer changeth nor repenteth, as vers. 29. though he seemeth to vs so repent when any thing goeth contrary to his temporall election.

11 It [f]repenteth mee that I haue made Saul king: for he is turned from mee, and haue not performed my commandementes. And Samuel was euil apayd, and cried vnto the Lord all night.

12 And whē Samuel rose early to meete Saul in ỹ morning, it was told Samuel that Saul was come to Carmel, and beholde, hee hath made him there a place, and is returned, and departed and gone downe to [g]Gilgal.

g There to offer vp sacrifice for the victory gotten.

13 And Samuel came to Saul, and Saul said vnto him, Blessed be thou in the Lord: I haue fulfilled the [h]commandement of the Lord.

h This is the maner of hypocrites, when they followe their owne deuices, to say they haue fulfilled gods cōmandements.

14 Samuel sayde, what meaneth then the bleating of the Sheepe in mine eares, & the lowing of the Oxen which I heare?

15 Saul answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: for the people spared the best of the sheepe, and of the oxen, to sacrifice them vnto the Lord thy God, and the remnant haue we destroyed vtterly.

16 Samuel sayde, Let mee tell thee what the Lord hath said to me this night. And he sayde vnto him, Say on.

17 Samuel said to Saul, When thou wast [i]little in thine owne sight: wast thou not made the head of the tribes of Israel, and the Lorde anoynted thee king ouer Israel?

i Acknowledging thy selfe to be of ỹ least tribe of Israel, and of ỹ least familie of the tribe of Benjamin, as Chap.9.

18 And the Lord sent thee on a iourney, & sayd, Goe, and vtterly destroy those sinners the Amalekites, and fight against them vntill thou destroy them.

19 And wherefore hast thou not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde? but hast turned to the pray, and hast done that which is wicked in the sight of the Lord?

20 And Saul saide vnto Samuel, Yea I haue [k]hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde, and haue gone the way which the Lorde sent mee vnto, and haue brought Agag the king of Amalek, and haue destroyed the Amalekites.

k He standeth most impudently in his owne defence both against God and his owne conscience.

21 But the people tooke of the spoile, Sheepe, Oxen, and the chiefest of the thinges which shoulde haue bene destroyed, to offer vnto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22 *And Samuel sayde, Hath the Lorde as great pleasure in whole burnt sacrifices and offeringes, as when the voyce of the Lorde is obeyed? Beholde, to obey is better then sacrifice: and to hearken, is better then the fatte of Rammes.

Eccle.4.17.ose.6, 7.matth.9.13.

23 For [l]rebellion is as the sinne of witchcraft, and stubbernnesse is as the wickednesse of idolatrie: because thou hast cast away ỹ worde of the Lorde, therefore he hath cast away thee also from being king.

l God hateth nothing more then the disobedience of his cōmandement, though the intent seeme neuer so good to man.

24 And Saul saide vnto Samuel, I haue sinned: for I haue gone farther then the saying of the Lorde, and thy words: because I feared the people, and obeyed their voyce.

25 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, take away my [m]sinne, and turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord.

m This was not true repentance, but dissimulation, fearing the losse of his kingdome.

26 And Samuel sayde vnto Saul, I will not returne with thee: for thou hast cast away the worde of the Lorde, and the Lorde hath cast away thee, that thou shalt not bee king ouer Israel.

27 And as Samuel turned him selfe to goe away, he caught the lap of his coate, and it rent.

28 And Samuel said vnto him, The Lord hath rent the kingdome of Israel from thee this day, and hath giuē it to a [n]neighbour of thine, that is better then thou.

n That is, to Dauid.

29 The [o]strength of Israel will not lye, nor repent: for he is not a man, that he should repent.

o Meaning God, who maintaineth and defendeth his.

30 He sayde, I haue sinned: but nowe honour me before the elders of my people, and before Israel, and turne againe with me, that I may worship the Lord thy God.

31 And so Samuel turned againe, and followed Saul, and Saul worshipped the Lord.

32 Then sayde Samuel, Bring you hyther to mee Agag the king of the Amalekites. And Agag came vnto him ‡delicately: and Agag sayde, Truely the p bitternesse of death is past.

33 And Samuel sayde, As thy swoorde hath made women childlesse, so shall thy mother bee childlesse aboue other women. And Samuel hewed Agag in pieces before the Lorde in Gilgal.

34 And then Samuel departed to Rama, and Saul went home to his house to Gibea Saul.

35 And Samuel came no more to q see Saul vntill the day of his death: neuertheless, Samuel mourned for Saul: and the Lorde repented that he had made Saul King ouer Israel.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 Samuel is reproued of God, and is sent to anoynt Dauid. 7 God regardeth the heart. 13 The spirit of the Lord commeth vpon Dauid.

1 THe Lorde sayde vnto Samuel, Howe long wilt thou mourne for Saul, a seeing I haue cast him away from reigning ouer Israel? Fill thine b horne with oyle, and come, that I may sende thee to Isai the Bethlehemite: for I haue prouided me a king among his sonnes.

a Gods will ought to be a sufficient cause of comfort vnto vs in all afflictions, acknowledging that he doeth all things for the best, and therefore ought not to lamente for the whom God hath cast off.

2 And Samuel sayde, Howe can I goe? for if Saul heare it, he will kill me. The Lord answered, Take an heifer with thee, c and say, I am come to offer to the Lord.

b A cleake fashioned was vsed in anoynting of Saul: but nowe an horne, whereby may be signified the strength and continuance of the kingdome of Dauid.

3 And call Isai to the offering, and I will shewe thee what thou shalt doe: and thou shalt anoynt vnto me d him whome I name vnto thee.

c That is, to make a peace offering, which might be done though the Arke was not there.

4 And so Samuel did as the Lorde bade him, and came to Bethlehem: and the elders of the towne were e astonied at his comming, and sayde, Commest thou peaceably?

5 He answered, Yea, I am come to offer vnto the Lorde: sanctifie your selues, and come with mee to the offering. And hee sanctified Isai, and his sonnes, and bade them to the offering.

d Here is fulfilled the prophecie of Jacob, for the princelie scepter to begin in the tribe of Iuda, Gene. 49.

6 And when they were come, he looked on Eliab, and sayde, Surely the Lords f anoynted is before him.

e Fearing lest some grieuous crime had bene committed, and that he came to punish the same.

7 But the Lorde sayde vnto Samuel, Looke not on this fashion, or on the height of his stature, because I haue refused him: for [God seeth] not as man seeth. For *man looketh on the outward appearance, but the Lord beholdeth the heart.

f Thinking that Eliab had bene appoynted of God to bee made king. Psal.7.10.

8 Then Isai called Abinadab, and made him come before Samuel: and hee sayde, Neither hath the Lord chosen this.

9 Then Isai made Samma come: and he said, Neither yet hath the Lord chosen him.

10 Againe Isai made seuen of his sonnes to come before Samuel, and Samuel sayd vnto Isai, The Lord hath chosen none of these.

11 And Samuel saide vnto Isai, Are here all thy children? Her sayde, There is yet a litle one behinde, that keepeth the g sheepe. And Samuel sayde vnto Isai, * Sende, and fetch him: for we will not sit downe, till he be come hither.

g The shepheard of the sheepe, is taken to bee made shepheard of Israel. 2.Reg.7.8.

12 And he sent, and brought him in: and he was ruddie, and of an excellent beautie, and well fauoured in sight. And the Lord sayde, Arise, and anoynt him: for this is he.

13 Therefore Samuel tooke the horne of oyle, and anoynted him in the middes of his brethren: and the h spirit of the Lord * came vpon Dauid from that day forward: and Samuel rose vp, and went to Rama.

h Whereby he prospered in al that he tooke in hand. Acts 7,16.

14 But the spirite of the Lorde departed from Saul, and an euill spirite [sent] of the i Lord vexed him.

i To vexe the minde of Saul, with the anguish of an euil conscience, by which anguish blacke choler & phrensie is engendred, as phisicions write.

15 And Sauls seruantes sayde vnto him, Beholde, an euill spirite [sent] of God vexeth thee.

16 Let our Lorde therefore commande thy seruantes (that are before thee) to seeke a man that is a cunning player with an harpe: that when the euill spirite of God commeth vpon thee, hee may play with his hande, and thou shalt be eased.

17 Saul sayde vnto his seruantes, Prouide me a man then, that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Then answered one of his seruantes, and sayde, Beholde, I haue seene a sonne of Isai the Bethlehemite, that can play vpon instrumentes, and is strong, valiant, and a man of warre, and prudent in doing of feates, & well made, and the Lord is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Isai, and sayde, Sende mee Dauid thy sonne which is with the sheepe.

k By Gods prouidence, that he might bee traded in princely and warrelike affaires, before he should take vpon him the office of a prince.

20 And Isai tooke an asse [laden] with bread, and a flagon of wine, and a kid, and sent them by Dauid his sonne vnto Saul.

21 And k Dauid came to Saul, and ‖stood before him: and he l loued him very well, and he was made his harnesse bearer.

‖Or, serued him.

l His minde not yet corrupted with enuie, which quencheth loue, as water doeth fire.

22 And Saul sent to Isai, saying, Let Dauid nowe remaine with me: for he hath founde fauour in my sight.

23 And so when the [euill] spirit of God came vpon Saul, Dauid tooke an harpe, and played with his hand: & so Saul was m refreshed, and did amende, and the euill spirite departed from him.

m Which benefite to his greater condemnation he recompensed with cruelnes and hatred.

The xvii. Chapter.

1 The Philistines make warre against Israel. 10 Goliath defieth Israel. 50 Dauid killeth Goliath, and the Philistines flee.

1 THe Philistines gathered their host to battell, and came together to Socho, which is in Juda, & pitched betweene Socho and Azekah, in the coast of ‡Dammim.

‡Hebr. Ephes Dammim.

2 And Saul and the men of Israel came together, and pitched in the valley of ‖ Elah, and put them selues in battell aray, to meete the Philistines.

‖Or, of the oke.

3 And the Philistines stoode on a mountaine on the one side, and Israel stoode on a mountaine on the other side: and there was a valley betweene them.

4 And there came a man betweene thē [a] both, out of the tentes of the Philistines, named Goliath of Gath: [b] sixe cubites and an hand breadth long:

a That is, betwene the two campes.

b A man of fiue cubites is a wonder in þ worlde, this Goliath is a cubite & a handbreadth more then a wonder.

5 And had an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and a coate of male about him: and þ waight of his coate of male was, fiue thousand [c] sicles of brasse.

c That is, 156. pounde, foure ounces, after halfe an ounce the sicle, and 600. sicles weight amounteth to eighténe pounde thrée quarters.

6 And he had boots of brasse vpon his legges, and a shield of brasse vpon his shoulders.

7 And the shaft of his speare was like a weauers beame, and his speares head weighed sixe hundred sicles of iron: and one bearing a shielde went before him.

8 And hee stoode and cryed against the host of Israel, and sayde vnto them, Why are yee come to set your battell in araye? am not I a Philistine, and you seruantes to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let him come downe to me.

9 And if hee bee able to fight with mee, and to ‖ kill me, then will we be your seruantes: but if I can ouercome him, and kill him, then shal ye be our seruants, and serue vs.

‖Or, smite.

10 And the Philistine sayde, I defie the host of Israel this day, giue me a man, that wee may fight ‖ together.

‖Or, hande to hand.

11 When Saul & all Israel heard those words of the Philistine, they were discouraged, and greatly [d] afraide.

d For the spirit of courage and right handling of matters was taken away frō Saul. ‖Or, he was coūted among them that bare office.

12 Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite, of Bethlehē Juda, named Isai, which had eyght sonnes: and this ‖ man was taken for an olde man in the dayes of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sonnes of Isai went, and followed Saul to the battell: and þ names of his three sonnes that went to battell, were Eliab the eldest, and the next Abinadab, and the third Samma:

e The three eldest sonnes of Isai are taken forth as valiant men with Saul to warre, but Dauid as disable is left to kepe sheepe.

14 And Dauid was the least: and þ three eldest went after Saul.

15 Dauid also went, and departed from Saul, to [e] feede his fathers sheepe at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine came foorth in the morning and euening, and continued fourtie dayes.

17 And Isai sayd vnto Dauid his sonne, [f] Take for thy brethrē an Epha of this parched corne, and these ten loaues, and runne to the host to thy brethren, f Isai by this message meaneth to relieue the necessitie of his sonnes: But God worketh thereby the deliuerance of his people.

18 And carry these tenne fresh cheeses vnto the captaine, and looke howe thy brethren fare, and fet out their pledge.

19 And Saul, and they, and all the men of Israel were in the valley of Elah, fighting with the Philistines.

20 And Dauid rose vp earely in the morning, and left the sheepe with a keeper, and tooke and went as Isai had commanded him, and came within the compasse of the host: and the host went out in aray, and shouted in the battell.

21 For Israel and the Philistines had put thē selues in aray, armie against armie.

22 And Dauid left the thinges which he bare, vnder the handes of the keeper of the vessels, and ranne into the host, and came, and saluted his brethren.

23 And as hee talked with them, beholde, there stoode a man in the middes (Goliath the Philistine by name, of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistines, and spake [g] such wordes: and Dauid heard it.

g As are aboue rehearsed, vers. 8.

24 And al the people of Israel when they sawe the man, ranne away from him, and were sore afrayde.

25 And euery man of Israel sayde, Sawe yee not this man that commeth vp? euen to reuile Israel is he come: and to him that killeth him, will the king giue great riches, and will giue him his daughter thereto, yea, and make his fathers house [h] free in Israel.

h From tayles and payments

26 And Dauid spake to the men that stoode by, and sayd, What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh away the shame from Israel? and what is this vncircumcised Philistine, that he should reuile the host of the liuing God?

27 And the people answered him after this maner, saying, So shall it bee done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when hee spake vnto the men, and Eliab was angrie with Dauid, and sayde, Why camest thou downe hither? and with whome hast thou left those fewe sheepe in the wildernes? I knowe thy pryde, and the malice of thine heart, that thou art come downe to see the battell.

29 And Dauid sayde, And what haue I nowe done? is there not a [i] cause?

i For he came at his fathers commandement, and was also moued by Gods spirite to take that enterprise against Goliath.

30 And hee departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner: and the people answered him againe as before.

31 And they that heard the wordes which Dauid spake, rehearsed thē before Saul: which caused him to be fet.

32 And Dauid sayde to Saul, Let no mans heart fayle him because of him: thy seruant wil go, and fight with yonder Philistine.

33 And Saul sayde to Dauid againe, Thou art k not able to goe against yonder Philistine, to fight with him: for thou art but a childe, but hee is a man of warre, euen from his youth.

k Dauid about to performe the workes of God, and motion of his spirit, is tempted by ỹ ministers of Satan, the enuie of his brother, and the infidelitie of Saul.

34 Dauid answered vnto Saul, Thy seruant kept his fathers sheepe, and there came a Lion, and likewise a Beare, and tooke a sheepe out of the flocke:

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and tooke it out of his mouth: and when he arose against mee, I caught him by the beard, and smote him, and slewe him.

36 And so thy seruant slewe both the Lion and the Beare: & truely this vncircumcised Philistine shall bee as one of them, seeing he hath rayled on the host of the liuing God.

37 And Dauid spake moreouer, The Lord that deliuered me out of the hand of the Lion, and out of the hande of the Beare, he shall deliuer mee also out of the hande of this Philistine. And Saul sayde vnto Dauid, l Goe, and the Lord be with thee.

l For by these circumstances, he saw that the power of God was with him.

38 And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, & put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and put a coate of mayle vpon him,

39 And girded Dauid with his owne sworde vpon his rayment, and hee assayed to goe: and because hee had neuer proued it, Dauid sayde vnto Saul, I can not goe with these: for I haue not vsed my selfe thereto. And Dauid put them off him, m As ỹ weapon ỹ he could well handle.

40 And tooke his m staffe in his hande, and chose him fiue smoothe stones out of a brooke, and put them in a shepheardes bagge which hee had, that is, in a scrippe, and his sling was in his hande, and hee went to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came and drewe neare against Dauid, & the man that bare the shielde, went before him.

42 And when the Philistine looked about, and sawe Dauid, he disdained him: for he was but yong, ruddy, and of a comely face.

43 And the Philistine sayde vnto Dauid, Am I a dogge, that thou cōmest to me with staues? And the Philistine n cursed Dauid in ỹ name of his goddes.

n So that he was terrible not only by stature, strength, and armour, but also by railing, cursing, and threatning words.

44 And the Philistine sayde to Dauid, Come to mee, and I will giue thy flesh vnto the foules of the ayre, and to the beastes of the fielde.

45 Then sayd Dauid to the Philistine, Thou commest to mee with a sworde, a speare, and a shielde: but I come to thee in the name of the Lorde of hostes, the God of the host of Israel, whom thou hast railed vpon, 46 o This day shall the Lord close thee into my hande, and I shall smite thee, and take thine head from thee, and will giue the carkeises of the host of the Philistines this day vnto the foules of the ayre, & to the beasts of the earth, that al they which be in the world, may know that there is a God in Israel.

o This faith is so constant that neither frende nor foe is able to make him doubt of the victorie that Gods spirite had assured him of.

47 And all this congregation shall knowe that the Lorde saueth not with sworde and speare (for the battell is the Lords) and he shal giue you into our hands.

48 And when the Philistine arose to come and drawe nigh to Dauid, Dauid hasted, & ranne to fight against the Philistine.

49 And Dauid put his hande in his bagge, and tooke out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone sunke into his forehead, and he fell groueling to the earth.

50 * And so Dauid ouercame the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and smote the Philistine, & slewe him, when Dauid had no sword in his hand. 1.Mach.4.30.

51 But Dauid ranne and stoode vpon the Philistine, and tooke his sworde, and drewe it out of his sheath, and slewe him, and cut off his head therewith. And when ỹ Philistines saw that their Champion was dead, they fled.

52 And the men of Israel, and of Iuda, arose, and shouted, and followed after the Philistines, vntill they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Acaron: and the Philistines fell downe wounded by the way to Saaraim, euē vnto Gath and Acaron.

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, & spoyled their tents.

54 And Dauid tooke the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Hierusalem, but hee put his armour in his ‖ tent.

‖ Or, house at Bethlehem.

55 When Saul sawe Dauid goe forth against the Philistine, hee sayde vnto Abner the captaine of the host, Abner, p whose sonne is this yong man? Abner answered, As thy soule liueth, O king, I can not tell.

p This he asketh, eyther for that he would nowe knowe further of his kinne, then he did before: or for that he had forgot him.

56 And the king sayde, Enquire thou whose sonne the youngling is.

57 And when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner tooke him, and brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul sayde to him, Whose sonne art thou, thou yong man? Dauid answered, I am the sonne of thy seruant Isai, the Bethlehemite.

The xviii. Chapter.

3 The amitie of Ionathan and Dauid. 11 Saul woulde haue slayne Dauid. 29 Saul feareth Dauid, seeing that the Lord is with him.

1 And

1 AND when he had made an ende of speaking vnto Saul, the [a] soule of Jonathan was knit with the soule of Dauid, and Jonathan loued him as his owne soule.

a His affection was fully bent toward him.

2 And Saul tooke him that day, and would let him goe no more home to his fathers house.

3 Then Jonathan & Dauid made a couenãt, because he loued him as his owne soule.

4 And Jonathan put off the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it to Dauid, & his garments, euen to his sword, and to his bowe, and to his girdle.

5 And Dauid went out whither so euer Saul sent him, and behaued himselfe [b] wisely: and Saul set him ouer his men of warre, and hee was accepted in the sight of all ỹ people, & in the sight of Sauls seruants.

b That is, he prospered in al his doings.

6 And as they came againe, when Dauid was returned frõ the slaughter of the [c] Philistine, the women came out of all cities of Jsrael, singing and dauncing, to meete king Saul, with timbrels, with ioy, and with [instrumẽts of] musicke.

c. To wit, Goliath.

7 And the women [d] answered one another in their play, and sayde, Saul hath slayne his thousande, and Dauid his tenne thousande.

d In their songs, Chap. 21.47.

8 And Saul was exceeding [e] wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he sayde, They haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousande, and to me but a thousande: and what can he more haue, saue the kingdome?

e Dauid receiueth for his vertues and good qualities, of Jonathan, loue and friendship, of Saul, hatred, and displeasure: there be in ỹ worlde moe Sauls thẽ Jonathans.

9 Wherefore Saul had an eye on Dauid, frõ that day forward.

10 And on the morowe the euill spirite sent of God, came vpon Saul, and he [f] prophecied in the middes of the house: & Dauid played with his hand, like as at other times: and there was a iauelin in Sauls hand.

f By abuse of the worde, they are sometime said to prophecie, which as madde men speake things that haue neither sense nor reason in thẽ.

11 And Saul tooke the iauelin, and sayde, I will nayle Dauid to the wall with it: And Dauid auoyded out of his presence, two times.

12 And Saul was afrayde of Dauid, because the Lord was with him, and was departed frõ Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, & made him a captaine ouer a thousand, and he went out and in before the people.

g Not for his preferment, which he enuied: but vpon hope of that destructiõ that warre is wont to bring to many.

14 And Dauid behaued him selfe wisely in all his wayes, and the Lord was with him.

15 Wherefore, when Saul sawe that he was so exceeding wise, he was afraide of him.

16 But all Jsrael and Juda loued Dauid, because he went out and in before them.

17 And Saul sayd to Dauid, behold my eldest daughter Merob, her wil I giue thee to wife: onely bee a valiant sonne vnto mee, and fight the Lordes battels: for Saul thought, mine hand shal not be vpon him, but the hand of the Philistines shall be vpon him.

18 And Dauid answered Saul, What am I? and what is my life, or the kinred of my father in Jsrael, that I should be sonne in law to the king?

19 Howbeit when the time was come, that Merob Sauls daughter should haue bene giuen to Dauid, she was giuen vnto [h] Adriel, a Meholathite, to wife.

h To whome she bare fiue sonnes, which Dauid put to death, at the request of the Gibeonites, 2. Sam. 21.

20 Howbeit Michol Sauls daughter, loued Dauid: and they shewed Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul sayde, I will [i] giue him her, that she may bee a snare to him, and that the hande of ỹ Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul saide to Dauid, Thou shalt this daye bee my sonne in lawe in the one of the twaine.

i So his hypocrisie appeareth: for vnder pretence of fauour, he seketh his destruction.

22 And Saul commanded his seruantes to cõmune with Dauid secretely, and to say, Behold, the king hath a fauour to thee, and al his seruants loue thee: be nowe therefore ỹ kings sonne in lawe.

23 And Sauls seruants spake those wordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid sayde, Seemeth it to you a light thing to bee a kinges sonne in lawe, seeing that I am a poore man, and of small reputation?

24 And ỹ seruants brought Saul word againe, saying, Of this maner spake Dauid.

25 And Saul sayde, This wise shall yee say to Dauid, the king careth for no other dowrie, but for an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistines, to bee auenged of the kings enemies. But Saul thought to make Dauid fall into the hands of the Philistines.

26 And when his seruantes tolde Dauid these wordes, [k] it pleased Dauid well to bee the kings sonne in lawe: and the dayes were not expired.

k Because he thought him selfe able to compasse the kings request.

27 Afterwarde, Dauid arose with his men, and went and slewe of the Philistines two hundred men, & Dauid brought their foreskins, and [l] they gaue them wholy to the king, that he might be the kings sonne in lawe: Wherefore Saul gaue him Michol his daughter to wife.

l Meaning, Dauid and his souldiers.

28 * And Saul sawe, and vnderstood howe that the Lorde was with Dauid, and that Michol his daughter loued him:

* 2. Reg. 3. 14.

29 And he was the more [m] afraide of Dauid, & Saul became alway Dauids enemie.

m Least he would depriue him of his kingdome.

30 The lordes of the Philistines vsed to goe forth: and when they went forth, Dauid behaued him selfe more wisely then all the seruants of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

The xix. Chapter.

2 Ionathan declareth to Dauid the wicked purpose of Saul. 23 The spirite of prophecie commeth on Saul.

1 SAul spake to Jonathan his sonne, and to all his seruantes, that they shoulde [a] kill Dauid.

a He layeth aside hypocrisie, and nowe bursteth out to open crueltie.

2 But Jonathan Saules sonne had a great fauour to Dauid, and Jonathan tolde Dauid, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: Now therefore I pray thee, take heede to thy selfe vntill the morning, & abide in some secrete place, and hide thy selfe:

3 And I will goe out and stand by my father, in the fielde where thou art, & will commune with my father of thee, and whatsoeuer I see, I will tell thee.

4 And Jonathan spake good of Dauid vnto Saul his father, and saide vnto him, Let not the king sinne against his seruant, against Dauid: for hee hath not sinned against thee, and his workes haue bene to thee warde very good.

‡ An Hebrewe phrase, whereby is meant, he put his life in danger.

5 For hee did put his life in ‡ his hande, and slewe the Philistine, and the Lord brought to passe a great health for all Israel: thou sawest it, and thou reioycedst: Wherefore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, and slaye Dauid without a cause?

b Being perswaded and pacified for the time by Jonathans oration.

6 And Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of Jonathan, and Saul [b] sware, As the Lorde liueth, he shall not die.

7 And Jonathan called Dauid, and Jonathan shewed him all those wordes: and Jonathan brought Dauid to Saul, and he was in his [c] presence as in times past.

c That is, he serued him.

8 And the warre beganne againe, and Dauid went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slewe them with a great slaughter, and they fled from him.

9 And the euill spirite of the Lorde was vpon Saul, as he sate in his house, hauing a iauelin in his hand: and Dauid [d] played with his hand.

d On his harpe, to mitigate the rage of the euill spirit, as 1 Sam. 16.

10 And Saul entended to smite Dauid to the wall with the iauelin: but hee rid himselfe out of Sauls presence, and hee smote the speare into the wal: And Dauid fled, and was saued the same night.

11 Saul also sent messengers vnto Dauids house, to watch him, and to slaye him in the morning: and Michol Dauids wife tolde it him, saying, If thou saue not thy selfe this night, to morowe thou shalt be slayne.

e Herein doing the duetie of a faithfull wife towards her husband.

12 And so Michol [e] let Dauid downe thorowe a window: and he went, and fled, & was saued.

13 And Michol tooke an image, and layde it in the bed, and put a pillow stuffed with Goates heare vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth.

14 And when Saul sent messengers to fetch Dauid, she saide, He is sicke.

15 And Saul sent the messengers againe to see Dauid, saying, Bring him to me bed and all, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold, there lay an image in the bed with a pillowe of Goates heare vnder the head of it.

17 And Saul said vnto Michol, Why hast thou mocked mee so, and sent away mine enemie, that hee is escaped? Michol answered Saul, For he saide vnto me, Let me go, or else I wil kill thee.

18 And so Dauid fled, and escaped, and came to Samuel to Rama, and tolde him all that Saul had done to him: and hee and Samuel went and dwelt in [f] Naioth.

f It was a schoole where Gods lawe was studied & taught, neare to Rama.

19 And one told Saul, saying, Behold, Dauid is at Naioth in Rama.

20 And Saul sent messengers to fetch Dauid: and when they sawe a company of prophetes prophecying, and Samuel standing as [g] appointed ouer thē, the spirit of God fell vpon ỹ messengers of Saul, & they [h] prophecied too.

g For he was their teacher, and ruler of that schoole.

h They song Psalmes with the prophetes, & praised God, leauing off to seeke after Dauid.

21 And when it was tolde Saul, hee sent other messengers, and they prophecied likewise: and Saul sent messengers yet againe the thirde time, and they prophecied also.

22 Then went he him selfe to Rama, and came to a great well that is in Sechu: and hee asked, and saide, Where are Samuel and Dauid? And one saide, Beholde, they bee at Naioth in Rama.

23 And he went thither, euen to Naioth in Rama: and the spirit of God [i] came vpon him also, and he went prophecying vntill he came to Naioth in Rama.

i That Dauid might the better by that meanes escape his hand.

24 And he stript off his clothes, and prophecied before Samuel in like maner, and fel [k] naked all that day and all that night: and thereof it is that they say, Is Saul also among the prophets?

k Saul is saide to fall naked, for somuch as he put off his kingly apparel, and put on such as the prophets vsed to weare in time of prophecying, 2. Reg. 6. 20.

The xx. Chapter.

2 Ionathan comforted Dauid. 3 They renue their league. 33 Saul woulde haue killed Ionathan. 38 Ionathan aduertiseth Dauid by three arrowes, of his fathers furie.

1 AND Dauid fled from Naioth, which is in Rama, and came and saide before Jonathan, What haue I done? wherein am I faultie? what is the sinne that I haue committed before thy father, that hee seeketh my life?

2 Hee sayde vnto him, God forbid, thou shalt not die: behold, my father will doe nothing either great or small, but that he will ‡ shew it me: and how should my father hide this thing from me? he will not doe it.

‡ Heb. reueale it in mine eare.

3 And Dauid sware againe, and sayde, Thy father knoweth that I haue founde grace in thine eyes, and therefore hee thinketh, Jonathan shall not knowe it, least he bee sorie: and in very deede, euen as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, there is but a [a] step betweene me and death.

a That is, I am in great danger of death.

4 Then sayde Jonathan vnto Dauid, Whatsoeuer

‡ Heb. sayth.

soeuer thy soule ‡ desireth, that I will doe vnto thee.

5 And Dauid sayde vnto Jonathan, Beholde, to morowe is the [b] beginning of the moneth, and I should sitte with the king at meate: but let mee goe, that I may hide my selfe in the fieldes vnto the third day at Euen.

b And therfore a solemne feast, & solemne sacrifices belonging thereto.

6 If thy father speake of me, then say, Dauid asked leaue of me that he might go to Bethlehem to his owne citie: for there is holden a yeerely feast for all the kinred.

7 And if he say, It is well done, then thy seruant shall haue peace: but if he be angry, then be sure that wickednesse is vtterly concluded of him.

8 And then thou shalt shewe mercie vnto thy seruant, * for thou hast ioyned thy seruant into a [c] couenant of the Lorde with thee: notwithstanding, if there be in mee iniquitie, slay me thy selfe: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

1. Sam. 18. 3.

c Because it consisted in all godly & honest matters, & for that it was confirmed of both parties by an othe in the name of the Lord.

9 And Jonathan answered, God keepe that from thee: for if I knewe that wickednesse were [d] concluded of my father to come vpon thee, would not I tell it thee?

d That he were fully determined to kill thee.

10 Then sayd Dauid to Jonathan, Who shall tell me? howe [shall I know] if thy father answere thee cruelly?

11 And Jonathan said vnto Dauid, Come, and let vs goe out into the fielde. And they went out both of them into the fielde.

12 And Jonathan sayde vnto Dauid, O Lorde God of Israel, when I haue groped my fathers minde, at this time to morow, or within these three dayes, & if it be well with Dauid, and I then send not vnto thee, & shew it thee:

13 The Lord doe so [e] and much more to Jonathan: but if my father haue pleasure to doe thee euill, I will shewe thee also, and send thee away: that thou mayest goe in peace, and the Lorde be with thee, as he hath bene with my father.

e That is, the Lord punish me most grieuously.

14 And [I require] not whiles I liue, [for I doubt not] but thou wilt shewe me the mercie of the Lord, that I dye not:

15 But [I require] that thou cutte not off thy mercie from my house for euer, no not when the Lorde hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid euery one from the face of the earth.

16 And so Jonathan made a bonde with the house of Dauid, [saying,] Let the Lorde require it at the handes of Dauids enemies.

17 And Jonathan sware againe vnto Dauid, because he loued him: for he loued him as his owne soule.

18 Then sayd Jonathan to Dauid, To morow is the first day of the moone: and thou shalt be ‖ missed, because the place where thou wast wont to sit, shalbe emptie.

‖ Or mentioned.

19 Therefore thou shalt hyde thy selfe three dayes, [then] thou shalt go downe quickly, & come to ỹ place where thou diddest hide thy selfe when the businesse was in hande, & shalt remayne by the stone ‡ Esel.

‡ Heb. of the way, because it serued as a signe to shew the way.

20 And I will shoote three arrowes on the side thereof, as though I shot them at a marke.

21 And I will send a lad, and bid him goe seeke the arrowes. And if I say vnto the lad, See, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them: then come thou, for it is peace and no hurt, as the Lord liueth.

22 But if I say vnto the ladde, Beholde, the arrowes are beyonde thee: goe thy way, for the [f] Lord hath sent thee away.

f Using me as his instrument to giue thee warning to make away.

23 And as touching this which thou and I haue spoken, behold, the Lord be betweene thee and me for euer.

24 And so Dauid hid himselfe in the field: And when the newe Moone was come, the king sate him downe to eate meate.

25 And the king sate as at other times vpon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wal: and Jonathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls side, and Dauids place was emptie.

26 Neuertheless, Saul sayde nothing at all that day: for he thought, some thing hath befallen him, [g] though he were cleane: [or els] because he was not purified.

g Per he might haue some vncleanesse to let him.

27 But on the morowe, which was the seconde day of the newe Moone, Dauids place was emptie againe: and Saul sayde vnto Jonathan his sonne, Wherefore commeth not the sonne of [h] Jsai to meate, neyther yesterday nor to day?

h He calleth him the sonne of Jsai by contempt and disdaine.

28 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul, Dauid asked licence of me to go to Bethlehem.

29 For he sayd, Let me goe, I pray thee, for our kinred doth holde an offering in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me, and therefore if I haue founde fauour in thine eyes, let me goe, I pray thee, and see my brethren: This is the cause that he commeth not vnto the kings table.

30 Then Saul was angry with Jonathan, and sayde vnto him, Thou [i] sonne of the wicked rebellious [woman,] do not I know that thou hast chosen the sonne of Jsai vnto thine owne rebuke, and vnto the rebuke and shame of thy mother?

i Thou foolishest the maner of thy mother, which neuer obeyed me.

31 For as long as the sonne of Jsai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor yet thy kingdome: wherefore now sende, & fetche him vnto me, for he is the childe [k] of death.

k An Hebrew phrase, meaning, he shall surely dye.

32 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul his father, and sayde vnto him, Wherefore shall he dye? what hath he done?

33 And Saul lift vp a speare to hit him, whereby Jonathan wist well that it was vtterly determined of his father to slay Dauid.

34 And so Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eate no meate the seconde day of the moneth: for he was sory for Dauid, because because his father had done him shame.

35 On the next morning, Jonathan went out into the fielde, at the [l] time appointed, with Dauid, and a litle lad with him.

36 And he sayd vnto his boy, Runne, and seeke out mine arrowes which I shoote. And as the boy ranne, he shot an arrow beyond him.

37 And when the ladde was come to the place whither Jonathan had shot the arrow, Jonathan cryed after the lad, and sayde, Is not the arrowe beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cryed after the lad againe, Make [m] speede, haste, and stand not still. And Jonathans lad gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his master.

39 But the lad wist nothing of the matter, only Jonathan and Dauid wist it.

40 And Jonathan gaue his [n] instruments vnto the lad that was with him, and sayd vnto him, Goe and carry them to the towne.

41 And as soone as the lad was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was toward ỹ South, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himselfe three times: & they kissed eche other, and wept together, but Dauid [o] exceeded.

42 And Jonathan sayd to Dauid, Go in peace, and the things which we haue sworne both of vs in the name of the Lorde, saying, The Lord be betweene me and thee, and betweene thy seede and mine, [let them stand] for euer. And he arose, and departed: and Jonathan went into the towne.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Dauid fleeth to Nob to Ahimelech the Priest. 6 He getteth of him the shewbread to satisfie his hunger.

1 Then came Dauid to [a] Nob, to Ahimelech the Priest, and Ahimelech was astonied at the meeting of Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Why art thou alone, and no man with thee?

2 And Dauid said vnto Ahimelech the Priest, The king hath [b] commaunded me a certaine thing, and hath sayde vnto me, Let no man knowe whereabout I send thee, and what I haue commanded thee: and I haue appointed my seruants to such and such places:

3 Nowe therefore if thou hast ought vnder thine hande, giue mee fiue loaues of bread, or what commeth to hand.

4 And the Priest answered Dauid, and sayde, There is no common bread vnder mine hand, but here is halowed bread: if the yong men haue kept themselues, specially from women.

5 Dauid answered the Priest, and sayde vnto him, Of a trueth women hath bene separated from vs this two or three dayes, since I came out: and the [c] vessels of the yong men were holy, although this way be impure, yet this day it shalbe sanctified in the vessel.

6 *And so the Priest gaue him halowed bread, for there was none other bread there, saue the shewe bread that was taken from before the Lorde, to put fresh bread there, the day that it was taken away.

a Where the arke then was, to ask the counsel of the Lord.

d Tarying to worship before the arke.

8 And Dauid sayde vnto Ahimelech, Is not here vnder thine hand either speare or sword? for I haue neither brought my sworde nor my harnesse with me, because the kings businesse required haste.

9 * And the Priest sayde, The sworde of Goliah the Philistine, whome thou slewest in the valley of Elah, beholde, it is here wrapt in a cloth behinde the [e] Ephod: if thou wilt take that, take it, for there is no other saue that here. And Dauid said, There is none to that, giue it me.

The xxii. Chapter.

1 Dauid hideth himselfe in a caue. 2 Many that were in trouble, came vnto him.

1 Dauid therefore departed thence, and escaped to the caue [a] Adullam: when his brethren also and his fathers house heard it, they went downe thither to him.

a Which was in the tribe of Juda, & nere to Bethlehem.

2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in combrance, and in debt, and troubled in their mindes, & he became a captaine ouer them: and there were with him vpon a foure hundred men.

3 And Dauid went thence to Mispah, in the lande of [b] Moab, and sayde vnto the king of Moab, Let my father and my mother, I pray thee, come forth vnto you, till I knowe what God will do for me.

b For there was another so called in Juda.

4 And he [c] brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the while that Dauid kept himselfe in the [d] holde.

c To auoyde the rage and crueltie of Saul.

d That is, in Mispah, which was a strong holde.

5 And

5 And the Prophet Gad ſayde vnto Dauid, Abide not in the holde, but depart and go into the land of Juda. Then Dauid departed, and came into the forreſt Hareth.

6 And Saul heard that Dauid was diſcouered, and alſo the men that were with him: and Saul ſate in Gibea vnder a tree in Rama, hauing his ſpeare in his hande, and all his men ſtoode about him.

7 And Saul ſayd vnto his ſeruants that ſtood about him, Heare, I pray you, e ye ſonnes of Jemini: Will the ſonne of Jſai giue euery one of you fieldes & vineyardes, and make you all captaines ouer thouſands, & ouer hundreds:

e Ye that are of my tribe & linage.

8 That ye haue alſo conſpired againſt me, and there is none that telleth mee that my ſonne hath made a couenant with the ſonne of Jſai, and there is none of f you that is ſory for mee, or ſheweth mee that my ſonne hath ſtirred vp my ſeruant to lye in wayte againſt mee, [as appeareth] this day.

f Thereby he would perſwade thē, that this cōſpiracie was moſt horrible, where the ſonne conſpired againſt the father, and the ſeruāt againſt his maſter.

9 Then anſwered Doeg the Edomite, (which was appoynted by the ſeruants of Saul) and ſayd, I ſaw the ſonne of Jſai when he came to Nob, to Ahimelech the ſonne of Ahitob, 10 Which aſked counſel of the Lorde for him, and gaue him victuals, & gaue him the ſworde of Goliath the Philiſtine alſo.

11 Then the king ſent & called for Ahimelech the Prieſt the ſonne of Ahitob, & al his fathers houſe, [that is to ſay,] the g prieſtes that were in Nob: and they came all to the king.

g Which were the remnant of the houſe of Eli, whoſe houſe God threatned to punish.

12 And Saul ſayde, Heare now, thou ſonne of Ahitob. Hee anſwered, Here I am, my lorde.

13 And Saul ſayde vnto him, Why haue yee conſpired againſt mee, thou, and the ſonne of Jſai, in that thou haſt giuen him victuall, and a ſworde, and haſt aſked counſaile of God for him, that he ſhoulde riſe againſt me, and lye in wayte for me, [as appeareth] this day?

14 Ahimelech anſwered the king, and ſayde, Who is ſo faithfull among all thy ſeruants, as Dauid, being alſo the kings ſonne in law, and goeth at thy bidding, and is had in honor in thine houſe?

15 Haue I this day begun firſt h to aſke counſell of God for him? that be farre from me: let not the king impute any thing vnto his ſeruant, nor to all the houſe of my father: for thy ſeruant knew nothing of all this, either leſſe or more.

h When he went about thy affaires.

16 The king ſayd, Thou ſhalt ſurely dye, Ahimelech, thou, and all thy fathers houſe.

17 And the king ſayde vnto the footemen that ſtoode about him, Turne, and ſlay the Prieſts of the Lorde: both becauſe their hand is with Dauid, and becauſe they knewe when Dauid fled, and ſhewed it not to me. But the ſeruants of the king i would not moue their handes to fall vpon the Prieſts of the Lord.

i Becauſe they feared to ſhead innocēt blood.

18 And the king ſayde to Doeg, Turne thou, and ‖ fall vpon the Prieſtes. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ranne vpon the Prieſts, and ſlewe that ſame day foure ſcore and fiue perſons that did weare a linen Ephod.

‖ Or, ſlay.

19 And Nob the citie of the Prieſtes ſmote he with the edge of the ſworde, both men and women, children and ſucklings, oxen and aſſes, and ſheepe, with the edge of the ſworde.

20 And one of the ſonnes of Ahimelech, the ſonne of Ahitob, named k Abiathar, eſcaped, and fled to Dauid:

k This was Gods prouidence, who according to his promiſe, preſerued ſome of the houſe of Eli, Chap. 2. 33.

21 And Abiathar ſhewed Dauid howe that Saul had ſlayne the Lordes Prieſtes.

22 And Dauid ſaid vnto Abiathar, I wiſt it the ſame day, when Doeg ỹ Edomite was there, that he would tell Saul: & I am cauſe of the death of all the perſons of thy fathers houſe.

23 Abide thou with mee, and feare not: for he that ſeeketh my life, he ſhall ſeeke thine alſo, with me thou ſhalt be in ſafegarde.

The xxiii. Chapter.

5 Dauid chaſeth the Philiſtines from Keila. 16 Ionathan comforteth Dauid. 28 Sauls enterpriſe is broken in purſuing Dauid.

1 THen they told Dauid, ſaying, Behold, the Philiſtines fight againſt a Keila, and ſpoyle the barnes.

a Which was a citie in the tribe of Juda, Ioſh. 15.

2 Therefore Dauid aſked counſell of the Lord, ſaying, Shall I goe and ſmite theſe Philiſtines? And the Lorde anſwered vnto Dauid, Goe, and ſmite the Philiſtines, and ſaue Keila.

3 And Dauids men ſayde vnto him, See, we be afrayde here b in Juda: howe much more then if we come to Keila againſt the hoſte of the Philiſtines?

b That is, in the middes of Juda, much more when we come to fight vnders againſt our enemies.

4 Then Dauid aſked counſell of the Lorde againe: and the Lord anſwered him, and ſayde, Ariſe, and goe downe to Keila: for I will deliuer the Philiſtines into thine hand.

5 And ſo Dauid and his men went to Keila, and fought with the Philiſtines, and brought away their cattell, & ſmote them with a great ſlaughter, and ſo Dauid ſaued the inhabitants of Keila.

6 And when Abiathar the ſonne of Ahimelech fled to Dauid to Keila, he brought an c Ephod with him in his hand, c For ỹ Saul was now deſtitute of ỹ vſe of prieſthood, & the Ephod, God by his prouidence tranſferring both to Dauid.

7 And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was come to Keila: and Saul ſayde, God hath deliuered him into mine hand: for he is ſhut in, nowe that he is come into a towne that hath gates and barres.

8 And Saul called all the people together to warre, for to goe downe to Keila, and to beſiege Dauid and his men.

9 And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saul imagined miſchiefe againſt him, ſayd to Abiathar the Prieſt, d Bring the Ephod.

d To conſult with the Lord by Vrim, and Thummim.

10 Then ſayde Dauid, O Lord God of Iſrael, thy ſeruant hath heard that Saul is about to come come to Keila, to destroy the citie for my sake.

11 Will the lordes of Keila deliuer me into his hand? And wil Saul come downe as thy seruant hath heard, O Lord God of Israel? I beseech thee tell thy seruant. And the Lord sayd, He will come downe.
12 Then sayd Dauid, Will the lordes of Keila deliuer me, and the men that are with me, into the hand of Saul? And the Lord sayde, They will deliuer thee vp.
13 Then Dauid and his men, which were vpō a sixe hundred, arose, & departed out of Keila, and went [e] whither they could: and it was told Saul that Dauid was fled from Keila, and he let the iourney alone.
14 Dauid abode in the wildernesse, in strong holdes, and remayned in a mountaine in the wildernesse of Ziph: and Saul sought him euery day, but God [f] deliuered him not into his hande.
15 And Dauid sawe that Saul was come out to seeke his life: and Dauid was in the wildernesse of Ziph in the wood.
16 And Jonathan Sauls sonne arose, & went to Dauid into the wood, and comforted his [g] hand in God, 17 And sayde vnto him, Feare not, for the hand of Saul my father shall not finde thee, & thou shalt be king ouer Israel, & I shalbe next vnto thee: and that doeth Saul my father knowe.
18 And they made a bonde both of them together before the Lord: and Dauid taryed stil in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.
19 Then came the Ziphites to Saul to Gibea, saying, Doeth not Dauid hide himselfe fast by vs in strong holdes in the wood, in the hill of Hachila, on the right side of ‖Jesimon?
20 Nowe therefore, O king, thou mayest come downe according to all the lust of thy soule, and our part shall be to deliuer him into the kings hand.
21 And Saul sayd, Blessed are ye in the Lord, for ye haue compassion on me:
22 Go, I pray you, & prepare yet better, know, and see where his [h] foote hath bene, and who hath seene him there: For it is tolde me that he is very subtile.
23 See therefore, and knowe all the lurking places where he hideth himselfe, and come ye againe to me with the certaintie, & I wil goe with you: and if he be in the [i] lande, I will searche him out throughout all the thousands of Juda.
24 And they arose, and went to Ziph before Saul: but Dauid and his men were in the wildernesse of Maon, in the playne that is on the right hand of Jesimon.
25 Saul also and his men went to seeke him, and they tolde Dauid: wherefore he came downe vnto a rocke, and abode in the wildernesse of [k] Maon: and when Saul heard that, he followed after Dauid in the wildernesse of Maon.
26 And Saul and his men went on the one side of the mountaine, and Dauid and his men on the other side of the mountaine: & Dauid made haste to get from the presence of Saul: for Saul and his men, compassed Dauid and his men round about, to take them.
27 But there came a [l] messenger vnto Saul, saying, Haste thee, & come: for the Philistines haue inuaded the land.
28 Wherfore Saul returned from persecuting Dauid, and went against the Philistines, and therefore they called that place, [m] Sela Hammahlekoth. And Dauid went thence, & dwelt in strong holdes at En-gadi.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Dauid hid in a caue, spareth Saul. 10 He sheweth to Saul his innocencie. 18 Saul acknowledgeth his fault. 22 He causeth Dauid to sweare vnto him to be fauourable to his seede.

1 WHen Saul was come againe frō following after the Philistines, there were which tolde him, saying, Beholde, Dauid is in the wildernesse of [a] En-gadi.
2 Then Saul tooke three thousande chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seeke Dauid and his men in the heyght of the rockes ‡ where wilde goates remayne.
3 And he came to the sheepe coates by the way, where there was a caue, and Saul went in to ‡ do his easement: and Dauid and his men remained in the ‡ inward partes of the caue.
4 And the men of Dauid sayd vnto him, See, the day is come of which the Lord sayde vnto thee, Beholde, I will deliuer thine enemie into thine hande, and thou shalt doe to him as it shall seeme good in thy sight. Then Dauid arose, and cut off the lappe of Sauls garment priuilie.
5 And afterward Dauids heart smote him, because he had cut off the lap of Sauls garmēt.
6 And he sayd vnto his men, The Lord keepe me from doing that thing vnto my maister the Lords anoynted, to lay mine hand vpon him, seeing he is [b] the anoynted of the Lord.
7 And so Dauid kept off his seruantes with these wordes, and suffered them not to rise against Saul: but Saul rose vp out of the caue, and went away.
8 Dauid also arose afterwarde, and went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying, My lorde king. And when Saul looked behinde him, Dauid stowped [with] his face to the earth, and bowed himselfe:
9 And Dauid sayde to Saul, Wherefore giuest thou an eare to mens wordes, that say, Beholde, Dauid seeketh euill against thee?
10 Behold, this day thine eyes haue seene how that the Lorde hath deliuered thee this day into 17 And ſayde to Dauid, Thou art more righteous then I: for thou haſt rewarded mee with good, whereas I haue rewarded thee w euill.

18 And thou haſt ſhewed this day howe that thou haſt dealt well with mee: forasmuch as when the Lord had cloſed me in thine handes, thou killedſt me not.

19 For who ſhall finde his enemie, and let him depart into a [d] good way? Wherfore the Lord reward thee with good, for that thou haſt done vnto me this day.

d That is, will let him go ſafe and without harme.

20 And nowe beholde, I [e] wote well that thou ſhalt be king, and that the kingdome of Iſrael ſhalbe eſtabliſhed in thine hand.

e Though this tyrant ſawe & confeſſed the fauour of God toward Dauid, yet he ceaſed not to perſecute him againſt his owne conſcience: ſuch is the nature of them whome God giueth ouer.

1 Samuel dyeth. 3 Nabal and Abigail. 38 The Lorde killeth Nabal. 42 Abigail & Ahinoam Dauids wiues. 43 Michol is giuen to Phalti.

1.Reg.28.3.

1 AND * Samuel dyed, and all the Iſraelites gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his own [a] houſe at Rama. And Dauid aroſe, and went downe to the wildernesſe of Pharan.

a That is, among his owne kinred.

2 And there was a man in [b] Maon, whoſe poſſeſſion was in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mighty, & had three thouſand ſheepe, and a thouſand goates: and he was ſhearing his ſheepe in Carmel.

b Maon and Carmel, were cities in the tribe of Iuda, Carmel the mountaine was in Galilee

3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wife was Abigail, and ſhe was a woman of a ſingular wiſdome, and beautiful: but the man was churliſh, and of ſhrewde conditions, and was of the kinred of Caleb.

4 And Dauid heard in the wildernesſe that Nabal did ſheare his ſheepe.

5 And Dauid ſent out ten yong men, and ſaid vnto them, Get you vp to Carmel, and goe to Nabal, and ‡ greete him in my name.

‡ Heb. aske him in my name of peace.

6 And ye ſhall ſay, So mayeſt thou liue, peace be to thee, peace be to thine houſe, and peace be vnto all that thou haſt.

7 Behold, I haue heard ſay that thou haſt ſhearers: nowe thy ſhepheards [c] were with vs, and we did them no ſpite, neither was there ought miſſing vnto them all the while they were in Carmel:

c That is, were conuerſant with vs in the wildernesſe.

8 Aſke thy laddes, and they will ſhewe thee: Wherefore let theſe yong men finde fauour in thine eyes (for we come in a good ‡ ſeaſon) and giue, I pray thee, whatſoeuer [d] commeth to thine hande, vnto thy ſeruantes, and to thy ſonne Dauid.

‡ Heb. In a good day, that is, the day that thou makeſt a feaſt for thy ſheareres.

d That is, whatſoeuer thou haſt reaſon for vs.

9 And when Dauids yong men came, they tolde Nabal all thoſe wordes in the name of Dauid: and helde their peace.

10 And Nabal anſwered Dauids ſeruants, and ſayde, [e] Who is Dauid? and who is the ſonne of Iſai? There is plentie of ſeruants nowe a dayes that breake away euery man from his maſter.

e Nabal lacketh no wealth, nor riches: but yet by this his anſwere, it appeareth that he lacketh wiſdome and goodneſſe.

11 Shall I then take my bread, my water, and my fleſh that I haue killed for my ſhearers, & giue it vnto men whome I wote not whence they be?

12 And ſo Dauids ſeruants turned their way, and went againe, and came and tolde him all thoſe ſayings.

13 And Dauid ſaid vnto his men, Gyrde euery man his ſworde about him. And they gyrded euery man his ſworde about him, and Dauid was gyrded with his ſworde: & there folowed Dauid vpon a foure hundred men, and two hundred abode by the ‡ ſtuffe.

‡ Heb. veſſels.

14 But one of the laddes tolde Abigail Nabals wife, ſaying, Behold, Dauid ſent meſſengers vnto our maſter out of the wildernesſe to ſalute him: and he ‡ rayled on them.

‡ Heb. drane them away.

15 And yet the men were very good [f] vnto vs, and did vs no diſpleaſure, neither miſſed wee any thing as long as wee were conuerſant with them, when we were in the fieldes.

f When we kept our ſheepe in the wildernesſes of Pharan

16 They were [g] a wall vnto vs both by night and day, all the while we were with them keeping ſheepe.

g That is, inſtead of a wall.

17 Now therfore take heede, and ſee what thou ſhalt do: for ſurely euill ‡ will come vpon our maſter, and all his houſholde: for he is ſo wicked, that a man can not ſpeake to him.

‡ Heb. is accompliſhed.

18 Then

18 Then Abigail made haste, and tooke two hundred ‡ loaues, and two bottels of wine, & fiue sheepe ready dressed, and fiue measures of parched corne, and an hundred ‖ frayles of reasings, and two hundred ‖ cakes of figges, and laded them on asses, 19 And sayd vnto her yong men, Go before me, beholde, I come after you. But shee tolde her husband Nabal nothing thereof.

20 And as she rode on her asse, she came priuily downe the side of the hill, and beholde, Dauid and his men came downe against her, and shee met them.

21 And Dauid sayde, Surely in vayne haue I kept all that this felowe hath in the wildernesse, so that nothing was missed of all that pertayned vnto him: and he hath quitte mee euill for good.

22 So and more also do God vnto the enemies of Dauid, if I leaue of all that pertayne to him by the dawning of the day, any that [h] pisseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigail saw Dauid, she hasted, & lighted off her asse, & fell before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, 24 And fell at his feete, and sayde, Let this iniquitie be counted mine, my Lorde, & let thine handmayd, I pray thee, speake in thine ‡ audience, & heare the words of thine handmayde.

25 Let not my Lorde, I pray thee, regarde this wicked ‖ man Nabal: for as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, and follie is with him: But I thine handmayde sawe not the yong men of my lord whome thou sendest.

26 Now therefore my lord, as the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, euen the Lorde that hath withholde thee from comming to [shed] blood, and kept thine [i] hand to thee: so nowe, I praye God, that thine enemies, and they that intende to doe my lorde euill, may be as Nabal.

27 And nowe this ‖ blessing which thine handmayde hath brought vnto my lorde, let it bee giuen vnto the yong men that ‡ followe my lorde.

28 I pray thee, forgiue the trespasse of thine handmayde: for the Lord will make my lorde a [k] sure house, because my lorde fighteth the battels of the Lord, and there could none euill be found in thee in all thy dayes.

29 And yet a [l] man hath risen to persecute thee, and to seeke thy soule: but the soule of my lord shalbe bound [m] in the bundle of the liuing with the Lorde thy God, and the soules of thine enemies shall God cast out, euen as out of the middle of a sling.

30 And when the Lorde shall haue done to my lord all the good that he hath promised thee, and shal haue made thee ruler ouer Israel:

31 Then shall it be no griefe vnto thee, nor offence of minde vnto my lorde, that thou hast not shed blood causeles, and that my lorde hath not auenged himselfe: but when the Lord shal haue dealt well with my lord, then thinke on thine handmayde.

32 And Dauid sayde to Abigail, Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meete me.

33 Blessed is thy saying, and blessed art thou which hast kept mee this day from comming to shed blood, and from auenging my selfe with mine owne hand.

34 For in very deede, as the Lord God of Israel liueth, which hath kept me backe from hurting thee, except thou haddest hasted and met me, surely there had not bene left vnto Nabal by the dawning of the day, any that pisseth against the wall.

35 And so Dauid receyued of her hande that which she had brought him, and said vnto her, Goe vp in peace to thine house, beholde, I haue heard thy voyce, and haue ‡ granted thy petition.

36 And Abigail came to Nabal, and beholde, he helde a feast in his house like the feast of a king, and Nabals heart was merry within him, for he was very drunken: wherefore shee tolde [n] him nothing neither lesse nor more, vntill the morow morning.

37 But in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wife tolde him these wordes, and his heart dyed within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And about ten dayes after, the Lorde smote Nabal, that he dyed.

39 And when Dauid heard that Nabal was dead, he sayde, Blessed be the Lorde that hath ‖ iudged the cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabal, & hath kept his seruant from euill: for the Lorde hath recõpenced the wickednesse of Nabal vpõ his own head. And Dauid sent to cõmune with Abigail, to take her to his wife.

40 And whẽ the seruants of Dauid were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake vnto her, saying, Dauid sent vs vnto thee, to take thee to his wife. And she arose, and bowed her selfe on her face tc the earth, and sayd, Beholde, let thine handmayd be a seruant to wash the feete of the seruants of my lord.

41 And Abigail hasted, and arose, and gate her vpon an asse, with fiue damosels of hers that [o] went at her feete, and she went after the messengers of Dauid, and became his wife.

42 Dauid also tooke Ahinoam of Jezrael, and they were both his wiues.

43 But Saul had giuen Michal his daughter, Dauids wife, to Phalti the sonne of Lais, which was of [p] Gallim.

The xxvi. Chapter.

1 Dauid was discouered vnto Saul by the Ziphites. 12 Dauid taketh away Sauls speare, and a cruse of water that stoode at his head. 21 Saul confesseth his sinne.

1 The

1 THe Ziphites came againe vnto Saul to Gibea, ſaying, Doeth not Dauid hide himſelfe in the ‖ hill of * Hachilah, which is before ‖ Jeſimon?

‖Or, in Gibea. 1.Sam.23.19. ‖Or, the wilderneſſe.

2 Saul arose, and went downe to the wilderneſſe of Ziph, hauing three thouſand [a] chosen men of Iſrael with him, for to ſeeke Dauid in the wilderneſſe of Ziph.

a That is, of the moſt skilful and valiant ſouldiers.

3 And Saul pitched in the hill of Hachilah, which is before Jeſimon by the way ſide: but Dauid dwelt in the wildernes, & he ſaw that Saul came after him into the wilderneſſe:

4 Dauid therefore ſent out ſpyes, and vnderſtoode that Saul was come in very deede.

5 And Dauid arose, & came to the place where Saul had pitched: and * Dauid beheld the place where Saul laye, and Abner the ſonne of Ner, which was his chiefe captaine: for Saul lay in the fort, and the people pitched round about him.

1Sam.14.50. and 17.55.

6 Then answered Dauid, and ſpake to Ahimelech the Hethite, & to Abiſai the ſonne of Zaruia and brother to Joab, ſaying, Who wil goe downe with me to Saul to the hoſt? And Abiſai ſayd, I will go downe with thee.

7 And ſo Dauid and Abiſai came downe to the people by night, and beholde, Saul lay ſleeping within the fort, and his ſpeare ſtacke in the ground at his ‖ head: but Abner and the people lay round about him.

‖Or, bolſter.

8 Then ſayde Abiſai to Dauid, God hath cloſed thine enemie into thine hande this day: now, I pray thee, let me ſmite him once with my ſpeare to the earth, and I will not [b] ſmite him the ſecond time.

b Meaning, he would make him ſo ſure at one ſtroke, that he ſhould not nede to ſtrike him againe.

9 And Dauid ſaid to Abiſai, Deſtroy him not: for who can lay his hand on the Lordes [c] anoynted, and be guiltleſſe?

c To wit, in his owne priuate cauſes, for otherwiſe Jehu ſlewe two kings at gods appointment, 4.King.6.24.

10 And Dauid ſayd furthermore, As the Lord liueth, the Lord ſhal ſmite him, or his day ſhal come to dye, or he ſhall deſcend into battell, and periſh:

11 The Lord keepe me from laying mine hand vpon the Lordes anoynted: but I pray thee, take thou nowe the ſpeare that is at his head, and the cruſe of water, and let vs goe.

12 And ſo Dauid tooke the ſpeare and the cruſe of water from Sauls head, and they gate them away, and no man ſawe it, nor marked it, neyther awaked: for they were all a ſleepe, becauſe the ‡ Lorde had ſent a dead ſleepe vpon them.

‡Heb. The ſleepe of the Lord was fallen vpon them.

13 Then Dauid went ouer to the other ſide, and ſtoode on the toppe of an hill a farre off (a great ſpace being betweene them:)

14 And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abner the ſonne of Ner, ſaying, ‡ Heareſt thou not, Abner? Abner answered and ſayd, Who art thou that cryeſt to the king?

‡Heb. answereſt thou not?

15 And Dauid ſayde to Abner, Art not thou a [d] man? and who is like to thee in Iſrael? Wherefore then haſt thou not kept thy Lord the king? For there came one of the folke in, to deſtroy the king thy lord.

d Valiant, and one that the king doeth truſt.

16 It is not well done of thee: as the Lorde liueth, ye are ‡ worthie to dye, becauſe ye haue not kept your maſter the Lordes anoynted: And nowe ſee where the kings ſpeare is, and the cruſe of water that was at his head.

‡ Heb. ſonnes of death.

17 And Saul knewe Dauids voyce, & ſayd, Is this thy voyce, my ſonne Dauid? And Dauid ſayd, It is my voyce, my lorde, O king.

18 And he ſaid, Wherefore doeth my lord thus perſecute his ſeruant? for what haue I done? or what euill is in mine hand?

19 Nowe therefore, I pray thee, let my lord the king heare the wordes of his ſeruant: If the Lorde haue ſtirred thee vp againſt mee, [e] let him ſmell the ſauour of a ſacrifice: but if they be y^ [f] childrē of men, curſed are they before the Lord, for they haue caſt me out this day from abiding in the inheritance of the Lord, [g] ſaying, Go ſerue other gods.

e That is, let the worke that thou haſt in hand, be accepted before the Lord.

f That haue ſtirred thee vp againſt me.

g By their deedes, although not in plaine words, inaſmuch as they forced him to flee vnto the idolatrous nations.

20 Nowe therefore, let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lord: for the king of Iſrael is come out to ſeeke a flea, as when one doth hunt a partridge in the mountaines.

21 Then ſayd Saul, I haue ſinned: Come againe, my ſonne Dauid, for I wil doe thee no more harme, becauſe my ſoule was [h] precious in thine eyes this day: beholde I haue played the foole, and haue erred exceedingly.

h Becauſe thou ſauedſt my life this day.

22 And Dauid answered and ſayd, Behold the kings ſpeare, let one of the yong men come ouer and fetch it.

23 The Lorde reward euery man according to his [i] righteouſneſſe and faithfulneſſe: for the Lorde deliuered thee into my hande this day, but I would not lay mine hande vpon the Lordes anoynted.

i Thus he proteſted his innocencie toward Saul, not defending his iuſtice in the ſight of God, in whoſe preſence none is righteous, Pſal.14.3. and 130.3.

24 And behold, like as thy life was much ſet by this day in mine eyes: ſo be my life ſet by in the eyes of the Lord, that he deliuer me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul ſaid to Dauid, Bleſſed art thou, my ſonne Dauid: for thou ſhalt doe great things, and preuaile. And ſo Dauid went his way, and Saul turned to his place againe.

The xxvii. Chapter.

1 Dauid fleeth to Achis king of Gath, who giueth him Ziklag. 8 Dauid deſtroyeth certaine of the Philiſtines. 10 Achis is deceyued by Dauid.

1 AND Dauid ſayd in his heart, I ſhal periſh one day by the hand of Saul: therefore is there nothing better for me then to flee, and [a] ſaue my ſelfe in the land of the Philiſtines, and Saul ſhal ceaſe, and ſeeke me no more in all the coaſtes of Iſrael, and ſo ſhal I eſcape out of his hand.

a Dauid diſtrusteth Gods protection, & therefore fleeth vnto the tholaters, who were enemies vnto Gods people.

2 And Dauid arose, and he and the ſixe hundred men that were with him, went vnto Achis the ſonne of Maoch king of Gath.

3 And

3 And Dauid dwelt with Achis at Gath, both he and his men, euery man with his household, and Dauid with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Iezrahelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite.

4 And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was fled to Gath, and he sought no more for him.

5 And Dauid sayde vnto Achis, If I haue nowe founde grace in thine eyes, [b] let them giue mee a place in some towne in the countrey, that I may dwell there: for why should thy seruant dwel in the head citie of the kingdome with thee?

b That is, let thine officers appoint me a place.

6 Then Achis gaue him [c] Ziklag that same day, for which cause Ziklag pertayneth vnto the kings of Iuda vnto this day.

c Dauid, which among his friendes could haue no sure abiding, by the prouidence of God, among his enemies findeth protection, and a citie to dwell in.

7 And the ‡ time that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philistines, was foure moneths, and certaine dayes.

‡ Heb. the number of the dayes.

8 And Dauid and his men went vp and inuaded the Gessurites, the Gerzites, and the Amalekites: for those nations were from the beginning the inhabitantes of the land, as men go to Sur vnto the land of Egypt.

9 And Dauid smote the land, and left neither man nor woman aliue, and tooke away the sheepe, the oxen, the asses, the camels, and clothes, and returned, and came to Achis.

10 And Achis sayde, Where haue ye bene a rouing this day? And Dauid answered, Against the South of Iuda, and against the South of the [d] Ierameelites, and against the South of the [e] Kenites.

d Which were a kinnlie of the tribe of Iuda, 1.Chro.2.

e Which were the kinnlie of Iethro Moses father in lawe.

11 And Dauid saued neyther man nor woman aliue, to bring tidings to Gath, saying, Least they should tell on vs, [and say,] So did Dauid, and so will be his maner all the while he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistines.

12 And Achis beleeued Dauid, saying, ‖ Hee hath made his people Israel vtterly to abhorre him, and therefore he shalbe my seruant for euer.

‖ Or, he doeth surely abhorre his people.

The xxviii. Chapter.

2 Dauid hath the chiefe charge promised about Achis. 8 Saul consulteth with a witche, and she causeth him to speake vnto Samuel, 18 Who declareth his ruine.

1 AND in those dayes the Philistines gathered their host together to warre, to fight with Israel: And Achis sayd vnto Dauid, Be sure thou shalt goe out with me to battel, thou, and the men that are with thee.

2 And Dauid sayde to Achis, Surely thou shalt [a] know what thy seruant can do. And Achis sayde to Dauid, Then I will make thee keeper of my head for euer.

a Albeit it was a griefe to Dauid to fight against ye people of God, yet such was his infirmitie, he durst not denie him.

3 Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buryed him in Rama his owne citie: and Saul had put [b] away the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land.

b According to Gods commandement, Exod.22.

4 And the Philistines gathered together, and came and pitched in Sunem: and Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pitched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul sawe the host of the Philistines, he was afrayde, and his heart was sore astonied.

6 And when Saul asked counsell of the Lord, the Lorde answered him not, neyther by dreames, nor by Urim, nor yet by Prophets.

7 * Then sayde Saul vnto his seruantes, Seeke me a woman that hath a familiar spirite, that I may goe to her, and aske of her. And his seruants sayde to him, Behold, there is a woman that hath a familiar spirite at Endor.

Exod.28.30. leuit.20.27.

8 And Saul changed himselfe, and [c] put on other rayment, and then went he and two men with him, and they came to the woman by night, and he sayd, I pray thee coniecture vnto me by thy familiar spirit, and bring me him vp whome I shall name vnto thee.

c Saul seeketh not to God in his miserie, but is led by Satã to vnlawfull meanes, which in his conscience he had condemned.

9 And the woman sayde vnto him, Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done, howe he hath destroyed the sorcerers, & the soothsayers out of the lande: Wherefore then layest thou a snare for my soule, to cause me to dye?

10 And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying, As the Lorde liueth, there shall no ‖ harme come to thee for this thing.

‖ Or, punishment

11 Then sayd the woman, Whom shall I fetch vp vnto thee? He answered, [d] Bring mee vp Samuel.

d He speaketh according to his grosse ignorance, not considering the state of the Saintes after this life, & how Satan hath no power ouer them.

12 When the woman sawe Samuel, she cryed with a loude voyce, and spake to Saul, saying, Why hast thou deceyued me: for thou art Saul.

13 And the king sayd vnto her, Be not afrayd: What sawest thou? The woman sayde vnto Saul, I saw ‖ goddes ascending vp out of the earth.

‖ Or, an excellent person.

14 He sayde vnto her againe, What fashion is he of? She answered, There commeth vp an olde man with a mantel vpon him. And Saul perceiued that it was [e] Samuel, and he stowped with his face to the grounde, and bowed himselfe.

e To his imagination, albeit it was Satan in deede: who to blinde his eyes, tooke vpõ him the forme of Samuel, as he can do of an angell of light, 2.Cor.11.

15 And Samuel said to Saul, Why hast thou vnquieted mee, to make me be brought vp? Saul answered, I am sore encombred, for the Philistines make warre against me, and God is departed from mee, and answereth me no more, neither by Prophetes, nor by dreames: and therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest [f] tell me what I shall doe.

f Saul disobeyed, and regarded not his doctrine while he was aliue: But now he would learne of him being dead, contrary to Gods word.

16 Then sayd Samuel, Wherefore doest thou aske of me, while the Lord is gone from thee, and is become thine enemie?

17 Truely the Lord hath done to [g] him euen as he spake by my ‖ hand: for the Lord hath rent the kingdome out of thine hande, and giuen it thy neighbour Dauid:

g That is, Dauid.

‖ Or, ministerie.

18 Because

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lord, nor executedst his wrath vpon the A-malekites, therefore hath the Lorde done this vnto thee this day.
19 Any moreouer, the Lord will deliuer Israel with thee into the handes of the Philistines:
h That is, you shalbe dead. to morow shalt thou and thy sonnes be h with me, and the Lord shall giue the host of Israel into the hands of the Philistines.
20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore i afraid, because of the i And yet had no grace to repent and turne to the Lord. wordes of Samuel, and there was no strēgth in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.
21 And the woman came vnto Saul, and sawe that he was sore troubled, and sayd vnto him, See, thine handmaid hath obeyed thy voyce, k That is, I haue put my life in danger. and k haue put my soule in my hand, and haue harkened vnto thy wordes which thou saidst vnto me.
22 Now therefore, I pray thee, harken thou also vnto the voyce of thine handmaid, & let me set a morsell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eate, and get thee strength, and then goe on thy iourney.
23 He refused, and said, I will not eate. But his seruaunts, and the woman together compelled him, and hee harkened vnto their voyce: and so he arose from the earth, & sate on a bed.
24 The woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hasted and killed it, and tooke flowre and kneaded it, and did bake vnleauened bread thereof,
25 And brought them before Saul, and before his seruants: and when they had eaten, they stoode vp, and went away the same night.

hearts of all the people were vexed, euery mã for his sonnes, and for his daughters: but Dauid tooke a good courage to him in the Lord his God,

7 And said to Abiathar the priest Ahimelechs sonne, I pray thee, bring me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to Dauid.

8 And Dauid asked counsell at the Lord, saying, Shall I follow after this company? shal I ouertake them? And he answered him, Follow, for thou shalt surely ouertake them, and recouer all.

c When there is no place left for hope & in mans reason, God hath in store meanes of deliuerance for such as trust in him.

9 So Dauid and the sixe hundred men that were with him, went, and came to the riuer Besor, where a part of them abode.

10 But Dauid and foure hundred men followed: (For two hundred abode behinde, beyng too wearie to goe ouer the riuer Besor.)

11 And they found an Egyptian in the field, & brought him to Dauid, and gaue him bread, and he did eate, and water to drinke, 12 And gaue him a fewe figges, and two clusters of raisins: and when hee had eaten, his spirit came againe to him: for he had eaten no bread, nor drunke any water in three dayes and three nightes.

13 And Dauid saide vnto him, To whom belongest thou? and whence art thou? He saide, I am a young man of Egypt, and seruant to an Amalekite, and my maister left me, because three dayes agone I fell sicke.

14 We came a rouing vpon the south of Cherethus, and vpon the [coast] belonging to Iuda, and towarde the south of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fire.

15 And Dauid sayde to him, Canst thou bring mee to this companie? And he saide, d Sweare vnto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliuer me into the hands of my master, and I will bring thee to this companie.

d Vpon an oth he is content to commit his life to his handes: such was the reuerence of an oth among the heathen.

16 And when he had brought him thither, beholde, they lay scattered abroad vpon all the earth, e eating, and drinking, & dauncing, because of all the great pray that they had caried away out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Iuda.

e They cast no perill, nor consider not the destructiõ that hangeth ouer their head: this is the maner of the wicked.

17 And Dauid layde vpon them from the twilight, euen vnto the euening of the next morowe: so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundred yong men which rode vpon Camels, and fled.

18 And Dauid recouered all that the Amalekites had caried away: and Dauid rescued his two wiues.

19 So that there was nothing lacking to thẽ, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of al that they had taken away, Dauid recouered them all.

20 And Dauid tooke all ẏ sheepe, and the oxen, and they draue them before his cattell, and said, This is Dauids pray.

21 And Dauid came to the two hundred men that were too weary for to followe Dauid, whome they had made also to abide at the ryuer Besor: and they came to meete Dauid & the people that were with him: and when Dauid came to the people, hee saluted them friendly.

22 Then answered all the wicked and the vnthrifts of the men that went with Dauid, and sayde, Because they went not with vs, therefore will we giue them none of the pray that we haue recouered: but let euery man take his wife and his children, those let them cary away, and depart.

23 Then sayde Dauid, Ye shall not doe so, my brethren, with that which the Lorde hath giuen vs, who hath preserued vs, and deliuered the company that came against vs, into our hands.

24 For who will hearken vnto you in this matter? But as his part is that goeth downe and fighteth, so shall his part be that tarieth by the stuffe: they shall part alike.

25 And so from that daye forwarde was that made a statute, and a lawe in Israel, vnto this day.

26 When Dauid therefore came to Ziklag, hee sent of the pray vnto the elders of Iuda, and to his friendes, saying, See, there is a blessing for you, of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lord.

g He rewardeth thẽ with gifts, with whom he had bene succoured in the time of his persecutiõ.

27 He sent to them of Bethel, to thẽ of South Ramoth, to them of Iathir,

30 To them of Horma, to them of Chorashan, to them of Athach,

¶ The second Booke of Samuel, otherwise called the second Booke of the Kings.

The first Chapter.

4 It was told Dauid of Sauls death. 15 He causeth him to be slaine that brought the tidings. 19 He lamenteth the death of Saul and Ionathan.

1 AFter the death of Saul, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and had bene two dayes in Ziklag:

2 Behold, there came a man the third day out of the hoste from Saul, with his [a] clothes rent, and earth vpon his head: and when he came to Dauid, he fel to ỹ earth, and did obeisance.

3 Dauid sayde vnto him, Whence commest thou? He said vnto him, Out of the hoste of Israel I am escaped.

4 And Dauid said vnto him, And what is done? I pray thee, tel me. He said, The people is fled from the battell, and many of the people are ouerthrowen and dead, and Saul and Jonathan his sonne are dead also.

5 And Dauid said vnto the yong man that tolde it him, How knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his sonne be dead?

6 The yong man that tolde him, answered, [b] As I came by chance to mount Gilboa, beholde, Saul leaned vpon his speare: & loe, the charets and ‖ horsemen followed hard after him.

7 And when he looked backe, he saw me, and called me: and I answered, Here am I.

8 And he said vnto me, Who art thou? I answered him, I am an [c] Amalekite.

9 He said vnto me againe, I pray thee, come vpon me and slay me: for anguish is come vpon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 And so I ‖ stoode vpon him, and slewe him: and because I was sure that he could not liue after that he had fallen, I tooke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the bracelet that was on his arme, and haue brought them hither vnto my lord.

11 Then Dauid tooke hold on his clothes, and rent them, and so did all the men that were with him.

12 And they mourned and wept, and fasted vntill Euen for Saul and Jonathan his sonne, and for the people of the Lord, & for the house of Israel, because they were ouerthrowen with the sworde.

13 And Dauid sayde vnto the yong man that brought him these tydings, Whēce art thou? He answered, I am the sonne of an aliant, an Amalekite.

14 And Dauid sayd vnto him, * How is it that thou wast not afrayde to lay thine hand on the Lordes anoynted, to destroy him?

15 And Dauid called one of his yong men, and sayd, Goe to, and fall vpon him. And he smote him, that he dyed.

16 Then sayd Dauid vnto him, Thy blood [d] be vpon thine owne head: for thine owne mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I haue slayne the Lordes anoynted.

17 And Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul, and ouer Jonathan his sonne, 21 Ye mountaines of Gilboa, vpon you be neither dewe nor raine, nor ‖ fields of offerings: for there the shield of the mightie is cast downe, the shield of Saul, as though he had not bene anointed with oyle.

22 The bowe of Jonathan neuer turned backe, neither did the sword of Saul returne emptie from the blood of the slaine, and from the fat of the mightie.

23 Saul and Jonathan were louely and pleasant in their liues, and in their deaths they were not deuided: they were swifter then Eagles, and stronger then Lions.

The ii. Chapter.

4 Dauid is anointed king in Hebron.

1 AFter this, Dauid *asked counsel at the Lord, saying, Shal I goe vp into any of the cities of Iuda? And the Lorde said vnto him, Goe vp. And Dauid said, Whither shal I goe? He answered, Unto *Hebron.

2 And so Dauid went thither with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Jezraelite, and Abigail Nabals wife the Carmelite:

3 And the men that were with *him, did Dauid cary vp also, euery man with his household: and they dwelt in the townes of Hebron.

4 *And the men of Iuda came, & there they anointed Dauid king ouer the house of Iuda: and they told Dauid, saying, It is the men of Jabes Gilead that buried Saul.

5 And Dauid sent messengers vnto the men of Jabes Gilead, and said vnto them, Blessed are ye vnto the Lorde, that yee haue shewed such kindnesse vnto your lord Saul, & haue buried him.

6 And nowe the Lorde shewe mercie and † truetie vnto you: and * I will see you also such kindnesse, as ye haue done in this thing:

7 Therefore now let your handes be strong, & † play ye the men: for your master Saul is dead, and they that are of the house of Juda, haue anointed me king ouer them.

8 But Abner the sonne of Ner, that was captaine of Sauls hoste, tooke Isboseth the sonne of Saul, & brought him to *Mahanaim, 9 And made him king ouer Gilead, and ouer the Asurites, & ouer Jezrael, Ephraim, Beniamin, and ouer *all Israel.

10 And Isboseth Sauls sonne was fourtie yeeres old when he began to reigne ouer Israel, and reigned two yeeres: but the house of Juda followed Dauid.

11 (And the time which Dauid reigned in Hebron ouer the house of Juda, was seuen yeeres and sixe moneths.)

12 And Abner the sonne of Ner, & the seruants of Isboseth the sonne of Saul, went out of Mahanaim, to Gibeon.

13 And Joab the sonne of Zaruia, and the seruants of Dauid went out, and met one another by the poole of Gibeon: and they sate downe, the one on the one side of the poole, & the other on the other side.

14 And Abner said to Joab, Let the yong men now arise, and *play before vs, & Joab sayd, Let them arise.

15 Then there arose and went ouer twelue of Beniamin by number, which pertained to Isboseth the sonne of Saul, and twelue of the seruants of Dauid.

16 And euery one caught his fellow by the head, and thrust his sword in his *fellowes side, & so they fell downe together: Wherefore the place was called ‖ Helkath-hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.

17 And there was an exceeding cruel *battell that same day: for Abner and the men of Israel fell before the seruants of Dauid.

18 And there were three sonnes of Zaruia there, Joab, Abisai, and Asahel: and Asahel was as light of foote as a wilde Roe.

19 And Asahel followed after Abner, and in going, he turned neither to the right hand nor to the left from Abner.

20 Then Abner looked behind him, and sayd, Art thou Asahel? He answered, Yea.

21 Abner said, Turne thee either to the right hand, or to the left, and catch one of the yong men, and take thee his ‖ weapons. But Asahel would not depart from him.

22 And Abner said againe to Asahel, Depart from me: *wherefore should I smite thee to the ground, and not be able to hold vp my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit, when hee would in no wise depart, Abner with the hinder end of the speare smote him vnder the *fifth ribbe, that the speare

24 Joab also and Abisai pursued after Abner: and the sunne went downe when they were come to the hill Amma, that lieth before Giah, by the way of the wildernesse of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Beniamin gathered themselues together after Abner, and were on a heape, and stoode on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said, Shal the [n] sword deuoure for euer? Knowest thou not that it will bee bitternesse in the latter ende? How long shall it bee then, per thou bid the people returne from following their brethren?

27 And Joab said, As God liueth, if thou hadst spoken, surely euen in the morning the people had departed euery one from persecuting his brother.

28 And so Joab blew a trumpet, & all the people stood still, & pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

32 And they tooke vp Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Bethlehem: and Joab and his men went all night, and the day arose to them at Hebron.

17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying, Ye sought for Dauid in tymes past, that hee might bee your king:

2.Sam.1.15. 10 *When one tolde me, and sayde that Saul was dead (thinking to haue brought good tidings) I caught him, and slew him in Ziklag, which thought that I would haue giuen him a reward for his tidings bringing:

f The iudgement of the wicked, blinded with ambition and couetousnesse, differeth farre from þ iudgement of the godly. That which the one iudgeth worthy thankes and reward, the other iudgeth worthy death.

11 How much more when wicked men haue slaine a righteous person in his owne house, and vpon his bed: Shall I not now therefore f require his blood of your hand, & take you from the earth?

12 And Dauid commaunded his yong men, and they slew them, and cut off their handes and feete, and hanged them vp ouer the poole in Hebron: but they tooke the head of Isboseth, and buried it in the sepulchre of Abner, in Hebron.

The v. Chapter.

3 Dauid is made king ouer all Israel. 7 He taketh the fort of Sion. 19 He asketh counsell of the Lord, 20 And ouercommeth the Philistines twise.

1.Chr.11.1. 1 THen *came all the tribes of Israel to Dauid vnto Hebron, & said thus, Behold, we are thy a bone, and thy flesh.

a We are thy kinred & most neere ioyned vnto thee. Psal.77.71.

2 And in time past, when Saul was our king, thou leddest Israel in & out: & the Lord hath said to thee, *Thou shalt feede my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captaine ouer Israel.

3 And so all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron, and king Dauid made a couenant with them in Hebron b before the Lord: and they c anointed Dauid king ouer Israel.

b That is, taking the Lord to witnesse, for the arke was as yet in Abinadabs house. c This is the third time that Dauid was anointed. 3.Kin.2.11.

4 Dauid was thirtie yeeres olde when he began to reigne, *& he reigned fourtie yeeres.

5 In Hebron hee reigned ouer Iuda seuen yeeres and sixe moneths: and in Hierusalem he reigned thirtie & three yeeres ouer al Israel and Iuda.

6 The king also and his men went to Hierusalem, vnto the Iebusites, the inhabitants of the land, which spake vnto Dauid, saying, Except thou take away the d blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: For they said, Thou art not able to come in hither.

d The Iebusites spake this in derision, being perswaded that their strong hold was of such force, that Dauid could not ouercome it, although it were defended onely by lame and blind mē: Some write, that they spake this of a confidence in their idols, which the children of God esteemed as blind and lame.

7 Neuertheless, Dauid tooke the strong hold of Sion: the same is the citie of Dauid.

8 And Dauid said the same day, Who so euer smiteth the Iebusites, and getteth vp to the gutters of the houses, and smiteth the lame and the blinde, hated of Dauids soule, [I will preferre him.] Wherefore they sayde, The blinde and the lame shall not come into that house.

9 And so Dauid dwelt in the tower, and called it the citie of Dauid, and built round about it from Millo, and inward.

10 And Dauid prospered and grew, & the Lord God of hostes was with him.

13 *And Dauid tooke him moe concubines and wiues out of Hierusalem, after hee was come from Hebron, and moe sonnes & daughters were yet borne to Dauid. 1.Chro.3.5.

18 And when the Philistines came, they spred themselues in the valley of Rephaim.

21 And there they left their images, and Dauid and his men burnt them.

22 And the Philistines came yet againe, & laid themselues in the valley of Rephaim.

23 And when Dauid asked counsell of þ Lord, he answered, Thou shalt not go vp: but compasse them on the backside, & come vpon them ouer against the Mulberie trees.

24 And when thou hearest the noise of a thing going in the toppe of the Mulberie trees, then remooue: for then shall the Lorde goe out before thee, to smite the hoste of the Philistines.

The vi. Chapter.

3 The arke brought forth of the house of Abinadab. 7 Oza is striken, and dieth. 14 Dauid daunceth before the arke, 16 and is therefore despised of his wife Michol.

1 AGaine, Dauid gathered together all the ‖ chosen mē of Israel, [euen] thirtie thousand, ‖ Or, chiefe.

2 And arose, and went with all the folke that were with him from [a] Baala of Iuda, to fet away from thence the arke of God, whose name is called by the name of the Lord of hostes, that dwelleth vpon it betweene the Cherubims.

3 And they put the arke of God vpon a new cart, and brought it out of the house of Abinadab that was in [b] Gibea: and Oza, and Ahio the sonnes of Abinadab, drawe the newe cart.

4 *And when they brought the arke of God out of the house of Abinadab that was at Gibea, Ahio went before the arke.

5 And Dauid & all the house of Israel played before the Lord on sundry instruments made of Cedar wood, with harpes, psalteries, timbrels, cornets, and cymbales.

6 And when they came to Nachons threshing floore, Oza put his hand to the arke of God, and held it, for the oxen did shake it.

7 And the Lord was wroth with Oza, and God smote him in the same place for his [c] fault, and there hee died before the arke of God.

8 And Dauid was displeased, because ỹ Lord had ‡ smitten Oza: And hee called the name of the place ‖ Perez Oza, vntill this day.

9 And Dauid was then afraid of the Lorde, and said, How shal the arke of the Lord come to me?

10 And so Dauid would not bring the arke of the Lorde vnto him into the citie of Dauid: but Dauid caried it into the house of Obed Edom, a [d] Gethite.

11 And the arke of the Lorde continued in the house of Obed Edom the Gethite, three moneths: & the Lord blessed Obed Edom, and all his houshold.

12 *And one tolde king Dauid how that the Lord had blessed the house of Obed Edom, and all that pertained vnto him, because of the arke of God. And Dauid went, and [e] brought the arke of God from the house of Obed Edom, into the citie of Dauid, with gladnesse.

13 And when they that bare the arke of the Lord, had gone sixe paces, he offered an oxe, and a fat beast.

14 And Dauid daunced before the Lord with all his might, and was girded with a linen [f] Ephod.

15 So Dauid & al the house of Israel brought the arke of the Lord, with shouting, & trumpet blowing.

16 And as the arke of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michol Sauls daughter looked through a window, and sawe king Dauid spring & daunce before the Lord, and she [g] despised him in her heart.

17 And when they brought in the arke of the Lord, they set it in his place, euen in ỹ middes of the tabernacle that Dauid had pitched for it: and Dauid offred whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings, before the Lord.

18 *And as soone as Dauid had made an ende of offring whole burnt offrings and peace offrings, he blessed the people in the name of the Lord of hostes, 19 And gaue among all the folke, euen among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women, as men, to euery one a cake of bread, and a piece of flesh, and a flagon [of wine:] and so all the people departed euery one to his house.

20 Then Dauid returned to [h] blesse his household, and Michol the daughter of Saul came out to meete Dauid, and said, O how glorious was the king of Israel this day? which was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maidens of his seruaunts, as a foole vncouereth himselfe?

21 And Dauid sayd vnto Michol, It was before the [i] Lord, which chose me rather thē thy father and all his house, and commanded me to be ruler ouer all the people of the Lord, euen ouer Israel, and therefore will I play before the Lord:

22 And will yet be more vile then so, and will be meeke in mine owne sight: and of the very same maid seruants which thou hast spoken of, shall I be had in honour.

3 And Nathan sayd to the king, Goe, and doe all that is in thine heart, for the Lord is with thee.

4 And the same night the worde of the Lorde came vnto Nathan, saying,

5 Goe and tel my seruant Dauid, Thus saith the Lord, [b] Shalt thou build me an house to dwell in?

6 For I haue not dwelt in any house, since the tyme that I brought the children of Israel out of Egypt, vnto this day: but haue walked in a tent and tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherein I haue walked with all the children of Israel, spake I one word with any of the tribes of Israel when I commanded [the iudges] to feede my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not mee an house of Cedar trees?

12 And when thy dayes be fulfilled, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and I will set vp thy seede after thee, which shal proceede out of thy body, and will stablish his kingdome.

13 He shall builde an house for my name, and I will stablish the throne of his kingdome for euer.

Heb.1.5.

14 *I will be his father, and he shalbe my sonne: If he sinne, I will chasten him with the [f] rod of men, and with the plagues of the children of men.

g This was begun in Solomon, as a figure, but accomplished in Christ.

17 According to all these wordes, and according to all this vision, so did Nathan speake vnto Dauid.

18 Then went king Dauid in, and set him downe before the Lord, and said, Who am I, O Lorde God: and what is my house, that thou hast brought me [h] hitherto:

27 For thou, O Lorde of hostes, God of Israel, [m] hast tolde in the eare of thy seruant, saying, I will build thee an house: and therefore hath thy seruant founde in his heart to pray this prayer vnto thee.

m An Hebrue phrase, in meaning, thou hast reuealed to thy seruant.

28 Therefore nowe Lord God, (thou art God, and thy wordes be true, thou that hast tolde this goodnesse vnto thy seruant.)

29 Therefore now let it please thee to blesse the house of thy seruant, that it may continue for euer before thee: for thou Lord God hast spoken it, and with thy blessing let the house of thy seruant be blessed for euer.

3 And the king said, Remaineth there yet any man of the house of Saul, whom I may shew the b mercie of God vpon? Ziba answered the king, Ionathan hath yet a sonne, which is lame on his feete.

e That he may haue wherewith to furnish himselfe, and be meete for the kings table.

1 AFter this, the king of the children of Ammon died, and Hanon his sonne reigned in his steade.

2 *Then saide Dauid, I will shewe kindnesse vnto Hanon the sonne of Nahas, as his father shewed a kindnes vnto me. And Dauid sent to comfort him, by the b hand of his seruants, ouer his father: and Dauids seruantes came into the lande of the children of Ammon.

9 When Joab sawe that the front of the battell was against him before and behinde, he chose of all the choise of Israel, and put them in aray against the Syrians.

10 And the rest of the people he deliuered into the hand of Abisai his brother, that he might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.

11 And he said, If the Syrians be stroger then I, thou shalt helpe me: but if the children of Ammon be too strong for thee, I will come and succour thee.

12 Therefore quite thee like a man, and let vs be valiant for our people, and for the cities of our God: and the Lorde doe that which is good in his owne eyes.

13 And Joab proceeded forth, and the people that were with him, to fight against the Syrians: but they fled before him.

14 And when the children of Ammon saw that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abisai, and entred into the citie: and so Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Hierusalem.

15 And when the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered them together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the ‖ riuer, & they came to Helam: and Zoba the captaine of the host of Hadarezer went before them.

18 And the Syrians fled before Israel, and Dauid destroyed [f] seuen hundred charets of the Syrians, and fourtie thousand horsemen, and smote Zoba the captaine of their host, which also died there.

19 And when all the kings [that were] seruants to Hadarezer saw, that they fell before Israel, they made peace with Israel, and serued them: and so the Syrians feared to helpe the children of Ammon any more.

[c] Who was not an Israelite borne, but conuerted to the true religion.

4 And Dauid sent messengers, and tooke her away: and she came in vnto him, and he lay with her (and she was purified from her vncleannesse) and returned vnto her house.

5 And the woman conceiued, and sent & [d] told Dauid, and said, I am with childe.

9 But Urias slept at the doore of the kings palace, with all the seruants of his lorde, and went not downe to his house.

10 Which when they had told Dauid, saying, Urias went not downe vnto his house: Dauid said vnto Urias, Camest thou not from thy iourney? why didest thou not goe downe then vnto thine house?

11 Urias answered Dauid, The arke, and Israel, and Juda dwell in pauilions, and my lorde Joab, and the seruantes of my lorde abide in the open fieldes, and shall I then goe into mine house, to eate, and drinke, and lye with my wife? By thy life, and by the life of thy soule, I will not doe this thing.

12 And Dauid said to Urias, Tarie here this day also, and to morow I will let thee depart.

And

And so Urias abode in Hierusalem that day, and the morowe.

13 And when Dauid had called him, he did eate and drinke before him, and he made him f drunke: And at euen he went out to lie on his couch with the seruants of his lorde, but went not downe to his house.

f Thereby to prouoke him to goe and lie by his wife.

14 On the morowe Dauid wrote a letter to Joab, and sent it by the hand of Urias:

15 And he wrote thus in the letter, g Put ye Urias in the forefront of the sharper battell, and come ye backe from him, that he may be smitten, and die.

g Except God continually vpholde vs with his mightie hand, the most perfect fall headlong to all vices and abomination.

16 So when Joab beseged the citie, he assigned Urias vnto a place where he wyst that strong men were.

17 And the men of the citie came out, & fought with Joab: & there were certaine ouerthrowē of the people of the seruantes of Dauid: and Urias the Hethite died also.

18 Then Joab sent, and tolde Dauid all the things concerning the warre:

19 And charged the messenger, saying, When thou hast made an ende of telling the matters of the warre vnto the king:

20 If the kings anger arise, and he say vnto thee, Wherefore approched ye so nigh vnto the citie when ye did fight? Wist ye not that they would hurle and shoote from the wall?

21 *Who smote Abimelech sonne of h Jerubeseth? Did not a woman cast a piece of a mylstone vpon him from the wall, and he died in Thebes? why went ye nigh the wall? Then say thou, Thy seruant Urias the Hethite is dead also.

Iud.9.53.
h Meaning, Gedeon.

22 So the messenger went, and came & shewed Dauid all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger said vnto Dauid, The men preuailed against vs, and came out vnto vs into the fielde, and we ‡ pursued them euen vnto the entring of the gate:

‡ Hebr. were strong against them.

24 And the shooters shot from the walles vpon thy seruants, and some of the kings seruants be dead, and thy seruant Urias the Hethite is dead also.

25 And Dauid said vnto the messenger, Thus shalt thou say vnto Joab, Let not that thing trouble thee, for the sworde deuoureth ‡ one as well as another: Make thy battell more strong against the citie, to ouerthrowe it, and encourage thou him.

‡ Heb. so and so.

26 And when the wife of Urias heard that her husband was dead, she mourned for him.

27 And when the mourning was past, Dauid sent, and fet her to his house, and she became his wife, and bare him a sonne: but this thing that Dauid did, ‡ displeased the Lorde.

‡ Heb. was euill in the eyes of the Lord.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Dauid reproued by Nathan, confesseth his sinne.
18 The child conceiued in aduterie, dyeth.

1 AND the Lorde a sent Nathan vnto Dauid: and he came vnto him, and tolde him, There were two men in one citie, the one rich, and the other poore.

a Because Dauid lay nowe drowned in sinne, the louing mercy of God, which suffereth not his to perish, waketh his conscience by this similitude, and bringeth him to repentance.

2 The rich man had exceeding many sheepe and Oxen:

3 But the poore had nothing saue one litle Sheepe, which he had bought and nourished vp: and it grew vp with him, & with his children also, and did eate of his owne ‖ meate, & dranke of his owne cup, and slept in his bosome, and was vnto him as his daughter.

‖ Or, morsel.

4 And there came a ‖ stranger vnto the rich man, and he ‖ spared to take of his owne Sheepe, and of his owne Oxen, to dresse for the stranger that was come vnto him: but tooke the poore mans Sheepe, and dressed it for the man that was come to him.

‖ Or, waifaring man.
‖ Or, refused.

5 And ‡ Dauid was exceeding wroth with the man, and said to Nathan, As the Lorde liueth, the mā that hath done this thing, is the ‖ childe of death:

‡ Heb. the anger of Dauid was kindled.
‖ Or, shall surely die.

6 *He shall restore the Lambe ‖ fourefold, because he did this thing, and had no pitie.

Exod. 22.1.
‖ Or, twise fourefolde.

7 And Nathan saide to Dauid, Thou art the man: thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, I anointed thee king ouer Israel, and rid thee out of the hand of Saul.

8 I gaue thee thy b maisters house, and thy maisters c wiues into thy bosome, and gaue thee the house of Israel & of Juda, & might (if that had bene too litle) haue giuen thee ‡ so much more.

b For Dauid succeeded Saul in his kingdome.
c They expound this of Egla, and as some thinke Rispha. As for Michol, she was Sauls daughter.
‡ Heb. such and such things.

9 Wherefore then hast thou despised the commandement of the Lorde, to doe euill in his sight? thou hast killed Urias the Hethite with the sworde, and hast taken his wife to thy wife, and hast d slaine him with the sworde of the children of Ammon.

d Most cruelly deliuering him to the hands of gods enemies.

10 Nowe therefore the sworde shall neuer depart from thine house, because thou hast despised me, and taken the wife of Urias the Hethite to be thy wife.

11 Wherefore thus saieth the Lord, Beholde, I will stirre vp euill against thee, euen out of thine owne house, & will take thy wiues before thine eyes, & giue them vnto thy neighbour, and he shall lie with thy wiues in the sight of this e sunne.

e Meaning, openly, as at noone dayes.

12 For thou diddest it secretely: but I will doe this thing before all Israel, and in the open sunne light.

13 And Dauid saide vnto Nathan, *I haue sinned against the Lorde. And Nathan saide vnto Dauid, The Lorde also hath put f away thy sinne, thou shalt not die.

Eccle. 47.13.
f Because thou hast vnfaignedly turned vnto the Lord, and confessed thy sinne.

14 Howbeit, because in doing this deede, thou hast giuen the enemies of the Lorde a cause to g blaspheme, the child that is borne vnto thee, shall surely die.

g In saying that the Lord hath appointed a wicked man to reigne ouer his people.

15 And Nathan departed vnto his house: and the the Lord strake the child that Urias wife bare vnto Dauid, and it sickened sore.

16 Dauid therefore besought God for the child, and fasted, and [h] went in, and lay all night vpon the earth.

h To wit, to his priuy chaber.

17 And the elders of his house arose, and went to him, to take him vp from the earth: but he woulde not, neither did he eate meate with them.

18 And the seuenth day the childe died, and the seruants of Dauid feared to tell him that the childe was dead: for they said, Behold, while the childe was yet aliue, we spake vnto him, and he woulde not hearken vnto our voyce: howe will he then [‡] vexe himselfe, if we tell him that the childe is dead?

‡ Heb. doe euill to himselfe.

19 But Dauid seeing his seruantes whispering, perceiued that the child was dead: and Dauid said vnto his seruantes, Is the childe dead? They said, He is dead.

20 And Dauid arose from the earth, and washed, and [i] anointed himselfe, and changed his apparell, and came into the house of the Lord, and worshipped: and afterward came to his owne house, and bade that they shoulde set bread before him, and he did eate.

i Shewing that our lamentations ought not to be excessiue, but moderate, and that we must praise God in al his doings.

21 Then said his [k] seruantes vnto him, What thing is this that thou hast done? thou diddest fast and weepe for the childe while it was aliue, and as soone as it was dead, thou diddest rise vp and eate meate.

k As they which considered not [p] God graunteth many things to the sobbes and teares of the faithfull.

22 He said, While the childe was yet aliue, I fasted and wept: for this I thought, Who can tell whether God wil haue mercie on me, that the childe may liue?

23 But nowe seeing it is dead, wherefore should I fast? [l] Can I ‖ bring him againe any more? I shall goe to him, rather then he shall come againe to me.

l Ye confirmeth himselfe to Gods will, & comforteth himselfe by obedience to the same.
‖ Or, Call. Matth. 1. 6.

24 And Dauid comforted Bethsabe his wife, and went in vnto her, and lay with her: * and she bare a sonne, and he called his name Solomon, and the Lord loued him, m To call him Solomō.

n Meaning, Dauid.
‡ Louing to the Lord.

25 And had sent by the hand of [m] Nathan the Prophet, therefore [n] he called his name ‡ Iedidia, of the Lordes behalfe.

‖ Or, the chiefest citie.

26 Then Ioab fought against Rabba of the children of Ammon, and tooke the ‖ citie of the kingdome.

27 And Ioab sent messengers to Dauid, saying, I haue fought against Rabba, and haue taken the [o] citie of waters.

o That is, the chiefest part of the citie where the kings palace, & all the conduites were.

28 Now therefore, gather the rest of the people together, & besiege the citie, that thou maiest take it: least I take it, and it be called after my name.

29 And Dauid gathered all the people together, and went against Rabba, and besieged it, and tooke it.

p That is, three score pounde, after the weight of the common talent.

30 And he tooke their kings crowne from his head (which weighed a [p] talent of golde, and in it were precious stones) and it was set on Dauids head, & he brought away the spoyle of the citie, in exceeding great abundance.

31 And he carried away the people that was therein, and put them [q] vnder sawes, and vnder yron harrowes, & vnder axes of yron, and thrust them into the tyle kill: thus did he with all the cities of the children of Ammon. And so Dauid and all the people returned vnto Hierusalem.

q Recompensing the cruell enemies of God with cruel death.

The xiii. Chapter.

14 Ammon Dauids sonne defileth his sister Thamar.
19 Thamar is comforted by her brother Absalom.
29 Absalom therefore killeth Ammon.

1 AFter this, so it was, that Absalom the sonne of Dauid had a faire sister, named [a] Thamar, whom Ammon the sonne of Dauid loued.

a Thamar was Absalō sister both by father & mother, and Ammon onely by father. b And therefore kept in her fathers house, as Virgins were accustomed.

2 And he was so sore vexed, that he fell sicke for his sister Thamar: for she was a [b] virgin, and hee thought it hard for him to doe any thing to her.

3 But Ammon had a friende called Ionadab, the sonne of Simah Dauids brother: and Ionadab was a very subtill man.

4 And he saide vnto him, Howe commeth it that thou, being y kings sonne, art thus consumed from day to day? Wilt thou not tell me? Ammon answered him, I loue Thamar my brother Absaloms sister.

5 Ionadab saide vnto him, [c] Lay thee downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: & when thy father is come to see thee, say vnto him, I pray thee, let my sister Thamar come, and giue me meate, and dresse it in my sight, that I may see it, and eate it of her hand.

c Here wee see, that there is no enterprise so wicked, that can lacke a counseller to further the same.

6 And so Ammon lay downe, and made him selfe sicke: and when the king was come to see him, Ammon saide vnto the king, I pray thee, let Thamar my sister come, and make me a couple of [d] cakes in my sight, that I may eate of her hand.

d Meaning, some delicate and dainty meate.

7 Then Dauid sent home to Thamar, saying, Goe nowe to thy brother Ammons house, and dresse him meate.

8 So Thamar went to her brother Ammons house (and he was laide downe) and she tooke ‖ floure, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and did bake them,

‖ Or, paste.

9 And tooke a pan, and [e] powred them out before him, but he would not eate: And Ammon saide, Haue out [f] all men from me. And they went all out from him.

e That is, she serued them on a dish.
f For the wicked are ashamed to doe that afore me, which they are not afraide to commit in the sight of God.

10 And Ammon said vnto Thamar, Bring the meate into the chamber, that I may eate of thine hande. And Thamar tooke the cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Ammon her brother.

11 And when she had set them before him to eate, he tooke her, and saide vnto her, Come lie with me, my sister.

12 And

12 And ſhe anſwered him, Nay, my brother, do not force me: for there hath no ſuch thing bene done in Iſrael, doe not thou this folly.

‖ Or, howe ſhall I put away my ſhame?

13 And I, ‖ whither ſhall I cauſe my ſhame to goe? and thou ſhalt be as one of the [g] fooles in Iſrael: Nowe therefore, I pray thee, ſpeake vnto the king, and he will not denie me vnto thee.

g As a lewde and wicked perſon.

14 Howbeit he woulde not hearken vnto her voyce: but being ſtronger then ſhe, forced her, and lay with her.

15 And then Amnon hated her exceedingly, ſo that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the loue with which he before loued her: and Amnon ſaid vnto her, Vp, and get thee hence.

‖ Or, for this cauſe.

16 She anſwered him, ‖ There is no cauſe: This euil that thou putteſt me away, is greater then the other that thou diddeſt vnto me. Neuertheleſſe, he would not heare her:

‖ Or, ſeruant.

17 But called his ‖ boy that ſerued him, and ſaide, Put away this woman from me, and bolt the doore after her.

h For that kinde of veſture was of diuers colours in pieces, in thoſe dayes was had in great eſtimation, Gen. 37.

18 And ſhe had a garment of [h] diuers colours vpon her: for with ſuch garments were the kings daughters that were virgins apparelled. Then his ſeruant brought her out, and locked the doore after her.

19 And Thamar tooke and put aſhes on her head, and rent her garment of diuers colours that was on her, and laide her hand on her head, and ſo ſhe went away crying.

20 And Abſalom her brother ſaide vnto her, Hath Amnon thy brother bene with thee? Now yet be ſtill, my ſiſter, he is thy brother, let not this thing grieue thine heart. And ſo Thamar remained deſolate in her brother Abſaloms houſe.

21 But when king Dauid heard of all theſe things, he was very wroth.

22 And Abſalom ſaide vnto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: howbeit, Abſalom hated Amnon, becauſe he had forced his ſiſter Thamar.

‖ Or, Baal Hazor.

23 And after the time of two yeeres, Abſalom had ſheepe ſhearers in [y] ‖ plaine of Hazor, beſide Ephraim, and bade all the kings ſonnes, 24 And came to the king, and ſaide, Beholde, thy ſeruant hath ſheepe ſhearers, I pray thee, that the king with his ſeruantes come to thy ſeruant.

25 The king anſwered Abſalom, Nay, my ſonne, I pray thee, let vs not goe all, leaſt we be chargeable vnto thee. And Abſalom laye ſore vpon him: howbeit he woulde not goe, but ‖ bleſſed him.

‖ Or, thanked.

26 Then ſaid Abſalom, But, I pray thee, ſhall not my brother [i] Amnon goe with vs? And the king anſwered him, What needeth it that he goe with thee?

i Pretending to the king that Amnon was moſt deare vnto him.

27 But Abſalom made ſuch inſtance, that he let Amnon and all the kings children goe with him.

28 Now had Abſalom commanded his young men, ſaying, Marke when Amnons [k] heart is merie with wine, and when I bid you, Smite Amnon: then kill him, and feare not; haue not I bidden you? be bolde therefore, and play the men.

k Then being voide of care, and caſting no perill.

29 And the ſeruants of Abſalom did vnto Amnon, euen as Abſalom had commanded: and all the kings ſonnes aroſe, and euery man gate him vp vpon his mule, and fled.

30 And while they were yet in the way, tidings came to Dauid, ſaying, Abſalom hath ſlaine all the kings ſonnes, and there is none left aliue.

31 Then the king aroſe, & tare his garments, and lay along on the [l] earth: and all his ſeruants ſtoode by with their clothes rent.

l In token of ſorowe and griefe.

32 And Ionadab the ſonne of Simah, Dauids brother, anſwered and ſaide, Let not my lorde ſuppoſe that they haue ſlaine all the young men of the kings ſonnes, but Amnon onely is dead: for that hath bene determined in Abſaloms minde, ſince he forced his ſiſter Thamar.

‖ Or, take it to heart.

33 Nowe therefore let not my lorde the king ‖ take the thing ſo grieuouſly, to thinke that all the kings ſonnes are dead, ‖ for Amnon onely is dead.

‖ Or, but.

34 But Abſalom fled: and the young man that kept the watch, lift vp his eyes and looked, and beholde, there came much people by the way of the hill ſide ‖ behinde him.

‖ Or, one after another.

35 And Ionadab ſaid vnto the king, Behold, the kings ſonnes come: as thy ſeruant ſaid, ſo it is.

36 And as ſoone as he had left ſpeaking, behold, the kings ſonnes came, and lift vp their voyces, and wept. The king alſo and all his ſeruants wept exceedingly ſore.

37 But Abſalom eſcaped, & went to [m] Thalmai the ſonne of Ammihur king of Geſur: and Dauid mourned for his ſonne euery day.

m For Maachah his mother was the daughter of Thalmai, Chap. 3.

38 And ſo Abſalom eſcaped, and went to Geſur, and was there three yeeres.

‖ Or, ceaſſed.

39 And king Dauid ‖ deſired to goe forth vnto Abſalom: for where as Amnon was dead, he was comforted ouer him.

The xiiii. Chapter.

1 Abſalom is reconciled to his father by the ſubtiltie of Ioab. 24 Abſalom may not ſee the kings face.

1 IOab the ſonne of Zaruia, perceiued that the kings [a] heart was toward Abſalom:

a That the king fauoured him.

2 And he ſent to Thecoa, and fet thence a ‖ wiſe woman, and ſaide vnto her, I pray thee faine thy ſelfe to be a mourner, and put on mourning apparell, and [b] anoint not thy ſelfe with oyle, but be as a woman that had long time mourned for the dead:

‖ Or, ſubtill.

b In token of mourning, for they vſed anointing to ſeeme cheerefull.

3 And come to the king, & ſpeake on this maner ner vnto him: And so Ioab ‡ taught her what she should say.

‡ Heb. put words in her mouth.

4 And when the woman of Thecoa spake with the king, she fell on her face to the grounde, and did obeysance, & said, ‡ Helpe, O king.

‡ Heb. saue.

5 The king said vnto her, What aileth thee? She answered, I am in deede a ‡ widowe, and mine husband is dead.

‡ Heb. a widowe woman.

c Vnder this parable she describeth the death of Amnon by Absalom.

6 And thy handmaide had c two sonnes, and they two fought together in the fielde, where was no man to goe betweene them, but the one smote the other, and slue him.

7 And beholde, the whole kinred is risen against thy handmaide, and they said, Deliuer him that smote his brother, that we may kill him for the d soule of his brother whom he slue, we will destroy the heire also: and so they shall quenche my sparkle which is left, and shall not leaue to my husband neither name nor issue vpon the earth.

d According to the lawe which commandeth the slaier to be slaine, Gen. 9.

8 And the king saide vnto the woman, Goe home to thine house, I will giue a charge for thee.

9 And the woman of Thecoa saide vnto the king, My Lord, O king, this e trespasse be on me, and on my fathers house: and the king and his throne be ‖ giltlesse.

e As touching the breach of the lawe which punisheth blood, let me beare ye blame.

‖ Or, innocent.

10 And the king saide, If any man say ought vnto thee, bring him to me, and he shall ‡ hurt thee no more.

‡ Heb. touch.

11 Then saide she, I pray thee, let the king remember ye Lorde thy God, that thou wouldest not suffer many reuengers of blood to destroy, least they slay my sonne. And he answered, As the Lorde liueth, there shall not one heare of thy sonne fall to the earth.

12 The woman saide, Let thine handmayde speake one word vnto my lorde the king. And he said, Say on.

13 The woman said, Wherefore then hast thou f thought such a thing against the people of God? For the king doeth speake this thing as one which is faultie, that he shoulde not fetch home againe his banished.

f Why doest thou giue contrarie sentence in thy sonne Absalom?

14 For we must needes die, & are as water spilt on the ground, which cannot be gathered vp againe, neither doeth God spare any person: yet doeth he appoint s meanes, that his banished be not vtterly expelled from him.

g God hath prouided waies (as sanctuaries) to saue them oft times, whom man iudgeth worthy death.

15 Now therefore I am come to speake of this thing vnto my lorde the king, [because] the people h haue made me afraide: and thy handmaide said, Now wil I speake vnto the king, it may be that the king will performe the request of his handmaide.

h For I thought they would kill this my heire.

16 And the king shall heare his handmaide, to deliuer her out of the hande of the man that would haue destroyed me, and also my sonne, out of the inheritance of God.

17 And thine handmaide saide, The worde of my lorde the king shall now be ‡ comfortable: for my lorde the king is as an i angel of God in hearing of good and bad: therefore the Lord thy God be with thee.

‡ Heb. rest.

i Is of great wisedome to discerne right from wrong.

18 Then the king answered and saide vnto the woman, Hide not from me, I pray thee, the thing that I shall aske thee. And the woman said, Let my lorde the king now speake.

19 And the king said, Is not the k hand of Ioab with thee in all this matter? The woman answered and saide, As thy soule liueth, my lorde the king, I will not turne to the right hand nor to the left, from ought that my lorde the king hath spoken: for euen thy seruant Ioab bade me, and he put all these wordes in the mouth of thine handmaide:

k Hast not thou done this by the counsell of Ioab?

20 For to the intent that I should l change the fourme of speach, hath thy seruant Ioab done this thing: and my lorde is wise, according to the wisedome of an angell of God, to vnderstand all things that are in the earth.

l By speaking rather in parable then plainely.

21 And the king saide vnto Ioab, Beholde, I haue m done this thing: goe, and bring the young man Absalom againe.

m I haue graunted thy request.

22 And Ioab fell to the grounde on his face, and bowed himselfe, and ‡ thanked the king: and Ioab saide, Nowe thy seruant knoweth that I haue founde grace in thy sight, my lorde, O king, in that the king hath fulfilled the request of his seruant.

‡ Heb. blessed.

23 And so Ioab arose, and went to Gesur, and brought Absalom to Hierusalem.

24 And the king saide, Let him turne to his owne house, and not see my face. And so Absalom returned to his owne house, and sawe not the kings face.

25 But in all Israel there was none to be so much praised as Absalom for beautie: from the sole of his foote, to the toppe of his head there was no blemish in him.

26 And when he polled his head, (for at euery yeeres ende he polled it: because the heare was heauie on him, therefore he polled it) he weighed the heare of his head at two hundred n sicles, after the kings weight.

n Hee hath weyed the poinde foure ounces, after halfe an ounce to the sicle.

27 And Absalom had three sonnes borne him, and one daughter, named Thamar, which was a faire woman to looke vpon.

28 So Absalom dwelt two yeeres in Hierusalem, and sawe not the kings face.

29 Therefore Absalom sēt for Ioab, to haue sent him to ye king, but he would not come to him: and when he sent againe, he would not come.

30 Therefore he saide vnto his seruantes, Behold, Ioab hath a fielde by my ‖ place, and he hath barley therein: goe, and o set it on fire. And Absaloms seruants set it on fire.

‖ Or, possession.

o Here is an vnmerciful cruel heart, couered in this beautifull body.

31 Then Ioab arose, & came to Absalom vnto his house, and said vnto him, Wherefore haue thy seruants burnt my fielde with fire?

32 And Absalom answered Ioab, Beholde, I sent for thee, desiring thee to come, because I would would haue sent thee to the king, for to say, Wherefore am I come from Gesur? It had bene better for me to haue bene there still: Now therefore would I see the kings face, & if there be any [p] tresspasse in me, let him kil me.

p If I haue offended by reuenging my sisters dishonour. Thus the wicked maists thefelines in their euil.

33 And so Joab came to the king, & tolde him: which when he had sent for Absalom, he came to the king, and fell to the ground on his face before him, and the king kissed Absalom.

The xv. Chapter.

2 The practises of Absalom to aspire to the kingdome. 14 Dauid and his seruants flee. 31 Dauids prayer.

1 [q] After this, Absalom prepared him charets and horses, and fiftie men to run before him.

q Heb. made him.

2 And Absalom rose vp earely, & stoode in the place of the entring in of the gate: and euery man that had any ‖ matter, and came to the king for iudgement, him did Absalom call vnto him, and said, Of what citie art thou? He answered, Thy seruant is of one of [r] the tribes of Israel.

‖ Or, controuersie.

r That is, noting of what citie or place he was.

3 And Absalom said vnto him, See, thy matters are good and righteous, but there is no man [deputed] of the king to heare thee.

4 Absalom said moreouer, Oh [s] that I were made [t] iudge in the land, that euery mā which hath any plea & matter in the law, might come to me, and that I might doe him iustice:

s That is, I wish.

t Thus by flaunder, flatterie, and faire promises, the wicked seeke preferment.

5 And when any man came nigh to him, and did him obeysance, he put forth his hand, and tooke him to him, and kissed him.

6 And on this maner did Absalom to all Israel, that came to the king for iudgemēt: so Absalom [u] stale the hearts of the men of Israel.

u By intising them from his father to him selfe.

7 And after [x] fortie yeeres, Absalom said vnto the king, I pray thee, let me goe to Hebron, and pay my vowe which I haue vowed vnto the Lord.

x Conteining from the time that the Israelites had asked a king of Samuel.

8 For thy seruant vowed a vowe when I was in Gesur in Syria, saying, if the Lorde shall bring me againe in deede to Hierusalem, I will [y] serue the Lord.

y By colour of religion he hunteth after the kingdome.

9 And the king said vnto him, Goe in peace. And so he arose, and went to Hebron.

10 But Absalom sent spies throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying, As soone as ye heare the voyce of the trumpet blow, ye shall say, Absalom reigneth in Hebron.

11 And with Absalom went two hundred men out of Hierusalem that were [z] called, and they went with pure hearts, not knowing of any thing.

z And bid to his feast in Hebron.

12 And Absalom sent for Achitophel the Gilonite, Dauids counseller, from his citie Gilo, while he offered sacrifices, and there was wrought strong treason: for the people went and encreased with Absalom.

a That Absalom went about.

13 And there came a messenger to Dauid, and said, The hearts of the men of Israel are turned after Absalom.

14 And Dauid said vnto all his seruantes that were with him at Hierusalem, Vp, [b] that we may flee, for we shal not els escape frō Absalom: make speede to depart, least he come sodainly, and catch vs, and bring euill vpon vs, & smite the citie with the edge of the sword.

b For neither is there hope of mercie at his cruell hands, neither are we at this sodaine able to make our part good against him.

15 And the kings seruants saide vnto him, Behold, thy seruants [are ready to doe] whatsoeuer my lorde the king shall [c] appoint.

c Heb. choose.

16 And the king departed, and all his houshold [d] at his feete: and the king left ten concubines to keepe the house.

d That is, after him.

17 And the king went forth, and all the people at his feete, and taried in a place that was [e] farre off.

e To wit, from Hierusalem.

18 And all his seruants went about him: and all the Cerethites, and all the Pelethites, and all the Gethites, euen sixe hundred men, which were come after him from Geth, went before the king.

19 Then said the king to [f] Ithai the Gethite, Wherefore commest thou with vs? Returne, and abide with the king, for thou art a stranger, depart therefore to thy place.

f Who, as some write, was the kings sonne of Gath, called Achis.

20 Thou camest yesterday, and shoulde I vnquiet thee to day to goe with vs? I will goe whither I can: therefore returne thou, and carrie againe thy [g] brethren: mercie & trueth be with thee.

g That is, the souldiers that be with thee.

21 And Ithai answered the king, and saide, As the Lord liueth, and as my lorde the king liueth, in what place my lorde the king shalbe, whither in death or life, euen there also will thy seruant be.

22 And Dauid saide to Ithai, Come then, and goe forward. And Ithai the Gethite went forth, and all his men, and all the children that were with him.

23 And all the countrey wept with a loude voyce, and all the people went ouer: the king also himselfe passed ouer the brooke Cedron, and all the people went ouer toward the way that leadeth to the wildernesse.

24 And loe, Sadoc also, & all the Leuites were with him, and [h] bare the arke of the couenant of God, and they set downe the arke of God, and Abiathar [i] went vp, vntill [k] the people were all come ouer out of the citie.

h Which was the charge of k Caathites.

i To stand by the arke.

25 And the king said vnto Sadoc, Cary the arke of God againe into the citie: if I shall finde fauour in the eies of the Lord, hee will bring me againe, and shew me both it, & the tabernacle thereof.

26 But if hee thus say, I haue no lust vnto thee: behold, [l] here am I, let him do with me what seemeth good in his eies.

l Gods will is a comfort and a cause of consolation to the faithfull in all aduersities.

27 The king said also vnto Sadoc the priest, Art not thou a Seer? Returne into the citie in peace, and take your two sonnes with you, Ahimaaz thy sonne, and Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar.

28 Behold,

28 Beholde, I will tarie in the fieldes of the wildernesse, vntil there come some word from you to be tolde me.

29 Sadoc therefore and Abiathar carryed the arke of God againe to Hierusalem, and they taryed there.

30 And Dauid went vp on mount Oliuete, & wept as he went vp, and had his head [q] couered, and went barefoote, and all the people that was with him had euery man his head couered, and as they went vp, they wept.

q With ashes and dust, after the maner of them that be in sorowe.

31 And one tolde Dauid, saying, Achitophel is one of them that haue conspired with Absalom. And Dauid sayde, O Lorde, I pray thee, turne the [r] counsell of Achitophel into foolishnesse.

r Terrible is the counsell of the wicked worldly wise against the innocent, except God, who oft turneth it to follie, do frustrate & disappoint the same.

32 When Dauid was come to the toppe of the mount, hee worshipped God: and beholde, Chusai the Arachite came against him, with his coate torne, and hauing earth vpon his head.

33 Vnto whom Dauid sayd, If thou goe with me, thou shalt be a burden vnto me.

34 But if thou returne to the citie, and say vnto Absalom, I will be thy seruant, O king: as I haue thus long bene thy fathers seruant, so am I nowe thy seruant: thou mayest ‡ for my sake destroy the counsell of Achitophel.

‡ Heb. to me, that is, to my commoditie.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Sadoc and Abiathar the Priestes? therefore whatsoeuer thou shalt heare out of the kings house, thou shalt shewe to Sadoc and Abiathar the Priestes.

36 And beholde, they haue there with them their two sonnes, Ahimaas Sadocs sonne, and Jonathan Abiathars sonne: by them also shal ye send me all that ye can heare.

37 And so Chusai Dauids friende went to the citie, and Absalom entred into Hierusalem.

The xvi. Chapter.

1 The infidelitie of Ziba. 5 Semei curseth Dauid. 16 Chusai commeth to Absalom.

1 AND when Dauid was a litle past the [a] top [of the hill,] beholde, Ziba the seruant of Miphiboseth met him with a couple of asses sadled, and vpon them two hundred loaues of bread, and one hundred bunches of reasings, and an hundred of dryed ‖ figges, and a bottell of wine.

a Which was the hill of Olives.

‖ Or, figge cakes.

2 And the king said vnto Ziba, What meanest thou with these? And Ziba sayde, They be asses for the kings houshold to ryde on, and bread and fruite for the yong men to eate, and wine, that such as be faynt in the wildernesse may drinke.

3 And the king sayde, Where is thy masters sonne? Ziba answered vnto the king, Behold, he taryeth still at Hierusalem: for he sayde, This day shall the house of Israel restore me the kingdome of my father.

4 Then sayd the king to Ziba, Beholde, thine are all that pertained vnto Miphiboseth. And Ziba said, I humbly ‡ beseech thee that I may finde grace in thy sight, my lorde, O king.

‡ Heb. I worship.

5 And when king Dauid came to [b] Bahurim, beholde, thence came out a man of the kinred of the house of Saul, named Semei ỹ sonne of Gera, and he came out cursing.

b Which was a citie in the tribe of Benjamin.

6 And he cast stones at Dauid, and at all the seruants of Dauid: and all the people and all the men of warre were on his [c] right hande, and on his left.

c That is, round about him.

7 And thus said Semei whē he cursed, Come forth, come forth, thou ‡ blood shedder, and thou man of ‖ Belial.

‡ Heb. man of blood.

‖ Or, wicked man.

8 The Lorde hath brought vpon thee all the [d] blood of the house of Saul, in whose steade thou hast raigned, and the Lorde hath deliuered the kingdome into the hande of Absalom thy sonne: and beholde, thou art come to thy mischiefe, because thou art a bloodshedder.

d This he said, because of the death of Isboseth & Abner, suspecting Dauid to be guiltie to the same.

9 Then sayde Abisai the sonne of Zaruia vnto the king, Why doeth this dead dogge curse my lord the king? let me go nowe and take off the head of him.

10 And the king sayde, What haue I to doe with you ye sonnes of Zaruia? for he curseth, euen because the Lord [e] hath bidden him curse Dauid: who dare then say, Wherefore hast thou done so?

e Dauid felt that this was the iudgement of God for his sinne, & therefore humbleth himselfe to his rodde.

11 And Dauid sayde to Abisai, and to all his seruantes, Beholde, my sonne which came of mine owne bowels, seeketh my life: howe much more then may this sonne of Gemini do it? Suffer him to curse, for the Lord hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lorde will looke on mine ‡ affliction, and [f] do me good for his cursing this day.

‡ Heb. on mine eye.

f Meaning, that the Lord will send comfort to his, whē they are oppressed.

13 And as Dauid & his men went by the way, Semei went along on the hilles side ouer against him, and cursed as he went, and threwe stones at him, and cast dust.

14 And the king, and all that were with him, came wearie, & refreshed themselues [g] there.

g To wit, at Bahurim.

15 And Absalom and all the people the men of Israel, came to Hierusalem, and Achitophel was with him.

16 And as soone as Chusai the Arachite Dauids friende was come vnto Absalom, Chusai sayde vnto Absalom, God saue the king, ‡ God saue the king.

‡ Heb. let the king liue.

17 And Absalom sayde to Chusai, Is this the kindnesse to thy [h] friende? Why wentest thou not with him?

h Meaning, Dauid.

18 Chusai answered vnto Absalom, Nay, not so: but whome the Lord and this people, and al the men of Israel choose, [i] his will I be, and with him will I dwell.

i Though Chusai dissembled here at Dauids request, to preuent ỹ counsell of the wicked by Gods determination, Chap. 17. 14. yet may not we vse this example to excuse our dissimulation.

19 And ‡ moreouer, vnto whom shall I doe seruice? not to his sonne? And as I was seruant before with thy father, so will I be with thee.

‡ Heb. the second time.

20 Then spake Absalom to Achitophel, Giue counsell what we shall do.

21 And Achitophel sayde vnto Absalom, Get thee in vnto thy fathers concubines, which he hath left to keepe the house, and all Israel shall heare that thou art abhorred of thy father, then shall the handes of all that are with thee be strong.

22 And so they spread Absalom a tent vpon the top of the house, & Absalom went in vnto his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsell of Achitophel which he counselled in those dayes, was as a man had asked counsell [k] at the oracle of God: euen so was all the counsell of Achitophel, both with Dauid and with Absalom.

k It was so estéemed for the sincerelie thereof.

The xvii. Chapter.

7 Achitophels counsell is ouerthrowen by Chusai.

1 Achitophel also sayde vnto Absalom, [a] Let me choose out now twelue thousand men, and I will vp, and folow after Dauid this night:

a As though he would say, giue me auctoritie to choose.

2 And I will come vpon him while he is wearie and weake handed, and will feare him: and all the people that are with him shall flee, and so will I smite the king onely,

3 * And will bring againe all the people vnto thee: & when all shal returne, the [b] man whom thou seekest [being slayne] all the people shal be in peace.

3. Sam. 19. 27.

b Meaning, Dauid.

4 And the saying ‡ pleased Absalom well, and all the elders of Israel.

‡ Heb. was right in the eyes of Absalom.

5 * Then sayde Absalom, Call nowe Chusai the Arachite also, and let vs heare likewise ‡ what he sayth.

3. Reg. 22.

‡ Heb. what is in his mouth.

6 When Chusai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake vnto him, saying, Achitophel hath ‖ giuen such counsel: shal we do after this saying, or no: tell thou.

‖ Or, spoken thus

7 Chusai answered vnto Absalom, The counsell that Achitophel hath giuen, is not good at this time.

8 For, sayd Chusai, Thou knowest thy father and his men, how that they be strong men, & they be chafed in their mindes, and are euen as a Beare robbed of her whelpes in the field: thy father is a man also practised in warre, and will not ‖ lodge with the people.

‖ Or, tary all night.

9 Beholde he is hid nowe in some caue, or in some other place: and though some of his men be ouerthrowen at the first brunt, yet they that heare it, will say, The people that followeth Absalom be ‡ put to the worse.

‡ Heb. haue a breach or ruine. ‡ Heb. melt.

10 And he also that is valiant, whose heart is as the heart of a Lion, shall ‡ shrinke & faynt: for all Israel knoweth that thy father is a mightie man, and they which be with him are ‡ stoute men.

‡ Heb. the children of fortitude.

11 Therefore my counsell is, that all Israel be gathered vnto thee, from Dan to Beersheba, as the sand of the sea in number, and that thou go to battell in thine owne person.

12 For so shall we come vpon him in one place or other where we shal finde him, and we will fall vpon him, euen as thicke as the dewe falleth on the ground: and of all the men that are with him, we shal not leaue him one.

13 Moreouer, if he be gotten into a towne, then shall all the men of Israel bring ropes to that citie, and we will draw it into the riuer, vntill there be not one small stone found there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Chusai the Arachite, is better then the counsell of Achitophel. For ‖ it was euen the Lords determination to destroy the [c] good counsell of Achitophel, that the Lorde might [d] bring euill vpon Absalom.

‖ Or, the Lord hath commanded.

c Good to haue brought to passe that wicked purpose he went about.

d For by the counsel of Chusai, he went to the battell where he was destroyed.

15 Then sayd Chusai vnto Sadoc & Abiathar the Priests, Of this and that maner did Achitophel and the elders of Israel counsell Absalom, and thus and thus haue I counselled.

16 Now therefore sende quickly, and shew Dauid, saying, Tary not this night in the fieldes of the wildernesse, but get thee [e] ouer, lest the king be deuoured, and all the people that are with him.

e That is, ouer Iordane.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz abode by the well Rogel: (for they might not be seene to come into the citie) and a wenche went and [f] tolde them: and they went, and shewed king Dauid.

f The message from their fathers.

18 Neuertheless, a lad sawe them, and tolde it to Absalom: but they went both of them away quickly, and came to a mans house in Bahurim, which had a well in his yarde, into the which they went downe.

19 And the wife tooke & spread a couerlet ouer the welles mouth, and spread grounde corne thereon, and the thing was not spyed.

20 And when Absaloms seruantes came to the wife to ỹ house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? The woman answered them, They be gone ouer the brooke of water. And when they had sought them, and coulde not finde them, they returned to Hierusalem.

21 And as soone as they were departed, the other came out of the well, and went and tolde king Dauid, and sayde vnto him, Up, and get you quickly ouer the water, for [g] such counsel hath Achitophel giuen against you.

g To wit, to pursue thee with all haste.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, and they were come ouer Jordane [h] by that it was day: so that there lacked not one of them that was not come ouer Jordane.

h So that they trauayled all night, and by morning had all their cõpany passed ouer.

23 And when Achitophel sawe that his counsel was not folowed: he sadled an asse, and arose and gate him home to his owne house, and to his owne citie, and put his houshold in order, and [i] hanged himselfe, and dyed, and was buryed in the sepulchre of his father.

i Thus God sometimes in this life executeth iudgement vpon the cruell persecutour of the innocent, to admonish vs what iudgement all such shal haue in the worlde to come.

24 Then Dauid came to Mahanaim, and Absalom

Absalom passed ouer Iordane, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captaine of the host in steade of Ioab: Which Amasa was a mans sonne named Ithra, an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of [k] Nahas, sister to Zaruia Ioabs mother.

k Who was also called Iesi, Dauids father.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 And when Dauid was come to Mahanaim, Sobi the sonne of Nahas, out of Rabba, of the children of Ammon, & Machir the sonne of Ammiel, out of Lodeber, and Barzellai the Gileadite, out of Rogelim, l God by them succouring the necessitie of his faithfull seruãt in his trouble and affliction.

28 [l] Brought beddes, basons, earthen vessels, wheate and barley, floure and parched corne, beanes, lentiles, and parched pulse,

29 Hony, butter, sheepe, and cheese of kine, for Dauid, and for the people that were with him to eate: for they sayd, The people is hungrie, wearie, and thirstie in the wildernesse.

The xviii. Chapter.

2 Dauid deuideth his armie into three partes.

a It appeareth that not onely the fiue hundred men of the Cerethites & Pheletites mentioned Chap. 15. but also a number of the Rubenites, Gadites, and halfe the tribe of Manasses, which could not beare the insolencie of the sonne against the father, did also ioyne themselues vnto Dauid.

1 AND Dauid [a] numbred the people that were with him, and set captaines of thousandes and of hundreds ouer them.

2 And Dauid sent forth the third part of the people vnder the hand of Ioab, and the third part vnder the hande of Abisai the sonne of Zaruia Ioabs brother, and the other third part vnder the hand of Ithai the Gethite: and the king sayd vnto the people, I wil goe with you my selfe also.

3 And the people answered, Thou shalt not go forth: for if we flee away, they will not care for vs, neither shall they regarde vs, though halfe of vs were slayne: but thou art nowe worth ten thousand of vs. Wherefore it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

4 And the king said vnto them, What seemeth you best, that will I doe. And the king stoode by the gate side, and al the people came out by hundreds, and by thousands.

5 And the king commanded Ioab, and Abisai, and Ithai, saying, [Intreat] the yong man Absalom gently for my sake. And all the people heard that the king gaue all the captaines charge concerning Absalom.

6 And so the people went out into the fielde against Israel (& the battell was in the [b] wood of Ephraim,) b So called, because the Ephraimites (as some say) fedde their cattel beyond Iordane in this wood.

7 Where the people of Israel were slayne before the seruantes of Dauid, and there was a great slaughter that day, euen of twenty thousand men.

8 For the battell was scattered ouer all the countrey: and the wood deuoured moe people that day, then did the sworde.

9 And Absalom met the seruants of Dauid, & he rode vpon a Mule, which caried him vnder the thicke boughes of a great oke, & his head was caught of the oke, and he was [c] lift vp betweene the heauen and the earth, & the mule that was vnder him went away.

c By Gods prouidence, that this might be an example for euer, what it is afore God, the sonne to rebell against the father, Gen. 32. 15.

10 And one that sawe it tolde Ioab, saying, Beholde, I sawe Absalom hang in an oke.

11 And Ioab sayde vnto the man that tolde him, If thou diddest see him, why diddest not thou there smite him to the grounde, and I would haue giuen thee ten sicles of siluer, and a girdle?

12 The man sayd vnto Ioab, Though I should ‡ receyue a thousande sicles of siluer in mine hand, yet would I not stretch out mine hande against the kings sonne: for wee heard with our eares when the king charged thee, and Abisai, and Ithai, saying, Beware that none touche the yong man Absalom.

‡ Heb. weigh vpõ mine hand.

13 Moreouer, if I had done it, I shoulde haue done against mine owne life: for there is no matter hid from the king, yea, and thou thy selfe wouldest haue bene against me.

14 Then sayde Ioab, I may not stande thus tarying with thee. And he tooke three dartes in his hande, and thrust them ‡ thorowe Absalom, while he was yet aliue in the middest of the oke.

‡ Heb. in the heart of Absalõ.

15 And ten seruants that bare Ioabs weapons, turned, and smote Absalom, and slew him.

16 And Ioab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from following Israel: for Ioab [d] held backe the people.

d Temperating the victorie with mercy and pitie vpon the people that were seduced by Absalom.

17 And they tooke Absalom, and cast him into a great pitte in the wood, and layde a mightie great heape of stones vpon him: and all Israel fled euery one to their tentes.

18 And this Absalom yet in his life time, tooke and reared vp a pillar, which is in the kings dale: for he sayde, I haue no [e] sonne to keepe my name in remembrance: And he called the pillar after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day Absaloms place.

e It should appeare by this, that God had punished him by taking away his three sonnes & his daughter, Chap. 14.

19 Then sayde Ahimaaz the sonne of Zadoc, Let me runne now, & beare the king tydings how that the Lord hath [f] iudged him quite of the hand of his enemies.

f That is, hath deliuered him out of the hands of his enemies.

20 And Ioab sayd vnto him, Thou art no man to beare tydings to day, thou shalt beare tydings another time: but to day thou shalt beare none, because the kings sonne is dead.

g Fauouring him, that he should not incurre displeasure, by telling of the death of Absalom.

21 Then sayd Ioab to Chusai, Go and tell the king what thou hast seene. And Chusai bowed himselfe vnto Ioab, and ranne.

22 Then sayde Ahimaaz the sonne of Sadoc againe to Ioab, What, I pray thee, if I also runne after Chusai? And Ioab sayd, Wherefore wilt thou runne, my sonne, seeing that thou hast no tydings to bring?

23 Yet what if I runne? He sayde vnto him, Runne. Then Ahimaaz ranne by the way of the playne, and came before Chusai.

h He sate in the gate of the citie of Mahanaim.

24 And Dauid sate betweene the two h gates: and the watcheman went vp to the roofe ouer the gate, vnto the wall, and lift vp his eyes, and sawe, and beholde, there came a man running alone.

25 And the watcheman cryed, and tolde the king. And the king sayd, If he be alone there is i tydings in his mouth. And he came a pace, and drewe neere.

i That is, he bringeth tydings.

26 And the watchman sawe another man running, and the watchman called vnto the porter, and sayd, Behold, there commeth another man running alone. And the king sayd, He is also a tydings bringer.

‡ Heb. I see the running.

27 And the watchman sayde, ‡ Mee thinketh the running of the foremost, is like the running of Ahimaaz the sonne of Sadoc. The king sayde, He is a k good man, and commeth with good tydings.

k He had experience of his fidelitie, Chap. 17.

28 And Ahimaaz called, & sayde vnto the king, Peace [be with thee.] And he fell downe to the earth vpon his face before the king, and said, Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath ‖ Or, deliuered vp.

‖ shut vp the men that lift vp their handes against my lord the king.

29 And the king sayde, Is the yong man Absalom safe? Ahimaaz answered, When Ioab sent the kings seruant, and me i thy seruant, I sawe a great tumult, but I wote not what it was.

i To wit, Chusai, who was an Ethiopian.

30 And the king sayde vnto him, Turne aside, and stande here. And he turned aside, and stoode still.

31 And beholde, Chusai came also, and sayde,

‡ Heb. tydings is brought. ‡ Iudged.

‡ Tydings, my lorde the king: for the Lorde hath ‡ deliuered thee this day out of the hand of all them that rose against thee.

32 And the king sayde vnto Chusai, Is the yong man Absalom safe? Chusai answered, The enemies of my lord the king, and all that rise against thee to doe thee hurt, bee as that yong man is.

m The rebellion of his sonne, could not quenche his fatherly affection.

33 And the king was m moued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept, & as he went, thus he sayd, O my sonne Absalom, my sonne, my sonne Absalom: would God I had died for thee, O Absalō, my sonne, my sonne.

The xix. Chapter.

7 Ioab encourageth the king. 8 Dauid is restored. 23 Semei is pardoned. 24 Miphiboseth meeteth the king. 39 Barzellai departeth. 41 Israel striueth with Iuda.

1 AND it was tolde Ioab, beholde, the king weepeth and mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the ‡ victorie of that day was turned into mourning vnto all the people: for the people heard say that day, howe the king sorowed for his sonne.

‡ Heb. saluation or deliuerance.

3 And the people went that day into the citie, by stealth, as people confounded doe conuey themselues when they flee in battell.

4 But the king a hid his face, and cryed with a loude voyce, O my sonne Absalom, O Absalom, my sonne, my sonne.

a As they do that mourne.

5 And Ioab came into b the house to the king, and sayde, Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy seruantes, which this day haue saued thy life, and the liues of thy sonnes, and of thy daughters, and the liues of thy wiues, and of thy concubines, b At Mahanaim.

6 In that thou louest thine enemies, and hatest thy frindes: for thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neyther thy ‖ princes, nor seruants: and this day I doe perceiue, that if Absalom had liued, and all we had dyed this day, that had ‡ pleased thee well.

‖ Or, captaines.

‡ Heb. bene right in thine eyes.

7 Nowe therefore, vp, and come out, & speake ‡ comfortably vnto thy seruants: for I sweare by the Lorde, except thou come out, there will not tary one with thee this night, & that will be worse vnto thee, then all the euill that fell on thee from thy youth, vnto this houre.

‡ Heb. to the heart of thy seruants.

8 Then the king arose, and sate in the c gate: and they tolde vnto all the people, saying, Behold, the king doeth sit in the gate: and all the people came before the king, for Israel had fled euery man to his tent.

c Where the most resort of the people was.

9 And al the people were at d strife throughout al the tribes of Israel, saying, The king saued vs out of the hande of our enemies, & he deliuered vs out of the hand of the Philistines, & now he is fled out of the land for Absalom:

d Who should first bring home ỳ king.

10 But Absalom, whom we anoynted ouer vs, is dead in battell: therefore why are ye so still, that ye bring not the king againe?

11 And king Dauid sent to e Sadoc and Abiathar the Priestes, saying, Speake vnto the elders of Iuda, and say, Why are ye behinde, to bring the king againe to his house, (seeing that such tydings is come from all Israel vnto the king, euen to his house?)

e As to them, whose office is to tel the people their duety.

12 Ye are my brethren, my bones and my flesh: wherefore then are ye the last that bring the king againe?

13 And say ye to Amasa, Art thou not of my bone, and of my flesh? God doe so to me, and more also, if thou be not captaine of the host to me for euer, in the f roume of Ioab.

f Weilde his policie, that is, by winning of the captaine, to winne the people: it seemeth that he hath pet a grudge against Ioab for the death of Absalom. 3. Reg. 2. 8.

14 And he bowed the heartes of all the men of Iuda, euen as the heart of one man, so that they sent [this worde] to the king, Returne thou with all thy seruants.

15 *So the king returned, & came to Iordane: and Iuda came to Gilgal, for to goe to meete the king, and to conduct him ouer Iordane.

16 And g Semei the sonne of Gera, the sonne of Gemini, which was of Bahurim, hasted, and came downe with the men of Iuda, to meete king Dauid.

g Who had before reuiled him.

17 And there were a thousande men of Beniamin with him, and Ziba the seruant of the house of Saul, and his fifteene sonnes, and twentie

twentie seruants with him, and they went ouer Iordane before the king.

18 And there went ouer a boate to cary ouer the kings household, and to do him pleasure: and Semei the sonne of Gera, fell before the king as he was come ouer Iordane,

19 And sayde vnto the king, Let not my lorde impute wickednesse vnto me, nor remember the things that thy seruant did [h] wickedly, whē my lord ỹ king departed out of Hierusalem, that the king should take it to his heart:

20 For thy seruant doth know how that I haue done amisse: and therefore beholde, I am the first this day of all the house of [i] Ioseph, that am come downe to meete my lord the king.

21 But Abisai the sonne of Zaruia answered, and sayde, Shall not Semei dye for this, because he cursed the Lords anoynted?

22 And Dauid sayd, What haue I to doe with you, ye sonnes of Zaruia? For this day ye be aduersaries vnto me: shall there any man dye this day in Israel? Doe not I knowe that I am this day king ouer Israel?

23 And therefore the king sayde vnto Semei, Thou shalt not dye: and the king sware vnto him.

24 And Miphiboseth the sonne of Saul came downe to meete the king, and had neither washed his feete, nor dressed his beard, nor [k] washed his clothes, from the time the king departed, vntill he came againe in peace.

25 And when [l] he was come to Hierusalem, and met the king, the king sayd vnto him, Wherefore wentest not thou with me, Miphiboseth?

26 He answered, My lord, O king, my seruant deceiued mee: for thy seruant sayde, I would haue mine Asse sadled to ride thereon, for to go to the king: because thy seruant is lame.

27 And he hath accused thy seruant vnto my lord the king, and my lorde the king is as an [m] angell of God: doe therefore what seemeth [n] good in thine eyes.

28 For all my fathers house were but [o] dead men before my lorde the king, and yet diddest thou put thy seruant amōg them that did eate at thine owne table: what right therfore haue I yet to cry any more vnto the king?

29 And the king sayde vnto him, Why speakest thou any more of thy matters? I haue sayde, Thou and Ziba deuide the [p] landes betweene you.

30 And Miphiboseth sayde vnto the king, Yea, let him take al, forsomuch as my lord the king is come againe in peace vnto his owne house.

31 And Barzellai the Gileadite came downe from Roglim, and went ouer Iordane with the king, to conduct him ouer Iordane.

32 Barzellai was a very aged man, euen foure score yeeres olde, and prouided the king of sustenance while he lay at Mahanaim: for hee was a man of very great substance.

33 And the king sayde vnto Barzellai, Come ouer with me, and I will feede thee with mee in Hierusalem.

34 And Barzellai sayde vnto the king, ‡ Howe long haue I to liue, that I should go vp with the king vnto Hierusalem?

‡ Heb. How many dayes are the yeres of my life?

35 I am this day fourescore yeres olde: and can I discerne betweene good or euill? Hath thy seruāt any taste in that he eateth or drinketh? Can he heare any more the voyce of singing men & women? wherefore then should thy seruant be yet a burden vnto my lord the king?

36 Thy seruant will goe a litle way ouer Iordane with the king: and why will the king recompense it me with such a reward?

37 O let thy seruant turne backe againe, that I may die in mine owne citie, and [be buried] in the graue of my father and of my mother: beholde, here is thy seruant [q] Chimham, let him go with my lord the king, and doe to him what shall please thee.

q My sonne.

38 And the king answered, Chimham shall goe with me, & I will do to him that thou shalt be content with: & whatsoeuer thou shalt ‖ require of me, that same will I do for thee.

‖ Or, choose.

39 And all the people went ouer Iordane: and when the king was come ouer Iordane, hee kissed Barzellai, and ‖ blessed him, & he went backe againe vnto his owne place.

‖ Or, bade him farewell.

40 And then the king went to Gilgal, and Chimham went with him: and all the people of Iuda conducted the king, and also halfe the people [r] of Israel.

r Which had take part with the king.

41 And beholde, all the men of Israel came to the king, and sayde vnto the king, Why haue our brethren the men of Iuda [s] stollen thee away, & haue brought the king & his household, & all Dauids men with him ouer Iordane?

s Because the tribe of Iuda & fewe others did conduct the king home, & not make the returne by lotte vnto it, therefore they complayned as though the king had been stollen from them.

42 And all the men of Iuda answered the men of Israel, Because the king is neere of kinne to vs, wherefore be ye angry for this matter? Haue we eaten of the kings cost? or haue wee taken any bribes?

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Iuda, and sayde, We haue ten partes in the king, and haue thereto more right to Dauid then yee: why then did ye despise vs, that our aduice should not be first had in restoring our king? And the words of the men of Iuda were fiercer then the words of the men of Israel.

The xx. Chapter.

3 And Dauid came to his house to Hierusalem, and the king tooke the tenne women his concubines, that he had left behinde him to keepe the house, and put them in warde, and fed them, but lay no more with them: and so they were inclosed vnto the day of their death, liuing in widowhood.

5 And so Amasa went to gather the men of Juda together, but taryed longer then the time which he had appoynted him.

6 And Dauid sayd to Abisai, Now shal Seba the sonne of Bichri doe vs more harme then did Absalom: take thou therefore thy lordes c seruants, and followe after him, least he get him walled cities, and escape vs.

c Meaning, the souldiers that were vnder Ioab his eldest brother.

7 And there went out after him Ioabs men, and the Cerethites, and the Phelethites, and all the mightiest men: and they departed out of Hierusalem to follow after Seba the sonne of Bichri.

8 And when they were at the great stone in Gibeon, Amasa ‖ went before them: & Ioabs d garment that he had about him was gyrded vnto him, and he had gyrded thereon a sword, which was ioyned fast to his loynes in a sheath, that as he went it fell sometime out.

e It seemeth that when Ioab perceiued the king to be in great distresse for feare of Seba, & also that the king misiudged Amasa for his long tarying, he hoped shortly to warre with his brother Abisai, of his owne head, without the kings commandement.

9 And Ioab e sayde to Amasa, Art thou in ‡ health, my brother? And Ioab tooke Amasa by the beard with the right hand, to kisse him.

10 But Amasa tooke no heede to the sworde that was in Ioabs hande: for therewith he smote him in the fifth [ribbe] and shed out his bowels to the grounde, and ‡ thrust at him no more, & he dyed: so Ioab & Abisai his brother followed after Seba the sonne of Bichri.

‡ Doubled not his stroke.

11 And one of Ioabs men stoode by him, and sayde, He that beareth any fauour to Ioab, or good will to Dauid, let him go after Ioab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the middes of the way: and when the man sawe that all the people stoode still, he remoued Amasa out of the way into the fielde, and cast a cloth vpon him, because he sawe that euery one that came by him, stoode still.

13 And as soone as he was remoued out of the way, all the people went after Ioab, to folow after Seba the sonne of Bichri.

14 And he went thorow all the tribes of Israel, vnto Abel, and to Bethmaacha, and all the places of Berim: and they gathered together, and went after him.

15 And they came & besieged him in Abel, neere to Bethmaacha, and they cast vp a banke against the citie, & the people therof stoode on the ramper, and all the people that was with Ioab ‡ thrust at the wall to ouerthrow it.

‡ Destroyed to cast downe the wall.

16 Then cryed a wise woman out of the citie, Heare, heare: I pray you say vnto Ioab, Come hither, that I may speake with thee.

17 When Ioab was come vnto her, the woman sayd, Art thou Ioab? He answered, I am he. She sayde vnto him, Heare the wordes of thine handmayde. And he answered, I doe heare.

18 Then shee spake thus, f They spake in the olde time, saying, They should aske of Abel: and so haue they continued.

f She shewed that the olde custome was not to destroy a citie before peace was offered, Deu. 20.

19 I am g one of them that are peaceable and faithfull in Israel, and thou goest about to destroy a citie, and a mother in Israel: Why wilt thou deuoure the inheritance of the Lorde?

g She speaketh in the name of the citie.

20 And Ioab answered and sayde, God forbid, God forbid it mee, that I shoulde either deuoure, or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ephraim (Seba the sonne of Bichri by name) hath lift vp his hand against the king, euen against Dauid: deliuer vs him onely, and I wil depart from the citie. And the woman sayde vnto Ioab, Beholde, his head shalbe throwen to thee ouer the wall.

22 And then the woman went vnto al the people with her wisedome, & they smote off the head of Seba the sonne of Bichri, & cast it out to Ioab: & he blew a trumpet, and they retired ‡ from the citie euery man to his tent: & Ioab returned to Hierusalem vnto the king.

The xxi. Chapter.

1 Three deare yeeres. 9 The vengeance of the sinnes of Saul lighteth on his seuen sonnes, which are hanged.

a Thinking to gratifie the people, because these were not of the seede of Abraham.

2 And the king called the Gibeonites, & sayd vnto them, (Now the Gibeonites were not of the children of Israel, but a remnant of the Amorites, and the children of Israel sware vnto them: and Saul sought to slay them, for a zeale that he had to the children of Israel and of Juda.)

3 Wherefore Dauid said vnto the Gibeonites, b What

b What shal I do for you, and wherewith shal I make the atonement, that ye may blesse the inheritance of the Lord?

4 The Gibeonites answered him, We will haue no siluer nor golde of Saul, nor of his house, neither is it our minde c that thou shouldest kill any man in Israel. He sayde, What you shal say, that will I do for you.

5 They answered the king, The man that consumed vs, and imagined to bring vs to nought, that we are destroyed from remayning in any of the coastes of Israel:

6 Let seuen men of his d sonnes be deliuered vnto vs, and we will hang them vp e vnto the Lord in Gibeah of Saul, whom the Lord did chuse. And the king said, I will giue thē you.

7 But the king had compassion on Mephiboseth the sonne of Jonathan ỹ sonne of Saul, because of the Lords othe that was betweene them, euen betweene Dauid and Jonathan the sonne of Saul.

8 But the king tooke the two sonnes of Rispha the daughter of Aia, whom she bare vnto Saul, euen Armoni, and Mephiboseth, & the fiue sonnes of Michol the daughter of Saul, whome f shee bare to Adriel the sonne of Barzellai, the Meholathite:

9 And he deliuered them into the hands of the Gibeonites, which hanged them in the hil before the Lorde: and they ‖ fell all seuen together, and were slayne in the dayes of haruest, euen in the g first dayes, and in the beginning of barly haruest.

10 And Rispha the daughter of Aia, tooke h sackcloth, and hanged it vp for her vpon the rocke, from the beginning of haruest, vntyll i water dropped vpon them out of heauen, and suffered neyther the birdes of the ayre to ‖ light on them by day, nor beastes of the fielde by night.

11 And it was tolde Dauid what Rispha the daughter of Aia the concubine of Saul had done.

12 And Dauid went and tooke the bones of Saul, and of Jonathan his sonne, from the citizens of Jabes in Gilead, which had stollen them from the streete of Bethsan, where the Philistines had hanged them, when the Philistines had slayne Saul in Gilboa:

13 And he brought thence the bones of Saul, & the bones of Jonathan his sonne, and they gathered the bones of them that were hanged.

14 And the bones of Saul and Jonathan his sonne, buryed they in the countrey of Beniamin in Zela, in the sepulchre of Cis his father: and when they had performed all that the king commanded, God was then k at one with the lande.

15 Moreouer, the Philistines had yet warre againe with Israel, and Dauid went downe, and his seruants with him, & fought against the Philistines, and Dauid waxed faynt.

16 And Jesbibenob, one of the sonnes of the Giants (the iron of whose speare wayed three hundred l sicles of brasse, & he being gyrded w a new sword) thought to haue slaine Dauid.

17 But Abisai the sonne of Zaruia succoured him, and smote the Philistine, and killed him. Then the seruants of Dauid sware vnto him, saying, Thou shalt goe no more out with vs to battaile, that thou quenche not the m light of Israel.

18 *And yet after this, there was a battel with the Philistines, at n Gob: and then Sibbechai the Husathite, slewe o Saph, which was one of the sonnes of the Giants.

19 And there was another battell in Gob, with the Philistines, where Elhanan the sonne of Jaare Oregim a Bethlehemite, slewe p Goliath the Gethite: the staffe of whose speare was as great as a weauers beame.

20 And there was yet another battell in Geth, where was a man of a great stature, that had on euery hand sixe fingers, and on euery foote sixe toes, foure and twentie in number, and was borne also of the kinred of the Giants in Geth:

21 And when he defyed Israel, Jonathan the sonne of Simah the brother of Dauid slewe him.

22 These foure were borne to the Gyant in Geth, and dyed by the hand of Dauid, and by the handes of his seruants.

19 For he was most excellent of the three, and was their captaine, howbeit, he attained not vnto [the first] three.

21 And hee slewe an Egyptian, a ‖ goodly bigge man, and the Egyptian had a [h] speare in his hand: but hee went downe to him with a staffe, and plucked the speare out of the Egyptians hand, & slew him with his owne speare.

28 Heleb [y] sonne of Baanah, a Netophathite, Ithai the sonne of Ribai out of Gibea, of the children of Beniamin,

29 Banaia the Pirathonite, Heddai of the riuer of Gaas,

30 Abialbon the Arbathite, Asmaueth the Barhumite,

31 Eliahba a Saalbonite: of the sonnes of Jasen, Jonathan,

32 Samma the Hararite, Ahiam the sonne of Sarar, an Hararite,

33 Eliphelet the sonne of Ahasbai the sonne of Maachathi, Eliam the sonne of Ahitophel the Gilonite, 34 Hezrai the Carmelite, Paarai the Arbite,

35 Igal the sonne of Nathan of Zoba, Bani the Gadite,

37 Ira the Gethite, Gareb the Gethite,

38 Uria the Hethite: [l] thirtie and seuen in all.

l These came to Dauid, and helped to restore him to his kingdome, and valiantly defended [y] same against his aduersaries.

The xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be numbred. 10 Hee repenteth, and chooseth to fall into Gods hands. 15 Seuentie thousand perish with the pestilence.

1 AND againe ṗ Lord was wroth against Israel, and [a] he moued Dauid against them, in that he sayd, Goe number Israel and Juda.

a By Satan, being instrument thereto, 1. Chro. 21.

2 For the king sayde to Joab the captaine of the host which was with him, Go thou abroad now through out al ṗ tribes of Israel, euē frō Dan to Beersheba, and number ye the people, that I may knowe the [b] number of them.

b Because he did this to try his power, and so to trust therin, it offended God: else it was lawfull to number the people, Exod. 30. num. 1.

3 And Joab said vnto the king, The Lord thy God encrease the people an hundred fold moe then they be, and that the eyes of my lorde the king may see it: and what is ṗ cause that my lord the king hath a lust to this thing?

4 Notwithstanding, the kings word preuayled against Joab, and against the captaines of the host: and Joab and the captaines of the host went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 And they passed ouer Jordane, and pitched in Aroer, on the right side of the citie, that lyeth in the middes of the ‖ valley of Gad, and toward Jazer.

‖ Or, riuer.

6 And then they came to Gilead, and to the ‖ lande Tahtim Hodsi, and from thence they came to Dan Jaan, and about to Sidon,

‖ Or, neather land newly inhabited.

7 And came to the strong hold of Tyre, and to al the cities of the Heuites, and of the Chananites: and thē went out to the South of Juda, euen to Beersheba.

8 And so when they had bene abroad throwe out al ṗ land, they returned to Hierusalem after ṗ end of nine moneths, and twentie dayes.

9 And Joab deliuered the number and summe of the people vnto the king, and there were in Israel [c] eight hundred thousand mē of might that drewe swords: and the men of Juda were [d] fiue hundred thousand men.

c According to Joabs account: for in all, there were eleuen hundred thousand, 1. Chro. 21.

d Concluding vnder them the Beniamites: for els they had but foure hundred & seuentie thousande, 1. Chro. 21.

10 And Dauids heart smote him, after that he had numbred the people: and Dauid said vnto the Lord, I haue sinned exceedingly in that I haue done: and now I beseech thee, Lord, take away the trespasse of thy seruant, for I haue done very foolishly.

11 And when Dauid was vp in the morning, the word of the Lord came vnto the Prophet Gad Dauids [e] Seer, saying, e Whom God had appointed for Dauid and his time.

12 Goe and saye vnto Dauid, Thus sayeth the Lorde, I offer thee three thinges, choose thee which of them I shall do vnto thee.

13 So Gad came to Dauid, and shewed him, & sayd vnto him, Wilt thou haue [f] seuen yeeres of hunger to come vpon thy land: or wilt thou flee three moneths before thine enemies, they following thee: or that there bee three dayes pestilence in thy land? Now therefore aduise thee, and see what answere I shal giue to him that sent me.

f For thre yeres of famine were past for the Gibeonites, this was ṗ fourth yeere, to the which should haue bene added three yeeres more.

14 And Dauid saide vnto Gad, I am in a wonderfull straite: let me fall nowe into the hande of the Lorde (for much is his mercie) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 And so the Lorde sent a pestilence in Israel, from the morning vnto the time appoynted: and there dyed of the people from [g] Dan to Beersheba, seuentie thousand men.

g From the one side of the countrey to the other.

16 And when the angel stretched out his hand vpon Hierusalem to destroy it, the Lorde repented him of the euill, and sayde to the angel that destroyed the people, It is nowe sufficient, hold thine hand. And the angel of ṗ Lord was by the threshing place of Areuna the Jebusite.

17 And Dauid spake vnto the Lorde when hee sawe the angel that smote the people, & sayd, Loe, it is I that haue sinned, and that haue done wickedly: but these sheepe, [h] what haue they done? Let thine hand, I pray thee, be against me, and against my fathers house.

h Dauid sawe not the iust cause why god plagued the people, vers. 1. and therefore he offereth him selfe to Gods correction, as the onely cause of this euill.

18 And Gad came the same day to Dauid, and sayd vnto him, Goe vp, and reare an altar vnto the Lord in the threshing flooze of [i] Areuna the Jebusite.

i Called also Ornan.

19 And Dauid, according to the saying of Gad, went vp, as the Lord commanded.

20 And Areuna looked, and sawe the king and his seruantes comming towarde him: and Areuna went out, and bowed him selfe before the king on his face vpon the ground.

21 And Areuna said, Wherefore is my lord the king come to his seruant? Dauid answered, To buye the threshing flooze of thee, and to make an altar vnto the Lord, that the plague may ceasse from the people.

22 And Areuna sayd vnto Dauid, Let my lord the king take, & offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: beholde, here bee oxen for whole burnt sacrifice, and charets, and the other instruments of the oxen for wood.

23 Al these things did Areuna, as a [k] king, giue vnto the king, and said moreouer vnto ṗ king, The Lord thy God accept thee.

k That is, abundantly, for as some write, he was king of Hierusalē, before Dauid wanne the towre.

24 And the king said vnto Areuna, Not so, but I wil buy it of thee at a price, and wil not offer whole burnt sacrifices vnto the lorde my God, of that which doth cost me nothing. And so Dauid bought the threshing flooze & the oxen for [l] fiftie sicles of siluer.

l Some write, that euery tribe gaue fiftie, which make 600. or that afterward he bought as much as came to 550. sicles.

25 And Dauid built there an altar vnto ṗ Lord, and offred whole burnt sacrifices, & peace offerings: and so the Lorde was intreated for the land, and the plague ceased from Israel.

The ende of the seconde booke of Samuel, otherwise called the seconde booke of Kings.

The

The first booke of the Kings, commonly called the thirde booke of the Kings, after the reckoning of the Latinistes: which thirde booke and the fourth also, is but one with the Hebrewes.

The first Chapter.

3 Abisag keepeth Dauid in his extreme age. 5 Adonia vsurpeth the kingdome. 30 Solomon is anointed King. 50 Adonia fleeth to the Altar.

a He was about threescore and ten yeres olde.

1 AND king Dauid was olde, and stricken in yeeres, so that when they couered him with clothes, he caught no heate.

2 Wherefore his seruantes sayde vnto him, Let there bee sought for my lord the king a [b] yong virgin, to ‖ stand before the king, and to cherish him, and let her lye in thy bosome, that my lorde the king may get heate.

b Dauid tooke this virgin not for lust, but for the health of his body, by the advice of his counsell, which seemeth to be done by ꝑ speciall dispensation of God, and therefore not to be followed as an example.

‖ Or, serue.

3 And so they sought for a fayre damosell thorowout all the coastes of Israel, and founde one Abisag a [c] Sunamite, and brought her to the king.

c Which citie was in ꝑ tribe Issachar.

4 And the damosel was exceeding fayre, and cherished the king, and ministred to him: but the king knewe her not.

‖ Adonias, or Adoniah.

5 And ‖ Adonia the sonne of Haggith exalted himselfe, saying, I will be king. And he gate him charets and horsemen, and [d] fiftie men to runne before him.

d As Absalom had done before.

6 And his father for his time woulde not displease him, to saye, Why hast thou done so? And hee was a very goodly man, and his mother bare him next after Absalom.

7 And he tooke counsell at Joab the sonne of Zaruia, and at Abiathar the Priest: and they [e] helped forward Adonia:

e They tooke his part and followed him.

8 But Sadoc the Priest, ‖ Banaia the sonne of Jehoiada, Nathan the Prophet, Shemei, and Rei, and the men of might which were with Dauid, they were not with Adonia.

‖ Banaiahu, or Banaias.

9 And Adonia sacrificed sheepe and oxen, and fat cattell, by the stone of Zoheleth, which is by the well of Rogel, and called all his brethren the kings sonnes, and al the men of Iuda the kings seruants.

10 But Nathan the Prophet, and Banaia, and the mightie men, and ‖ Solomon his brother, he called not.

‖ Salomon, or Sclomoh.

11 Wherefore Nathan spake vnto Bethsabe the mother of Solomon, saying, Hast thou not heard that Adonia the sonne of Haggith doeth reigne, and Dauid our Lorde knoweth it not?

12 Nowe therefore come, and I will giue thee counsell howe to saue thine owne life, and the life of thy sonne Solomon.

f For Adonia will destroye thy sonne and thee if he reigne.

13 Goe, and get thee in vnto king Dauid, and say vnto him, Diddest not thou, my lorde, O king, sweare vnto thy handmayde, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my seate? why is then Adonia king?

14 Beholde, while thou yet talkest there with the king, I will come in after thee, and [g] confirme thy words.

g By declaring such things as may further the same.

15 And Bethsabe went in vnto the king into the chamber: and the king was very olde, and Abisag the Sunamite ministred vnto the king.

16 And Bethsabe stouped, and made obeisance vnto the king: and the king sayde, What is thy matter?

17 She answered, My lord, thou swarest by the Lord thy God vnto thine handmaid, [saying,] Assuredly Solomon thy sonne shal reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my seate.

18 And beholde, nowe is Adonia king, & thou my lord the king knowest it not.

19 And he hath offered oxen, fat cattell, and many sheepe, and hath called al the sonnes of the king, and Abiathar the Priest, and Joab the captaine of the host: but Solomon thy seruant hath he not bidden.

20 And nowe my lorde, O king, the eyes of all Israel waite on thee, that thou shouldest tell them who ought to sit on the seate of my lord the king after him.

21 For else when my lorde the king shall sleepe with his fathers, I and my sonne Solomon shalbe [h] sinners.

h That is, shal be reputed as sinners, and condemned to death as transgressours.

22 And loe, while she yet talked with the king, Nathan the Prophet came also.

23 And they tolde the king, saying, Beholde, [here commeth] Nathan the Prophet. And when he was come in to the king, he made obeysance before the king vpon his face on the grounde.

24 And Nathan sayde, My lorde, O king, hast thou sayde, Adonia shall reigne after mee, and he shall sit vpon my seate?

25 For hee is gone downe this day, and hath slayne oxen, and fat cattell, and sheepe a great many, and hath called all the kings sonnes, and the captaines of ꝑ host, and Abiathar the Priest: and behold, they eate and drinke before him, and say, God ‡ saue king Adonia.

‡ Heb. let the king Adonia liue.

26 But me thy seruant, and Sadoc the Priest, and Banaia the sonne of Jehoiada, & thy seruant Solomon hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done of my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it vnto thy [i] seruant, who should sit on the seate of my lorde the king after him?

i Meaning, that he ought in such affaires enterprise nothing except he had conferred with the king.

38 Then

28 Then king Dauid answered, and sayd, Call me Bethsabe. And shee came into the kinges presence, and stoode before him.
29 And the king sware, saying, As the Lord liueth, that hath rid my soule out of all aduersitie, 30 Euen as I sware vnto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy sonne shall reigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my seate for mee: so will I certainly doe this day.
31 Then Bethsabe bowed on her face to the earth, and did reuerence vnto the king, and sayde, I pray God that my lorde king Dauid may liue for euer.
32 And king Dauid sayde, Call me Sadoc the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada. And they came before the king.
33 The king also saide vnto them, Take with you the [k] seruants of your lord, and set Solomon my sonne vpon mine owne Mule, and carrie him downe to Gihon:
34 And let Sadoc the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, anoynt him there king ouer Israel: and blowe ye the trumpets, and say, God saue king Solomon.
35 And then yee shall come vp after him, that he may come and sit vpon my seate, for he shal be king in my steade: and I haue [‖] commanded him to be captaine ouer Israel & Iuda.
36 And Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada answered the king, and sayde, Amen: and the Lorde God of my lord the king say so to.
37 And as the Lorde hath bene with my lorde the king, euen so be hee with Solomon also, and make his seate greater then the seate of my lorde king Dauid.
38 And so Sadoc the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, and the Cerethites, and Phelethites, went downe, and set Solomon vpon king Dauids Mule, and brought him to Gihon.
39 And Sadoc the Priest tooke an horne of [l] oyle out of the tabernacle, and anoynted Solomon: and they blewe the trumpets, and all the people sayd, God saue king Solomon.
40 And al the people came vp after him, piping with pipes, and reioycing greatly, so that the earth ‡ rang with the sound of them.
41 And Adonia and all the ghestes that he had called vnto him, heard it [euen] as they had made an end of eating: and when Ioab heard the sound of the trumpet, he sayd, What meaneth this noyse and vprore in the citie?
42 And as he yet spake, beholde, Ionathan the sonne of Abiathar the Priest came, and Adonia sayd vnto him, Come in, for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tidings.
43 And Ionathan answered and sayde to Adonia, Verily our lorde king Dauid hath made Solomon king, 44 And the king hath sent with him Sadoc the Priest, and Nathan the Prophet, and Banaia the sonne of Iehoiada, and the Cerethites, & the Phelethites, and they haue set him vpon the kings Mule.
45 And Sadoc the Priest & Nathan the Prophet haue anoynted him king in Gihon: and they came vp from thence, and reioyced, that the citie did sound againe: and that is ỹ noyse that ye haue heard.
46 And Solomon sitteth on the seate of ỹ kingdome.
47 And moreouer, the kings seruantes came to [m] blesse our lorde king Dauid, saying, God make the name of Solomon more honourable then thy name, and make his seate greater then thy seate. [n] And the king bowed him selfe vpon the bed.
48 And thus saide the king, Blessed be ỹ Lorde God of Israel, which hath made one to sit on my seate this day, mine eye seeing it.
49 And all the ghestes that were with Adonia were afraid, and rose vp, and went euery man his way.
50 And Adonia fearing the presence of Solomon, arose, and went, and caught holde on the hornes of the altar.
51 And one tolde Solomon, saying, Beholde, Adonia feareth king Solomon: for loe, hee hath caught holde on the hornes of the altar, saying, Let king Solomon sweare vnto me this day, that he wil not slay his seruant with the sword.
52 And Solomon sayde, If he will shewe him selfe a worthie man, there shal not an heare of him fall to the earth: but if wickednesse bee found in him, he shall die.
53 And so king Solomon sent, & they brought him from the altar, and he came and did obeysance vnto king Solomon, and Solomon said vnto him, Get thee to thine house.

king rose vp to meete her, and bowed himselfe and hath for him Abiathar the Priest, and Jo-

23 Then king Solomon sware by the Lorde, saying, God doe so and so to mee, if Adonia haue not spoken this worde against his owne life.

24 Nowe therefore as the Lorde liueth, which hath ordeined mee, and set mee on the seate of Dauid my father, and made mee an house as he promised, Adonia shall die this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hand of Ba-naia, the sonne of Jehoiada, & hee smote him, that he dyed.

26 And vnto Abiathar the Priest sayde the king, Get thee to Anatoth vnto thine owne fields, for thou art worthie of death: but I wil not at this time kill thee, because thou barest

28 Then tidings came also to Joab (for Joab had turned after Adonia, though hee turned not after Absalom) and Joab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lord, and caught hold on the hornes of the altar.

29 And it was told king Solomon, how that Joab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lord, & behold, hee is by the altar: Then Solomon sent Banaia the sonne of Jehoiada, saying,
Goe, and fall vpon him.

30 And Banaia came to the tabernacle of the Lord, and said vnto him, Thus saith ỳ king, Come out. And he said, Nay, but I will die thus he answered me.

2.King.3.27. 2.Sam.20,9.

33 Their blood ſhal therefore returne vpon the head of Ioab, and on the head of his ſeede for euer: but vpon Dauid, and vpon his ſeede, and vpon his houſe, & vpon his ſeate, ſhal there be peace for euer of the Lord.

34 So Banaia the ſonne of Iehoiada went vp, and hee fell vpon him, and ſlewe him, and buried him in his owne houſe in the wildernelle.

35 And the king put Banaia the ſonne of Iehoiada in his roome, ouer the hoſte, and put g Sadoc the Prieſt in the roome of Abiathar.

g And ſo tooke the office of the high prieſt from the houſe of Eli, and reſtored it to the houſe of Phinehes.

36 And the king ſent, and called Semei, and ſayde vnto him, Builde thee an houſe in Hieruſalem, and dwell there, and ſee that thou go not forth thence any whither.

37 For be thou ſure, that the day that thou goeſt out, and paſſeſt ouer the riuer Cedron, thou ſhalt dye that day, and thy blood ſhall be vpon thine owne head.

38 And Semei ſaide vnto the king, This ſaying is good: as my lorde the king hath ſayde, ſo will thy ſeruant doe. And Semei dwelt in Hieruſalem many a day.

39 And after three yeeres, two of the ſeruantes of Semei ranne away vnto Achis ſonne of Maacha king of Geth: and they told Semei, ſaying, Beholde, thy ſeruants be in Geth.

h This couetous minde made him venter his life.

40 h And Semei ſtood vp, and ſadled his Aſſe, and gate him to Geth to Achis, to ſeeke his ſeruants: and Semei went, and brought his ſeruants againe from Geth.

41 And it was tolde Solomon howe that Semei had gone from Hieruſalem to Geth, and was come againe.

42 And the king ſent, and called Semei, and ſaide vnto him, Did I not charge thee by the Lord with an othe, and teſtified vnto thee, ſaying, Be ſure, that whē ſo euer thou goeſt out, and walkeſt abroade any whither, thou ſhalt die the death: And thou ſaideſt vnto me, It is good tidings that I haue heard.

43 Why then haſt thou not kept the othe of the Lord, and the commandement that I charged thee withall:

44 The king ſayde moreouer to Semei, Thou remembreſt all the wickednelle which thine heart knoweth, and that thou diddeſt to Dauid my father: the lord alſo ſhal bring thy wickednes vpon thine owne head:

45 And king Solomon ſhall be bleſſed, and the ſeate of Dauid ſtabliſhed before the Lorde for euer.

46 So the king commanded Banaia the ſonne of Iehoiada which went out, and ſmote him, that he died: and the kingdome was ſtabliſhed in the hand of Solomon.

4 And the king went to Gibeon to offer there, for that was the ſpeciall high place: & a thouſand whole burnt offerings did Solomon offer vpon that altar.

5 And in Gibeon the Lord appeared to Solomon in a dreame by night, and God ſaid, Aſke what [thou wilt,] that I may giue it thee.

6 And Solomon ſaide, Thou haſt ſhewed vnto thy ſeruant Dauid my father great mercy, when he walked before thee in trueth, in righteouſneſſe, and in plainenelle of heart with thee, & thou haſt kept for him this great mercie, that thou haſt giuen him a ſonne to ſit on his ſeate, as it is come to paſſe this day.

7 And nowe, O Lord my God, it is thou that haſt made thy ſeruant king, in ſteade of Dauid my father: and I am but yong, & c wote not howe to go out and in.

c To behaue my ſelfe in this great charge of ruling.

8 And thy ſeruant is in the middes of thy people which thou haſt choſen, & verily thy people are ſo many that they can not be told, nor numbred for multitude.

9 d Giue * therefore thy ſeruant an vnderſtanding heart, to iudge thy people, that I may diſcerne betweene good and badde: for who is able to iudge this thy ſo mightie a people?

d Gouernmēt pertaineth to men of wiſedome and vnderſtanding. 2.Chro.1.10.

10 And this pleaſed the Lorde well, that Solomon had deſired this thing.

11 And God ſayd vnto him, Becauſe thou haſt aſked this thing, and haſt not aſked for thy ſelfe long life, neither haſt aſked riches for thy ſelfe, nor haſt aſked the life of thine enemies, but haſt aſked for thy ſelfe vnderſtanding, and diſcretion in iudgement:

12 Beholde, I haue done according to thy wordes: loe, I haue giuen thee a wiſe and an vnderſtanding heart, ſo that there was none like thee before thee, neither after thee ſhall any ariſe like vnto thee.

13 * And Wisdo.7.11.

13 *And I haue also giuen thee that which thou hast not asked, euen riches and honour, so that there shalbe no king like vnto thee all thy dayes.

14 And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to keepe mine ordinances and my commaundements, as thy father Dauid did walke, I wil lengthen thy dayes.

e He knewe that God had appeared to him in a dreame.

15 When Solomon awoke, e behold, it was a dreame: and he came to Hierusalem, and stood before the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, and offered whole burnt offerings, and peace offerings, and made a feast to all his seruants.

‡victuallers.

16 Then came there two women that were ‡harlots vnto the king, and stood before him.

17 And the one woman sayde, Oh my lorde, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was deliuered of a childe with her in ỳ house.

18 And the third day after that I was deliuered, she was deliuered also: and wee were together, and no stranger with vs in the house saue we two.

19 And this wiues child died in the night: for she smothered it.

20 And shee arose at midnight, and tooke my sonne from my side while thine handmayde slept, and layde it in her bosome, and put her dead childe in my bosome.

21 And when I rose in the morning to giue my childe sucke, beholde, it was dead: but whē I had looked vpon it in the morning, behold, it was not my sonne which I did beare.

22 And the other woman sayd, It is not so, but my sonne liueth, and thy sonne is dead. And she saide againe, No, but thy sonne is dead, & my sonne is aliue. And thus they pleaded before the king.

23 Then sayde the king, The one sayth, This that is aliue is my sonne, & the dead is thine: and the other saith, Nay: but thy sonne is the dead, and the liuing childe is mine.

f The wisedome of king Solomon.

24 And the king sayde, f Bring mee a sworde. And they brought out a sworde before the king:

25 And the king sayde, Diuide the liuing childe in two, and giue the one halfe to the one, and the other to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the liuing childe was, vnto the king (for her bowels yerned vpon her sonne) and sayde, I beseech thee my lorde, giue her the liuing childe, and in no wise slay it. But the other said, Let it be neither mine nor thine, but deuide it.

27 Then the king answered, and said, Giue her the liuing childe, and slay it not: for shee is the mother thereof.

28 And all they of Israel heard of the iudgement which the king had iudged, and feared the king: for they sawe that the wisedome of God was in him, to doe iustice.

The v. Chapter.

1 Hiram sendeth to Solomon, and Solomon to him, purposing to buylde the house of God. 6 Hee prepareth stuffe for the building. 13 The number of the workemen.

1 AND Hiram king of Tyre sent his seruants vnto Solomon: (for hee had heard that they had anointed him king in the roome of his father) for Hiram was euer a louer of Dauid.

2 *And Solomon sent to Hiram, saying, 2.Chro.2.3.

3 Thou knowest howe that Dauid my father coulde not builde an house vnto the name of the Lorde his God, * for the warres which were about him on euery side, vntill the Lord put them vnder the soles of his feete. 2.Reg. 7.13. 1.chro.22.10.

4 But nowe, the Lorde my God hath giuen me rest on euery side, so that there is neither aduersarie nor euill to resist.

5 And beholde, I am determined to buylde an house vnto the name of the Lorde my God, as the Lorde spake vnto Dauid my father, saying, Thy sonne whom I will set vpon thy seate for thee, he shall builde an house vnto my name.

6 Nowe therefore commande thou, that they hewe mee Cedar trees out of Libanon, and my seruants shall be with thine: and vnto thee will I giue the hyre for thy seruantes, according to all such things as thou shalt appoynt: for thou knowest that there are not among vs, that can skill to hewe timber like vnto the Sidons.

a In Hiram is prefigured the vocation of the Gentiles who should helpe to builde the spirituall Temple. 7 a And when Hiram heard the wordes of Solomon, hee reioyced greatly, and sayde, Blessed bee the Lorde this day, which hath giuen vnto Dauid a wise sonne ouer this mightie people.

8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying, I haue considered the things which thou sentest to mee for, and will accomplish all thy desire concerning timber of Cedar trees and firre.

9 My seruants shal bring them from Libanon vnto the sea: and I will conuey them by sea in flotes, vnto the place that thou shalt shew me, and will cause them to be discharged there, & thou shalt receiue them: and thou shalt do me a pleasure againe, if thou minister foode for mine house.

10 And so Hiram gaue Solomon Cedar trees, and firre trees, according to all his desire.

11 And Solomon gaue Hiram twentie thousande quarters of wheate for foode to his householde, and twentie buttes of pure oyle: thus much gaue Solomon to Hiram yeere by yeere.

12 And the Lord gaue Solomon wisedome, as *hee promised him: and there was peace betweene Hiram and Solomon, and they two were confedered together. Chap.3.12.

13 And king Solomon raysed a summe out of Israel, and the summe was thirtie thousande men:

14 Whom he sent to Libanon, tenne thousand a moneth by course: so that when they had bene one moneth in Libanon, they abode two moneths at home; and Adoniram was ouer the summe.

15 And Solomon had three score and ten thousande that bare burdens, and foure score thousand Masons in the mountaines:

17 And the king commanded them to bring great ſtones, coſtly ſtones, and hewen ſtones, for the foundation of the houſe.
18 And Solomons maſons, and the maſons of Hiram, did hewe them, and the ſtone ſquarers: and ſo they prepared both timber and ſtones for the building of the houſe.

The vi. Chapter.

1 The building of the temple, and the fourme thereof.
12 The promiſe of the Lord to Solomon.

3.Chro.3.1. 1 AND *in the foure hundred & foure ſcore yeere, after the children of Iſrael were come out of the land of Egypt, and in the fourth yeere of the reigne of Solomon vpon Iſrael, and in the moneth ‖Zif, which is the ſecond moneth, he began to build the houſe of the Lord.
‖April. 2 And the houſe which king Solomon built for the Lorde, was three ſcore cubites long, & twentie cubites broade, & thirtie cubites high.
3 And he made a porche before the temple of the houſe, which was twentie cubites long, after the breadth of the houſe, & ten cubites broade, in the forefront of the houſe.
a Some of the learned Iewes ſuppoſe that the windowes were narowe without, and wide within. 4 And in the houſe he made a wyndowes, broade [without] and narrow [within.]
5 And by the wall of the houſe he made chambers round about, in the walles of the houſe round about the temple and the quier: and he made chambers round about.
6 The neathermoſt chamber was fiue cubites broade, & the middle was ſixe cubites broade, and the thirde was ſeuen cubites broade: for without in the wall of the houſe he made reſtes rounde about, that [the beames of the chambers] ſhould not be faſtened in ỹ walles of the houſe.
7 And the houſe was built of ſtone, made perfect already before it was brought thither: ſo that there was neither hammer nor axe, either any toole of iron heard in the houſe while it was in building.
8 The doore of the middle chamber was in the right ſide of the houſe: and men went vp with winding ſtaires into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the thirde.
9 And ſo hee built the houſe, and finiſhed it: and ſieled the houſe, being vaulted, with ſieling of Cedar trees.
10 And then he built chambers to all the temple, fiue cubites high: and they were ioyned to the houſe with beames of Cedar.
11 And the word of the Lorde came to Solomon, ſaying, 12 Concerning the houſe which thou art in building, if thou wilt walke in mine ordinances, and execute my lawes, and keepe all my commandements to walke in them: then will I make good vnto thee my promiſe, *which I promiſed Dauid thy father: 2.Sam.7.13. 1.chro.22.10.
13 And I will dwel among the children of Iſrael, and will not forſake my people Iſrael.
14 Solomon therefore built the houſe, and finiſhed it:
15 And ſieled the walles of the houſe within with boordes of Cedar tree, euen from the pauement of the houſe, vnto the roofe, and ſo ſieled the walles of it within with Cedar tree, & boorded the floore of the houſe with planckes of firre.
16 And he builded twentie cubites in the ſides of the quier of the temple, with boordes and walles with boordes of Cedar, and ſo built it within for the ſecrete place of the temple, euen in the moſt holy place.
17 But the houſe, that is, the temple before it, was fourtie cubites [long.]
18 And the Cedar of the houſe within, was carued with knoppes, & grauen workes: and all was Cedar timber, ſo that no ſtone was ſeene.
19 And the quier that was within the temple, he prepared, to ſet there the arke of ỹ appointment of the Lord.
‖Or, within. 20 And the quier ‖before, was twentie cubites long, and twentie cubites in breadth, and twentie cubites in height: and he couered it with pure golde, and boorded the altar with Cedar.
21 So Solomon couered the houſe within with pure golde: and he made golden barres runne along the quier, which he had couered with golde.
22 And the whole houſe he ouerlayde with golde, vntill he had ended it: alſo all the altar that was before the quier, he ouerlayde with golde.
23 And within the quier he made two Cherubims of ‖oliue tree, ten cubites high.
‖Or, Pine tree.
24 Fiue cubites long was a wing of the one Cherub, and fiue cubites long was a wing of the other Cherub: ſo that from the vttermoſt part of one wing, vnto the vttermoſt part of the other, were ten cubites.
25 And the other Cherub was tenne cubites high alſo: ſo that both the Cherubims were of one meaſure, and one faſhion.
26 For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubites, and ſo was it of the other.
27 And he put the Cherubims within the inner houſe: and the Cherubims ſtretched out their wings, ſo that the one wing of the one touched the one wall, and the one wing of the other touched the other wall: and the other two wings of them touched one another in the middeſt of the houſe.
28 And hee ouerlayde the Cherubims with golde.

29 And in the walles of the house rounde about, he made figures of carued and fyled worke: as namely pictures of Cherubims, and palme trees, and grauen flowres within and without.

30 And the floore of the house he couered with gold, within and without.

31 And in the entring of the quier he made two doores of olyue tree: and both the vpper and two side postes, were fyue square.

32 The two doores also were of olyue tree; and he graued them with grauing of Cherubims, and palme trees, & grauen flowres, & couered them with gold, & laid thinne plates of golde vpon the Cherubins and palme trees.

33 And so made he for the doore of the temple, postes of olyue tree, foure square.

34 The two doores were of firre tree, and either doore with folding leaues.

35 And he graued thereon Cherubims, palme trees, & carued flowres: and couered the carued worke with golde finely wrought.

36 And he built the inner court with three rowes of hewed stone, and one rowe of Cedar wood.

37 In the fourth yeere was the foundation of the house of the Lord laid, in the moneth ‖ Zif.

38 And in the eleuenth yeere in the moneth ‖ Bul (which is the eight moneth) was the house full finished throughout all the parts thereof, according to all the fashion of it: And so was he seuen yeeres in building it.

The vii. Chapter.

1 The building of the house of Solomon. 15 The excellent workemanship of Hyram in the pieces which he made for the temple.

1 But Solomon was building his owne house thirteene yeeres, & finished it all.

2 And he built the house in the wood Libanon, an hundred cubites long, and fiftie cubites broade, and thirty cubites high: and it stoode vpon foure rowes of Cedar pillars, and Cedar beames were laide vpon the pillars.

3 And the roofe was Cedar aboue vpon the beames that lay on the pillars, euen fiue and fourtie beames, fifteene in a rowe.

4 And there were windowes in three rowes, and the windowes were one against another, three folde.

5 And all the doores with the side postes, & the vpper postes, were foure square, and had windowes one against another, three folde.

6 And he made a porche by the pillars [that bare vp the house] fiftie cubites long, & thirtie cubites broade, and the porche was before those and the other pillars: for there was a thicke tree set before them.

7 Then he made a porche to sit and iudge in, euen a porche of iudgement, sieled with Cedar throughout all the pauements.

8 And his house wherein he dwelt, had an other hall more inward then the porch, of like worke: & then Solomon made an house for Pharaos daughter *(whom he had taken to wife) like vnto the fashion of the porche. * 3. King. 3. 1.

9 All these were of the best stones, hewed after a measure, and sawed with sawes within and without, from the foundation vnto the a beames that lay aboue, after the measure, and euen so on the outside toward the great court.

a These beames were laide vpon stones, that hanged out on the toppe of the wall, the breadth of a hand.

10 And the foundation was laide vpon riche stones, & that very great stones, whereof some were ten cubites, and some eight cubites.

11 And aboue were riche stones, squared after a certaine rule, and couered with Cedar.

12 And the great court round about, was with three rowes of hewed stones, and one rowe of Cedar plankes, after the maner of the inner court of the house of the Lorde, & of the porch of the temple.

13 And king Solomon sent and fet one Hiram out of Tyre,

14 A widowes sonne of the tribe of Nephthali, his father being a man of Tyre: Which Hiram was a craftesman in brasse, full of wisedome, vnderstanding, & cunning, to worke all maner of worke in brasse: and he came to king Solomon, and wrought all his worke.

15 For he cast two pillars of brasse, of eighteene cubites high a piece: * and a string of twelue cubites did compasse either of them about. * Iere. 52. 21.

16 And he made two pōmels of moulten brasse, [after the fashion of a crowne] to set on the toppes of the pillars: ỹ height of the one head piece conteined fiue cubites, and the height of the other head piece conteined fiue cubites also.

17 He made networke and wrethen worke like chaynes, for the pommels vpon ỹ head pieces that were on the toppe of the pillars: euen seuen [rowes] vpon the one head piece, and seuen vpon the other.

18 And so he made the pillars, and two rowes of pomegranates round about in the one networke, to couer the pommels that were vpon the toppe: and this he did also for the other head piece.

19 And the pommels that were vpon the toppe of the pillars, were after Lillie worke, in the porche, foure cubites.

20 And the pommels vpon the two pillars had also aboue ouer against the midst within the networke [pomegranates,] & vpon the second head piece were there two hundred pomegranates, in [two] rowes round about.

21 And he set vp the pillars in the porche of the temple: and when he had set vp the right pillar, he called the name thereof b Jachin: and when he had set vp the left pillar, he called the name thereof c Boaz.

b To stablish and continue, as he should say, God continue & maintein this house for euer.

c Fortitude, or strength, as he might say, God make strong this house for euer.

22 And

22 And vpon the toppe of the pillars [were] Lyllie worke: and so was the workmanship of the pillars finished.

23 And he made a moulten lauatorie, ten cubites wide from brim to brim, rounde in compasse, and fiue cubites high: and a string of thirtie cubites did compasse it about.

24 And vnder ỹ brim of it, there were knoppes round about, ten in one cubite, and they compassed the lauatorie rounde about: and the knoppes were cast with it in two rowes when it was cast.

25 And it stoode on twelue oxen, of which, three looked towarde the North, three towarde the West, three towarde the South, and three towarde the East: and the lauatorie stoode vpon them, and all their hinder partes were inward.

26 It was an hand breadth thicke, and the brim was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowres of Lyllies, & it contained two thousand [d] Bates.

[d] A Bat & an Epha seeme to be both one measure Eze. 45. euery Bat conteineth about ten pottels, whereof the Epha serueth to measure dry things, & the Bat for moyst things.

27 And he made ten feete of brasse: foure cubites long, and foure cubites broade a piece, and three cubites high.

28 And the worke of the feete was on this maner, they had sides, & the sides were betweene the ledges.

29 And on the sides that were betweene the ledges, were Lions, Oxen, and Cherubims: and likewise vpō the ledges that were aboue: and beneath the Lions and Oxen, were certaine additions made of thinne worke.

30 And vnder euerie foote were foure brasen wheeles, and ‖ boordes of brasse: and in the foure corners thereof vnder ỹ lauatorie, were vndersetters moulten, at the side of euerie addition. ‖ Or, tables.

31 And the stalke of the lauatorie was in the myddle of it, and aboue one cubite: but the stalke thereof was rounde, after the worke of the foote, a cubite and a halfe: and also vpon the stalke were grauings, with their bandes, foure square, and not rounde.

32 And vnder the sides were foure wheeles, and the axeltrees ioyned fast to the bottome, and the height of euery wheele was a cubite and an halfe.

33 And the workemanship of the wheeles was like the worke of a charet wheele: and their axeltrees, their naues, spokes, and shaftes, were all moulten.

34 And there were foure vndersetters in the foure corners of one foote, and the vndersetters were of the very bottome it selfe.

35 And in the height of the bottome was there a round compasse of halfe a cubite high: and in that height of the bottome there proceeded both ledges and sides out of the same.

36 For in the boordes of the ledges, and on the sides, he had grauen pictures of Cherubims, Lions, and Palme trees, one by another round about.

37 Thus made he the ten feete after this maner: and they had all one fashion of casting, one measure, and one syse.

38 Then made he ten lauers of brasse, one lauer conteining fourtie Bates: and euery lauer was foure cubites, and vpon euery one of the ten feete, he put one lauer.

39 And he put fiue of those feete on ỹ right side of the house, and other fiue on the left: and he set the lauatorie on the right side of the house Eastward, and toward the South.

40 And Hiram made pots, shouels, and basons, and so finished al the worke that he made king Solomon for the house of the Lord:

41 That is to say, two pillars, and two rounde head pieces that were to be set on the toppes of the two pillars: and two networkes, to couer the two rounde head pieces which were vpon the top of the pillars:

42 And foure hundred pomegranates for the two networkes, euen two rowes of Pomegranates in one networke, to couer the two head pieces that were to be set on the toppes of the pillars:

43 And the ten feete, & ten lauers on the feete:

44 The lauatorie, and twelue oxen vnder it:

45 And pots, shouels, and basons: and all these vessels which Hiram made to king Solomon for the house of the Lord, were of bright brasse.

46 In the plaine of Iordane did the king cast them in the thicke clay, betweene Socoh and Zarthan.

47 And Solomon left all the vesselles [vnweyghed:] because they were so exceeding many, neither founde they out the weight of the brasse.

48 And so Solomon made all the vessels that perteined vnto the house of the Lord, the golden altar, and the golden table whereon the shewe bread was:

49 And fiue candelsticks for the right side, and fiue for the lefte before the quier, of pure golde, with flowres, lampes, and snuffers of golde,

50 And bowles, flat pieces, basons, spoones, and masers of pure golde: and hindges made he of golde, both for the doores of the quier the place most holy, and for the doores of the temple also.

51 And so was ended all the worke that king Solomon made for the house of the Lorde, * and Solomon brought in the things which Dauid his father had dedicated, euen the siluer, gold, and vessels, and laid them vp among the treasures of the house of the Lord. * 2. Chro. 5. 1.

2.Chro.5.2. 1 THen * Solomon gathered the elders of Israel, and all the heades of the tribes, & them that were captaines among ỳ fathers of the children of Israel, vnto him in Hierusalem, that they might bring vp the arke of the couenant of the Lorde, out of the citie of Dauid, which is Sion.

2 And all the men of Israel assembled vnto king Solomon, to the feast that falleth in the ‖ moneth Ethanim, which is the seuenth moneth.

‖ Or, September.

3 And all the elders of Israel were come, and the priestes tooke vp the arke.

4 And they bare the arke of the Lorde, the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, those did the priestes and the Leuites beare.

5 And king Solomon, and all the congregation of Israel, that were assembled vnto him, and went with him before the arke, did offer sheepe, and oxen, that could not be tolde nor numbred for multitude.

6 And so the priestes brought the arke of the couenant of the Lord vnto his place, euen into the quier of the temple, & place most holy, vnder the wings of the Cherubims:

7 For ỳ Cherubims stretched out their wings ouer the place of the arke, & couered both it, and also the staues thereof a high vpon it.

8 And they drue out the staues, that the endes of them might appeare out of the holy place within ỳ quier, but they were not seene without, and there they haue bene vnto this day.

Deut.10.5. a He meaneth, nothing of the whole lawe remained in ỳ arke, sauing the two tables contepning the tenne commandements: wherby neither excluding Barons rod, neither ỳ pot with Manna, which also were in the arke, Heb.9.

9 And there was nothing in the arke *[a] saue the two tables of stone which Moses put there at Horeb, where the Lorde made a couenant with the children of Israel when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

10 And when the priestes were come out of the holy place, the cloude filled the house of the Lord, 11 That the priests could not stande and minister, because of the cloud: for the glory of the Lord had filled the house of the Lorde.

12 Then spake Solomon, The Lord said that he would dwell in the darke cloude.

13 I haue built thee an house to dwel in, an habitation for thee to abide in for euer.

14 And the king turned his face, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stoode still.

15 And he saide, Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, which spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, and hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying, 16 Since the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no citie of al the tribes of Israel to build an house, ỳ my name might be therein: but I haue chosen Dauid to be ruler ouer my people Israel.

2 Sam.7.1. 17 *And it was in the heart of Dauid my father, to builde an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel.

18 And the Lorde said vnto Dauid my father, Whereas it was in thine heart to builde an house vnto my name, thou diddest well that thou wast so minded:

19 Neuertheless, thou shalt not build ỳ house: but thy sonne ỳ shall come out of thy loynes, he shall build the house vnto my name.

20 And ỳ Lorde hath made good his word that he spake, and I am risen vp in the roome of Dauid my father, and sit on the seate of Israel, as the Lord promised, & haue built an house for the name of the Lord God of Israel:

21 And I haue prepared therein a place for the arke, wherein is the couenant of the Lorde, which he made with our fathers when he brought them out of the land of Egypt.

22 Solomon stoode before the altar of ỳ Lord, in the sight of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his hands toward heauen, and saide, 23 *Lorde God of Israel, there is no God like thee, in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath, thou that keepest couenant and mercie with thy seruants that walke before thee with all their heart. 2.Mac.2.8.

24 Thou that hast kept with thy seruant Dauid my father that thou promisedst him: thou spakest also with thy mouth, and hast fulfilled it with thine hand, as it is come to passe this day.

25 Therefore now, Lord God of Israel, keepe with thy seruant Dauid my father, that thou promisedst him, saying, *Thou shalt not be without a man in my sight, to sit on the seate of Israel: so that the children take heede to their way, that they walke before me, as thou hast walked in my sight. 2.Sam.7.12.

26 And now, O God of Israel, let thy word be verified which thou spakest vnto thy seruant Dauid my father.

27 Will God in deede dwell on the earth? beholde, the heauen and heauens of all heauens are not able to conteine thee: and how should then this house doe it that I haue builded?

28 Haue thou therefore respect vnto the prayer of thy seruant, & to his supplication, O Lord my God, to heare the cry and prayer which thy seruant prayeth before thee this day:

29 That thine eyes may be open towarde this house night & day, euen toward this place, of which thou hast said, *My name shalbe there: that thou mayest hearken vnto the prayer which thy seruant prayeth in this place: Deut.12.11.

30 And regarde thou the supplication of thy seruant, and of thy people Israel, when they pray in this place: and heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and when thou hearest, haue mercie.

31 If any mã trespasse against his neighbour, and and there goe an oth betweene them, and the one compell the other, and come, ſwearing before thine altar in this houſe:

32 Then hearken thou in heauen, and doe and iudge thy ſeruants, that thou condemne the vngodly, to bring his way vpon his head: and iuſtifie the righteous, to giue him according to his righteouſneſſe.

33 When thy people Iſrael be put to the worſe before the enemie, becauſe they haue ſinned againſt thee, and afterwarde turne againe to thee, & knowledge vnto thy name, and pray, & make ſupplication vnto thee in this houſe:

34 Then heare thou in heauen, to be mercifull vnto the ſinne of thy people Iſrael, and bring them againe vnto the land which thou gaueſt vnto their fathers.

35 If heauen be ſhut vp, and there be no rayne, becauſe they haue ſinned againſt thee: yet if they pray in this place, and giue knowledge vnto thy name, and turne from their ſinne through thy ſcourging of them:

36 Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercifull vnto the ſinnes of thy ſeruantes, and of thy people Iſrael, that thou ſhewe them a good way to walke in, and giue rayne vpon the land that thou haſt giuen to thy people to inherite.

37 If there be in the land dearth, or peſtilence, drouth, blaſting, Graſhopper, or Caterpiller: or if their enemie beſiege them in the lande of their cities, or whatſoeuer plague or ſickneſſe chaunce vnto them,

38 Then what prayer and ſupplication ſo euer be made of any man of all thy people Iſrael, which ſhall knowledge euery man the plague of his owne heart, and ſtretch forth his hands toward this houſe:

39 Heare thou then in heauen in thy dwelling place, and be mercifull, and doe and giue euery man according to his wayes, euen as thou that onely knoweſt his heart (for thou onely knoweſt the hearts of all the children of mẽ.)

40 That they may feare thee, as long as they liue, in the land which thou gaueſt vnto our fathers.

41 And likewiſe, if a ſtranger that is not of thy people Iſrael, come out of a farre countrey, for thy names ſake:

42 (For they ſhall heare of thy great name, and of thy mightie hand, and of thy ſtretched out arme,) and ſhall come and pray in this houſe:

43 Heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and doe all that the ſtranger calleth to thee for: that all nations of the earth may knowe thy name, and feare thee, as doe thy people Iſrael, and that they may knowe that thy name is called vpon in this houſe which I haue builded.

44 If thy people goe out to battel againſt their enemie, whither ſo euer thou ſhalt ſend them, and ſhall pray vnto the Lorde [towarde] the way of the citie which thou haſt choſen, and [towarde] the houſe that I haue built for thy name:

45 Heare thou in heauen their prayer and ſupplication, ‖ and iudge their cauſe.

‖ Or, maintaine their right.

46 If they ſinne againſt thee (for there is no *man that ſinneth not) and thou be angrie with them, and deliuer them into the hand of their enemies, ſo that they carrie them away priſoners vnto the lande of their enemies, whether farre or neare:

* 1. Iohn. 1. 8. 2. chro. 6. 23. eccle. 7. 21.

47 Yet if they turne againe vnto their hearts, [b] in the land of them that carried them away captiues, and returne and pray vnto thee in the lande of their enemies, ſaying, Wee haue ſinned, we haue done wickedly, & haue committed vngodlineſſe:

b Though the temple was þ chiefe place of prayer, yet he ſecludeth not them, that being let with neceſſitie call vpon him in other places. as Daniel did, Chap. 6.

48 And ſo turne againe vnto thee with all their heart, and all their ſoule, in the lande of their enemies which led them away captiue, and pray vnto thee [towarde] the way of their lande which thou gaueſt vnto their fathers, and [toward] the citie which thou haſt choſen, and [towarde] the houſe which I haue built for thy name:

49 Then heare thou their prayer and ſupplication in heauen thy dwelling place, and iudge their cauſe:

50 And be mercifull vnto thy people that haue ſinned againſt thee, and vnto all their iniquities, whereby they haue done wickedly againſt thee, and get thou them the fauour of thoſe which led them away captiue, that they may haue compaſſion on them.

51 For they be thy people, and thine inheritance, which thou broughteſt out of Egypt, euen from the middes of the furnace of iron.

52 And let thine eyes be open vnto the prayer of thy ſeruant, & vnto the prayer of thy people Iſrael, to hearken vnto them in all that they call for vnto thee.

53 For thou diddeſt ſeparate them from among all the nations of the earth to be thine owne inheritance, as thou ſaideſt by the hande of Moſes thy ſeruant, when thou broughteſt our fathers out of Egypt, O Lord God.

54 And when Solomon had made an ende of praying all this prayer & ſupplication vnto the Lord, he aroſe from before the altar of the Lorde, and from kneeling on his knees, and from ſtretching of his hands vp to heauen,

55 And ſtoode, and bleſſed all the congregation of Iſrael, with a loude voyce, ſaying, 56 Bleſſed be the Lord that hath giuen reſt vnto his people Iſrael, according to all that he promiſed: there hath not failed one worde of all the good promiſe, which he promiſed by the hand of Moſes his ſeruant.

57 The Lord our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, & forſake vs not, neither leaue vs:

58 But that he may bowe our heartes vnto him, that we may walke in all his wayes, and keepe his commandementes, his statutes, and his lawes which he commanded our fathers.

59 And those my wordes which I haue prayed before the Lord, be nigh vnto the Lorde our God day and night, that he defend the cause of his seruant, and the cause of his people Israel at all times, as the matter shall require:

60 That all nations of the earth may knowe that the Lord is God, and no one but he.

61 Let your heart therefore be perfect with the Lord our God, that ye walke in his statutes, and keepe his commandements, as this day.

62 And the king, and all Israel with him, offered offerings before the Lord.

2.Chro.7.5. 63 *And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offerings, which he offered vnto the Lorde, [to wit] twentie and two thousand oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousande sheepe: And so the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lord.

64 The same day did the king halow the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered whole burnt offerings, meate offerings, & the fat of the peace offerings: because the brasen altar that was before the Lorde, was too little to receiue the whole burnt offerings, meate offerings, and the fat of the peace offerings.

65 And Solomon held that same time an high feast, and all Israel with him, a very great congregation, euen from the entring in of Hemath, vnto the riuer of Egypt, before the Lord our God c seuen dayes, and seuen dayes, euen fourteene dayes.

c Seuen dayes for the dedication, and seuen dayes for the feast.

66 And the eight day he sent the people away, and they ‖ blessed the king, and went vnto their tentes ioyous, and with glad heart, because of all the goodnesse that the Lorde had done for Dauid his seruant, and for Israel his people.

‖ Or, thanked.

The ix. Chapter.

2 The Lorde appeareth the second time to Solomon.
11 Solomon giueth cities to Hiram.

2.Chro.7.11. 1 AND when *Solomon had finished the building of the house of the Lord, & the kings palace, & all that he had in his minde, and was appointed to make:

Chap.3.5. 2 The Lord appeared to Solomon the second time, *as he appeared vnto him at Gibeon.

3 And the Lorde said vnto him, I haue heard thy prayer and thy intercession that thou hast made before me: for I haue halowed this house which thou hast built, to *put my name there for euer, and mine eyes and mine heart shall be there perpetually.

Deut.12.11.

4 And if thou wilt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, in pureuesse of heart, and in righteousnesse, to doe all that I haue commanded thee, and wilt keepe my statutes, and my lawes:

5 Then will I stablish the seate of thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer, as I *promised to Dauid thy father, saying, Thou shalt not be without a man vpon the seate of Israel.

2 Sam.7.12. 1.chro.22.10.

6 But if ye and your children turne away from me, and will not keepe my commandements, and my statutes which I haue set before you, but goe and serue other gods, and worship them:

7 Then will I weede Israel out of the lande which I haue giuen them, & this house which I haue halowed for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and Israel shalbe a prouerbe, and a fable among all nations,

8 ‖ And this house shalbe taken away: so that euery one that passeth by it, shalbe astonyed, and shall hisse, and they shall say, *Why hath the Lorde done thus vnto this land, and to this house?

‖ Some reade, when this house is in great honour.

Deut.29.24. iere.22.8.

9 And they shall answere, Because they forsooke ỳ Lord their God, which brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and haue taken holde vpon other godes, and haue worshipped them, and serued them: therefore hath the Lord brought vpon them all this euill.

10 *And at the ende of twentie yeeres, when Solomon had finished the building of the two houses [that is to wit,] the house of ỳ Lorde, and the kings palace,

2.Chro.8.1.

11 (And Hiram ỳ king of Tyre, brought Solomon timber of Cedar, and firre trees, gold, and whatsoeuer he desired) then Solomon gaue Hiram twentie cities in the lande of Galilee.

12 And Hiram came out from Tyre, to see the cities which Solomon had giuen him, and they pleased him not.

13 And he saide, What cities are these which thou hast giuen me, my brother? And he called them the land of ‡ barren, vnto this day.

‡ Heb. Chebul.

14 And Hiram sent the king sixe score talentes of golde.

15 (And this is the summe which king Solomon raised for a tribute, when he builded the house of ỳ Lorde, and his owne house, & Millo, and the wall of Hierusalem, and Hazor, and Megiddo, and Gazer.

16 For Pharao king of Egypt, went vp, and tooke Gazer, and burnt it with fire, and slue the Chanaanites that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter Solomons wife.

17 And Solomon built Gazer, and Bethhoron the neather,

18 And Baalath, and Thamor in the wildernesse, in the lande, 19 And all the treasure cities that Solomon had, and cities for his charets, and cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired,

and

and would build in Hierusalem, in Libanon, and in all the land of his dominion.)

20 And all the people that were left of the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites, and Iebusites, which were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children that were left after them in the lande, whom the children of Israel also were not able to destroy: those did Solomon compell to bring tribute, vnto this day.

22 But of the childrē of Israel, did Solomon make no bondmē: but they were mē of warre, his ministers, his lordes, his captaines, and rulers of his charets, and his horsemen.

23 And these were the lordes that were set ouer Solomons worke, fiue hundred were they and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought the worke.

2.Chro.8.11. 24 *And Pharaos daughter came vp out of the citie of Dauid, vnto her house which Solomon had built for her: and then did he also builde Millo.

25 And thrise a yeere did Solomon offer whole burnt offerings, & peace offerings vpon the altar which he built vnto the Lorde, and he burnt incense vpon the altar that was before the Lord, and so he finished the house.

26 And king Solomon made a nauie of ships in Azion Gaber, which is beside Eloth, on the brinke of the red sea, in the land of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent by ship also of his seruants that were shipmen and had knowledge of the sea, with the seruants of Solomon:

a In the second Chro. the 8. Chap. is made mention of thirtie moe, which seeme to haue bene imployed for their charges.

28 And they came to Ophir, & fet from thence [a] foure hundred and twentie talents of golde, and brought it to king Solomon.

The x. Chapter.

1 The queene of Saba commeth to heare the wisedome of Solomon. 18 His royall throne. 32 His power and magnificencie.

Matth.12.42. 2.chro.9.1. 1 AND the *queene of Saba hearing the fame of Solomon (concerning ỹ name of the Lorde) came to proue him with hard questions.

2 And she came to Hierusalē with a very great traine, with Camels that bare sweete odours, & golde exceeding much, and precious stones: and she came to Solomon, and communed with him of all that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon declared vnto her al her questions, so that there was not one thing hyd from the king, which he expounded not vnto her.

4 And the queene of Saba considered all Solomons wisedome, and the house that he had builded,

5 And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his seruantes, the order of his ministers, and their apparel, and his ‖ butlers, and his whole burnt sacrifices that he offered in the house of the Lord: and ‡ she was astonyed.

‖ Or, drinking vessels.
‡ Heb. There was no more spirit in her.

6 And she sayde vnto the king, It was a true word that I heard in mine owne land, of thy sayings, and of thy wisedome.

7 Howbeit, I beleeued it not, till I came, and sawe it with mine eyes: and behold, the one halfe was not tolde me: for thy wisedome and prosperitie exceedeth the fame which I heard of thee.

8 Happie are thy men, and happie are these thy seruantes which stand euer before thee, and heare thy wisedome.

9 Blessed be the Lorde thy God which loued thee, to set thee on ỹ seate of Israel, [a] because the Lord loued Israel for euer, & made [b] thee king, to doe equitie and righteousnesse.

a God loueth that people to whom he giueth a wise ruler.
b The office of a king.

10 And she gaue the king sixe score talentes of golde, & of sweete odours exceeding much, & precious stones: there came no more such abundance of sweete odours, as the queene of Saba gaue to king Solomon.

11 The nauie also of the ships of Hiram (that caried golde from Ophir) brought likewise great plentie of Almuge trees, and precious stones, from Ophir.

12 And the king made of the Almuge trees pillars for the house of the Lord, and for ỹ kings palace, and made Harpes and Psalteries for singers: there came no more such Almuge trees, nor were any more seene vnto this day.

13 And king Solomon gaue vnto the queene of Saba, according to all her desire, whatsoeuer she asked, besides that he gaue her of a free will with his owne hand: and so she returned vnto her owne countrey, both she, and her seruants.

14 The weight of golde that came to Solomon in one yeere, was sixe hundred, threescore, and sixe talents of golde, 15 Besides that [he had] of marchantes, and of the marchandizes of the spices, and of all the kings of Arabia, and of the lordes of the countrey.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten golde: sixe hundred sicles of golde went to a target.

17 And he made three hundred shieldes of beaten golde: three pound of golde went to one shielde, and the king put them in the house of the wood of Libanon.

18 And the king made a great seate of Iuorie, and couered it with the best golde.

19 And the seate had sixe steppes, and the toppe of the seate was rounde behinde, and there were pommels on eyther side on the place of the seate; and two Lions stoode beside the pommels.

20 And there stoode twelue Lions on ỹ steppes, sixe on a side: there was none like worke seene in any kingdome.

21 And all king Solomons drinking vessels were of golde, and likewise all the vessels of the house of the wood Libanon were of pure golde: and as for siluer, it was nothing worth in the dayes of Solomon:

22 For the kings nauie of shippes went on the sea vnto Tharsis, with the nauie of Hirams ships: euen once in three yeeres went ỳ nauie to Tharsis, and brought gold and siluer, Elephantes teeth, Apes, and Pecockes.

23 And so king Solomon exceeded all ỳ kings of the earth, both in riches and wisedome.

24 And all the world resorted to Solomon, to heare his wisedome which God had put in his heart:

25 And brought him euerie man his present, vessels of siluer, and vessels of golde, raiment, harnesse, and sweete odours, and horses, and Mules, yeere by yeere.

2.Chro.1.14. 26 And * Solomon gathered together charets and horsemen. And he had a thousande and foure hundred charets, and twelue thousand horsemen, whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and with the king at Hierusalem.

27 And the king made siluer in Hierusalem as plenteous as stones, and Cedar as plenteous as the wilde figge trees, that growe abundantly in the fieldes.

28 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linen: the ‖ kings marchants receiued the linen for a price.

29 A charet came vp out of Egypt ‖ for six hundred sicles of siluer, ỳ is, one horse for an hundred and fiftie, and euen so for all the kings of the Hethites, and for the kings of Syria, did they bring them out ‖ through their hands.

‖ Or, for the company of the kings marchants did receiue a number at a price.

‖ Or, worth.

‖ Or, by their meanes.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Solomon had a thousande wiues and concubines, which bring him to idolatrie.

1 BUt King Solomon loued many outlandish women, & the * daughter of Pharao, and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Sidonites, and Hethites:

Deut.17.17.

2 Where as yet concerning these nations, the Lorde saide vnto the children of Israel, Goe not ye into them, nor let them come in to you, els will they turne your heartes after their goddes: neuertheless, Solomon claue vnto them in loue.

a God tollerated in his people the Israelites pluralitie of wiues, as well for the increase of that his people, as also for ỳ mysterie. For Agar and Sara Abrahams wiues, Lea & Rachel Jacobs wiues, were figures of the Synagogue, and of ỳ true church: but Christ hath called vs to the first institution, saying, There shalbe two in one flesh, Mat. 19. Judges. 2.

3 a And he had seuen hundred wiues [that were] queenes, & three hundred concubines: and his wiues turned away his heart.

4 For it came to passe when Solomon was olde, his wiues turned his heart after other goddes: and his heart was not perfect with the Lorde his God, as was the heart of Dauid his father.

5 For Solomon followed Ashtaroth the god of the Sidons, and Milcom the abomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and followed not the Lorde perfectly, as did Dauid his father.

7 For then did Solomon builde an high place for Chamos the abomination of Moab, in the hill that is before Hierusalem, and vnto Moloch the abomination of the children of Ammon.

8 b And likewise did he for all his outlandish wiues, which burnt incense, and offered vnto their goddes.

b Here it appeareth what daunger it is to ioyne with infidels and wiues of strange religion.

9 And the Lorde was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned from the Lorde God of Israel, which had appeared vnto him twise,

10 And gaue him a charge concerning this thing, that he shoulde not follow other gods: but he kept not that which the Lorde commanded him.

11 Wherefore the Lorde said vnto Solomon, Forasmuch as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept mine appointment, and my statutes which I commanded thee, I will rent the kingdome from thee, and will giue it to thy seruant.

12 Notwithstanding, in thy dayes I will not doe it, because of Dauid thy father: but will take it from the hand of thy sonne.

13 Howbeit, I will not take away all the kingdome: but will giue one c tribe to thy sonne, because of Dauid my seruant, and because of Hierusalem which I haue chosen.

c Because the tribes of Juda & Beniamin had their possessions mixed, they are here taken as one tribe.

14 And the Lord stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Solomon, euen one Hadad an Edomite, of the kings seede, which was in Edom.

15 For when Dauid was * in Edom, and Joab the captaine of the host was gone vp to burie them that were slaine, he smote all the men children in Edom:

2.Kin.8.14.

16 (For sixe monethes did Joab remaine there, and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the men children of Edom,)

17 And this Hadad fled, and certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruantes with him, to come into Egypt: Hadad being yet a litle childe.

18 And they arose out of Madian, and came to Paran, and tooke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt, vnto Pharao king of Egypt, which gaue him an house, & appointed him victuals, and gaue him land.

19 And Hadad gat great fauour in the sight of Pharao, so that he gaue him to wife the sister of his owne wife, euen the sister of Thaphpenes the queene.

20 And the sister of Thaphpenes bare him Genubath his sonne, whō Thaphpenes nourished in Pharaos house: and Genubath was with Pharaos houshold among the sonnes of Pharao.

21 And when Hadad heard in Egypt that Dauid was laid to sleepe with his fathers, & that Joab the captaine of the host was dead also,

he

he said to Pharao, Let me depart, that I may goe to mine owne countrey.

22 Pharao said vnto him, What hast thou lacked here with me, that thou wouldest thus go to thine owne countrey? He answered, Nothing: howbeit, let me goe.

23 And God stirred him vp another aduersarie, 2.Sam.8.3. one Rezon, the sonne of Eliada, * which fled from his lord Hadadezer king of Zoba:

24 And he gathered men vnto him, & became captaine ouer the companie whē Dauid slew them: and they went to Damascus, & dwelt there, and raigned in Damascus.

25 Therefore was hee an aduersarie to Israel all the dayes of Solomon, and this was the mischiefe, in that Hadad did abhorre Israel, and raigned ouer Syria.

26 *And Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, an Ephrathite, of Zareda (whose mother was called Zeruah, which was a widowe) & he Solomons seruant, lift vp his hand against the king. 2.Chro.13.6.

27 But this was the cause that hee lift vp his hand against the king: Solomon built Mello, and mended the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

28 And this fellow Ieroboam was a man of strength and courage: and Solomon seeing the yong man that hee was able to doe the worke, made him ruler ouer all the charge of the house of Ioseph.

29 And at that season Ieroboam went out of Hierusalem, and the prophet Ahia the Silonite met him by the way, hauing a new mantell on him, and they two were alone in the field.

30 Ahia caught the new mantel that was on him, and rent it in twelue pieces, 31 And said to Ieroboam, Take thee tenne pieces: for thus saith the Lord God of Israel, Behold, I will rent the kingdome out of the handes of Solomon, and will giue ten tribes to thee.

32 And he shall haue one for my seruaunt Dauids sake, and for Hierusalem the citie which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:

33 Because they haue forsaken mee, and haue worshipped Astaroth the god of the Sidons, and Chamos the god of the Moabites, and Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, and haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfill my pleasure, my statutes, and my lawes, as did Dauid his father.

34 I will not take the whole kingdome out of his hand: but I will make him chiefe all his life long, for Dauid my seruaunts sake whom I chose, because he kept my commandements and my statutes:

35 But I will take the kingdome out of his sonnes hand, and will giue it vnto thee, euen ten tribes of it:

36 And vnto his sonne will I giue one tribe, that Dauid my seruant may haue a light alway before me in Hierusalem, the citie which I haue chosen me to put my name there.

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt raigne according to all that thy soule desireth, and shalt be king ouer Israel.

38 And if thou hearken vnto all that I commaund thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and doe that is right in my sight, that thou keepe my statutes, and my commandements, as Dauid my seruaunt did, then will I bee with thee, and build thee a sure house, as I built for my seruant Dauid, and will giue Israel vnto thee.

39 And I will for this [offence which Solomon hath committed] punish ỹ seede of Dauid, but not for euer.

40 Solomon sought therefore to kill Ieroboam, and Ieroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, vnto Silac king of Egypt, and continued there in Egypt vntill the death of Solomon.

41 The rest of the words that concerne Solomon, and al that he did, and his wisedome, are they not written in the booke of the words of Solomon?

42 The time that Solomon reigned in Hierusalem, vpon all Israel, was fourtie yeeres.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid his father: and Roboam his sonne reigned in his steade.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Roboam succeedeth Solomon. 20 Ieroboam reigneth ouer Israel.

1 AND *Roboam went to Sichem: for all Israel were come to Sichem to make him king. 2.Chro.10.1.

2 And when Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat which was yet in Egypt heard of it (for hee fledde to Egypt from the presence of king Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt:)

3 So they sent, and called him: and Ieroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, and spake vnto Roboam, saying,

4 Thy father made our yoke grieuous, now therefore make thou the grieuous seruice of thy father, & his sore yoke which he put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee.

5 And he said vnto them, Depart yet for the space of three dayes, and then come againe to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Roboam tooke counsell with the olde men that stoode before Solomon his father, while he yet liued, and said, What counsell giue ye, that I may answere this people?

7 And they said vnto him, a If thou bee a seruaunt vnto this people this day, and follow their mindes, and answere them, and speake kinde words to them, they will bee thy seruants for euer. a Graue and wise counsell.

8 But hee forsooke the counsell that the olde men men had giuē him, & called vnto his counsell yong men, that were growen vp with him, and waited on him:

9 And he said vnto them, What counsell giue ye, that we may answer this people? for they haue communed with me, saying, Make the yoke which thy father did put vpon vs, lighter.

b Yong and rash counsell.

10 b And the yong men that were growen vp with him, spake vnto him, saying, Thus shalt thou speake vnto this people that haue said vnto thee, Thy father made our yoke heauie, but make thou it lighter vnto vs: * euē thus shalt thou say vnto them, My litle finger shal bee weightier then my father was in the loynes.

Eccl.47.28.

11 And nowe where as my father did lade you, and put a grieuous yoke vpon you, I will make it heauier: my father hath chastised you with rodes, but I will correct you with ‖ scourges.

‖ Or, scorpions.

12 And so Ieroboam and all the people, came to Roboam the third day, as the king had appointed, saying, Come to me againe the third day.

13 And the king answered the people churlishly, and left the olde mens counsell that they gaue him:

14 And spake to them after the counsell of the yong men, saying, My father made your yoke grieuous, and I will make it grieuouser: my father also chastised you with rods, but I will chastise you with scourges.

15 And the king hearkened not vnto ỹ people: for it was the * ordinaunce of God, that hee might perfourme his saying which the Lord spake by Ahia the Silonite vnto Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat.

1.Kin.11.11.

16 And so when all Israel sawe that the king regarded them not, the people answered the king with these wordes, saying, What portion haue we in Dauid? wee haue no inheritance in the sonne of Isai: to your tentes, O Israel, now see to thine owne house, Dauid. And so Israel departed vnto their tents.

17 Howbeit, ouer the children of Israel which dwelt in ỹ cities of Juda, did Roboam raigne still.

18 The king Roboam sent Aduram the receiuer of the tribute, and all they of Israel stoned him to death: but king Roboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, and to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And they of Israel rebelled against ỹ house of Dauid vnto this day.

20 And when all Israel heard that Ieroboam was come againe, they sent and called him vnto the multitude, and made him king ouer all Israel, and there was no tribe that followed the house of Dauid, but Juda onely.

Chap.11.13.

21 And when * Roboam was come to Hierusalem, he gathered all the house of Juda, with the tribe of Beniamin, an hundred and foure score thousand of chosen men, which were good warriers, to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdome againe to Roboam the sonne of Solomon.

22 * And the word of God came vnto Semaia the c man of God, saying,

2.Chro.11.2.

c The prophet of God.

23 Speake vnto Roboam the sonne of Solomon king of Juda, and vnto all the house of Juda and Beniamin, and to the remnant of the people, saying,

24 Thus saith the Lord, Ye shall not goe vp, nor yet fight against your brethren the children of Israel: returne euery man to his house, for this thing is my doing. They hearkened therefore to the worde of the Lord, and returned to depart, according to the word of the Lord.

25 Then Ieroboam built Sichem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therein, and went from thence, and built Penuel.

26 And Ieroboam thought in his heart, Now shall the kingdome returne to the house of Dauid.

27 d For if this people goe vp, and doe sacrifice in the house of the Lord at Hierusalem, then shal the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lord Roboam king of Juda, and so shall they kill me, and goe againe to Roboam king of Juda.

d Worldly pollicie against Gods word.

28 Whereupon the king tooke counsell, and made two calues of golde, and said vnto them, It is much for you to goe vp to Hierusalem: * beholde O Israel, these are thy gods, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt.

Exo.32.8.

29 And he set the one in Bethel, & the other set he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to sinne: for the people went (because of the one) as farre as Dan.

31 And he made an house of high places, * and made priests of ỹ lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Leui.

2.Chro.11.15.

32 And Ieroboam made a feast the fifteenth day of the eight moneth, like vnto the feast that is in Juda, & offred on the altar: and so did he in Bethel, to offer vnto the calues that he had made: and he put in Bethel the priests of the high places which he had made.

33 And he went vp to the altar, to burne incēse which he had made in Bethel, the fifteenth day of the eight moneth, euen in the moneth which he had imagined of his owne heart: & made a solemne feast vnto the children of Israel, ‖ and offered vpon the altar, and burnt incense.

‖ Or, and he went vp to the altar to burne incense.

The xiii. Chapter.

1 Ieroboam is reprehended of the prophet. 4 His hand drieth vp.

1 And a A prophet.

1 And behold, there came a[a] man of God out of Juda by the word of the Lord, vnto Bethel: and Jeroboam stood by the altar, to put incense.

2 And he cried against the altar in the worde of the Lord, and said, O altar, altar, thus saith the Lord, * Behold, a child shall be borne vnto the house of Dauid, Josia by name, & vpon thee shall he offer the priests of the high places that burne incense vpon thee, and mens bones shall be burnt vpon thee.

4.King.23.17.

3 And he gaue a token the same tyme, saying, This is the token that the Lord hath spoken it, Behold, the altar shall rent, and the ashes that are vpon it shall fall out.

4 And when the king heard the saying of the man of God, which had cried against the altar in Bethel, he stretched out his hand from the altar, saying, Hold him: And his hand which he put forth against him, dried vp, and he could not pull it in againe to him.

5 The altar also claue asunder, and the ashes fell out from the altar, according to the token which the man of God had giuen by ỹ word of the Lord.

6 And the king answered, and said vnto ỹ man of God, Oh pray vnto the Lord thy God, and make intercession for me, that my hand may be restored me againe. And the man of God besought the Lord, & the kings hand was restored againe, and became as it was before.

7 And the king saide vnto the man of God, Come home with me, that thou mayest dine, and I will giue thee a reward.

8 And the man of God said vnto the king, If thou wilt giue me halfe thine house, I will not go in with thee, neither wil I eate bread, nor drinke water in this place:

9 For so was it charged me thorow the word of the Lord, saying, Eate no bread, nor drinke water, nor turne againe by the same way that thou camest.

10 And so he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.

11 And there dwelt an old prophet in Bethel, & his sonnes came and told him all the workes that the man of God had done that day in Bethel: and the words which he had spoken vnto the king, told they their father also.

12 And their father said vnto them, What way went he? And his sonnes shewed him what way the man of God went, which came from Juda.

13 And he said vnto his sonnes, Saddle me the asse. Which when they had sadled, hee gate him vp thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting vnder an oke, & he said vnto him, Art thou the man of God that camest frō Juda? And he said, I am.

15 He sayd vnto him, Come home with me, and eate bread.

16 He answered, I may not returne with thee, to goe in with thee: neither will I eate bread, nor drinke water with thee in this place.

17 For it was saide to me in the worde of the Lorde, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to goe by the way that thou camest.

18 He sayde vnto him, I am a Prophet also as well as thou, and an angel spake vnto mee in the word of ỹ Lord, saying, Bring him againe with thee into thine house, that hee may eate bread, and drinke water: [And] hee lyed vnto him.

19 And so he went againe with him, and did eat bread in his house, and dranke water.

20 And as they sate at the table, the worde of the Lord came vnto ỹ Prophet that brought him againe.

21 And he cryed vnto ỹ man of God that came from Juda, saying, Thus sayth the Lord, Because thou hast disobeyed the mouth of the Lorde, and hast not kept the commandement which the Lord thy God commanded thee, 22 But camest backe againe, and hast eaten bread, and drunke water, in the place concerning the which the Lord did say vnto thee, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke no water: thy carkeise shall not come vnto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

23 And when he had eaten bread, and drunke, he sadled him ỹ asse, to wit, to the prophet whom he had brought againe.

24 And when he was gone, [b]a lion met him by the way, and slew him: and his carkeise was cast in the way, & the asse stoode thereby, and the lion stood by the corse also.

b The minister of God not doing his duetie according to Gods word, is in most danger of punishment.

25 And men that passed by, sawe the carkeise cast in the way, and the lion standing by the carkeise: & they came and told it in ỹ towne where the old prophet dwelt.

26 And when the prophet that brought him backe againe from the way, heard thereof, hee said, It is the man of God, hee was disobedient vnto the word of the Lord, & therefore the Lord hath deliuered him vnto the Lion, which hath rent him, and slayne him, according to the worde of the Lorde which he spake vnto him.

27 And he spake to his sonnes, saying, Saddle me an asse. And they sadled him.

28 And he went, and found his body cast in the way, and the asse and the lion stood by ỹ corse, and the lion had not eaten the carkeise, nor hurt the asse.

29 And the prophet tooke vp the body of the man of God, & laid it vpon the asse, & brought it againe: and the old prophet came to the citie, to lament, and to burie him.

30 And hee layed his body in his owne graue, and then lamented ouer him, [saying,] Alas my my brother.

31 And when hee had buried him, hee ſpake to his ſonnes, ſaying, When I am dead, ſee that ye burie me in the ſepulchre wherein the man of God is buried: lay my bones beſide his bones.

32 For the ſaying which hee cried at the word of the Lord againſt the altar in Bethel, and againſt all the houſes of high places which are in the cities of Samaria, ſhal come to paſſe.

33 Howbeit, for all that, Ieroboam conuerted not from his wicked way: but turned backe, and made of the loweſt of the people prieſts of the high places: * & who ſo pleaſed him, he ‖ filled his hand, and he became prieſt of the high places.

Chap. 12. 31.

‖ Or, conſecrated him.

34 And this thing turned to ſinne vnto the houſe of Ieroboam, euen to deſtroy him, and to bring him to nought from off the face of the earth.

The xiiii. Chapter.

Ieroboam ſendeth his wife diſguiſed to Ahia the prophet, who declareth vnto him the deſtruction of his houſe.

1 AT that time Abia the ſonne of Ieroboam fell ſicke.

2 And Ieraboam ſayd to his wife, Vp, I pray thee, and diſguiſe thy ſelfe, that thou be not knowen to be the wife of Ieroboam: and get thee to Silo, for there is Ahia the prophet, * which told me that I ſhould be king ouer this people.

3. Kin. 11. 31.

3 And take with thee ten loaues, & cracknels, and a cruſe of hony, & goe to him, that he may tell thee what ſhall become of the child.

4 And Ieroboams wife did ſo, and aroſe, and went to Silo, and came to the houſe of Ahia: but Ahia could not ſee, for his eyes were waxen dimme for age.

5 And the Lord ſaid vnto Ahia, Beholde, the wife of Ieroboam commeth to aſke a thing of thee for her ſonne, for he is ſicke: but thus and thus ſhalt thou ſay vnto her. And when ſhe came in, ſhe fained her ſelfe to be another woman.

6 But when Ahia heard the ſound of her feete, as ſhe came in at the doore, he ſaid, Come in thou wife of Ieroboam, why faineſt thou thy ſelfe to bee another? I am ſent to thee [to ſhew thee] heauie things.

7 Goe tell Ieroboam, Thus ſaith the Lorde God of Iſrael, Foraſmuch as I exalted thee from among the people, and made thee prince ouer my people Iſrael,

8 And haue rent the kingdome away from the houſe of Dauid, and gaue it thee: neuertheleſſe, thou haſt not bene as my ſeruaunt Dauid, which kept my commandements, and followed me with all his heart, to doe that onely which was right in mine eyes:

9 But haſt done euill aboue all that were before thee: for thou haſt gone and made thee other gods, and molten images, to prouoke me, and haſt caſt me behind thy backe:

10 * Therefore behold, I will bring euill vpon the houſe of Ieroboam, & will roote out from Ieroboam, euen him that pisſeth againſt the wall, and him that is in priſon and forſaken in Iſrael, and will take away the remnant of the houſe of Ieroboam, as a man taketh away dung, till he hath caried out all.

3. Reg. 15. 29.

11 Whoſoeuer of Ieroboams houſe die in the towne, him ſhall the dogs eate: and hee that dieth in the field, ſhall the foules of the aire eate: for the Lord hath ſaid it.

12 Vp therefore, and get thee to thine owne houſe: [Behold,] when thy foote entreth into the citie, the child ſhall die, 13 And all they of Iſrael ſhall mourne for him, and bury him: for he onely of Ieroboam ſhal come to the ſepulchre, becauſe in him there is found goodneſſe toward the Lord God of Iſrael, in the houſe of Ieroboam.

14 Moreouer, the Lorde ſhall ſtirre him vp a king ouer Iſrael, which ſhall deſtroy the houſe of Ieroboam in that day: but what is it now?

15 For the Lorde ſhall ſmite Iſrael, like as a reede is ſhaken in the water, & he ſhall weede Iſrael out of this good land which he gaue to their fathers, and ſhall ſcatter them beyond ‖ the riuer, becauſe they haue made them groues, and angred the Lord.

‖ Or, Euphrates.

16 And he ſhall giue Iſrael vp, becauſe of the ſinnes of Ieroboam, which did ſinne, & made Iſrael to ſinne.

17 And Ieroboams wife aroſe, and departed, and came to Thirzah: and when ſhe came to the threſholde of the doore, the childe was dead.

18 And all Iſrael buried him, & lamented him, according to the word of the Lord, which he ſpake by the hand of his ſeruaunt Ahia the prophet.

19 And the reſt of the words that concerne Ieroboam, how he warred, and how he reigned, beholde, they are written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iſrael.

21 * Roboam the ſonne of Solomon reigned in Iuda: and Roboam was fourtie and one yeeres olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned ſeuenteene yeeres in Hieruſalem the citie which the Lord did chooſe out of all the tribes of Iſrael, to put his name there: his mothers name was Naama, an Ammonite.

2. Chro. 12. 13.

22 And Iuda wrought wickednes in the ſight of the Lorde, and angred him in moe things

24 And there was a stewes of male children in the land, and they did according ý all ý abominations of the nations which the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

25 And in the fifth yeere of king Roboam, Sisac king of Egypt, came vp against Hierusalem:

11 And Asa did right in the eyes of the Lord, as did Dauid his father.

12 And he tooke away the male stewes out of the land, and put away all the abominable idols that his father had made.

13 [d] And hee put downe Maacha his mother from bearing rule, because she had made an idol in a groue, and Asa destroyed her idol, and burnt it by the brooke Cedron.

d Idolaters are to be punished without respect of person.

14 But the high places were not put [e] downe: neuertheless, Asa his heart was perfect with the Lord all his dayes.

e He suffered that deed only of ignorance.

15 He brought in the holy vessels of his father, and that he had dedicate vnto the house of the Lord, gold, and siluer, and iewels.

16 And there was warre betweene Asa & Baasa king of Israel all their dayes.

17 And Baasa king of Israel went vp against Juda, and built Rama, so that hee would let none goe out or in to Asa king of Juda.

18 Then Asa tooke all the siluer and gold that was left in the treasures of the house of the Lorde, and the treasures of the kings house, and deliuered them vnto the hands of his seruantes, and king Asa sent them to Benhadad the sonne of Tabrimon, the sonne of Hezion king of Syria, that dwelt at Damascus, saying,

19 There is a bond betweene me and thee, betweene my father and thy father: and behold, I haue sent vnto thee a present of siluer and gold, that thou come and breake the bond that thou hast with Baasa king of Israel, that he may depart from me.

20 So Benhadad hearkened vnto king Asa, & sent the captaines of the hostes, which he had, against the cities of Israel, and smote Hion, and Dan, and Abel, Bethmaacah, and all [the region of] Cineroth, with all the land of Nephthali.

21 And when Baasa heard thereof, hee left building of Rama, and dwelt in Thirza.

22 Then king Asa ‖ made a proclamation throwout all Juda, that none should be excused: and so they tooke the stones of Rama, and the timber wherewith Baasa had builded, and king Asa built with them the hill of Beniamin and Mispah.

24 And Asa ſlept with his fathers, and was buried beſide his fathers, in the citie of Dauid his father: and Iosaphat his ſonne reigned in his ſtead.

25 And Nadab the ſonne of Ieroboam began to raigne vpon Iſrael, the ſecond yeere of Asa king of Juda, and reigned vpon Iſrael two yeeres.

26 And he did euil in the ſight of the Lord, walking in the way of his father, and in his ſinne wherewith he made Iſrael to ſinne.

29 And when hee was king, hee ſmote all the houſe of Ieroboam, and he left him nought that breathed, vntill hee had put him cleane out, *according vnto the ſaying of the Lord, which he ſpake by his ſeruant Ahia the Silonite:

‡Hebr. burnt the kings house ouer him.

19 For his sinnes which hee sinned, in doing that which is euill in the sight of the Lord, & in walking in the way of Ieroboam, and in his sinnes which he did, and in that hee made Israel to sinne.

20 The rest of the wordes that concerne Zimri, and the treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel deuided into two partes: for halfe the people followed Thibni the sonne of Ginath, making him king: and the other halfe followed Amri.

22 But the people that followed Amri, preuailed against the people that followed Thibni the sonne of Ginath: and so Thibni died, and Amri raigned.

23 In the thirtie and one yeere of Asa king of Juda, began Amri to raigne ouer Israel twelue yeeres: Sixe yeeres raigned hee in Thirza.

‖Or, Schomron. 24 He bought the hill of ‖Samaria of one Semar, for two talents of siluer, and built in the hill, and called the name of the citie which he built, after the name of Semar, which had bene owner of the hill of Samaria.

25 But Amri wrought that which is euill in the sight of the Lord, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, and in his sinnes wherewith he made Israel sinne, to anger the Lord God of Israel with their vanities.

27 The rest of the wordes that concerne Amri, and all that he did, and his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

28 And so Amri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, & Achab his sonne reigned in his stead.

29 In the thirtie and eight yeere of Asa king of Juda, began Achab the sonne of Amri to reigne ouer Israel, and the same Achab the sonne of Amri reigned ouer Israel in Samaria twentie and two yeeres.

30 And Achab the sonne of Amri did euill in the sight of the Lord, aboue all that were before him.

c Some read it interrogatiuely.

31 For [c] it seemed vnto him but a light thing, to walke in the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat: He tooke Iezabel also the daughter of Ethbaal king of ꝑ Sidonites to wife, and went and serued Baal, and worshipped him.

32 And hee reared vp an altar for Baal, in the temple of Baal, which he had builded in Samaria:

33 And Achab made a groue, & proceeded further in angring the Lord God of Israel, then all the kings of Israel that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiel of Bethel build Iericho: he laid the foundation thereof in Abiram his eldest sonne, and set vp the gates thereof in his yongest sonne Segub, * according to the word of the Lord, which he spake by Iosuah the sonne of Nun. Iosu.6.26.

The xvii. Chapter.

1 Elias forewarneth of the famine to come. 4 He is fed of Rauens.

1 AND * Elias the Thesbite, which was of the inhabiters of Gilead, said vnto Achab, As the Lord God of Israel liueth, before whom I stand, there shall bee neither dewe nor raine these yeeres, but according to my word. Iam.5.16. eccl.48.3.

2 And the word of the Lorde came vnto him, saying,

3 Get thee hence, and turne thee Eastward, and hide thy selfe in the brooke Cherith, that is before Iordane.

4 Thou shalt drinke of the riuer, and I haue commanded the Rauens to feed thee there.

5 And so he went, and did according vnto the worde of the Lorde: for he went and dwelt by the brooke Cherith, that is before Iordane.

6 [a] And the Rauens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and likewyse bread and flesh in the euening: and he dranke of the brooke. a God doeth marueilously prouide for his in all their extremities.

7 And after a while the brooke dried vp, because there fell no raine vpon the earth.

8 And the word of the Lorde came vnto him, saying,

9 * Up, and get thee to ‖Sareptha, which is in Sidon, and dwell there: beholde, I haue commanded a widow there to sustaine thee. Luke 4.25. ‖Or, Zarphath.

10 So he arose, and went to Sareptha: and when he came to the gate of the citie, behold, the widowe was there gathering of sticks: and he called to her, and said, Fetch mee, I pray thee, a litle water in a vessell, that I may drinke.

11 And as she was going to fetch it, hee cried after her, and said, Bring me, I pray thee, a morsell of bread also in thine hand.

12 She said, As the Lorde thy God liueth, I haue no bread readie, but euen an handfull of meale in a barrel, and a litle oyle in a cruse: & behold, I am gathering two sticks for to goe in, and dresse it for me and my sonne, that we may eate it, and die.

13 And Elias said vnto her, Feare not, go, and doe as thou hast said: but make me thereof a litle cake first of all, and bring it vnto me, and afterward make for thee and thy sonne.

14 For

14 For thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, The meale in the barrell shall not be wasted, neither shall the oyle in the cruse bee diminished, vntill the Lorde haue sent rayne vpon the earth.

15 And she went, and did as Elias said: and she, and hee, and her house, did eate a good space.

16 And the meale wasted not out of the barrell, neither was the oyle spent out of the cruse, according to the worde of the Lord which he spake by the hand of Elias.

17 And after these thinges, the sonne of the wife of the house fell sicke, and his sickenesse was so sore, that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said vnto Elias, What haue I to doe with thee, O thou man of God? Art thou come vnto me to call my sinne againe to remembrance, and to slay my sonne?

19 He said vnto her, Giue me thy sonne. And he tooke him out of her lap, and caried him vp into a loft where he abode, and laied him vpon his owne bed:

20 And called vnto the Lord, and said, O Lord my God, hast thou punished also this widowe with whom I dwell as a stranger, and hast slaine her sonne?

21 And he ‖ stretched himselfe vpon the childe three times, and called vnto the Lord, & sayd, O Lord my God, I pray thee, let this childes soule come ‡ into him againe.

22 And the Lord heard the voyce of Elias, and the soule of the childe came into him agayne, and he reuiued.

23 And Elias tooke the boy, and brought him downe out of the chamber, into the house, and deliuered him vnto his mother: and Elias said, Behold, thy sonne liueth.

24 And the woman said vnto Elias, Nowe I know that thou art a man of God, & that the word of the Lord in thy mouth is true.

The xviii. Chapter.

1 Elias is sent to Achab. 13 Obadia hideth an hundred prophets. 40 Elias killeth all Baals prophets.

1 AFter processe of many dayes, the word of the Lord came to Elias in the third yeere, saying, Goe shew thy selfe vnto Achab, and I will send raine vpon the earth.

2 And Elias went to shewe himselfe vnto Achab, and there was a great famine in Samaria.

3 And Achab called Obadia, which was the gouernour of his house: (and Obadia feared God greatly.

4 For when Iezabel destroyed the prophets of the Lorde, Obadia tooke an hundred prophets, and hid them by fiftie in a caue, & nouried bread and water for them.)

5 And Achab sayd vnto Obadia, Goe into the land, vnto all fountaines of water, and vnto all brookes, if so that we may finde grasse to saue the horses and mules aliue, that all the beasts perish not.

6 And so they diuided the land betweene them, to walke throughout it: Achab went one way by himselfe, and Obadia went another way by himselfe.

7 And as Obadia was in the way, behold, Elias met him: and he knew him, and fell on his face, and sayd, Art not thou my lord Elias?

8 And he answered him, I am he: goe and tell thy lord, Behold, Elias is here.

9 He sayd, What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest deliuer thy seruant into the hand of Achab, to slay me?

10 As the Lord thy God liueth, there is no nation or kingdome, whither my lord hath not sent to seeke thee: and when they said, He is not there, hee tooke an othe of the kingdome and nation, when he found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Goe and tell thy lord, that Elias is here.

12 And as soone as I am gone from thee, the spirite of the Lorde shall cary thee into some place that I do not know, & so when I come and tell Achab, and he cannot finde thee, hee shal slay me: but I thy seruant feare the Lord from my youth vp.

13 Was it not tolde my lord what I did when Iezabel slew the prophets of the Lord? how I hid an hundred mē of the Lordes prophets, fiftie men in one caue, and fiftie in another, & prouided them of bread and water?

14 And thou sayest, Goe thou now and shew thy lord, Behold, Elias is here: that he may slay me.

15 And Elias said, As the Lorde of hostes liueth, before whom I stand, I will shewe my selfe vnto him this day.

16 So Obadia went to meete Achab, and told him: and Achab went to meete Elias.

17 And when Achab saw Elias, he sayd vnto him, Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18 He answered, It is not I that haue troubled Israel, but [a] thou and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the commandements of the Lorde, and thou hast followed Baal.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to mee all Israel vnto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal, foure hundred and fiftie, and the prophets of the groues, foure hundred, which eate at Iezabels table.

20 So Achab sent vnto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel.

21 And Elias came vnto all the people, and said,

[a] The ministers of Gods word ought to be faithful and bold to reproue the wicked without respect of persons.

saide, Howe long [b] halt ye betweene two opinions? If the Lorde bee God, followe him: but if Baal be he, then goe after him. And the people answered him not one word.

b Religion is not an indifferent thing, but wholy to be imbraced, and constantly professed.

22 Then said Elias vnto the people [againe,] I onely remaine a prophet of ỹ Lord: but Baals [c] prophets are foure hundred and fiftie.

c Baal hath more prophets then God.

23 Let them therefore giue vs two Oxen, and let thē choose the one, and cut him in pieces, and lay him on wood, and put no fire vnder: & I will dresse the other Oxe, and lay him on wood, and will put no fire vnder.

24 And cal ye on the name of your gods, and I will cal on the name of the Lord: and then the God that answereth by fire, let him bee God. And all the people answered, and sayde, It is well spoken.

25 And Elias sayde vnto the prophets of Baal, Choose you an Oxe, and dresse him first, for yee are many: and call on the name of your goddes, but put no fire vnder.

26 And they tooke the one Oxe that hee did giue thē, and they dressed it, and called on the name of Baal from morning till noone, saying, O Baal heare vs. But there was no voyce, nor one to answere: and they leapt vpon the altar that they had made.

27 And at noone, Elias mocked them, and said, Crye loude, for he is a god, peraduenture hee is talking, or occupied in following vpon his enemies, or in his iourney, or it may be he sleepeth, and must bee awaked [with your crye.]

28 And they cryed loude, and cut them selues, as their maner was, with kniues, and launcers, till the blood followed on them.

29 And when midday was passed, they prophecied vntill the time of the euening sacrifice, but there was neither voyce, nor one to answere, nor any that regarded them.

30 And Elias sayde vnto all the folke, Come to mee. And all the people came to him: and hee repayred the altar of the Lorde that was broken.

31 And Elias tooke twelue stones, according to ỹ number of the twelue tribes of ỹ sonnes of Jacob, vnto whome the worde of the Lorde came, saying, * Israel shalbe thy name.

Gene. 32.28. 4.reg. 17.34.

32 And with the stones hee made an altar in the name of the Lorde: and he made a ditch about the altar, as great as would cōteine two measures of seede.

33 And hee put the wood in order, and hewed the oxe in pieces, and layde him on the wood, and sayde, Fill foure barrels with water, and powre it on the whole burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And hee sayde, Doe so againe. And they did so the seconde time. And he sayde agains, Do it the thirde time. And they did it the thirde time, 35 And the water ranne round about the altar, and he filled the pit with water also.

36 And when they should offer the euening sacrifice, Elias the Prophet came, and sayde, Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and of Israel, it shall bee knowen this day that thou art the God in Israel, and [that] I [am] thy seruant, and that I haue done all these things at thy commandement.

37 Heare me, O Lorde, heare me, that this people may knowe that thou art the Lorde God, and [that] thou hast turned their heart againe nowe at the last.

38 And the fire of the Lorde fell, and consumed the whole burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the dust, and licked vp the water that was in the pit.

39 And when all the people sawe it, they fel on their faces, and sayde, The Lorde hee is God, the Lord he is God.

40 And Elias sayde vnto them, Take the prophetes of Baal, and let not one of them escape. And they tooke them, and Elias brought them vnto the brooke Kison, [d] and slue them there.

d Elias slewe Baals prophets.

41 And Elias sayde vnto Achab, Get thee vp, eate, and drinke, for there is a sounde of much rayne.

42 And so Achab went vp to eate and to drinke: and Elias went vp to the top of Carmel, and he layde him selfe flat vpon the earth, and put his face betweene his knees, 43 And sayde to his seruant, Goe vp, [I pray thee,] and looke towarde the way of the sea. And he went vp, and looked, and sayd, There is nothing. And againe hee sayde, Goe againe seuen times.

44 And at the seuenth time, he sayde, Beholde, there ariseth a litle cloude out of the sea, like a mans hande. He sayde, Goe and say vnto Achab, Prepare [thy charet] & get thee downe, that the rayne stop thee not.

45 And in the meane while the heauen was blacke with clouds and winde, and there was a great rayne: and Achab gate vp, and came to Jezrahel.

46 And the hand of the Lord was on Elias, and he girded vp his loynes, and ranne before Achab, till he came to Jezrahel.

The xix. Chapter.

1 Elias fleeing from Iezabel, is nourished by the angel of God. 15 Hee is commanded to anoynt Hazael, Iehu, and Elizeus.

1 AND Achab told Jezabel all that Elias had done, and howe he had slaine al the prophets with the sworde.

2 Then Jezabel sent a messenger vnto Elias, saying, So and so let the gooddes do to me, if I make not thy soule like vnto the soule of one of them, by to morowe this time.

3 When he sawe that, hee arose, and went for his life, and came to Beerseba in Juda, & left his seruant there.

4 But he him selfe went a dayes iourney into the wildernesse, and came and sate downe vnder a Iuniper tree, & hee desired for his soule that he might die, and said, It is now inough, O Lorde, take my soule: for I am not better then my fathers.

5 And as hee lay and slept vnder the Iuniper tree, beholde, an angel touched him, and sayde vnto him, Vp, and eate.

6 And when hee looked about him, beholde, there was a cake baken on the coales, and a vessell of water at his head: and hee did eate and drinke, and layde him downe againe to sleepe.

7 And the angel of the Lorde came againe the second time, and touched him, and sayde, Vp, and eate, for thou hast yet a great iourney.

8 And hee arose, and did eate and drinke, and walked in the strength of that meate, fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, euen vnto Horeb, the mount of God.

9 Whē he came thither vnto a caue, he lodged therein all night, and beholde, the word of the Lord came to him, and sayde vnto him, What doest thou here, Elias?

Rom.11.3. 10 And hee answered, *I haue bene ielous for the Lorde God of hostes sake: for the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, broken downe thine altars, and slayne thy prophetes with the sword: and I onely am left, and they seeke my life, to take it away.

11 And he saide, Come out, and stand vpon the mount before the Lord. And behold, the Lord went by, and a mighty strong winde that rent the mountaines, and brake the rockes before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the winde: and after the winde came an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake:

12 And after the earthquake, came fire, but the Lorde was not in the fire: and after the fire, came a small still voyce.

13 And when Elias heard, hee couered his face with his mantle, and went out, and stoode in the entring in of ỹ caue: & behold, there came a voyce vnto him, and saide, What doest thou here, Elias?

14 And he answered, I haue bene ielous for the Lord God of hostes sake, because the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenant, cast downe thine altars, and slayne thy Prophets with the sworde, and I onely am left, and they seeke my life, to take it away.

15 And the Lorde sayde vnto him, Goe, & turne thy way to the wildernesse, vnto Damascus: and when thou commest there, anoynt Hazael king ouer Syria:

16 And Iehu sonne of Nimsi shalt thou anoynt king ouer Israel: and Elizeus the sonne of Saphat of Abel Meholah, shalt thou anoynt to be Prophet in thy roome.

17 *And who so escapeth the sworde of Hazael, him shall Iehu slaye: and if any man scape the sworde of Iehu, him shall Elizeus put to death. 4.Reg.9.1.eccle.48.8.

18 *And I haue left me seuen thousande in Israel, of which neuer man [a] bowed his knees vnto Baal, nor kissed him with his mouth. Rom.11.4. [a] Wicked idolaters are not of God.

19 So hee departed thence, and found Elizeus the sonne of Saphat plowing, and hauing twelue yoke of Oxen before him, & he with the twelue: and Elias went by him, and cast his mantle vpon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ranne after Elias, and sayd, Let me, I pray thee, kisse my father and my mother, and then I will followe thee. He said vnto him, Goe backe againe, for what is it that I haue done to thee?

21 And when he went backe againe from him, he tooke a couple of oxen, & slue thē, & dressed the flesh, with the instrumentes of the oxen, & gaue vnto the people, and they did eate: & then he arose, and went after Elias, and ministred vnto him.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Samaria is besieged. 13 The Lord promiseth the victory to Achab by a Prophet.

1 AND Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his hoste together, hauing thirtie and two kings with him, & horses, and charets, and went vp, and besieged Samaria, and warred against it.

2 And hee sent messengers to Achab king of Israel, into the citie, and said vnto him, Thus sayth Benhadad,

3 Thy siluer and thy golde is mine, and the fayrest of thy wiues, and of thy children bee mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered, and sayde, My lord king, according to thy saying, I am thine, and all that I haue.

5 And whē the messengers came againe, they sayde, Thus sayth Benhadad, For as much as I haue sent vnto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliuer mee thy siluer, and thy golde, and thy wiues, and thy children:

6 I will therefore send my seruants vnto thee to morowe this time, and they shall searche thine house, and the houses of thy seruantes, and what so euer is pleasant in thine eyes, they shall take it in their handes, and bring it away.

7 Then the king of Israel sent for all the elders of the land, and sayd, Take heede, I pray you, and see howe this fellowe goeth about mischiefe: for hee sent vnto me for my wiues, for my children, for my siluer, and for my gold, and I denied him not.

8 And all the elders, and all the people sayde, Hearken not vnto him, nor consent.

9 Wherefore hee sayde vnto the messengers of of Benhadad, Tell my lord the king, All that thou diddest send for to thy seruant at the first time, that I will doe: but this thing I may not doe. And the messengers departed, and brought answere againe.

10 And Benhadad sent vnto him againe, and saide, Thus and thus doe the gods vnto me, if the dust of Samaria be ynough for all ỹ people that followe mee, to take euery man an handfull.

11 And the king of Israel answered, and sayde, Tell him, Let not him that putteth on his harnesse, boast him selfe, as hee that putteth it off.

12 And when Benhadad heard that tidinges (as hee was with the kings drinking within the pauilions) he sayd vnto his seruants, Put your selues in order. And they set themselues in aray against the citie.

13 And beholde, there came a Prophet vnto Achab king of Israel, saying, Thus sayeth the Lorde, Hast thou seene all this great multitude? behold, I will deliuer it into thine hand this day, and thou shalt knowe that I am the Lord.

14 And Achab said, By whom? He sayd, Thus sayth the Lorde, Euen by the seruantes of the gouernours of the shyres. Hee sayde againe, Who shall order the battell? And he answered, Thou.

15 Then hee numbred the seruantes of the gouernours of the shyres, & they were two hundred and thirtie and two: and after them also hee numbred all the people of the children of Israel, [euen] seuen thousand.

16 And they went out at noone: But Benhadad did drinke till hee was drunken in the pauilions, both hee and the kings, euen thirtie and two kings that holpe him.

17 And the seruantes of the gouernours of the shyres went out first, and Benhadad sent out, and they shewed him, saying, There are men come out of Samaria.

18 Hee sayde, Whether they bee come out for peace, take thē aliue: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet aliue.

19 And so those yong men of the gouernours of the shires, came out of the citie, and the host after them:

20 And they slewe euery one his enemie [that came in his way:] and the Syrians fled, and they of Israel followed after them: and Benhadad the king of Syria scaped on a horse, with his horsemen.

21 And the king of Israel went out, and smote the horses and charets, & with a great slaughter, slewe he the Syrians.

22 (And there came a Prophet to the king of Israel, and sayde vnto him, Goe forth, and play the man, bee wise and take heede what thou doest: for when ỹ yeere is gone about, the king of Syria will come vp against thee.)

23 And the seruants of the king of Syria sayde vnto him, The gods of the hilles are their gods, and therefore they had the better of vs: but let vs fight against them in the playne, and [for what ye will] wee shall haue the better of them.

24 And this doe, Take the kings away, euery man out of his place, and put dukes in their roomes:

25 And number thee an host, like the host that thou hast lost, such horses, and such charets, and we will fight against them in the playne, and thou shalt see vs get the better of them. And he hearkened vnto their voyce, and did euen so.

26 And after the yere was gone about, Benhadad numbred the Syrians, and went vp to Aphec, to fight against Israel.

27 And the children of Israel were numbred, and with their whole number went they against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them, like two litle flockes of kids: but the Syrians filled the countrey.

28 And there came a man of God, and sayd vnto the king of Israel, Thus sayeth the Lorde, Because the Syrians haue sayde, The Lorde is but God of ỹ hils, & not God of ỹ valleyes: therefore will I deliuer all this great multitude into thine hande, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lord.

29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes, and in the seuenth day the battell was ioyned: and the children of Israel slewe of the Syrians an hundred thousand footemen in one day.

30 But the rest fled to Aphec, into the citie, and there fell a wall vpon twentie and seuen thousande of the men that were left: and Benhadad fled, and came into the citie, from chamber to chamber.

31 And his seruantes sayde vnto him, Beholde, wee haue heard say that the kinges of the house of Israel are mercifull kinges: wee wil therefore put sackcloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heads, and goe out to the king of Israel, it may be, he will saue thy life.

32 And so they girded sackcloth about their loynes, and put ropes about their heades, and came to the king of Israel, and sayde, Thy seruant Benhadad sayth, I pray thee, let me liue. He said, Is he yet aliue? he is my brother.

33 And ỹ men tooke that word for good lucke, and hastily caught it out of his mouth, and sayd, Yea, thy brother Benhadad. He sayde, Goe, bring him hither. And Benhadad came out vnto him, and hee caused him to come vp into the charet.

a Yet is aliue.

34 And hee sayde vnto him, The cities which my father tooke from thy father, I will restore againe, and thou shalt make streetes for thee in Damascus, as my father did in Samaria: & I will make an appoyntment with thee, and sende thee away. And so he made an appoyntment with him, and sent him away.

35 And there was a certaine man of the childrē of ỳ Prophets, which said vnto his neighbour in the worde of the Lorde, Smite me, I pray thee. And the man would not smite him.

36 Then sayde he vnto him, Because thou hast not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lord, beholde, as soone as thou art departed from me, a Lion shall slaye thee. And as soone as hee was departed from him, a Lion founde him, and slue him.

37 Then hee founde another man, and sayde, Smite mee, I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smiting he wounded him.

38 So the Prophet went forth, and waited for the king by the way, and put him selfe out of knowledge, with ashes which hee layde vpon his face.

39 And when the king came by, hee cryed vnto the king, and sayde, Thy seruant went out in the middes of the battell, & behold, there went away a man, whom another man brought vnto me, and sayde, Keepe this man: and if he be missed, or lost, thy life shall goe for his, or else thou shalt pay a talent of siluer.

40 And as thy seruant had here and there to doe, he was gone. And the king of Israel said vnto him, Euen so shall thy iudgement be, as thou hast giuen sentence.

41 And he hasted, and tooke the ashes away frō his face, and the king of Israel knew him that he was of the Prophets:

42 And hee sayde vnto him, * Thus sayeth the Lorde, Because thou hast let goe out of thy hande a man whome I appoynted to dye, thy life shall go for his life, and thy people for his people.

43 And the king of Israel went to his house, heauie, and in displeasure, and came to Samaria.

1. King. 20. 36.

The xxi. Chapter.

Iezabel commandeth to kill Naboth for the vineyard that hee refused to sell to Achab. 19 Elias reproueth Achab, and he repenteth.

1 AFter these things, Naboth the Iezrahelite had a vineyard in Iezrahel, hard by the palace of Achab, king of Samaria.

2 And Achab spake vnto Naboth, saying, Giue mee thy vineyarde, that I may make me a garden of herbes thereof, because it lyeth so nigh my house, and I will giue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: or rather, if it please thee, I will giue thee the worth of it in money.

3 And Naboth sayd to Achab, The Lorde forbid that from me, that I should giue the inheritance of my fathers vnto thee.

4 And Achab came into the house, heauie, and euill apayde, because of the worde which Naboth the Iezrahelite had spoken to him: for he had sayde, I will not giue thee the inheritance of my fathers: and hee layde him downe vpon his bed, and turned away his face, and would eate no bread.

5 But Iezabel his wife came to him, and said vnto him, Why is thy spirit so sad, that thou eatest no bread?

6 And he said vnto her, For I spake vnto Naboth the Iezrahelite, and sayde vnto him, Giue mee thy vineyarde for money, or else if it please thee, I will giue thee [another] vineyard for it: And he answered, I will not giue thee my vineyard.

7 And Iezabel his wife said vnto him, [a] Doest thou nowe gouerne the kingdome of Israel? vp, and eate bread, and set thine heart at rest: I will giue thee the vineyarde of Naboth the Iezrahelite.

a As though she saide, thou knowest not what it is to raigne, command, and entreate not.

8 And so she wrote a letter in Achabs name, & sealed it with his seale, and sent the letter vnto the elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.

9 And shee wrote in the letter, saying, Proclaime a [b] fast, and set Naboth on high among the people:

b For thē they vsed to enquire of mens faults, for none could fast truely, that were notorious sinners.

10 And set two vnthriftes before him, to beare witnesse against him, saying, Thou diddest blaspheme God and the king: and then carie him out, and stone him to death.

11 And [c] the men of his citie, euen the elders and gouernours which dwelt in his citie, did as Iezabel had set vnto thē, & as it was written in the letter which shee had sent vnto thē.

c Worldlings rather obey the wicked commandement of princes, then the iust lawes of God, Act. 7.

12 They proclaymed a fast, and set Naboth among the chiefe of the people.

13 And there came in two men, the children of Belial, and sate before him: and the [two] vnthriftie persons witnessed against Naboth, in the presence of the people, saying, Naboth did blaspheme God and the king. And they caried him out of ỳ citie, and stoned him with stones, that he dyed.

14 And then they sent to Iezabel, saying, Naboth is stoned to death.

15 And when Iezabel heard that Naboth was stoned to death, she saide to Achab, Up, & take possession of the vineyard of Naboth the Iezrahelite, which he denied to giue thee for money: for Naboth is not aliue, but dead.

16 And when Achab heard that Naboth was dead, he stood vp, to go downe to the vineyard of Naboth the Iezrahelite, to take possession of it.

17 And the word of the Lord came to Elias the Thesbite, saying,

18 Up, and goe downe to meete Achab king of of Iſrael, which is in Samaria: beholde, he is in the vineyarde of Naboth, whither hee is gone to poſſeſſe it.

19 And therfore ſhalt thou ſay vnto him, Thus ſayth the Lord, Haſt thou killed, and alſo gotten poſſeſſion? And thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto him, ſaying, Thus ſaith ỹ Lord, In the place where dogges licked the blood of Naboth, ſhall dogges licke euen thy blood alſo.

20 And Achab ſayde to Elias, Haſt thou founde me, O thou mine enemie? He anſwered, I haue founde thee: for thou haſt ſolde thy ſelfe to worke wickedneſſe in the ſight of the Lord.

4.King.9.8. 21 Behold, * I will bring euill vpon thee, and will make cleane riddance of thy poſteritie, and wil deſtroy from Achab, [euen] him that maketh water againſt the wall, and him that is ſhut vp, and left behind in Iſrael,

3.King.15.29. 22 And will make thine * houſe like the houſe of Ieroboam the ſonne of Nabat, and like the houſe of Baaſa the ſonne of Ahia, for the prouocation wherewith thou haſt prouoked, and made Iſrael to ſinne.

23 And of Iezabel ſpake the Lorde, ſaying,

4.King.9.53. * The dogges ſhall eate Iezabel by the wall of Iezrahel, 24 And hee that dieth of Achab in the towne, him ſhal dogges eate: and he that dieth in the field, him ſhall the foules of the ayre eate.

25 But there was none like Achab, which vpd ſell himſelfe to worke wickedneſſe in ỹ ſight of the Lord, and that becauſe Iezabel his wife pricked him forwarde.

26 Hee did exceeding abominably in following foule idoles, according to all things as did the Amorites, whom the Lord caſt out before the children of Iſrael.

27 And when Achab hearde thoſe wordes, hee rent his clothes, and put ſackecloth about his fleſh, and faſted, and laye in ſackcloth, & went ‖Or, ſoftly, in token of mourning. ‖ bare foote.

28 And the word of the Lord came to Elias the Theſbite, ſaying,

4.King.9.26. 29 * Seeſt thou how Achab humbleth himſelfe before me? becauſe he ſo ſubmitteth himſelfe before mee, I will not bring that euill in his dayes: but in his ſonnes dayes will I bring euill vpon his houſe.

The xxii. Chapter.

2 Ioſaphat and Achab fight againſt the king of Syria. 15 Michea ſheweth the king what ſhall be the ſucceſſe of their enterpriſe. 24 Sedechia the falſe prophete ſmiteth him. 34 Achab is ſlayne. 40 Ahazia his ſonne ſucceedeth. 41 The reigne of Ioſaphat, 51 and Ioram his ſonne.

2.Chro.18.2. 1 AND they * continued three yeres without warre betweene Syria & Iſrael.

2 And in the third yeere, did Ioſaphat the king of Juda come downe to the king of Iſrael.

3 (And the king of Iſrael ſayde vnto his ſeruants, Knowe ye not that Ramoth [in] Gilead is ours, and we ſit ſtill, and take it not out of the hand of the king of Syria?)

4 And he ſaid vnto Ioſaphat, Wilt thou come with me to battell againſt Ramoth [in] Gilead? And Ioſaphat ſayde vnto the king of Iſrael, I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horſes as thy horſes.

5 And Ioſaphat ſaid vnto the king of Iſrael, [a] Aſke counſell, I pray thee, at the worde of the Lord, to day.

[a] In all our enterpriſes we ought firſt to aſke counſell of God.

6 And then the king of Iſrael gathered the prophets together, vpon a foure hundred men, and ſayd vnto them, Shall I goe againſt Ramoth [in] Gilead to battell, or ſhall I let it alone? and they ſayd, Goe vp, for the Lord ſhal deliuer it into the hands of the king.

7 And Ioſaphat ſayde, Is there here neuer a Prophet of the Lord more, that we might enquire of him?

8 And the king of Iſrael ſaid vnto Ioſaphat, There is yet one man (Michea the ſonne of Jimla) by whom we may aſke counſel of the Lord, but I hate him, for he doeth not prophecie good vnto me, but euil. And Ioſaphat ſaid, Let not the king ſay ſo.

9 Then the king of Iſrael called a ‡ chamberlaine, and ſayde, Fetch Michea the ſonne of Jimla hither at once.

‡Heb. Eunuch.

10 And the king of Iſrael, and Ioſaphat the king of Juda, ſate either in his ſeate, and their apparell on them, in a voyde place beſide the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophets prophecied before them.

11 And Sedechia ỹ ſonne of Chanaana, made hornes of iron, and ſayde, Thus ſayth the Lorde, With theſe [hornes] ſhalt thou puſh the Syrians, vntill thou haue made an ende of them.

12 And all the Prophetes prophecied euen ſo, ſaying, Goe vp to Ramoth [in] Gilead, and proſper: for the Lorde ſhall deliuer it into the kings hand.

13 And the meſſenger that was gone to call Michea, ſpake vnto him, ſaying, Beholde, the wordes of the Prophets ſpeake good vnto the king with one mouth: Let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like the worde of euery one of them, to ſpeake that which is good.

14 And Michea ſayde, As the Lorde liueth, whatſoeuer the Lorde ſayth vnto me, [b] that will I ſpeake.

[b] The true Prophet will ſpeake no other then that he hath learned of God.

15 And ſo hee came to the king, and the king ſayde vnto him, Michea, ought wee to goe againſt Ramoth [in] Gilead to battell, or to be ſtill? He anſwered him, [c] Goe, and proſper: the Lord ſhall deliuer it into the hand of the king.

[c] He ſpeaketh this in derision

16 And the king ſaide vnto him, So and ſo many times doe I charge thee, that thou tell me nothing but that which is true, in the name of the Lord.

17 He said, I sawe all Israel scattred vpon the hils, as sheepe that haue not a shepheard. And the Lord sayde, These haue no master, let euery man returne to his house in peace.

18 And the king of Israel sayd vnto Iosaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would prophecie no good vnto me, but euill?

19 And hee sayde againe, Heare thou therefore the worde of the Lorde: I sawe the Lorde sit on his seate, and all the host of heauen stoode about him, on his right hande, and on his left.

‖Or, deceiue. 20 And the Lord sayd, Who shal ‖ perswade Achab, that he may go, and fal at Ramoth [in] Gilead? And one sayde on this maner, and another on that.

21 And there came forth a certaine spirite, and stoode before the Lorde, and sayde, I will perswade him.

22 And the Lord sayde vnto him, Wherewith? And he saide, I wil goe out, and be a false spirit in the mouth of all his prophets. He sayde, Thou shalt perswade him, and preuaile: Goe forth then, and do euen so.

23 Nowe therefore beholde, the Lord hath put a lying spirit in the mouth of al these thy prophets, and the Lord hath spoken euill toward thee.

24 But Sedechia ẏ sonne of Chanaana went to, and smote Michea on the cheeke, and saide, When went the spirit of the Lord from mee, to speake vnto thee?

25 And Michea sayd, Beholde, thou shalt see in that day, when thou shalt goe from chamber to chamber to hide thee.

26 And the king of Israel said, Take Michea, and cary him vnto Amon ẏ gouernour of the citie, and to Ioas the kings sonne, 27 And say, Thus sayth the king, Put this fellowe in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, and with water of trouble, vntill I returne in peace.

28 And Michea sayd, If thou returne in peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he said, Hearken ye people, euery one of you.

29 And so the king of Israel, and Iosaphat the king of Iuda, went vp to Ramoth [in] Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel sayd vnto Iosaphat, I will change my apparell, and will enter into the battell, but put thou on thine apparell. And the king of Israel changed himselfe, and went to battell.

31 But the king of Syria commaunded the thirtie and two captaines that had rule ouer his charets, saying, Fight neyther with small nor great, saue onely against the king of Israel.

32 And when the captaines of the charets sawe Iosaphat, they sayde, Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned to fight against him: And Iosaphat cryed.

33 And when the captaines of the charets sawe that hee was not the king of Israel, they turned backe from him.

34 And a certaine man drewe a bowe ignorantly, and smote the king of Israel betweene the ribbes and his harnesse: Wherefore he saide vnto the driuer of his charets, Turne thine hande, and cary mee out of the hoste, for I am ‡hurt. ‡Heb. Sicke.

35 And the battell encreased that day: and the king stood still in his charet against the Syrians, and died at Euen: And ẏ blood ranne out of the wound, into the middes of the charet.

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the host, about the going downe of the sunne, saying, Euery man to his citie, and to his owne countrey.

37 So the king dyed, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the charet in the poole of Samaria, & the dogges licked vp his blood, and they washed his armour, * according vnto the word of the Lord which he spake. * Chap. 21. 21.

39 The rest of the words that concerne Achab, and all that he did, and ẏ Iuorie house which he made, and all the cities that hee builded, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

40 And so Achab slept with his fathers, and Ahazia his sonne reigned in his steade.

41 Iosaphat the sonne of Asa, began to raigne vpon Iuda, in the fourth yeere of Achab king of Israel.

42 And Iosaphat was thirtie and fiue yeeres olde when he beganne to raigne, and raigned twentie & fiue yeeres in Hierusalem: His mothers name was Asuba, ẏ daughter of Silhi.

43 And hee walked in all the wayes of Asa his father, and bowed not therefrom, but did that which was right in the eyes of the Lord: Neuertheless, the high places were not taken away: for the people offered and burnt incense yet in the high places.

44 And Iosaphat made peace with the king of Israel.

45 The rest of the wordes that concerne Iosaphat, and the might that he vsed, and howe he warred, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

46 And the remnant of the stewes of the males which remained in the dayes of his father Asa, he put cleane out of the land.

47 [d] There was then no king in Edom, the deputie was king. d In the time of this king, Idumea was subiect to Iuda, and was gouerned by whom they of Iuda appointed.

48 And Iosaphat made shippes in the sea, to come through Tharsis to Ophir for gold, but they went not, for the shippes brake at Esion Gaber.

49 Then sayd Ahazia the sonne of Achab vnto Iosaphat, Joſaphat, Let my ſeruants goe with thy ſeruants in the ſhips. But Joſaphat would not.

50 And Joſaphat did ſleepe with his fathers, & was buried with his fathers in the citie of Dauid his father: and Jehoram his ſonne reigned in his ſteade.
51 Ahazia the ſonne of Achab began to reigne ouer Iſrael in Samaria the ſeuenteenth yere of Joſaphat king of Juda, and reigned two yeeres ouer Iſrael.
52 But hee did euill in the ſight of the Lorde, and walked in the way of his father, and in the way of his mother, and in the way of Jeroboam ꝑ ſonne of Nabat, which made Iſrael to ſinne.
53 For he ſerued Baal, & worſhipped him, and prouoked ꝑ Lorde God of Iſrael vnto wrath, according vnto all that his father had done.

The firſt. Chapter.

Ahazia by a fall falleth ſicke, and conſulteth with Beelzebub.

1 THen Moab rebelled againſt Iſrael, after the death of Achab.
2 And Ahazia fell through a latteſſe windowe of his vpper chamber that hee had in Samaria, and while hee was yet in his ſickneſſe, hee ſent meſſengers, and ſayde vnto them, Goe and enquire of [a] Beelzebub the god of Ecron, whither I ſhall recouer of this my diſeaſe.
3 But the angel of the Lorde ſpake to Elias the Thesbite, Ariſe, and goe vp againſt the meſſengers of the king of Samaria, and ſay vnto them, Is there not a God in Iſrael, that ye goe to aſke counſell at Beelzebub the god of Ecron?
4 Wherefore, thus ſayeth the Lorde, Thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt die the death. And Elias departed.
5 And when the meſſengers turned backe againe vnto him, he ſaide vnto them, Why are ye nowe come againe?
6 They anſwered him, There came a man vp againſt vs, and ſayde vnto vs, Goe and turne againe vnto the king that ſent you, and ſay vnto him, Thus ſayeth the Lord, Is there not a God in Iſrael, that thou ſendeſt to enquire of Beelzebub the god of Ecron? therefore thou ſhalt not come downe from the bed on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt dye the death.
7 And hee ſayde vnto them, What maner of man was that which came vp, and met you, and tolde you theſe words?
8 And they anſwered him, It was an heatie man, and girt with a girdle of leather about his loynes. And hee ſayde, It is Elias the Thesbite.
9 Then the king ſent vnto him a captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie men: which came to him (and behold, he ſate on the top of an hill) and hee ſpake vnto him, Thou man of God, the king hath ſayde, Come downe.
10 Elias anſwered & ſayd to the captaine ouer the fiftie, If I be a man of God, let fire come downe from heauen, and conſume thee & thy fiftie. [b] And there came fire from heauen, and conſumed him and his fiftie.
11 Againe alſo he ſent vnto him another captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie: And hee ſpake, and ſayde vnto him, O man of God, thus hath the king ſaid, Make haſte, and come downe.
12 Elias anſwered and ſayde vnto them, If I bee a man of God, let fire come downe from heauen, and conſume thee and thy fiftie. And there came fire of God from heauen, and conſumed him and his fiftie.
13 And the king yet againe ſent the thirde captaine ouer fiftie, with his fiftie men: and the third captaine ouer fiftie went vp, and came & fell on his knees before Elias, and beſought him, and ſayde vnto him, Oh man of God, I pray thee, let my life, and the life of the fiftie thy ſeruants, be precious in thy ſight.
14 Behold, there came fire downe from heauē, and burnt vp the two fore captaines ouer fiftie, with their fifties: therefore let my life now be precious in thy ſight.
15 And the angel of the Lord ſayd vnto Elias, Goe downe with him, and [c] bee not afraide of him. And he aroſe, and went downe with him vnto the king.
16 And he ſaid vnto him, Thus ſaith the Lord, For as much as thou haſt ſent meſſengers to aſke counſell at Beelzebub thy god of Ecron (as though there had bene no God in Iſrael, whoſe worde thou mighteſt ſeeke after) therefore thou ſhalt not come downe of the bed on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt dye the death.

a The God of flyes: ſo called, either for that the people thought that he could preſerue them frō the flyes, wherewith that coūtrey was infected, or becauſe flyes were ingendred in great abundance, of the blood of the ſacrifices to that idole.

b The threatnings of Gods prophetes are effectuall againſt the wicked.

c God bolderneth his miniſters to doe their meſſage.

17 And so hee dyed, according to the worde of the Lorde which Elias had spoken: and Joram [his brother] beganne to raigne in his steade, in the second yeere of Joram the sonne of Josaphat king of Juda, because he had no sonne.

18 The rest of the words that concerne Ahazia, what thinges he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kinges of Israel?

The ii. Chapter.

8 Elias deuideth the waters with his cloke. 11 He is taken vp into heauen. 23 The children that mocke Eliseus are rent in pieces with Beares.

1 AND when the Lord would take vp Elias into * heauen by a whirlewinde, Elias went with Eliseus frō Gilgal.

Gene. 5. 14. iosu. 5. 7.

2 And Elias said vnto ‖ Eliseus, Tarry here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Bethel. Eliseus said vnto him, As ỹ Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. And they came downe to Bethel.

‖ Or, Elisa.

a The children of ỹ prophets, that is, the disciples of the Prophets.

3 a And the childrē of the Prophets that were at Bethel, came out to Eliseus, and sayde vnto him, Knowest thou not howe that the Lorde will take away thy master from thy head this day? He sayde, I know it also, hold you your peace.

4 And Elias sayde vnto him, Eliseus, tarie here, I pray thee: for the Lord hath sent me to Jericho. He saide, As the Lorde liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I will not leaue thee. And so they came to Jericho.

5 And the children of the Prophetes that were at Jericho came to Eliseus, and sayde vnto him, Knowest thou not that the Lorde will take away thy master from thy head this day? He answered, I knowe it also, holde ye your peace.

6 And Elias sayde vnto him, Tarie, I pray thee, here: for the Lorde hath sent me to Jordane. He sayde, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. And so they two went together.

7 And fiftie men of the sonnes of the prophets came, and stoode on the other side a farre off: and they two stoode by Jordane.

8 And Elias tooke his mantell, and wapt it together, and smote the waters, and they were deuided part the one way, and part the other: so that they two went ouer thorowe the drye lande.

9 And as soone as they were ouer, Elias said vnto Eliseus, Aske what I shall doe for thee per I be taken away from thee. And Eliseus sayde, I pray thee, let thy spirite be double vpon me.

10 And hee sayde, Thou hast asked an harde thing: neuertheless, if thou see mee when I am taken away from thee, thou shalt haue it so: if thou do not, it shall not be.

11 And as they went walking and talking, beholde, there appeared a charet of fire, and horses of fire, and parted them both a sunder, and * Elias went vp through the whirlewinde into b heauen.

Eccle. 48. 13. 1. macca. 2. 58.

12 And Eliseus sawe, and cryed, O my father, O my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsemen thereof. And he sawe him no more: and he tooke his owne clothes, and rent them in two pieces.

b A testimonie of the resurrection.

13 He tooke vp also the mantel of Elias that fel from him, and went backe againe, and stoode by Jordanes side, 14 And tooke the mantell of Elias that fel frō him, and smote the waters, & he sayd, Where is the Lorde God of Elias, and he him selfe? And when hee had smitten the waters, they parted this way and that way: and Eliseus went ouer.

15 And when the children of the Prophetes, which were at Jericho, sawe him from a farre, they sayde, The spirite of Elias doeth rest on Eliseus: And they came to meete him, and fell to the ground before him,

16 And sayde vnto him, See, nowe there be with thy seruantes fiftie strong men, let them goe, wee pray thee, and seeke thy master: if so bee the spirite of the Lorde hath taken him vp, and cast him vpon some mountaine, or into some valley. And he said, Ye shal sende none.

17 And when they lay vpon him, till hee was ashamed, he sayd, Sende. They sent therefore fiftie men, which sought him three dayes, but found him not.

18 And when they came againe to him (which taried at Jericho) he saide vnto them, Did I not say vnto you, that ye should not goe?

19 And the men of the citie sayd vnto Eliseus, Behold syr, the dwelling of this citie is pleasant, as thou thy selfe seest: but the water is naught, and the ground ‡ barren.

‡ killeth the inhabitants.

20 He sayde, Bring me a newe cruse, and put salt therein. And they brought it to him.

21 And he went vnto the spring of the waters, and cast the salt in thither, and sayd, thus saith the Lorde, I haue healed these waters, there shall not come hencefoorth either death or barrennesse.

22 So the waters were healed vnto this day, according to the saying of Eliseus, which he spake.

23 And hee went vp from thence vnto Bethel: and as he was going by the way, there came litle children out of the citie, and mocked him, and sayd vnto him, Go vp thou balde head, go vp thou balde head.

24 And hee turned backe, and looked on them, and cursed them in the name of the Lord: and there came two shee Beares out of the wood, and tare fourtie and two children of them.

25 And

25 And he went from thence to mount Carmel, & from thence he turned againe to Samaria.

The iii. Chapter.

1 The raigne of Ioram. 6 He and Iosaphat go to warre against Moab, which rebelled. 24 The Moabites are ouercome.

1 NOwe Ioram the sonne of Achab began to raigne vpon Israel in Samaria the eighteene yeere of Iosaphat king of Iuda, & raigned twelue yeres.

2 And hee wrought euill in the sight of the Lord, but not like his father and like his mother: for he put away the images of Baal that his father had made.

3 Neuertheless, he cleaued vnto the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

4 And Mesa king of Moab was a lorde of sheepe, and rendered vnto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambes, and an hundred thousand rammes, with the wooll.

5 But when Achab was dead, the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And king Ioram went out of Samaria the same season, and numbred all Israel:

7 And went, & sent to Iosaphat the king of Iuda, saying, The king of Moab hath rebelled against mee, wilt thou come with mee against Moab in battel? He answered, I wil come vp: for as I am, so art thou: and as my people be, so are thy people: & my horses, as thy horses.

8 And he sayde, What way shall we goe vp? And he answered, The way thorowe the wildernesse of Edom.

9 And so the king of Israel tooke his iourney, and the king of Iuda, and the king of Edom: and when they had compassed the way seuen dayes, they had no water for the host, and for the cattell that ‡ followed them.

‡ Heb. were at their feete.

10 And the king of Israel sayde, Alas, the Lord hath called these three kings together, to deliuer them ouer into the hand of Moab.

11 But Iosaphat said, Is there not here a Prophet of the Lorde, that we may enquire of the Lord by him? And one of the king of Israels seruants answered, and sayd, Here is Eliseus the sonne of Saphat, which powred water on the handes of Elias.

12 And Iosaphat sayd, The worde of the Lord is with him. And so the king of Israel, and Iosaphat, and the king of Edom went downe to him.

13 And Eliseus sayde vnto the king of Israel, What haue I to do with thee? Get thee to the prophets of thy father, and to the prophets of thy mother. And the king of Israel sayd vnto him, Oh nay: for the Lorde hath called these three kings together, to deliuer them into the hand of Moab.

14 And Eliseus sayd, As the Lord of hostes liueth, in whose sight I stande, and it were not that I regarde the presence of Iosaphat the king of Iuda, I would [a] not looke towarde thee, nor yet see thee.

a God suffereth his worde to be declared to the wicked, because of the godly that are among them.

15 But nowe bring me a minstrell. And when the minstrell played, the hande of the Lorde came vpon him:

16 And he sayde, Thus sayth the Lorde, Make this valley full of ditches:

17 For thus sayth the Lord, Ye shall see neither winde nor rayne, yet the valley shall be filled with water, that ye may drinke, both ye, and your beastes, and your cattell:

18 And this is yet but a smal thing in the sight of the Lord, forasmuch as he wil giue ouer the Moabites also into your handes:

19 And ye shall smite euery strong towne, and euery goodly citie, and shal fel euery pleasant tree, and stoppe euery well of water, & marre euery good plat of ground with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meate offering was offered, behold, there came water by the way of Edom, and the countrey was filled with water.

21 And when all the Moabites heard that the kings were come vp to fight against them, they gathered al that was able ‡ to put on harnesse, and stoode in the border of the land:

‡ Heb. to girde himselfe with a girdle.

22 And they were vp early in the morning, and the sunne shone vpon the water, that the Moabites sawe the water a farre off as red as blood.

23 And they sayde, This is the blood of slaughter: The kings are slaine, and one haue smitten another: Nowe therefore, Moab, get thee to the spoyle.

24 And when they came to the host of Israel, the Israelites stoode vp and smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they followed vpon them, and smote Moab,

25 And they ouerthrewe the cities, and on euery good parcell of lande cast euery man his stone, and filled it, and they stopt all the welles of water, and felde all the good trees, only in Kirharaseth left they the stones thereof: howbeit they went about it with slinges, and smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab sawe that the battel was too sore for him, he tooke with him seuen hundred men that drewe the sworde, to haue gone thorowe [euen] vnto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 And then hee tooke his eldest sonne that should haue raigned in his steade, and offered him for a whole burnt offering vpon the wall: And there was [a] great indignation against Israel, and they departed from him, and returned to their owne land.

a The Israelites were greatly offended, because of the cruelte of the fact.

The iiii. Chapter.

4 God increaseth the oyle to the poore widowe by Eliseus. 12 He obteyneth for the Sunamite a sonne at Gods hand. 28 Who dyed, & was rayled vp againe.

1 And

1 AND there cryed a certaine woman of ỹ wiues of the sonnes of the Prophetes vnto Eliseus, saying, Thy seruant my husbande is dead, and thou knowest that thy seruant did feare the Lorde: And the creditour is come to fet my two sonnes to be his bondemen.

2 Eliseus sayd vnto her, Tell me what I shal doe for thee: What hast thou in thine house? She sayd, Thine handmayde hath nothing at all in the house, saue a pitcher with oyle.

3 He sayd vnto her, Go, and borow vessels for thee without, of all thy neyghbours emptie vessels, and that not a fewe:

4 And when thou art come in, thou shalt shut the doore after thee, and after thy sonnes, and powre out into all [a] those vessels: and set aside that which is full.

a God euer prouideth for them that trust in him, although he suffer them many times to fall into great necessitie.

5 And so she went from him, and shut the doore after her, and after her sonnes: and they brought to her, and she powred out.

6 And when the vessels were ful, she sayd vnto her sonne, Bring me yet a vessel. And he sayd, I haue no moe. And the oyle ceassed.

7 Then shee came, and tolde the man of God: and he sayde, Goe, and sell the oyle, and pay them that thou art in debt vnto: but liue thou and thy children of the rest.

8 And it fel on a day that Eliseus came to Sunem, where was a great woman, that tooke him in for to eate bread: And so it came to passe, that from that time forth (as oft as he came that way) he turned in thither to eate bread.

9 And she sayde vnto her husbande, Beholde, I perceyue that this is an holy man of God, which passeth by vs continually.

10 Let vs make him a litle chamber, I pray thee, with walles, & let vs set him there a bed, and a table, and a stoole, and a candlesticke: that he may turne in thither when hee commeth to vs.

11 And on a day he came thither, and turned into the chamber, and lay therein, 12 And sayde to Gehezi his seruant, Call this Sunamite. And when he called her, shee presented her selfe before him.

13 And againe he sayde vnto him, Tell her, beholde, thou hast bene carefull for vs with all this care, [b] What shal we nowe doe for thee: Wouldest thou be spoken for to the king, or to the captaine of the host? She answered, I dwell among mine owne people.

b The seruants of God are not vnthankfull for benefites receiued.

14 And he sayd againe, What is to be done for her? Gehezi answered, Verily shee hath no childe, and her husband is olde.

15 And he sayd, Call her. And when he had called her, she stoode in the doore.

16 And he sayd, At this time appointed, according to the time of life, thou shalt imbrace a sonne. And she sayde, Oh nay my lorde thou man of God, do not lye vnto thine handmayd.

17 And the wife conceiued, & bare a sonne that same season that Eliseus had sayde vnto her, according to the time of life.

18 And when the childe was growen, it fell on a day that he went out to his father, and to the reapers, 19 And he sayde vnto his father, My head, my head. And he sayd to a ladde, Cary him to his mother.

20 And when he had taken him, and brought him to his mother, hee sate on her knees tyll noone, and then dyed.

21 And she went vp, and layde him on the bed of the man of God, and shut [the doore] vpon him, and went out, 22 And called vnto her husbande, and sayde, Sende with me, I pray thee, one of the yong men, and one of the asses: for I will runne to the man of God, and come againe.

23 And he sayde, Wherefore wilt thou goe to him, seeing that to day is neither newe moone nor sabboth day? And she answered, All shall be ‡ well. ‡ Heb. peace.

24 Then she sadled an asse, and sayde to her seruant, Driue and goe forward, stay not for me to get vp, except I bid thee.

25 And so shee went, and came vnto the man of God to mount Carmel: and when the man of God saw her ‖ farre off, he sayd to Gehezi his seruant, Behold, ponder is the Sunamite: ‖ Or, ouer against him.

26 Runne therefore to meete her, and say vnto her, Is all well with thee, and with thy husband, and with the ladde? And she answered, All is well.

27 And when she came to the man of God vp to the hill, she caught him by the feete: but Gehezi went to her to thrust her away. And the man of God sayd, Let her alone, for her soule is ‖ vexed within her, and the Lord hath hidde it from me, and hath not tolde it me. ‖ Or, in bitternesse.

28 Then she sayde, Did I desire a sonne of my Lorde? did I not require thee that thou shouldest not deceyue me?

29 Then he sayde to Gehezi, * Gyrde vp thy loynes, and take my staffe in thine hande, and goe thy way: if thou meete any man, [c] salute him not: and if any salute thee, answere him not againe: and lay my staffe vpon the face of the childe. Luke 10.4. c Make such speede, that nothing may let thée in thy way, Luke. 10.

30 And the mother of the childe sayde, As the Lord liueth, and as thy soule liueth, I wil not leaue thee. And he arose, and followed her.

31 Gehezi went before them, and layd the staffe vpon the face of the childe, but there was neither voyce, nor any feeling: wherefore he went againe to meete him, and tolde him, saying, The childe is not awaked.

32 And when Eliseus was come into the house, beholde, the childe was dead, and layde vpon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, & shut the doore vpon them twayne, and prayed vnto the Lorde, 34 And went vp, and lay vpon the lad, and put his mouth on his mouth, and his eyes vpon his eyes, and his handes vpon his hands, and when he so lay vpon the childe, the flesh of the childe waxed warme.
35 And he went againe, and walked once vp and downe in the house, and then went vp, and layde himselfe vpon him againe: and then the childe ‖ gaped seuen times, and opened his eyes.
36 And he called Gehezi, and sayd, Call for this Sunamite. So he called her: which when she was come in vnto him, he said vnto her, Take thy sonne.
37 Therefore she went in, and fell at his feete, and bowed her selfe to the grounde, and tooke vp her sonne, and went out.
38 Eliseus came againe to Gilgal, and there was a dearth in the land, & the children of the Prophets dwelt with him: & he sayd vnto his seruant, Set a great pot on [the fire] & make pottage for the children of the Prophets.
39 And one went out into the fielde to gather herbes, and found a wilde vine, and gathered thereof wilde gourdes his lappe full, & came and shred them into the potte of pottage: for they knew it not.
40 So they powred out for the men to eate: and when they had tasted of the pottage, they cryed out, and sayd, O thou man of God, there is death in the potte. And they could not eate thereof.
41 But he sayde, Bring meale. And he cast it into the pot: and he sayd, Fill for the people, that they may eate. And there was no more harme in the pot.
42 There came a man from Baal Salisa, and brought the man of God bread of the first fruites, euen twentie loaues of barley, & full eares of corne in the huske: and he sayd, Giue vnto the people, that they may eate.
43 And he answered, Why shall I set this before an hundred men? He sayde againe, Giue it vnto the people, that they may eate: for thus sayeth the Lorde, * They shall eate, and there shalbe left ouer.
44 And so he set it before them, & they did eate, and left ouer, according to the worde of the Lorde.

‖ Or, sneesed, that is, often times.

Iohn 6.11.

The v. Chapter.

1 Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leprosie. 16 Eliseus refuseth his giftes.

1 NAaman, captaine of the hoste of the king of Syria, was a great man, and honourable in the sight of his master, because that by him the Lorde had giuen health vnto Syria: He was also a mightie man, and expert in warre, [but he was] a leper
2 And the Syrians had gone out by cõpanies, & had brought out of the countrey of Israel a litle mayde, & she was with Naamans wife.
3 And she said vnto her ladie, I would to God my lord were with the prophet that is in Samaria, for he would deliuer him of his leprosie.
4 And he [a] went in, and tolde his lord, saying, Thus and thus sayde the mayde that is of the land of Israel. a Naaman.
5 And the king of Syria sayde, Goe thy way thither, and I will send a letter vnto the king of Israel. And he departed, & tooke with him ten talents of siluer, & sixe thousand pieces of golde, and ten changes of rayments:
6 And brought the letter to the king of Israel, conteyning this tenour, Now when this letter is come vnto thee, behold, I haue therwith sent Naaman my seruant to thee, that thou mayest rid him of his leprosie.
7 And when the king of Israel had read the letter, he rent his clothes, and sayde, Am I God, that I should slay, and make aliue? For he doeth send vnto mee, that I should deliuer a man from his leprosie: Wherefore consider, I pray you, and see howe he seeketh a quarell against me.
8 Which when Eliseus the man of God had heard, how that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent to the king, saying, Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come nowe to me, and he shall know that there is a Prophet in Israel.
9 And so Naaman came with his horses, and with his charets, and stoode at the doore of the house of Eliseus.
10 And Eliseus sent a messenger vnto him, saying, Go, & wash thee in Iordane seuen times, and thy flesh shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.
11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and sayd, Behold, I thought with my selfe, he woulde surely come out, & stand, & call on the name of the Lord his God, and put his hande on the place, that he may heale the leprosie.
12 Are not Abana and Pharphar, riuers of Damascus, better then all the waters of Israel? If I wash me also in them, shal I not be cleansed? And so he turned him, and departed with displeasure.
13 And his seruantes came, and communed with him, and sayde, Father, if the Prophete had byd thee doe some great thing, oughtest thou not to haue done it? Howe much rather then when he sayeth to thee, Washe and be cleane?
14 Then went he downe, * and washed him selfe seuen times in Iordane, according to the saying of the man of God, and his flesh came againe, like vnto the flesh of a litle childe, and he was cleansed. Luke. 4 27.
15 And he turned againe to the man of God, he and and all his companie, and stoode before him, and sayd, Beholde, I know nowe that there is no God in all the worlde, but in Israel: nowe therefore, I pray thee, take a ‖blessing of thy seruant.

‖ Or, reward.

16 But he sayde, as the Lorde liueth, before whome I stande, I will receiue none: And when the other would haue constrayned him to receiue it, he would not.

17 And Naaman said, Shal there not be giuen to thy seruant as much of this earth as two mules may beare? For thy seruant wil henceforth offer neither whole burnt sacrifice, nor offring vnto any other gods, saue vnto ỳ Lord.

18 But herein the Lord be mercifull to thy seruant, that when my master goeth into the house of Rimmon for to worshippe there, and leaneth on my hande, and I bowe my selfe in the house of Rimmon: when I doe bowe downe, I say, in the house of Rimmon, the Lorde be mercifull vnto thy seruant because of this thing.

b The prophet did not approue his act, but after the common maner of speache he bade him farewell.

19 Unto whome he sayde, [b] Goe in peace. And when he was departed from him, as it were a furlong of grounde, 20 Gehezi the seruant of Eliseus the man of God, sayde, Beholde, my master hath spared Naaman this Syrian, that he would not receiue at his handes those things that he offered: as the Lorde liueth, I will runne after him, and take somewhat of him.

21 And so Gehezi folowed Naaman: and when Naaman saw him running after him, he light downe from the charet to meete him, and said, Is all well?

22 He answered, All is well: behold, my master hath sent mee, saying, See, there be come to mee euen nowe from mount Ephraim two yong men, of the children of the Prophetes: Giue them, I pray thee, one talent of siluer, and two change of garments.

23 And Naaman sayd, With a good will, take two talentes. And he constrayned him, and bounde two talents of siluer in two bagges, with two change of garments, and layd them vpon two of his seruantes, to beare them before him.

‡ Fortresse, or secret place.

24 And when he came to the ‡ lower place, he tooke [them] from their hande, and bestowed [them] in the house, and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in, and stoode before his master: and Eliseus sayde vnto him, Whence [commest thou] Gehezi? He sayde, Thy seruant went no whither.

c Was not I present with thee in spirite?

26 But he sayde vnto him, [c] Went not mine heart [with thee] whē the man turned againe from his charet to meete thee? Is it nowe a time to receiue money, to receiue garmentes, Oliue trees, vineyards, sheepe, and oxen, men seruants, and mayde seruants?

27 [d] The leprosie therefore of Naaman shall cleaue vnto thee, and vnto thy seede, for euer. And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snowe.

d Couetousnes punished.

The vi. Chapter.

6 Eliseus maketh yron to swimme aboue the water. 8 He discloseth the king of Syrias counsel to the king of Israel.

1 THe children of the Prophets sayde vnto Eliseus, Beholde, we pray thee, the place where we dwell with thee, is too litle for vs:

2 Let vs goe, we pray thee, vnto Iordane, and take thence euery man a beame, and builde vs a place to dwell in. And he answered, Goe.

3 And one sayde, Be content, I pray thee, and come with thy seruants. And he answered, I will come.

4 And so he went with them: and when they came to Iordane, they cut downe wood.

5 But as one was felling downe of a tree, the axe head fell into the water: and he cryed, and sayd, Alas master, it was lent me.

6 And the man of God sayde, Where fell it? & he shewed him the place: And he cut downe a sticke, and cast it in thither, and immediatly the yron did swimme.

7 Therefore sayd he, Take it vp. And he stretched out his hand, and tooke it vp.

8 Then the king of Syria warred against Israel, and tooke counsell with his seruantes, and sayde, In such and such a place shalbe my campe.

9 And the man of God sent vnto the king of Israel, saying, Beware that thou goe not ouer to such a place, for there the Syrians are lurking.

10 Therfore the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God tolde him, and warned him of, [a] and saued himselfe from it, not once, nor twise.

a God will disclose the craftie counsell of the wicked.

11 And the heart of the king of Syria was troubled for this thing, & he called for his seruants, and sayde vnto them, Wil ye not shewe me which of our men [betrayeth mee] to the king of Israel?

12 And one of his seruants said, None, my lord O king: but Eliseus the Prophet, that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel, yea, ỳ words that thou speakest in thy priuie chamber.

13 He sayde, Goe, and spie where he is, that I may send and fetche him. And one tolde him, saying, Beholde, he is in Dothan.

14 Therefore sent he thither horses, & charets, and a mightie host: and they came by night, and compassed the citie about.

15 And when the seruant of the man of God rose vp early to goe out, beholde, there was an host rounde about the towne, with horses and charets: and his seruant sayde vnto him, Alas master, what shall we doe?

16 He

16 He answered, Feare not: for they that be with vs, are moe then they that be with them.
17 And Eliseus prayed, and sayde, Lord, I beseech thee open his eyes, that he may see. And the Lorde opened the eyes of the yong man, and he looked: and beholde, the mountaine was full of horses, and charets of fire, rounde about Eliseus.
18 And when they came downe to him, Eliseus prayed vnto the Lord, and sayde, Smite this people, I pray thee, with blindenesse. And he smote them with blindenesse, according to the worde of Eliseus.
19 And Eliseus sayde vnto them, This is not the way, neither is this the towne: follow me, and I will bring you to the man whome ye seeke. But he led them to Samaria.
20 But when they were come to Samaria, Eliseus sayde, Lorde, open their eyes, that they may see. And the Lord opened their eyes, and they saw, and behold, they were in the middes of Samaria.
21 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Eliseus when he sawe them, My father, shall I smite them, shal I smite them?
22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smite thē: but smite those that thou hast taken with thine owne sworde, and with thine owne bowe: but rather set bread and water before them, that they may eate and drinke, and goe to their master.
23 And he prepared a great refection for them, and when they had eaten and dronke, he sent them away, and they went to their master: and so the souldiers of Syria came no more into the land of Israel.
24 After this, Benhadad king of Syria gathered all his host, and went vp, and besieged Samaria.
25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: and beholde, they besieged it, vntill an asses head was solde for fourescore siluer pence, and the fourth part of a [b] cab of doues dong for fiue pieces of siluer.
26 And as the king of Israel was going vpon the wall, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying, Helpe me my lord, O king.
27 He sayde, If the Lord doe not succour thee, wherewith can I helpe thee? with the barne, or with the wine presse?
28 And ỳ king sayd vnto her, What wilt thou? She answered, Yonder woman sayde vnto me, Bring thy sonne, that we may eate him to day, and we will eate mine to morowe, 29 And so wee dressed my sonne, and did eate him: and I sayd vnto her the other day, Bring thy sonne, that we may eate him: and she hath hid her sonne.
30 And when the king heard the wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, & went vp on the wall, and the people looked, and behold, he had a sackcloth vnder [c] vpon his flesh.
31 Then he sayde, God doe so, and more also to mee, if the head of Eliseus the sonne of Saphat, shal stand on him this day.
32 But Eliseus sate in his house (and the elders sate by him) and the king sent a man before him: but per the messenger came to him, he said to the elders, Haue ye not seene how that the sonne of this murderer hath sent to take away mine head? Be circumspect when the messenger commeth, and shut the doore, and holde him at the doore: Is not the sound of his masters feete behinde him?
33 While he yet talked with them, beholde, the messenger came downe vnto him, and sayde, Beholde, this euill is of the Lorde, and what more shall I looke for of the Lord?

b The Hebrewes write, that they burned it in the siege for lacke of wood.

c Thus hypocrites fering Gods iudgement, thinke to please him with outward ceremonies, whom in prosperitie they will not know.

The vii. Chapter.

Elseus prophecieth plentie of vittaile and other things in Samaria.

1 Then Eliseus sayd, Heare ye the worde of the Lorde, Thus sayeth the Lorde, To morowe this time [shal] a measure of fine flowre be solde for a sicle, and two measures of barley for a sicle, in the gate of Samaria.
2 Then a certaine lorde (on whose hande the king leaned) answered the man of God, and sayde, Beholde, if the Lord would make windowes in heauen, might this saying come to passe? He sayd, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eate thereof.
3 And there were foure leprous men at the entring in of the gate: and they sayd one to another, Why sit we here vntill we dye?
4 If we say, We will enter into the citie: behold, the dearth is in the citie, and we shal dye therein: & if we sit still here, we dye also. Now therefore come, and let vs flee vnto the host of the Syrians: if they saue our liues, we shall liue: if they kill vs, then are we dead.
5 And they rose vp in the twylight, to goe to the host of the Syrians: and when they were come to the vttermost part of the host of Syria, beholde, there was no man there.
6 For the Lorde had made the host of the Syrians to heare a noyse of charets, and a noyse of horses, & the noyse of a great host: insomuch that they sayd one to another, Loe, the king of Israel hath hired against vs the kings of the Hethites, and the kings of the Egyptians, to come vpon vs.
7 Wherefore they arose, and fled in the twilight, and left their tentes, and their horses, & their asses, and the fielde which they had pitched, euen as it was, [a] and fled for their liues.
8 And when these lepers came to the edge of the host, they went into a tent, and did eate and drinke, and caryed thence siluer, and gold, and rayment, and went and hid it, and came againe, and entred into another tent, & caryed thence a The wicked nede no greater enemie, then their owne conscience to pursue them.

thence also, and went and hid it.

9 Then sayd one to another, We do not well, this day is a day to bring good tydings, and we holde our peace. If wee tary till the day light, some mischiefe will come vpon vs: now therefore come, that we may goe, and tell the kings housholde.

10 And so they came, and called vnto the porter of the citie, and tolde them, saying, We came to the campe of the Syrians, and see, there was no man there, neither voyce of man, but horses and asses tyed, and the tentes were as they were wont to be.

11 And the porters cryed, and declared [it] to the kings house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, and said vnto his seruants, [b] I wil shewe you nowe what the Syrians haue done vnto vs: They know that wee be hungrie, and therefore are they gone out of the campe, to hide themselues in the fielde, saying, When they come out of the citie, we shall catche them aliue, and get into the citie.

b He mistrusted the Prophets wordes, & as one more politike then godly, cast more perils then needed.

13 And one of his seruants answered, and sayd, Let men take, I pray you, fiue of the horses that remayne and are left in the [multitude:] (behold, they are as al the multitude of Israel that are left in the citie: beholde, [I say] they are euen as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we will send, and see.

14 They tooke therefore the horses of two charets, and the king sent after the hoste of the Syrians, saying, Goe, and see.

15 And they went after them euen vnto Jordane, and loe, all the way was full of clothes, and vessels, which the Syrians had cast from them in their haste: and the messengers returned, and tolde the king.

16 And the people went out, & spoyled the tents of the Syrians: and so it came to passe, that a measure of fine flowre was solde for a sicle, and two measures of barley for a sicle, according to the worde of the Lord.

17 And the king appointed that lord (on whose hand he leaned) to be at the gate: and the people [c] trode vpon him in the gate, and hee dyed according to the worde of the man of God, which he sayde when the king came downe to him.

c The faithlesse derider of Gods prophet punished.

18 And so came the thing to passe that the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, Two measures of barley for a sicle, and a measure of fine flowre for another, shalbe to morow this time in the gate of Samaria.

19 Whereunto that Lord answered the man of God, and said, Yea, and if the Lord made windowes in heauen, might it come to passe? And he sayde, Beholde, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, and shalt not eate thereof.

20 And euen so it came vnto him: for the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

The viii. Chapter.

1 Eliseus prophecied vnto the Sunamite the dearth of seuen yeres.

1 Then spake Eliseus vnto the woman (whose sonne he had restored to life againe) saying, * Vp, and goe thou and thine house, and soiourne whereseoeuer thou canst: for the Lord hath called for a dearth, and the same shall come vpon the land seuen yeeres. * 4. King. 4. 34.

2 And the woman arose, and did after the saying of the man of God: and went both she and her housholde, and soiourned in the land of the Philistines seuen yeeres.

3 And at the seuen yeres ende, the womã came againe out of the land of the Philistines, and went out to call vpon the king for her house and for her land.

4 And the king talked with Gehezi the seruant of the man of God, saying, Tell mee, I pray thee, all the great deedes that Eliseus hath done.

5 He told the king how he had restored a dead body to life againe: but in the meane time the woman, whose sonne he had raised vp againe, cryed to the king for her house & for her land: And Gehezi sayde, My lord, O king, this is the woman, and this is her sonne, whom Eliseus raysed vp againe.

6 And when the king asked the woman, shee tolde him: And so the king deliuered her a chamberlayne, saying, Restore thou vnto her all that are hers, and all the [a] fruites of the fielde, since the day that she left the land, vnto this time.

a The king caused that to be iustly restored, which was wrongfully holden from her.

7 And Eliseus came to Damascus, and Benhadad the king of Syria was sicke, and one tolde him, saying, The man of God is come hither.

8 And the king sayd vnto Hazael, Take a present in thine hande, and goe meete the man of God, that thou mayest enquire of the Lord by him, saying, Shal I recouer of this disease?

9 And so Hazael went to meete him, and tooke the present with him, and of euery good thing of Damascus, euen as much as fourtie camelles coulde beare: and came and presented himselfe before him, and sayde, Thy sonne Benhadad king of Syria hath sent me to thee, saying, Shall I recouer of this disease?

10 And Eliseus sayd vnto him, Go, and say vnto him, Thou shalt [b] recouer: howbeit, the Lord hath shewed me that he shall surely dye.

b Meaning, that he should not die of that disease, yet he should dye by the hand of Hazael the messenger.

11 He looked vpon him stedfastly, vntil he was ashamed: and the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael sayde, Why weepeth my lord? He answered, For I knowe the euill things that thou shalt do vnto the children of Israel: for their strong cities shalt thou set on fire, and their yong men shalt thou slay with the swoorde, swoyde, and shalt dash out the brayns of their sucking children, and all to teare their women with childe.

13 But Hazael sayde, What is thy seruant a dogge, that I should do this great thing? And Elizeus answered, The Lord hath shewed me that thou shalt be king of Syria.

14 And so he departed from Elizeus, and came to his master, which said to him, What sayde Elizeus to thee? He answered, He tolde mee that thou shouldest recouer.

15 And on the morowe, he tooke a thicke cloth, & dipt it in water, & c spread it on his face: and he dyed, and Hazael raigned in his steade.

c Hazael vnder pretence to refresh ꝑ king, stifled him with this cloth. 2.Chro.21.4.

16 * The fifth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab king of Israel, Iosaphat being also king of Juda, Ioram the sonne of Iosaphat king of Juda began to raigne.

17 Thirtie and two yeeres olde was he when he began to raigne, & he raigned eight yeeres in Hierusalem.

18 And he walked in the wayes of the kings of Israel, as they that were of ꝑ house of Achab: for the daughter of Achab was his wife, and he did euill in the sight of the Lorde.

19 And the Lorde would not destroy Juda, because of Dauid his seruants sake, * as he promised, to giue him alway a light among his children.

2.Sam.7.13.

20 In those dayes Edom rebelled against Juda, and made them a king of their owne.

21 So Ioram went to Zair, he, and all his charets with him, and he rose by night, and smote the Edomites, which compassed him in with the captaines of his charets, and the people fled into their tentes.

22 But Edom rebelled, so that he would not be vnder the hande of Juda vnto this day: then Libnah rebelled that same time.

23 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ioram, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

24 And Ioram rested with his fathers, and was buryed beside his fathers, in the citie of Dauid: * And Ahazia his sonne raigned in his steade.

2.Chro.22.1.

25 In the twelfth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, king of Israel, did Ahazia, the sonne of Ioram king of Juda, begin to raigne.

26 Two and twentie yeeres olde was Ahazia when he began to raigne, and he raigned one yeere in Hierusalem, and his mothers name was Athalia, the daughter of Omri, king of Israel.

27 But he walked in the way of the house of Achab, and did euill in the sight of the Lorde, as did the house of Achab: for he was the sonne in law of the house of Achab.

28 And he went with Ioram the sonne of Achab, to warre against Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Ioram.

29 And king Ioram went backe againe to be healed in Jezrahel, of the woundes which the Syrians had giuen him at Ramoth, when he fought against Hazael king of Syria: and Ahazia the sonne of Ioram king of Juda, went downe to see Ioram the sonne of Achab in Jezrahel, because he was sicke there.

The ix. Chapter.

6 Iehu is made king of Israel. 24 And killeth Ioram the king thereof.

1 AND Elizeus the Prophet called one of the children of the Prophets, and sayd vnto him, *Girde vp thy loynes, & take this boxe of oyle in thine hand, and get thee to Ramoth [in] Gilead. 3.King.19.17.

2 And when thou commest thither, looke where is Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, and go to him, and make him arise vp from among his brethren, and cary him to a secret chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, and say, Thus sayth the Lorde, I haue anoynted thee to be king ouer Israel: and then open the doore, and flee without any tarying.

4 And so the seruant of the Prophet gate him to Ramoth Gilead:

5 And when he came in, behold, the captaines of the host were sitting together, and he sayd, I haue an errand to thee, O captaine.

6 And Iehu sayde, Vnto which of all vs? He sayd, To thee, O captaine. And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, and sayde vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, I haue a anoynted thee to be king ouer the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Israel.

a This anoynting was for kings, priests, and prophets, which were all figures of Messias, in whom these three offices were accomplished. 3.King.21.21.

7 Thou shalt smite the house of Achab thy master, that I may auenge the blood of my seruants the Prophets, & the blood of all the seruants of the Lord, * of the hand of Iezabel:

8 For the whole house of Achab shall be destroyed, and I will destroy from Achab, him that maketh water against the wall, and him that is pisoned and forsaken in Israel:

9 And I wil make the house of Achab, like the *house of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, and like the * house of Baasa the sonne of Ahia. 3.King.21.30. 3.King.16.3.

10 And as for Iezabel, the dogges shal eate her in the fielde of Jezrahel, and there shall be none to bury her. And he opened the doore, and fled.

11 Then Iehu came out to the seruants of his lord, & one sayd vnto him, Is al wel? Wherefore came this mad felow to thee? And he sayd vnto them, Ye know what maner of man it is, and what his communication is.

12 They sayde vnto him againe, It is not so, tell vs. He sayd, Thus & thus spake he to me, saying, saying, Thus sayth the Lorde, I haue anoynthee to be king ouer Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and tooke euery man his garment, and put it vnder him on the top of the stayres, and blewe with trumpets, saying, Iehu is king.
14 And so Iehu the sonne of Iosaphat, the sonne of Nimsi, conspired against Ioram: (Ioram kept Ramoth Gilead, he, and all Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria.
15 And king Ioram returned to bee healed in Iezrahel, of the woundes which the Syrians had giuen him, when he fought with Hazael king of Syria.) And Iehu sayd, If it be your mindes, then let no man depart, and escape out of the citie, to go and tell in Iezrahel.
16 So Iehu gate vp [into a charet,] and went to Iezrahel, where Ioram lay: and Ahazia king of Iuda, was come downe thither to see Ioram.
17 And the watchman that stoode on the towre in Iezrahel, spyed the company of Iehu as he came, and sayd, I see a company. And Ioram sayde, Take an horseman, and sende to meete them, that he may aske whether it be peace.
18 And so there went one on horsebacke to meete him, and sayd, Thus saith the king, Is it peace? And Iehu sayde, What hast thou to doe with peace? ‖ turne thee behinde me. And the watcheman tolde, saying, The messenger came to them, but he commeth not againe.
19 Then hee sent out another on horsebacke, which came to them, and sayde, Thus sayeth the king, Is it peace? Iehu answered, What hast thou to doe with peace? turne thee behinde me.
20 And the watcheman tolde, saying, He came to them also, and commeth not againe: and the driuing is like the driuing of Iehu the sonne of Nimsi, for he driueth [the charet] as hee were madde.
21 And Ioram sayd, Make ready. And the charet was made ready, & Ioram king of Israel, and Ahazia king of Iuda, went out either of them in his charet, against Iehu, and met him in the fielde of Naboth the Iezrahelite.
22 And when Ioram sawe Iehu, he sayd, Is it peace, Iehu? He answered, What peace should there be, so lõg as the whoredomes of thy mother Iezabel, & her witchcrafts are so great?
23 And Ioram turned his hande, and fled, and sayd to Ahazia, There is treason, O Ahazia.
24 And Iehu tooke a bowe in his hande, and smote Ioram betweene the armes, and the arrowe went thorow his heart, and he fell downe flat in his charet.
25 Then sayde Iehu to Bidkar a captayne, Take [him,] and cast him in the plat of the ground of Naboth the Iezrahelite: for I remember, that when I and thou rode together after Achab his father, the Lorde ‖ layde this heauie burden vpon him:
26 * I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth, and the blood of his sonnes, sayde the Lord, and I will quite it thee in this ground, sayth the Lord. Nowe therefore take and cast him in the plat of grounde, according to the word of the Lord. 3.King.21.29.
27 But when Ahazia the king of Iuda sawe this, he fled by the way of the garden house: and Iehu followed after him, and sayd, Smite him also in the charet, at the going vp to Gur, by Iebleam. And he fledde to Megiddo, and there dyed.
28 And his seruants caryed him in a charet to Hierusalem, & buryed him there in his sepulchre with his fathers, in the citie of Dauid.
29 And in the eleuenth yeere of Ioram the sonne of Achab, began Ahazia to raigne ouer Iuda.
30 And when Iehu was come to Iezrahel, Iezabel heard of it, and paynted her face, & tyred her head, and looked out at a windowe.
31 And as Iehu entred at the gate, shee sayde, Had [b] Zimri peace * which slewe his master? b As though she would say, treason can haue no good succesſe. 3.King.16.10.
32 And he lift vp his eyes to the windowe, and sayd, Who is on my side, who? And there looked out to him two or three chamberlaynes.
33 And he sayde, Throwe her downe. So they threw her downe, and her blood dashed toward the wall, and toward the horses: and he trode her vnder foote.
34 And when he was come in, he did eate and drinke, and sayde, Goe and visite, I pray you, yonder cursed creature, and bury her, for shee is a kings daughter.
35 And so when they came to bury her, they founde no more of her then the skull, and the feete, and the palmes of her handes.
36 Wherefore they came againe, and told him, and he sayd, This is the worde of the Lord, * which he spake by the hande of his seruant Elias the Thesbite, saying, In the fielde of Iezrahel shal dogges eate the flesh of Iezabel. 3.King.21.23.
37 And so the carkeise of Iezabel was euen as doung vpon the earth in the field of Iezrahel, so that no man might say, This is Iezabel.

‖ Or, folow me.

‖ Or, spake this prophecie against him.

The x. Chapter.

6 Iehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Achab to be slaine.
25 He killeth also all the priestes of Baal.

1 AChab had threescore and ten sonnes in Samaria: and Iehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria vnto the rulers of Iezrahel, to the elders, & to them that brought vp Achabs children, saying,
2 Nowe when this letter commeth to you (ye that haue with you your masters sonnes, yee haue with you both charets and horses, a strõg citie haue ye also, and harneise,)
3 Looke which of your masters sonnes is best and most meete, & set him on his fathers seate, and fight for your lordes house.

4 But they were exceedingly afrayd, and said, See, two kings were not able to stand before him: how shall we then be able to stand?

5 And hee that was gouernour of Achabs house, and he that ruled the citie, the Elders also, and the tutours, sent to Jehu, saying, We are thy seruantes, and will doe all that thou shalt bid vs, we will make no man king: therefore do thou what seemeth good in thine eyes.

6 Then he wrote another letter to them, saying, If ye be mine, and will hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heads of the men that are your masters sonnes, and come to me to Jezrahel by to morowe this time: (and the kings sonnes were threescore and ten persons, and they were with the great men of the citie, which brought them vp.)

7 And when the letter came to thē, they tooke the kings children, and slew them, euen three score and ten persons, and layd their heads in baskets, and sent them to him to Jezrahel.

8 And there came a messenger, and tolde him, saying, They haue brought the heads of the kings sonnes. And he sayd, Let them lay them on two heapes in the entring in of the gate, vntill the morning.

9 And when it was day, he went out, & stoode, and sayd to all the folke, Ye be righteous: beholde, I conspired against my master, and slue him: But who slue all these?

10 Learne here, that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the worde of the Lorde, *which hee spake concerning the house of Achab: for the Lorde hath brought to passe the things that hee spake by the hand of his seruant Elias. *3.Kin.21.29.

11 And so Jehu slew all that remained of the house of Achab, in Jezrahel, and all that were great with him, and his kinsfolkes, and his priestes, so that he let nothing of him remaine.

12 And he arose, and departed, & came to Samaria: and when Jehu was in the way of the house where the shepeheards did sheare their sheepe, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahazia king of Juda, and said, What are ye? They answered, The brethren of Ahazia are we, and goe downe to salute the children of the king and of the queene.

14 And he said, Take them aliue. Whom whē they had taken aliue, they slew them at ẏ well which was beside the house where the sheepe are shorne, euen two and fourtie men, neither left he any of them.

15 And when he was departed thence, he met with Jonadab the sonne of Rechab, comming against him, and he blessed him, & said to him, Is thine heart right, as mine heart is true with thine? And Jonadab answered, Yea that it is. Then giue me thine hand. And when he had giuen him his hand, he tooke him vp to him into the charet, 16 And said, Come with me, and see my zeale that I haue for the Lorde. And so they made him ride in his charet.

17 And when he came to Samaria, he slew all that remained vnto Achab in Samaria, til he had destroyed him, according to the saying of the Lord which he spake to Elias.

18 *And Jehu gathered all the people together, and said vnto them, Achab serued [a] Baal a litle, but Jehu shall serue him more. *3.Kin.16.32. [a] Baal signifieth Master, the idol of the Sidonians, 1.Reg.16.

19 Now therefore, cal vnto me all the prophets of Baal, all such as serue him, and all his priests, and let none be lacking, for I haue a great sacrifice to doe to Baal, and therefore whosoeuer is missed, he shal not liue. But Jehu did it for a suttletie, to the intent that hee might destroy the seruants of Baal.

20 And Jehu said, ‡Proclaime an holy conuocation for Baal. And they proclaimed it. ‡Heb. Sanctifie.

21 And Jehu sent vnto all Israel, and all ẏ seruants of Baal came, that there was not a mā left behind that came not: and they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from the one end to another.

22 And he said vnto him that was the keeper of the vestrie, Bring foorth garments for all the seruants of Baal. And he brought them out garments.

23 And when Jehu went with Jonadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, hee said vnto the seruants of Baal, Search, and looke that there be heere with you none of the seruaunts of the Lorde, but the seruaunts of Baal onely.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifice & whole burnt offering, Jehu appointed foure score men without, and said to them, If any of the men whom I haue brought vnder your hands escape, he that letteth him goe, shall die for him.

25 And as soone as he had made an end of offering the whole burnt sacrifice, Jehu said to the men of warre, and to the captaines, Goe in, and slay them, let none come out. And they smote them with the edge of the sword, and the men of warre, and the captaines, cast them out, and went to the citie of the temple of Baal, 26 And fet the images out of ẏ temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake the image of Baal, & brake the house of Baal, and made a draught house of it, vnto this day.

28 And so Jehu destroyed Baal out of Israel.

29 But from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne, Jehu departed not frō them [neither from] the golden calues that were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lorde sayd vnto Jehu, Because thou hast done right wel in bringing to passe the thing that is right in mine eyes, and hast done vnto the house of Achab according to all 4.Reg.15.12. things that are in mine heart, * therefore shal thy children, vnto the fourth generation, sit on the seate of Israel.

31 But Jehu cared not for this, to walke in the law of the Lord God of Israel, with all his heart: for he departed not from the sinnes of Jeroboam, which made Israel to sinne.

32 In those dayes the Lord began to cut Israel short, and Hazael smote them in all ỳ coasts of Israel, 33 From Jordane Eastward, euen all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manasses, from Aroer (which is by the riuer Arnon) euen Gilead and Basan.

34 The rest of the wordes that concerne Jehu, and all that he did, and all his power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buried him in Samaria, and Joachas his sonne reigned in his stead.

36 And ỳ time that Jehu reigned vpon Israel in Samaria, is twentie and eight yeeres.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Athalia putteth to death all the kinges sonnes, except Ioas the sonne of Ochosias. 15 Iehoiada causeth Athalia to be slaine. 18 Baal and his priests are destroyed.

2.Chro.22.10. 1 AND * Athalia the mother of Ahazia, when she saw that her sonne was dead, she arose, and destroyed all the kings seede.

2 But Josaba the daughter of king Joram & sister of Ahazia, tooke Joas the sonne of Ahazia, & stale him from among the kings sonnes that were slaine, and his nurse with him in the bed chamber, and hid him from Athalia, that he was not slaine.

3 And he was with her hid in the house of the Lord sixe yeeres: and Athalia did reigne ouer the land.

4.Chro.23.1. 4 * And the seuenth yeere Jehoiada sent and fet the rulers ouer hundreds, with the captaines, and them of the gard, and tooke them to him into the house of the Lord, and made a bond with them, and tooke an othe of them in the house of the Lord, and shewed them the kings sonne.

5 And he commanded them, saying, This is it that ye must doe, One third part of you, whose duetie is to come in on the Sabboth day, shall keepe the watch of the kings house,

6 And another third part shall keepe the gate of Sur, & another third part shal keepe ỳ gate which is behind them of the garde: & so shall ye keepe the watch of the house of Messah.

7 And two partes of you, that is, all that goe out on ỳ Sabboth day, shal keepe the watch of the house of the Lord about the king.

8 And ye shal compasse the king round about, and euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand: and whosoeuer commeth within the ranges, let him be slaine: and see that ye bee with the king, as he goeth out and in.

9 And the captaines ouer the hundreds did according to all things that Jehoiada ỳ priest commanded: and they tooke euery man his men that were to come in on the Sabboth day, with them that should go out on ỳ Sabboth, and came to Jehoiada the priest.

10 And to the captaines ouer hundreds, did the priest giue king Dauids speares and shields, that were in the temple.

11 And they of the gard stoode, and euery man had his weapon in his hand, round about the king, from the right corner of the temple to the left, along by the altar and the temple.

12 And he brought out the kings sonne, & put the crowne vpon him, and deliuered him the *witnesse, and made him king, and anointed him, and they clapt their hands, and said, God saue the king.

a Meaning, the lawe of God.

13 And when Athalia heard the noyse of the running of the people, she came to the people into the temple of the Lord.

14 b And when she looked, beholde, the king stood by a pillar, as the maner was, & the singers, and the trumpetters by the king, and all the people of the land reioyced, and blewe with trumpets: and Athalia rent her clothes, and cried, Treason, treason.

b Where the kings place was in the temple.

15 But Jehoiada the priest, commaunded the captaines of the hundreds, that had the rule of the hoste, and sayde vnto them, Haue her foorth of the ‖ ranges, and if any follow her, kill him with the swoorde. For the priest had said, She may not bee slayne in the house of the Lord.

‖ Or, out of the temple.

16 And they laid hands on her, till she came into the way by the which the horses went into the kings palace, and there was she slaine.

17 And Jehoiada made a bond betweene the Lord, and the king, and the people, that they should be the Lordes people, & also betweene the king and the people.

18 And all the people of the land went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it, his altars also, and his images brake they downe lustily, and slew Mathan the priest of Baal, before the altars: and the priest set watch ouer the house of the Lord,

19 And tooke the rulers ouer hundreds, the captains, and them of the gard, & all the people of the land, and they brought the king from the house of the Lord, & came by the way of ỳ gate of them of the gard, to the kings palace, & he sate him downe on the seate of the kings.

20 And

20 And all the people of the land reioyced, and the citie was in quiet, and they slue Athalia with the sword, beside the kings palace.

21 Seuen yeeres olde was Ioas when he began to raigne.

The xii. Chapter.

6 Ioas maketh prouision for the repairing of the temple. 20 Ioas is killed by two of his seruants.

2.Chro.24.1. 1 AND * Ioas began to raigne in the seuenth yeere of Iehu, fourtie yeeres raigned he in Hierusalem, and his mothers name was Zebiah, of Beersheba.

2 And he did that which was good in ỹ sight of the Lord, as long as [a] Iehoiada the Priest enfourmed him.

a So long as rulers giue eare to the true ministers of God, they prosper.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offered, and burnt incense yet vpon the high places.

4 And Ioas sayd to the Priests, All the siluer of the dedicate things that be brought to the house of the Lord, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money that euery man with a willing heart giueth, & bringeth into the house of the Lord:

5 Let the Priests take it to them, euery man of his acquaintance, to repayre the broken places of the house, wheresoeuer any decay is found.

6 And so it came to passe, that vnto the three and twentieth yeere of king Ioas, the Priests had mended nothing that was decayed in the temple.

7 Thẽ king Ioas called for Iehoiada ỹ Priest, and the other Priests, and sayd vnto them, Why repaire ye not the broken places of the temple? now therefore see that ye receiue no more money of your acquaintance, except ye deliuer it to repaire the temple withall.

8 And the Priests consented to receiue no more money of the people, except to repaire the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the Priest tooke a chest, and bored a hole in the lid of it, and set it beside the altar, on the right side, as euery man cõmeth into the temple of the Lord, and the Priests that kept the vesselles, put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

10 And when they sawe there was much money in the chest, the kings scribe and the high Priest came vp, and tolde the money that was found in the house of the Lord, and put it into a bagge.

11 And they gaue the money sealed into the hands of them that executed the worke, and that had the ouersight of the house of ỹ Lord: and they brought it out to the Carpenters and builders that wrought vpon the house of the Lord, 12 And to Masons and hewers of stone: and they brought timber and free stone to repaire the decay in the house of the Lord, and to all that went out to mend the temple.

13 Howbeit, there was not made for the house of the Lord, bowles of siluer, instruments of musicke, basons, trumpets, or any vessels of golde, or vessels of siluer, of the money that was brought into the house of the Lord.

14 But they gaue that to the workemen, and repaired therewith the house of the Lord.

15 Moreouer, they reckoned not with the men, into whose hands they deliuered that money to bee bestowed on workemen: for they did their businesse vpon trust.

16 Howbeit, trespasse money, and sinne money, was not brought into the house of the Lord, for it was the priests.

17 Then came Hazael king of Syria vp, and fought against Geth, and tooke it: and Hazael set his face to goe vp to Hierusalem.

18 And Ioas king of Iuda, tooke all the halowed things that Iosaphat, Ioram, and Ahazia his fathers kings of Iuda had dedicate, and that he himselfe had dedicated, and all the gold that was found in the treasures of the house of the Lord, and in the kings house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria, and so he departed from Hierusalem.

19 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Ioas, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

20 And his owne seruants arose, and conspired, and slew Ioas in ‡ the house of Millo, in the way going downe to Silla: ‡ Beth Millo.

21 Iozachar the sonne of Semaah, and Iozabad the sonne of Somer, his seruants smote him, and he died: and they buried him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Amazia his sonne raigned in his stead.

The xiii. Chapter.

3 Ioachaz the sonne of Iehu is deliuered into the hands of the Syrians. 5 He prayeth vnto God, and is deliuered.

1 IN the three and twentieth yeere of Ioas the sonne of Ahazia king of Iuda, Ioachaz the sonne of Iehu began to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, seuenteene yeeres.

2 And hee wrought that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, and followed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

3 And the Lord was angry with Israel, and deliuered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, and into the hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, al their dayes.

4 And Ioachaz besought the Lorde, and the Lord heard him: for hee considered the trouble of Israel, wherewith the king of Syria troubled them.

5 (And the Lord gaue Israel a deliuerer, so that they went out from vnder the subiection of the Syrians: and the children of Israel dwelt in their tentes ‡ as before tyme.

‡ Hebr. As yesterday before yesterday.

6 Neuertheless, they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Ieroboam, which made Israel sinne, but walked in them: and there remained a groue still also in Samaria,

7 Neither did he leaue of the people to Ioachaz, but fiftie horsemen, tenne charets, and ten thousand footemen: for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them like thresshed dust.

8 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ioachaz, and all that he did, and his power, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

9 And Ioachaz slept with his fathers, & they buried him in Samaria, and Ioas his sonne reigned in his stead.

10 In the thirtie and seuenth yeere of Ioas king of Iuda, began Ioas the sonne of Ioachaz to reigne ouer Israel in Samaria, sixteene yeeres, 11 And did that which is euill in the sight of the Lord, and departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat, that made Israel sinne: for he walked therein.

12 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Ioas, and all that he did, & his power, wherewith he fought against Amazia king of Iuda, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Israel?

13 And Ioas slept with his fathers, and Ieroboam sate vpon his seate: and Ioas was buried in Samaria, among the kings of Israel.

14 When Elizeus was fallen sicke, of his sickenesse whereof hee died, Ioas the king of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept before him, and sayde, O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, and the horsemen of the same.

15 Elizeus sayd vnto him, Take bowe and arrowes. And he tooke vnto him bowe and arrowes.

16 And he said to the king of Israel, Put thine hand vpon the bowe. And he put his hand vpon it: and Elizeus put his hands vpon the kings hands, 17 And said, Open a windowe Eastward. And when he had opened it, Elizeus said, Shoote. And he shot. And hee sayde, The arrowe of health of the Lorde, and the arrowe of health against Syria: for thou shalt smite Syria in Aphec, till thou haue made an ende of them.

18 And he sayd, Take the arrowes. And hee tooke them. And hee sayde vnto the king of Israel, Smite ẏ ground. And he smote thrise, and ceased.

19 And the man of God was angry with him, and said, Thou shouldst haue smitten fiue or sixe times, and then thou haddest smitte Syria till thou haddest made an ende of them: where now thou shalt smite Syria but thrise.

20 And so Elizeus died, and they buried him: & the souldiers of the Moabites came into the land [a] the same yeere.

a Other read, the yere following, which best agree with the Hebrew.

21 And as they were burying a man, and spied the souldiers, they cast the man into the sepulchre of Elizeus: and when the man was rolled downe, * and touched the bones of Elizeus, he reuiued, and stoode vpon his feete.

Eccl. 48. 14.

22 But Hazael king of Syria, vexed Israel all the dayes of Ioachaz.

23 And the Lord had mercie on them, & pitied them, and had respect vnto them, because of his couenant made with Abraham, Isahac, & Iacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from him as yet.

24 So Hazael the king of Syria died, & Benhadad his sonne reigned in his stead.

25 And Ioas the sonne of Ioachaz went againe, and tooke out of the hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, the cities which he had taken away out of the hand of Ioachaz his father in warre: for three tymes did Ioas beate him, and restored the cities vnto Israel againe.

The xiiii. Chapter.

1 Amazia the king of Iuda putteth to death them that slew his father, 7 And after smiteth Edom.

1 THe * second yeere of Ioas sonne of Ioachaz king of Israel, reigned Amazia the sonne of Ioas king of Iuda.

1. Chro. 25. 1.

2 He was twentie and fiue yeeres olde when he began to reigne, & reigned twentie and nine yeres in Hierusalem: & his mothers name was Ioadan of Hierusalem.

3 And he did that which is good in the sight of the Lorde, yet not like Dauid his father: but did according to all things as Ioas his father did.

4 Neither were the high places taken away: for as yet the people did sacrifice, & burnt incense on the high places.

3 But walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea and made his sonne to goe thorowe the fire, after the abominations of the heathē, whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Israel.

6 At the same tyme Rezin king of Syria, brought Elath againe to Syria, and rid the Iewes thence: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt therein vnto this day.

7 So Achaz sent messengers to Theglah Phalasar king of Assyria, saying, I am thy seruant, and thy sonne, come vp, and deliuer me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise vp against me.

9 And the king of Assyria consented vnto him: for the king of Assyria went vp against Damascus, and when he had taken it, he caried the people away to Cir, and slew Rezin.

10 And king Achaz went to Damascus, to meete Theglah Phalasar king of Assyria, & when king Achaz saw an altar ẏ was at Damascus, he sent to Uria the priest the paterne of the altar, and the fashion of it, and all the workemanship thereof.

c There is no prince so wicked, but he shal find flatterers, and false ministers to serue his turne. 11 And Uria the priest made an altar, in c all pointes like to the paterne which king Achaz had sent from Damascus, euen so did Uria the priest make it, against king Achaz came from Damascus.

12 And so when the king was come from Damascus, he sawe the altar: and the king went to it, and offered thereon.

13 And he burnt his whole burnt offering, and his meate offering, and powred his drinke offering, and sprinckled the blood of his peace offerings beside the altar,

14 And ẏ brasen altar which was before the Lord, and set it without the temple, betweene the altar and the temple of the Lord, and put it on the North side of the altar.

15 And king Achaz commanded Uria ẏ priest, and said, Upon the great altar, set on fire in the morning the whole burnt offering, and in the Euen the meate offering, and the kings whole burnt sacrifice, and his meate offering, with the whole burnt offering of all the people of the land, and their meate offerings, and their drinke offerings, and powre thereby all the blood of the whole burnt offering, and all the blood of the sacrifice: and the brasen altar shall be at my will.

16 And Uria the priest did according to all things as king Achaz commanded him.

17 And king Achaz brake the sides of the bottomes, and tooke the lauer from them, & tooke downe the lauatorie from the brasen oxen that were vnder it, and put it vpon a pauement of stones.

18 And the paile for the Sabboth that they had made in the house, and the kings entrie without, turned he to the house of the Lorde, for feare of the king of Assyria.

The xvii. Chapter.

5 Hosea king of Israel is taken.

1 IN the twelfth yeere of Achaz king of Iuda, began Hosea the sonne of Elah to reigne in Samaria vpon Israel nine yeeres:

2 And did that which was euill in the sight of the Lorde, but not as the kings of Israel that were before him.

3 And Salmanasar king of Assyria came vp against him, and Hosea became his seruaunt, and gaue him ‖ presents.

4 And the king of Assyria found treason in Hosea: for hee had sent messengers to So king of Egypt, and brought no present vnto the king of Assyria from yeere to yeere: and therefore the king of Assyria shut him vp, and bound him in the prison house.

5 And then the king of Assyria came vp thorowout all the land, and gate vp against Samaria, and besieged it three yeeres.

4.King.18.10. 6 * In the ninth yeere of Hosea, the king of Assyria tooke Samaria, and caried Israel away vnto Assyria, and put them in Hala and in Habor by the riuer of Gozan, and in the cities of the * Medes.

* Or, that time the Assyrian Ambassadors lodged in the Inne.

7 For it came to passe, that the children of Israel sinned against the Lord their God, which had brought them out of the land of Egypt, from vnder the hand of Pharao king of Egypt, and feared other gods.

8 And they walked in the ceremonies of the heathen, whom the Lord cast out before the children of Israel, and [in the ceremonies] which the kings of Israel had made.

9 And the children of Israel went about to hide those things that were not well, from the Lorde their God: and they built them high places in al their cities, both in the towers where they kept watch, and also in the strong townes:

10 And they made them images and groues in euery high hill, and vnder euery ‡thicke tree:

‡Heb. greene.

11 And there they burnt incense in all the high places, as did the heathen whom the Lord caried away before them, and wrought wicked things to anger the Lord withall:

12 For they serued idols, whereof the Lord had said vnto them, Ye shall do no such thing.

13 And the Lord testified in Israel, and in Iuda, by all the prophets, and by all the seers, saying, *Turne from your wicked wayes, & keepe my commandements, & my statutes, according to all the law which I commanded your fathers, and which I sent to you by my seruants the prophets.

Iere. 25. 5.

14 Notwithstanding, they would not heare, but rather hardened their neckes, like to the stubburnnesse of their [b] fathers, that did not beleeue in the Lord their God.

b It is not safe to follow our fathers, except it may appeare they were godly.

15 For they refused his statutes, and his couenant that he made with their father, and the witnesses wherwith he witnessed vnto them, and they followed vanitie, and became vaine, and went after the heathen that were round about them, concerning whom the Lorde had charged them, that they should not doe like them.

16 But they left all the commaundements of the Lord their God, and made them images of mettall, euen two calues, and [made] groues, and worshipped all the [c] hoste of heauen, and serued Baal.

c That is, the sunne, and the moone, and the starres.

17 And they sacrificed their sonnes and their daughters in fire, and vsed witchcrafts, and enchantments, * euen selling themselues to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and to anger him.

Chap. 16. 3. 3. kin. 21. 25.

18 And the Lord was exceeding wroth with Israel, & put them out of his sight, that there was left but the tribe of Iuda onely.

19 Neuertheless, Iuda also kept not the commandements of the Lord their God, but walked in the ceremonies of Israel which they made.

20 And the Lord cast off all the seede of Israel, and vexed them, and deliuered them into the hands of spoilers, vntill he had cast them out of his sight:

22 For the children of Israel walked in all the sinnes of Ieroboam which he did, & departed not therefrom, 23 Untill the Lord put Israel away out of his sight, *as he had said by all his seruants the prophets: & so was Israel caried away out of their owne land to Assyria, euen vnto this day.

Iere. 25. 9.

24 And the king of Assyria brought men from Babylon, from [e] Cutha, from Ana, from Hamath, and from Sepharuaim, and put them in the cities of Samaria, in stead of the children of Israel, and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

e Of these people came the Samaritanes, of whom mention is made in the gospel.

25 And at ỹ beginning of their dwelling there, they feared not the Lord, and the Lord sent lions among them, which slew them.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast translated and put in the cities of Samaria, know not the lawe of the God of the lande: therefore hee hath sent lions vpon them, and beholde, they slay them, because they know not the maner of worshipping the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Cary thither one of the priests whom ye brought thence, and let him go & dwell there, and teach them the fashion how to serue the god of the countrey.

28 And then one of the priests, whom they had caried from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and taught them how they should feare the Lord.

29 Howbeit, euery nation made them gods of their owne, and put them in the houses of the high places which the Samaritanes had made, euery nation in their cities wherein they dwelt.

30 The men of Babylon made Socoth Benoth, and the men of Cuth made Nergal, and the men of Hamath made Asima.

31 The Auites made Nibbaz and Tharthac: and the Sepharuites burnt their children in fire to Adramelech, and Anamelech, the gods of Sepharuaim.

32 And so they feared the Lorde, and made them priestes of the basest of them, which sacrificed for them in the houses of the high places.

33 And so [f] they feared the Lord, & serued their owne gods, after the maner of the people whom they caried thence.

f We cannot worship God and idols.

34 And vnto this day they doe after the olde maner: and neither feare God, neither doe after their ordinances and customes, nor doe after the lawe and commaundement which the Lorde commanded the children of Iacob,

* whom

35 And the Lord made a couenant with them, and charged them, saying, Feare none other gods, nor bow your selues to them, nor serue them, nor sacrifice to them:

36 But feare the Lord, which brought you out of the land of Egypt, with great power, & a stretched out arme, him feare, and to him bowe, and to him doe sacrifice.

37 The statutes, ordinances, lawe, and commandement which he wrote for you, see that ye be diligent to doe for euermore, and feare not any other gods.

38 And the couenant that I haue made with you, see ye forget not, and feare none other gods:

39 But the Lorde your God ye shall feare, and he shall deliuer you out of the handes of all your enemies.

40 Howbeit, they did not hearken, but did after their olde custome.

41 And so these nations feared the Lorde, and serued their images also, like as did their children, and their childrens children: euen as did their fathers, so doe they vnto this day.

32 Till I come, and fet you to as good a lande as yours is, a land of corne and wine, a land of bread and Vineyardes, a lande of oyle, of Olive trees, and of honie, that ye may liue, and not die: and hearken not vnto Hezecia, for he beguileth you, ſaying, The Lorde ſhall deliuer vs.

33 Hath euery one of the goddes of the nations, deliuered his land out of the hand of the king of Aſſyria?

34 Where is the god of Hamath and of Arphad? and where is the god of Sepharuaim, Hena, and Iuah? Do they deliuer Samaria out of mine hand?

35 And what god is among all the goddes of the nations, that hath deliuered his lande out of mine hand? [d] Shall the Lord deliuer Hieruſalem out of mine hand?

[d] An execrable blaſphemie to compare dead idols, with the liuing God.

36 But the people helde their peace, and anſwered not him a word: for the king had commanded, ſaying, Anſwere him not.

37 Then Eliacim the ſonne of Elcia, which was the Steward of the houſhold, & Sobna the Scribe, and Joah the ſonne of Aſaph the Recorder, came to Hezecia with their clothes rent, and told him the wordes of Rabſaceh.

The xix. Chapter.

6 God promiſeth Eſai victorie to Hezecia.

1 AND it came to paſſe, * that when king Hezecia heard it, he rent his clothes, and put on ſackecloth, & came into the houſe of the Lorde, Eſai. 37. 1.

2 And ſent Eliacim, which was the Steward of the houſhold, and Sobna the Scribe, and the elders of the Prieſts, clothed in ſacke, to Eſai the prophet the ſonne of Amos.

3 And they ſaide vnto him, Thus ſayth Hezecia, This day is a day of tribulation, and of rebuke and blaſphemie: for the children are come to the birth, and there is no ſtrength to be deliuered.

4 Peraduenture the Lorde thy God will heare all the wordes of Rabſacch, whom the king of Aſſyria his maſter hath ſent to raile on the liuing God, and to rebuke him with wordes which the Lord thy God hath heard: and lift thou vp thy prayer for the remnant that are left.

5 So the ſeruants of king Hezecia came to Eſai.

6 And Eſai ſaid vnto them, So ſhall ye ſay to your maſter, Thus ſaieth the Lorde, Be not afraide of the wordes which thou haſt heard, with which the young men of the king of Aſſyria haue railed on me.

7 Behold, * I will ſend a blaſt vpon him, & he ſhal heare tidings, and ſo returne to his owne land, and I will bring to paſſe that he ſhal fall vpon the ſword, euen in his owne land. Eſai. 37. 9.

8 And Rabſaceh went backe againe, & founde the king of Aſſyria, fighting againſt Libna: for he had heard how that he was departed from Lachis.

9 And when he heard men ſay of Thirhacah king of Ethiopia, Beholde, he is come out to fight againſt thee: he departed, and ſent meſſengers vnto Hezecia, ſaying,

10 Thus ſpeake to Hezecia king of Juda, ſaying, Let not thy God deceiue thee, in whom thou truſteſt, ſaying, Hieruſalem ſhall not be deliuered into the hande of the king of Aſſyria.

11 Behold, thou haſt heard what ỹ kings of Aſſyria haue done to all lands, how they haue vterly deſtroyed them: and ſhalt thou eſcape?

12 Haue

12 Haue the goddes of the heathen deliuered them which mine auncestors haue destroyed: As Gozan, and Haran, & Rezeph, and the children of Eden, which were in Thelassar?
13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arphad, ỳ king of the citie of Sepharuaim, and of Hena, and Iua?
14 And Hezecia receiued the letter of the hand of the messengers, and read it: and Hezecia went vp into the house of the Lorde, and laide it abroade before the Lord.
15 And Hezecia[a] prayed before the Lorde, and said, O Lorde God of Israel, which dwellest betweene the Cherubims, thou art God alone ouer all the kingdomes of the earth, thou hast made heauen and earth.
16 Lorde, bow downe thine eare, and heare: open Lorde thine eyes, [I beseech thee,] and see: and heare the wordes of Sennacherib which hath sent [this man] to raile on the liuing God.
17 Of a trueth, Lord, the kings of Assyria haue destroyed nations and their landes, 18 And haue set fire on their goddes: for they were no goddes, but the worke of the handes of man, euen of wood and stone: and they destroyed them.
19 Now therefore, O Lord our God, I beseech thee, saue thou vs out of his hand, that all the kingdomes of the earth may know that thou onely art the Lord God.
20 And Esai the sonne of Amos sent to Hezecia, saying, Thus saieth the Lorde God of Israel, That which thou hast prayed me concerning Sennacherib king of Assyria, I haue heard it.
21 This is therefore the worde that the Lorde hath saide of him, [b] The Virgin, euen the daughter of Sion hath despised thee, and laughed thee to scorne [O thou king of Assyria] the daughter of Hierusalem hath shaken her head at thee.
22 Whom hast thou railed on? and whom hast thou blasphemed? Against whom hast thou exalted thy voyce, and lifted vp thine eyes so high? euen against the holy one of Israel.
23 By the hande of thy messengers thou hast railed on the Lord, and said, With the multitude of my charets, I am come vp to the toppes of the mountaines, along by the sides of Libanon, and I will cut downe the high Cedar trees, and the lustie Firre trees thereof: and I wil goe into the lodging of his borders, and into the wood of his Carmel.
24 I haue digged and drunke strange waters: and with the step of my going will I drie all the water pooles that are besieged.
25 Hast thou not heard howe I haue ordeined such a thing a great while agoe, and haue prepared it from the beginning? And shall I not nowe bring it forth, that it may destroy and bring strong cities into waste heapes of stones?
26 And the inhabiters of them shalbe of litle power, and faint hearted, and confounded, and shalbe like the grasse of the fielde, or greene hearbe, or as the hay on ỳ tops of the houses, or as the corne that is vnripe, and smitten with blasting.
27 I knowe thy dwelling, thy comming out, and thy going in, and thy furie against me.
28 And because thou rageste against me, and thy tumult is come vp to mine eares, I will put my hooke in thy nostrels, and my byt in thy lippes, and I will bring thee backe againe the same way thou camest.
29 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, O Hezecia, Ye shall eate this yeere of such things as growe of themselues, & the next yeere such as come vp of those that did growe of their owne accorde, and the third yeere sowe ye and reape, plant Vineyardes, and eate the fruites thereof.
30 And it that is escaped & left of the daughter of Iuda, shall yet againe take rooting downeward, and beare fruite vpward.
31 For out of Hierusalem shall goe a remnant and a number that shall escape out of mount Sion: the zeale of the Lorde of hostes shall bring this thing to passe.
32 Wherefore thus saieth the Lorde concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come to this citie, nor shoote an arrowe into it, nor come before it with shielde, nor cast a bancke against it:
33 But shal goe backe againe the way he came, and shall not come into this citie, saieth the Lorde.
34 For I will defende this citie, to saue it, for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.
35 And the selfe same night the * angel of the Lord went out, & smote in the host of the Assyrians an hundred fourescore & fiue thousand: and when the remnant were vp earely in the morning, behold they were all dead coarses. Tob. 1. 21.
36 And so Sennacherib king of Assyria auoyded, and departed, and went againe and dwelt at Niniue.
37 And as he was in a temple worshipping Nisroch his god, Adramelech and Sareser his owne sonnes [c] smote him with the sworde: and they escaped into the lande of Armenia, and Asarhaddon his sonne reigned in his steade.

a It is ỳ true refuge & succour in al dangers, to flee vnto the Lorde by earnest prayer.

b Hierusalem is called Virgin, because as yet it had not bene taken by the enemie.

c This was a iust iudgement of God for his blasphemie, & he shoulde be slaine before ỳ idol which he preferred before the liuing God: and by them by whō he ought by nature to haue bene defended.

The xx. Chapter.

1 Hezecia being sicke, 7 receiueth the signe of his health.

1 ABout * that time was Hezecia sicke vnto death: and the prophet Esai the sonne of Amos came to him, and layd vnto him, Thus saieth the Lorde, Put thine 2. Chro. 32. 24. Esai. 38. 1.

thine houshold in an order, for thou shalt die, and not liue.

2 And Hezecia turned his face to the wal, and prayed vnto the Lord, saying,

3 I beseech thee, O Lord, remember now how I haue walked before thee in trueth, & with a perfect heart, & haue done that which is good in thy sight: And Hezecia wept sore.

4 And afore Esai was gone out into the middle of the court, the worde of the Lorde came to him, saying,

5 Turne againe, and tel Hezecia the captaine of my people, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Dauid thy father, [a] I haue heard thy prayer, and seene thy teares, and beholde, I will heale thee, so that on the thirde day thou shalt goe vp vnto the house of the Lord:

a God is mooued with true prayer and vnfeigned repentance.

6 And I will adde vnto thy dayes yet fifteene yeeres, and I will deliuer thee and this citie out of the hand of the king of Assyria, & will defend this citie, for mine owne sake, and for Dauid my seruants sake.

7 And Esai said, Take a lump of dried figges. And they tooke and laide it on the sore, and he recouered.

8 And Hezecia saide vnto Esai, What shall be the signe that the Lorde will heale me, and that I shall goe vp into the house of the Lord the thirde day?

9 Esai answered, This signe shalt thou haue of the Lord, that the Lord wil doe that he hath spoken: shall the shadowe goe forwarde ten degrees? or goe backe againe ten degrees?

10 Hezecia answered, It is a light thing for the shadowe to goe downe ten degrees, I desire not [that:] but let the shadowe goe backward ten degrees.

11 And Esai the prophet called vnto the Lord, and he brought the shadow ten degrees backwarde, by which it had gone downe in the Dial of Achaz.

Esai. 39.1. 12 The same season *Berodach Baladan, the sonne of Baladan king of Babylon, sent letters and a present vnto Hezecia: for he had heard how that Hezecia was sicke.

‡ Heb. heard them. 13 And Hezecia ‡ was glad of them, & shewed them all his treasure house, siluer, golde, odours, precious ointment, all the house of his armorie, & al that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, and in all his realme, that Hezecia shewed them not.

14 And Esai the prophet came vnto king Hezecia, and saide vnto him, What saide these men? and from whence came they vnto thee? And Hezecia said, They be come from a farre countrey, euen from Babylon.

15 And he saide againe, What haue they seene in thine house? Hezecia answered, All the things that are in my house haue they seene: there is nothing among my treasures, that I haue not shewed them.

16 And Esai said vnto Hezecia, Heare the word of the Lord.

17 Beholde, the dayes come, that all that is in thine house, and whatsoeuer thy fathers haue laide vp in store vnto this day, shalbe caryed into Babylon: * and nothing shalbe left, saith the Lord. Iere. 20. 17.

18 And of thy sonnes that shall proceede out of thee, and which thou shalt beget, shall they take away, and they shalbe chamberlaines in the palace of the king of Babylon.

19 And Hezecia said vnto Esai, [b] Welcome be the word of the Lord, which thou hast spoken. And he saide, Shall there not be peace and trueth in my dayes?

b He humbleth himselfe vnto the word of the prophet.

20 The remnant of the wordes that concerne Hezecia, and all his power, and how he made a poole and a conduite, & brought water into the citie, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

21 And Hezecia slept with his fathers, and Manasse his sonne reigned in his steade.

The xxi. Chapter.

3 King Manasse restoreth idolatrie, 16 and vseth great cruelte.

1 MAnasse was *twelue yeeres old when he began to reigne, and reigned fiftie and fiue yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Hephziba. 2. Chro. 33. 1.

2 And he did euill in the sight of the Lorde, euen after the abominations of the heathen, whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Israel.

3 For he went and built vp the high places, which Hezetia his father had destroyed, & he reared vp altars for Baal, and made groues, as did Achab king of Israel, and worshipped all the host of heauen, and serued them.

4 *And he built altars in the house of ỹ Lord, of which the Lord saide, In Hierusalem will I put my name. 2. Sam. 7. 10. iere. 32. 34.

5 *And he built altars for all the host of heauen, [euen] in two courtes of the house of the Lorde. Chap. 16. 3.

6 And he offered his owne sonne in fire, and gaue heede vnto witchcrafte and sorcerie, and maintayned workers with spirites, and tellers of fortunes, and wrought much wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, to anger him.

7 *And he put an image of a groue that hee had made, in the temple, of which the Lorde saide to Dauid and Solomon his sonne, In this house, and in Hierusalem, which I haue chosen out of all tribes of Israel, will I put my name for euer, 3. King. 9. 3.

8 Neyther will I make the feete of Israel moue any more out of the lande which I gaue their fathers: so that they will obserue and doe all that I haue commanded them, and according to all the law, that my seruant Moses Moses commanded them.

9 But they hearkened not: and Manasse led them out of the way, to doe more wickedly then did the heathen people, whom the Lorde destroyed before the children of Israel.

10 And the Lorde spake by his seruantes the prophets, saying,

Iere. 15.4. 11 *Because Manasse king of Juda hath done such abominations, and hath wrought more wickedly then all the Amorites which were before him did, and hath made Juda sinne also with his idols:

12 Therefore thus saith the Lorde God of Israel, Behold, I will bring such euill vpon Hierusalem and Juda, that who so heareth of it, both his eares shall ‡tingle.

‡ Be astonished.

13 And I will stretche ouer Hierusalem the squaring line of a Samaria, and the plummet of the house of Achab: and I will wipe out Hierusalem, as a man wipeth a dishe, and when he hath wiped it, turneth it vpside downe.

a As I haue destroyed Samaria and the house of Achab: so will I destroy Juda.

14 And I will leaue the b remnant of mine inheritance, and deliuer them into the hand of their enemies, & they shalbe robbed and spoyled of all their aduersaries:

b Meaning, Juda & Benjamin.

15 Because they haue done euill in my sight, & haue angred me since the time their fathers came out of Egypt, vnto this day.

16 And Manasse c shed innocent blood exceeding much, till he replenished Hierusalem from corner to corner, beside his sinne wherewith he made Juda to sinne, and to doe euill in the sight of the Lord.

c The Hebrues write that he slue Esaias the prophet.

17 The rest of the wordes that concerne Manasse, & all that he did, and his sinne that he sinned, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

18 And Manasse slept with his fathers, and was buried in the garden of his owne house, euen in the garden of Oza, and Amon his sonne reigned in his steade.

19 Amon was twentie and two yeeres olde when he began to reigne, and he reigned two yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Meshullemeth, the daughter of Haruz of Jotbah.

20 And he did euill in the sight of the Lorde, as his father Manasse did:

21 And walked in all the way that his father walked in, and serued the idols that his father serued, and worshipped them:

22 And he forsooke the Lorde God of his fathers, and walked not in the way of the Lord.

23 And the seruantes of Amon conspyred against him, and slue the king in his owne house.

24 And the people of the lande slue all them that had conspired against king Amon, and the people made Josia his sonne king in his steade.

25 The rest of the wordes that concerne Amon, what things he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Juda?

26 And ‖ they buryed him in his sepulchre, in the garden of Oza, and Josia his sonne reigned in his steade.

‖ Or, he (to wit Iosia his sonne.)

The xxii. Chapter.

4 Iosia repayreth the temple. 8 Helcia findeth the booke of the lawe, and causeth it to be presented to Iosia, 14 who sendeth to Hulda the prophetisse to enquire the Lordes will.

1 IOsia was eight yeeres olde when he began to reigne, *and he reigned thirtie and one yeeres in Hierusalem: his mothers name also was Jedida, the daughter of Adaia of Boscath.

2. Chro. 34.1.

2 He did that which is right in the sight of the Lord, & walked in al the wayes of Dauid his father, and a bowed neither to the right hand, nor to the left.

a His zeale was prophesied of, and his name mentioned by Iddo the prophet, more then three hundred yeeres before, 3 king. 13. and being but eight yeeres old, he sought b God of his father Dauid, 2. Chro. 34.

3 And in the eyghteene yeere of the reigne of king Josia, the king sent Saphan the sonne of Asalia, the sonne of Meshulam the scribe, to the house of the Lord, saying,

4 Goe vp to Helcia the high priest, that he may summe the siluer which is brought into the house of the Lorde, which the keepers of the porche haue gathered of the people:

5 And let them deliuer it into the hande of them that doe the worke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lorde: and let them giue it to them that worke in the house of the Lord, to repaire the decayed places of the temple.

6 Euen vnto carpenters and masons, and workers vpon the walles, and for to buy timber and free stone, to repaire the temple.

7 Howbeit, let no reckoning be made with them, of ỹ money that is deliuered into their hand, but let them doe it vpon trust.

8 And Helcia ỹ high priest said vnto Saphan the scribe, b I haue founde the booke of the lawe in the house of the Lorde. And Helcia gaue the booke to Saphan, and he read it.

b This was the copy that Moses left the, as appeareth, 2. Chr. 34. which either by the negligence of the priestes had bene lost: or els by the wicked nesse of the idolatrous kings had bene abolished.

9 And Saphan the scribe came to the king, & brought him word againe, and said, Thy seruantes haue *gathered the money that was found in the temple, and haue deliuered it vnto them that doe the worke, and that haue the ouersight of the house of the Lord.

10 And Saphan the scribe shewed ỹ king, saying, Helcia the priest hath deliuered me a booke: and Saphan read it before the king.

11 And when the king had heard the wordes of the booke of the lawe, he rent his clothes.

12 And the king commanded Helcia the priest, and Ahicam the sonne of Saphan, and Achbor the sonne of Michaia, and Saphan the scribe, and Asahia a seruant of the kings, saying, ‡ Heb. melted.

13 Goe ye, and enquire of the Lord for me, and for the people, and for all Juda, concerning the wordes of this booke that is founde: for great is the wrath of the Lorde that is kindled against vs, because our fathers haue not hearkened vnto the wordes of this booke, to to doe according vnto all that which is written therein for vs.

14 So Helcia the high priest, and Ahicam, Achbor, and Saphan, and Asahia, went vnto Hulda the prophetesse, the wife of Sallum the sonne of Thicua, the sonne of Harhas, keeper of the wardrobe: (which prophetesse dwelt in Hierusalem in the [c] house of the doctrine) and they communed with her.

15 And she answered them, Thus saieth the Lorde God of Israel, Tell the man that sent you to me,

16 Thus saieth the Lord, Beholde, I will bring euill vpon this place, and on the inhabiters thereof, euen al the wordes of the booke which the king of Juda hath read:

17 Because they haue forsaken me, and haue burnt incense vnto other goddes, to anger me withall, the [d] workes of their handes: my wrath also shalbe kindled against this place, and shall not be quenched.

18 But to the king of Juda, which sent you to aske counsell of the Lord, so shal ye say, Thus saieth the Lorde God of Israel, as touching the wordes which ye haue heard:

19 Because thine heart did [e] melt, and because thou hast humbled thy selfe before the Lord, whē thou heardest what I spake against this place, and against the inhabiters of the same, how that they should be destroyed and accursed: & hast rent thy clothes, and wept before me, I also haue heard [it] sayth the Lorde.

20 Beholde therefore, I will receiue thee vnto thy fathers, & thou shalt be put into thy graue in peace, and thine eyes shall not see all the euill which I wil bring vpon this place. And they brought the king word againe.

c Or the College which was neare to the temple, and where the learned assembled to intreate of the scriptures and doctrine of the prophets.

d The workes of mans hand here signifieth all that man inuenteth beside the worde of God, which are abominable in Gods seruice.

e Meaning, that he did repent.

The xxiii. Chapter.

Iosias readeth the lawe before the people. 3 He maketh a couenant with the Lord. 4 He putteth downe the idols after he had killed their priests. 22 He keepeth the Passeouer. 24 He destroyeth the Coniurers. 29 He was killed in Megiddo. 30 And his sonne Ioachas reigned in his steade. 33 After he was taken, his sonne Ioachim was made king.

2.Chro.34.30. 1 AND then the king sent, * & there gathered vnto him al the elders of Juda and of Hierusalem.

2 And the king went vp into the house of the Lorde, with all the men of Juda, and all the inhabiters of Hierusalem, with the priests and prophets, and all the people both small and great: and he read in the eares of them all, the wordes of the booke of the couenant which was founde in the house of the Lorde.

3 And the king [a] stoode by a pillar, and made a couenant before the Lord, that they shoulde walke after the Lord, and keepe his commandements, his witnesses, and his statutes, with all their heart, and all their soule, and make good the wordes of the saide couenant, that were written in the foresaide booke: and all the people consented to the couenant.

a Where the king had his place, 2.King.11.

4 [b] And the king commanded Helcia the high priest, and the inferiour priests, and the ‖ keepers of the ornaments, to bring out of ỹ temple of the Lord all the vessels that were made for Baal, for the groues, and for all the host of heauen: and he burnt them without Hierusalem in the fieldes of Cedron, and carryed the ashes of them into Bethel.

b King Iosias zealously purgeth the temple of God, & destroyeth all ỹ monuments of idolatrie & superstition. ‖ Or, doore keepers.

5 And he put downe the priests [of Baal] whō the kings of Juda had founded to burne incense in the high places and cities of Juda, that were round about Hierusalem, and also them that burnt incense vnto Baal, to the sunne, to the moone, to the planets, and to all the host of heauen.

6 And he [c] brought out the groue from ỹ temple of the Lord, without Hierusalem, vnto the brooke Cedron, and burnt it there at ỹ brooke Cedron, and stampt it to pouder, and cast the dust thereof vpon the [d] graues of the children of the people.

c He remooued that grone which idolaters for deuotion had planted neare to ỹ temple, contrary to the commandements of the Lord, Deut.16. or as some reade, the similitude of a groue which was hanged in the temple.

7 And he brake downe the celles of the male stewes ỹ were by the house of the Lord, where the women woue hangings for the groue.

d Both in contempt of the idols, and reproche of them which had worshipped them in their liues.

8 And he brought all the priests out of the cities of Juda, & defiled the high places where the priests had burnt incense, euen from Geba to Beersheba, and destroyed the high places of the gates that were in ỹ entring in of the gate of Iosua the gouernour of the citie, which were on the left hand [as a man goeth in] to the gate of the citie.

9 [e] Neuertheless, the priests of the high places came not vp to the altar of the Lorde in Hierusalem, saue onely they did eate of the sweete bread among their brethren.

e Iosias thought not meete that those priests which had serued idols, should be ministers in the tẽple of God, Jerem.7.

10 And he defiled Thopheth, which is in ỹ valley of the children of Hinnom, because no man should offer his sonne or his daughter in fire to Moloch.

11 He put downe the horses that the kings of Juda had giuen to the sunne, at the entring in of the house of the Lord, by the chamber of Nathanmelech the chamberlaine, which was ruler of the suburbes, and burnt the charets of the sunne with fire.

12 And the altars that were on the top of ỹ parlour of Achaz, which the kings of Juda had made, & the altars which Manasse had made in the two courtes of the house of the Lorde, did the king breake downe, & ran thence, and cast the dust of them into the brooke Cedron.

13 And the high places that were before Hieru-

Hierusalem, on the right hand of the mount f A mount that was full of Idols. 3.King.11.7. f Oliuet, * which Solomon the king of Israel had builded for Astoreth, the abomination of the Sidons, and for Chamos, the abomination of the Moabites, and for Milchom, the abomination of the children of Ammon, those the king defiled:

14 And brake the images, and cut downe the groues, and filled their places with the bones of men.

3.King.12.28. 15 * Moreouer, the altar that was at Bethel, the high places made by Ieroboam ẏ sonne of Nabat, which made Israel sinne, both the altar and also the high place he brake downe, and burnt the high place, and stampt it to pouder, and burnt the groue.

16 And as Iosia turned himselfe, he spied the graues that were in the mount, and sent & fet the bones out of the graues, & burnt them vpon the altar, to pollute it, according to the worde of the Lorde that the man of God proclaimed, which told the same wordes.

17 Then he said, What title is that that I see? and the men of the citie tolde him, * It is the 3.King.13.2. sepulchre of the man of God, which came frō Iuda, and tolde the selfe same things that thou hast done to the altar of Bethel.

18 And he said, Let him alone: see that no man moue his bones. And so his bones were saued, with the bones of a prophet that came out of Samaria.

19 And all the houses of the hygh places in the cities of Samaria, which the king of Israel had made to anger [the Lorde withall,] those Iosia put out of the way, and did to them according to all the actes that he had done in Bethel.

20 And he sacrificed all the priestes of the high places that were there, vpon the altars, and burnt mens bones vpon them, and returned to Hierusalem.

2.Chro.35.1. 3.esd.1.1. 21 * And the king commanded all the people, saying, Keepe the feast of Passeouer vnto the Lorde your God, as it is written in the booke of this couenant.

22 There was no Passeouer holden like that, from the dayes of the iudges that iudged Israel, and in all the dayes of the kings of Israel, and of the kings of Iuda.

23 In the eyghteene yeere of king Iosia, was this Passouer holden to the Lorde in Hierusalem.

24 And moreouer, workers with spirites, and soothsayers, images, idols, & all the abominations that were spyed in the land of Iuda, & in Hierusalem, those did Iosia put out of the way, to perfourme the wordes of the lawe, which were written in the Booke that Helchia the priest founde in the house of the Lorde.

25 Like vnto him was there no king before him, that turned to ẏ Lord with all his heart, with all his soule, and all his might, according to all the lawe of Moses, neither after him arose there any such as he.

26 Notwithstanding, the Lorde turned not from the fiercenes of his great wrath, wherewith he was angry against Iuda, because of all the prouocations that Manasse had prouoked him withall.

27 And the Lord said, I will put Iuda also out of my sight, as I haue done away Israel, and will cast off this citie Hierusalem, which I haue chosen, and the house of which I saide, My name shall be there.

28 The rest of the wordes that concerne Iosia, and all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the Chronicles of the kings of Iuda?

29 * In his dayes Pharao Necho king of E- 2.Chro.35.20. gypt, went vp against the king of Assyria to the riuer of Euphrates: & king Iosia went against him, and was slaine of him at Megiddo, when he had seene him.

The xxv. Chapter.

1 Hierusalem is besieged of Nabuchodonosor, and taken. 7 The sonnes of Zedecia are slaine before his eyes, and after, his owne eyes put out.

1 AND in the * nynth yeere of his reigne, the tenth day of the tenth moneth, Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon came, he, and all his hoste, against Hierusalem, and pitched against it, and made engins against it, on euery side. Iere. 39. 1. and 52. 4.

2 And the citie was besieged vnto the eleuenth yeere of king Zedecia.

3 And the ninth day of the moneth, there was so great a hunger in the citie, that there was no bread for the people of the land.

4 And the citie was broken vp, and al the men of armes [fled] by night, by a way through a gate [which is] betweene two walles by the kings garden (the Chaldees lying about the citie) and the king went the way toward the plaine.

5 And the souldiers of the Chaldees followed after the king, and tooke him in the plaine of Jericho: and all his armie were scattered away from him.

6 So they tooke the king, and brought him to [Nabuchodonosor] the king of Babylon, to Ribla, where they gaue iudgement vpon him.

7 And they slue the sonnes of Zedecia before his eyes, and he put out the eyes of Zedecia, and fettered him with chaines, & caried him to Babylon.

8 And the seuenth day of ỹ fifth moneth (which is ỹ nineteenth yeere of king Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon) came Nabuzaradan, a seruant of the king of Babylon, & chiefe captaine of the men of warre, vnto Hierusalem:

9 And

9 And burnt the house of the Lord, & the kings house, and all the houses of Hierusalem, and all great houses burnt he with fire.
10 And all the souldiers of the Chaldees that were with the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, brake downe the walles of Hierusalem round about.
11 But the rest of the people that were left in the citie, and them that were fled to the king of Babylon, with the remnant of the commõ people, did Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, cary away.
12 But the captaine of the souldiers left of the poore of the land to dresse the vines, and to till the ground.
13 And the pillars of brasse that were in the house of the Lorde, and the sockets, and the brasen lauatorie that was in the house of the Lord, did the Chaldees breake, and caried all the brasse of them to Babylon.
14 And the pots, shouels, instruments of musicke, spoones, and all the vessels of brasse that they ministred in, tooke they away,
15 And the firepannes, and basons, and such things as were of gold & of siluer, them tooke the chiefe captaine away:
16 Euen two pillars, one lauatorie, and the sockets which Solomon had made for the house of the Lord: the brasse of all these vessels was without weight.
17 * The height of the one pillar was eighteene cubites, and the pommell thereof was brasse: and the height of the pommel was with wreathen worke three cubites, and pomegranates vpon the pommell rounde about, all of brasse: and of the same fashion was the second pillar, with a wreathen worke.
18 And the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, tooke Saraia the chiefe priest, and Zephoniah the high priest saue one, and the three keepers of the holy things:
19 And out of the citie he tooke a chamberlaine, that had the ouerlight of the men of warre, & fiue men of them that were euer in the kings presence, which were founde in the citie, and him that was scribe to the captaine of ỹ host, which brought out the people of the lande to warre, and threescore men of the people of the land that were found in the citie.
20 And Nabuzaradan the chiefe captaine of the men of warre, tooke these, and brought them to the king of Babylon, to Ribla.
21 And the king of Babylon smote them, and slue them at Ribla in the land of Hamath: and so Juda was caried away out of their land.
22 * Howbeit, there remayned people in the land of Juda, whome Nabuchodonosor king of Babylon left, and made Gedalia the sonne of Ahicam, the sonne of Saphan, ruler ouer them.
23 And all the captaines of the souldiers, they, and theirs, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedalia gouernour, & there came to Gedalia to Mispah, Ismael the sonne of Nathania, Johanan the sonne of Carea, Saraia the sonne of Thanhumeth the Netophatite, and Jaazania the sonne of Maachati; they, and their men.
24 And Gedalia sware to them, and to the men whom they had with them, and sayd vnto thẽ, ‖ Feare not ye to be the seruants of the Chaldees: dwell in the lande, and serue the king of Babylon, and ye shall be well.
25 But in the seuenth moneth, Ismael ỹ sonne of Nathania, the sonne of Elisama, of ỹ kings blood, came, and tenne men with him, and smote Gedalia, that he dyed: and so did he the Jewes and the Chaldees that were with him at Mispah.
26 And all the people both small and great, and the captaines of warre, arose, and came to Egypt: for they were afraide of the Chaldees.
27 Notwithstanding, yet in the seuen and thirtieth yeere after Joachin king of Juda was caryed away, the seuen and twentieth day of the twelfth moneth, Euilmerodach king of Babylon, the same yeere that he beganne to raigne, did lift vp the head of Joachin king of Juda out of prison,
28 And spake kindely to him, and set his seate aboue the seate of the kings that were with him in Babylon, 29 And changed his prison garmentes, and he did euer eate bread before him all the dayes of his life.
30 His portion was a continuall portion that was alligned him of the king, euery day a certaine, as long as he liued.

‖ Or, be ye not afrayde of the seruants of the Chaldees.
